The building was a three story frame structure formerly used as a church, but transformed into a tenement house with small rooms, scarcely 8 by 10 feet in dimensions, opening into a narrow hallway on both the second and third floors, forming a veritable fire trap.

This was right in the heart of the Italian district, and the greatest excitement prevailed. This feeling was greatly intensified when it first became known that the fire was of incendiary origin, and within 15 minutes of the time when this report was first circulated men and women, well nigh crazed by grief, ran tearing around the streets looking for the man who was responsible for the frightful tragedy and threatening all sorts of dire vengeance.

Three of four minutes after 5 o'clock smoke was seen pouring out of one of the second story front rooms. Some one on the streets saw this evidence of fire and hurried to an alarm box.

But long before the fire apparatus reached the scene the interior of the burning tenement was peopled with wild Italians, running hither and thither, unable to find means of escape.

Every room emptied its occupants into those narrow little halls, and there was no escape for the frightened tenants because of the jam, and they could not get out.

Nearly every room in the house contained its victim. Few were really burned to death. Most of them were smothered to death. The bodies were carried out by the firemen.

The police are confident that the fire was of incendiary origin, and they have arrested Vito Credanza on suspicion. Virginius de Prula and Joseph Frenig are being held by the police as witnesses.

Another Arrest In Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, March 13.—Another arrest for complicity in the Goebel assassination was made yesterday afternoon at the Central Kentucky Asylum For the Insane at Lakeland, 12 miles east of Louisville, when W. L. Hazelipp of Barren county, steward of the asylum, was arrested. He was brought to Louisville and placed in the county jail, which now contains five of the prisoners. It is charged against Hazelipp that some of the mountaineers were quartered there and made trips to Frankfort every day, returning in the evening. Of the several men who were quartered there it is said one was the assassin and that nearly all the suspected men had been detailed for the shooting, the one having the most favorable opportunity to do the work.

Goebel's Remains Buried.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 13.—The remains of Governor William Goebel were yesterday afternoon taken from the chapel where they have been under guard since Feb. 8 and buried in the plot of ground west of the capital on the brow of the hill overlooking the Kentucky river. The services were brief, consisting simply of a prayer and singing. Members of the legislature attended in a body. The spot selected for the interment is the highest piece of ground in the cemetery, and the monument to be erected there will easily be seen from all over the city.

A Fight at Aparri.

MANILA, March 13.—Advices received from Aparri, province of Cagayan, say that while Major Ward and a company of the Sixteenth regiment were leaving that place they were attacked at the landing on the river bank opposite the town. A persistent fight followed, resulting in eight Americans, including Major Ward, being wounded. The natives in the Cagayan valley presumably instigated the attack. The Tagalogs are harassing the Americans.

Accidentally Shot.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 13.—Mrs. James Baker, wife of a gardener at Tuxedo Park, is dead as the result of bullet wounds accidentally inflicted by her husband. Baker was loading a revolver in preparation for his wife to scare away tramps. The woman made an ante mortem statement exonerating her husband.

Former Insurance Official Dead.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Daniel F. Fernald, aged 81, a former manager and vice president of the Phoenix Fire Insurance company of Brooklyn, is dead of pneumonia at his home in Brooklyn. He was a native of Portsmouth, N. H. When the Montauk Insurance company was in existence up to 1888, he was its president.

Provisions For British Troops.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The steamship Victoria has sailed from Brooklyn for Cape Town with a cargo consisting of 5,000 tons of oats, 1,000 tons of rails and two tons of provisions consigned to the British forces in South Africa.

Watch Your Kidneys!

They are Filters For the Blood. Impure Blood Causes Disease.

Few people understand the important part performed by the kidneys in filtering the blood. As the blood in its circulation through the body passes through the kidneys, its impurity is left in the kidneys, which in turn empties the secretions into the bladder in the form of urine.

If the kidneys are blocked and filtration of the blood from poisonous or diseased germs is prevented thereby, the result is one or all of the following: Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Weak Back, Pains in the Back and Loins, Scalding Dark and Cloudy Urine, Dizziness, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Congestion of the Kidneys, Bright's Disease and Inflammation of the Bladder.

Unhealthy Kidneys Must Be Treated

A medicine is needed that will properly promote the filtration of the blood and check the over-secretion of urine.

Lord Roberts' Force Nearing Bloemfontein.

BOERS POSTED ON THE WRONG ROAD

England Will Tolerate No Foreign Intervention—To Accept Nothing Short of Complete Surrender on the Part of the Boers.

LONDON, March 13.—Lord Roberts is making a very rapid advance, and he is again misleading the Boers by continuing his advance southward instead of through the flat country due east of Aasvogel kop. He will probably seize the railway south of Bloemfontein, and although another battle is possible it is more likely that the Boers are only endeavoring to delay his advance until all the rolling stock of the railway and the stores and troops from the Orange river district can be got away north.

Such confidence is now felt in the military operations that interest rather centers in the political aspects of the war. The Daily News quotes Mr. Whitelaw Reid as saying in a private letter:

"I give you hearty congratulations on the changed aspect of the war. It is an immense relief to us all as well as to you."

"This view," says The Daily News, "is welcome, as expressing an unusual measure of authority enlightened public feeling in the United States."

Except in the case of Germany, the replies of the powers to the Boer appeals for intervention are not yet known publicly here, but it is quite certain that Austria-Hungary and Italy will decline to interfere, and there is no apprehension that anything will come of the overtures of the two republics.

All the morning papers take the line that the government will decline to open negotiations with the Boer republics except upon the basis of complete surrender and will also make it perfectly clear that nothing in the shape of foreign intervention will be tolerated. The Standard says:

"There is an idea in some quarters that on arriving at Bloemfontein Lord Roberts will issue a proclamation which will leave little doubt as to the future of the republics."

The Times says:

"President Kruger and President Steyn should have counted the cost before they made war. They played for a great stake and have lost. Until they are ready for unconditional surrender they may save themselves the trouble of sending communications to her majesty's government.

"We are glad to see that it is understood in the United States as well as on the continent that any proffer of mediation will be distinctly repugnant to this country."

The Daily News has the following dispatch, dated Monday evening, March 12, from Venter's vlei:

"We left Aasvogel kop this morning, preceded by cavalry, and marched here, a distance of about 15 miles. The army has been following Kaal spruit, and we are now rather to the south of Bloemfontein and only about 12 miles off.

"All the divisions have now joined the main advance. Lord Roberts' headquarters are at Gregorowski's farm. You will remember that the 'reform prisoners' were tried before Judge Gregorowski.

"By advancing along Kaal spruit Lord Roberts has again outwitted the Boers, who had intrenched themselves along the Modder, thinking that our route would be in that direction. We found most of the farms along our line of march deserted, with white flags flying over the houses. All the belongings worth removal had been taken away, and there were evident signs that the occupants left in a great hurry, things being littered about. The commander in chief has given strict orders that nothing is to be touched. It is not expected that we shall meet with great opposition in entering Bloemfontein."

A Visit to Cronje.

CAPE TOWN, March 13.—Mr. James G. Stowe, United States consul general here, has paid a visit to General Cronje at the latter's request on board the British cruiser Doris. They conversed with the aid of an interpreter. General Cronje expressed great satisfaction with his surroundings and with the treatment he had received at the hands of the British. Mr. Stowe also visited the camp where the Boer prisoners are at Simonstown. He was shown where they had excavated a tunnel for a distance of 25 yards with tin dishes and cups. If the tunnel had been continued another dozen yards their escape would have been possible. One of the prisoners gave information of the plot.

Boer Advocates Mobbed.

SCARBOROUGH, England, March 13.—Mr. Cronwright-Schreiner, husband of Olive Schreiner, and other advocates of the Boer cause were invited to dine here last evening at a restaurant belonging to the firm of Mr. Rowntree, a former member of the house of commons. When the fact became known, a hostile and continually growing crowd gathered outside and began to sing patriotic songs. Finally an attack was made upon the restaurant, the crowd wrecking its elaborate front. Messrs. Cronwright-Schreiner and Rowntree were compelled to escape by a side door and were badly hustled by the crowd.

Nearing Bloemfontein.

VENTER'S VLEI, Orange Free State, March 13.—The British forces, which since the fighting at Driefontein have been marching rapidly hither, have turned the Boer position. Our cavalry are ahead. The Boers were reported about 12,000 strong, with 18 guns in position on a range of kopjes commanding the direct road to Bloemfontein, which is distant 15 miles.

Germany Declines to Interfere.

DURBAN, March 13.—The Transvaal having appealed to Germany for mediation or intervention in the war with Great Britain, Germany has replied that she declines to interfere, as she is in no way concerned in the conflict.

Andre's Prison Purified.

NEW YORK, March 13.—There is great rejoicing among the residents of Tappan, near Nyack, over a decision just given by Justice Dickey of the supreme court which annuls the liquor tax certificate of the man who owns the famous '76 House and runs it as a hotel, with a bar. The '76 House was Major Andre's prison, and Tappan takes great pride in it.

MISSIONARY EFFORT.

Bishop Ridley Has Given Many Years of His Life to It.

He Will Address the Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions to Be Held in New York, April 21 to May 1.

There will be no more striking figure than William Ridley, bishop of Caledonia, British Columbia, at the ecumenical conference on foreign missions to be held in New York on April 21 to May 1.

One of the few regions of the world still closed to missionary effort within its borders is still practically impossible, but considerable work is done among the surrounding peoples by missionaries, chiefly of the Church Missionary Society of England. Some of these missionaries have done notable work, and among them is Bishop Ridley. He was sent into India in 1866, working on the confines of the ameer's domain, and had his missionary training in that most difficult field. A few years later, however, his health obliged him to leave India, and he was appointed chaplain to the British church at Dresden, Saxony, where he remained two years. After this he occupied parishes in England a few years. In 1879 he was appointed the first bishop of Caledonia, British Columbia, bringing to his work there the fruits of his experience in his previous fields, and now for over 20 years he has administered the affairs of that diocese with singular ability.

Bishop Ridley is well known as a scholar, and his contributions to philology have been considerable. He is the author of a number of works on local dialects, and has paid particular attention to the various dialects of western British America.

Fifty-eight leading British missionary associations and societies and 79 small missionary bodies will be represented at the conference. Only 13 of them were in existence before Queen Victoria acceded to the throne. Since 1837 British contributions to missions have increased fivefold.

RT. REV. WILLIAM RIDLEY.
(Missionary Bishop of Caledonia, British Columbia.)

There are now more than 4,384 men and women, inclusive of the wives of missionaries, as the representatives of British missions in China, the total number of Protestant missionaries there from Great Britain, Europe and America being 2,442. The number of known converts when the treaty ports were opened to foreigners in 1842 was six; it is now about 90,000. In 1837 there were only three ordained native Christians in connection with the Church of England missions; now the number in connection with the various British societies is nearly 2,000. The Wesleyan, Baptist and London missionary societies of Great Britain, in some of their fields, have been able to leave the work to the converts themselves and to pass on to the regions beyond. It is said that the work of the Christian church in Japan will soon be in the hands of the Japanese themselves. The British missionary societies have 48,000 native hearers other than the 2,000 ordained natives, and their native church members of communicants mount up to 340,000.

Full two-thirds of the entire company of missionaries are employed in India and China, because these two countries number more than 60000,000, or more than one-half of the non-Christian population of the world.

Habits of Deadly Snakes

Deadly snakes are seldom seen moving about. This is to be accounted for in two ways. First, they are nocturnal in their habits and generally impose when discovered. Secondly, if they should be on the move their colors are so much in harmony with their surroundings that they see the intruder first and gather themselves into a coil, so as to escape observation by remaining still and to be ready for defense if necessary. They always strike from a coil. As to the distance to which they can strike, a great deal depends on the manner of the coil and the position of the object struck at. From a good position a snake can generally strike an object distant one-half or even two-thirds of the creature's length. No snake can jump, in the true sense of the word, and so long as one remains extended at full length it is practically harmless. In such a position it may be easily killed or avoided.

SHELDON AS EDITOR.

Noted Divine Assumes Control of the Topeka Capital.

TOPEKA, March 13.—Rev. C. M. Sheldon, who edits the Topeka Capital this week, was at the office of the paper at 8:30 a. m. Monday and made a hurried inspection of the various departments. At 10 o'clock he had a conference with the visiting correspondents, promising to give them such information as he could during the week. At 11 o'clock he met the working force of the paper and gave out instructions for the day.

All the newspaper's regular staff of editors and reporters has been retained except General Hudson, editor in chief, who will take a week off. Many religious enthusiasts have offered their services to Mr. Sheldon as reporters, but all such offers he has declined, believing that the regular staff can be molded to his purpose easier than raw recruits could be trained in newspaper work for a single week's effort.

All advertising in any way objectionable to the minister's views has been refused.

There will be the usual Sunday morning edition of The Capital, but it will be printed early Saturday night, so that all the work, even to the circulation by the carriers, may be finished before midnight.

The Capital staff has decided to quit the use of tobacco and alcoholic liquors. Mr. Sheldon is greatly pleased at this reform.

Kentucky Democrats Confer.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 13.—General John B. Castleman, adjutant general under Governor Beckham, arrived here yesterday and spent several hours in conference with the Democratic officials. It is understood that Governor Beckham and General Castleman will make no decisive move toward reorganizing the state guard till after the court of appeals passes on the contests now pending in that tribunal. Democratic leaders say that military companies are being raised by the Democrats in various counties, but none of these will be mustered into service for some time yet unless a crisis is reached which they do not anticipate. General Castleman said: "Peace is what we want. We are not hunting for a clash, and now is a good time for conservatism to be practiced by everybody." The legislature will adjourn sine die today.

Exposition Subscriptions.

BUFFALO, March 13.—Three hundred thousand dollars have been subscribed by the following companies to the capital stock of the Pan-American exposition: Vanderbilt lines, $150,000; Lackawanna road, $50,000; Erie railroad, $30,000; Lehigh Valley railroad, $30,000; Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad, $10,000; American Express company, $15,000; Wells-Fargo Express company, $15,000; total, $300,000. This amount, The Commercial says, is disappointing, being not more than half of what was expected.

Large Sale of Oranges.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Fifty-three carloads of oranges were sold yesterday at the Erie and Baltimore and Ohio piers. It was the largest sale of fruit ever held in this city. The Fruit Auction company disposed of 34 cars. Each car contained 362 boxes, and each box averaged 125 oranges. The fruit was all from the Pacific coast and was shipped by the California Fruit Exchange. The amount of the sale was $48,000.

Minister Shoots a Doctor.

RICHMOND, March 13.—News reaches here of the shooting and probable fatal wounding at White Plains, Brunswick county, Sunday morning of Dr. W. H. Temple by Rev. J. E. R. Reddick. The latter is a well known Methodist minister and claims that Dr. Temple, who was attending his wife as her physician, had insulted her. Reddick was arrested and lodged in Brunswick jail. Temple was shot in four places.

Sabbath at the Paris Exposition.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The president has sent instructions to United States Commissioner General Peck at the Paris exposition to see that the Sabbath is observed as far as possible in the American section during the progress of the exposition. Whether these instructions contemplate the closing of the American section on Sundays has not been disclosed.

A Snuff Trust.

TRENTON, March 13.—The American Snuff company has been incorporated, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000. Half of this amount is to be preferred stock bearing 6 per cent noncumulative dividends and the remainder common stock. The company is to absorb the leading snuff industries of the country. There are 17 incorporators.

Noted Divine Stricken.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 13.—Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, pastor of Park church for the past 46 years, was stricken with paralysis Sunday night on his return home from evening service, and his recovery is considered doubtful. He is a brother of Henry Ward Beecher and of Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Died In Constantinople.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., March 13.—A private dispatch received from Constantinople announced the death there Sunday of Norman H. Becker, cashier of the Exchange National bank of this place, which occurred after an illness of five days. He left town six weeks ago with his daughter for a trip through the Holy Land.

ROOT VISITS MATANZAS.

Inspected the Military and the City. Protest Against Sbarretti.

HAVANA, March 13.—Secretary Root, Governor General Wood, General Ludlow, General Chaffee, the ladies of Mr. Root's party and a number of officers left yesterday morning by special train for Matanzas. They had breakfast on board the train and spent the time at Matanzas in viewing the city, reviewing the Tenth infantry and the Second cavalry and taking luncheon with General Wilson. They took the train again at 5 o'clock and dined on the Ajucate sugar estate, after studying the process of grinding. They had returned to Havana at 9 o'clock in the evening.

General Betancourt, civil governor of Matanzas, told General Wood that the principal Cubans in his province were thoroughly satisfied with the present limitations upon the suffrage, as they recognized that the first elections should not be thrown open to everybody, admitting that it would be easier to increase than to decrease at another time.

The special committee appointed to wait upon Mgr. Sbarretti and to present to him the protest against his appointment as bishop of Havana made their first visit yesterday. The protest which they submitted set forth that a majority of the Catholics in the island were Cubans and desired a Cuban bishop. It also asserted that those who thought otherwise were enemies of Cuban independence and progress. Mgr. Sbarretti informed the committee in reply that he could not abandon the position, as he had been sent there by the pope.

It Was a Fake Report.

ALBANY, March 13.—State Superintendent of Banks Frederick D. Kilburn has issued the following typewritten statement: "The publication on Monday of what purported to be a copy of the report to the governor of my examination of the State Trust company in January independent of the fact that many of the statements contained in it do not appear in the report at all, is simply the product of theft or bribery, or both, with burglary possibly added. The matter published was not copied from my report to the governor. Parts of it appear to have been taken from memoranda and other papers used in the preparation of the report and which have been ever since under lock and key in a desk in the banking department and could have been procured only in one of the ways I have suggested."

English Comment on the Treaty.

LONDON, March 13.—The Daily News in an editorial dealing with the Hay-Pauncefote convention says: "The Monroe doctrine has been made responsible for some strange pretensions, but for none stronger than the claim to a military control of the Nicaragua canal. Even if President McKinley yields to the senate, it does not follow that Lord Salisbury will yield to President McKinley." The Daily Chronicle says: "We hope Lord Salisbury will not yield. We are all for a good understanding for America, but we do not believe it will be attained by conceding important interests."

More Trouble In Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 13.—The governor of Newfoundland, Lieutenant Colonel Sir Henry Edward McCallum, has again prorogued the legislature, this time until March 22, owing to the political deadlock. The situation now is that the governor and Mr. Bond are at cross purposes, the former insisting that Mr. Bond should agree to carry on public business and the latter urging dissolution and a general election. Mr. Bond now threatens to refuse to accept office at all and says he will obstruct the passage of the appropriation bills unless the governor agrees to his terms.

Appropriation Bill Passed.

ALBANY, March 13.—The annual appropriation bill for the fixed expenses of state government, conferring an appropriation of $16,977,000, was passed by the senate last night after Senator Grady had made a vigorous protest upon behalf of the minority to the item of $197,800 for superintendent of elections. He called attention to the fact that the expenses of this department had grown in two years from $158,000 to $197,000 and said that the burden was forced upon the people of New York against their desires.

Carnegie Company Answers.

PITTSBURG, March 13.—Late yesterday afternoon the answer of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, defendant in the equity suit of H. C. Frick to determine the value of his holdings in said company, was filed in common pleas court No. 1. The answers filed are for the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and 30 individual defendants. The document complete makes nearly 20,000 words, meeting every averment of the plaintiff in full and detail.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS

House Unseats Wise of Virginia by Close Vote.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS DISAGREE.

Foraker's Porto Rico Bill Calls Forth Some Acrimonious Talk—A Threat to Make the Islanders United States Citizens.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Yesterday for the second time within a week a Democrat was unseated by the house and a Republican seated in his place. R. A. Wise was given the seat hitherto occupied by W. A. Young from the Second Virginia district. Previous to taking the vote John S. Wise of New York, who was formerly a member of the house from Virginia and who is a brother of R. A. Wise and his attorney in the case, was excluded from the hall by Speaker Henderson on the protest of the Democrats that he was abusing the privileges of the floor to which he was entitled by the rules by interfering with the debate upon the case. The votes were exceedingly close. While none of the Republicans voted with the Democrats, enough were absent and unpaired to reduce the Republican majority upon the final vote from 16, the normal majority, to 7. An urgent deficiency bill carrying $1,439,580 was passed.

During almost the entire session of the senate Mr. Rawlins of Utah occupied the floor in a discussion of the Philippine question. He went deeply into the constitutional phases of the question, and his argument was largely legal and technical. He is opposed to the holding of the Philippines.

All the private pension bills on the calendar, 86 in all, were passed.

The senate chamber and adjoining committee rooms were the scene of a sharp conflict of opinion which found no place in The Congressional Record. The basis of the disagreement was Senator Foraker's bill providing a form of government for the island of Porto Rico, and only Republican senators participated in it.

The controversy grew out of efforts to have the bill amended. There are some senators who hold that legislation for Porto Rico for the present at least should be confined to providing for the immediate needs of the inhabitants of Porto Rico and not include efforts to establish a form of government. These senators generally believe that Porto Rico should receive no favors in the way of tariff reduction and are content to allow the present tariff rates to continue until, as they put it, there is more time and the senate is better prepared for the dispassionate consideration of the question. Their idea is to leave the island in the control of the war department.

Senator Foraker, representing the friends of the pending bill and as chairman of the Porto Rican committee, met the proposition of inactivity with a declaration that if it was persisted in he would not only drop the bill now before the senate entirely, but would introduce as a substitute for it a measure providing for the organization of the island as a territory, giving it all the officers and all the privileges and immunities of such territories as Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, not only making the Porto Rican people full fledged citizens of the United States, but establishing complete free trade between the island and the United States proper. His further purpose, as he outlined it, was to introduce it as an amendment to the bill passed by the house and now pending in the senate, appropriating the revenues collected from the island for use of the people of the island.

When the purpose of Mr. Foraker became generally known, there were many hurried conferences among the Republican leaders, and the Ohio senator was immediately besieged by Republicans of all shades of belief on Porto Rican policy. While several of them supported his proposition as a wise one, many others contended against it as calculated to commit the country to a course which might be more easily repented of than remedied.

Dock Capacity to Be Doubled.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The discharging capacity of the West Superior docks of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company at West Superior, Mich., which are now inadequate to the requirements, will be more than doubled in capacity. A new form of machinery will be used, the contract for which has already been awarded to an eastern firm. The present capacity of the plant is about 1,000 tons a day. When the improvements shall have been completed, the docks will have a capacity of nearly 4,000 tons. About 125,000 tons of anthracite and 200,000 tons of bituminous coal are handled on these docks annually.

Large Postoffice Receipts.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—A statement prepared by the postoffice department shows that the receipts at 50 of the largest postoffices during the month of February, 1900, were $3,562,547, an increase of $279,409 or 8½ per cent over the corresponding month of the previous year. The receipts at some of the principal offices were as follows: New York, $735,837; Chicago, $520,748; Philadelphia, $270,809; Boston, $239,256; St. Louis, $147,857; Cincinnati, $101,513; Brooklyn, $110,443.

Notorious Criminal Arrested.

BOSTON, March 13.—John C. Lynch, one of the most notorious criminals in this state and well known as the leader of the so called "Sewer gang," is again in the toils of the police, having been arrested on the charge of breaking and entering a lodging house here. Lynch is 37 years old and has served a number of terms in the state prison and has twice made his escape from the institution.

Starving In Barbados.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 13.—The condition of the laboring population in Barbados is so bad that arrangements are on foot to send 20,000 people to St. Lucia. Starvation is driving the black population of the island to desperation, and the troops which under the scheme of imperial defense should have left Barbados for St. Lucia have been ordered to remain in Barbados. Incendiarism continues rampant there.

Large Order For Locomotives.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The Baldwin Locomotive works have booked an order for 40 Vauclain compound freight engines for the Union Pacific railroad. These engines will be an exact counterpart of the 100 locomotives recently ordered of the firm by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Republican State Convention.

In the call for the Republican State convention for the election of delegates to the National convention, to be held in Philadelphia, which was issued yesterday by Franklin Murphy, chairman of the State committee, a unique and unusual wording is beheld in the sentence describing those who are qualified and desired to participate in the primaries for the election of delegates to that gathering of political spirits. It has always been a rule that only professing Republicans are entitled to take part in primaries called for the purpose of electing delegates to conventions of the party, but under the call issued by Mr. Murphy yesterday this rule is given a construction that will admit of a wide latitude of opinion as to what fits a man for the right to vote at the primaries that will be held to choose delegates.

After explicitly calling upon simonpure Republicans to participate in the selection of the delegates, the official call adds "and all who approve of the wise and patriotic administration of President McKinley and who desire the great prosperity that prevails throughout our country to be continued by the maintenance of the policy under which it has been promoted."

Probably there are some who are not out-and-out Republicans who approve of the President's course in some respects, and it would seem that according to the ideas of the recognized head of the Republican organization in New Jersey these gentlemen will have a perfect right to vote in the party primaries, either for good or bad reasons—as they may be prompted—the same as those who are straight-laced in their Republican professions.

In the table of the number of delegates that each county is entitled to send to the Sate convention, it is noted that Union county has 46. Somerset county is entitled to 16.

The joint committee of the Legislature, which is making up the budget of appropriations required by the various State departments, has decided to recommend an increase of $25,000 for the Banking Department. This is made necessary by the law giving to the department the supervision of all building and loan associations in the State. Without money with which to carry out the letter and the spirit of the new law, the new statute would become a virtual dead letter. This should not be. Loan and building associations have great sums of money entrusted to their care, and the stockholders in these concerns—mostly people of moderate means—are entitled to have their interests safe guarded to the best of the State's ability and energy.

Now that fourteen lives have been lost in the burning of a tenement house in Newark that proved a veritable fire trap, the officials of that city will undoubtedly bestir themselves to inspect all similar structures with a view of preventing a repetition of such a horrible holocaust. It is a fact, however, that every large city, and many small ones, are cursed with just such rookeries in which the poverty-stricken eke out a miserable existence, and it is a wonder that more of their occupants are not caught and cremated as the unfortunates in Newark were yesterday morning.

A unique political incident is that of the executive committee of the Hudson county Democratic committee presenting a petition asking City Collector Davis, the Democratic leader, to appoint his son, William J. Davis, to be a clerk in his office to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Myles McCartin. The collector will probably comply with the request, as his son is competent.

The Common Council having issued its final demand to the People's Gas Company, we shall now await with considerable anxiety and interest to see how the new corporation looks upon the terms which it is proposed to exact if a franchise to do business is granted.

Robert Davis, the Hudson county Democratic leader, suggests the name of Former Senator Smith as a likely one to select as one of those who shall represent the Democrats at the National convention as one of the delegates-at-large.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest to Plainfield.

Plainfield is without a jail. Good! The miserable, inadequate, filthy and shameful structure that was used for a lockup is burned down, and now Plainfield will build a new one on modern plans.—Elizabeth Journal.

* * * * * *

We are pleased to see the name of our old Democratic friend, James E. Martine, of Plainfield, prominently mentioned as one of the four delegates-at-large to be selected from New Jersey to attend the Democratic National convention to be held at Kansas City, July 4th, to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President. No more capable, deserving or loyal Democrat can be found in the State, and he should receive every vote in the State convention.—Rahway Democrat.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

So many plans have been submitted to the Westfield Board of Education in the architects' competition for the new school buildings that the Board is not ready to make the award. Over thirty plans have been submitted, and they vary so greatly that the committee is in a quandary how to decide. It is arranging to have all the plans offered placed on public exhibition, hoping in this way to get some idea as to the preference of the people.

Easter will come this year on Sunday, April 15th, and the women who looked forward to this event as a time for appearing in their new bonnets and dresses are quite happy. It is a time when every woman of fashion prays for clear warm weather so that she may appear in her new spring togs. Already the various shops are filled with Easter novelties in dresses and hats and fashionable women are perplexed to know just what will be suitable for her. The local stores offer many new things this season, thus making the question of choice less difficult.

The fish editor of the Flemington Democrat-Advertiser hails with joy the approach of the shad season, "Shad time o'year is so close," he says, "that we can almost feel a bone in our throat. Yet a little while and we shall hear the sonorous voice of John Reading break out in song of the shad and its glory in every street and avenue of Flemington. The surpassing melody and richness of that voice will, indeed, resound from 'Mullein Hill' on the west to Holcomb's Mill on the east. But we will bear the din for the sake of the shad. As a fish the shad is all right. He has few equals among the scaly water nymphs of which we have knowledge."

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 13.—The borough election today is a quiet one. The only strife is on Assessor Charles Corrill, the candidate for Assessor, who has an opponent in the person of Wm R Larkin The Democrats got together a few nights ago and made up a ticket endorsing the Citizens' ticket with the exception of Coriell. Mr. Larkin is a strong temperance advocate but is understood to have the backing of W. J. Winges. The vote between Coriell and Larkin may be close.

The funeral of Mrs. Constance Hagarty, who died at her home in New Market Saturday night, will be held this afternoon from the Seventh Day Baptist church. The interment will be at Perth Amboy. Two children survive Mrs Hagarty.

Walter G. Runyon, the borough undertaker, has moved his morgue building from the Todd lot to a point on Front street, near his present office.

Since the Pond Tool Works began working so as to give the employes the half holiday, many of the workmen now take the 6:20 a. m. train.

Conductor Charles Dodwell boasts of having a number of fowls that are good layers. He has fresh laid eggs for his breakfast every morning.

P. D. Loizeaux has moved out of town and his house on Fifth street is to be occupied by J. H. Fleming, of Plainfield.

The friends of Mrs. Emma Baldwin, who has been ill with pneumonia, will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing.

Miss Minnie Dinneen, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dinneen.

The Whittier School Glee Club will meet for practice this evening at the Whittier School building.

The Athletic Club met last night for practice in the Whittier School building.

M. T. Mulford, of New Market, has moved to a house on Front street

Miss Kittie Harvey, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with Miss May Wahl.

Hummer Brothers, of Plainfield, are building a house on Depot avenue.

The regular meeting of the Foresters was held last evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 13—The annual spring election is being held today. The morning vote was about up to the usual standard, and the prespects are the vote will be a large one for a local election.

Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, of Westfield, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Collins, Fanwood.

The Misses Hayes, of Fanwood, are spending a month at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Baker at Waltham, Mass.

George H. Johnston has been detained at home for several days suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Rev. G M. Shott attended the Ministers' Weekly conference meeting in New York yesterday.

Fanwood Council, R. A., hold their semi-monthly meeting in their rooms this evening.

Miss Katie Hart led an interesting B. Y. P. meeting in the Baptist church last evening.

Frank R. Allen is around again after a severe attack of quinsy sore throat.

Miss Sadie Reger has returned from a visit with her sister in Westfield.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The cellar is being excavated for Otto Arens' new house in Woodland Park.

—Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication this evening.

—Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias will confer the second rank at the meeting tomorrow evening.

—Saturday evening, March 24th will be "machinists" night at the Y. M. C. A., when a reception and social will be given to the men in the various machine shops.

—"An Evening in China" is the title of a literary entertainment arranged by the Epworth League of the First M. E. church to be held in Vincent chapel Friday evening.

—The Women's Association of the Congregational church will hold a social in the church parlors Friday evening. The Christian Endeavor Society will provide the entertainment.

—Don't envy your neighbor, but follow her example. Her means are no greater, her tastes no more refined, she always looks neat because she has the good judgment to buy her goods at Peck's.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

A word of advice to those who intend to be present Saturday evening at the production of "Our Regiment," under the auspices of Division No. 4, A. O H, would not be out of place. The curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock, "sharp." Previous to the play, Edwin Starr Belknap will give a French pantomime entitled "Put to the Test." There will be a musical accompaniment by Harry Worthington Loomis To ensure the effectiveness of the pantomime, it will be necessary to have quiet in the hall and so those who are not in their seats by 8:15 o'clock will be asked to wait until after the pantomime is over. It will be worth while therefore to be a few minutes ahead of time so as to witness this clever little sketch. The comedy, "Our Regiment," will follow. Tickets are now to be secured at Powers' and Armstrong's pharmacies.

Cissie Loftus, who played such a successful two weeks' engagement at the Proctor theatres last November, is making her reappearance this week, playing both theatres every afternoon and evening. She will appear at the Twenty-third Street Theatre at 4 p. m. and 9 p. m., and at the Palace at 3 p. m. and 10 p. m. Miss Loftus has an entirely new series of imitations, including an admirable one of Mme. Modjeska. At the close of the present season the Fifth Avenue Theatre will be joined to the famous Proctor circuit, and suburbanites will then have their choice of three luxurious theatres in New York city to gratify their tastes for refined vaudeville, namely: Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre, Proctor's Palace and Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. Mr. Proctor has leased the Fifth Avenue Theatre from the Gilsey estate for a term of years, and will take possession in May. It will be conducted as a continuous performance theatre, with the greatest programme of refined vaudeville it is possible to offer The prices will be only 50 cents for orchestra and 25 cents for balconies. Thus Broadway will have its first continuous performance theatre.

"Clorindy, or the Origin of the Cakewalk," which is the attraction at Music Hall Thursday night, has proven one of the most popular sketches or rag time opera ever offered by any colored company. The music is catchy, attractive and well sung, and the quaint Negro melodies and the genuine spirit of the colored people put in their work never fails to earn numerous encores for the famous musical numbers. "Who Dat Say Chicken in Dis Crowd," "Darktown is Out Tonight," "Jump Back Honey," and "Hottest Coon in Dixie," also many other hits sung in the Negro opera, and the cakewalk and cakewalk songs are great successes. It enjoyed a run of three months on the New York Casino roof garden, after which it played all the large vaudeville houses in the United States and was a tremendous success. It is now making its first road tour after having been adapted to a large company for a full evening's entertainment, with a company of unexcelled colored talent, presenting a notable vaudeville bill, including Prof. Maceo, with his marvelously trained dog Chicago, the only talking dog in the world. This dog articulates the word "mamma," gives splendid amusement for children and adults, and Prof. Maceo is the only trainer of animals that has ever appeared with the great Hagenbeck.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The police department removed its effects (?) from the old rookery to the new station house, yesterday.

—Asparagus tips and peas are two of the special canned delicacies at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue grocery.

—The collectors of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church are making their rounds this week and the amounts will be turned over to Mrs. D. N. Groendyke by Saturday.

—Those purchasing tickets for the production of "Our Regiment" at Music Hall Saturday evening under the auspices of the A. O. H, which are to be exchanged for reserved seats, will do well to do so at once in order to get good seats.

—This evening at the meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., some action will be taken regarding the receipt of the cannon recently presented to the post by the Government. They will be placed in the soldiers' plot at Hillside cemetery.

—A programme of unusual interest has been arranged for a sociable of the Women's Society of Christian Work of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, to be held Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. R Truell, of Central avenue. Wm. Alberti, of New York, will give several recitations.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Berg, of East Fifth street, has been visiting relatives at Westfield.

City Clerk J. T. MacMurray has returned from an extended business trip.

P. S. Leichtentritt, of Central avenue, has returned from a trip to New York.

Wm. Isling and John Utzinger spent Sunday with friends at Westfield.

Miss Elizabeth Cook, of Brooklyn, is a guest of Miss Douglass, of Mercer avenue.

Mrs. Samuel St. J. McCutchen has gone to Newton Centre, Mass., to visit friends.

Horace J. Martin, of the borough, has returned from a visit with Newark friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Douglass, of Mercer avenue, are visiting friends in Orange.

Mrs. Charles B. Stephens, of the West End, is able to be out again after a severe illness.

An improvement is noted in the condition of Mrs. Edward C. Morse, of Jackson avenue.

Mrs. Lindsley Woolley, of West Front street, spent Sunday with relatives in Jersey City.

Mrs. Jacob Spirling, of this city, has returned from an extended visit with out-of-town friends.

Mr. Huyler, of Orchard place, has been confined to his home for sometime past by illness.

Miss Mary Wells, of Washington avenue, has gone to Northampton, Mass., for a short visit.

Miss Anna VanArsdale, of Grove street, has gone to Nyack-on-the-Hudson to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westphal, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Fitch, of Westfield, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, of Prospect avenue.

A. G. Fisk, of West Seventh street, has returned from Lakewood, where he has been spending several days.

Miss Margaret Beglan, of LaGrande avenue, gave a very enjoyable tea to a number of her friends Sunday evening.

George Bedford, of the Walter Scott Printing Machine Works, who has been away setting up presses, has returned home.

Miss Snyder, of West Fourth street, and Miss Casey, of West Third street, have entered upon their duties at Lederer's dry goods store.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smalley, of Somerset street, are about moving to Nyack-on-the-Hudson, on account of Mr. Smalley's business in that place.

Miss Margaret McCutchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs C. W. McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, has returned to Smith College, where she is a student.

Dr. Fred Hughes, of St. Vincent's Hospital, New York, spent Sunday in Plainfield with friends. He also attended the funeral of his late friend, Henry V. Ryder, who died last week.

There is not a great deal of improvement in the condition of Rev. G. W. Gardner, of Park place. He has a serious attack of grip and his fever has been at a high point for several days.

Charles Suhr, the North avenue barber, who sprained his ankle sometime ago, and who has been obliged to use crutches to get about, was able to lay aside the crutches yesterday. The injury is now rapidly improving.

We try to get as near as possible to the man who drinks the Coffee.

To find the best coffee in this country a woman needs only two qualties. She can use a dozen, but she can do it on only two. They are Intelligence and Courage.

Ten women have intelligence and no courage where one has courage and no intelligence. Courage is really what the average woman needs if she wants coffee way up in G.

Now it doesn't require much courage to buy a pound of Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee if you set about it right. The grocer will give it to you in a parchment-lined bag with our seal and signature attesting its high quality. You have really only to drink it.

Even here you run no risk. The man who ate the first oyster took terrible chances. But the only chance you will take is the probability that never again will you be willing to drink any other kind of coffee.

Even then, you will thank us. Ask your grocer for a pound of this coffee to-day.

Klopermannsfeld. Hierorts wurde der Bergbauer Mock durch herabgehende Steinmassen todtgequetscht. Nach vierstündiger, angestrengter Arbeit wurde sein Leichnam geborgen.

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Das Projekt einer Traberbahn in Breslau ist nunmehr gesichert. Ein 126 Morgen großes Terrain im Süden der Stadt ist bereits gepachtet. Jährlich sollen zehn bis zwölf Renntage abgehalten werden. Auf der Bahn wird auch eine Trainiranstalt errichtet werden.

Hirschberg. Die landespolizeiliche Abnahme der Theilstrecken der Hirschberger Thalbahn vom Bahnhof Hirschberg - „Drei Eichen" und „Centralhotel" - Kaserne hat kürzlich stattgefunden und ein so günstiges Resultat ergeben, daß sofort die Eröffnung des Betriebes für den allgemeinen Verkehr erfolgen konnte.

Zabrze. In der Nähe der Guidogrube fanden Arbeiter an einem Zaune hängend den fast leblosen Körper eines Menschen, dem das rechte Bein fehlte. Schnell wurde die Person abgeschnitten und als der Arbeiter Alexi erkannt, der in das Knappschaftslazareth geschafft wurde, dort aber bald darauf verschied. Wenige Meter entfernt von dem unglücklichen Menschen lag das Bein. Es wurden Recherchen in dieser mysteriösen Angelegenheit angestellt.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Flensburg. Die hiesige Strafkammer verurtheilte den Schuhmacher Thößler wegen Majestätsbeleidigung und Beleidigung des Dr. Behrens in Süderbrarup zu 1½ Jahren Gefängniß.

Kiel. Anläßlich der Pariser Weltausstellung entsendet Deutschland ein Geschwader nach Havre, darunter den Panzerkreuzer „Fürst Bismarck," welcher am 1. April im Beisein des Kaisers in Dienst gestellt werden wird.

Provinz Westfalen.

Münster. Zahlreiche ausländische Arbeiter sind in letzter Zeit aus Westfalen ausgewiesen worden. Es sollen noch 200 Namen solcher, denen das gleichfalls bald passiren dürfte, auf der Liste stehen.

Bocholt. Nach einer Verfügung des Kultusministers soll von Ostern d. J. ab das hiesige Progymnasium in ein Vollgymnasium ausgebaut werden. In den Klassen bis Obersekunda ist Ersatz-Unterricht im Englischen für die Schüler vorgesehen, die am Griechischen nicht theilnehmen.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Im dritten Viertel des Jahres 1899 sind in Sachsen an Stiftungen für wohlthätige und gemeinnützige Zwecke 463,520 Mark gespendet worden. Die meisten derselben waren wiederum dem Wohle der Arbeiter und der Unterstützung von Kranken und Waisen gewidmet.—Gestorben sind hier der bekannte Militärschriftsteller Oberst a. D. Friedhelm Schöning im Alter von 53 Jahren, sowie der Vorstand des Königlichen Stenographischen Institutes, Oberregierungsrath Professor Heinrich Krieg, im Alter von nahezu 65 Jahren.

NATURE'S MODERATION.

The human constitution is very much like a fire, and the way many people try to take care of their health may be compared to the way a careless kitchen girl looks after the cooking-stove. One minute it is raging furiously, and then extremely, first thing you know, the fire is out. People are sometimes led to believe that a medicine which has a sudden, tremendous effect must be truly wonderful. They forget that it may be merely a tremendous "draught" which imparts a temporary false effect of heartiness and "fire" to the system, but suddenly drops it lower than before.

There is no sudden overwhelming effect about Ripans Tabules. Some people think the prescribed dose is too slow, and double it to get a quicker effect. But nature herself is slow, moderate and regular in accomplishing her best work. The Tabules relieve acute headaches, indigestion and nervous depression almost instantly. But their effect on the bowels is more gradual; yet it is sure and thorough. Ripans Tabules act in accordance with nature, and their results like nature's are comfortable and permanent.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Some Suggestions Which May Be of Value in Their Domestic Duties.

Salt codfish has a great food value, which causes it to be much sought after. It is almost as nutritive in its salted form as it is when fresh, though it loses a little of its digestibility. When it is scarce the dealer often substitutes a cheaper fish for the genuine cod. A way to test whether you are getting the real thing or not is to rub a bit of the fish between the thumb and finger. If it is cod the fiber will loosen and become woolly, but will not go to pieces. Other fish will crumble readily between the fingers.

A few drops of ammonia in the water in which you wash your cut glass—or your pressed glass, or any kind of glass at all—make it look bright and sparkling. Deeply cut glass may require an occasional scrub with a soft brush and soap. For cleaning silver, take equal parts of ammonia and alcohol and enough whiting to make it like cream. Apply with a brush, if the article is chased (repousse silver), and set aside to dry. When dry it will be ready to polish, which may be done with a dry flannel or a chamois.

It is not extravagant to use eggs freely both on the table and in breakfast breads, cakes and custards. One pound of eggs used as food will average about the same in value as one pound of the very best quality of butchers' meat. Eggs also contain more phosphates than the average of other foods. There is also a specially valuable form of sulphur and iron in eggs.

It is said that there is no taste or scent of cottonseed in cottolene if the cottolene is fresh. Just as soon as it is a little stale the objectionable taste is observable. It is—the cottolene—a mixture of refined cottonseed oil and clarified beef fat. The difficulty of getting it perfectly fresh is the chief objection to its use.—Detroit Free Press.

COLLECTING THE RENT.

How a Hard-Hearted Landlord Wrung Money from His Poor Tenant.

"Step! Step! Step!"

It was some one mounting the stairs. It was a slow and heavy step, and there was something grim and gruesome about it—something to tell the listener that the sole owner and proprietor of the step was a lop-shouldered son of a gun without enough mercy in his heart to grease a sunflower seed.

"'Tis he—the landlord!" gasped the woman who sat in the gloom of her garret room with white face and palpitating heart.

The step came nearer—the frail door was kicked open and Adamant Flintstone stood before her and said:

"Woman, I am here! If you cannot pay me my rent out you go!"

"Oh, Mr. Flintstone, have you no heart!" wailed the unfortunate.

"Not a bit. Pay or go!"

"But think of your mother."

"I haven't any."

"Then your sisters!"

"Never had one."

"Is it possible that because I owe you $120 rent you will drive me out on the street on a night like this?"

"I am in the landlord business for money," was his unfeeling reply.

"But can you expect that heaven will prosper a man who has neither pity nor mercy?"

"I can. I am making 14 per cent. on my investment. Will you pay or shall I chuck you out of the window?"

"I—I will pay!" she sobbed, as the storm increased and the wind tried to shake the stuffing out of the old tenement.

And pulling two $100 bills out of her pocket she handed them out and received $80 in change, and Adamant Flintstone chuckled in his frozen heart as he turned away and left her trying to choke herself to death with a button hook.—Philadelphia Press.

ONLY HIS ORDINARY METHOD.

Weary Citizen Offers Impromptu Explanation for Suddenly Sitting.

He was quite weary as he ambled deviously along one of the south side streets. To begin with the traveling was bad, for snow had first melted under the sun's rays and then frozen under the fierce winds which followed. This condition of affairs caused him to use great circumspection in his journeying. He had enjoyed a season of conviviality up in the city, had hugged the stove in his car homeward and was feeling a bit under the weather.

He stumbled and slipped on his way with palpable effort. There was considerable of a ground swell at any rate, and he found that his steering gear made too much travel. The result was that he tackled with such frequency that he covered more ground than was absolutely needful. Finally he reached a street corner where there is a foot bridge over the gutter. This bridge had an extra supply of ice and was glacial in its smoothness.

He cautiously placed one foot on the bridge and braced himself for the trip across. Then he lifted the other foot to place it on the bridge, but he didn't succeed. Both feet flew upward, as if seeking to smite him in the face. He sat with extreme suddenness and vigor. A look of pain and disgust flitted over his features as he felt about him with the purpose of determining his location.

"Hello, Jim," called a friend, who came up at this interesting juncture, "rather hot tumble that. Going to sit there any longer? Unusual, ain't it?"

"No," said Jim, confidently. "Nothin' 'nusul 'tall, not 'tall. I most generally sit down like that."—Chicago Chronicle.

Lights and Shadows of the American Stage

Gossipy Chatter of the People Behind the Footlights and Some Criticism

IN FRANCE, where girls do not go to the theater until after they are married, the matinee girl is unknown. It is said she is a product of America, and that on her depends much of the success of the man player in this country. In return, it seems to us, the plays offered her should be such as will not offend; but a look at the list of the day would lead one to doubt if this be the case. The old Greeks, 2,000 years ago, 2,000 years previous to our vaunted civilization, most carefully guarded the young in their midst, on the principle that all unloveliness and business would best be kept from them during the impressionable years. Attendance at the famous Greek tragedies was a part of their education; but they were not allowed to see the comedies, which were considered too gross for them to witness. What would those old pagans think of the stage as it exists in Christendom today—think of girls in their teens filling the seats for the "Sapho," "Lady of Quality" and "Degenerate" plays? If parents do not exercise authority in this matter, it is well the city did.

So many stage folk represent generations who have trod the boards—Sothern, Keene, Drew, Jefferson, come to mind—inference is often made that the parent paves the way for the child, makes the path easy; but those who know tell a different story, insist everyone must stand on his own merits. We read of Ellen Terry's daughter and Henry Irving's son gaining distinction in the theatrical world, and we jump at the conclusion that they are lucky, their lot very different from that of the average aspirant for public favor; but we have Miss Terry's word for it that this is not so. She says for two years Irving's sons were without work, could find nothing to do, and that young Lawrence Irving's present success did not come all at once.

Lawrence Irving, who plays the role of Tallien in "Robespierre" with his father this season, knows what hard work is, and by it has made a name for himself as a translator and a dramatist. The rendering of "Robespierre" from the French into English was no small task, and for this work he most carefully prepared himself; spent months in Paris, consulting the noted author, and in his company visiting the Paris made memorable by the scenes of the dread revolution. Irving's play, "Peter the Hermit," was produced at the Lyceum in London two years ago. Some time this month, at the Adelphi theater, in the same city, is to be presented his new play, "Bonnie Dundee," the costumes for which were designed by Miss Edith Craig, Ellen Terry's young daughter.

On both sides the water Miss Craig has won fame as the designer of the costumes in "Robespierre." She has long been a student of dress, and has had access to the best books on the subject. When Irving and Terry's wardrobe keeper fell ill some time ago, Miss Terry asked if her daughter might design the costumes, and received a not overwarm consent from Irving. When the designs were submitted to the great actor and stage manager he acknowledged that they were picturesque, but remarked that they were not up to the usual standard. Miss Craig replied that neither was the price paid, and the incident was considered closed.

The designing of costumes for such a production as Irving gives of "Robespierre" involves on the designer's part much historical knowledge and the closest attention to details; one must be conversant with class distinctions of the period in the matter of clothes, the cut of the garments, the quality and color of the fabrics, the style of headgear, and even the height of the heel of the shoe and the sharpness of the toe.

"Robespierre," Irving's new play, was written by Sardou, the very rich and successful French dramatist, who is the author of 50 plays, and who has received more money for his plays than any known playwright. The dramatist essays a difficult task when he tries to engage the sympathies of the audience for that noted monster Robespierre, but with the strength of Irving's genius it is accomplished. Sardou's drama of the French revolution shows us a human side of this dread tyrant and merciless murderer, and we are led to have some pity for the stage Robespierre. Ellen Terry acts the part of Clarice du Manleon, a royalist refugee, who, 19 years before the story opens, was loved by Robespierre, then a young advocate. They drifted apart, Clarice's days spent with the aristocracy, Robespierre's with the haters of the rich and great. Unknown to Robespierre, a child, his son, is born to Clarice, and this child grows to young manhood in the circle to which his mother belongs.

Young Oliver knows nothing of his father, Robespierre nothing of his son. They are on opposite sides in the days of the revolution, and Oliver, who is consumed by a frantic zeal to cut down Robespierre and save France, denounces him publicly.

The play is full of strong contrasts. The opening scene is a green, quiet retreat in the forest of Montmorency, where Clarice tells the story of her relations with Robespierre. From the peaceful landscape about Montmorency, the scene changes to the grim, courtyard of the prison Port Libre, filled with royalist suspects, among them Clarice du Manleon. These are the days when 34 victims a day fall under the knife; when, in companies of ten or fifties, the prisoners are taken before the revolutionary tribunal; when, if answer is "yes," in response to the president's question: "Were you not a noble?" the laconic verdict is: "Enough; another." We hear the prison bell clang, the victims told off for the guillotine, the cries of these, mingled with the cries of friends left behind. But this scene gives place to brilliant procession in honor of the Supreme Being, and we see a populace mad with excitement enter into the celebration. Robespierre is the central figure and directs the fete, until Oliver, insane with rage, appears and hurls defiance at the dictator. The next is a quiet scene in the house where Robespierre lives, the people about him talking of the fete, and, at last, of Oliver's interruption of the day's rejoicings. At mention of Oliver, the tyrant commands that he be brought into his presence. In the scene that ensues Robespierre discovers that the young man whom he is about to condemn to death is his own son.

Clarice and her daughter are rescued from prison, and concealed in a place on the Rue du Martroy, but Oliver's freedom cannot be secured. Robespierre and Clarice, wretched father and mother, stand by the window in her room, hear the tumbrics roll by every day loaded with victims for the guillitone, and peer out through the blinds to see if the form of their son be among those hurried to their fate. The next scene shows Robespierre alone at midnight in the prison of the Conciergerie, haunted by terrible visions of past and future. In the last act, Robespierre at bay before the great convention, Oliver, still ignorant of his parentage, standing with dagger in hand ready to strike if the convention do not vote his death, the decision of the convention, and Robespierre's death by his own hand, being a fitting climax, if not historically accurate.

FRIENDS OF THE YANKEES.

That Is the Reputation Which a Traveled Blacksmith Gives the Boers.

Blacksmith Peavey must certainly be put down as one of the greatest travelers among the residents of Manchester. A story of his years of travel from land to land and his life among different peoples would make a geography in itself. He is a bachelor, resides in West Manchester, and will be 50 years old next May. He learned his trade at Ashland, in this state, and has worked at it in almost every civilized land on the globe. He was $100 in cash when he was 27 years old, and in 1876 started for California.

His brief stop among the Boers is most of interest just now, but he put in five years in Sacramento and thereabouts, in Arizona and New Mexico, and was in the rush from Seattle to the Skaggett mines, British Columbia. Then he went to Honolulu and spent 18 months in Hawaii. On March 21, 1883, he started on his greatest trip by becoming one of the party of 23 that purchased the brigantine Nanceenti, bound for Siberia. Seventeen of the owners sailed, with four outsiders as ship's officers. Most of the men wanted to go to South Africa, but the captain claimed he knew whereof he talked, and insisted on Siberia. The Siberian trip was a mistake and a failure, and the boat was disposed of for cash.

When the venture was given up Mr. Peavey went to blacksmithing, and his subsequent course covered points in Japan, Corea, Hong-Kong, Shanghai, Canton, Amboy, Foo Chow and Tientsin in China, Manila in the Philippines, Singapore in India, New Guinea, New Caledonia, New Hebrides, the Gilbert group, Fijis, the Friendly and Society islands, New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia, Queensland, Thursday islands, New South Wales, Victoria, Ceylon, Calcutta, Bombay, nearly every country in the Mediterranean, Italy, Germany, Hungary, Spain, France, Sweden and Norway, England, Scotland and Ireland. On September 26, six years ago, he sailed for the old New Hampshire hills.

"In all my travels," says Mr. Peavey, "the Boers were the best people in all the world to the Yankee man, and the Japanese a close second."—Manchester (N. H.) Union.

Shocking the Earth.

The revelations at Prof. Milne's observatory on the Isle of Wight of the manner in which earthquakes send their impulses thousands of miles through the frame of the globe are a source of ceaseless wonder. In September last Prof. Milne's instruments detected remarkable tremblings of the earth on the 3d, 10th, 17th, 20th and 23d. Since then he has traced the origin of the shakings on the first three days named to Alaska, on the 20th to Asia Minor and on the 23d to Japan. But every earthquake does not thus set the globe in a tremble, for the shocks at Darjeeling, in India, on September 25 and 26 were not felt at the Isle of Wight, the reason being, Prof. Milne thinks, because those shocks were due to local landslips.—Youth's Companion.

Arthur's Round Table.

The round table, which is supposed to have been handed down from King Arthur's time, is a revered bit of furniture in the county hall of Winchester, England. Tradition says it is the same table around which King Arthur and his knights were wont to assemble. It is an ancient painted oaken table of circular form. A royal figure bearing the orb and sword and wearing the crown adorns the center.—Detroit Free Press.

The Right Thing Has Been Found, a Plainfield Citizen Shows the Way.

Once more we are indebted to a Plainfield citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder they are skeptical of all claims endorsed by strangers residing in far-distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsements, for local citizens are giving their testimony and it is an easy matter for any reader to investigate the correctness of such evidence as the following:

Mrs. Wm. H. Ludlow, of Jackson avenue, says, "I had backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time and tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or standing aggravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies, but got no permanent relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back, and when I do a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results."

Growing Popularity of Curling

The Game Has a Well Established Place in American Sports

AMERICANS are doing their best to prove that curling is not a game to be exclusively indulged in by the Scotch. Bonspiels in the United States are so firmly established that if an expert Canadian wishes to show his prowess as a skip he must come to this country to get widespread recognition. Some critics of outdoor sports circulated mean quips when the Northwestern Curling association announced Milwaukee as the place for the big bonspiel of the year 1900. "Too many Germans there," said one. "The substitution of lager beer for Scotch whisky will not do in curling," said another. But they were writers who perhaps had never seen a curling rink. The ruddy-faced Teuton is as likely to become an expert curler as the silent Scot. There is no reason why an Ona Indian from Terra del Fuego should not make an adept at the game. Englishmen, Irishmen and New Englanders play the ancient game, and there is every prospect of rinks composed of Bohemians, Poles, Russians, Italians, French and others becoming proficient enough to appear in some future bonspiel.

Secretary J. C. Wall, of the Milwaukee curling club, on whose shoulders rested the work of preparing for the last bonspiel of the Northwestern Curling association, never saw a curling stone until he was a grown man. Richard Pritchard, the Chicagoan who took highest honors in the point medal contest at the bonspiel, has been one of the veterans of the Chicago curling club for years, but in his native country, Wales, the only curling he knew anything about was the youthful sport of climbing a hill to set in motion an avalanche of bowlders, and to shout with his companions when the rocks went thundering into the valley. William Nelson, the second prize winner in the point contest—he had 30 points, to Pritchard's 32—is best known in the middle west as a third player. The memory of the oldest curler in the country does not extend back to the time when Nelson first began outwicking. It is said of him that the only inducement that could be offered that could get him to leave his business would be the proffer of a home in Labrador, where a good rink of ice could be had any day, so that he might send the curling "stane" down the central line. The skips from Portage, St. Paul, Winnipeg and other cities who pitted their rinks against one another at the bonspiel were of various nationalities. The Scotch did not predominate, yet when the curlers returned to their hotels after an exciting time on the ice the American and the Caledonian and the Teuton rubbed elbows at the table when the toast was said:

"Noo fill a bumper to the brim,
And drink wi' three times three, mon;
May curlers on life's slippery rink
Frae cruel rubs be free, mon."

In 1893 it was said that there were but 40 curling clubs in the United States, with a membership of 800. The same authority says that Scotland had 481 clubs then, with a total membership of 18,800; England, 33 clubs, with a membership of 1,607; Ireland, three clubs, with 64 members; Norway, one club and 15 members; Russia, one club and 26 members; New Zealand—think of that!—six clubs, with 103 members; Quebec province, ten clubs and 1,081 members; Ontario province, 99 clubs and 3,551 members; Manitoba, 18 clubs and 810 members; Nova Scotia, seven clubs and 287 members; Newfoundland, three clubs and 89 members, and New Brunswick, three clubs, with 155 members. To get the census of clubs and players for the year 1900 would mean a task that would involve much labor, and then the results would be very incomplete. The growth of interest has been manifold, the growth of membership has quadrupled. The time may come in America when the sights seen on the magnificent sheets of ice in Scotland will be duplicated—sometimes 400 rinks are participating at once in a bonspiel, and as each rink has four players the noise of the shouting of 1,600 enthusiasts, to say nothing of the thousands of excited spectators, must be heard to be appreciated.

Skip J. E. Jones, of the Portage (Wisconsin) rink, took home the championship medal from the last bonspiel for the rink winning the greatest number of games by actual play in the aggregate of events. There is little about the name Jones to suggest that the skip was a canny Scot. He is a good native born Badger, and says the Americans may win the great outdoor game, beating even the veteran Scotchmen.

Joe Davis, than whom there is no more enthusiastic curler and cricketer, says that the most important factor in the curler's outfit is the granite stone with which he does his scoring. Strange to say, there has been no discovery of granite in the United States that will fill the bill for curlers, and all the stones are imported.

The granite must be highly polished—the heaviest stone is easily managed if it is keen and brilliant, while, without these properties, the lightest stone is dull, unmanageable and as obstinate as the proverbial mule. The stone must be keen when the ice is dull, and quick when the ice is brightest and fastest. The American granite looks well, polishes well, but will not stand the knocking about without chipping that the imported stone does.

No one can deny that there is humor in the game of curling. The skip, or, as an American might say, the captain, of the rink often keeps up the courage of his men and assures victory by his jollity, his queer sayings, his imitations, in a shrill, piping voice, of the old Scotch curlers, and, standing at the tee, he should be able to direct his men how to place the stones so that his side may be first to take it and last to hold it. A good skip will not censure his players if their style is awkward, providing they possess the necessary "twist" which is the one thing needful in sending the stone down the rink. The curler who does not fit the tee—that is, keep his eye along the central line of the ice rink when delivering the stone—is in as bad a pickle as the golfer who takes his eye off the ball. There is more in the game by a graceful delivery of the stone than if the stone were sent with several times the energy. The cry of the skip: "Elbow in" or "Elbow out," is easily understood. It means to a curler that he is to use a certain kind of twist to get the stone to a certain place in the circle at the head of the rink.

It is said that the greatest skill is required in the point game. The length of the rink shall not exceed 42 yards and circles of 7 feet and 4 feet radius will be drawn around the tee, with the central line plainly marked through the center of the four foot circle and down the rink to the "hog score." The latter is the line which penalizes—no stone will count if it does not pass that point.

Shorn of technicalities, the aim of the curler, who is entitled to curl two stones, is to get the stones closer to the tee than his opponents. Every competitor can play four shots at each of the following points of the game: Striking, inwicking, drawing, guarding, chap and lie, wick and curl in and raising and chipping the winner. Imagine a gigantic shuffleboard table out on the ice and the little disks that are used to slide up to the edge of the table and you will gain some sort of an idea of a curling rink where the curling stones are provided with handles bolted into the stone.

J. C. WALL.
Bonspiel Manager.

What part do brooms play in the game? Considerable. The skips superintend the sweeping which clears fancied and real obstructions from the sliding stone. Only when the stone has glided past the middle line can the sweepers begin to clear the way and they can sweep before the stone until it reaches the tee. This for the player's party. The adverse party can use brooms after the stone has passed the tee; obviously if these sweepers can make a smoother passage for the stone it will continue to roll until it does not count in the game. The sweeping must not be so that the stone is retarded or obstructed in its course, and if a stone be touched by a broom it is "disqualified."

WHIST

The date for the next game for the State whist trophy was changed from last evening to tomorrow evening. The challengers are the Jersey City Club who will come here to meet the Park Club four, who hold the trophy at present.

The team from the Chicago Whist Club did not go to Newark Saturday evening, so no game was played for the A. W. L. trophy, which is now held by the New Jersey Whist Club, of Newark. All the western clubs have decided to drop out until the trophy goes west. Next Saturday the Capitol City Whist Club, of Washington, D. C., will play for the National trophy in Newark.

STANDS IN TWO COUNTIES.

First Baptist Church Said to be Partly in Union and Partly in Somerset County.

Not many preachers of the Gospel can say that for thirty years they have preached in a church in one county with their congregation in another, but this is claimed to be true in the case of Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes and his people. It is claimed according to geographical lines, that a good portion of the First Baptist church, which faces toward the brook, back of the edifice, is in Somerset county, while that portion used for the seating of the congregation is in Union county. This state of affairs has existed for nearly thirty years, and there has never been any dispute regarding it.

There are many old residents who can remember when the brook extended a considerable way toward Front street. This stream was narrowed according to the needs of the times. When the First Baptist church was built it was determined that more land was needed for the large structure, and the necessary extra property was obtained by filling in the brook and bringing the bank to its present location close to the sheds. It was impossible to disturb the brook so that any trouble would arise in high tide, and allowances were made for that. In the early days there was a large pond of water located in that vicinity and it was considered a most desirable place for skating in the winter. As years went by this was gradually filled in, until the present day there is nothing more than an ordinary brook, which is large enough for all purposes.

In the early history of the church all the baptisms took place in the brook back of the property. This was practiced until the new church was built in 1868 and the baptismal pool was placed in that edifice. The brook has always been the dividing line between the two counties, but the exact geographical line has never been accurately established. On this ground the claim is established that Dr. Yerkes preaches in one county and his congregation is located in another. This is a curious fact, if true, and is probably not paralleled in this State.

TELEPHONE SERVICE.

THE NEW YORK
AND NEW JERSEY
TELEPHONE COMPANY,

333 Park Avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 12 3m

FINAL DEMAND TO THE PEOPLE'S GAS COMPANY

to the finance committee with instructions to urge the collection of this money, which he said can be done.

As a result of a conference between Messrs. Coriell and Mellick free gas for the fire department houses have been secured through the generosity of H. G. Runkle. A letter was read from Mr. Runkle which had been addressed to Chief Doane. This letter states that from March 1st of the present year until further notice the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company will furnish 250,000 cubic feet of gas to the fire department houses, free, and that all gas used above that number of feet will be charged for at regular rates. The generosity of the company was acknowledged and a vote of thanks was given to Mr Runkle.

Mr. Buckle stated that a few days ago a very antique piece of furniture that has been used by the city caught fire and as a result its condition is such that it cannot be used. He referred to the city jail. In connection with this he stated that the Olympia building had been secured at a rental of $30 a month, and it would require about $70 to place the building in proper shape for its use as a jail. He offered a resolution confirming the action of the police board in securing this building. The same member offered another resolution voting $25 to Thomas Martin, former warden of the city jail. This money is to relieve him and his family. Mr. Buckle also stated that his services would be dispensed with in the future as they would not be needed in the new place.

John Mortmer petitioned for a wholesale liquor license for the place 220 Park avenue in the building owned by Rosa Frucht. The matter was referred. Residents of East Third street petitioned for an electric light, as did also residents on Leland avenue near North avenue. The liquor license held by John E. Beerbower, formerly of the City Hotel, was transferred to Charles R Knapp, the new proprietor.

Mr. van Herwerden offered a resolution transferring $1,000 from the general to the fire fund. Mr. Mellick moved that an electric light petitioned for to be located under the Grant avenue bridge be granted.

Quite a discussion followed over the question of again changing the night of meeting. Mr. van Herwerden, according to the notice he gave at the last meeting, moved that the by-laws be changed so that the first Monday instead of the second Monday in the month would be made the regular night for meeting.

Mr. Dumont thought the second Monday should be tried for a year at least so that a fair opportunity would be given to prove whether it would be successful. He saw no particular reason why another change should be made now.

Mr. van Herwerden said that the collector and treasurer were better suited by having the meeting on the first Monday, and by making the meeting come later it affected the employes of the city, especially those in the street cleaning department.

Mr. Dumont argued still further and thought it would be well to try the new scheme and see how it will work. He said that it would give the city clerk more time, also the treasurer and collector. Mr. Coriell favored the second Monday and argued from that point of view. Mr. Buckle favored Mr. van Herwerden's idea, and when the vote was taken the first Monday was selected, 6 to 4. Messrs. Mellick, Buckle, Lee, Craig, van Herwerden and Smith voted for the first Monday, while Messrs. Coriell, Dumont, Gloak and Tolles opposed it.

After a recess of five minutes was taken to allow time to audit the books, Council adjourned.

Expects to go to Manila.

David Gray, of this city, who is now second engineer on the U. S. Transport Logan, is now stationed at San Francisco for a short time. His brother, George Gray, of East Third street, received a letter from him Saturday and he says that he is doing well. He expects to return to Manila soon, and if nothing happens he will be home by July 4th. By that time he will have been absent eleven months, and will have nearly traversed the United States and her possessions.

The work of macadamizing Evergreen avenue from Hillside to Woodland avenues will be started this week if the weather permits.

A LIVELY RUNAWAY.

Runaway Horse Dashed Into and Wrecked Dr. Pittis' Rig.

The horse attached to the delivery wagon of Schlief, the Park avenue baker, broke one of the rings in the bit yesterday afternoon and started on a wild run that did considerable damage. The runaway horse dashed down Park avenue at a terrific pace and was unable to turn into Front street when it reached the corner.

In front of the Dunlap building, on the opposite side, the carriage of Dr. Pittis was standing. John Bee, his driver, was seated in the carriage. Before the latter could get out of the way the runaway animal dashed into the doctor's rig and there was a general mix-up. Bee was thrown out and run over by the bakery wagon. At first it was thought that he had been seriously injured, but an examination showed that he was only bruised somewhat.

Dr. Pittis' carriage was overturned and badly damaged. The doctor himself had just gotten out of the carriage, so that his escape was narrow.

The driver of the bakery wagon was Henry Nischwitz. Neither he nor the wagon were injured. The horse was frightened at the Park avenue railroad bridge, and in pulling on the reins broke the ring in the bit.

DEMOCRATS FAVORED.

Spring Election In This Vicinity Show Surprises.

G. O P. WIN IN BOROUGH.

CONTEST LIKELY OVER JUSTICE OF PEACESHIP.

Dispute as to Whether Justice Mattison is Elected — Fanwood, Somerville, Westfield and Other Towns Go Democratic.

The annual Spring election was held in the borough yesterday and in most respects it was noticeable for the absence of anything of an exciting nature. There was really only one close contest and that was for Justice of the Peace between James Lunger, Republican, and W. E. Mattison, Democrat. In this contest much pressure was brought to bear to elect Justice Mattison. He was defeated, however, but only by one vote, and there is still a question in the minds of many as to whether he was defeated. It appears that among the tickets printed at the office of the News some read "James S. Lunger, (5 years)" and others read "Jame S. Lunger, (3 years)." In the Second district three of the latter were voted, but not many supposed they would be credited to Mr. Lunger for the five year term, in fact the mistake was not noticed until after the vote was counted.

The officers in the First district discovered the mistake in the ballot before they were voted and they were thrown out so that they were not voted. As soon as the votes were counted in the Second district and it was discovered that the two candidates were running so close the question was at once raised about the three votes cast for Mr. Lunger for three years. Heated arguments followed, some claiming one thing and some another. After a lengthy discussion the majority were satisfied that Mr. Lunger had won. There were a number that would not listen to it and they said they would contest the election.

Aside from the above contest there was not much interest. The Republicans won with good majorities, as is usual, so there was no surprise. In the First district the total Republican vote was 215 and the Democrat 168. In the Second district the Republican ticket was 204 and the Democrat 112 The Republicans polled a total vote of 419, and the Democrats polled 220. This makes 639 out of a possible 1,100 votes that is claimed to be in the borough.

The Second district received eleven Republican tickets bearing the incorrect name of Charles S. Lee, and there was one rejected. There were none of the faulty Republican tickets voted in the First district and none were rejected. As a result of the election the Borough Council for the coming year will be composed of Messrs. Harrison Coddington, Robert Clark, Jr., Charles A. Lee, John Valiant, George T. Rogers and S. S. Swackhamer, with Mayor N. B. Smalley in the chair.

The vote:

	1st. Dist.	2d Dist.	Total
FOR COUNCILMEN.
Coddington, R..	210	204	414
Lee, R.....	176	161	337
Krewson, D....	128	145	273
Gavin, D.....	118	105	223
FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
Lunger, R.....	156	157	313
Mattison, D....	164	151	315
Taynor, R.....	209	203	412
FOR COMMISSIONER OF APPEAL.
Barkalew, R....	210	203	413
Higgins, D.....	105	109	214
Board of Health Appropriation	317	316	633

The number of Republican tickets cast for the Board of Health appropriation of $550 were 413, and 220 Democratic tickets were cast for the same object.

Justice of the Peace W. E Mattison was seen by a Press representative this morning and he declares that he is elected Justice by two majority. He says that the Republicans are to blame for any errors and that if any contest is made they will have to make it. He will retain his position until ousted by those legally empowered to do so.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE.

Fanwood Township Elects Nearly All the Democrats—Result was a Surprise.

The election held in Fanwood township yesterday was nearly a landslide for the Democratic ticket. John Robison, the Republican nominee for Freeholder, and William Terry, Republican nominee for Town Committeeman for two years, were the only two heading the Republican ticket who were fortunate enough to escape the Democratic slide. Robison's majority for Freeholder over Lambert was only 30. The regular Republican ticket polled was 155 against 115 for the Democratic ticket. The cuts which were so numerous and plentiful on the Republican side helped the Democratic nominees greatly, Nichol beating Buckley for the three-year term for Town Committeeman by 59 majority. Bruckman, Democratic nominee for Committeeman, won over Johnston, the Republican nominee, by 39 majority. Charles French, Democratic nominee for Assessor, won over James E. Goodman by 31 majority. John L. Darby, Democratic nominee for Collector, beat L W. Miller, his Republican opponent, by 39 majority. The minor offices went to the Republican ticket. All the appropriations, including the police or jail appropriation of $50, was carried with but very little scratching.

In the early morning hours a new ticket, called the Citizens'-Independent, was launched into the political field. The nominations were a combination of Republicans and Democrats. All claimed that their names were being used without their authority, and soon ordered their names stricken from the ballot. No one seemed to want to stand sponsor for the new ticket and it died an early death, not one of them being voted.

The Democratic victory was unexpected, as the Republican ranks were harmonious and no trouble showed upon the surface.

The Citizens' ticket in Fanwood borough went through successfully yesterday. Eighty-nine votes were cast and resulted in electing for Councilmen, H. L. Hall and L. J. Ellis; Assessor, W. R. Stanbery, and Collector, Charles Scheelen.

RESULT IN DUNELLEN.

Only Contest was Over Assessor — William R. Larkin Beat Charles A Coriell.

The municipal election of the borough of Dunellen yesterday was very quiet. There were two tickets in the field, though there was no partisanship displayed. One ticket was called the Citizens' and the other the People's. The only change in the tickets was on assessor, the candidates being Former Postmaster Charles A. Coriell on the Citizens' ticket and William R. Larkin on the People's. The friends of both parties worked industriously for their candidates. Mr. Larkin had many friends. They rallied to his support and he succeeded in defeating Mr. Coriell by six majority. Below is the vote in detail:

For Councilmen, Henry C. Gaskill, 238; Lewis T. Titsworth, 252; for Assessor, W. R. Larkin, 131; Charles A. Coriell, 125; for Collector, George W. Day, 244; for Commissioner of Appeal, Henry V. Dunham, 259; for Constable, John H. Rinehart, 255.

The appropriations, borough purposes, $2,500, and $150 for support of the poor, were carried.

TRUE TO DEMOCRACY.

Warren Township Elected all the Democratic Candidates by Good Majorities.

Warren Township has a large normal Democratic majority but the Republicans of that township put up a strong fight at the Spring election yesterday. The result was a complete victory for the Democratic ticket, however, by a majority of 65. The following officers were elected by the majorities noted:—Assessor, Peter Neumiller, 28; Collector, George Terrill, 37; Freeholder, Joel Coddington, 73; Overseer of the Poor, George Bowers, 144; Township Committee, William H. Rogers, 3 years, 54; Thomas C. Bird, 2 years, 55; Henry P. Williams, 1 year, 36; Justice of the Peace, Dietrich Ehlan, 88; Commissioner of Appeal, I. V. Adams, 74

It was also voted to spend $1,000 for the repair of the roads, $1,000 for crushed stone to be used in the five leading districts including carting and leveling, and $500 for the support of the poor.

SOMERVILLE DEMOCRATIC.

Bridgewater Republican Candidates Were Defeated by 200 Majority for Local Offices.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 14—The election passed off quietly in Somerville, a fair vote being polled for a spring election. The chief contest was over Justice of the Peace and Town Committeemen. Two of the Republican nominees for Town Committee, John

DELINQUENT POLL TAX ON INCREASE

Many Thousand Dollars Are Now Owing to the City in This Respect.

PILING UP EVERY YEAR.

SOMETHING MUST BE DONE TO MA E BETTER COLLECTIONS.

Since Justice Nash Was Deprived of the Job to Attend to This Work There Has Been a Perceptible Increase in the Delinquent Sums.

Councilman J. B. Dumont has brought to light certain rather remarkable facts concerning the collection of the poll taxes in this city. During the last ten years nearly $10,000 due the city from poll taxes remains uncollected. In the year 1899 nearly half of the voters in the city of Plainfield failed to pay their poll tax. To be exact $1,737 in poll taxes is still due for last year. At the last city election there were 2,412 ballots cast. The number registered is, of course, somewhat larger, but it will not reach over 4,000.

Councilman Dumont believes that a more vigorous campaign in the collection of the poll taxes will be a decided benefit to the city. It is often necessary now to borrow funds to meet the current expenses of the city in anticipation of the collection of taxes. Then when there is a failure to secure the taxes, a difficulty occurs in the appropriations which must be made up out of the next year's collections.

The difficulty in some cases of collecting taxes on real and personal property is well-known. But the poll tax amounts to only $1 a year, a sum which very few, indeed, are not able to pay. It should be the easiest tax of all to collect. The returns of the Tax Collector do not show it to be so, however.

At a previous meeting of the Council Councilman Dumont introduced a resolution asking that the Tax Collector furnish the Council with a list of the amounts of the delinquent poll taxes for the past ten years. That resolution was passed without comment. At the meeting of the Council Monday evening Tax Collector Martin furnished the report desired.

The report showed the following delinquent poll taxes distributed among the ten years as follows: 1890, $527.97; 1891, $517.70; 1892, $523.15; 1893, $565.39; 1894, $676 55; 1895, $1 047; 1896, $1.280; 1897, $1,504; 1898, $1,543; 1899, $1,737.

For a better understanding of the situation, it might be well to state that previous to 1895, there was a delinquent tax collector, seperate from the regular Tax Collector. For the first five years mentioned in the list. V. W. Nash was delinquent tax collector. After that time the office was united with that of regular collector.

According to this report, there were 1,737 legal citizens of Plainfield who failed to pay their poll tax last year. A list of those same 1,737 men might contain some surprises. It is really remarkable the men who will forget to perform that duty, the payment of their poll tax. The question that is the logical outcome of the investigation started by Mr. Dumont is why these taxes were not paid. It is hard to believe that over a thousand of the men of Plainfield cannot afford to contribute a dollar a year to the support of the city.

Mr. Dumont has made no statement concerning his future course in the matter. He has been heard, however, to express a hope that more attention be shown to the collection of poll taxes in the future than has been during the past five years, else will the city lose a considerable part of its legitimate revenue. The facts as shown by this report of the Collector are too important to be ignored entirely by the Council. It may be that the mere agitation of the question will have the desired effect.

Change in Raritan Trolley Company.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, March 14.—Additional articles of incorporation of the Raritan Trolley Company, which is capitalized at $1,000,000, were filed recently in the Middlesex County Clerk's office. Papers filed two weeks ago set forth that James C. McCoy was the largest stockholder. In the papers filed recently the name of Adolph Lewisohn, of New York, is substituted for that of Mr. McCoy and the latter is made the agent of the company, with an office in Elm street, Perth Amboy. The company intends to build a trolley line through Raritan and Woodbridge townships, connecting Perth Amboy and Metuchen.

DEATH OF E. A. GROSS.

A LONG AND HONORABLE CAREER ENDED THIS MORNING.

Devoted Member of St. Mary's Church, of Which He Was a Liberal Supporter

A long and honorable career was ended this morning when Eugene A. Gross passed away at his residence, 722 West Seventh street. Mr. Gross was taken ill a week ago with pneumonia. A recent sickness left his heart so weak that it could not withstand the last illness. He died this morning at 9:15 o'clock.

Mr. Gross was born at Cincinnati, O., sixty-two years ago. He was brought up and received a college education there. He then began a mercantile career that took him west until finally business called him to New York. He moved to Plainfield twenty-two years ago and made his home here until his death. He has been a member of the firm of A. Gross & Co., candle manufacturers, New York, with a factory located in Jersey City.

Mr. Gross was married twenty-eight years years ago to Miss Fanny M. Tennant, of San Francisco. She survives him. There were no children. He has one brother and five sisters living. They are Charles E. Gross, of New York, Mrs. F. A. Crowther, of Cincinnati, O., Mrs. J. L. Slavin, of Franklin place, this city, Mrs. A. M. Conway, of West Seventh street, this city, Mm. Gross, of the Sacred Heart Convent, and Mrs. Francis Darr, of Wayne, Pa.

Mr. Gross was a member and regular attendant at St. Mary's R. C. church and was a large contributor to its benevolences. He was an unassuming man, caring little for society and preferring the pleasures of his own home.

TROUBLE ON CENTRAL.

THERE IS TALK OF A STRIKE OF THE EMPLOYES.

Many Men Have Been Laid Off and the Labor Organizations are Considering the Matter.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Phillipsburg, N. J., March 14.—Employes of the New Jersey Central Railroad are holding here an important conference. The general grievance committee of the federated brotherhoods, consisting of sixty men, representing the employes of the entire Central system, is considering questions of vital interest. It is possible the result of their deliberations may be a strike.

Vice-Grand Master C. A. Wilson was summoned here from Baltimore and is presiding over the session. He said the meeting would probably continue all night.

The nominal object is to elect a new general chairman. The real business is the consideration of the recent retrenchment policy of the Central Company. Trainmen and telegraph operators have been suspended by the wholesale. Yard crews have been reduced and the new big type of engines which the brotherhoods insist should have two firemen are being run with one fireman. These and other grievances have made the employes sullen and ready for a fight with the company.

WHAT COUNCIL WILL DO.

There is No Promise as Yet That the People's Gas Company Franchise Will be Granted.

Regarding the resolution passed by the Common Council Monday evening concerning the franchise for the People's Gas Company, one of the Councilmen called attention this morning to the fact that the resolution stated clearly that the Council would entertain the idea of granting the franchise only when the company agreed with all the requirements asked. He called special attention to the fact that there was no promise on the part of the Council to grant the franchise if those requirements were agreed to. A mistaken idea concerning that semed to prevail, he said.

Funeral of Mrs. Atkinson.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Lydia Atkinson were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Robinson, Watchung avenue. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, of the First Baptist church, officiated, and after reading appropriate scripture selections, delivered an impressive discourse. He was followed by Rev. Walter Pastelle, colored, who is in charge of the 84th Street Mission in New York. Mrs. Atkinson was very much interested in the work at this mission and contributed largely to its support. The display of floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The interment took place in Evergreen Cemetery on Plainfield avenue.

FRANK BERGEN IS OUT FOR CONGRESS.

The Elizabeth Lawyer Enters the Lists Against Representative Fowler.

WHAT HIS REASONS ARE.

SAYS THAT FOWLER HAS FARED WELL IN POLITICS.

In Case the Nomination is Conceded to Union County Mr. Bergen Will Try to Capture It.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 14th—A political surprise was sprung here yesterday by Frank Bergen, who announced himself as a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket to succeed Congressman Charles N. Fowler.

The news quickly spread in political circles in Elizabeth, and Mr. Bergen's office was visited by numerous politicians. A reporter called on Mr. Bergen and asked him if the story was true.

"I frankly admit," said Mr. Bergen, "that if I can get the Republican nomination I will be pleased to accept the honor. You can say, as coming from me, that I am in the field if the nomination is coming to Union county.

"I have nothing against Congressman Fowler, but I think he has been very fairly dealt with by the Republican party, which has given him three terms—one more than the party usage. He has made a good representative, but the financial question, on which he was elected, has been practically settled, and now new issues will come to the front—our government of the Philippines, for example—and I don't see why a new Congressman, if he has ability, should not be able to grapple with these problems.

"If Essex county wants the nomination then I will not stand in the way of an Essex county man, but if it is coming again to Union, then I think that I have as much right to aspire to it as any one else. That, in a nutshell, is my attitude on the subject.

"It has afforded me much gratification to see how my prospective candidacy has been received by my friends in Union county, and this, of itself, has encouraged me in the stand I have decided to take in the matter."

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting to Be Held at Atlantic City, June 15th.

At a meeting of the State Bar Association at the State House, Trenton, Tuesday of last week, it was decided to hold the annual meeting of the association at Atlantic City, Friday, June 15th. A special committee was appointed to report at that time on the subject of reorganizing the judiciary system of the State.

Such a reorganization has been desired by the Bar for some time, but a constitutional amendment is necessary to bring it about, and this has complicated matters. A number of new members were received and routine business transacted.

Contesting "Uncle David's" Will.

The will of the late David Cooper is being contested in the Morris County Orphans' Court. David Cooper, known in his lifetime as "Uncle David," was a farmer residing near the village of Franklin, and at his death, which occurred about a year ago, was reputed to have been ninety-nine years of age. His fortune was estimated at $50,000, which was bequeathed to numerous heirs next of kin. For several years previous to his demise Mr. Cooper's affairs were looked after by Charles DeHart and Dr. Flagge, of Rockaway, as guardians. The dissenting heirs of the deceased are opposing the will on the ground that mentally and physically Mr. Cooper was unable to make a will.

Trolley Craze Spreads in Jersey.

It is proposed to build a trolley line, with electric lighting plant, from Lebanon, Hunterdon county, to Washington, Warren county, a distance of fourteen miles, passing through Annandale, Clinton, High Bridge, Glen Gardner and Hampton, to connect with the Phillipsburg line through Washington, Hackettstown and Lake Hopatcong to Newark. The power house will be at Clinton. It is proposed to extend to Somerville.

Factory for New Orange.

In four weeks from now ground will be broken at New Orange for a large chandelier works, which is now located at Brooklyn. The plant when finished will furnish employment to 600 persons. A branch of the New Orange Railway will be run to the Rahway river for the accommodation of the works, which are to be located on the bank of that stream.

NEW LOCKUP IS READY.

OLYMPIA HAS BEEN FITTED UP FOR THE POLICE.

One Cell is Ready for Occupancy—Court Room is Complete—Only a Prison is Needed Now.

Fear of confinement in the "rookery" need no longer deter offenders of the law. The new quarters of the police department in the Olympia on Sycamore street is ready for the accommodation of prisoners. The first cell in the Olympia was ready for use yesterday afternoon but an occupant was not forthcoming. Today a second cell will be completed and the other two will be ready before the end of the week.

While the new quarters are but temporary, the cells are being constructed stout enough to answer all requirements. They will stretch across the extreme rear of the building and are about the size of the old ones. The walls are made of two inch spruce planks, put together with tongue and groove. They are very solidly built and will resist any onslaught unless accompanied by the use of an axe.

The heavy doors to the old cells were removed, carefully scalded to discourage the emigration of any of the old inhabitants, and will be used for the new set of cells. The prisoners will also have the satisfaction of having waxed floors to their cells for the entire floor was waxed for dancing long before the city hired the building.

A wooden partition, seven feet high, will separate the jail part from the rest of the building and still allow plenty of ventilation. An immense stove in the front part of the building will heat the place comfortably.

The building is T shaped with the top in front. One of the wings is devoted to the toilet and dressing rooms. The other is not separated from the rest of the building by any partitions. There the judge's desk and seats have been located and there City Judge Runyon will hold forth. The part of the building that corresponds to the upright of the T has the jail at the extreme foot. The rest has no particular use at present except as a drill hall for the policemen.

COTILLION AND WHIST.

Pleasant Entertainment Furnished the Tuesday Evening Club by Mr and Mrs. Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lowe, of Fairview avenue, entertained the Tuesday Evening Whist Club last night with their proverbial hospitality. After the usual number of games had been played refreshments were served, not the least of which was a so-called "mystery punch," the ingredients of which puzzled even the knowing one, all however, uniting in declaring it delicious. A wheel of fortune tempted the adventureous, and dancing engaged all until early morn, when with a fresh cigar, one more glass of punch, a hasty adieu was taken and a most enjoyable evening was voted by all to the geniality of these popular hosts. Prizes which seemed to particularly win the approbation of all were won by Mesdames Bullock and Caldwell, and Messrs. McClintock and Bullock.

An extremely amusing incident of the evening was a dancing lesson which was seriously indulged in by prominent members, the results of which we hope to chronicle, as a reward for their zeal, which was preparatory to a more public event of this club in the near future.

Those participating were Judge and Mrs. Coddington, Postmaster and Mrs. E. H. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. J. McClintock, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Gallup, Mrs. Horsley Barker, Miss Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram A. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Cutter, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrick, Mr. and Mrs. VanWinkle.

Mrs. Lowe was ably assisted by her mother, Mrs. Laura F. Burtis, in the reception of her guests.

Prosperity of Adirondack Club.

The annual meeting of the Adirondack Club was held Monday, in the rooms of the Board of Trade and Transportation in the Mail and Express building, New York. A number of Plainfielders are members of this club, and the fact that the debt has been reduced over $100,000 in three years is a subject of interest and congratulation to them. Among the members present were Augustus D. Shepard, of Fanwood, and John Doull Miller, of this city.

High School Honors.

The commencement appointments of the Class of 1900 of the Plainfield High School have just been announced. Ruth Potter Maxson has the standing for three and a half years and is to be valedictorian. The second honor is divided between Mary Lock and Edna Burr, who hold the same rank in the class.

COMMUTERS CRITICISE CITY STREET RAILWAY

Trolley Cars Never Wait for Passengers on Approaching Trains.

NEW CARS COMING IN JUNE.

ARLINGTON AVENUE EXTENSION TO BE STARTED THIS MONTH.

As Soon as Rails Arrive the Work Will Be Started—Must Be Completed by July 1st—Troublesome Switch Repaired.

As soon as the rails and other materials arrive the work of building the Arlington avenue extension of the Plainfield Street Railway will commence. That will probably happen before the end of the month and, according to the ordinance, it will have to be completed before July 1st. Meanwhile the patrons of the company are wondering if the methods now in vogue are going to be continued this summer. The cars continue to run on fifteen minutes' headway when nothing particular happens to interrupt.

All the good cars that were in the service of the Plainfield Company before the line was opened to Cranford are now in use on the through line, while Plainfield has to be content with the repainted second-hand cars from Brooklyn and such of the old cars as are not good enough for the long run. A number of the latter are afflicted with that most unpleasant of trolley car troubles, a flat wheel. They can be heard several blocks away, while the sensation to the passenger in the car isn't enjoyable, to put it mildly.

The information has just been made public that the new cars, of which so much has been heard, will not be here until June instead of April. They are to be closed double truck cars after the pattern of those used on the Brunswick Company's line. Whether there are to be any new open cars it is impossible to say. If they do come it will probably be well along towards fall.

The troubles at the switch at the corner of Watchung avenue and East Fourth street seem to have been pretty well obviated. Occasionally a car gets off the track but it is no longer an every day occurance as before. The switch has been repaired.

There is one class of residents who view the present methods of the company with undisguised disgust. They are the commuters. They claim that the street railway is supposedly run with an eye to the accommodation of the public. They point out the fact, however, that the cars of the local system leave the switch near the station without any regard for trains. A train may be just approaching the station and there may be on board a number of passengers who would be glad to take advantage of the car and ride home. But the trolley car never waits. It leaves in the very sight of the passengers who are compelled to wait fifteen minutes for another car or walk. And most of them walk.

A visitor in Plainfield from one of the western states remarked the other day that he had never seen a street railway company run so poorly as the Plainfield line is. He commented on the poor cars, the insufficient heating of them and the dirty condition they are allowed to be in. He laughed at the story of the "pneumonia express" and wondered at a city that allowed such a state of affairs to exist as long as it did.

GOT THE "CREDIT" MARK.

Exceptional Good Work of High School Graduates at Wellesley College.

The Plainfield High School is represented in the Freshman class at Wellesley by two students who are doing exceptionally creditable work. Miss Helen L. Hall and Miss Angie S. Kuhl have each received the mark "credit" in every subject of study for the first semester. The college gives three grades of mark: "Unsatisfactory" for failure; "satisfactory" and "credit" for especially meritorious work.

Of the P. H. S. class of '96, Charles Anthony Squires has recently received a commencement appointment at Williams College for general excellence in scholarship.

At Union College Henry Arthur Pearce is holding in his class the first place which he won in the entrance examinations last September.

Took His Verbal Promise.

Winslow Carson came before City Judge Runyon yesterday on the charge of non-support. He could not secure the necessary bond so his wife took his verbal promise to pay $9 a week toward her support.

ATTHECAPITALGATE

Roberts Arrives at, but Has Not Entered, Bloemfontein.

KRUGER-STEYN APPEAL REJECTED.

England Will Prosecute the War In Her Own Way and Dictate the Terms of Peace—Good Offices of the United States Spurned.

LONDON, March 14.—Nothing can be said of the advance on Bloemfontein beyond Lord Roberts' own dispatches. Nothing more has been permitted to come through. Doubtless Lord Roberts himself is fully occupied with important military operations. The dispatch from Cape Town saying that General French had "arrived at Bloemfontein" probably does not mean that he has entered the city.

Lord Roberts' messages may mean either that the Boers have cut the railway to the north or that the British cavalry have done so. If the former, then it may be assumed that no rolling stock has been seized, but by general assumption the latter interpretation is regarded as correct.

This would greatly facilitate obtaining supplies from Orange River, an important matter, as Lord Roberts' line of communications with Modder Bridge is now 110 miles long.

The Boers may make another fight, but there is little doubt that Lord Roberts will occupy Bloemfontein today. The Boers retiring from Orange River will find themselves between two British armies, and their guns are almost bound to fall into the hands of the British, while the occupation of the capital of the Free State will strain the alliance of the two republics to the utmost.

The government will not allow the Kruger-Steyn appeal to influence in any way their determination not to spare any effort to prosecute the war. There will be no diminution of measures calculated to maintain the full efficiency of the field force.

In the house of lords the premier, Lord Salisbury, read the British government's reply to Presidents Kruger and Steyn. The concluding sentence is as follows:

"Her majesty's government can only answer your honors' telegram by saying it is not prepared to assent to the independence of either the South African Republic or the Orange Free State."

Lord Salisbury's reply meets with unanimous approval among conservatives, and it is the universal opinion that the Boers by their extravagant claims and canting tone, meant to influence foreign powers, have again overreached themselves, as they did by the ultimatum.

The United States, at the request of President Kruger and President Steyn, has offered to the British government its services as mediator, with the view of bringing about peace in South Africa.

The United States charge d'affaires, Mr. Henry White, saw Lord Salisbury at the foreign office in the evening and received a formal reply from the British government, declining the good offices of the United States in regard to peace.

The representations made to Great Britain were so put that they assumed nothing of a desire to intervene, but simply transmitted the communications made to United States Consul Adelbert S. Hay at Pretoria, with the accompanying assurances that anything the state department could do in the interests of peace would be gladly undertaken.

Lord Roberts telegraphs from Venter's Vlei as follows:

"I directed General French, if there were time before dark, to seize the railway station at Bloemfontein and thus secure the rolling stock. At midnight I received a report from him that, after considerable opposition, he had been able to occupy two hills close to the railway station which command Bloemfontein."

In the lobbies of the house of commons rumors that Mafeking had been relieved were in circulation last evening, but they still lack confirmation.

A dispatch from Pretoria, dated March 10, says: "General Joubert has arrived here to consult with the government. Rumors of peace overtures are in the air. All attention is directed toward the British advance upon Bloemfontein, but the federals are still confident of being able to check it."

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch from Kimberley, dated March 13:

"Lord Methuen occupied Poshof on Sunday without opposition. He left a garrison there and returned here. The railway and telegraph lines have been repaired 30 miles northward to Slyp Klip. It is understood that the line between Fourteen Streams and Vryburg is not badly damaged."

A dispatch from Cape Town, dated March 14, says:

"The Canadians from Victoria West proceeded to the Trieska district. A Kimberley farmer who has just returned there from a trip to Barkly West reports that the country is almost deserted. He covered a distance of 75 miles. Boers are said to be massing a strong force on the Vaal river in the neighborhood of Klipdam."

Lady Sarah Wilson wires The Daily Mail from Mafeking, under date of March 6 (by native runner to Lobatsi March 9), as follows:

"On Saturday, March 3, the Boers furiously bombarded the brickfields and trenches about a mile from the town for three hours, killing one and wounding two colonials.

"On Monday, March 5, they made a determined attack. Owing to a misunderstanding the colonials evacuated the foremost trench. This the Boers occupied, but reserves were called up, and the trench was recaptured with a rush. We had no casualties.

"The Boers continue very active, and it taxes Colonel Baden-Powell and the garrison very heavily to prevent them encroaching on our lines. Since Commandant Snyman returned from the north the siege has been prosecuted with renewed vigor.

"Dynamite explosions were heard during the last two days of February. The Boers have been blowing up sections of the Northern railway, showing that they fear the approach of Colonel Plumer's column.

"The new five inch gun made here has proved very satisfactory and accurate. Colonel Baden-Powell warned Commandant Snyman that unless he disbanded and disarmed the native levies filling the Boer forward trenches by March 3 he (Baden-Powell) would no longer be responsible for restraining Chief Linchwe in the Sequani district. Commandant Snyman declines to disband them."

Mr. Winston Churchill wires to The Morning Post from Durban protesting against the ceremonious treatment of General Cronje. He adds:

"The stern decision not to exchange prisoners will undoubtedly accelerate the end of the war, but it will prove very hard and perhaps even dangerous for the British prisoners in Pretoria.

"There is abundant evidence that the Boers are becoming more cruel and that the war will enter a darker phase. It is very doubtful if the Boer government will be able to control the wild passions of the exasperated ruffians forming the noisy part of the Boer forces in the event of a siege of Pretoria, and the position of the British prisoners would then become precarious.

"I have visited the dam which the Boers began on Klip river below Ladysmith. If it had been completed, it would have submerged Intombi camp, where there were 2,000 sick."

The chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, announces that the war loan had been oversubscribed ten times, the applications numbering 18,000.

Trouble In Zululand.

LEBOMBO, via Lourenco Marques, March 14.—Trouble is expected between Chief Ogelequana and Chief Umbogase in British Zululand. The Boers are anxious that the chiefs should quarrel, and they are prepared to support the former, as is also the Swazi queen. The Zulu king, however, upholds Umbogase. The women at Piet Rief laager are lamenting over the heavy Boer loss around Ladysmith.

General Brabant Defeats Boers.

ALIWAL NORTH, Cape Colony, by Courier to Burghersdorp via Stormberg Junction, March 14.—General Brabant's forces arrived here Sunday. The Boers had retired the previous night, taking up a position four miles beyond the Orange river, where General Brabant attacked and drove them back, securing the position after a sharp engagement.

Lobatsi Captured.

CAPE TOWN, March 14.—Colonel Plumer occupied Lobatsi without opposition on March 5. The Boers had retired the previous day. The railway is damaged, but can be easily repaired.

THE LATEST EDICT.

Chinese Empress Dowager Encourages Assassination.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Peking advices received say that the full text of the Chinese empress dowager's latest edict offering a reward for the capture of Kang Yu Wei and Liang Chi Chao, the Chinese reformers, shows that she made a direct bid for the assassination of these two men. She offers 100,000 taels for their capture, or, to quote the translation of the decree: "Should these men be assassinated it will only be necessary to have their bodies identified to receive the same reward now offered. Should official rank be desired in preference to this money we will give high, substantial rank far above that usually granted, which will satisfy the desires of the most ambitious."

This decree is issued in the name of the unfortunate young emperor, who regarded the proscribed men as his best friends. It has aroused much indignation among foreigners because it puts a premium on assassination. Kang Wu is now at Singapore, and Liang Chi is in Vancouver, but the reward is so great that they are likely to be murdered by highbinders.

CONFERENCE REPORT ADOPTED

The Financial Bill Now Ready For President's Signature.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The last legislative step in the enactment of the financial bill was taken by the house of representatives when the conference report on the bill was adopted by a vote of 166 yeas to 120 nays, with 10 present and not voting. The senate had already adopted the conference report, so it remains only for President McKinley to affix his signature to the measure to make it a law. Representative Overstreet, the author of the bill, will take it to the White House today, and the signature is likely to be affixed soon thereafter. Already arrangements have been made for securing the pen with which the president will sign the bill.

The debate on the report continued throughout the day, Mr. Overstreet of Indiana in defense and Mr. Brosius of Pennsylvania in opposition with a severe arraignment of the bill.

The vote was on party lines, except that nine Democrats joined with the Republicans in supporting the conference report.

A Genteel Thief.

NEW HAVEN, March 14.—Frederick N. Davis, 24 years old, living with his wife and two small children at 231 Shelton street, was arrested late yesterday by Detective Donnolly charged with burglary and was placed under $3,000 bonds. Davis is held on 20 charges of burglary extending from October, 1898 to the present time and also on two charges of theft. The detective has had the young man under suspicion since the first date given, but until within a few days was unable to secure sufficient evidence to warrant an arrest. The man was a conductor on the Fairhaven and Westville line of trolley cars to East Haven and has not missed a day on any night or day run. Consequently the burglaries were committed either at night after he finished work or on Sundays. The goods stolen include phonographs, bicycles, diamonds, watches, paintings, statuary, revolvers and money.

Much Cotton Planted.

COLUMBIA, March 14.—The sale of fertilizers this year is nearly one-half more than last year. The inference is that the acreage of cotton has been increased proportionately. Hard freezes have injured small grain, of which there was an increased acreage. Farmers, inspired by prevailing prices, are turning back to cotton. All available land will be planted.

Michael's Challenge Accepted.

CINCINNATI, March 14.—Harry A. Gibson, the 100 kilometer champion of the world, has accepted Jimmy Michael's challenge and will ride the former champion any distance from ten miles to an hour, the match to be ridden at the track offering the largest purse.

No Ice Famine There.

GARDINER, Me., March 14.—The ice crop on the Kennebec river has been housed, and all danggr of an ice famine, so far as supply from this section is concerned, is removed.

TOULOUSE, France, March 14.—Pere Henri Didon, the celebrated Dominican preacher and author, died suddenly yesterday of apoplexy. He was born March 17, 1840.

TO PREVENT DAMP WALLS.

A Simple Process Which Involves But Little Expense and Labor.

It is unnecessary to dilate upon the danger and undesirable character of damp walls. Not only do they endanger the furniture, books, fittings and dressings of the house itself, but a much more serious matter is the peril which they convey to the health of inmates. It is also known that in many cases walls, as though gifted with the power of voluntary perversity, will persist in proving damp, where no recognized cause exists. In a recent article touching upon this matter the writer describes a very simple remedy for this difficulty. He says: In many localities there is a great deal of complaint about damp walls. Expedients of all sorts have been resorted to in order to remedy this evil, but in most cases they have involved great cost and labor, and sometimes the only alternative was the tearing down of the wall and rebuilding it with a filling of Portland cement and other impervious material. A simple process is said to effectually do away with all dampness. Applications are made alternately of dissolved castile soap and dissolved alum. Three-fourths of a pound of soap is melted in one gallon of boiling water. The liquid thus obtained is thoroughly beaten, to cause a stiff froth. This and the water are then completely incorporated by stirring and made boiling hot. The time for preparing the wall should be after a long dry spell, and, as the wall must be as free from moisture as possible, this condition can be assisted by the judicious use of fires. Then brush the surface to be covered until as clean as possible. With a wide, flat brush coat the surface with the boiling soap preparation, working it back and forth until the wall is covered with small bubbles. Let it remain 24 hours to dry out, then apply an alum solution made by dissolving half a pound of alum in four gallons of water. The alum coating may be nearly at blood heat. This should stand a day or two to dry and harden, then another application of soap, the same as the first, must be put on. How many coats are needed depends on the condition of the wall; sometimes half a dozen would be necessary. The soap and alum form a coating insoluble in water, and this unites with the material in the wall, filling all of the crevices and making a thoroughly waterproof surface.—Housewife.

ONLY A DREAM.

A Convict's Sweet Illusion of Freedom and Wealth Ruthlessly Dispelled.

The day of my discharge has come. How happy I am. How proud I feel as I stand with my face to the wall near the cellhouse door, awaiting the summons to go to the storeroom to change my clothes. It seems that the men will never cease their tramp, tramp, as they file from the cellhouse on the way to the shops. But the last of them finally goes out the door, and I am hustled to the storeroom. I array myself in my "store" clothes, then make my way, eager and trembling with excitement, to the front office. There, after a few preliminaries, I am handed my discharge and my money and joyfully go forth to battle once more with the world. How brightly the sun shines. How fresh and invigorating the air. It actually smelled better than the air behind those ugly frowning walls.

And, now that I am once again free, where will I go, and what will I do? Ah! a thought strikes me. I have not yet breakfasted. Where is there a good restaurant? Right down the street. I enter and give an order that makes the waiter stare in astonishment. Ha, ha! He will stare harder than that when he sees me get outside of that breakfast. Beefsteak, fried potatoes, eggs, ham, hot rolls, butter, coffee and—. But while the cook is hustling around making ready the feast I will take a drink. Is there a saloon near? Yes. Just two doors below. Thither I go, and feeling rich enough (for haven't I 25 big American dollars in my pocket?) I ask everybody up to drink. All accept. The drinks are placed on the bar. The barkeeper is making change for a ten, we raise the glasses to our lips, and—

Clang! Clang!! Clang!!! goes the gong, and I rise and dress, and, as usual, go to my daily grind.—Minnesota Prison Mirror.

Planked Bread.

Just as the most tasty way of cooking shad is on a plank, so many people think that the best corn bread is that cooked in the same fashion. Into two tablespoonfuls of cold hominy rub a tablespoonful of butter or lard, one egg, one-half pint of milk, and corn flour enough to make the batter just stiff enough to be spread upon a board. Do not let the batter be more than half an inch thick on the board. Put it in the oven, or before a hot fire if you can manage it, and let it brown. Pass a coarse thread between the cake and board, turn it and brown the other side. Use a well-seasoned hardwood plank.—Farm and Fireside.

The Kernel.

The difference in our estimate of people and things depends on how we take them. If we eat the whole nut, we find a good deal that is coarse and innutritious; but if we have the habit of picking out the kernel we generally find it sweet. Even the squirrel knows enough for that. Persons of a very wide and varied experience are apt to acquire this squirrelous wisdom. Out of each of their battles, sieges and fortunes they have contrived to extract a central core that was interesting.—Housewife.

GAGE EXPLAINS BILL

Changes Wrought by the New Finance Law.

A RESERVE FUND OF $150,000,000.

A Larger Issue of Silver Certificates Provided For—Silver Coinage Provision Will Be Appreciated—National Banks of Small Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Gage makes the following statement in explanation of the provisions of the financial bill which passed the house yesterday:

"The financial bill, which now awaits only the signature of the president to become a law, has for its first object what its title indicates, the fixing of the standard of value and the maintaining at a parity with that standard of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States. It reaffirms that the unit of value is the dollar, consisting of 25 8-10 grains of gold nine-tenths fine, but from that point it goes on to make it the duty of the secretary of the treasury to maintain all forms of money issued or coined at a parity with this standard. It puts into the hands of the secretary ample power to do that. For that purpose the bill provides in the treasury bureaus of issue and redemption and transfers from the general fund of the treasury's cash $150,000,000 in gold coin and bullion to the redemption fund, that gold to be used for the redemption of United States notes and treasury notes. That fund is henceforth absolutely cut out of and separated from the cash balance in the treasury, and the available cash balance will hereafter show a reduction of $150,000,000 from the figures that have heretofore prevailed. This $150,000,000 redemption fund is to be used for no other purpose than the redemption of United States notes and treasury notes, and those notes so redeemed may be exchanged for the gold in the general fund or with the public, so that the reserve fund is kept full with gold to the $150,000,000 limit.

"The secretary is given further power. If redemptions go on so that the gold in this reserve fund is reduced below $100,000,000 and he is unable to build it up to the $150,000,000 mark by exchange for gold in the general fund or otherwise, he is given power to sell bonds, and it is made his duty to replenish the gold to the $150,000,000 mark by such means.

"The bill provides for a larger issue of silver certificates by declaring that hereafter silver certificates shall be issued only in denominations of $10 and under except as to 10 per cent of the total volume. Room is made for this larger use of silver certificates in the way of small bills by another provision which makes it necessary as fast as the present silver certificates of high denominations are broken up into small bills to cancel a similar volume of United States notes of small denominations and replace them with notes of denominations of $10 and upward. Further room is made for the circulation of small silver certificates by a clause which permits national banks to have only one-third of their capital in denominations under $10.

"One clause of the bill which the public will greatly appreciate is the right that it gives to the secretary to coin any of the 1890 bullion into subsidiary silver coins up to a limit of $100,000,000. There has for years been a scarcity of subsidiary silver during periods of active retail trade, but this provision will give the treasurer ample opportunity to supply all the subsidiary silver that is needed. Another provision that the public will greatly appreciate is the authority given to the secretary to recoin worn and uncurrent subsidiary silver now in the treasury or hereafter received.

"There are some changes in the national banking act. The law permits national banks with $25,000 capital to be organized in places of 3,000 inhabitants or less, whereas heretofore the minimum capital has been $50,000. It also permits banks to issue circulation on all classes of bonds deposited up to the par value of the bonds instead of 90 per cent of their face, as heretofore. This ought to make an immediate increase in national bank circulation of something like $24,000,000, as the amount of bonds now deposited to secure circulation is about $242,000,000.

Mexico Valley Drainage.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 14.—Inauguration of the drainage system of the valley of Mexico will occur on Saturday. The great drainage canal will formally be declared open, and President Diaz, members of his cabinet and invited guests will take a train for the big tunnel through which the drainage will flow into the river, emptying into the gulf of Mexico.

Woman Burned to Death.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., March 14.—While attending to her household duties Mrs. Charles Mattison was burned to death yesterday. Her clothing caught fire from the stove, and before help arrived she had sustained terrible injuries. The woman lived several hours in intense agony. She leaves a husband and two children, who witnessed the accident.

CALM AFTER STORM.

Kentucky Legislature Takes Final Adjournment.

TAYLOR TO ACT TILL COURTS DECIDE

Then, if the Decision Be Against Him, He Will Step Down and Out Peaceably—No Further Arrests at Present.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 14.—The legislature of Kentucky adjourned yesterday. A conference between Adjutant Generals Collier and Castleman resulted in a perfect understanding being reached.

Governor Taylor will continue to act as governor. Governor Beckham will make no move toward securing possession of the state buildings until after the court of appeals has decided the disputed governorship. The legislature appropriated $100,000 for the use of Governor Beckham in reorganizing the state militia. This in brief is the situation in Kentucky politics.

Among the more conservative element in each party the opinion prevails that the worst is over and that when the court of appeals renders its decision the danger of civil war in the commonwealth, which has been terribly imminent, will entirely have passed away. To the Democratic leaders with a full understanding of the situation only one cloud appears on the present horizon, that is Governor Taylor's future course.

Governor Taylor himself will not outline his plan of action beyond the statement which he made yesterday that he would "continue to act as governor." Republicans in Governor Taylor's confidence, however, say that he will remain at Frankfort in the discharge of his duties until the court of last resort passes upon the question at issue. Then, if the decision be against him, he will step out at once and turn over the state buildings to Governor Beckham.

This much was decided at the conference between Adjutant Generals Castleman and Collier, which lasted the greater part of the afternoon and at which a perfect understanding in regard to the situation was arrived at and a tacit agreement made to allow matters to remain in statu quo at present. By this the Republicans understand that no further arrests will be attempted and no prosecutions made of the state officers or of the state militia serving under Governor Taylor.

An Investigation Ordered.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 14.—Judge Parker yesterday called for the grand jury now in session and gave it a lengthy charge, in which he urged that the removal of Powers and Davis from the jail on Sunday by irregular and alleged illegal process and the alleged mistreatment of these prisoners be fully investigated and the guilty parties be indicted. Summonses were immediately sent by the grand jury to Sheriff Suter and Lieutenant Peake at Frankfort to appear before the grand jury here on Saturday. The local officials connected with the cases have also been summoned. The court also instructed the grand jury to inquire on what authority the militia were still occupying the jail.

Surety Company Trust.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The Times today says: "The fidelity and surety companies which have been doing a business in furnishing bonds have formed a combination. In the new combination are the Ætna Indemnity company of Hartford, the American Bonding and Trust company of Baltimore, the American Surety company of New York, the City Trust Safe Deposit and Surety company of Philadelphia, the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland, the National Surety company and the Union Surety company of New York and the United States Fidelity and Guarantee company of Baltimore. It is said that these consolidated companies have advanced the rates for bonding liquor licenses from $10 and $8 to $16 and $13."

Secretary Root's Visit.

HAVANA, March 14.—Secretary Root visited the armored cruiser New York yesterday morning and was received with a salute of 17 guns. The greater part of the day he spent in receiving organizations representing the different industries of the island, among them the Sagua Planters' association. He received also a deputation from the municipality of Havana. He held a long interview with Collector Bliss and attended to numerous matters of minor importance. Today he visited Marianao, chiefly with the idea of devoting a day to the examination of many papers which, owing to the great number of callers, he has found it impossible to read at the palace.

Mail In the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The mail superintendent at Vigan, Philippine Islands, in a report to the postoffice department gives details of the manner in which mail is handled there. The first consignment of native mail at that place, he says, was delivered with the assistance of the local police without cost to the department. Mail for outlying districts at considerable distance is now handled in this manner. Army mail is handled by officers, soldiers and sometimes ships when possible. A postal station was established at Baugued, and others were to be established at San Fernando and Laoag.

Inspector Roughly Handled.

CORNING, N. Y., March 14.—Inspector Dorr of the state board of charities was roughly handled at the Bath Soldiers' home. He had been at the home making recommendations, changing the food, etc., and the veterans resented his interference, as they claim the Soldiers' home is not a charitable institution and not under the state board of charities. As Dorr came in the grounds he was pelted with snowballs, and when he went in the dining hall he was warned to get out or he would be thrown out.

Death Caused by Accident.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 14.—It turns out that Mr. John Wesley French, the New Yorker who was found dead in a hallway in this city last Saturday morning under circumstances that gave rise to a suspicion of foul play, met his death as the result of an accident.

Scythe Factory Burned.

SARATOGA, March 14.—The scythe department of the American Ax and Tool company's plant, near Ballston Spa, was destroyed last night by fire which started from the explosion of a lamp in an oil pit. The loss it estimated at $20,000.

FATAL ECONOMY.

A VERY old maxim declares that it isn't economy to pick up pins; the time is worth more than the pins. Similarly it is not true economy to do without Ivory Soap; your health requires the daily removal of the bodily excretions which are discharged through the pores of the skin. These tiny mouths must be kept open, and they should be opened only with a pure soap.

KOBBE FOR GOVERNOR.

General Otis Has Appointed Him For the Province of Albay.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—General Otis has notified the war department that he has appointed Brigadier General William A. Kobbe, U. S. V., military governor of the province of Albay, Luzon, and of the island of Cataduanes and temporarily, to subserve immediate purposes, of the islands of Samar and Leyte. General Kobbe is directed to occupy with his troops the towns of Sorsogan, Legaspi, Donsol and Bulan of the province of Albay, the town of Virac on the island of Cataduanes, the towns of Calbayoc and Catbalogan on the island of Samar and the town of Taclocan on the island of Leyte and establish civil government as rapidly as possible. He is to appoint officers of his command as customs and internal revenue officers for the more important coast and interior towns that are occupied by our troops. General Otis says it is desirable that the ports in question be opened to trade as soon as practicable.

LEGISLATIVE ADJOURNMENT.

A Recess Proposed From March 31 Until After State Convention.

ALBANY, March 14.—After a conference between Governor Roosevelt and the Republicans of the Kings county delegation, together with Assemblymen Fallows, Davis and Weekes, it was said that it had been practically arranged that the greater part of the work of the legislature could be finished by March 31 and that a recess would be taken at that time until a date following the Republican convention, which occurs on April 17. Then if any important measures were in the hands of the mayors in any cities they would have to be returned, and if vetoed the legislature could pass them over the vetoes.

The Kings county Republican senators and assemblymen waited on the governor yesterday to secure his aid against adjournment on March 31, as provided in the concurrent resolution passed by the assembly.

Senator Marshall, who acted as spokesman, said that if the resolution should be adopted by the senate it would mean the death of a large number of important measures affecting the government of New York city. Mayor Van Wyck, he said, was likely to take adverse action on many of the measures, and they would not become laws, as the legislature would not be in session to repass them over his veto.

SHELDON'S FIRST.

Kansas Dominie's Attempt at Journalism Succeeds.

TOPEKA, March 14.—The first issue of the Sheldon edition of the Topeka Capital went to press yesterday morning, 23 minutes earlier than the usual time. Mr. Sheldon staid in the office until the press started and carried home with him the first copy of the paper.

All the mails were caught, and the press was kept running until about noon today, printing something over 100,000 copies.

The rest of the edition will be printed in Chicago and New York, for which matrices will be sent daily. The management of the paper says the mailing list and city circulation now contain 360,000 copies and that fresh orders are coming by every mail, 25,000 being received yesterday.

A Fight With Convicts.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 14.—Five convicts on a penitentiary farm near this city attacked Abe Harling, a guard. They got his Winchester, but did not know how to operate it and fought him with hoes. He succeeded in drawing his pistol after a desperate fight and killed Tom Houghton, a negro desperado, and wounded another. Two surrendered, and the fifth escaped.

Methodists In Conference.

MILLVILLE, N. J., March 14.—The sixty-fourth annual session of the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference opened here last night with Bishop Hurst of Washington presiding. The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. Wesley Hunsberger, D. D., of Trenton. About 300 ministers arrived on the evening trains.

Grand Jury For "Sapho."

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—The Philadelphia grand jury has decided that "Sapho" is not an immoral or obscene book. This decision came as a result of their examination of the book while inquiring into the case of Bernard Kline, who was arrested on the 4th inst. while selling copies of the book and committed on the charge of "selling and exposing for sale an indecent book." After perusing the book the grand jury ignored the bill of indictment and placed the costs upon the county.

Struck For 50 Cents a Day.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 14.—Another strike has begun among the workmen on the military road in the Arecibo division. Hitherto the men have been paid 40 cents a day, and they want 50 cents. Six hundred left work, and thus far they have been orderly, but they are not organized. The contractors declare that they will make no concessions, as there is plenty of workmen available to fill the places of the strikers. A special police detail has been sent to the locality of the strike.

Protest Against Meat Inspection Bill

HAMBURG, March 14.—At a largely attended meeting of representatives of the shipping and wharf companies of Hamburg a resolution was adopted to send a protest to the imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, against the enactment of the meat inspection bill on the ground that the measure would inevitably lead to a disturbance of trade relations with friendly states.

Saved a Life.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 14.—John Ryan, a boy of this city, saved the life of William T. Galloway, an old man of this city, by dragging him from in front of a rapidly approaching train. Galloway had crawled under the gates at the crossing and fallen on the track.

More Victims of the Newark Fire.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Two more bodies were recovered yesterday from the ruins of the Italian tenement which was burned Monday morning in Newark, N. J. The list of dead now numbers 16, and five other supposed victims have not yet been accounted for.

Fine Words for Mr. Martine.

The suggestion that when the Democratic State convention meets to elect delegates to go to Kansas City to attend the National convention it would be eminently fitting and proper that James E. Martine should be chosen as one of the "Big Four" to represent New Jersey, has been received with a great deal of favor in Democratic circles throughout the State. It is recognized that there is no more loyal or popular a Democrat in the State than the "Farmer Orator," and as Mr. Martine has been unswerving in his devotion to the enunciated principles of the Democracy through thick and thin, there is a manifest sentiment in his favor in respect to the selection for delegate-at-large.

In this connection the Newark News yesterday said:

Since it seems to be conceded that the New Jersey delegation to the Democratic National convention will vote for William J. Bryan, it is right that the delegates should be men whose fidelity to the Nebraskan is unquestioned. No member of the party can stand this test better than "Farmer Orator" Martine, of Plainfield, who has an entirely justifiable ambition to be one of the delegates-at-large to the convention. It would be difficult to find a man who better exemplifies all the political vagaries of which Mr. Bryan is the apostle.

The Hunterdon County Democrat, one of the stalwart newspapers of Democratic faith in New Jersey, also refers to Mr. Martine in the following terms:

The friends of James E. Martine, of Plainfield, are urging his name as one of the delegates-at-large from New Jersey to the National Democratic convention at Kansas City July 4th. No better man from a true Democratic standpoint could be named than Mr. Martine. Men of undoubted Democracy should be sent as delegates to that convention, and such a one is James E. Martine, the "Farmer Orator," of Plainfield.

Every county in New Jersey should use every precaution in electing delegates to the State convention. There are men who used to be Democrats, and who for selfish motives alone are still calling themselves Democrats, who will do anything in their power to send delegates to the National convention at Kansas City, who will misrepresent the Democratic party in this State. Let every man who has the good of the party at heart use every effort to the end that James E. Martine not only goes as a delegate-at-large from this State, but that every other delegate that is to accompany him be in sympathy with him in his fight for the nomination of William J. Bryan, who, whether he can be elected or not, can get more votes than any other man in the Democratic party. If we cannot elect William J. Bryan President this year, we cannot elect any one.

In yesterday's News Editor Runyon stated in language unmistakably plain that members of the police board had admitted to him that the town is "wide-open" and that the head of the police force is "inactive and inefficient." This is a serious accusation against the members of the police board, and especially so coming from one whose political sympathies run in the same channel. However, we doubt the truth of the statement. Even if any member of the police board honestly believed that the town is "wide-open," we do not think that he would be fool enough to tell it to such a chatterer as Editor Runyon has proved himself to be. Until Editor Runyon publishes the name of the member or members of the police board who told him, or any of his reporters, that the city is "wide-open," we will not put any credence in his talk.

Congressman Howell has cleared himself of another perplexing political problem by his decision in the contest for the appointment of postmaster of New Brunswick. Yesterday Mr. Howell decided that Charles W. Russell should be recommended for the place. There were five candidates for the place—O. L. Mundy, Henry Banker, O. O. Stillman, P. S. Van Anglen and Mr. Russell. Mr. Russell is a prominent business man, a member of the Board of Trade and treasurer of the Republican county committee. The office is the best one in the Third Congressional district, and pays $3,000 a year salary.

If Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, persists in his announced purpose of entering the field as a candidate for Congress in opposition to Representative Fowler's desire for the fourth term, there will undoubtedly be a lively time in political circles in these parts. The effect of such a candidacy would be to upset the plans of the local G. O. P. leaders to a great extent. Mr. Bergen has a reputation as a hustler, and if he goes in to win the nomination he will stir up things in a way that it has not been stirred in several years in the Eighth Congressional district.

The proposition that is now taking form to the effect that Mrs. Eyler should be superceded by a man as superintendent of the State Industrial School for Girls is one that has much to recommend it for serious and favorable consideration. We imagine that a firm but kind-hearted man could do much better work in that position than a woman.

When the farmers of South Jersey form a combination and say that they will not sell tomatoes for less than $7 per ton, and the packers also form a combination and aver that they will not pay more than $6 per ton for the succulent vegetable, it looks hard for the dear public whose epicurian tastes demand the love-apple.

A Belleville Democratic candidate was attacked and badly cut with a knife the other evening. New Jersey Democrats are so use to being cut in recent years that this particular politician let the affair pass without bringing the offender to justice.

A Plainfield young man wants $10,000 in cold cash for being ushered out of a box in Music Hall with more force than grace. The modesty of his demand shows what small financial salve some people expect for their injured feelings.

With Lavinia languishing in jail and Liliuokalani denied a pension of $10,000 per year by Uncle Sam, the part of playing Queen is a thankless one.

When a dinner starts with ox-tail soup and ends with headcheese it would seem to be a case of making both ends meet.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 14.—The borough election yesterday was very quiet. The only contest was an Assessor. The friends of both Charles Coriell and John Larkin worked in their interest. There was no politics in it, and no opposition to the rest of the ticket. The result of the election will be found in another place in the paper.

Toney Spermisetti, an Italian who has but just returned to this country after a visit to Sunny Italy, called upon Dr. Brakeley yesterday afternoon to have his arm, which had been severely burned, dressed. The unfortunate man said the accident was caused by a pot of boiling hot water being upset from the stove. He will be laid up for several days.

An electric light metre has been placed in the postoffice lobby.

O. M. Hetfield is seriously ill at his home over the butcher shop.

John B. Lane has recovered from his recent illness.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 14.—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Emery entertained a number of their friends at a social evening gathering Monday evening. The pleasant affair was arranged in honor of Mrs. Emery's birthday. Dancing was the feature of the evening. About midnight a bountiful collation was served by the hostess. After satisfying the inner man, dancing was resumed again until the small hours of the morning. Guests were present from Bound Brook, Plainfield, Elizabeth and Bayonne.

The Pedagogical Club of the Public School, enjoyed a pleasant reading at their weekly meeting in the school parlor yesterday.

Mrs. Alfred McKeoun lies seriously ill at her home in Fanwood. Grave hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Mrs. Albert Darby, of North Plainfield, was the guest Tuesday of her mother, Mrs. John R. Marsh.

Miss Ella Squiers entertained a few of her friends at a home social gathering at her home last night.

The Exempt Firemen's Association held their quarterly meeting in their rooms last night.

Mrs. McCord, of Bound Brook, has been visiting at the home of her son, T. S. Whitnack.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held an interesting meeting in their rooms last evening.

PASTOR TROMPEN'S RIVAL.

Rev. Mr VanDuyn Preaches to a Faction of Ramsey's Church.

Rev. Mr. VanDuyn, of Bound Brook, sent three weeks ago to Ramsey by the classis of Hackensack to preach in the Christian Reformed church in place of Rev. Jacob N. Trompen, and refused admission to the pulpit, went to Ramsey Sunday and preached. It was not in pastor Trompen's church, but at services held by the opposition faction in Dater's Temperance Hall. About fifteen were in the congregation.

Rev. J. N. Trompen and nine-tenths of the congregation still hold the church. The new consistory is backed by the classis and has engaged J. W. DeYoe to begin ejectment proceedings.

Word has been received from Grand Rapids, Mich., that Charles Kreidler will begin a suit for damages against pastor Trompen for the alleged cruel treatment to his adopted daughter Frances.

POLICE MAY STRIKE.

Assert That Their Salaries Are Too Low and Demand a Raise.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 14.—The police force of this town will go on a strike unless the police commissioners vote to increase the salaries at their next meeting, March 13th. The members of the force work twelve hours a day, 365 days a year, for $40 a month.

The policemen claim that they work two hours a day longer and receive one-third less pay than the police of neighboring towns and cities. They also assert that there is no provision for pensions or even for assistance if they are seriously disabled on duty.

They cite the case of the late Assistant Chief Crow, who after being shot by a burglar, was dependent on charity for the necessaries of life while on his death bed, and who left his family destitute.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Edward Mackey, of New York, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a few days.

Miss Malloy, of Glenside Park, has been visiting friends in this city for a short time.

Mrs. J P. Allis, of West Fifth street, has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Ethel Maxson, of Westerly, R. I., is visiting Miss Edna Randolph, of Central avenue.

Edwin Frost, of New York, formerly of Plainfield, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Duvier, of West Fifth street, has returned from a visit with her sister in Brooklyn.

Miss Sophia G. Wilson, of Millington, is visiting Mrs. J. Herman Schmidt, of this city.

Wm. Moore, of Brooklyn, formerly a resident of this city, has been visiting Plainfield friends.

Herbert Crowe, of Park avenue, who has been very ill with pleurisy, is reported to be improved.

Everett Reighton, of Park avenue, is confined to the house with a severe attack of grip and bronchitis.

Miss Laura Vanderbeek, of Somerville, is visiting at the home of D. N. Groendyke, of Mercer avenue.

John Goodman, of Liberty street, has recovered from an attack of the grip and has returned to work.

George W. Saums, formerly of Woodhull & Martin's store, is greatly improved from a severe illness.

The young son of Charles Lister, of Watchung avenue, is now able to go out after passing through a serious illness.

John Daly, formerly of this city, but now with the "Piney Ridge" Company, has been spending a few days in town.

Miss Breen, of Elizabeth, will entertain the Montauk Euchre Club, of this city, at her home next Monday evening.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, of LaGrande avenue, who has been confined to her bed by illness, is now able to be about the house.

John Duffy, of the borough, is temporarily assisting John Powers at his drug store on Somerset street, owing to an increase in business.

Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons, of Park avenue, who has been sick for a long time, is not improving as much as her friends would like to have her.

Miss Annie Loyd, of Mercer avenue, has gone to New York to join her relatives, Mrs. Clapp and Miss Clapp. They will spend a week or more together in the city.

Mrs. S. S. Swackamer, of Summit avenue, is rapidly recovering from a long and tedious illness, and she hopes to return soon from New York to her home in the borough.

The many friends of B. A. Hegeman, Sr., of Sycamore avenue, will be pleased to learn that he is now able to be about the house again, having about recovered from his recent illness.

George Bilyeu, the painter, who injured his leg some time ago by falling from a building, has discarded his crutches as he is able to get along without them. His hand and arm still give him much trouble.

"The University Record" announces that all the social affairs of the University of Chicago will hereafter be under the charge of the Dean of Women, Miss Julia E. Bulkley, formerly principal of the Plainfield High School, who holds this position.

A Mean Swindler Unmasked.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, March 14.—A woman of middle age has been selling salve claiming that she lived on Burnet street, and that her husband had been killed a short time before, and that she was selling salve in order to raise enough money to get clothes and shoes for her four children, so that they could be admitted to the Children's Industrial Home. She sold several hundred bottles of the salve at fifty cents a bottle. One of the women to whom she had sold a bottle discovered that the afflicted woman had a husband. The woman who had been victimized threatened them with arrest unless they left town at once. The man tried to bluster, but finally consented to go.

Candidate for Church Organist.

Herbert Harold, of this city, is a possible candidate for the position of organist at the First Presbyterian church, which position has been declared vacant by the resignation of W. H. Miller. Last Monday evening two persons, one from Philadelphia and another from New York, besides Mr. Harold, competed for the position. The music committee, who has the matter in charge, have not yet announced the selection, but the chances are that Mr. Harold will get the place.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

We have not been favored with a genuine complete colored company since the appearance of Isham's Octoroons at the beginning of the season, but all who like this class of show will have their tastes and longings gratified by the appearance at Music Hall tomorrow night, of one of the best companies on the road, who will present a new musical comedy entitled "Clorindy, or the Origin of the Cake-Walk." The organization is under direction and management of Samuel Corker, Jr., who introduced and successfully managed the famous artists, Cole and Johnson, in their "Trip to Coontown." This alone is guarantee of its worth and merit, but it is a matter of pride to refer to the fact that the comedy and artists were the features of Edward E. Rice's summer night concerts at the New York Casino roof garden all last summer. "Clorindy" is said to be very pretentious affair, replete with up-to-date music and songs, interpreted by a superior cast of twenty-five or more artists, among whom are Marguerite Taylor, Fanny Wise, George L. Archer, Perrin and Dudley, Furber and Davis, Prof. Macceo and his marvelously trained dog "Chicago." Will Marion the well-known song writer is responsible for the music of the comedy and everything is up to date.

* * * * * * *

Most of the cast that will aid in the production of "Our Regiment" at Music Hall Saturday evening, under the auspices of Division No. 4, A.O.H., appeared in the same play last season when it was given very successfully in the New England States by the stock company of which William J. Romain was the head. The press of that section was very complimentary in speaking of the various actors and actresses. The Providence News said: "Frederick Lewis, as the bashful curate, was capital and his endless scrapes afforded a great deal of merriment." Of another leading character, the same paper remarked: "Stanley Jessup, as the handsome and dignified young captain of the Eighth Irish Lanciers, was graceful and pleasing in the part and at once became a favorite with the audience." The Providence Journal was kind in referring to Malcolm Arthur: "Malcolm Arthur, who played the part of Dobbinson, an old gentlemen of quick temper who hates soldiers, deserves particular praise for the able manner in which he handled that somewhat difficult character." The Telegram, of the same city, said of Frank N. Drew: "Mr. Ellaby, a jolly and boyish old gentleman, was rendered by Frank N. Drew in a manner which delighted the audience. He was a sure cure for the blues in his spontaneous enthusiasm and wholesoled gaiety." Other members of the cast have received equally complimentary notices. The sale of tickets for the performance is going on rapidly and there is every prospect of a large house Saturday night.

We try to get as near as possible to the man who drinks the Coffee.

To find the best coffee in this country a woman needs only two qualties. She can use a dozen, but she can do it on only two. They are Intelligence and Courage.

Ten women have intelligence and no courage where one has courage and no intelligence. Courage is really what the average woman needs if she wants coffee way up in G.

Now it doesn't require much courage to buy a pound of Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee if you set about it right. The grocer will give it to you in a parchment-lined bag with our seal and signature attesting its high quality. You have really only to drink it.

Even here you run no risk. The man who ate the first oyster took terrible chances. But the only chance you will take is the probability that never again will you be willing to drink any other kind of coffee.

Even then, you will thank us. Ask your grocer for a pound of this coffee to-day.

Hamburg. Als jüngst der Hamburger Schnelldampfer „Augusta Victoria" im Hafen von Nizza eingefahren war, begab sich der Geheime Legationsrath v. Schwartzkoppen an Bord und überreichte dem Kommandanten Kapitän Kämpf aus Anlaß der Vollendung seiner 100. Rundreise über den Ozean als Kapitän im Dienste der Hamburg-Amerika-Linie im Auftrage des Kaisers den Rothen Adler-Orden 4. Klasse.— Der Dampfer „Naxos" von der deutschen Levantelinie strandete im Marmarameer. Die Mannschaft wurde durch Schleppdampfer gerettet. — In der Schlachthalle für Schweine geriethen die Schlächtergesellen Julius Kothe und Bruno Schreibler mit einander in Streit, in dessen Verlauf Schreibler seinem Gegner mit einem sogenannten „Schweinekratzer" derartig schwere Verletzungen beibrachte, daß Kothe bewußtlos zusammenbrach. Schreibler, der von seinem Gegner mehrere Faustschläge erhalten hatte, erlitt bei der Schlägerei ebenfalls schwere Verletzungen. Kothe wurde in's Krankenhaus gebracht, wo er bald nach der Aufnahme starb.

The ticket agent at one of the Connecticut stations of the New York and New England railroad states: "I suffered for years with my stomach. At times I've been so bad that I couldn't walk a block after eating my dinner without spitting out particles of food, and I've been troubled a great deal with rheumatic gout. Parts of my feet would be so sore that a slight pressure would make me wince with pain. The Newsboy's Reply.

A wizened-faced newsboy climbed on a Detroit street car the other evening and worming his way past the conductor, walked down the aisle yelling:

"Las' edition—all about Sigler brudders findin' de tray of dimons!"

He sold several papers, and when he was passing out a man looked around and yelled to him:

"Say, boy, where did they find that tray?"

The youngster paused in the doorway.

"In a pack o' cards!" he shouted back, and disappeared. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hoods.

Women are adopting even the academical hood as an adornment to capes and cloaks, and many of the new cloth outdoor garments have white satin hoods attached, covered with lace, or white cloth hoods with the new confetti embroidery made in cloth worked with silk. Chantilly lace or black satin serves a similar purpose, and silk lace is very much in evidence for hoods which mostly entirely cover the shoulders and almost form an epaulet, opening out wide and being but seldom of any practical utility—in fact, intended for ornament, not use.—Washington Star.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

Styles For Bodices of Thick or Thin Materials.

Light and vaporous bodices are still much worn for demitoilet and are draped in a fashion which defines the lines of the figure instead of concealing them. For tailor made costumes the plain bodices, tightly fitting in front as well as at the back, are beginning to take the lead. They are not worn with a belt, but instead are slightly elongated in a point before and behind, which has the effect of rendering the waist more slender in appearance.

The decolletage for young girls is only moderate, usually square or round, and does not leave the shoulders and top of the arm uncovered. For older women, however, the decolletage, round or pointed, falls off the shoulder, allowing it to show. Many gowns having a decidedly low cut have yet long sleeves, these being of transparent material, such as tulle, lace or mousseline de soie, shirred or plaited. In order to keep these sleeves in shape, they should have a plain lining, but this is of white or pale pink gauze and does not show.

The cut depicts an evening corsage of white crepe de chine draped over a white silk lining. The pointed decolletage is framed in a torsade of white mousseline de soie twisted with a cord of pearls. Coquilles of the mousseline pass down the front, with pearl motifs. The drapery of the bodice is plaited diagonally at the top. The sleeves are also plaited in diagonal groups of plaits and have a line of pearls around the edge of the wrist. JUDIC CHOLLET.

EVENING COSTUMES.

Rich Materials and Colors of Great Delicacy Preferred.

For evening costumes there are beautiful satins and thick, plain silks, which are to be trimmed with open white embroideries, lace applications and flounces of embroidered mousseline de soie. These are no longer new, but in addition there are shown brocades and broche silks in which flowers of natural size are thrown upon grounds enriched by designs of lace, flights of birds, stars, ribbon knots, etc.

Pale tones are pre-eminent even for middle aged women unless they are of so full a figure that white and light colors give them a clumsy appearance. Straw, cream, light blue, mauve, rose, pale green and particularly pale gray are worn, very few darker shades being seen for evening.

Rich silks are made very tightly and plainly, but if they have no design they are elaborately trimmed. On the other hand, brocade and other silks with large figures are made with scarcely any decoration, the design itself being sufficient.

An illustration is given of a bodice of satin cloth. The back and sides are covered with diagonal braiding, the plastron being braided horizontally and trimmed with two rows of metal buttons. Plaited bretelles of silk reach from the belt to the shoulders. The flaring collar is trimmed with braiding, as are the tops of the tight sleeves, the wrists of which have plaitings of silk matching the bretelles. The belt is of grosgrain, with a large, ornamental buckle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

CLOTH GOWNS.

Cloth Still Pre-eminent Among Fashionable Fabrics.

Cloth costumes continue to be first favorites. Those of delicate tints are worn on ceremonious occasions, where formerly satins and brocades only were considered suitable. Many costumes for evening are of white cloth just tinted with blue, pink or mauve, with elaborate applications of passementerie and lace.

For the street the cloth tailor made gown still holds its own. The skirt is plain and clinging, the bodice fitted, with a short basque, the chief originality being in the cut of the revers and the method of trimming.

Tight lacing has been steadily retiring from fashion for some years, the use of the bicycle and the growing favor in which athletic games are held by women assisting in its rapid disappearance. The figure now commended by the mode retains its natural proportions and suppleness, but is kept trim and neat by a well fitting corset suited to its contours.

The cut shows a girl's costume of navy blue wool goods trimmed with galloons of navy blue silk mixed with metal. The flat, scant skirt has several lines of the braid and is mounted on the half fitting bodice, which is trimmed with lengthwise bands of galloon and others arranged to simulate a yoke. The small guimpe and the collar are of guipure. The sleeves are tight. The hat of gray felt is trimmed with choux of navy blue taffeta and a quill. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE COIFFURE.

Ornaments For the Hair and Different Styles of Dressing It.

Little Mercury wings of jet are worn as hair ornaments with evening dress.

Fair hair is always prettiest when it is dressed in a fluffy way, which allows the light to shine through it. Dark hair, on the contrary, should be arranged so as to show its gloss, in large masses, full of reflections.

Never was fashion so eclectic as at present. Any style which is becoming is permissible, and originality is to be desired so long as it is not ugly. The arrangement of the hair has a more marked effect upon the aspect of the face than has anything else, and every woman should find out what particular method best suits her features and then adhere exclusively to that style. It is difficult to give general rules to fit every case, but it is safe to say that any very flat, tightly drawn way of dressing the hair is unbecoming and that women with a low forehead should always leave it uncovered, drawing the hair back from it. A high forehead, on the contrary, looks better if softened by light locks falling over it.

The picture given today shows a long redingote of beige cloth. It is tight fitting, and the seams are covered with stitched straps to within about a foot of the hem, where the straps stop and the seam forms a loose plait. The tight sleeves are ornamented with stitched straps running lengthwise. The coat collar, revers and double pelerine are of red cloth, bordered with lines of stitching, and a tiny facing of red cloth extends down the fronts. The redingote is fastened with olives and loops. The hat of red straw is trimmed with flowers.

PLAIN MRS. KRUGER.

Wife of the Transvaal President Is a Good Housekeeper.

Although Rich Beyond the Dreams of Avarice She Cooks Her Own Meals and Makes Her Own Dresses—A Lover of Birds.

Mrs. Paul Kruger, says the London Mail, is the embodiment of homeliness. In her appearance, in her manners, in her speech, she is as unassuming as the wife of a Lincolnshire farmer. And she is just as thrifty and frugal.

"Oom Paul" is worth about $25,000,000; and the credit for amassing that immense fortune he gives to the woman who for nearly half a century has cared for him and watched over him, and striven and saved for him. Farmer, herdsman, soldier, clergyman, ambassador, president of the Transvaal—in every phase of his wonderful career—"Tante" Kruger has always believed implicitly in her husband, has always shown him a humble, devoted admiration that is somehow pathetic to look upon. Paul Kruger is to-day, in her opinion, the greatest man who ever lived. And she is the proudest woman in the Transvaal. The struggling, ambitious farmer found a treasure when he found that gentle, blue-eyed lass, who, when he asked her if she would marry him, looked down demurely and said: "I can bake, I can cook, I can sew, I can clean, I can scrub."

Even in these days the first lady in the Transvaal bakes and sews and scrubs, to save the wages of a servant. She may be seen at five o'clock any morning the president is at home bending over a little kitchen stove preparing her husband a morning cup of coffee. The only accomplishment in which "Auntie" Kruger claims to excel is in making coffee; and President Kruger affirms that she attains better results with less coffee than any other housewife in the Transvaal.

"TANTE" KRUGER.
(Oom Paul's Wife, the "First Lady of the Transvaal.")

When Mrs. Kruger has finished her heavier household duties she dons a black alpaca dress, settles herself comfortably in the little parlor, and darns socks until evening. President Kruger is a notable personage now, consequently those of our readers who may like "the personal paragraph" will learn with interest that he is "heavy on his socks." Nearly every pair in his wardrobe has been "heeled" by his industrious wife.

Then, when there are no more socks to mend, Mrs. Kruger may take it into her head to make herself a new dress or "turn" an old one. Every dress that the good lady wears or has worn during the last few years was made by herself. Ladies who are in the habit of presenting dressmakers' bills to their husbands at frequent intervals will be interested to know that the wife of the president of the South African republic has never had more than three dresses at any one time, and that they are all black. She is satisfied with two hats, which, like the dresses, are made by herself.

The hat reserved for special occasions, such as visiting with the president or going with him to church, is as well known in Pretoria as "Oom Paul's" invariable silk "topper." One of the lady's many good traits is her love of animals. She deplores the fashion of wearing birds or feathers in feminine headgear, and has herself never been guilty of anything of the kind.

When a statue was being erected to her husband the sculptor visited Mrs. Kruger to ask her opinion of the sketches. The drawings represented the president in his ordinary everyday clothes, with the inevitable top hat on his head. Modestly Mrs. Kruger requested that the crown of the hat might be left hollow so that the birds could drink from it when the rain fell. This course was adopted, and now on the rare occasions when the rain falls in the Transvaal a little cloud of birds may be seen fluttering around the top of the Kruger statue, and drinking and bathing in the crown of the hat.

Australian Opal Mines.

Opal mining is one of the latest Australian mineral industries. The principal opal mining center is White Cliffs, where the gem has been found in highly-paying quantities and of the richest quality, within a radius of ten miles, and a population of 1,500 or thereabouts, is settled there.

French Honeymoons Awheel.

Bicycle wedding trips are all the rage in France. One couple recently returned to Paris after a tour of 1,100 miles, all made on their wheels. They were absent seven weeks, and had visited 314 villages.

PEARLS OF WISDOM.

They Fall Like Dew from the Lips of Senator Depew.

Origin of National Capital to Be Celebrated in December—Suggestions from Gov. McMillin and Archbishop Keane.

[Special Washington Letter.]

"BEING one of the very few members of the senate who have no presidential aspirations nor hopes in that direction, I can afford to think as I please, and talk as I think. There is no danger that any of my utterances may be quoted against me in any presidential campaign."

Thus spoke Senator Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, on the platform in this city before a great audience. The gathering was for the purpose of organizing a great centennial celebration of the transfer of the permanent seat of the government of our republic to the desert wild now known as the District of Columbia. What was said and done at the meeting will be told later on. But Senator Depew departed from the original line of argument, and told some things of a general nature, which are first worthy of elaboration.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW.
(Junior United States Senator from New York.)

He said: "George Washington never supposed that he would become the great figure in the world's history which he occupies to-day. His ambition was purely local. His ambition was like that of the men of this day. He did not want Gen. Horatio Gates to supersede him in command of the armies. He did not want any man to displace him in the affections of his people. He lived, as Longfellow says, 'in the living present.' He had no thought of fame for the future. His life work was done when this city was located and given his name. It was only when he was nearing the tomb that he saw his great country looming up. Then, at last, he must have seen what fame was to do for him.

"Great men do not work for fame. They work for the present. Abraham Lincoln did not live for fame. Gen. Grant did not live for fame. They worked only for what was immediately before them. History records the name of only one man who seems to have lived for his niche in history; and that was Napoleon. Poor fellow! What a wreck his life was. If he had lived and worked only for France, how more noble would have been his picture on the page of history.

"It is very true that 'an honest man is the noblest work of God,' because so few are honest and true to the noblest ideals of higher humanity. Ambition is usually selfish, and all selfishness ruins greatness. They who live for their own aggrandizement live only in narrow grooves. Truly great men like Washington live for their fellow men.

BENTON M'MILLIN.
(Governor of Tennessee and Former Congressional Leader.)

Of course they look for their own interests; but above all, is their desire to benefit their fellow men.

"I like to see a shoemaker cobbling, who has an ambition to own a shoe store. I like to see a blacksmith who hopes to own a hardware store. I like to see a preacher who hopes to be a bishop. I like to see a lawyer who hopes to be a judge. I like to see a newsboy who hopes to be a great editor. I like to see a cook who hopes to be a hotel proprietor. I like to see a clerk who hopes to be the proprietor of a grocery store. I like to see ambition in all men. I like to see egotism in young men, because it shows ambition. But all ambition should be based on a desire to do good for others. All selfish ambition is disreputable. The only worthy ambition is that which takes in the human race. The man who seeks his own aggrandizement may succeed for a time; but I would not like to have my tomb inscribed as the selfish man's tomb should be engraved."

There are whole nuggets of wisdom condensed in those few sentences. Your correspondent does not often use his shorthand experience in these bald-headed days; but his pencil flew over paper with olden-time rapidity as he caught those words while they fell from the lips of the great orator. Senator Depew is usually a witty speaker, talking for entertainment. It is seldom that he indulges in flights of serious oratory. In that he is wise, because the plain people attend public meetings to be entertained, and nobody knows that fact better than the senator from the Empire state, who has entertained tens of thousands. On this occasion, however, he had a learned and serious audience, and he fitted his speech to the character of his hearers. People everywhere might be benefited by dwelling on his words.

The occasion was an unusual gathering of great men; men of prominence in local and national affairs. It is proposed that in this city there shall be a national celebration next December, of the origin of the national capital. There were present senators, representatives, business men, lawyers, doctors, preachers and public-spirited men of every walk of life. Moreover, the governors of 41 states were present to show their appreciation of the project.

If these people could accomplish what they proposed, this city would spring at once into the front rank of the capital cities of the civilized world. They propose that the congress shall buy all of the land on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, and build a centennial arch at some suitable paint. They want to have a Centennial avenue from the capitol to the white house, running along the botanical gardens, through Armory square, along the arbored grounds of the National museum, the Smithsonian institution, by the agricultural department's broad acreage, past the bureau of engraving and printing, around the Washington monument, to the proposed location of a memorial bridge across the Potomac, and thence to the white house. They also want a new white house; either by tearing down the historic residence of the presidents, or by extending and elaborating the present structure according to the designs prepared by the late wife of Gen. Harrison, when he was the chief executive of the nation.

They want to make the centennial not only a passing show, but a permanent celebration. They want each state in the union to build a permanent edifice, to be guarded and kept in order by the people of each state, through enactments of their several legislatures. In the speeches delivered many allusions were made to the splendid temporary state exhibits at the world's fair which was held in Chicago in 1893. The idea is a good one.

Probably the best suggestion made was that which was uttered by Gov. McMillin, of Tennessee, who said: "During my 20 years of service in congress I consistently and persistently advocated the purchase of all the ground bordering on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, and the erection thereon of federal buildings. The greatest parade ground in the world, unrivaled by that of any national capital, is disgraced by the unsightly buildings which line its southern side. Congressman Springer in 1884, 16 years ago, introduced a bill containing this idea, but congress was not wise enough to adopt the suggestion. To do this, and it will become an inevitable necessity in time, the government must now spend many millions of dollars which would not then have been required. If we can accomplish this one thing it will be enough, without doing all the good things which are proposed and urged at this time. The other good improvements will follow naturally."

All of this is true. Those who have visited the capital of our republic, particularly on our great presidential inauguration days, have been shamed by the condition of our great thoroughfare. The south side of Pennsylvania avenue is lined with two-story, or three-story, dingy, old, even ancient, rickety buildings. Within a quarter of a mile of the capitol building there are two blocks occupied by Chinese laundrymen, saloon keepers and women of the town. This brief description of the great avenue, the broadest, best paved, best graded in the world, will suffice to emphatically commend the words which were thus spoken by the governor of a sovereign state who for a score of years held a prominent place in the national house of representatives. The avenue should be improved.

Referring to the remarks of Senator Depew concerning Washington and his noble ambitions, Archbishop Keane said: "The idea of the orient, the Greek idea, the Roman idea, all were incomplete. They strove for they knew not what. It was the Christian ideal which fired the soul of Washington, that put consecration on his sword, and enabled him to lead to victory. His fundamental conviction was that the Christian ideal was the true one for the individual and for the nation."

With such strong men speaking and working for the national capital centennial, its success may reasonably and conservatively be predicted.

Statistical and Historical Data Bearing on the News of the Day from Foreign Lands

THE GERMAN NAVY.

Can the Empire Pay for the Ships It Is Proposed to Build?

VISIONS of universal peace may have deluded the military taxburdened people of Europe for a short time previous to the assembling of the peace conference at The Hague, but if they did the vision lasted but a short time.

To-day the eyes of Europe are watching the struggle for the construction of a great navy on the part of Germany. Every nation of the old world is interested in the question: "How will Germany pay for the ships which she proposes to build?"

The same question is of vital interest to the people of Germany. The expenditure of 1,700,000,000 marks is not a question to be decided lightly by any nation. The average German citizen has sufficient pride in his land to wish to see the German emblem floating from the mastheads of the 57 large battleships, the 15 large cruisers and the 36 small cruisers which the present naval bill provides for. "But," he asks, "can we pay for them without increasing the burden of taxation?"

In a pamphlet written by Mr. A. von Weneckstern, and recently published in Berlin, it is argued that the construction of this fleet, extending over a period of 17 years, and with the arrangements that are proposed for paying for it, the present tax rate need not be increased to enable the government to carry out its proposed naval programme.

The announced purpose of the pamphlet is to educate conservative Germans in the need of a powerful navy, and it has attracted much attention, not only in Germany, but in all the great powers of Europe.

The whole subject is divided into three distinct propositions: First, as to whether Germany needs ships; second, what types of ships? and third, what resources she has to meet the expense of building.

Present conditions in the Pacific, and German interests there, is set forth as an answer to the first proposition in part. Another feature of the answer to this first proposition is the old argument of the necessity for a strong navy as a means of preserving peace through the fear which strength engenders.

But it is the answer to the last proposition which is attracting the attention of Europe, and it is strikingly original. Figures of the increase of German population and the increase in the per capita income are the foundation of the structure which the writer has builded.

He figures that the German population will continue to increase at about the same per cent. as it has done during the last decade, about one per cent. a year. In addition to this the increase in per capita income during the same period has been carefully figured, and it is claimed that reliable statistics show an increase of about three per cent. In Saxony, for instance, the increase per capita shown is as follows:

	Marks.
1852	345.53

From this he argues that it is only reasonable to suppose that hand in hand with the increase of one per cent. in population will go an increase of one per cent. in income. But in the writer's estimate he does not include the increase in income, but the increase in population only, and from this asserts that the increase in the revenues of the empire will amount to about one per cent. annually. Continuing, he says:

"It is perhaps possible that as we advance in the twentieth century this increase may abate somewhat, or this may at least be assumed in order to proceed with absolute certainty, so that a fixed rate of increase in the annual income will be presupposed, which naturally amounts to about one per cent. at first, but which will fall more and more below this figure the further we advance. Hence in this respect also there is taken into consideration an eventually slower increase in the distant future, which seems to be warranted only theoretically, but which in practice will very probably be replaced by a continuous increase to be built in the future, or for greatly increased costs of construction, and this without tightening the taxation screw by even one penny, as compared with to-day."

"If we take the year 1904, or 1905, as a starting point, it can be assumed that in accordance with the preceding suppositions the imperial revenue will increase about 16,000,000 marks annually. That will be equal to about 1.06 per cent for the first few years, one per cent. for 1912, which will then steadily decrease to only 0.87 per cent. in the year 1928.

"Hence from the year 1905 on, it may be assumed that the scale of increase in the imperial revenue to be anticipated from the natural increase in population will be as follows:

1907	48	1919	240
1908	64	1920	256
1909	80	1921	272
1910	96	1922	288
1911	112	1923	304
1912	128	1924	320
1913	144	1925	336
1914	160	1926	352
1915	176	1927	368
1916	192	1928	384

"This increase would cover the cost of the fleet, its renewal, the liquidation of the building loans and, from 1962 on, 85,000,000 marks annually for new ships

CLOCK TRUST IN JAPAN.

It Will Endeavor to Capture the Markets of the Far East.

THE American trust has a lusty rival in the far east that is attracting attention throughout all of Europe because of the competition it will offer to European manufacturers in the orient.

Japanese clock manufacturers have formed a combination to capture the markets of the eastern nations in their lines that is expected to affect the exportation of these goods from European and American countries.

The year 1898 was a very prosperous one for the clock manufacturers of Japan, and goods to the value of $77,615 were exported to China, India and the various islands of the South Pacific. Serious losses were sustained, however, because of the competition which arose between them, and to obviate this difficulty a trust has been formed by the leading manufacturers in Osaka—15 in all—which will carry out an arrangement from the beginning of the year, according to which clocks are divided into several classes, with a fixed minimum value. The manufacture of spurious goods will be prohibited, and all offenders subjected to a penalty of not less than $498.

As is evident, this progressive little nation is making a determined effort to capture the markets of the far east, and European and American manufacturers must not be idle if they would hold the trade of countries full of unlimited possibilities for those who are energetic enough to grasp the opportunity.

DEMOCRATS FAVORED.

D. Hornby and John S. Long, refused to run, and J. Albert Snyder and John Joerges were substituted. Hornby was mad because he was not nominated for his unexpired term of two years, the understanding previous to the primary being that the old Committee would be renominated by both parties. Hornby was the only Republican member of the Committee, and the Democrats thought that if they could get two for one it would be a good deal. But neither primary lived up to the agreement.

Squire A. P. Sutphen ran for Justice on an independent ticket, and while he received more votes than H. A. Green, the Republican candidate, he was defeated by E. W. Farley, the Democratic nominee.

The whole Democratic ticket was elected by over 200 majority. Following is the ticket elected:

Assessor, Charles L. Voorhees; Collector, Ferdinand Vanderveer; Town Committee, John H. Bartle, three years; Oscar Dow, two years; James Q. TenEyck, one year; Justice of the Peace, Edgar W. Farley; Constables, Peter Conboy, Dennis Wyckoff; Commissioner of Appeal, James J. Quick; Surveyor of the Highways, Daniel R. Disborough.

SCUDDER RE-ELECTED.

Almost a Democratic Landslide in Westfield—Likely to be One Contest.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, March 14.—What came near being a Democratic landslide took place at the election here yesterday. That party elected Mulford M. Scudder to the Board of Freeholders despite the fact that the Republican machine made a big effort to elect George H. Embree. The Democrats also elected John M. C. Marsh, Assessor; Addison H. Clark, Collector, and J. Alliston Dennis, Committeeman. Martin Welles was elected to the Township Committee on the Republican ticket by one vote over Henry C. Sergeant, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Sergeant and the Democrats claim that ballots, which should have been counted for him, were thrown out. He will contest the election. W. W. Connolly was elected to the committee over W. E. Tuttle, Jr., by a very small majority. The contest between Mr. Sergeant and Mr. Welles will decide the political complexion of the committee.

A TIE VOTE.

Charles Sebring and Goldson Smalley Broke Even for North Plainfield Township Committee.

There was a lively election in North Plainfield township yersterday. There were two tickets in the field. One a straight Citizens' ticket and the other claimed to be a Republican ticket. The only difference was that for Town Committeeman. Charles P. Sebring was on the Citizens' ticket and Goldson Smalley ran for the same office on the Republican ticket. Otherwise the the two tickets were identical. Mr. Sebring and Mr. Smalley each received sixty votes for Town Committeeman, and it is now a question whether a new election will have to be held. There were 120 votes cast. The rest of the ticket was elected as follows:

Collector, J. W. Coddington; Freeholder, Augustus Mobus; Town Committeemen, Thomas H. Taylor, Benjamin Clark; Overseer of the Poor, Thomas McGann; Constable, Francis Bartels; Justice of the Peace, George A. Schmidt; commissioner of appeal, Phillip Acker, Stephen Beeching, A. P. Voorhees; Surveyors of Highways, Harry Acker, Theodore Luerssen; Poundkeepers, Charles Willis, Conrad Kramer. The appropriations for roads, poor fund and salary of Town Committeemen were unanimously voted for.

IN PISCATAWAY.

The Democrats Succeeded in Electing Nearly All Their Candidates.

One of the most exciting elections ever held in Piscataway township was that of yesterday. The Republican and Democratic parties each placed tickets in the field and the contest was bitterly fought, although not as large a vote was got out as had been expected. The Democrats claim a victory, as they succeeded in electing a majority of the more important offices on the ticket. Al. Manning for Freeholder defeated William Fitz Randolph by a majority of 96, while for Assessor Charles E. Kelly defeated Dr. Myron J. Whitford by 16. The Democrats also elected William J. Nelson for Collector over Ziba P. Osmun by a majority of 28. B. DeWitt Giles for town committee (2 year term) defeated Arthur R. Tappen by seven majority. The Democrats won two commissioner of appeal, Bethune Dunham defeating Cornelius S. Boice by 50 majority. The Republicans will have to be satisfied with two town committeemen, the surveyor of highways, a constable and justice of the peace. The appropriations of $1,000 for support of poor and $5,000 for roads were carried, but few votes being cast against them. Following is the vote in detail:

Democratic ticket—Chosen Freeholder, Alexander Manning, 284; Assessor, Charles E. Kelly, 241; Collector, William J. Nelson, 245; Town Committee, Albert S. Manning, 3 years, 171; B. DeWitt Giles, 2 years, 233; George R. Conover, 1 year, 200; Surveyors of Highways, Lewis Harris, 204; Samuel Johnson, 199; Commissioner of Appeal, Bethune Dunham, 212; Constable, Charles A. Meeker, 205.

Republican ticket—Chosen Freeholder, William Fitz Randolph, 188; Assessor, Myron J. Whitford, 225; Collector, Ziba P. Osmun, 217; Town Committee, Thomas H. Brantingham, 3 years, 290; Arthur R. Tappen, 2 years, 226; Nelson M. Giles, 1 year, 266; Surveyors of Highways, Albert L. Boice, 266; Luther Boice, 268; Commissioner of Appeal, Cornelius S. Boice, 162; Constable, Luther Mundy, 3 years, 264; Justice of the Peace, Harry E. Weaver, 269.

Result at Mountainside.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Mountainside, March 14.—This borough, which generally gives a Republican majority of about 50, fell in line with the Democrats yesterday and gave Mulford M. Scudder a majority over George H. Embree for the Freeholdership and elected one Councilman, John B. Roll, over the Republican nominee, H. H. MacMurray. These Democrats were elected on a Citizen's ticket. Louis S. Robbins, the Republican candidate for Councilman, was elected over Charles M. Badgley, Democrat, by only one vote.

Only One Contest in New Providence.

The only contest in yesterday's election in New Providence township was for Freeholder. John Wahl, a Republican, was elected on the Citizens' ticket, defeating his cousin, George D. Wahl, who ran on the Independent ticket. Peter S. Debby, Victor Mercier and Frank Sohls were elected to the township committee. They are all Democrats. D. M. Parker was elected township clerk.

Citizens Win in Cranford.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, March 14—The election held here yesterday was one of the hardest fought that has taken place in many years. The Republican candidate for Freeholder was defeated by the present Freeholder, E. K. Adams, by a majority of 27. The Citizens' party elected its Assessor and two of the Township Committeemen and most of the other officers.

FUNERAL OF AGED MAN.

Episcopal Service Over Remains of Late Alfred Bonnell.

The funeral services of the late Alfred Bonnell were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home Manning avenue, and was very largely attended by neighbors and friends. Rev. Dr. Rodman, pastor of Grace P. E. church, officiated, and spoke in the highest terms of the life and character of the departed. He also dwelt upon his advanced age and of the upright Christian life he lived for so many years.

There was a very handsome display of floral tributes that surrounded and almost covered the casket. After those present were given an opportunity of viewing the remains, interment took place in the Plainfield Avenue Cemetery in the family plot. Those who served as pall-bearers were relatives of the deceased.

To Discuss Street Work.

A meeting of the street committee of the Common Council will be held tomorrow evening, when the committee will discuss plans for the summer. A list of roads needing repairs has been compiled and will be brought to the attention of the members. It is headed by Putnam avenue. Other important work will be done to Plainfield avenue and to complete the repairing of South avenue. The committee will consider the list and make such changes as are deemed necessary.

To Call G. O. P. Primaries.

The members of the Republican city executive committee did not turn out in force for the meeting of the committee last night. A quorum was present, however. Councilman James F. Buckle was elected vice-president of the committee. The secretary, William Newcorn, was authorized to issue the call for primaries for the state convention when the allottment of delegates should be made by the county committee.

ROD AND GUN.

There was an exciting shoot at Campbell's road house yesterday afternoon between John Lindsay and Galloway, the young crack trap shooter. The shoot was for $25 a side at 25 live birds each. Both men killed 23 out of the 25. In the shoot off of ten birds, Galloway killed nine and Lindsay only seven.

A Birthday Surprise.

Walter Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Emmons, of Jackson avenue, celebrated the twentieth anniversary of his birthday yesterday, and in honor of the event a surprise party was tendered to him last night. It was arranged by his mother and sister, Miss Grace Emmons, and was complete in every respect. Those present were the Misses Ida Fountain, Evelyn Simonson, Grace Bowland, Julia Williams, May Bennett, Bessie Martin, Clara VanFleet, Aimee Emmons, Emma Line, Grace Emmons, and Messrs. Charles Woolston, Willard Martin, H. J. Martin, Jr., William Henry, Mortimer Slater, James Pope, Edward Ross, Ray Pool and Arthur Austin. Mrs. Gilbert Fletcher, of Brooklyn, sister of the celebrant, was also a guest.

Forgot to Tell Where Fire Was.

The dry grass in the back yards of 200, 206, and 211 East Ninth street, caught fire this afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock. William Fisher, colored, sent in an alarm from box 26. He forgot to tell anybody where the fire was and hurried back to assist in putting it out. When the apparatus arrived nobody knew where the fire was. At last it was discovered, but by that time the neighbors had extinguished the burning grass.

Not Likely to Be Granted.

Inasmuch as the Common Council did not grant a wholesale liquor license to S. Scheuer & Sons, West Front street, it is not likely that John Mortmer, who applied for a license last Monday evening, will get one for the place at 220 Park avenue. The Council does not seem disposed to grant any more licenses, believing the present number is sufficient.

To Take the Government Degree.

Mrs. H. W. Angleman and Mrs. Samuel Terry, of Mizpah Lodge, No. 1, U. O. of I. O. L., left yesterday for Boston to attend the government session of the lodge which will be held tomorrow. They will also take the government degree at the same time.

Streets Being Sprinkled.

Much to the comfort of the business people the street sprinklers made their appearance yesterday and kept the troublesome dust out of sight. This is due to the action taken by the Common Council at its meeting last Monday evening.

The beginning of every spring has its corps of prophets who are wont to tell that it is to be an early spring or a late spring or some other kind of a spring. They have now begun their works and are beginning to forteil what kind of a spring is before us. Reports of the arrival of the robin and the blue bird have already been heard and it is declared that the spring season is close at hand.

Thackery's "Vanity Fair" Discussed.

The first of "Five Evenings with Thackery'" was held at All Souls church last evening. "Vanity Fair" was the book taken up for discussion. Albert Hoffman Atterbury presented a paper on the subject that showed very high scholarly ability as well as being of great interest. After a brief sketch of the author, he analyzed Thackery's genius as evidenced in the book under discussion. The three strong points he brought out were Thackery's unity of purpose, his character delineation and his dramatic power. Remarks were made by Rev. A. C. Nickerson and John Erskine, while E. W. Conklin read a published letter by Thackery.

Miss Edith Miles was Host.

The Tuesday Evening Euchre Club was entertained by Miss Edith Miles, of Somerset street. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and choice flowers. The play resulted in Frank Blatz winning first prize with nine points, while Dennis F. Gavin with 9 1-2 points secured second prize. Miss Minnie Force won first prize for the women and Miss Margaret Summers the second. After the play refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing and having a good time in general.

Played Euchre.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Rogers, of Westervelt avenue, entertained the Tuesday Night Euchre Club, of which they are members, last evening. The full membership was present and everyone had a good time, as usual. Miss Ella Hedden won first prize for the women and Mrs. Fred Canfield the second. For the men Wm. Angleman won first prize and Robert Croxson the second. Miss Moser, of Somerville, will entertain the club two weeks from last evening.

—Attention is called to the public auction that will take place tomorrow at T. J. Carey's auction rooms, West Front street, when Mr. Carey will sell some shares in the Middlesex Land Company, the S. LARGER HOME NEEDED FOR A LOCAL CHURCH

The Congregational Society Will Start a Building Fund Sunday Morning.

WILL TAKE UP COLLECTION.

PRESENT BUILDING WILL NOT ACCOMMODATE CONGREGATION.

One Provision of Gift of Property Was That Church Should Never go in Debt —Funds Will be Raised Before Work is Started.

Steady and healthy has been the growth of the Congregational church on West Seventh street. The congregation has so grown in numbers that the present edifice is no longer large enough to comfortably accommodate the usual Sunday attendance and the time seems not far off when it will be utterly inadequate for the purpose. A movement is now started looking toward the enlargement of the present structure or the erection of a new one. Sunday morning the first collection for that object will be taken at the Congregational church.

The present Congregational church was organized in 1879. For several years the congregation worshipped in Reform Hall and the Seventh-day Baptist church. Plans were made for a church of their own and the little gathering of Congregationalists made heroic efforts to raise the necessary funds. At last they were given the deed to the valuable property at the corner of Central avenue and West Seventh street, where the church and parsonage are now located. It was given by Jacob Kirkner, of West Eighth street, and in the deed was the proviso that the church corporation should never mortgage or in any other way borrow money on the property. Otherwise the property was to revert to its former owner.

The object of this provision was so that the church should never go into debt. By great exertions the funds were raised to build the present structure. The lot with the parsonage on it cost $10,000 and is worth much more today. The building cost nearly $20,000. The church was free from debt at the very start and has always remained so.

The first pastor of the church was Rev. William Manchee, now of Passaic. He was here for three years. In 1884 Rev. Charles L. Goodrich was called to the church and has since remained there. Under his charge the church membership has reached the 250 mark while the actual number in the congregation far exceeds that.

By using benches and chairs in the rear of the auditorium it is possible to seat 350, or possibly 400 by crowding them. All the pews are taken and there is a demand for more. The Sunday-school has reached such a size as to be cramped in its present quarters while the parlors are far too small for the social functions of the church. All these things have pointed out the need of a new or enlarged structure.

At the last annual meeting of the church, held last April, it was decided to start up a collection during the year to start a building or enlargement fund. That collection will be taken up Sunday. At the next annual meeting, to be held the fourth Wednesday evening in April, plans for the change will be discussed. It will then be decided whether or not it will be best to make an attempt to have an entire new church or simply add to the present one.

Further plans will also be made for additions to the fund for that purpose. According to the deed to the property no indebtedness can be incurred and it will be necessary to raise the necessary funds before any work can be started.

The church is fast outgrowing its present quarters and these changes will only be a question of time. With a larger place of worship the church would undoubtedly show an even larger growth than at present.

To Sell Stephenson Car Works.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 15th.—Vice-Chancellor Pitney, at Jersey City, has authorized Albert Wilcox, receiver for the John Stephenson Company, to sell the company's plant, merchandise and contracts in this city at private sale. The company was engaged in building cars and omnibuses, and was established half a century ago by John Stephenson. The company failed a year ago, with liabilities of $480,000 and actual assets of about half that amount. The application was made to sell the property at auction, but the receiver believed he could obtain a better price at private sale to some car-building company.

SOCIABLE IN A PARLOR.

PLEASANT AFFAIR HELD AT HOME OF MRS. J. R. TRUELL.

Affair in Charge of Ladies Society for Christian Work—Pantomime of "Nearer My God to Thee."

The parlors of the residence of Mrs. J. R. Truell, of Central avenue, were opened to the congregation of the Seventh-day Baptist church last evening for one of the regular sociables of the Ladies Society for Christian Work. It proved to be a delightful affair and was well attended.

The first part of the evening was devoted to social intercourse and then John P. Mosher, as master of ceremonies, announced the programme. A violin solo was charmingly rendered by Mrs. Robert Johnston, accompanied by Miss Jessie Utter.

The event of the evening followed. It was a pantomime, "Nearer My God To Thee," given by Mme. Alberti, an instructor in Delsarte and physical culture, of New York. The solo was sung by Mrs. F. T. Clawson, accompanied by Miss Jessie Utter. The effect was very beautiful. Mme. Alberti then gave a humorous pantomime representing a man sewing a button on his coat. It was very funny and the audience laughed loud and long. Another violin solo by Mrs. Robert Johnston completed the programme.

Refreshments were served in the dining room which was prettily decorated in pink. There were pink shades to the light while the table was tastefully decorated in the prevailing color. Mrs. I. N. VanSickel and Mrs. Henry M. Maxson presided at the table. They were assisted in serving by the Misses Ruth Maxson, Ethel Titsworth, Ida Spicer, Matie Green, Nellie Miller, Grace VanSickel, Kizzie Neagle and Etta Randolph.

The reception committee consisted of Mrs. J. R. Truell, Mrs. J. Frank Hubbard and Mrs George H. Babcock. The refreshment committee consisted of Mrs. George Rogers and Mrs. Ira West. The committee of arrangements which had general charge of the whole affair consisted of Mrs. John P. Mosher, chairman; Mrs. George L. Homan and Mrs. Frank H. Smith.

ON WINNING STRETCH.

PARK CLUB WHISTERS WILL PROBABLY GET THE TROPHY.

Recorded Their Eleventh Victory Last Night Against the Jersey City Club.

While the Park Club whist four were not up to their usual standard of play last evening, they did well enough to defeat the challenging team from the Jersey City Club. The state challenge trophy will, in consequence, remain in Plainfield for another week at least. The victory was won by four tricks.

Last night's victory was the eleventh for the trophy on the part of the Park Club. Only four more are needed to give permanent ownership of the cup. The Park Club was represented in the match by the usual team, Peter B. Matthews, Arthur A. Freeman, Albert O. Woltmann and Ralph Willis. The Jersey Club's were Messrs. C. Bowly, D. Bowly, Scott and McCabe.

The first round was close although both sides lacked the usual excellence of their place. The Parks got the better of it, however, scoring 8 points to their opponents 7. In the second round, the visitors were decidedly off their game while the Park Club team showed a marked improvement. The Parks took it easily 11 to 4. The third round gave the honors to the Jersey City combination. The Parks were slack and the round was won 8 to 4. The total score was 23 to 19.

The Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club is the next on the list of challengers and that club will play here next Wednesday evening. The Elizabeth team is the closest rival of the Park Club in the race for the trophy. If the local whisters succeed in that game, there is very little dout but that the trophy will come to Plainfidld to stay.

Poultry Farm Equipment Sold.

The equipment of the farm of the Plainfield Poultry Farm Company was sold at receiver's sale yesterday afternoon. W. N. Pangborn was the auctioneer and the articles brought good prices. Elston M. French, one of the creditors and Craig A. Marsh, lawyer for the receiver, William N. Runyon, were the principal buyers. The sale of the buildings, lease and poultry was adjourned for a week.

Somerset County Lawyers to Dine.

The Somerset County Bar Association has arranged for a banquet that will be held at the club house of the Somerset County Club at Finderne Saturday evening. Chief Justice Magie and John R. Hardin, of Newark, president of the Essex County Bar Association, will be the principal speakers.

DR. AND MRS. YERKES WEDDED FIFTY YEARS.

Notable Golden Wedding Anniversary Surprise Marked the Event.

A GIFT OF $1,000 IN GOLD.

HUNDREDS OF FRIENDS CONGRATULATED VENERABLE COUPLE.

Affair Had Been Arranged Without the Knowledge of the Celebrants—Reception Held in the Church.

Fifty years of married life, filled with happiness and joy, have been completed by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. David J. Yerkes, of West Seventh street, and this memorable occasion was auspiciously celebrated yesterday in a way that will always bring pleasure to their lives and make them feel proud of the high esteem in which they are held, not only by the members of the First Baptist church, but by every person in Plainfield who know them. For thirty-seven years this faithful pastor and his wife have lived in this city. When the members of the First Baptist church united, as they did last evening, in giving to them a reception, it was a homage that was graciously given and gratefully received. A united people, as one person, congratulated this couple that have lived and worked so faithfully for the interest of the church and the cause of Christianity, giving the best that they had to further the interest of that which has been so dear to their hearts.

The reception tendered last evening at the church was a surprise, and the plans so carefully made and carried out was a source of much pleasure to those who have had charge of it. The pastor and his wife expected to spend the evening quietly at home surrounded by their children, and preparations had been made for a home gathering. About 8 o'clock a coach went to the house and George F. Brown informed the pastor and his wife that they were wanted at the church. They were hastily driven there, when a sight greeted them that they will never forget. The large Sunday-school room, lavishly decorated and brilliantly lighted, was filled with several hundred parishoners and friends who had gathered to join in the festivities. In addition to the members of the church present, there were people from New York and various parts of New Jersey, and the pastors of the local churches.

As Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes entered the room the full chorus choir of the church, under the direction of Charles W. McCutchen, sang the Lohengrin wedding march. The bride and groom were preceded by Samuel Case and W. O. Chapman, as ushers; Anna Scott Yerkes and Dorrance Smith, as flower girls, and Vaughn McGee and Bessie Flanders, who were ribbon bearers. The couple were escorted to a platform that had been prettily arranged and decorated with drapery, stately palms and flowers. Beneath a large bell of a golden hue, illuminated with electric lights, they took seats. Suspended overhead were golden figures "1850-1900."

After the rendition by the choir Mr. McCutchen stepped to the platform and addressed the bride and groom. He said that he was glad that they had selected the 14th of the month as their wedding day instead of the 17th, which would necessitate the wearing of green on this occasion. He spoke of Dr. Yerkes' long and faithful service to the church, and of the devotion of Mrs. Yerkes, and how they have both been profoundly loved and admired by all. During the course of his remarks Mr. McCutchen introduced a great deal of humor, and with an improvised ceremony he re-married them. Toward the close he presented the celebrants with a handsome basket of fifty roses, and remarked that in the bottom there was a nest of eagles—golden eagles. This was the basket carried in by the flower girls. The eagles referred to were fifty twenty-dollar gold pieces, and on behalf of the members of the church he presented them to Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes amid loud and hearty applause. A pleasing and unexpected feature was the presentation to the bride and groom of two gold pens. These came from the Plainfield Ministers' Association, and were presented by Dr. Rodman, on behalf of the association, who said that they might wish to return to their fond habit of letter-writing. The recipients were deeply affected and heartily thanked all.

Mr. McCutchen then invited all present to step forward and congratulate the bride and groom after the rendition of the Mendelsohn wedding march. It required sometime for all to pass around and greet pastor and wife, but each one accepted the invitation and extended their best wishes. Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. Charles Smith, Miss Ida Yerkes, Mrs. Walter McGee and Mrs. Wilson.

The Sunday-school room, with its adjoining rooms, presented a pretty sight. Unusual good taste was displayed in the decorations and the most harmonious effects were secured. There was a liberal display of southern smilax, and this, with the golden colors, blended perfectly. The electric light bulbs were so covered as to shed a golden light, and the same effect was produced through the use of banquet lamps. The whole effect was oriental. There was a Japanese and a Turkish room, and an attractive place was the old-fashioned mantle and fire-place. Here were displayed photos of Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes taken when they were married.

The use of tall palms added much to the general effect, and especially attractive was the decorations in the dining room, where flowers and smilax were used.

At frequent intervals during the evening there were appropriate selections by Wm. Holmes, a duet by Miss Harris and Mrs F. M. Ward, and by the choir, all of which gave added pleasure to the event.

Dr. Yerkes was born in Philadelphia, Pa., January, 1825, and at an early age went to Hatboro, fourteen miles from the place of his birth, and spent his boyhood days on a farm, where the Yerkes family was established for many years. While attending a series of revival meetings at Hatboro he was converted, and soon afterward decided that he would study for the ministry. He entered the academy, where he lived, and completed the course. After that he went to Washington and entered the Columbian University, where he pursued studies in preparation for his service in the ministry. He was assisted in his preparation by Dr. Ide, now dead, but who for many years was a prominent member of the Baptist denomination. He was graduated from the university at Washington in 1848.

He then received his first call to the First Baptist church at Holidaysburg, Pa., where he was ordained. He remained there a few years, when he resigned to accept a call to the First Baptist church at Pittsburg, Pa. He remained at the latter place until 1856, when he accepted a call to the First Baptist church at Brooklyn, which was then located at the corner of Nassau and Liberty streets. Dr. Yerkes remained in Brooklyn three years, when he received a call to the First Baptist church, of this city. He came here in the summer of 1863 and for thirty-seven years he has been the pastor of this church. When he assumed charge the membership was very small, but it gradually increased and in a few years a large handsome stone edifice was erected at a cost of $75,000 and was dedicated in November, 1869. Since then the church has been one of the largest and most influential in this State. Its present membership is about 900.

Dr. Yerkes' ancestors all lived to be old people. His mother died a few years ago at the age of 96, and his father was also well advanced. He has scarcely known what it is to be ill. Today he is well and strong mentally and physically, and perfectly able to look after his congregation and preach every Sunday.

While Dr. Yerkes was a student in Washington he became acquainted with Miss Sarah Taylor, of Saratoga, and a year after he accepted the call to the Holidaysburg Baptist church, they were married at the home of the bride. Mrs. Yerkes is of Welsh descent, and although she is 73 years of age she is wonderfully preserved and is as rugged as her husband. Eleven children have been born to them, six of whom are now living. Those living are Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Walter McGee, Joseph Yerkes, Miss Ida Yerkes, Mrs. Wm. Flanders and Miss Grace Yerkes.

Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes have occupied their present residence ever since they came to Plainfield, and have lived to see that part of the city thrive and grow until it is one of the most beautiful parts of Plainfield. Dr. Yerkes is a member of the Baptist Ministers' Association of New York and regularly attends the meetings every Monday morning in New York.

In addition to the $1,000 in gold presented at the church, $250 in gold was sent to Dr. and Mrs. Yerkes at their home. Among the many congratulations received was one from Rev. Carter Helm Jones, of Louisville, Ky., who sent a telegram, which was read at the reception.

Below will be found a list of the committees who arranged and had charge of the affair:

JERSEY CENTRAL MEN IN A FRETFUL MOOD

Railroad Employes Threaten to Strike on Every Branch Unless Demands are Granted.

ANGRY AT SUPERINTENDENT

COMMITTEE HAS BEEN NAMED TO SEE THE PRESIDENT.

The Officers of the Road Seem Confident That There Will be no Tie-up, But They are Said to be Secretly Fearful.

Trouble which may result in an order to strike on every branch of the Central Railroad of New Jersey now confronts the officials and employes of that corporation. Threats are being made among the men to tie up the road unless changes in methods are made. Outwardly the railroad officials profess to care nothing for the threats of their employes, and declare that there is no likelihood whatever of a strike, but it is known that among themselves they are discussing the situation with deep concern, if not alarm.

The general grievance committee of the five brotherhoods of railroad employes concluded its session at Phillipsburg yesterday, after having been in session for more than thirty hours. During that time the committee conferred with advisory committees of the Lehigh Valley, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and other roads. Vice-Grand Master C. A. Wilson, of Baltimore, presided.

Among the most important steps taken was the formulation of demands upon the Central Railroad of New Jersey. A commitee will ask President Maxwell to appoint a time when he will receive the committee for the purpose of hearing the complaint. If he refuses to do so or to treat with the committee—as they believe he will—a general strike will be ordered on the entire road. This will also affect several railroads in the Middle States. The strike will be ordered not later than May 5th. The fact that other roads are to be included is taken to indicate that they will be asked to grant concessions similar to those demanded of the Central.

One of the chief causes of the complaint is the order of Superintendent Wertz that employes who have grievances must report them to him individually and not through the brotherhoods. This, the men declare, is a blow at the brotherhood, and they say they will stand together and insist upon the recognition of their organization. During the session of the committee a letter was read from an employe of the road who lives at Mauch Chunk, Pa It stated that the employe entered a store at that place and asked for a package of tobacco. One was handed to him, which he refused to accept because, he said, the concern which made it does not employ union labor. He declared that union men ought not to use tobacco made by the establishment in question.

An agent of the concern, who overheard the remark, reported the circumstance to Superintendent Wertz, who wrote a letter to the employe saying that such remarks as he had made about the tobacco manufacturing concern were detrimental to the interests of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

The employe wrote in reply that he was interesting himself in something that was none of his business. It is said that men have been discharged from the services of the road for less serious "offences" than the one specified.

When a reporter called at the offices of the Central yesterday none of the officials would be seen. First Vice-President Rogers sent word that he did not believe the employes of the road would strike. From a person who hold an important position with the company, but whose identity cannot be disclosed, it was ascertained that the high officials are very much disturbed at the threats of their employes to strike, and that when they see the men are in earnest they may show a disposition to compromise.

Killed in the Philippines.

The body of George Cook, late of the Fourth Regiment, U. S. A., is expected to arrive at his late home in Morristown from San Francisco today. Cook was killed in battle with the Filipino Insurgents last summer. Previous to his enlistment in the Regular Army he was a member of Company M, of Dover, Second Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, enlisted for the Spanish-American War. About fifty of his former comrades in arms will act as an escort at the military funeral to be held today.

MART. ROLL DEFEATED.

SPRINGFIELD G. O. P. LEADER MEETS HIS POLITICAL WATERLOO.

Has Been a Freeholder Fourteen Years —Results in Somerset County[illegible] Towns.

The next Board of Freeholders of Union county consists of eighteen members, of which there were six elected last year, five Republicans and one Democrat. The result of Tuesday's election makes the Republican strength ten. Freeholder Adams, of Cranford, has always acted with the Republicans. That party, therefore, claims it will surely control the next Board, even if Elizabeth, which is very doubtful, should elect next month four Democratic Freeholders. That city is now represented in the Board by two Democrats and two Republicans.

The township elections in Middlesex county Tuesday made little change in the political situation. The Republicans gained one Freeholder. Eleven Freeholders were elected, eight Democrats and three Republicans. Republicans succeed Democrats in Woodbridge and South Amboy, and a Democrat succeeds a Republican in South Brunswick. The new Board will have fifteen Democrats and seven Republicans.

The election in Springfield Tuesday was the most hotly-contested of any held in that township for years. The principal fight of the day was for Freeholder. J. Martin Roll, the Republican leader of the township, was the candidate on that ticket. Nathan W. Bonnell was on the Democratic and Citizens' ticket. Roll has held the office for fourteen years, and was supposed to be a fixture in the Board. The people of the south neighborhood, whose support he had had in years gone by, "soured" on him for his actions in the borough matter, and laid the blame of the defeat of their bill in the Legislature to him. In this election they saw a chance to get "square," so they made a combination with the Democrats to defeat him.

Bets were freely offered during the day that "Mart" would be elected, and even as late as 7 o'clock, when the polls were closed, his friends were confident of his election.

During the counting of the votes the excitement was intense. The hall was filled with voters, who followed the count with anxious faces. At the close of the first hundred Bonnel was three ahead, and at 200 he was eight ahead, and when the polls closed Roll was seven behind. This elected the first Democratic Freeholder for Springfield in twenty-two years.

The ticket as elected was as follows: Freeholder, Nathan Bonnel, Democrat; Township Committee, three years, L. T. Terry; two years, John L. Denman; one year, James VanNorwick; Constable Thomas Clark.

The Somerset Board of Freeholders will remain Democratic the coming year—7 to 3.

In Bound Brook John Magaw and Joseph L. Durn were elected Councilmen.

In Montgomery Eugene V. Cruser Democrat, was re-elected Freeholder over John H. Schomp, Republican, by a majority of 45 in the township and 34 in Rocky Hill borough.

Bedminster went Democratic.

The Republicans were successful in Branchburg, with the exception of Assessor.

In Hillsborough the fight was over the Collector, and Charles Hamilton Democrat, was elected by 26 majority.

Argued Case in Orphan's Court.

Former Judge William A. Coddington, of the firm of Reed & Caddington, yesterday at Elizabeth before Judge Vail in the Orphan's court argued for the plaintiff in the case of Henry M. Demarest et al against the estate of David M. Demarest. The claim made by the plaintiff is opposed by the New York Net and Twine Company, whose attorneys are Fred Seymour and C. H. Brown, of New York, and Coles & Caney, of Jersey City. The court reserved decision.

Outcome in Union Township
(Special to The Daily Press).

Elizabeth, March 15.—The Republicans of Union township elected every officers, excepting Assessor, Collector and Freeholder. The following candidates were elected: Township Council, Daniel H. Beech, John H. Doremus and William Bainbridge; Commissioner of Appeals, E. W. Higgins; Justice of the Peace, W. C. Hotchkin, and Surveyors of Highways, J. Walter Higgins and William Lonsley, Jr.

FELL BETWEEN CARS AND LOST ONE LEG.

Before That His Life Had Been Treatened By a Negro Tramp.

OCCURRED AT BOUND BROOK

THOMAS DONAHUE, OF SOMERVILLE, IS THE VICTIM.

Was Taking a Horse to Jersey City—Running Over Top of Cars When He Fell and His Leg was Run Over.

Thomas Donahue, twenty-four years old, of Somerville, was brought to the Muhlenberg hospital in this city this afternoon with one leg cut off and the other badly mangled by being run over by a mixed freight train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey at East Bound Brook just before noon.

Donahue is a dealer in horses at Somerville, and this morning he loaded a horse in a box car for shipment to New York. He accompanied the animal in the car. At Bound Brook the train stopped to pick up two or three cars, and during the delay Donahue went to one of the stores on Main street for something. During the absence a colored man crawled into the car where the horse was. Just as Donahue arrived at the car the train was pulling out. The colored man, who was a stranger, and evidently a tramp, pulled a revolver and threatened to kill Donahue if he got into the car with him. Fearful of his life, Donahue boarded another car and climbed to the top. He started for the caboose to secure the aid of a brakeman in helping him to overcome the colored tramp.

As he was passing over one of the cars he slipped and fell. He landed on the tracks and one of his feet was run over and cut off by the wheels. The accident was noticed by one of the crew and the train was stopped. Donahue was picked up and brought to this city on a passenger train. At the hospital he is said to be in a precarious condition, but as yet it is impossible to tell how serious the injuries will prove.

When the train stopped the strange colored man jumped out of the car and disappeared across country.

SNOWING AGAIN.

The Weather Bureau Declares That a Heavy Fall of Snow is Now Due.

It's snowing again. The little dreams of an early spring are temporarily blotted out. It really acts like a storm of the old-fashioned style. The weather bureau declares that a big storm is at hand, perhaps the most severe of the season, a fitting reminder of the blizzard that occurred twelve years ago last Monday. The anniversary may be two days late, but it is making up for lost time at a merry pace.

The snow began to fall at 7:30 o'clock this morning. It came down gently, but with a perversity that suggested a lengthy continuance. Since then it has been falling steadily without the slightest suggestion of a halt. So far, the wind has not been a prominent factor in the visitation, but that may come later. The snow is light and a high wind may amuse itself in preparing large drifts.

MATTISON WINS.

Deputy County Clerk Vanderveer Says the Record o Ballots Show Him to be Elected.

Justice Mattison wins. So says Deputy County Clerk Vanderveer, of Somerville. The returns of the election have been filed and Mr. Vanderveer says that in accordance therewith Mr. Mattison is elected by a majority of two votes. It is his opinion that the three votes cast for James S. Lunger for three years do not count for the 5 year term, and therefore cannot be credited to him as such. This opinion was received in the borough today noon.

Want to be Letter Carriers.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 14—Mr. Palley, a civil service examiner from New York, conducted the examination today for letter carriers for the Somerville postoffice. There were 21 applicants who took the examination, one of them being a colored man. Another colored man applied, but was rejected on account of being undersized. As only three carriers and a substitute are required there is found to be seventeen disappointed ones. Postmaster Cooper is thankful that he is relieved from the pressure for appointments.

BLOEMFONTEIN HELD

Lord Roberts Enters Free State Capital.

ESCAPE OF PRESIDENT STEYN.

British Occupation Causes Great Rejoicing—Boers Driven From Before Ladysmith Fortifying a Strong Mountain Position.

LONDON, March 15.—The first half of the campaign is over. Lord Roberts arrived at Modder River on Feb. 9. He entered Bloemfontein on March 13. Thus in little over a month he has effected the relief of Kimberley and Ladysmith, the capture of General Cronje's forces and the hoisting of the British flag in the capital of the Orange Free State. All this has been accomplished with comparatively trifling losses.

It is small wonder that he is the hero of the hour in England. All the newspapers eulogize him and congratulate the country. They talk of the Free State as having passed out of existence and as being now one of the shadows of history.

It is not doubted that there may yet be heavy fighting, but the genius of Lord Roberts is looked to for victory over all difficulties. His grim reference to the "late" President Steyn is understood to show that there shall be no ambiguity as to the position assumed toward the republics. The fact that Mr. Fraser, late chairman of the Free State raad and leader of the opposition to Mr. Steyn, came with the deputation to surrender the keys is regarded as extremely significant of considerable difference of opinion among the Free Staters regarding the war.

The following is the text of Lord Roberts' dispatch to the war office announcing his occupation of Bloemfontein:

"By the help of God and by the bravery of her majesty's soldiers the troops under my command have taken possession of Bloemfontein. The British flag now flies over the presidency, evacuated last evening by Mr. Steyn, late president of the Orange Free State. Mr. Fraser, member of the late executive government; the mayor, the secretary to the ate government, the landrost and other officials met me two miles from the town and presented me with the keys of the public offices.

"The enemy have withdrawn from the neighborhood, and all seems quiet. The inhabitants of Bloemfontein gave the troops a cordial welcome."

The above dispatch, though dated Tuesday, was not received at the war office until 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. It was made public a few minutes before 9 o'clock. The delay is attributed to the field telegraphs not being connected with Bloemfontein on Tuesday evening.

Extra papers were quickly out on the streets and the night crowds of London sang patriotic songs and engaged in demonstrations.

A dispatch to The Daily Chronicle from Bloemfontein, dated Tuesday evening, March 13, says:

"Bloemfontein surrendered at 10 today. It was occupied at noon. President Steyn, with a majority of the fighting burghers, has fled northward.

"General French was within five miles of the place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. He sent a summons into the town, threatening to bombard unless it surrendered by 4 a. m. Tuesday. A white flag was hoisted Tuesday morning, and a deputation of the town council, with Mayor Kellner, came out to meet Lord Roberts at Spitz kop, five miles south of the town, making a formal surrender of the place.

"Lord Roberts made a state entry at noon. He received a tremendous ovation. After visiting the public buildings he went to the official residence of the president, followed by a cheering crowd, who waved the British flag and sang the British national anthem. They were in a condition of frenzied excitement.

"On Monday afternoon previous to the surrender there had been a little sniping and shelling, but the enemy then retired.

"Lord Roberts has his headquarters at the president's house, and there are many of the British wounded in the building. The railway is not injured."

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch from Pretoria, dated Monday, March 12:

"Lord Salisbury's reply has been received, and a Boer refutation of the British contention is under consideration. It will deny that any annexation has been made, and it will declare that the occupation of British territory was purely strategic. It will express the determination of the two republics to fight to the finish."

A dispatch from Cape Town says:

"Colonel Plumer is now within 40 miles of Mafeking."

A dispatch from Lobatsi dated Thursday, March 8, says:

"Colonel Plumer's force reached here Tuesday, March 6. It is believed that only a single bridge southward has been destroyed and that otherwise the railroad is intact within five miles of Mafeking. Colonel Plumer has already dispersed several Boer police posts in the neighborhood and is actively pushing his advance southward."

Methuen's Troops at Kimberley.

CAPE TOWN, March 15.—The British troops under Lord Methuen have returned to Kimberley from the occupation of Boshof, Orange Free State. Guns and 70,000 rounds of ammunition were seized, and a strong garrison was left to guard the town. Six Boers were arrested there on charges of treason. Nearly all the residents were wearing mourning, as the Boshof commando lost 200 men at the battle of Belmont. A great popular demonstration took place here on receipt of the news that Bloemfontein had been occupied by the British. All the church bells were rung, and a procession, headed by the union jack, went to the government house, where Sir Alfred Milner made his acknowledgments. The demonstrators sang "God Save the Queen" and then paraded through the principal streets, cheering and singing patriotic songs.

Free State Secretary Leaves.

LOURENCO MARQUES, March 15.—Mr. Fischer, the Orange Free State secretary, and Mr. Wolmarans of the Transvaal executive council, sailed for Europe by the German steamer Kaiser. Sir William MacCormac, who is on his way from Cape Town to England, is a passenger on the same steamer.

Boers Located in Strong Position.

LADYSMITH, March 15.—The Boers have been located in several strong positions near the junction of the Drakensberg and the Biggarsberg ranges. They have heavy guns in position on Pongweni kop, at Hlatikulu and in the Impati mountains, as well as at Gibson's farm, near Cundycleugh pass. General Hunter now commands the division. Both men and horses of the relief column are completely recovered and are now in the pink of condition. The reconstruction of the railway from Ladysmith to Dundee is progressing rapidly.

Canada's Contingent.

HALIFAX, March 15.—The Dominion line steamer Vancouver, calling here on the 25th inst., has been chartered by the British admiralty to embark the Leinster regiment for England. The Canadian battalion to take their place in garrison will make Canada's contribution of troops to the present war 3,900 men.

THE RED ASH DISASTER.

Coroner's Jury Finds Improper Ventilation Caused Explosion.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 15.—The coroner's jury which has been hearing evidence as to the cause of the recent disaster at the Red Ash mine has returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that B. B. Long and others came to their death by reason of an explosion of gas in Red Ash mine in Fayette county, W. Va., on the 5th of March, 1900, caused by lack of proper ventilation on that date."

Evidence at the inquest showed that the men entered the mine before the fire boss had examined and reported on its condition, also that there was some probability that the workmen leaving the mine on the night previous to the explosion left one or more ventilating doors open. Up to date a total of 47 dead have been removed from Red Ash mine. Others taken out, though badly injured, will recover. Only two more known to have been in the mine are not yet accounted for—a man named Prefado and a boy named Hambrick.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLAN.

Senator Grady Presents a Bill For Unification of New York Schools.

ALBANY, March 15.—The Democratic proposition for the unification of the public school system of the state was introduced in the senate by Senator Grady. The bill establishes a state department of education to include the university and public schools. Its executive powers are to be exercised by officers who shall be designated as an executive committee of at least five members of the board of regents.

Five bureaus are established, with a director to be appointed by the executive committee in charge of each. The regents are to continue in office until there are less than 14, when vacancies are to be filled by appointment by the governor with the consent and approval of the senate.

Detroit's Bicentenary Memorial.

DETROIT, March 15.—A quarter of the amount estimated as necessary for the erection of the $1,000,000 memorial of the bicentenary of the founding of Detroit was subscribed at the first public meeting called in the interest of this artistic project. General Russell A. Alger led off with a $25,000 subscription, and similar amounts were pledged by Senator James McMillan, James E. Scripps, Colonel Frank J. Hecker, C. L. Freer and D. M. Ferry. The Welkers of Walkerville gave $20,000, and a long list of lesser subscriptions rapidly followed, General Alger adding $1,000 each for six members of his family. The memorial is to consist, generally speaking, of a colonnade peristyle of white marble 1,500 feet in length across the foot of Belle Isle, in front of which, rising from the center of the Detroit river, will be a massive Corinthian column 220 feet in height of the same material surmounted by a bronze tripod which at night will emit a flame of fire, adding greatly to the picturesqueness of the spectacle.

The Holland Boat Again.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—A large congressional party, including members of the senate and house committees on naval affairs, yesterday witnessed the performance of the Holland submarine torpedo boat. The party was accompanied by Mr. Allen, assistant secretary of the navy; Admiral Dewey and other naval officers. The president's yacht, the Sylph, conveyed them down the Potomac to a point near Mount Vernon, where the torpedo boat, after engaging in some preliminary maneuvers, made her dives. The party on the Sylph followed alongside and noted the progress of the boat's movements. Members of the congressional party after their return to the capitol said they considered the exhibition a success so far as this could be determined without being on board the boat.

Mataafa and Tamasese Reconciled.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, March 15.—Advices from Samoa, dated March 1, report that the German flag was hoisted at Apia in the presence of the treaty officials and of Mataafa and Tamasese. Dr. Solf, president of the municipality, is governor. Herr Knipping, formerly vice consul at Sydney, will act as chief judge and vice governor. A public reconciliation took place at the flag hoisting between Mataafa and Tamasese. The supreme court, the municipal council, the municipal magistracy and the consular courts were abolished. The laws will remain in force as at present.

Dr. Pennington Is Dead.

NEWARK, N. J., March 15.—Dr. Samuel H. Pennington, president of the Newark City National bank and the oldest living graduate of Princeton college, is dead at his home in this city. Dr. Pennington was born in Newark in 1806. Several years ago while still very active he got a fall in the Adirondacks and broke his hip. Since that time he had been confined to his home most of the time. Prior to that he never missed a meeting of the board of trustees of Princeton university, of which he was a member.

Indian School Commencement.

CARLISLE, Pa., March 15.—A large delegation of visitors from Washington, including a number of senators and representatives, has arrived at the Indian school to attend the commencement week ceremonies. There was an official inspection of the school industrial establishments yesterday afternoon, and class day exercises took place at night, at which addresses were delivered by a number of prominent visitors. The commencement exercises will be held this afternoon.

Two Illinois Fires.

PANA, Ills., March 15.—The village of Nokomis, nine miles west of here, was swept by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $50,000. At Carbondale an early morning fire destroyed five business houses, with a loss of $50,000.

The Search Stops.

The Right Thing Has Been Found, a Plainfield Citizen Shows the Way.

Once more we are indebted to a Plainfield citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder they are skeptical of all claims endorsed by strangers residing in far-distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsements, for local citizens are giving their testimony and it is an easy matter for any reader to investigate the correctness of such evidence as the following:

Mrs. Wm. H. Ludlow, of Jackson avenue, says, "I had backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time aud tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or standing aggravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies, but got no permanent relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back, and when I do a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results."

OH, MAMMA DEAR!
did you hear that Woolston & Buckle has the finest wall paper in town. With Kaleidoscopic change on lovely backgrounds?
Daisies blossom on paper of azure blue,
Roses bud and bloom on an ashen hue,
Lillies of the valley are scattered on green
And flowers of all tints are everywhere seen
On colors exquisately blended with care;
To reproduce fruits, and flowers as fair
As if aid on by Nature s own hand,
Unique design both opaque and round,
And Japanese figures on gilded ground
And fantistic Beardsley lines are found
In a bewildering array.
Transform your bare and hideous walls
Into dreams of beauty as profuse
As covered Granada's famous halls.
From any design your fancy may choose,
The walls of the cottage are covered with ease,
It's not our custom, but the wealthy to please.
We have beautiful papers at a low price.
Although not so gorgeous, are artistic and n ce.

Relentless Rheumatism Conquered.

Up to recently it could have been said that science had advanced no positive cure for rheumatism, but a hospital specialist, delving after a cure for this tormenting disease, one day hit upon just the right formula, and in Dr. Heltin's Rheumatic Remedy to-day the medical world recognizes at last a cure.

No matter how bad your pains may have been or are; no matter of how long standing; no matter how many remedies you have tried, Dr. Heltin's Rheumatic Remedy will not only help you at once, but it will cure you for ever and ever. This magnificent remedy will cure all forms of rheumatism, muscular, acute, articular, gout, neuralgia, or sciatica, because it drives out of the system at once the uric acid that makes all the trouble and brings the muscle fibers back to their normal condition.

Don't be induced to take a substitute, but insist on having

AGREEMENT AT LAST

Republican Senators Will Divide Porto Rico Legislation.

RELIEF BILL TO BE PASSED AT ONCE

Civil Government For the Island to Be Next Enacted—The Tariff Question Will Await a Compromise of Differences.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Republican senators in caucus yesterday reached a partial agreement on Porto Rican legislation. The house bill appropriating $2,000,000 is to be taken up and passed immediately. The bill for a civil government for the island is to be taken up and disposed of as soon as possible, and the tariff bill is to be delayed for the present, while a committee of seven senators to be selected by Chairman Allison is to try to compromise differences on the revenue bill and secure a measure which Republican senators generally can support. This partial agreement was reached after a caucus lasting from 2 o'clock until 5:30.

The temper of the debate was much milder than that of previous days. As soon as it was generally understood that the tariff features of the legislation were to be postponed the discussion reverted to the governmental features of the bill, and upon this subject the time was mostly spent. Senator Foraker explained many features of the bill and was frequently interrogated, so that he was on his feet a great deal of the time. He was questioned by different senators, most of whom wanted to know the effect of different provisions of the bill. It was intimated that the bill could be amended if not satisfactory, and senators opposed to a tariff on Porto Rican products said that there would not be the least objection to passing the government bill.

SENATOR FORAKER.

Senator Elkins said that he favored leaving not only the question of revenue, but the government of the island as well, to the president. He thought the island would be much better off under military rule for the next two years than under any government that could be devised by congress. He particularly counseled delay. "We will know a lot more about this whole question in a year or two years than we know now," he said, and the islands will be as well taken care of during that time as they would be under any legislation we may pass."

Senator Elkins said that haste was not necessary and earnestly supported the proposition to delay the tariff bill and said he thought the governmental bill might well be delayed too.

Senator Foraker said that the question of dealing with the islands was before congress, and he for one thought congress should act. The committee on Porto Rico had given a great deal of time to the subject and felt sure the bill prepared would meet all emergencies. There was general unanimity as to the wisdom of providing for immediate action on the $2,000,000 relief proposition, the opinion of all the senators being that that measure should be passed for humane reasons. There was some effort to have the appropriation bill, the house tariff bill and the senate bill considered at one time, but this was antagonized as likely to result in too great delay.

The time for general debate on the District of Columbia appropriation bill, which was taken up in the house, was occupied by members in a series of set speeches. Mr. Adamson of Georgia discussed the Nicaragua canal, Mr. Cowherd the Philippine question, Mr. Howard of Georgia questions relating to the Philippines and the "open door" policy in the orient, Mr. Rucker of Missouri the advisability of electing senators by the people, and Mr. Boutell of Illinois replied to Mr. Cowherd.

McKinley Signs Gold Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—At 14 minutes before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the president affixed his signature to the financial bill, thus making it a law of the land. Mr. Overstreet of Indiana, who had the bill in charge, arrived at the White House about five minutes before that time and was shown into the cabinet room, where he was joined by the president, who after inquiring if the bill had been prepared with care affixed his signature to it. At the same time he recalled to those who stood by the fact that many of the important financial bills which had been passed by congress had been approved on the 14th of the month. In signing the bill the president used a new gold pen and holder which Mr. Overstreet had brought with him for the purpose.

A Play Interrupted.

KANSAS CITY, March 15.—A deputy sheriff climbing over the stage from a box during the performance of the first act of "The Lion's Mouth" to serve an attachment in a suit against Frederick Warde, the actor, was a novel scene witnessed at a local opera house at the matinee performance. The deputy secured service on Mr. Warde, while another deputy attached the box office receipts. They had been unable to gain entrance through the stage door.

A National Park In Georgia.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The house committee on military affairs has ordered a favorable report on the bill of Representative Livingstone of Georgia for a national military park near Atlanta on the site of the battle of Peach Tree Creek and other famous engagements connected with the siege of Atlanta. Representative Slayden of Texas will make the report.

A GENIUS WASTED.

How the Janitor "Stood Off" the Tenants with Gaskets and Gliding a Safety Valve.

The cold weather brought to my mind many things that had been forgotten, things which came up fresh, and with what the New Englander used to call a realizing sense. All summer long, when every window had been open to catch the breeze, there had been no need to think of cold snaps as other than a blessing. But when the cold did come there was sudden realization of how little the ornamental appearance of the radiator compensated for its inability to radiate heat. Cold it stood in the corner; it had made uncanny noises; it had diffused a few whiffs of stale air; it had leaked a cupful of water on the carpet. There its energies apparently ceased; it radiated no heat, for it had none to radiate. It was clearly a case for an interview with the janitor and for the filing of a protest. Strange to relate, he was found in his subterranean post. Stranger still, he was affable and almost human.

"I know what you came down here after," he said, without waiting for the attack to begin. "I know. You are going to kick because there ain't any steam. Quite right; I would in your place. But you see just how this old machine is." Then followed a much involved and technical description of the faults of the apparatus in which there were only two clear things; that it could be remedied by putting in new gaskets, whatever they may be, and the other that by rights the owner ought to send a plumber to do it instead of leaving such repairs to a janitor. "However," he continued, "I'm going to do the best I can for the tenants, and anyway it's better to be put to a little inconvenience for a short while to-day than maybe to have a wait of a week or perhaps two while the plumbers are making up their minds about the job. I'll patch it up somehow."

Of course, it was just as cold as before; there could be no heat while the janitor had the machine dismembered in the cellar and with its fires drawn; but it was more tolerable in view of the knowledge that the janitor was hard at work about the repairs. In the ocurse of time there were renewed gurglings in the pipes; there was a repetition of the escape of stale air and dirty water; it was manifest that the apparatus was supposed to be at work. The janitor came up; he felt the radiator with that gingerly touch as of one expecting to find the metal too hot for comfort; his start of surprise, swiftly followed by an expression of deep regret, should be taught in the dramatic schools. He urged another trip to the cellar for personal inspection of his work. There was the gleam of blazing fire in its appropriate place; the sensitive needle in the gauge was quivering its record of the number of pounds of steam; the explanations of the janitor set forth more facts about the gaskets. It never did become clear about those gaskets, but a casual glance showed that the steam gauge had been freshly polished, and that a coat of gilt paint had been applied to the safety valve. The supply of steam heat was no better than before, but the janitor had proved that he was doing his best, that any further complaints must be made to the agent, combined with the statement that the complainant had seen the janitor conducting all the repairs in his unprofessional power.

The genius which can "stand off" a houseful of freezing tenants and save himself from every bit of blame by merely gilding a safety valve is wasted in flat administration; the higher walks of diplomacy are crying for just such talent. He should be ambassador or minister at the least.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE NORTH AMERICAN
(PHILADELPHIA)

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it prints all the news, and all the news it prints is true.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it's bright and brisk, up-to-date and vigorous, but not yellow.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because its only policy is to tell the truth. It has no covert or personal interests to promote. It serves no political ambition, no creed, no class prejudice, no mere partisan purpose.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it advocates equal taxation and battles against the existing system, which favors the rich corporation at the expense of the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer and the wage-earner.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it stands for Republican principles, and makes war upon all who, under the stolen name of Republicanism, are disloyal to those principles.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it believes manhood and not money should rule. Therefore it upholds the rights of all, as against the aggressive power of the privileged few.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because no boss, no corporation, can control one line of its space.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it is non-sectarian and broad; every party, every faith, every class, and the workingman equally with the millionaire, gets a fair hearing in its columns.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it upholds faith in humanity, and the progress of mankind toward higher ideals, larger hopes and better living.

DADY'S CLAIM FAVORED.

Cuban Secretary of Justice Sustains the Havana Contracts.

HAVANA, March 15.—Senor Estevez, secretary of justice, has presented to General Wood a report regarding the Dady contract under the concession of 1895 to pave the streets of Havana and to put in a system of sewerage. This report, which is entirely in favor of Mr. Dady's claim, was first laid before the other secretaries, who unanimously approved it. It was taken to Secretary Root on board the Wright for his consideration.

By this decision Senor Estevez gives to Mr. Dady the right under the Spanish law to accept the contracts, whatever plans are proposed, at the price of the lowest bidder, or if this be less than his original offer it gives him the right to claim a commission upon the difference of not more than 3 per cent. As the difference will probably be one of several millions this commission will amount to a large sum of money.

Before making his report Senor Estevez also took the opinion of some of the most prominent lawyers in Havana. All agreed with him that Mr. Dady's rights were beyond question.

There will be 50 guests at the Cassanova banquet to Secretary Root today, half American, half Cuban. Governor Wood, General Chaffee and General Ludlow, together with the principal Cubans, will attend.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

A formidable insurrection was reported to have broken out in Korea.

The Lewis bill repealing the Horton boxing law was reported favorably to the New York senate.

The Yarmouth arrived at New York with another batch of dissatisfied colonists from La Gloria, Cuba.

The farm produce of last year was reported worth $1,690,000,000 more than that of the worst year of the recent depression.

The Western Union Telegraph company stockholders authorized the issue of $20,000,000 of 4½ per cent 50 year refunding bonds.

The Wolcott's Crew Safe.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 15.—The steamer Excelsior has arrived with Captain Snow, passengers and crew of the Pacific Steam Whaling company's steamer Wolcott, which was wrecked on the night of Jan. 31 near Karluk, Alaska. All were confined three days on the beach at the foot of a glacier in the snow and rain, without shelter, on account of the unusually high tides, but on the fourth day managed to get away in the ship's boats to Uak bay, where there is a salmon cannery. They reached the cannery on Feb. 4 and remained there till Feb. 27, when the Excelsior came along and picked them up. The Wolcott is a total loss. She struck at night on a rocky point half way between Karluk and Uak bay in a howling northwest gale.

Woodruff's Dinner.

ALBANY, March 15.—The dinner given by Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff at the Hotel Ten Eyck last night was one of the most elaborate and brilliant events ever given in this city. About 200 guests, including the state officers, the judges of the court of appeals, the members of the state senate, the speaker and leaders in the assembly, the members of the Legislative Reporters' association and men prominent in state politics, participated. The lieutenant governor presided. The speakers were Governor Roosevelt, Chief Judge Alton B. Parker of the court of appeals, Senator T. E. Ellsworth, Speaker of the Assembly S. Fred Nixon, Senator Thomas F. Grady and Colonel Archie Baxter.

Mrs. Burnett Weds Again.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Post today says: "A cablegram received in Washington announces the marriage of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett to Mr. Stephen Townsend, F. R. C. S., of the Inner Temple, Continental club, London. Mrs. Burnett came over to this country in October last and, after having spent the winter at her Washington residence, sailed for Genoa on Feb. 28 by the North German Lloyd steamer Ems. On her arrival in Genoa she was met by Mr. Townsend, and the marriage was quietly celebrated. Mrs. Burnett, who was divorced about a year ago from a prominent Washington physician, first achieved fame through the authorship of 'Little Lord Fauntleroy.'"

Wants a Divorce at 13.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 15.—San Juan claims the record for the youngest divorce suitor in American territory. Rosalia Murch, aged 13, has consulted lawyers on the subject of obtaining a separation from Albert Murch, 24, a member of the signal corps, whose home is at Benton, Me. They were married Dec. 12, and Murch was ordered Feb. 1 to Fort Myer. He left his wife destitute, and she has written to him both at Benton and Fort Myer, and her letters have not been answered. There are no divorce laws in Porto Rico, and the young wife is waiting for the United States to enact such laws. Similar cases are plentiful.

Arrested For Killing Wife.

SUFFERN, N. Y., March 15.—James Baker of Sloatsburg, N. Y., who shot and killed his wife Sunday afternoon, has been arrested and taken to Goshen jail to await further investigation. Baker claims his revolver went off accidentally while cleaning it and that the bullet went through the kitchen door and entered his wife's abdomen as she was coming into the hall. A thorough investigation is being made by Coroner Bush of Tuxedo Park. Mrs. Baker was 26 years old and leaves two children.

To Observe Sun's Eclipse.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 15.—Professor Charles Young of the university astronomical department announces that preparations are now being made by him to observe the total eclipse of the sun which will take place on May 28. The instruments necessary for the work are in course of construction. Wadesboro, N. C., has been selected as the place where the best observations can be made.

President Names Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The president has sent the following nominations of postmasters to the senate: New Jersey—R. S. Snyder, Atlantic Highlands; Louis D. Gallison, Orange. New York—James Fox, St. Johnsville; Ebenezer Evans, Waterville.

TWO BEECHERS DEAD.

Brother and Sister of Distinguished Family Pass Away on Same Day.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 15.—The Rev. Thomas K. Beecher died here yesterday. He had been unconscious for some time. He was stricken with paralysis while returning from church last Sunday evening. He was born in Litchfield, Conn., in 1824.

He was graduated at Illinois college and was successively principal of schools at Philadelphia and Hartford. He was pastor of the New England Congregational church of Brooklyn and later of the Independent Congregational church at Elmira. During the civil war he was chaplain of the One Hundred and Forty-first regiment and at the time of his death was chaplain of Baldwin post, G. A. R.

The body will lie in state in Park church between the hours of 10 a. m. today and 12 m. tomorrow, attended by a guard of honor from the G. A. R. A memorial service will be held in the church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to Buffalo for cremation.

Death of Mrs. Mary Beecher Perkins.

HARTFORD, March 15.—Mrs. Mary Foote Beecher Perkins died yesterday at the home of her son, Charles E. Perkins. She was 94 years and 9 months old, having been born at Easthampton, N. Y., July 19, 1805. She was the daughter of the Rev. Lyman Beecher. She had seven brothers, all of whom became Congregational clergymen, and two sisters. Mrs. Perkins was a sister of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and of Harriet Beecher Stowe and half sister of Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker of this city and of the Rev. Thomas K. Beecher of Elmira, N. Y.

Sheldon's Editorial Oddities.

TOPEKA, March 15.—Rev. Mr. Sheldon yesterday omitted from the Topeka Capital all the usual cards of the fraternal societies, and when at the daily conference with the special correspondents he was asked why he had taken this action remarked that he was not prepared to say. He declared, however, that he is a friend of life insurance, which is a feature of fraternal societies. He said also that he did not indorse the sentiment or principle of all the articles that he puts in the paper or consents to be used. He was asked if he approved the article in yesterday's paper treating of the growth of socialism in Massachusetts. "Not at all," he replied. "Are you a socialist?" "You must let me use my own term. If you will say 'Christian socialist,' I am." "What is a Christian socialist?" "It is one who applies the teachings of the sermon on the mount to his daily life."

Pennsylvania's New Line.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Joseph U. Crawford, chief engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad, has completed a partial survey for the Pennsylvania and Buffalo connecting railroad, which is to be built from a point on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad in the northwestern part of this state to Buffalo, and has made a report to Samuel Rea, fourth vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad and who is president of the new road. The report shows that it will cost $4,000,000 to build the line and that it will cost an extra $1,000,000 to build the terminals at Buffalo. The new line will be about 102 miles long and is being constructed in order to give the Pennsylvania railroad an independent outlet into Buffalo.

Prisoners Must Be In Court.

LEXINGTON, March 15.—When the Powers and Davis cases were called yesterday, the city attorney moved that they be transferred to Franklin county. The attorney for the prisoners objected, holding that as this court has no official cognizance that the crime was committed in that county they could not be transferred until this court was officially apprised of that fact and to do that the prisoners had a right to be present in court when the case was called for that purpose. The court took the same view and intimated that he will demand the presence of the prisoners in this court or have the arresting officers indicted.

Ex-Senator Peffer's Son a Suicide.

KANSAS CITY, March 15.—J. Sherman Peffer, son of W. A. Peffer, former United States senator from Kansas, was found dead in a room in a house in East Eighth street yesterday afternoon. On the bureau was found a box that had contained morphine and a note reading "Father, I don't like to do what I am doing, but I'm tired." In the dead man's pocket was found several typographical union working cards. Peffer was about 30 years old and was a linotype operator. He entered the Smith House at 11 o'clock Tuesday night and when found had evidently been dead for several hours.

To Abandon a Mine.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., March 15.—At a meeting of the J. Langdon company, mining operators, it was decided to abandon the Neilson shaft at this place between April 1 and 15. The mules' pumps and rails will be hoisted to the surface as soon as possible. Five hundren employees will be rendered idle. For years the operation has proved a financial loss owing to a number of disastrous mine fires.

CANAL BILL FAVORED

Prominent New Yorkers Plead For Enlargement.

PRELIMINARY SURVEY IS NEEDED.

Former State Engineer Schenck Places the Cost of Transforming the Erie Ditch Into a Barge Canal at $50,000,000.

ALBANY, March 15.—Former State Engineer Martin Schenck of Troy and representatives of various commercial bodies from New York city, Buffalo and other cities along the state canals appeared before the ways and means committee yesterday afternoon in advocacy of the Hill bill, which appropriates $200,000 for a survey preliminary to the construction of a barge canal as recommended by the governor's special commission.

Frank Brainard of New York city, who introduced the various speakers, said the survey was necessary and all the state's commercial bodies were in favor of the passage of the Hill bill.

George Clinton of Buffalo, president of the Merchants' Exchange of that city, stated to the committee that the citizens of Erie county almost to a man favored the canal barge scheme and were earnestly in favor of improving the canals. To have a survey first would be an economical move, said the speaker. The commission favored a survey, and the committee would be making a grave mistake if it decided not to take the first step toward the contemplated improvement.

Mr. Clinton said he did not speak from a political point of view when he urged the committee not to "kill" the bill.

Former State Engineer Schenck said the only question before the people relative to the canal improvement was how to get at it, how to improve it. The governor, he maintained, had taken a step in the right direction by appointing a commission to sift the matter, which body had felt the public pulse and had reported in favor of a barge canal.

"Now, the people who are going to pay for all this," continued Mr. Schenck, "naturally want to know what the estimated cost will be for the construction of this barge canal, what route will be chosen, etc. In order to satisfy these demands we must have a survey. I don't quite agree with the commission when it says the barge canal will cost $60,000,000 to construct. With my 30 years of careful study of the canals of the state I should place the figure at $50,000,000. Another thing I desire to tell this committee is that I do not think the passage of this bill is going to jeopardize the prospects of any political party. By all means the proper mode of procedure is first to make a survey so we can ascertain if we can build such a canal as contemplated at the price which the commission has fixed on."

John Cunneen, representing the Merchants' Exchange of Buffalo, urged the committee to take this, the first step toward modernizing the Erie and other state canals by reporting favorably the Hill bill. He alleged that the Erie canal was 50 years behind in improvements and that if the canals were permitted to go to rack and ruin the railroads would reap the benefit and charge exorbitant freight rates to the farmers and merchants in counties touching on the canals.

Davis Admits His Guilt.

NEW HAVEN, March 15.—Frederick M. Davis, the young street car conductor arrested here charged with numerous burglaries, was arraigned in the city court yesterday morning. Judge Bishop continued the case until Saturday to allow the prosecution time to prepare its case against the prisoner. Bonds were fixed at $4,000. Davis went to jail. Davis refused the services of an attorney who had been engaged by his father-in-law, saying that he was guilty and a lawyer couldn't help him. The police claim that fully 40 counts will be preferred against the prisoner when he is arraigned next Saturday. The value of the alleged stolen property found at Davis' home is estimated at $4,000.

Denver Paved With Gold.

DENVER, March 15.—The streets of Denver are paved with gold. Mark Watson, one of the "fifty-niners," proved it to W. P. Finley of New York this morning. The miner called attention to the grave thrown up in the excavation for a sewer on Sixteenth street, Denver's main thoroughfare. "That's good placer dirt," he said. To the easterner the dirt looked like any other, and he doubted the miner's assertion. "Bet you I can pan 50 cents in an hour," said the miner. The bet was accepted and the miner fell to work on the dirt. He washed several pans in the hour, absorbing the dust with mercury. An assayer tested the mercury amalgam and placed its value at 62 cents.

Engineer Riordan Acquitted.

PATERSON, N. J., March 15.—The trial of John F. Riordan, the Lackawanna engineer, on an indictment for manslaughter ended yesterday. Riordan was charged with negligence as engineer of the Lackawanna train that crashed into the Buffalo express on Thanksgiving eve near Paterson, killing seven persons and injuring 30 others. The trial developed the fact that Riordan had done everything in his power to prevent the accident, and it was claimed by the defense that the management of the road was responsible because of a lack of signals at the place where the collision occurred.

A Dynamite Plot.

PHENIX, A. T., March 15.—Advices from Whipsaw mining camp, 60 miles from here, say that a plot to blow up 40 men there on Sunday was almost successful. The men were sitting around the tables in the messroom when one of the miners who was about to enter the room discovered a burning fuse, which he removed. But for this discovery in two minutes the sparks would have reached a charge of giant powder sufficiently heavy to blow into atoms the messroom and all its occupants.

Cook Honorably Discharged.

BOSTON, March 15.—L. S. Cook of the Cook Nail company, who was charged with embezzlement and larceny of several thousand dollars from the Monarch Horse Nail company, was found not guilty in the municipal court yesterday and was honorably discharged.

Fire In a Tennessee Town.

NASHVILLE, March 15.—Fire at Mt Pleasant destroyed eight of the principal business houses, entailing a loss of $60,000. The insurance is $35,000. Several persons had a narrow escape from death.

A Notable Golden Wedding.

To have lived to the age of seventy-five years; to have been married a half century; to have been the pastor of one church for thirty-eight consecutive years, and to have, together with his estimable wife, been tendered a notable surprise on the occasion of the golden anniversary of their married life, is few of the good things of life which Rev. Dr. David J. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, has been blessed with.

The affair arranged in honor of the golden wedding celebration of the venerable pastor and his wife last night was an event of more than passing importance. It is aptly described as one of those things that "occur but once in a life time," and as such was made as auspicious as kind and generous friends could devise.

When the aged celebrants of the event were being showered with congratulations, overcome with honors and presented with a golden purse of $1,000, it was a proud and gracious moment in their lives. They well deserved all the reverence and homage paid to them. The greater part of the lives have been spent in earnest and active work in the Christian field in Plainfield, and through it all they have held the esteem and won the admiration of all who have come to know them — and their friends are legion.

The man who is now most in the public eye is Rev. Charles M. Sheldon. His experiment of running a daily newspaper as he thinks a Christian medium should be conducted is attracting the attention and interest of the whole world. It is safe to say that everything readable pertaining to the reverend gentleman who is now occupying the sanctum of the Topeka State Capital, will be received with extraordinary favor by all newspaper patrons. It is in this connection that The Daily Press has arranged for a considerable amount of special Sheldon matter, which will be printed from day to day for sometime to come. The first installment of it appears in our columns today.

To insure the permanent success of any commercial enterprise the continuing help of every contributory power must be enlisted, says the Philadelphia Record. No form of assistance is too modest and none too great for the purpose. The most potent of all factors in the achievement of success, however, is advertising. The man who puts faith in newspaper publicity is never made the victim of his own credulity.

Matron Eyler, whose management of the Girls' Industrial Home has been so constantly attacked, is not the big and frowning giantess in strength and temper which would be imagined, but is somewhat small in figure, is bright-eyed, and has a rather pretty face. She is very alert, however, and a hustler. She has a husband, who is also employed in the home. She gets $75 a month; he gets $20.

The possibility of a strike of the employes of the Central Railroad of New Jersey is a grave situation for business interests along the various lines of this company. Such an outcome of the present ill-feeling between the officials and the operatives of the corporation would be disastrous on all sides, but it is to be hoped that no such state of affairs will be brought about.

A clause in the Pacific cable bill requiring the cable to be of American make brings forth the statement that such work cannot be quickly undertaken in this country without great trouble and expense. England has had a practical monopoly of this industry since the laying of the transatlantic cable in 1857.

The Trenton True American has ordered a web-perfecting press. Within the last few weeks The True American has shown a spirit of get-up and-get-there in the newspaper line, and the ordering of a new costly piece of machinery like a web perfecting press shows that it is succeeding.

The town of Marshfield, in Massachusetts, does not believe in prohibition principles, but it has placed a fee of $1,000 000 for a liquor license. Thus is the difference shown between tweedle-dee and tweedle-dum.

The Newark Evening News is advocating the proposed industrial exposition for that city with an energy, perseverance and wealth of argument that surely ought to make it a success.

March is sustaining its reputation for vagaries in the weather line.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest to Plainfield.

Senator Kean has had the distinguished honor of presiding over the deliberations of the Senate. The fact that but four other Senators were present at the time in no way detracts from the lustre that has been shed in New Jersey.—Newark News.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Circular No. 3, issued from the headquarters of the Commandery of Pennsylvania of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, gives a short sketch of the military career of the late Joseph Stockton Schoonmaker, who died in this city, May 8th, 1899. Mr. Schoonmaker was a member of that order. He was but seventeen when he enlisted in the United States Army at the beginning of the Civil War. He went as second lieutenant of the Fourteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry. After serving on picket and scout duty near Harper's Ferry, he was attached as aid successively to the staffs of Generals French, Sigel and Hunter. He was then assigned to the staff of his brother, Col. James M. Schoonmaker, and took part in Sheridan's famous operations in the Shenandoah Valley. He was promoted to first lieutenant and then to captain and was honorably mustered out a captain at twenty years of age.

As the members of the Election Board in the First district of the borough had very little to do Tuesday they spent the day in writing communications to the various officials of that municipality. Several such communications were sent out and among those who received them were Mayor Smalley, Senator Charles Reed and a few others. The communications were all worded the same, as follows: "To the Honorable ——, of the Borough of North Plainfield: Owing to the long interval between meals it has unanimously been resolved that we, the Board of Registry of the First district, most respectfully request you to call at Rudolph Speigel's and order supper for the Board to be delivered promptly at 6:55 p. m. Signed: John H. Carney, W. W. Rowley, Asa D. Pope, Charles E. Emmons." At the bottom of the communication appeared the following: "Not dry, but O, so hungry." It is needless to say that the request was granted in each case and such a feast has seldom been enjoyed in the borough. The persons receiving the communications were only too glad to respond to the request, and they ordered the best of everything for the election officers. The joke was that those who ordered supper for the officers did not know that others had done the same thing. This accounted for the abundance of everything. There was plenty to eat and the officers had to call in their friends to help them dispose of it.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 15—Some of the friends of Charles Corieli, the candidate for Assessor on the Citizens' ticket, are talking of contesting the election of William R. Larkin, the successful candidate, on the ground that the booths were not in their proper place until about fifteen minutes after the polls were opened. It is claimed that a few men cast their ballots early in the morning without first preparing them in the booths, as the law directs. There being no booths in the polling place, men who wished to reach their place of employment or business could not wait for them to be put up. It is said the neglect to have the booths in position at the time of the opening of the polls was an oversight on the part of one of the members of the Common Council who has charge of the matter. It is not believed that the mistake had any direct bearing on the result.

Mrs. Elizabeth Heyzer, widow of John Heyzer and a sister of Mrs. A. W. Warden, died Tuesday at the home of her son in Brooklyn, after a short illness. Mrs. Heyzer formerly lived at Plainfield, where she was well-known. She spent the summer here with Mrs. Warden, leaving for Brooklyn last October. Mrs. Heyzer was a member of the Bedford Avenue Baptist church of Brooklyn, from where the funeral will be held this evening. The deceased was about seventy years of age. She had many friends in Dunellen and Plainfield. Her husband died about four years ago.

Some little excitement was occasioned last night by a horse attached to a wagon and owned by Goldson Smalley running away. The animal ran around the block three times before being captured. No damage was done.

Mrs. Marion Stott, mother of Mrs. J. W. Nickolls, of the borough, was a passenger by the Oceanic which arrived yesterday morning. Mrs. Stott has been on an extended visit with relatives and friends in England.

A mail pouch, containing New York mail, was badly mutilated early yesterday morning by being run over by engine No. 88. The bag had been left on the track. None of the mail was damaged.

Mr. Warner, father-in-law of Willard Larabee, sustained a stroke of paralysis yesterday afternoon, and his condition greatly alarms his friends.

The Board of Election and a few friends were given a dinner at Taylor's Hotel Tuesday night after the ballots had been counted.

Henry Stevens, an employe of W. H. Cole, received 16 votes for Councilman at Tuesday's election.

Charles Howell, of High Bridge, is visiting at the home of Stella Fritz, on Front street.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Elder yesterday morning.

The news-stand at the depot is to be moved to Freehold in a few weeks.

Miss Mabel Giles, of Millstone, is visiting her uncle, W. H. Carman.

Mrs. Joseph Maire is slowly recovering from a serious illness.

Miss Mabel Jamison will visit friends in New York this week.

John P. Crosier and wife spent yesterday at Cranford.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 15th—Charles Eller, Democratic candidate, and Henry Cook, Republican candidate for Commissioner of Appeal, ran a "dead heat" at Tuesday's election. The tie will have to be settled by the Township Committee at their next meeting. The plum will probably fall to Eller, the Democratic nominee, as the Township Committee stands two Democrats to one Republican.

Jacob Messler lies seriously ill at his home on Montague avenue. Mr. Messler contracted a heavy cold several days ago which developed into pneumonia.

Good Will Lodge, K. of P., hold their regular weekly meeting in their rooms this evening. Business of importance will come before the meeting.

No meeting of the Sacred Literature Society of the Baptist church was held last evening. The meeting will be discontinued for several weeks.

Charles Wade, who has been confined to the house for several weeks, is improving and is now able to go out for a short while each day.

The Democratic voters are still smiling over their unexpected landslide at the polls Tuesday.

Charles Layton is improving from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Robert Moore, of Dunellen, has been visiting friends in town.

Mrs. J. S. King spent yesterday in Passaic with her son, Walter S. Gibson.

Mrs. Charles Greer, of Duer street, is entertaining company from out of town.

Mrs. Edward Morse, of Jackson avenue, is greatly improved from a severe illness.

The many friends of Miss Katie Currie will be grieved to learn of her serious illness.

Mrs. Fred Canfield and Miss Moser, of Somerville, have been visiting Plainfield friends.

Mrs. A. B. Meredith, of Madison avenue, is able to be out again after her recent illness.

Fred W. Bird has returned from North Carolina, where he has been in the lumber business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Leonard, of Perth Amboy, have been visiting relatives in Plainfield.

Joseph Moore, of Brooklyn, has returned after a visit with Plainfield friends and relatives.

Mrs. Clark, of Newark, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Pope, of West Fourth street.

There seems to be a slight improvement in the condition of Rev. G. W. Gardner, of Park place.

Mr. and Mrs. Menzenbach, of Somerset street, have been entertaining relatives from Elizabeth.

Miss Elsie Dickson, of Chicago, has been the guest of Miss Leila M. Cruikshank, of Belvidere avenue.

W. M. Smith, of Elmwood place, who has been visiting his sister at Orange, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Voorhees, of East Front street, have been entertaining company from out of town.

Mrs. Coombs and her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Marshall, of Westervelt avenue, will move to New York in a short time.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, March 15—The case of Albert Wilcox against Michael Huber was called before Justice Collins at Westfield yesterday. The suit was to recover $75 for digging a well on Huber's property six years ago. The defence was that the well was not satisfactory. The Court ruled that as the defendant had given a note for the amount, and the property had passed out of his possession, the defence was not a good one. Judgment for the amount claimed, with interest, was given.

The toolhouse at the works of the organ factory at Garwood was broken into Sunday night and carpenters' and masons' tools valued at $75 were stolen. The theft was discovered Monday. Suspicion points strongly to some men who have been stopping for the past week at an Italian boarding house in Westfield.

The women of Westfield are organizing a cooking school.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 15.—Miss Mae Bunting has returned home after a week's visit with relatives in town.

Morris Higgins had the Stars and Stripes floating on his new flagpole yesterday, celebrating the success of his friends in the recent election.

There will be a masquerade ball in Washington Hall tomorrow night.

Dan Laing is still improving under Dr. Nelson's care.

The election returns show rather a mixed success.

Mrs. Milton Major is ill with bronchitis.

A new barber will be in town about April 1st.

Frank Miller is ill with the mumps.

BERNARDSVILLE.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Bernardsville, March 15th—Wright Post, son of Col. George B. Post, the well-known architect, is building a house upon what was formerly the old Ballentine homestead. This house will command one of the finest views in the county.

P. Meaney has leased the Spinning property and will remove his livery stables there. Mr. Meaney has rented his house to W. Adair, formerly of Somerville.

Rev. Daniel Matthews, associate rector of St. Bernard's church, has resigned from the position to accept a call from Hoboken.

We try to get as near as possible to the man who drinks the Coffee.

To find the best coffee in this country a woman needs only two qualties. She can use a dozen, but she can do it on only two. They are Intelligence and Courage.

Ten women have intelligence and no courage where one has courage and no intelligence. Courage is really what the average woman needs if she wants coffee way up in G.

Now it doesn't require much courage to buy a pound of Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee if you set about it right. The grocer will give it to you in a parchment-lined bag with our seal and signature attesting its high quality. You have really only to drink it.

Even here you run no risk. The man who ate the first oyster took terrible chances. But the only chance you will take is the probability that never again will you be willing to drink any other kind of coffee.

Even then, you will thank us. Ask your grocer for a pound of this coffee to-day.

Bayern.

München. Die meisten bayerischen Tafelglashütten stellten wegen des Kohlenmangels die Fabrikation ein; auch die größte bayerische Tafelglasfabrik, die Aktiengesellschaft in Weiden, sowie die Zuckerfabrik in Regensburg, ein noch junges Unternehmen, mußten ihre Pforten schließen, weil sie keine Kohlen mehr erlangen konnten.—Zu Beginn des Schuljahres 1900 betrug die Frequenz der 12 Schullehrerseminare des Königreichs im Ganzen 813 Schüler (1899: 814), nach Konfessionen ausgeschieden 561 katholische, 247 protestantische und 5 israelitische Zöglinge. Die 35 Präparandenschulen weisen pro 1900 eine Schülerzahl von 1432 gegen 1392 im Vorjahre aus.—Die Druckschrift „Parisiana," deutsche Verse aus Paris von Oskar Panizza aus Kissingen, ist vom Landgericht 1 München wegen Majestätsbeleidigung beschlagnahmt worden. Gegen Panizza wurde Haftbefehl erlassen.

Augsburg. Bei den 48 Augsburger Brauereien betrug der Gesammtmalzverbrauch im Jahre 1899 rund 381,000 Hektoliter.

Hemhofen. Der Holzarbeiter Georg Seeberger erstach Nachts seinen Nebenarbeiter Fessel. Der Todtschläger wurde in's Gefängniß Fürth eingeliefert. Fessel soll ihm mit einem Krughenkel mehrfache Verletzungen beigefügt haben.

Nürnberg. Die Strafkammer verwarf die Berufung des Redakteurs Klein vom „Nürnberger Anzeiger" gegen das ihn wegen Beleidigung des Bürgermeisters Dr. v. Schuh zu zwei Monaten Gefängniß verurtheilende Erkenntniß des Schöffengerichts.

Untergriesbach. Die Graphitgrubenbesitzer haben in einer Versammlung beschlossen, einen Verein unter dem Namen „Untergriesbacher Graphitgrubenbesitzer-Verein" zu gründen. Zweck des Vereins ist: Wahrung der Interessen der Grundbesitzer, Vervollkommnung des Betriebes der Gruben, Schutz der Arbeiter und Verhütung von Gefahren.

Würzburg. Zwei Selbstmorde sind jüngsthin in einer Nacht hier vorgekommen. Der verwittwete Schuhmachermeister Franz Götz, dem kurz nacheinander seine Frau und einige Kinder gestorben waren, schnitt sich in seiner Wohnung mit einem Rasirmesser den Hals ab, und bei der neuen Artilleriekaserne erschoß sich der begüterte Ziegeleibesitzer Franz Schömig von Rimpar.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Ein entsetzlicher Unglücksfall ereignete sich auf dem Uebungsplatz des 2. Pionierbataillons. Ein Pionier der Wachmannschaft fand ein Sprenggeschoß, das man zur Entladung bringen wollte. Im Wachzimmer legte man das Geschoß auf den Ofen, und nachdem dasselbe durch die Hitze nicht explodirte, schlug ein Soldat mit dem Seitengewehr auf die Zündkapsel. Jetzt ging das Geschoß los. Der Wachtkommandant, Gefreiter Geiger aus Leimersheim, und der Pionier Orschidt von Ludwigshafen erlitten am Körper und im Gesicht lebensgefährliche Verletzungen. Letzterer wird wohl das Augenlicht verlieren.

Kaiserslautern. Die von hier gebürtige, in New York verstorbene Brauerswittwe Marie Eichler hat etwa $15,000,000 hinterlassen, wovon, laut Testament, $2,000,000 an ihre in Bayern lebenden Verwandten fallen. Der verstorbene Mann der Erblasserin, der Großbierbrauer John Eichler, stammte aus Rothenburg, welche Stadt in dem Testamente ebenfalls mit einer namhaften Summe bedacht worden ist.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Die volkswirthschaftliche Kommission der Zweiten Kammer befürwortete die Eingaben für eine Stichbahn Böblingen-Sindelfingen nach Weil im Schönbuch, sowie einer Bahn Schussenried-Buchau-Riedlingen. —Dem unter dem Vorsitze des Fürsten Karl von Urach thätigen Ausschuß zur Förderung der deutschen Ansiedelung in Palästina wurde vom Kaiser ein Beitrag von 10,000 Mark übergeben. Ebenso viel spendete der König. Bisher sind 115,000 Mark gezeichnet worden.

Köngen. Zwei Bauern, die auf ihren Aeckern nach Steinen gruben, fanden einen römischen Meilenstein und eine Votivplatte mit der sicheren Bezeichnung des Ortsnamens Grinario. Durch diesen Meilenstein — es ist der erste römische auf württembergischen Gebiet —werden zugleich eine ganze Reihe anderer Bestimmungen sicher, so außer Köngen gleich Grinario, Clarenna gleich Cannstatt und Aquileja gleich Aalen.

Kraitsheim. Bei einer hier und im Bezirke vorgekommenen Sammlung für die Buren wurden 1417 Mark zusammengebracht. Das Geld wurde an die Transvaal-Gesandtschaft in Brüssel abgeliefert.

A city official of Elizabeth, N. J., consulted a physician in the country, where he was spending his vacation, about a chronic disorder with which he had been a good deal troubled. It took the form of indigestion, the food not becoming readily assimilated. After prescribing for some time, the physician finally told him he would have to be treated for several months with a mild laxative and corrective—something that would gradually bring back his normal condition without the violent action of drastic remedies. A little later he sent to the Doctor a box of and wrote him what he understood the ingredients to be and the Doctor forthwith pronounced the formula a good one and just what was needed in the case.

WANTED—A case of bad health that RIPANS will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word RIPANS on the package and accept no substitute. RIPANS, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

Proposals for Furnishing Crushed Stone and Materials for Culverts and Crosswalks.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, at the regular adjourned meeting held February 28, 1900, notice is hereby given that the Committee on Streets and Sewers will meet at the Mayor's office, No. 109 Park avenue, in the City of Plainfield, on Thursday, March 22, 1900, at 8 o clock p. m., at which time and place the said Committee on Streets and Sewers will receive sealed proposals for furnishing crushed stone, and for furnishing material for culverts and crosswalks as follows:

For crushed stone for the remainder of the year 1900, the bids to state the prices per ton of 2,000 lbs, for furnishing the following sizes, viz., Fine Screenings, No. 0 or ¼ inch clean stone, No. 1, or 1½ inch, No. 2 or 2½ inch, and building stone for culverts in such quantities, and delivered at such places in the City as the Street Commissioner may direct.

The stone must be of the very best quality of trap rock, free from weathered stone, dirt, clay or other foreign matter, and in every way acceptable to the said Street Commissioner.

The stone must be weighed on such scales as the Street Commissioner may direct, and a voucher or weigh-bill must be delivered with every load to the said Street Commissioner or his authorized representative.

Also for furnishing the following material for culverts and crosswalks:

Cover stone for culverts 4 feet by approximately 2½ feet by not less than 3½ inches, per square foot.

Curbing for side walls 16 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 6 feet long, per lineal foot.

Curbing for side walls 20 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 6 feet long, per lineal foot.

Crosswalk stone 24 inches by not less than 4 inches, 3 to 4½ feet long, Belgian edge, per lineal foot.

All to be of best quality hard blue stone and subject to the approval of the Street Commissioner.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Committee on Streets and Sewers will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided said parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved.

By order of the Common Council and the Committee on Streets and Sewers.

J. T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated, March 1, 1900.

THE COIFFURE.

Prevailing Methods of Arranging the Hair.

The fashionable coiffure continues to be wavy and negligent in appearance. There is no exact style prescribed, the general style being adapted to the particular face, but the Greek and the Louis Quinze fashions predominate. Simplicity, especially in the daytime, is the keynote. Elaborate methods of dressing the hair always make a young woman look more mature and moreover suggest the wax figures in hairdressers' windows.

For very young women the coiffure most frequently preferred is that in which the hair is waved and drawn back from the face so lightly as to form an aureole. It is arranged in a soft Greek knot at the back of the head.

The Botticelli bandeaux, so charming when they are becoming, are extremely unfavorable to the majority of faces.

GIRL'S COSTUME.

They demand small, regular features and a madonnalike aspect and should be sedulously avoided by women of other types.

An illustration is given which shows a party dress for a girl. The skirt is of pink taffeta, plaited from the waist half way down. Over this is a tunic of pompadour silk, bordered with an application of guipure. The bodice of pompadour silk is edged with guipure application and opens in front over a chemisette of pink taffeta draped diagonally. The sleeves of elbow length are finished by folds of pink silk, with fringed ends, and a fringed pink sash is worn. A large chou of pink silk is placed at the left shoulder. JUDIC CHOLLET.

VARIOUS NOTES.

Present Fashions and Those Which Are Coming.

Full skirts are threatened, and as they are particularly well suited to thin fabrics are likely to come to the front when warm weather arrives. The models which have appeared so far have been gathered at the waist, all around or at the back and sides only. They are made over a plain skirt of the regulation clinging form, however, so the general shape continues to be the same.

The skirt of ball gowns intended for dances is long, but without a train—that is, it rests upon the floor, as all skirts now do, but is not decidedly trailing. All other costumes of ceremony have a marked train, however, and the richer the goods the longer is the train.

Artificial flowers are much used for the decoration of evening gowns, but only the best quality of flowers is employed. They are used as epaulets and are placed at the left side of the bodice and appear in long garlands on the skirt.

The picture illustrates a gown of willow green voile. The skirt is ornamented in front with white embroidery, and around the foot is an accordion plaiting, with two lines of puffing and an embroidered hem. The bodice is draped in front and has embroidered revers. The collar and plastron are of white embroidery, as are the close sleeves. There is a soft belt of pink panne, tied in front in a large bow without ends, and on the bosom is another still larger bow of pink panne. The same model may be charmingly carried out in pale gray or any of the fashionable shades which are just off white. JUDIC CHOLLET.

NOVELTIES.

All the New Ideas Are Old Ones Remodeled.

There is nothing new under the sun, and fashion mongers fully appreciate that fact. When they wish to launch a new style, they look over fashions long past, select a detail here and a detail there, combine them, and, lo, there is the latest novelty! Just now there is a tendency toward the styles of the first empire; for, although the girdle is not carried up under the armpits, it is decidedly raised at the back, while in front it drops. This idea is exemplified in the shape of the newest corsets, which are made very straight and flat in front.

Skirts continue to be very long, flaring at the foot and molding the figure above. If they are plaited, as they very often are, it is so planned that the plaits or tucks add nothing to the bulk. Skirts which are of thin goods tucked or gathered are made over a separate silk lining, which is cut like a plain gown skirt, tight and perfectly fitting. It may have a circular flounce around the foot, but no stiffening of any kind.

An illustration is given of an accordion plaited gown of black mousseline de soie over black silk. The skirt is unplaited and has three bands of black chantilly insertion. The bodice has a yoke and bertha of black chantilly, and the collar and sleeves are also of black chantilly. The belt, which is tied at the side, is of mandarin velvet. The theater toque of spangled black net is trimmed with a black lace butterfly and a chou of mandarin velvet. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Prospects For the Spring Wardrobe Now Clear.

Wide draped belts are again to be worn. They are seen on the new spring models and are very becoming to a slender figure. One of the prettiest defines the figure closely, but is so arranged that scarf ends finished with fringe fall from it, seeming to be a continuation. The belt is very high, the top disappearing under a very short bolero.

Spring wraps are chiefly of cloth. The loose sack is among the models shown.

but the jacket with a tight fitting back and a loose front, with a single or double row of buttons, is, as usual, preferred. The basque is very short, especially at the back, and the newest addition is a set of two or three Carrick capes. The decoration consists of stitching or stitched straps. Long capes falling to the knee are also to be worn and are seen in black cloth, braided with black, with a medici collar.

The cut depicts a street costume of wool goods of a mode shade. Around the foot of the skirt are two flat flounces bordered with velvet. The tunic is edged with guipure and has three pointed bands of guipure, each band framed in strips of velvet. The bodice is fitted at the back and draped in front, fastening at the side with two choux of velvet. The yoke and the top of the sleeves are of guipure bordered with velvet, and there is a velvet band at the wrists. The collar and little guimpe are of velvet, and a velvet belt ties at the back with long ends. The velvet toque is trimmed with argus quills, a chou of velvet and a jeweled ornament. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE SHELDON VENTURE

Origin of the Christian Daily Newspaper Idea.

CIRCULATION WILL BE LARGE.

A London Edition of the Topeka Capital to Be Brought Out by Sir George Newnes—Bulk of Net Earnings Is to Go to Charities—The Editorial Staff.

The Sheldon edition of the Topeka Capital has grown to such size that it has been necessary to arrange for its publication in New York, Chicago and Kansas City as well as in Topeka. An English edition is also to be brought out in London by Sir George Newnes, publisher of The Westminster Gazette and The Strand Magazine. Subscriptions have been pouring into Topeka recently in such volume that the postmaster has twice sent emergency requests for help to Washington. Comment, both favorable and adverse, has occupied thousands of columns in the newspapers of the United States, Canada and England. In fact, Topeka at the moment is focusing the attention of two continents.

To The Fourth Estate a few days ago the story of this absorbing newspaper experiment was given by one of the owners of the Topeka Capital, Frederick O. Popenoe.

Mr. Popenoe, who for a number of years had been a warm friend of Mr. Sheldon and a strong supporter of him in his Christian and philanthropic work, one day asked Mr. Sheldon if he would like to have The Capital placed at his disposal in order that he might have an opportunity to print what he would consider a Christian daily paper. Mr. Sheldon replied that if the opportunity were to be an absolutely unfettered one he would be glad to embrace it.

Mr. Popenoe at once saw that the result of the experiment would not be a fair one unless the opportunity was unfettered and, on the other hand, that to make it unfettered might put The Capital in an embarrassing position. He therefore took time for reflection and, after the matter had been considered with the other owners, came down to New York to consult his old friend, Samuel M. Gardenhire, the copyright lawyer, who had lived for many years in Topeka and was intimately acquainted with all parties. Mr. Gardenhire advised that the entire plant of the paper, including its presses, franchises, the entire editorial and business control of the paper, be turned over to Mr. Sheldon unconditionally for a week, under what in effect would be a lease of the entire property for that period.

This decision being acted upon and dates fixed from March 13 to 19, the next question naturally to be settled upon was the adoption of the right methods for gaining an audience before which this object lesson in Christian journalism might be presented. Mr. Popenoe called to his assistance as manager of the edition Herbert S. Houston of Outing, who had formerly lived in Kansas and was well acquainted with The Capital and its owners.

As a plan of campaign that should be in harmony with the high aim of Mr. Sheldon's experiment Mr. Houston suggested that the subscription work be done through the Christian Endeavor societies, the Baptist Young People's union, the Epworth league, Women's Christian Temperance union and Y. M. C. A., and by all these societies it was adopted.

The wide publicity which the Sheldon edition has had from the first has come wholly from recognition by the press of the importance of the Sheldon idea.

Much of this publicity has been critical and some of it even denunciatory. Many of the religious papers of the country have sharply criticised Mr. Sheldon and have attributed all sorts of motives to him. In this connection the opinion of Edward Wilder of Topeka, the treasurer of the Santa Fe Railway company, is important.

"No earnest intelligent person," said Mr. Wilder, "who has met and known the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon would believe that he was influenced by the desire for notoriety or sensationalism or that he would lend himself to a selfish money making venture. The widespread interest in the principle set forth in Mr. Sheldon's book 'In His Steps' certainly demanded of Mr. Popenoe the utmost care and skill in launching this unique newspaper experiment. The Lord's teaching that we should commune with him in the secret of our closet is not more emphatic or important than that we should proclaim him from the housetops and that we should preach the gospel to all nations."

With reference to advertising Mr. Houston says:

"In its advertising creed the Sheldon Christian daily stands for two cardinal tenets—absolutely clean advertising and actual net circulation. Mr. Sheldon declines every class of business which even the most fastidious might deem objectionable. Every advertisement is taken subject to his approval, and he has declined more business than he has accepted.

FREDERICK O. POPENOE.
[Originator of the scheme.]

"Actual net circulation, the other tenet in the Christian daily's creed, is worked out in practice in this way: The advertising rate has been fixed at one-third of a cent per agate line per insertion on each thousand actual net circulation. After the six issues of the Christian daily have been printed Mr. Sheldon will issue a detailed statement of circulation, and all returned and defective copies will be deducted, so that the circulation will be net in fact as well as in name. If an advertiser wishes to name a maximum beyond which he does not wish his advertisement to go, he is permitted to do so.

"In a word," Mr. Houston concluded, "the Sheldon edition is honestly trying to stand for a fair interpretation of the golden rule."

The mechanical end of the experiment has been in the hands of the business manager of The Capital, Dell Keizer, who is sanguine that the paper will be printed and distributed in an entirely satisfactory way.

To the working newspaper man nothing will be more interesting in this experiment than the way in which Mr. Sheldon is prepared to meet the task of handling news. He has appreciated the limitations of inexperience and has been training the staff of The Capital to his point of view, so that the technical work of handling the news might be taken care of by well trained men. Harold Chase, the managing editor of The Capital, who is a graduate of Harvard and a well trained newspaper man, has been absolutely loyal in making himself and his staff willing instruments for the carrying out of Mr. Sheldon's ideas.

Mr. Popenoe says that under an arrangement with Mr. Sheldon a large part of the net earnings, if such there be, will be spent in establishing or promoting some charitable Christian enterprise. The circulation of the paper will doubtless reach 300,000 copies a day, and it may far exceed that.

ROSTAND'S NEW PLAY.

Dramatist Tells How It Came About That He Wrote "L'Aiglon."

Edmond Rostand, in an interview with the Paris representative of the New York Telegram, tells how he came to write his new play, "L'Aiglon:"

"When I was a child, there was hanging up in my room a very fine portrait of the Duc de Reichstadt. I ended by conceiving for him one of those profound, tenacious affections often found with the young. I loved him, admired him, dreamed of him. He became confused in my memory with one of those distant enigmatical personages we see on tapestry. I never lost my attachment for the duke, but promised myself one day to study and know him. Unfortunately the documents are very scarce, and I have idealized rather than reconstituted his character.

"The play is largely psychological. His life was full of dark episodes, was very emotional, like another 'Iron Mask.' Marie Louise appears in the play as a frivolous woman entirely taken up with her toilet. Napoleon dominates the piece without appearing in it during the dominating. The idea of the piece is the glorification of the people rather than Napoleon. From a literary point of view, 'L'Aiglon' will be, as it were, a step toward modern comedy in verse."

Dawson's Telegraph Line.

The recently constructed telegraph line extending between Dawson City, Alaska, and Ogilvie has proved a great boon to the interior camps and wrought a great change in their conditions, says the Philadelphia Record. Notwithstanding this line has been out of service much of the time, owing to the severe weather, it has proved a great success, the receipts for the first two months of its operation being $12,000.

SOVEREIGN REMEDY COMPANY

Gentlemen:—It is with great pleasure that I give you my testimonial. For some time I have been suffering from that terrible disease, catarrh. My nostrils were nearly closed, and it was almost impossible to breathe through them. My whole head was badly inflamed, my ears were full of water, and my sleep very much disturbed. Reading your advertisement one morning I concluded to give your Remedy a trial. After my first treatment I noticed a decided beneficial effect. I have been using your Catarrh Remedy for about ten days and the results have been most marvelous. My head is clear, the inflammation is gone, and I feel like a new being. I advise all suffering with this obnoxious disease to use the Sovereign Catarrh Cure and receive the same blessing I have.

Yours very truly,

TRAITS OF SHELDON.

Interesting Facts About the Preacher-Editor.

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, the preacher-editor, recently received the New York World correspondent at the parsonage in Topeka, a pretty frame cottage with hints of luxury in its furnishings. "I must not be interviewed," he said nervously. But later he did reveal this much of his character and plans:

"I am not an editor or a novelist," he declared. "My duty is in my pulpit and my parish. I was led into the experiment with the Topeka Capital by a desire to put my theories of reform to the test, but I shall attempt nothing of the kind after that is finished. I have had offers from several metropolitan papers to assume charge of their columns for limited periods, but have refused. I am making arrangements to go to Europe in the early summer and when I return shall devote myself absolutely to my church work and my few small charities."

Mr. Sheldon gives you the impression of a man distinctly ill at ease with his fame. He has a broad, high forehead covered with a heavy growth of brown hair, frank brown eyes, a mouth more gentle than determined and a slightly receding chin. His manner is nervous to the verge of timidity. He seems to be the last man to evangelize or exhort or to indulge in notoriety seeking or claptrap of any kind.

Asked about a rumor that he would begin office proceedings in The Capital each day with a prayer, in which the force would be asked to join, he flushed deeply and said he must refuse to reply. As he was speaking a tiny girl danced in with her sleeves rolled up and many water splotches on her blue and white checked gingham frock. "She has been churning," explained the Rev. Mr. Sheldon, completely at ease at last, as he tenderly rolled down her sleeves and smiled indulgently.

Distinctly a home man, one would say, to whom, as he declared, his parish is his first consideration. Among the many evidences of his sincerity given by people in Topeka are these: At every pronounced step of the increase of the sale of his book "In His Steps" he has forced his publisher to reduce the price, thus reducing the author's gains. He has never permitted his publisher to take advantage of the law governing second class mail matter in the distribution of these books. "It would be dishonest," he has said, "to make money by evading the meaning of the law. The books must go third class."

He has devoted nearly all the profits from these books to charity. A negro colony called Tennessee Town, near Topeka, in which are 3,000 people, is practically under his control and has absorbed much of his earnings. He conducts a free kindergarten in connection with his church.

One hears on every hand of his deeds of personal kindness. To a negro woman of Topeka who was run down by a street car and whose leg was so badly injured that it had to be amputated he sent a wooden leg. To a convict in California who wrote to him that he was about to be liberated and could make a living if he had a banjo the preacher sent as good an instrument as could be found in the town.

It is an open secret that Colonel Hudson, editor of the Topeka Capital, did not favor the experiment, but he speaks of Mr. Sheldon in the warmest terms.

"He was for a month a voluntary reporter for The Capital winter before last," said the colonel, "and he did the best work in that line that we ever had. He is a born newspaper man."

"Mr. Sheldon once worked in a rolling mill," volunteered a bystander, "and the proprietor said when he quit that he was a born rolling mill man."

"I guess," said Colonel Hudson, "that he is born to anything he tries to do."

Mouse Restored Woman's Voice.

A mouse has just been the cause of restoring a woman's voice. Mrs. Annie Mathers, a widow, living near Canonsburg, Pa., became ill some years ago. When she recovered, she could only speak in a whisper. This continued until a few days ago, when, upon entering her kitchen, she noticed a mouse running across the floor. Mrs. Mathers involuntarily tried to scream, and to her astonishment she actually did scream, says the New York Herald. Then she found she had recovered her voice, and since the incident she has been able to talk in her natural tone.

Looking Out For Bogus Sailors.

A plan to prevent immigrants entering the country in the guise of sailors is being devised by the immigration authorities, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. At present foreign sailors who desert or are discharged can enter the country simply by going ashore.

PROGRESS IN CUBA.

Western Portion of the Island Is Happy and Prosperous.

Information Furnished by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of Havana and Pinar del Rio Provinces and Friend of the Cubans.

Writing to the Chicago Tribune of Cuba and its progress in industry and education, Gen. Fitzhugh Lee says, among other things:

When I assumed command of Havana after the evacuation of the Spanish on January 1, 1899, the deplorable condition of the island is well known. Business of all sort was suspended; agricultural operations had ceased. There was scarcely an ox left to pull a plow, had there been the plow left. Miles and miles of country, uninhabited either by the human race or domestic animals, were visible to the eye on every side. The great fertile field of Cuba in some places resembled an ashpile and in others a dreary desert.

The rapid and brilliant victories of the American soldiers and sailors astonished the more intelligent class of people on the island, while the peaceful passage of large bodies of American soldiers under the guns of Morro castle into the harbor of Havana amazed the lower classes. The sight of the flag of the United States waving over the public buildings and being carried through the streets of Havana was a most interesting object lesson, and conveyed to the minds of them all of the majesty of the American government and the great reserve power behind it.

Those who saw that picture would not know the one they would see today did they return. In the interim wonderful progress has been made. The arms of the Cuban soldiers have been stacked and they have quietly returned to their vocations. Tillage has everywhere increased. Many of the houses have been rebuilt, and more and more farming lands are beginning to be taken up. Municipalities have been reorganized, with new officers representing the wishes of the majorities of the inhabitants. Municipal police have been formed and uniformed under the charge of, in the main, most capable officers.

GEN. FITZHUGH LEE.
(American Governor of Havana and Pinar del Rio Provinces.)

In the province of Havana alone the number of public schools has been increased by 14. This number is in reality large, for the work of rebuilding schoolhouses and securing teachers is necessarily slow. There are now in Havana 4,771 children attending school, an increase of more than 100 per cent. since January 1, 1899. In the same period the number of houses constructed in the province was 434.

The province of Pinar del Rio is probably the richest in the island. A remarkable improvement has taken place there in the pecuniary conditions of the people. The municipalities there are still largely in debt, but since American occupation they are becoming more and more self-supporting, and the indebtedness can soon be discharged. The most remarkable feature of the resuscitation of Pinar del Rio lies in the fact that the province has never yet asked for rations, so largely supplied to other provinces. This I consider a remarkable evidence of industry and vitality.

Those Cubans who have reached a voting age are as capable of organizing a form of government to-day as they ever will be. If they construct a stable government, strong enough to protect life and property and give confidence to capital, they should be entitled to control their own affairs. If not, the strong hand of the United States must be placed again on the helm.

Cost of the Spanish War.

Total expenditures of our government on account of the war with Spain were about $365,000,000, divided as follows: War department, $255,000,000; navy department, $69,000,000; paid to Spain for the Philippines, $20,000,000; interest on war loan to date, $9,000,000; increased expenses in departmental service in Washington, $2,000,000.

Jews in the United States.

The American Jewish Year Book, just issued, gives the Jewish population of the country as 1,043,800. It is stated that of these there are 400,000 in New York, 95,000 in Illinois, 85,000 in Pennsylvania, 50,000 in Ohio, 35,000 in California, 35,000 in Maryland, and 35,000 in Missouri.

Dog Checks for Soldiers.

American soldiers in the Philippines are all wearing "dog checks." A "dog check" is a lead medal about the size of a dollar, with the volunteer's name, regiment and company stamped on it. It is hung on a leather string around the neck, and serves to identify the dead or severely wounded.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Margaret Taylor, as the Belle of Darktown in the rag-time opera, "Clorindy or the Origin of the Cake-Walk," which will be seen at Music Hall tonight, is said to be the equal of Black Patti in vocal efforts, and the work of George Archer as the hot coon from Dixie, Sidney Perrin as the sport and S. H. Dudley as old man Silas, is said to be above the average of negro impersonations. The company is the same organization that made such great success at the Casino Roof Garden concerts, New York, all last summer, and an enjoyable entertainment may be anticipated. There is nothing more pleasing than the up-to-date negro melodies properly sung and arranged, and in this particular "Clorindy" will be found to be highly entertaining, from the fact that all the music has been selected by the popular song writer, Will Marion, author of that world famous song, "There's Only One Girl in This World For Me." A grand cake-walk, in which ten couple participate, will be a feature of the performance tonight.

There has been a steady sale of tickets for the production of "Our Regiment" by the Romain Comedy Players at Music Hall Saturday evening, and their is every promise of a large house. Mr. Romain is particularly fortunate is having in his company several young women of decided talent. They appeared in the same comedy in the New England States and made a decided hit. Of one of them the Providence Telegram says: "Mrs. Emma Brennan Ince was cast for Mrs. Dobbinson, the young-hearted and strong-minded wife of the cross grained Samuel, whom she rules with a rod of iron, and she gave her usual splendid performance and scored an emphatic hit." The Providence Journal thus refers to another: "Miss Aubrey Kent was very cute as the young hopeful of the Dobbinson household and made Olive a delightful picture of effervescent and eugenuous schoolgirlishness." The same paper has this to say about Miss Lucy Harris: "Miss Lucy Harris, as Maude Ellably, Mr. Ellaby's niece and ward, was very sweet and winsome in all her work. She was particularly good in her scenes with the curate and her blond beauty contrasted pleasingly with the darker charms of the other ladies." Another excellent actress received the following complimentary notice from the Providence Telegram: "Miss Jeannette Connor seems to have caught the spirit of Enid Thurston, a young heiress from Jamaica, for she gave a rendition of the character that would have delighted the heart of the author could he have beheld it." The others have been treated as kindly by the press of Providence and other cities.

The Al. Reeves' famous big company, which appears at Music Hall next Monday night, is conceded the leading attraction of its kind, numbering as it does nearly half a hundred people, most of whom have gained a National reputation. Principal among the personnel of Mr. Reeves' company this year is Miss Inez Mecusker, the famous prima donna, who Mr. Reeves has engaged, paying her beyond doubt the largest salary ever given to a singer on the vaudeville stage. The management of the Al. Reeves' big show has secured a large number of novelties for this engagement independent of Miss Inez Mecusker, and the best entertainment of the season may be anticipated in this performance.

A Worthy Object.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a meeting will be held in the guild room at Grace Episcopal church for the purpose of forming an association for the benefit of the homes for English and American girls in Paris. Mrs. Ada Leigh Lewis, the wife of Archbishop Lewis, of Toronto, and the founder of the project to assist these unfortunate women, will preside and give the ladies and gentlemen who attend an idea of the good work being done in Parisian capital. All interested in the work are invited.

MANY WHO MAY BECOME GOVERNOR OF JERSEY

On the Democratic the Name of E. F. C. Young is Prominently Mentioned.

REPUBLICAN TIMBER, TOO.

SENATOR CHARLES REED MENTIONED IN LATTER CLASS.

Democrats Consider that Mr. Young Would Make a Strong Candidate —Pitney Will Loom Up Strong in G. O. P.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 16.—Next year a successor to Governor Voorhees will be elected. Then the Democrats may be in a position to show fight and give the enemy a taste of old fashioned warfare such as was waged when Leon Abbett was the idol of the masses. Already Edward F. C. Young is being groomed for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination. Should he consent to the use of his name in that connection it is probable that he will be called upon to head the ticket of his party. In that event the Democrats would mean business, as Mr. Young is a man who would not enter such a contest unless he had assurances of victory at the beginning. He would command substantial support, and as he is very popular wherever he is known, especially in Hudson, the prospect would be that he would not only poll the full Democratic vote, but would, besides, get a large share of the independent element. When Governor Werts received the nomination, a few years ago, Mr. Young was an active candidate, and he would have carried the convention had the late Senator McPherson been present to lend him his assistance.

The Senator had just arrived from Europe and was detained in quarantine the day of the convention. During the administration of Governor Werts the Democratic party, through its race-track legislation, lost the confidence of the people of the State and was soon driven from power. Next the money question loomed up to distract the Democratic forces, and then followed a series of Republican victories. It is no wonder that in those perilous times Mr. Young had not shown an inclination to take part in politics. Now that a belief is expressed that the old party may again become animated, and that next year may show a rejuvenation, the friends of Mr. Young are advising him to contest for the Gubernatorial chair. And there are other Democrats in New Jersey who would not be averse to a nomination provided the party was in ship-shape. For instance, there is Vice Chancellor Reed, who is said to have an ambition in that direction. And then there are Mayor Seymour, of Newark, and Mayor Hoos, of Jersey City, both strong and popular men.

It was noticed that in the group of statesmen who attended the newspaper men's banquet there were several who have already been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for Governor. There was President of the Senate Johnson, quiet, brainy and diplomatic; the ever-aggressive Pitney and that brilliant young orator, Senator Stokes. Then there were former President of the Senate Charles A. Reed, whose light is not hidden under a bushel by any means, and the popular State Comptroller, William S. Hancock. All of these are Republican timber of the finest quality. If Franklin Murphy and Judge Fort had been present then the next Republican candidate for Governor would not have been missing. It is generally believed that many of the practical politicians of the party favor Pitney and that he will cut a wide swath in the State convention. And besides, he is supported by the radical element of his party, which is of much significance.

It is admitted that, should Judge Fort agree to enter the contest, he would prove a dangerous rival to Mr. Pitney. And then there is Mr. Murphy, who is in much favor in the upper end of the State and is very popular in the city of Newark, who would give Mr. Pitney a stiff fight. Mr. Stokes, who is one of the ablest men in his party, has a large following among the conservative element, but he is not liked by a certain coterie of politicians because of his conservatism. Should the Republicans get into a tangle over the nomination the best thing they could do would be to compromise on William S. Hancock. And should they fail to agree in that way, then the names of Johnson and Reed are before them, and the selection of either would not be a blunder. But the convention is a long way off, and there is plenty of time in which to make a wise selection. As the Democrats mean to contest every foot of ground in this Gubernatorial contest a Republican blunder would surely mean a defeat for the dominant party.

BEFORE COURT OF PARDONS

Petitions in Favor of Release of Mrs. Fingerhuth Now Before Proper Authorities.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 16.—Two petitions asking that Mrs. Fingerhuth be pardoned for the killing of Paul Boehricht at Somerset Park in September last, and for which she was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to be confined in the county jail for six months, an affidavit of Emil Demboroski concerning some important testimony omitted from the trial, a statement from the jury and other papers bearing on the case, were submitted to the Court of Pardons at Trenton this week. The petition had been numerously signed by leading citizens of Somerville and North Plainfield and ought to have considerable weight with the court. The sympathy of the community has been with Mrs. Fingerhuth and it is thought that the court will grant her pardon.

SEBRING'S CHANCES BEST.

Definite Action Over the Vote in North Plainfield in a Few Days.

Definite action is expected in a few days regarding the tie vote in North Plainfield township between Charles P. Sebring and Goldson Smalley for Town Committeeman. It has not yet been decided whether an entirely new election will be held or not. It is understood, however, that the two members of the Committee who were elected have the power of selecting the third man and appointing him to the place. If this is true the chances are that Mr. Sebring will be selected for it is understood that both Thomas H. Taylor and Benjamin Clark, the men elected to be Committeemen, are favorable to him.

Traction Company Mortgaged.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, March 16.—A mortgage for $1,500,000 was filed in the Middlesex County Clerk's office Wednesday by the Middlesex and Somerset Traction Company, which was recently formed by a consolidation of the Brunswick Traction Company, the New Brunswick City Railway and the New York and Philadelphia Traction Companies. The mortgage is to cover 1,500 first mortgage gold bonds of $1,000 each which are to be issued by the company. The mortgage is given to the Fidelity Trust Company, of Newark. The revenue stamps attached amount to $749.50.

Successful Endeavor Sociable.

The heavy storm and disagreeable walking last night did not prevent a large attendance at the Christian Endeavor sociable of the Park Avenue Baptist church, held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Runyon, East Sixth street. The programme consisted of recitation by Mrs. Charles Dayton, a piano solo by Miss Lillian Richardson and vocal solos by Thomas A. Cuming and Miss Elsie Giles. The decorations were green, that color predominating in everything. The young folks enjoyed themselves by playing games and partaking of toothsome refreshments.

Who is Right?

Regarding the "round robin" that was issued last week by the lawyers in behalf of Justice Mattison, of the borough, there is a dispute, and until it can be ascertained whether J. P. D. Kirch signed his name to the paper a bet of $10 cannot be decided. It is claimed by Lawyer Isaac Runyon that Mr. Kirch did sign the paper, while the latter says that he did not. Two prominent boroughites wagered $10 on the thing, and both have evidence that they believe is right.

Trip to World's W. C. T. U.

The World's W. C. T. U. convention will be held in Edinburg, June 20th to 27th next, and the Steamer Noordland has been engaged to convey those from the United States who can go. The round trip rate first-class will be $142.50 and the second-class $95. New Jersey is entitled to seven delegates and free entertainment will be provided for them. Those who can go should forward their names to Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, LaGrande avenue, as soon as possible.

Be Seated by 8:15.

The attention of those who expect to attend the production of "Our Regiment" at Music Hall tomorrow evening is called to the fact that the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock for the pantomime. During the progress of the pantomime it will be necessary to have quiet in the hall and those who arrive after the curtain rises will have to wait until the completion of the pantomime to get their seats.

New Officers to be Sworn In.

There will probably be a meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council next Monday evening when the new officers will be sworn in and the organization for the coming year will be completed.

CENTRAL OFFICIALS DO NOT FEAR STRIKE

Statement Issued in Behalf of the Railroad Company by Vice-President Warren.

MEN ARE STILL AGITATED.

UNLESS DEMANDS ARE ACCEDED TO THEY SAY "STRIKE"

The Employes Confident of Support from Men on the Connecting Lines in Case There Should Be a Tie-up.

In the absence of President Maxwell, First Vice-President C. H. Warren, of the New Jersey Central Railroad Company, yesterday authorized the following statement:

"The relations between the company and its employes continue to be of the pleasantest character. There are no grievances under consideration by this company, for the simple reason that none has been presented. We know of no grievances or complaints under consideration by the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Employes other than the little every-day affairs that are brought up for discussion from time to time. Judging from the newspaper reports current, the Brotherhood's grievance committee seems to be holding one of its sessions at which matters of this kind are receiving attention. There are no indications of any trouble, and the relations between company and employes will contine to be most cordial and amicable."

General Superintendent Olhausen and Division Superintendent Wents said they did not anticipate any trouble.

It was reported yesterday that the grievance committee would try to confer with President Maxwell next Tuesday. One well-informed railroad official, who stands close to President Maxwell, said:

"The New Jersey Central is always ready to listen to any reasonable complaints its employes have to make, and if the employes have any grievance to present I am sure the company will give the complainants prompt and courteous attention."

It was said yesterday that the Jersey Central has been anxious for a long time to foster the most amicable relations with its employes, and with that end in view it adopted, at the beginning of the year, the Brown system for the recording of the conduct of its employes. This system provides for the keeping of an impartial record of each employe. All complaints against him and all instances of meritorious conduct are recorded. This system enables the officials to distinguish the meritorious employes when chances for promotion present themselves.

These rules provide that "disobedience, intemperance, incapacity and insubordination" shall be considered causes for dismissal. If an employe has been suspended for more than ninety days in one year he shall be liable to dismissal unless some good grounds for leniency are presented.

These rules also provide that an employe who has been disciplined or discharged may appeal to a higher official, and all complaints arising from disciplining or dismissal shall be considered by the superior officers.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., March 16—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, one of the best organized of the five railway brotherhoods, held a meeting here yesterday afternoon and last night to consider grievances against the Central Railroad of New Jersey. The meeting was largely attended and enthusiastic.

Members of the organization say the trouble is due to a disguised effort to crush the brotherhoods.

Another grievance is caused by a recent order of the railway company reducing the number of brakemen on all assisting engines. The new order requires the engine-driver to throw the switches, while the fireman acts as flagman.

An order reducing the number of brakemen on the fast through freight trains is also objected to. Each of these trains has only one brakeman now.

What action the men took at their meeting was not made public. It is known, however, that an immediate appeal will be made to President J. R. Maxwell, of the Central Railroad Company. If the company does not recede a general tie-up is probable. The Central employes say they will have the sympathy and will be aided by the men on all connecting lines.

Miss Amy Cain, of Raritan, is visiting borough friends for a short time.

EXPLOSION IN A MINE.

One Life Lost and Two Seriously Injured.

UP IN SOMERSET COUNTY.

CAUSED BY PREMATURE EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE.

Accident Occurred in Copper Mine Near Bedminster —Narrow Escape for 15 Men.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 16—By the premature explosion of a heavy blast of dynamite in one of the shafts of the Somerset Copper Mining Company, six hundred feet under the surface, near Bedminster, Somerset county, last night at 6 o'clock, one life was lost and two men so seriously injured that it is doubtful if they survive.

The man killed was J. Matterson, of Bedminster, aged about twenty-five years. He was struck on the head by a heavy piece of rock and death is supposed to have been instantaneous.

The injured men are George Garmoe, of Somerville, and John Schmidt, also of Somerville. Garmoe's skull was fractured and one of his knees knocked out of joint. Schmidt suffered a concussion of the brain.

There were fifteen men employed in this shaft yesterday, but all but the three mentioned had left their work just a few minutes before the explosion.

Just before the men is entirely suspended each day it has been the custom to blast a large section of the mine for the men to work on the following day. Yesterday afternoon a heavy charge of dynamite had been placed in a hole that had been drilled deep into the rock. The concussion cap and the fuse had been connected with the charge, and Matterson, Garmoe and Schmidt had been left in the mine to carry out the work of exploding of the charge.

A few moments after Superintendent Seals and the rest of the employes had arrived at the surface of the ground they heard the rumble of the explosion. Believing that the work had been accomplished all right, Superintendent Seals waited for the men to come to the surface. After they failed to do so for several minutes, Superintendent Seals descended into the mine and was astounded to see the three men lying prostrate and insensible on the ground.

It was evident that they had been victims of a premature explosion of the dynamite charge.

He gave the alarm and the injured employes were carried to the opening of the shaft, where it was found that Matterson was already dead. Garmoe and Schmidt were carried to the home of John Davis nearby, and Dr. W. H. Long, of Bedminster, sent for. When he arrived he found the injuries very serious.

Garmoe and Schmidt have not yet been able to explain exactly how the accident occurred.

County Physician Wagoner, of Somerville, was summoned to the scene of the accident this morning, and he will order a Coroner's inquest of the death of Matterson.

Entertaining Programme Arranged.

An entertaining programme has been arranged for the sociable at the parlors of the Congregational church this evening. The entertainment has been left to the Christian Endeavor Society while the Women's Association of the church will look after the rest of the social. All the members of the congregation and their friends are invited.

Street Committee Did Not Meet.

Owing to the severe storm last evening and the absence of one member from the city, the councilmanic street committee did not hold a meeting as planned. There are no matters, however, that require immediate attention, and the meeting will not be held before next week Thursday.

HEAVY SNOW FALL BUT NOT A BLIZZRAD.

Was Followed by Rain That Froze and Caused Lots of Trouble.

HARD TIME FOR TROLLEY.

PASSENGER SERVICE ON JERSEY CENTRAL BUT SLIGHTLY DELAYED.

Frozen Switches Made Trouble in the Yards and Blockaded Freight Traffic—Street Department Was Short of Men—Trolley Cars Running Again.

Nine inches of snow, followed by a slight fall of sleet and rain that left an icy crust on top, formed a very persuasive reminder that spring has not yet begun. The snow began to fall yesterday morning and continued until early this morning. It wasn't a blizzard, but only a snowstorm of considerable severity. Navigation for pedestrians and horses was not of the best this morning. Passenger trains on the Jersey Central Railroad ran all right but all were delayed more or less. The freight traffic was at a standstill. The cars of the Plainfield Street Railway Company struggled pitifully along during the evening and early this morning without any regard for schedule. As the day advanced, however, the service was improved.

Coming as it did only two days after the anniversary of the great blizzard of '88, there was a sentimental feeling that the storm would amount to something. The weather bureau sent out a special bulletin announcing a heavy fall of snow. When the storm began the snow was light and feathery. It didn't pack and only needed a high wind to pile it up into high drifts. The wind, the weather bureau declared, would follow close on the end of the storm.

The wind appeared late in the evening and the snow began to drift. Before the drifts assumed serious proportions the snow changed to sleet and then to rain. The rain froze as soon as it fell and an icy crust on the top of the snow was the result. That ended the possibilities of drifting.

With the ending of the storm the mercury began to fall. At 7 o'clock this morning it was twenty degrees above zero. The going was decidedly poor. The crust was stout enough to impede traffic but not to support man or beast. The horses were barely able to pull the hacks, while the sleighing was only good where the road was well packed. In the streets where the scrapers of the Street Railway Company had been at work the pedestrians deserted the sidewalks entirely.

A small army of men and boys was out early cleaning the sidewalks. It was hard work for the rain had made the snow damp and heavy, only to be frozen.

The sleet and rain was what caused the chief trouble for the railroads. The switches in the Jersey City yard were frozen fast and there was trouble in making up the passenger trains. They ran, however, and the locals were not much behind time. The through trains were late, but all reached their destination. During the day the accommodation trains have improved and are now running practically on time.

The principal trouble was with the freight service. Two heavy freight trains broke down during the night and were rescued with difficulty. The trouble with the switches blocked the freight business for the night, but this morning the efforts to resume activity in that department were going forward with success.

While there were no drifts to bother the trolley cars the snow made lots of trouble for them nevertheless. It froze fast on the rails while the rain froze to the trolley wire. Even after the six big four-horse scrapers had been over the line and removed the superfluous snow it was necessary to dig away the ice from the rails. As early as 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the local trolley system was in a state of chaos. Cars still ran but at infrequent intervals. They finally stopped during the evening although the plows continued to work all night.

Early this morning, the cars were sent out in pairs. By 10 o'clock the line was opened to Dunellen. At about the same time a trip was made through to Westfield. The smaller branches were also opened during the morning. Cars are now running with a fair degree of regularity.

Street Commissioner Gavett was somewhat handicapped by the lack of labor. To begin with the city plow in the West End broke down on account of the heaviness of the snow and it was necessary to borrow one belonging to Isaac Rushmore. As

FOR THE CREDITORS.

Affairs of Rushmore & Company to be Settled Up by Three Trustees.

The creditors of Rushmore & Co., dealers in lumber, this city, met at Somerville yesterday to effect a settlement of the affairs of the company. Those present represented about seventy-five per cent. of the amount due creditors, which is $75,000. There is about $30,000 with which to settle, and the property of Rushmore & Co. is heavily mortgaged. Alvah Clark, counsel for Dr. Rushmore, stated on behalf of the latter that he was willing to give up his personal property to relieve the indebtedness, and this property will be sold to satisfy the creditors on a pro rata basis. By common consent a committee of three persons were appointed to sell the personal property and make a settlement. The committee consists of Craig A. Marsh, R. V. D. Lindabury and Alvah Clark.

Sunshine in This Home.

Mrs. Mary Laing, widow of Isaac Laing, deceased, celebrated her seventy-ninth birthday anniversary today at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary L. Force, 203 Watchung avenue, who also recently passed her 85th birthday. Mrs. Laing accepted an invitation to dinner and to spend the day with her sister-in-law by Mrs C. L. Brownell, the hostess. A bountiful dinner was served to the dear old Quakeresses by the hostess which made live worth living, even if the four-score period had been passed by one and nearly reached by the other.

Surprised Westfield Woman.

Miss Tillie Rowe, of Grandview avenue, arranged a surprise party for Mrs. R. A. Mills, of Westfield, a few evenings ago. Dancing was the feature of the event, while the playing of games helped to pass the time. Those present from this city were Miss Tillie Rowe, Miss Carrie White, Miss Pauline Sutterlin, Miss Minnie Garson, Miss Annie Thompson, Miss Ida Wright, Miss Aggie Mills, and Samuel Wright, Herbert Scribner, Fred Smith, Charles Moore, Herbert Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and Miss Tillie Walsh, of Elizabeth, were also present.

Anti-Canteen Sunday.

Next Sunday has been designated by the W. C. T. U. as "Anti-Canteen Day," and special services will be held throughout the country. The day will be appropriately observed by the local union. There is now a bill known as the "Spalding Bill No. 5457," which provides for the abolishing of the canteen in the army, and the members of the union are urged to write to the Congressmen and ask them to vote for the bill.

Donahue Recovering.

Thomas Donahue, the young man from Somerville, who had his leg cut off at Bound Brook yesterday, is doing well at the hospital. Last evening a portion of that part of the leg left had to be amputated, and the patient rallied well from the operation. No further particulars regarding the accident have been ascertained, and the strange colored man has not been apprehended.

For Patriotic Purposes.

Continental Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, received a goodly sum from the recent lecture given at the Casino by W. W. Ellsworth. It is hoped to arouse enthusiam among the people of Plainfield sufficiently to place a suitable tablet at Washington Rock, and efforts will be made in that direction from time to time.

An Evening in China.

"An Evening in China" is the title of a literary entertainment that will be held in Vincent chapel this evening by the Epworth League of the First M. E. church. Several papers on life and customs of the eastern nation will be read and there will be other attractive features to the meeting.

An Endeavor Sociable.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a sociable in the church Thursday, March 22d, to which they invite all their friends. The committee in charge have arranged a very pleasing programme.

Appointed Administrator.

Surrogate Parrot yesterday appointed Lawyer Brady, of this city, administrator de bonis non of the estate of Margaret A. Randolph, deceased, formerly of Plainfield, to succeed Michael F. Marcley, recently deceased.

Justice Mattison Retains a Lawyer.

Lawyer W. S. Angleman has been retained by Justice Mattison, of the borough, to look after his case in connection with the recent election. It is likely that the case will be carried to the courts.

Herbert Harold a Composer.

Herbert Harold, of this city, has written a very pretty piece of music which will make its appearance in a short time. It is now in the hands of the publisher.

Somerset County Senator Was Opposed to Law That Did Not Give Registered Dogs a Chance For Their Lives.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 16—Oysters, dogs and lawyers formed the principal issues in the Legislature yesterday—a strange combination of topics, the consideration of which afforded a pleasant relief from the general monotony of the session. Dunn's celebrated Five Counsellor act was repealed by the Senate, and the House passed the bill which prevents non-residents from leasing and owning oyster grounds in the State. The bill emanating from the farmers of Burlington county which provided that dogs worrying poultry and sheep should be shot on the spot was amended so as to exempt registered dogs.

The discussion over the repeal of the Dunn Five Counsellor act interests about 2,000 students of law now registered in the State. The act bears the name of Former Congressman John T. Dunn, of Elizabeth, who framed and passed the bill. Senator Pitney explained that the purpose of the Dunn act, or at least its effect, was to make lawyers of men who knew no law. It had resulted discreditably to the profession and was injurious to the public. With this act repealed there would be no danger of the rejection of any worthy candidate by the Supreme Court.

Senator Martin, of Sussex, strongly opposed the repealer. He said that the Dunn act was passed when the Supreme Court some years ago refused to admit John T. Dunn, because during the time he studied law he had also followed some other occupation for a living. Senator Martin spoke with some warmth of the injustice to ambitious young men of superior ability which this repealer would bring about.

Senator McDermott favored the repealer. He thought it rather a serious reflection on the five counsellors, for in several cases about half the candidates who had come up at the last term of the Supreme Court under the Dunn act had failed to pass the examination. Senator McDermott said he believed the Dunn act was a standing invitation to young men with no special talent in a legal way to take up the profession of the law.

All the Democratic Senators who were not lawyers, voted against the bill out of compliment to former Congressman Dunn. All the lawyers in the Senate voted for the repealer.

Senator Reed, of Somerset county, fought hard to have the Wright "kill 'em on the spot" bill amended so that registered dogs should have a chance. The discussion was on his amendment, which provides that vagrant dogs might be shot when worrying poultry or live stock. If registered, however, the damage falls on the owner and he may be proceeded against in the courts.

Senator Hutchinson strongly opposed the amendment. He wanted the privilege of killing to be extended to all dogs. He said a farmer could not stop when a dog was slaughtering his poultry to examine whether or not the animal had a registering tag around his neck. He said when sheep were killed by a dog, the latter might be despatched, and in his judgement the industry of poultry raising was a hundred times greater in New Jersey than that of sheep raising.

Senator Martin retorted that under the provisions of the "kill 'em on the spot" bill a dog valued at $500 might be killed for a ten cent chicken. That would be a dangerous discrimination of values when the owner of the dog could be compelled to pay all damages to poultry.

Senator Reed's amendment finally won out, and dogs with pedigrees will not be shot.

The famous Stokes School bill, which is a codification of all school laws, with many essential improvements, which will change the school government all over the State, was reported by Senator Francis from the Committee on Education. One of the amendments made by the committee substitutes the appointive system for school trustees, instead of the plan of popular election. Another restores the provisions of the existing law with regard

STORM IN THE SENATE

Gallinger and Penrose Indulge In Personalities.

A QUESTION AS TO TRUTH TELLING

Gentleman From New Hampshire Accused of Blocking the Way to a Vote on the Quay Case—A Heated Colloquy Follows.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—"I assert most emphatically that when the senator says I told him I should not speak on this subject he does not state the truth." This was the sensational retort made in the senate yesterday by Mr. Gallinger (Rep.) of New Hampshire to a statement made by Mr. Penrose (Rep.) of Pennsylvania.

Senators were astounded, and the auditors in the galleries quivered with excitement. There had scarcely been the slightest intimation that the debate would take such a turn. For nearly three hours the senate had under discussion the bill appropriating $2,095,000 for the benefit of the people of Porto Rico. Mr. Fairbanks of Indiana had just concluded some remarks on the measure and suggested that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Pending a motion to that effect Mr. Penrose, who has charge of the case of former Senator Quay, suggested that a time be fixed for a vote on the case. In the course of his remarks he intimated that certain senators were throwing obstacles in the way of a vote. As he took his seat Mr. Penrose cast his eyes in the direction of Mr. Gallinger, asking that a time be fixed for a vote and remarking, "I look squarely at those who are creating these obstacles."

Mr. Gallinger rose and stated quietly that he had been trying for six days to get an opportunity to speak in opposition to the Quay resolution, but had been prevented by other business. He still desired to speak and knew many other senators who wished to be heard.

To this statement Mr. Penrose replied that Mr. Gallinger had told him that he did not expect to talk on the Quay matter. "He may have changed his mind," Mr. Penrose continued, "but he most emphatically then told me that he would not speak."

Mr. Gallinger was on his feet before Mr. Penrose concluded. "I assert most emphatically," he said, "that when the senator says I told him I should not speak on this subject he does not state the truth." He went on to say that Mr. Penrose had come to him in an "imperious way" and asked him whether he intended to ask to be heard and that he (Gallinger) had told him (Penrose) that he was not entirely decided as to whether he would speak or not.

"I don't know whether I do not speak the truth nor whether the senator from New Hampshire failed to tell me the truth," was Mr. Penrose's response, but he was, he said, very confident of his position.

To this Mr. Gallinger replied that it was "unmanly and beneath his notice."

Mr. Hoar then came forward with a proposition to fix a time for a vote, and the two senators who were party to the heated colloquy said no more on the subject.

The District of Columbia appropriation bill, carrying $6,608,378, was passed by the house. A bill was also passed granting the abandoned Fort Hays military reservation to the state of Kansas for experimental and normal school purposes.

War Supplies Are Bought Here.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Several communications have reached the war department stating that representations are being made in the press to the effect that the quartermaster's department and the commissary department of the army are purchasing supplies for the equipment and sustenance of the army in Australia, China and Japan and that millions of dollars of American money are being expended in China and Japan for the purchase of clothing and supplies which should properly be spent in this country. A denial of these statements has been made public at the department. It was stated that the vast quantities of supplies of all kinds required for the army serving in the Philippines are purchased in this country, with a few necessary exceptions, and that American manufacturers and producers are reaping the benefit of these expenditures.

The New Newfoundland Ministry.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 16.—Mr. Bond has agreed to accept the conditions imposed by the governor, Lieutenant Colonel Sir Henry McCallum, and has formally assumed office. The new government is made up as follows: Premier and colonial secretary, Mr. Robert Bond; minister of justice, Mr. William Horwood; minister of finance, Mr. John Cowan; leader of the upper house, Mr. George Knowling; ministers without portfolios, Messrs. Edward Morris and Lawrence Furlong.

Mr. Bryan Starts For Home.

AUSTIN, March 16.—Hon. W. J. Bryan left last night for his home to attend the Nebraska state convention. From Lincoln Mr. Bryan will go for a month's tour through South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona and New Mexico. He is booked for a number of speeches in each of the states named and will be absent from this city about a month. His family will remain here until his return.

The Californian Still Fast.

PORTLAND, Me., March 16.—An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to float the steamer Californian, which has been fast on Roam island ledge since Feb. 24. The Boston Towboat company, with four powerful tugs, worked on her for a full hour with a favorable tide, but could not make any perceptible impression. The hold is full of water, and until this is pumped out and the holes covered no further attempt will be made.

Rapid Railroad Building.

CHICAGO, March 16.—The Railway Age today says: "Although more miles of new railroad were built in the United States last year than in any year since 1890, there is every indication that the present year will witness even greater activity. In the aggregate there are nearly 59,000 miles of projected road."

Safe Company Sale Decreed.

CINCINNATI, March 16.—Judge Taft has signed a decree for the sale of the plant of the Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe company at Hamilton, O. The decree simply confirms the order of sale made by the United States circuit court of New Jersey last December.

SENOR FLORES SURRENDERS.

General Otis Returns Spanish Prisoners—Gubat Garrison Safe.

MANILA, March 16.—Senor Flores secretary of war in Aguinaldo's "cabinet," has surrendered to General MacArthur.

General Otis has shipped for Barcelona 84 officers and 427 enlisted men, Spanish, who were prisoners of war held by the insurgents.

The troops sent to re-enforce the garrison at Gubat, 52 miles from Albay, found the men unhurt. It had been reported that the garrison was surrounded by insurgents and that the town was burning.

It appears that the people attacked a swindling foreigner whose warehouses were burned. The fire spread to other buildings, and this attracted the insurgents, and the people stampeded to the ships. The rebels, chiefly bolomen, were easily repulsed by the Americans.

Brigadier General Kobbe reports that in the islands of Leyte and Samar our troops were well received. Legaspi continues to be a hotbed of rebellion, and constant patrolling is necessary. The governor of North Camarines has surrendered to the Americans at Nueva Caceres and proclaimed American sovereignty.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Fire did $75,000 damage in the business section of Hopkinton, Mass.

The grand jury found 30 indictments against New York city gamblers.

The Idaho Republican convention has been called to meet at Lewiston May 8.

The big topographical map of Greater New York started for the Paris exposition.

Mrs. Emmons Blaine of Chicago inaugurated the eight hour working system for her servants.

It was believed at Trenton that the Palisades bill would be abandoned, the amendment of the opposition having been adopted.

The American interests at Shanghai urged concerted action by the powers to prevent the empress dowager from nullifying the open door policy.

One hundred armed men tore to pieces the house of the tollgate keeper on the Mount Pleasant and Columbia turnpike, near Mount Pleasant, Tenn.

Mrs. Lafayette de Friese and Miss Ida Hungerford of New York were presented at the Princess of Wales' second drawing room at Buckingham palace.

New Warships.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The house committee on naval affairs has reached a definite and final decision as to the number of new warships to be authorized in the forthcoming naval appropriation bill as follows: Two seagoing coast line battleships of about 13,500 tons each, to cost approximately $3,000,000 each; three armored cruisers of the highest practical speed and most powerful armor and armament, to cost approximately $4,000,000 each; three protected cruisers to cost about $1,141,000 each. It was determined not to provide any gunboats in view of the opinion expressed by Secretary Long and Admiral Dewey that General Otis' recent purchases of serviceable boats of this character met present gunboat requirements. The committee decided to authorize the secretary of the navy to contract for armor at a price not exceeding $545 per ton. This applies to the emergency armor, about 7,400 tons, required for the battleships Maine, Missouri and Ohio, now in course of construction, and not to the vessels authorized but not begun, nor to those contemplated by the present bill.

Lake Carriers and Dockmen Agree.

CLEVELAND, March 16.—The conference between the coal and ore handlers of the Lake Erie ports and the dock managers and representatives of the Lake Carriers' association, which has lasted ten days, ended yesterday. Agreements were reached satisfactory to both the lake carriers and dockmen. The ore dock engineers and hoisters are to work 12 hours a day from May 1 to Sept. 15 and 11 hours from then to Dec. 1. The wages will be $80 per month, except at Cleveland and Buffalo, where the pay will be $85, the overtime to be 40 and 45 cents per hour. The ore shovelers and trimmers will work 12 hours per day and will be paid 14 cents per ton, with variations for different kinds of work.

Needle In Her Appendix.

HARTFORD, March 16.—An ordinary sewing needle 2½ inches long was taken from the appendix of a young woman patient at St. Francis hospital yesterday. The find was a revelation to the doctors, none of whom ever heard or saw such a phenomenon. The patient was operated on for appendicitis. It is not uncommon to find needles in parts of the anatomy, but that one should work its way into the appendix is the strange feature of the case. The young woman swallowed the needle several years ago, but only recently felt results. She will probably recover from the operation.

Mourning For Beecher.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 16.—The remains of the late Rev. Thomas K. Beecher are lying in state in Park church, of which he was pastor for 46 years. Thousands of men, women and children viewed the remains yesterday. A guard of G. A. R. members and a detail from the police department are in charge of the church. The flags on all city buildings are at half mast, and the buildings are draped with emblems of mourning. The business places and public schools will be closed during the funeral this afternoon.

To Be Opened to Settlement.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A proclamation opening the northern portion of the Colville Indian reservation, in Washington, to settlement has been prepared, but has not yet received the signatures of the secretary of the interior and the president. The reservation will be opened next month, after the proclamation is signed. A large number of mining entries have already been made in the reservation.

Cold In Wisconsin.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., March 16.—The mercury registered 10 below zero yesterday morning. It was the coldest 15th of March known here in 24 years. There was no thaw at noon with a clear sky.

Wainwright at the Head.

ANNAPOLIS, March 16.—Commander Richard Wainwright assumed the superintendency of the Naval academy yesterday.

Weather Probabilities.

BRIDGE WORK
In Dentistry is the best substitute for nature's work that can be done. Sound roots may be built up and crowned and thus fill up an unsightly space. It has to be made of a material that has strength and durability and one that will not discolor. Gold is the one that stands the test. That is the secret of the expense. But the advantages of a bridge over a plate are many times more than the cost of one compared to that of the other.

OH, MAMMA DEAR!
did you hear that Woolston & Buckle has the finest wall paper in town. With Kaleidoscopic change on lovely backgrounds?
Daisies blossom on paper of azure blue,
Roses bud and bloom on an ashen hue,
Lillies of the valley are scattered on green
And flowers of all tints are everywhere seen
On colors exquisitely blended with care
To reproduce fruits, and flowers as fair
As if aid on by Nature's own hand,
Unique designs both opaque and round,
And Japanese figures on gilded ground
And fantistic Beardsley lines are found
In a bewildering array.
Transform your bare and hideous walls
Into dreams of beauty as profuse
As covered Granada's famous halls,
From any design your fancy may choose,
The walls of the cottage are covered with ease,
It's not our custom, but the wealthy to please.
We have beautiful papers at a low price.
Although not so gorgeous, are artistic and n ce.

WHY I VISITED CUBA.

Secretary Root Gives the Reasons For His Trip.

CUBANS CAPABLE OF SELF RULE.

United States Will Keep Faith With the Islanders—Wonderful Progress and Improvement Already Made In Every Direction.

HAVANA, March 16.—Secretary Root states that he came to Cuba for two reasons. In the first place, he desired to see for himself the working of the various departments, civil and military, and to investigate, so far as possible, the character of the work accomplished. In the second place, he desired to see as many representative men as possible, including all the business interests, in order to feel that he was in personal touch with the requirements of the island.

He went on to say that he had at all times closely followed all the reports regarding Cuba, but he had always felt assured that in respect of many matters definite knowledge called for personal contact. He now felt that the Cubans had done wonders, considering the nature of the strife that had devastated the country for so long a time. Their conduct and amiability had greatly impressed him, and he was satisfied, from all he had seen, that they were capable of self government.

"It is necessary, of course, to prepare for this," said Mr. Root, "by practical experience. Nor should it be a cause for surprise if the first municipal elections should not bring to the surface all the best elements of the country. Even in the United States many who would naturally be supposed to take an active interest in politics are often found attending to other matters on election day. This work of preparation is deemed necessary even by the most radical Cubans. As soon as proper explanations are made to them they recognize that time must elapse before a race unacquainted with the simplest forms of government will become able to manage public affairs absolutely without assistance.

"There is no doubt that the United States will keep faith with the Cuban people, and the joint resolution of congress will be carried out. But just exactly when it is impossible to say. The municipal elections which will take place on May 1 will prove the first lesson. The object is to give municipalities home rule in the very broadest sense, making each self supporting and making the elected officials answerable to their own people only for the proper expenditure of funds. It is desirable, so far as possible, to decentralize all municipalities from Havana control. The American officials would then have only advisory and supervisory duties."

"I have been agreeably surprised," he continued, "in visiting various points in the provinces of Pinar del Rio, Matanzas and Havana to find so many evidences of rehabilitation. Everywhere the men were apparently working, clean houses were in evidence, and there was a general air of approaching prosperity which I had not expected to detect. In the tobacco districts I found that common laborers were receiving more than $4 a day in American money, and this, although the work is only temporary, proves the falsity of the statements of general distress. The mayor of Guanajay told me he had in his employ more than 1,000 men.

"Another thing that I particularly noticed while traveling through the provinces was that everywhere the American troops were in good health. Their robust appearance and excellent color show apparently that the climate agrees with them."

Passing on to the question of prisons Mr. Root paid a high tribute to the work of General Wood in this direction, adding:

"Some months ago I had personal reports made to me regarding the condition of the prisons, and such sights as were then to be seen do not exist now, for I have inspected the prisons myself. I consider the cleanliness of the cities another remarkable fact. I wish 1,000,000 Americans could witness not only the cities that are occupied by United States troops, but also many towns that have long since been left absolutely to the care of the Cuban population. Even in the latter cases the streets are kept scrupulously clean, and I feel that the Cubans deserve great credit for carrying out this work begun under American auspices. It augurs well for the self government of the future.

"The growth of the school system is another feature deserving of special notice. More than 150,000 pupils are now enrolled. I am heartily in accord with the idea of taking as many teachers as possible for a summer stay of several weeks in the United States, and I will personally do all I can to assist such a plan.

"Taking into consideration everything, I am exceedingly pleased with my visit to Cuba, and I feel that I have a better grasp of the situation."

A Prize Hog Killed.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 16.—The largest hog ever killed in Orange county was butchered at the State hospital here. It weighed 981 pounds. The hide, which will be made into leather, weighed 140 pounds. The animal was 3 years old and had taken several first prizes.

ENGLAND CONFIDENT

Recent Victories Have Been Beyond Expectations.

GATACRE CROSSES ORANGE RIVER.

Bethulie Now Occupied—Three Train Loads of Troops Under General Pole-Carew Leave Bloemfontein and Advance Unopposed.

LONDON, March 16.—Events are moving in the South African campaign in a speedy and satisfactory manner from both the military and political points of view. It could hardly have been expected by the most sanguine Englishman that they would take a turn so favorable.

It appears that when Major Weston cut the railway north of Bloemfontein he thereby intercepted General Joubert, who, far from having retired from the campaign, was then coming southward with 3,000 men, presumably to superintend the defense. Elaborate defense works three miles long had been prepared outside the town.

No Boer wounded were left in Bloemfontein. When asked the reason by Lord Roberts, Mr. Fraser replied, "The burghers do not like fish and wouldn't care to go to Cape Town."

The evidence goes to show that, so far as the southern part of the Free State is concerned, there will be no further resistance. It is understood that Mr. Fraser, Mr. Wessels and other leaders are quite prepared to accept the position of a self governing British colony.

By the time Lord Roberts reaches the Vaal river he will command some 80,000 men, while General Buller will have 40,000. From the military point of view the critics now think there is nothing to fear.

The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, March 15:

"General Gatacre crossed the Orange river and occupied Bethulie this morning.

"General Pole-Carew, with 2,000 men of the guards brigade, two guns and a small body of mounted infantry, left here in three trains this morning to join hands with General Gatacre and General Clements. He had passed Bethany at 4:40 p. m. without meeting with opposition, having been able to supply from his troops engine drivers, firemen, fitters, molders, smiths, carpenters, etc."

The Standard has the following dispatch from Bloemfontein, dated Thursday, March 15:

"The civil authorities here definitely made up their minds to surrender on Monday. A stormy meeting was held, presided over by Mr. Steyn, whom Mr. Fraser denounced as a coward, charging him with a want of enough moral courage to accept the situation.

"The late president was, however, not to be persuaded, and when the meeting broke up he left for the north.

"The occupation was extremely orderly and well managed. The spectacle was most impressive when the Sixth division marched through in grand style, notwithstanding that, like the rest of the army, it had covered 40 miles in 27 hours.

"Large numbers of the burghers are surrendering their arms. Many have fled to their homes. Others are trekking to the east or to the north with their cattle and goods. During the last few days the inhabitants of Bloemfontein had gone in deadly fear of the violence of the Transvaalers, and consequently the city resembles rather a relieved than a captured town. Mr. Wessels, president of the raad, has gone to England to solicit public sympathy and to plead for the independence of the Free State."

Lord Salisbury's attitude toward the United States meets with the universal approval of the press. The Daily Graphic says:

"It was not an easy task, but Lord Salisbury has acquitted himself with conspicuous success."

BLOEMFONTEIN'S SURRENDER.

Particulars of Lord Roberts' Capture of the Free State Capital.

BLOEMFONTEIN, March 16.—Lord Roberts entered the Free State capital Tuesday practically unopposed. He lay at Venter's Vlei, 14 miles away, the previous night, with General Kelly-Kenny's and General Colville's divisions, the guards brigade and the mounted infantry.

General French, having cut the railway and telegraphs, experienced a slight skirmish with some Boers holding the kopjes southeast of the town. Early in the morning the cavalry brigade moved forward and occupied slowly several kopjes which commanded the Boers.

A few well placed shells from the horse artillery drove off the enemy. General French then sent out scouts to feel their way toward the town, perceiving which the correspondents of the Sydney Herald and the London Daily News, with one other, galloped forward and entered the town, which wore an everyday aspect.

The people were out shopping or for morning walks, and at first the three newspaper men were regarded as townsfolk. When later it became known that they were the forerunners of the British army, they were greeted cordially and conducted to a club, where they met Mr. Fraser of the executive council, the mayor and other officials. These they persuaded to take carriages and to go to meet Lord Roberts.

As the party drove out of the city the British cavalry were closing around like a high net. The deputation soon arrived opposite the kopje where Lord Roberts was stationed, and this correspondent rode forward and had the honor of announcing to the commander in chief that Bloemfontein would surrender.

Canadian Troops Behave Well.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 16.—The following cable has been received by the governor general from the governor of British Honduras: "Hearty congratulations to Canadian troops in active service." Lord Tennyson cables as follows; "Adelaide, March 15.—Governor, ministers and people of South Australia beg to offer their congratulations to the Canadian people on the splendid conduct of their contingents in South Africa and sympathy in sad losses."

Praise For Cronje.

CAPE TOWN, March 16.—Lord Methuen, speaking at the town hall, Kimberley, said: "Although some of the enemy were guilty of dastardly tricks, we must remember that their army is not organized with the same discipline as our own. I never wish to meet a braver general than Cronje and never served in a war where there was less vindictive feeling between the two armies than in this one."

TO THE MAN WHO THINKS.

LOOK yourself squarely in the face and see if you are not half ashamed to be without Ivory Soap in your house. Worse than this, your wife is without it. It is bad enough for a man, though a man often doesn't care how his comfort is mis-spelled. But a woman misses all these little helps to housekeeping. And Ivory Soap is one; its great potency makes it actually cheaper than yellow soap for general work. It floats.

THE YAQUI WAR.

Reports of Battles Greatly Exaggerated—Indians Likely to Yield Soon.

MERIDIA, Yucatan, March 16.—Many exaggerated accounts of battles with the rebel Indians have been telegraphed abroad. Movements of federal troops have been magnified into offensive advances when usually they have been mere transfers of troops or the taking possession of new military posts. The Indians are really far from being united in a body and are not in position to offer any serious opposition to the federal troops in the Indian districts. They have not been able to sow any grain or do any planting this year, and probably before long they will be in need of the necessities of life.

It is probable that this campaign, which is being carried on slowly, dispassionately and relentlessly, will be brought to a close with complete subjugation of the Indians before long.

Will Make Mexico City Healthy.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 16.—Preparations are going on for the formal opening of the great drainage canal tomorrow. Sir Weetman Pearson, who built the canal, has arrived and will be the honored guest. One new main drains the city's improved sewer system, and the main drains will empty into the grand canal. How important the reformed drainage of the city is has been shown this week by the publication of the mortuary statistics of the City of Mexico. The deaths in 1899 were 17,783, and, taking the population at a fair estimate at 400,000, this shows a death rate of over 44 per 1,000, about the same as that of Bombay. The births were only 14,310, and the city, while growing marvelously, is recruited from rural Mexico. Sanitarians believe that with the new drainage system the death rate will fall one-half or to the same rate as New York city.

Attachment Against the Armours.

NEW YORK, March 16.—An attachment has been obtained here against Philip D. and Jonathan O. Armour, surviving partners of Armour & Co. of Chicago, for $81,000 in favor of John E. Cannon on an assigned claim from Beaumont & Nease, jobbers in meats at Sioux City. The claim is for damages for alleged breach of contract for nondelivery of 2,158,000 pounds of pork loins ordered from Sept. 15 to Sept. 28, 1899. It was stated that the contract price was 5¾ cents a pound. Beaumont & Nease sold the quantity ordered at 9½ cents, and the market price rose to 12 cents.

Texas Republicans Split.

AUSTIN, March 16.—The Republican convention for the Ninth district, which convened here yesterday to select delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia, split early in the action, and two sets of delegates were named. The White faction elected as delegates William White of Travis county and L. A. Whiting of Washington. The Brush faction elected as delegates J. C. Hornberger of Travis county and J. T. Harris of Washington. Both factions adopted resolutions indorsing President McKinley's administration.

A Flaw In the Primary Law.

ALBANY, March 16.—Mr. Allds yesterday introduced a bill to amend the primary law so that in years when a governor is to be elected there shall be an additional primary day on the first Tuesday in June. It has been discovered that in the primary law as amended last year no such provision has been made and that except in presidential years there will be but one official primary day, the seventh Tuesday before election, which would make it impossible to hold a state convention to nominate a governor before Oct. 1.

General Merriam's Denial.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Brigadier General Merriam of the army, who was in command of the troops at Wardner, Ida., last year during the miners' troubles in that state, denies published reports that he had suggested to the president the enactment of a law making labor unions a crime and also denies that he ever used profane language in connection with his duties at Wardner. He says that at no time has he made any recommendations at all to the president on the subject of labor unions.

A Heavy Fall of Snow.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—About eight inches of snow fell here yesterday. Considerable of the early snow melted as it fell. The record probably is unprecedented for this locality for this season of the year. Reports received at the weather bureau show that the storm has prevailed over a great extent of the territory east of the Mississippi river.

EDITOR SHELDON'S VIEWS.

Denounces Tax Dodgers—How He Would Banish Evil.

TOPEKA, March 16.—Rev. Sheldon in The Capital, in denouncing those people who dodge the tax assessor, made the statement that an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe baggageman in Topeka pays three times as much taxes as one of the highest officials of the road.

At the daily conference with newspaper correspondents Mr. Sheldon was asked why he did not publish the names of those through whom he made the comparisons. He replied:

"Because the names are legion. This city is full of that class of people, and I did not think it right to single out a half dozen sinners and give their names. If I could have given the entire list, I might do so, but that would be impossible. I do not know that I would print them anyway. I am looking into the future and beyond to remedy the evil and to persuade people to be more honest in the matter of assessments."

Asked if he holds that more good can be accomplished by creating public sentiment against places of evil and evil things, destroy the business and not name the guilty parties, Mr. Sheldon said:

"That is my idea. I believe in training the children right. I take the position that it is cheaper to prevent crime than to punish it. That is the view I take in my church and parish work. I believe if we save the children the future is safe. I do not say that I would not print the names of evildoers if I were running a paper permanently, but I do not deem it best, as I am running one for a week only."

The Oleomargarine Suits.

ALBANY, March 16.—Attorney General Davies has sent a communication to the legislature setting forth the facts connected with the suits brought against Armour & Co. for violating the antioleomargarine law of the state. He said that the Central-Hudson Railroad company, under the belief that the suits had been settled for $20,000 during the administration of Governor Black, destroyed the bills of shipment on which the state relied to prove that the company shipped oleomargarine into the state. The attorney general says that he has no evidence on which to proceed and that an appropriation must be made if the cases are continued. He asks that the matter be referred to a legislative committee for consideration.

A Permanent Naval Board.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The secretary of the navy has determined to appoint a general board to meet once a month and consider general plans of campaign to be used in case of war. This is the outgrowth of studies which Captain H. C. Taylor has been pursuing in years past at the naval war college. The board will correspond somewhat to the strategic board which was in existence during the Spanish-American war, and it is intended to meet the demands of the modern theories of preparedness for war. Admiral Dewey is to be at the head of the board, on which also probably will be the chief of the bureau of navigation and representatives of the war college and the office of naval intelligence.

Porto Rico Finances.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The war department has made public the following statement of the finances of the Porto Rican treasury for the month of January, 1900: Balance in treasury, $457,306; receipts from customs, $79,448; from postals, $90,054; from internal revenue, $17,412; from miscellaneous, $11,493; total receipts, $117,408. Payments during the month from customs receipts, $110,434; from postal receipts, $9,052; from internal revenue receipts, $7,265; from miscellaneous receipts, $102; total payments, $126,854. Balance in the treasury, $447,859. Deficit for the month, $9,446.

A Big Ice Deal.

AUGUSTA, Me., March 16.—A $10,000,000 ice deal is announced in the purchase of the Knickerbocker Ice company by the American Ice company. An official of the latter company said: "The deal has been completed, and the entire business of the Knickerbocker company has passed into our hands. The price paid was $10,000,000." This is one of the largest ice deals ever made in this country. The Knickerbocker company controlled the bulk of the retail output of natural ice in the cities of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

To Scoffers.

To scoffers of the proposition that Plainfield ought to own and operate the water supply system of this city, as well as all other commodities distributed through the use of public privileges, the following editorial note from the Newark Sunday Call is recommended for careful perusal:

"The borough of Chatham, Morris county, put in a water plant two years ago, costing somewhat less than $45,000, providing for the supply of the whole district, with ample provision for larger future demands. Upon the basis of a private company, supposing the town to pay for fire-plugs, the plant would now return a profit, beyond interest, sinking-fund and maintenance, and it will next year pay a surplus besides the fire protection. Now, upon any basis of calculation such as the private companies so numerous in this State would make, this plant would be capitalized upon a basis of the earnings of the future, sure to increase with the natural growth and with the gradually increasing use. It is perfectly safe to say—and this could be guaranteed if necessary—that the water plant would sell today for $150,000 to a private company, and it would be a first-rate speculation, too. Chatham, then, has provided itself with a necessary public supply, of the greatest importance indeed, and could show a profit easily of $100,000 on the deal. The lessons are obvious."

After reading the above the suggestion comes to our mind that it would be a good thing if the present Common Council would take up the question of the municipal ownership of the water supply system of this city. The project was considered to some extent by the Council of last year, but nothing ever came of the agitation. Let it be stirred up again.

The Two-Term Rule.

The principal reason advanced by Frank Bergen in justification of his candidacy for the Republican Congressional nomination in the Eighth district is that Representative Fowler has already held the office for three terms, and that the honor should now be passed to some other Republican. The Newark News thinks that if this is the best reason for Mr. Bergen's aspirations, then the fulfilment of his ambition should be indefinitely postponed.

The News points out that the present delegation of New Jersey Congressmen wield greater influence and enjoy more prestige than any other set of representatives elected from this commonwealth in many years. This is because, according to the ideas of our Newark contemporary, the Representatives are nearly all men who have been in Washington for several terms, and by experience have "learned the ropes" in a manner that a new member could not expect to do until they had been through the same course.

The News sums up its arguments in this style:

"The State or the district that persists in the two-term rule can hardly hope to exert any perceptible influence in Congress or to stamp its impress upon the history of legislation. Its representatives scarcely have time to familiarize themselves with the course of business. They do not have time to make helpful acquaintances or to form the connections without which a member is practically helpless. A mediocre representative with ten years' experience is ordinarily worth more both to his constituents and to the Nation than a Webster in his first term."

Since gas has been sold in Trenton for one dollar per thousand cubic feet it is said that the consumption has more than doubled. Here is a lesson for the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company. Why wait for public sentiment or competition, which must come eventually, to force down the price of the commodity?

Emperor William, of Germany, has asked the Reichstag to increase his salary to a sum equal to $1,000,000 in American money. His present yearly income is said to be $8,401,238. We suppose that Willie has to eat hash at least twice a week now owing to the miserly stipend allowed him by his German subjects.

According to an official announcement made by George Wyndham, Parliamentary Secretary of the War Office, England will have in South Africa when the Eighth Army Division reaches there a total of $208,000 troops.

A few days ago it was in the interests of fish that Senator Reed raised his voice in the Senate, but yesterday the Tall Sycamore of Somerset rallied to the support of high-bred dogs. The Senator is a versatile Legislator.

A young girl has been arrested in New York for selling gum without a license. It takes the New York officials a long time to get started on a crusade, but once they undertake reform there is no telling where it will stop.

James E. Martine for one of the delegates-at-large from New Jersey to the National Democratic convention appears to be a popular proposition with the rank and file of the party.

The railroad lobbyists got in their fine work at Trenton when the McCarter bill providing for the elevation of tracks in Newark was killed.

So far Rev. Mr. Sheldon has utterly failed as an editor.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Lake Hopatcong never would have been stocked with game fish had it not been for the influence of the men who now ask reasonably to have those fish protected by law. Certainly these men have the right, in common with those who live near the lake, to fish in its waters in summer, and it is only fair to them, who did so much toward providing fish for the lake, to be assured that not all of the fish have been taken during the winter. Senator Reed's bill bars winter fishing in this lake, and it is a fair measure, inasmuch as it did not prohibit the sport in summer to all who feel like casting lines over its waters.—New York Press.

* * * * * * *

The assurance is given that James E. Martine, of Union county, better known, perhaps, as the "Farmer Orator," will be one of the delegates-at-large to the Democratic National convention. Mr. Martine is one of the most pronounced admirers of William J. Bryan and one of the most aggressive silver men in New Jersey. He is, in fact, said to be the choice of Mr. Bryan. Other candidates for delegate-at-large to Kansas City are said to be Congressman Daly, of Hoboken, and John J. Crandall, of Camden. The fourth candidate has not been named. Mr. Crandall is something of an orator himself, and in an open air contest, with a west wind, he could probably make himself heard more distinctly in the East from the platform in Kansas City than either Mr. Martine or Mr. Daly. Mr. Crandall is a six footer, or thereabout, and has a wide reputation as an expounder of the Constitution, National and State.—New York Tribune.

Not the Author of the Verses.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Will you kindly correct the statement made in yesterday's issue of your paper that Mrs. B. J. Shreve, was the author of the inscription embroidered on the golden satin bag holding the gift to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Yerkes, on the occasion of their golden wedding. The inscription was a selection from "The Hanging of the Crane," by Longfellow. The absence of quotation marks to the embroidered verse has doubtless led to the error in the statement. Mary E. C. Shreve.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 16—According to William H. Cole, Overseer of the Poor, there are to be twelve snow storms this winter. There have been nine falls of snow and if Mr. Cole's predictions are true there are yet to be three more storms. Mr. Cole bases his prognostications on the moon's phases. He said that the first snow fell upon Nov. 14, twelve days after the first moon, which made its appearance on Nov. 2d. Mr. Cole claims to have watched the seasons for 40 years and he has never been disappointed in his predictions. Last winter there were 15 snow storms in this vicinity. He says it is very easy to ascertain the number of snow storms if one will watch the moon. The first snow storm after the new moon in November or December, or in fact any of the winter months, determines the number of snow falls.

William Potter, who has made his home with Mrs. O. B. Evans on Dunellen avenue for a number of months, died early yesterday morning of consumption after several month's illness, aged 56 years. The deceased came here from Chicago last fall. He has relatives in England. The body will be placed in a vault for the present and later shipped to Liverpool, England.

The spectacle of two Italians dragging a piano hand organ through the deep snow yesterday afternoon caused some little amusement to those who watched the sons of sunny Italy plod along.

The condition of Mr. Warner, father-in-law of W. L. Larabee, who was stricken with paralysis, is considered quite serious. Mr. Warner has been an invalid for a long time.

The heavy storm yesterday played havoc with the trolley line of the New Brunswick Company. No attempt was made to run cars on schedule time.

Mrs. Adam Dealaman has been receiving a visit from her sister, Mrs. Pittinels, of Knowlton.

Walter Clawson, of Dunellen avenue, has been confined to his home by illness.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 16—An illustrated lecture, entitled "The Three Wars," will be given in Excelsior Hall Wednesday evening of next week, by Rev. H. W. McKane, assisted by B. Benton Barker. Admission for adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents. Proceeds for the benefit of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company.

The young blizzard which started yesterday morning caught the residents of the 'Plains unexpected, as the majority were beginning to think that spring would soon be here and were beginning to lay their plans for the spring gardening and moving.

The trolley company service was pretty badly crippled last night by the heavy fall of snow. All the teams and plows available were out cleaning the tracks, but the best that could be done was about one car an hour.

The Township Committee will meet in the township rooms this evening to organize and swear in the newly-elected town officers.

Owing to the storm last evening Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., were unable to hold their meeting, no quorum being present.

Miss Bradley and Miss Meehan, of New Brunswick, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schick.

Mrs. Charles Grant is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Paff, Sr.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 16.—Mrs. Walter Harris, of Easton, was calling on friends here Wednesday. She says Mr. Harris is in very poor health The doctor pronounces it catarrh of the lungs and recommends a trip to the Pacific coast, which he is preparing to take.

There will be a meeting at the schoolhouse tomorrow evening to consider what is best to do in regard to a new schoolhouse.

Hollis Cubberly is improving after quite a seige with bronchitis.

Stillman Randolph is taking a few day's vacation.

She will appear with E. Vance Cooke in the Y. M. C. A. star course Monday evening.

Work of Sunshine Mission Band.

The Sunshine Mission Band, one of the most promising societies in the Crescent Avenue church, held its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon and presented encouraging reports of the past year's work. There is now a balance of $55 in the treasury, and the sum of $11 was received from the mite barrels held by the members during the year. In many ways the members have accomplished much and they have studied a great deal about foreign and home mission fields. The officers elected at the meeting for the coming year are as follows: President, Miss Margaret Tracy; secretary, Miss Cornelia Sampson; treasurer, Mrs. Schuyler.

Christian Endeavor Missionary League.

The eighth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Missionary League of the Reformed (Dutch) church will be held in New Brunswick, May 2d and 3d, 1900. Representatives from Christian Endeavor societies from all over the country are expected. Rev. A. De W. Mason, president of the league, promises the attendance of several prominent missionaries of the church at the convention. A partial list of the speakers includes Rev. Dr. D. Sage Mackay, of New York; Rev. Dr. James M. Fanar, of Brooklyn, and Rev. W. W. Clark and Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Pool, of the Board of Domestic Missions.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Mrs. Alex. Gilbert, of West Eighth street, is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Connolly, of the borough, have moved to Basking Ridge.

Miss Blimm, of this city, has been spending a few days with friends at Whitehouse.

Miss Clark, of Somerville, has returned home after a visit with Plainfield friends.

Miss Demarest, of this city, is in charge of the Public School at South Branch for a time.

Fred Dunavan, of Randolph's pharmacy, has recovered from an attack of the mumps and grip.

Miss Edna Bowers, of Basking Ridge, has returned home after a visit with borough relatives.

Miss Thorn, of Elizabeth, returned home yesterday after a short visit with borough relatives.

Mrs. Fisher, the aged actress, who resides on West Second street, is detained at home by illness.

O. B. Leonard, of Perth Amboy, has returned after a visit of a few days with relatives in the city.

Miss Stella Boss, of the borough, has secured a position as bookkeeper in a Park avenue grocery.

Clifford Braider, of the Pond Tool Works, is detained at his home on Manning avenue by illness.

Charles E Doane is confined to his home on Norwood avenue by a heavy cold, bordering on the grip.

Miss Burr, of New York, who has been spending a few days with Plainfield friends, has returned home.

W. L. Smalley, Jr., and family, of Princeton, have returned home after a short visit with borough relatives.

Miss May MacLaughlin, of Somerset street, will entertain the Thursday Night Whist Club at her home next week.

Arthur O. Knight, of West Sixth street, has resigned his position with the Aluminum Plate and Press Company.

J. P. Laire has been detained at his home on Richmond street for a few days, suffering from the effects of a heavy cold.

John Powers, the Somerset street druggist, has recovered from a slight illness that has detained him at home for a short time.

Miss Jennie Thorn, of East Third street, has been engaged by J. M. Smalley, the Watchung avenue butcher, as bookkeeper.

Mr. Chaffee and Mr. and Mrs. Edward William Chaffee, of New York, have returned home after a brief visit with friends in Plainfield.

Miss Decker, of New London, Conn., has taken charge of the millinery department at Crosby & Hill's big store. She is boarding on Park avenue.

Percy Vail, subscription collector of The Daily Press, is suffering from the effects of a heavy cold and unable for the past few days to attend to his collections.

Miss Elizabeth U. Yates, of Maine, expected to deliver a lecture in the W. C. T. U. rooms yesterday on the curfew bell, but the storm interfered with the meeting and it will be held later.

Dr. B. VanD. Hedges, accompanied by his mother, left Plainfield yesterday afternoon 2:16 train with the Raymond & Whitcomb excursion party bound for California. They will be gone about six weeks.

Dr. Long, of Park avenue, expects to receive a letter today or tomorrow from his son, Walter Long, who went to California recently for the purpose of taking William Cosgrove home. They expected to arrive at their destination last Sunday night.

Borough Transfers of Real Estate.

The following transfers of real estate in North Plainfield were recorded in the Somerset County Clerk's office between Feb. 24th and March 5th:

Michael L. Connolly et ux., to St. Joseph's Home, $2,700; Edmond E. Pope et al., to Abram VanCleef, $1; Charles Hyde et ux., to Children's Home Association, $480; Hannah A. Hoff and husband to George B. Schlereth, $3,250; Evalyn P. Dyer and husband to Wm. M. Stillman, $5,300; Evalyn P. Dyer and husband to Henrietta B. Berry, $1; Firman A. Long et ux., to John P. D. Kirch, $1; John P. D. Kirch to Katherine C. Long, $1; W. H. VanWinkle et ux., to Daniel VanWinkle, $400.

—Sherwin is selling all his rubbers at cut prices, and this means that the prices are lower then you can buy them for at any other place. It's been a hard season for rubber trade, and this storm opens the way to work off the goods on hand, and cut prices will do it.

We try to get as near as possible to the man who drinks the Coffee.

To find the best coffee in this country a woman needs only two qualties. She can use a dozen, but she can do it on only two. They are Intelligence and Courage.

Ten women have intelligence and no courage where one has courage and no intelligence. Courage is really what the average woman needs if she wants coffee way up in G.

Now it doesn't require much courage to buy a pound of Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee if you set about it right. The grocer will give it to you in a parchment-lined bag with our seal and signature attesting its high quality. You have really only to drink it.

Even here you run no risk. The man who ate the first oyster took terrible chances. But the only chance you will take is the probability that never again will you be willing to drink any other kind of coffee.

Even then, you will thank us. Ask your grocer for a pound of this coffee to-day.

Thatsächlich haben mehrere Hundert Familien schon alle Vorbereitungen getroffen, die Reise nach Deutschland anzutreten. Eine größere Partie Auswanderer soll bereits die Grenze überschritten haben.

Fügen. Der Bahnbau zwischen Jenbach und Fügen im Zillerthal ist in vollem Gange, so daß diese Theilstrecke noch in diesem Jahre eröffnet werden kann. Einige Schwierigkeiten bereitet die 63 Meter lange Brücke über den Zillerfluß bei Fügen. Die Brücke über den Inn bei Jenbach und die vorgenannte Brücke bilden die kostspieligsten Objekte der ganzen Strecke Jenbach-Mayrhofen.

Innsbruck. Hier fand eine große, von ungefähr 200 Personen besuchte Burenfeier im Rathhaussaale statt, bei welcher der Bürgermeister eine begeisterte Festrede hielt. An Dr. Leyds wurde eine Depesche mit dem Ausdruck der Sympathie gerichtet. Eine Sammlung für die verwundeten Buren ergab sofort 2000 Kronen.

Kogerau. Wegen meuchlerischen Raubmordes wurde der 16jährige Michael Heinl zu 15 Jahren schweren Kerkers verurtheilt. Der Bursche hatte seinen Wochenlohn im Kartenspiel verloren und überfiel, um sich Geld zu verschaffen, auf der Königsbergerstraße den auf seinem Wagen fahrenden Fröchter Georg Riedl. Er schlug ihm mit einem Knüppel den Schädel ein und raubte ihm 40 Gulden; den 15jährigen Sohn Riedls verletzte er schwer.

TOILET HINTS.

Laundering of Silk Stockings—Care of the Complexion.

Silk stockings, colored or black, should never be washed with soap. Warm bran water should be used, and the stockings should be squeezed, not wrung, and dried in the shade.

Cold, especially cold winds, have a worse effect on the complexion than the sun, which is usually considered its worst enemy. They parch and chap the skin, rendering it red and scaly, and care should be taken to protect the face before going out in cold weather. A very little cold cream, well rubbed in, and then a slight film of rice powder of good quality will shield the complexion wonderfully. Glycerin or cold cream should be used on the lips also, and a veil should always be worn. The powder may be washed off with warm water as soon as one returns indoors, and powder should never remain on the face overnight. The theory that soap injures the complexion is quite false. Of course, only fine toilet soaps should be used, but the face ought to be washed thoroughly with soap and warm water every night, to remove all dust and keep the pores of the skin open.

The cut shows a costume of green cloth. The skirt is ornamented around the foot by nine folds of deep blue velvet, and is lined with blue silk. The bodice is tight and is trimmed with velvet bands in front, closing with a double row of little blue velvet buttons connected by cords. The yoke is of guipure, with an application of stitched green cloth, and the collar is also of stitched green cloth. There are small revers of blue velvet around the yoke, back and front, and cuffs of blue velvet on the tight sleeves. Folds of blue velvet also trim the sleeves in points, and a velvet fold serves as a belt. The hat of green velvet is trimmed with a bow of blue velvet, a gold buckle and black plumes. JUDIC CHOLLET.

MILLINERY NOTES.

Hats and Other Pretty Details of Fashion.

Large toques in the turban style, such as have been worn during the winter, are appearing for the demiseason. They are trimmed with plumes and tulle draperies. There are also toques garlanded with vine leaves and autumn foliage.

For elaborate wear there are toques of beaded or spangled lace and tulle, trimmed with one or two immense flowers, so large as to admit of no other decoration. These gigantic specimens are to characterize much of the spring millinery.

A novelty is seen in the form of long, ample scarfs of white mousseline de soie, with ends embroidered in colored silk.

RECEPTION GOWN.

The fashion of mingling flowers with the ruches of mousseline boas has returned. These neck decorations are very pretty and becoming.

Embroidery of flowers in colored silks upon lace has been much used for rich table scarfs of renaissance and other lace, but its employment for gowns is a new idea. The picture shows a gown of this sort. The skirt of white crepe de chine is tucked lengthwise over the hips. The front and the lower half of the skirt are covered with point de venise. The blouse bodice, of the same lace, fastens at the left side with jeweled buttons over a fine plaiting of crepe de chine. The collar is also of crepe de chine. The top of the bodice, the epaulets and the top of the sleeves are heavily embroidered in silk with colored roses and foliage.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

RETURN OF GILLMORE.

Hardships Suffered by the Lieutenant and His Men Recalled.

Lieutenant Commander J. C. Gillmore and four of the men who suffered eight months' captivity with him in Manila arrived at San Francisco recently on the steamer Solace. They are William Walton, chief quartermaster; Paul Vaudoit, sailor's mate; W. H. Rynders, and O. W. Woodbury, sailors. Gillmore is now in good condition and weighs about 140 pounds. Before his captivity he weighed 165, and when rescued his weight had fallen to 115 pounds. All his men were then in terrible condition from hardships, boils and dysentery. While the story of Gillmore's party has been told, there are some incidents which have not been printed, says the New York Tribune. The worst officer they encountered was General Tino, who was scarcely more than a boy, but extremely cruel. His orders were to shoot them, but these were not carried out.

None of the men received any medical attendance. Rynders lost the ends of three fingers, which were cut off by a machete, but the stumps healed naturally; Woodbury carried in his side two bullets during his whole captivity. The men had no clothing, and when some charitable Filipino merchants at one place offered to give them clothing General Tino threatened them with death if they helped the Americans. The last officer in whose charge they were confessed he had received orders to shoot them, but his conscience would not permit him to do this. Instead he abandoned them in a wild country, swarming with savages armed with bows and spears. Gillmore begged for two rifles to keep off the savages, but this was refused. Just before Gillmore left Manila he learned that this officer was captured and would be tried by court martial.

Gillmore's party would have perished but for the timely arrival of Colonel Hare and Lieutenant Colonel Hawse, with 140 men. They were surrounded by savages, who were threatening to attack them when the American soldiers appeared. In all their wanderings they carried a small American flag which they made out of materials they bought from money saved from their scanty allowance. This they took turns in wearing under their blouses in order that if they came within sight of our troops they could signal with it.

RIVAL TO SHELDON.

Editor E. W. Howe Will Uphold Modern Newspaper Methods.

The Topeka State Journal's novel plan of combating the Sheldon idea has resulted in a flood of subscriptions to that paper from every quarter, says the

E. W. HOWE.

Cincinnati Enquirer. Thousands of people want to read E. W. Howe's lay sermons, in which he will during the Sheldon week discuss the duties of the clergy. Howe will maintain that the modern newspaper is the greatest moral and educational agency in the world and that, while its influences are expanding and multiplying, the church is not keeping step with the progress of the press and is losing its hold upon the people.

He says he will prove this assertion by quoting the most prominent clergymen in the country. Howe therefore will point out the unwisdom of a preacher of the gospel setting up a Christian standard for newspapers while his efforts in reforming, resuscitating and reviving an interest in the church are so greatly needed.

LYDDITE'S AWFUL EFFECT.

Ninety-eight Boers Killed on Pieter's Hill by the Concussion.

Lieutenant Anderson, who commanded a section of the Natal naval volunteers at Ladysmith, has arrived at Dublin, Natal, says the New York Sun. He says that toward the close of the Pieter's hill engagement the naval guns threw lyddite shells on a kopje 2,500 yards distant. When the place was evacuated by the Boers, he visited the trenches and counted 98 dead Boers who had been killed by the concussion of the lyddite, not one of them having a wound of any kind.

Lieutenant Anderson declares that the fumes of the lyddite turned the hair and beards of the dead men to a peculiar greenish hue, while the color of their skin was a strange yellow. Fifty-two Boers were captured in one of the trenches. They were unable to flee, having been paralyzed by their fear of the lyddite shells.

Children Aiding the Boers.

The children of the German Reform Sunday school in Garrett, Ind., delivered their pennies, amounting to $3.14, the other Sunday to their superintendent, John Lumm. They expect to raise $25 by gathering up bones, rags, glass, iron, etc., which they will convert into money. This fund, says the Chicago Inter Ocean, is to be collected for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the Boers.

NATURALISTS FOR CUBA

Smithsonian Institution Men Will Hunt For Specimens.

FAUNA ESSENTIALLY ANTILLEAN.

Visitors to the Island Hope to Find Forty or Fifty Kinds of Bats and Specimens of the Solenodon, a Rare Insectivorous Animal—Will Live In a Tent.

Students of natural history are likely to derive some profit out of Cuba. Spaniards would not permit its exploration, and only accounts of what may be found picked up here and there by searchers before the Spanish authorities heard of what they were doing and stopped them have been published.

William Palmer, chief taxidermist of the Smithsonian institution, with J. H. Riley, also of the Smithsonian force, have just started into Pinar del Rio province on an exploring trip, writes the Havana correspondent of the New York Times. Their immediate purpose is to gather specimens of the fauna of the island for the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo. They expect to dive into the wilds of the western portion of the island and work westward until October. Should their discoveries warrant a return they or others from the Smithsonian will complete the exploration next year.

Cuba's backbone is of pretertiary igneous rock, corresponding to the granites of the United States. It has been exposed by erosion and forms mountains, especially in the interior. Elsewhere it underlies limestone, the surface rock of the island, although the igneous rock may protrude anywhere. Limestone forms in terraces, shelving away from the coast. It contains fossil shells which show that it originated in coral reefs. The island has been elevated and lowered several times. Discovery of copper and iron proves, however, that the island is not a coral deposit. Erosion is very extensive. It has produced vast caves yet unexplored. Some of them are supposed to lead under the sea. They have been formed by the action of rainwater. In the eastern end of the island are springs in which the water is hot enough to boil an egg.

Life forms indicate that the island may once have been firmly connected with Central America. There is no evidence that it was ever attached to North America. The fauna is essentially Antillean. Among the other forms seen and of which the explorers hope to obtain specimens is the solenodon, a rare insectivorous animal, which has a relative in Haiti and one in Madagascar, but is not elsewhere found. This animal has been isolated so long that newer forms of life, including venomous snakes, cat forms and reptiles, have not had opportunity to destroy it. Fossil remains of the solenodon have been found in western North America and in Europe. Besides bearing evidence of isolation from destructive forms of life, the solenodons were undoubtedly among the animals least affected through the glacial period.

The explorers hope to find from 40 to 50 species of bats belonging to 30 different genera. They comprise insectivorous bats, fruit eaters and bats that feed on fish along the shores. Expectations in this regard are based on what Englishmen have found in Jamaica. Little is known of resident birds, but the migratory kinds include birds familiar in the United States, such as indigoes, orioles, bobolinks, ducks, snipe and wading birds.

No poisonous reptiles are here, so far as known. Judging from discoveries in Jamaica, snakes will be found peculiar to the West Indies. Among them are boas 12 to 14 feet long, which are perfectly tame and harmless. The explorers will look for a West Indian species of lizard, the gecko, which is found from two to three inches to two feet long. A lizard may be found also which burrows in the ground like an earthworm and lives near ant hills, on which it forages. It is distinguished from a worm by its mouth and scaling head. It grows a foot long. This species is extremely rare. It may be confined to Cuba. There is a rodent here related to the guinea pig. Some have long and some have short tails. They become as large as rabbits and have short hair and whitish faces. The natives like to eat them, considering the hind legs a special delicacy.

Not much is known of Cuban insects other than the common kinds. If the tarantula is here, it is not believed to be poisonous, although its bite may seriously affect persons suffering from fright or whose blood is disordered.

Among native birds the trogan is prominent. It differs little from the kind found in North, South and Central America, Africa and southern Asia. There are several species of large cuckoos. The meadow lark appears, as does a quail similar to that seen in Florida, but smaller and darker. German goldfinches are seen in sections.

There have been several importations of animals, accidentally or otherwise. American deer are here, and the common mouse, rat and roof rat. Cats were imported to chase rats from the sugar fields. Wild boar have been hunted in the eastern part of the island, and some have been killed whose tusks measured 11 inches. The weasel is an importation, as is the mongoose, brought over in late years from Egypt.

The Smithsonian visitors will live in a tent, moving it daily. They are authorized to hire guides and pack animals, and they are equipped with full paraphernalia for preserving the specimens they gather.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 18, "Ye Must Be Born Again"—Text, John iii, 1, 15.

"Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

This is the statement of a law as fundamental in the spiritual realm as gravitation is in the natural world. However men may ignore or deny it, the forces of the human spirit obey it and ever must do so as long as God remains God and man is man.

This is not the question of future existence, but of any existence of conscious soul life. It is not the doctrine of baptism or any ceremonial which is involved, but the fact of soul cleansing and quickening into personal activity.

There is no human life but by birth. That is the doorway to existence of bodily and physical powers. Birthdays are anniversaries of our coming into this world. In a similar way must we enter the spirit realm. Death is not the gateway. Birth is the door. Now is the proper time. The kingdom of God is here. We enter it when we come to know God as Father and feel His life moving in our souls and consciously choose the good and true from the evil. We emerge from the passive state into active, individual exercise of trust and love and hopefulness toward God and Jesus Christ.

We cannot too much emphasize the absolute need of this change from passive, unconscious reception of God's goodness and mercy into the willing and intelligent participation with Him in holiness and goodness. Nothing else can take its place or be a substitute. We are either alive unto God through Jesus Christ by the operation of the Spirit of Holiness or we are still unborn into His kingdom unless we have indeed died unto Him by quenching the Spirit.

More time has been spent on theological disputes regarding the new birth than has been profitable. The important consideration is to be assured that one has been born unto God and is now alive in the kingdom. Yet there is need of clear understanding of the nature of the change to be expected and the marks of the new life, the means for its proper nourishment and its relation to other experiences.

Some regard the new birth as identical in nature and time with regeneration. Baptismal regeneration on the one hand and adult faith as needful to salvation on the other have made much confusion until some, in despair, not to say disgust, at the prospect, have given over all attempts at explaining matters reasonably and let "doctrines" alone. Many ignore altogether the necessity for any special change in inner nature or outer life and claim that their actions are as worthy as those of people who make much greater professions of sanctity.

Still the words of Christ remain as truth; still there are multitudes who know they have passed from death unto life and are assured of pardon, peace and joy and present citizenship in God's kingdom of grace and live in expectation of His glory.

No clearer statement has been made of these matters outside the Bible than by John Fletcher, the friend of the Wesleys. It would be well for our Leaguers to read what he says on regeneration and the new birth. Many Methodist preachers should reread with care his "Checks to Antinomianism."

The Shame and Glory of It.

How can liberty and obedience be reconciled? When we first awake to consciousness of our own powers of thought and feeling and know in ourselves the ability to choose our own course, we experience an exaltation in our liberty. We are masters, we know. Others may think and feel as they please, we will not be governed by them. We glory in our strength and count it weakness and unworthiness to yield to them.

New thought comes to us with all the charm of novelty and originality. The glow and zest of life will never dim if only we can go on discerning new truth. Others are dull of sight and feeling. We cannot follow them. Independence befits us. It is the new that charms us in speech and sermon. Unless one can bring forth the startling, we will not listen. We delight in our own powers. The truth does not hold us because of its relation to all things, but because we are flattered that we have found it. We do not care so much for our ideas as for ourselves.

Eventually this must fail to satisfy. Whoever finds truth in this way will sooner or later lose his power of discovery. It will hold him off, for truth does not belong to such a mind. We have craved distinction and not real knowledge. The intellectual life fades and dies down.

When we come to grasp ideas as God's thought and as all united in His oneness and given to us by Him to make us companions in His wisdom and feeling and coworkers with Him in eternal plans of beneficence, then they get hold of us. We become devoted to them. Obedience to them is our highest liberty and glory. We compel all our faculties to unite in their fulfillment. We lose ourselves in them. They become all in all and possess us. Then we have power, because God works through us. We are lost, yet never so truly found as then. Truth has found us and exalted us.

Men wonder where we learned, how we came by our ideas. No eye can discover the secret. Absolute, unquestioning obedience to the highest and best, not for the pleasure of the search, but for the sake of Him who is the Truth, this alone is the way of glory and success.

Has the revival reached you and your League? Does it make you more truthful and tender, more honest and hopeful? It should.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For Week Beginning March 18—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Ye must be born again.—John iii, 1-15. (Meeting led by the pastor.)

The topical reference includes the conversation between Christ and Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, at the time of the first Passover in Christ's public ministry. Nicodemus comes to Jesus by night to inquire the way of life. Christ's reply must have been a surprise to him. It was that life within must be changed. "Ye must be born again." Nicodemus probably had the idea that religion consisted largely in reformation and was not unnaturally taken aback and confused when Jesus told him that it consisted in regeneration.

1. The necessity of the new birth. Christ taught Nicodemus that the spirit may be born again and, further, must be if we are to be saved. The necessity of the new birth is clearly evident. Man in his natural, unregenerate state is an alien from God. He is not subject to the laws of God, neither indeed can be. Therefore it necessarily follows that if he is brought into the proper relation with God he must be changed—not without, but within. His heart must be changed. His disposition toward God must be changed. A new principle of living must be placed within him. This change Christ calls the new birth. "Ye must be born again."

2. The agent of the new birth. He is the Holy Ghost. The change is so radical that no power of man can effect it. Man may reform to some extent his outward life, but he cannot change his own heart. This God only can do, and He does it through His Holy Spirit. "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

3. The mystery of the new birth. Nicodemus could not understand how a man could be born again. The idea that the spirit could be born again was new to him, and he could not grasp it. And, although this idea of the new birth is so familiar to us, yet we cannot solve the problem of the new birth. It is still a profound mystery. That the Holy Ghost does change the hearts of men we do know, but how we do not know. By results only can the fact be known.

4. The proof of the new birth is a new life. When born again, old things pass away and all things become new. A new heart means a new life. The outward life is but a reflection of the inward principle of life. Change the principle, therefore, and the reflection must change. It just as necessarily follows that an unchanged reflection is positive proof that there has been no new birth.

Endeavorers, what do your lives show as to the new birth? Do you profess to have been born again? If so, do your lives prove it? Are they different from the lives of the unregenerate? Do you think that others would have any doubt from your lives as to whether you are born again? These are questions worth considering. Before we can be saved we must be born again, and we ought not to be satisfied unless we have positive proof that we have been born again.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting should be led by the pastor, as suggested by the committee on prayer meeting topics.

Bible Readings.—Gen. vi, 3; Ps. li, 10; Jer. xxiv, 1-7; xxxi, 31-34; xxxii, 36-40; Ezek. xi, 17-21; xviii, 30-32; xxxvi, 22-30; John vi, 63; Acts ii, 14-21; Gal. v, 19-26; Eph. v, 8, 9; Jas. i, 17, 18; I Pet. i, 22, 23.

The Smaller Gifts.

A thousand times to come short of the mark of the high calling and yet to have courage is a noble result. The unbroken will must be dear to God. If we are not frustrated a thousand times, we have no strength. The buckler is brightened by scouring; the sword is sharpened by grinding. To attain courage is a noble achievement; to sink down into limpness and invertebrate acceptance of the thing called fate, to be a moral jellyfish instead of a highly organized human being, with a bold power of resistance and defiance, is to be abhorrent to God. So the little sheaves are all bound into one sheaf of man's performance, which as a whole is sublime. The great man, humanity, needs all its little parts. God needs them all. The defective, the erring, still are parts, still in some way subserve, and the destiny of the individual is lifted up and ennobled by the thought of the whole and God working in and moving and inspiring the whole. So let the gatherer of the little sheaf rejoice and be glad and through mistakes and tears, discouragements and sins, slips and falls, still see the vision of God's acceptance of the smallest gift given in the spirit of love and consecration of His service, which is also the service of the brother.—Christian Register.

Fear.

The uncertain creates alarm and often leads to the use of unwise methods for relief. Such fears confuse the mind, unnerve the arm, weaken the will and darken the understanding.

Our fears magnify our enemies and minify our friends, producing forbodings that foretell disaster, for these, indulged in, defeat our wisest and best laid plans.

In our distress our tears blind us to all that would prove helpful in these moments of unrest, our sorrows are multiplied, our griefs augmented, and disappointment is our doom.—Philadelphia Methodist.

To Fulfill Promises.

The same voice that spoke the universe into being spake also the promises. The power that was more than sufficient to fulfill the creative commands will be more than sufficient to fulfill the promises of blessing.—Lutheran Observer.

IT'S DIFFERENT

THE NORTH AMERICAN
(PHILADELPHIA)

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it prints all the news, and all the news it prints is true.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it's bright and brisk, up-to-date and vigorous, but not yellow.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because its only policy is to tell the truth. It has no covert or personal interests to promote. It serves no political ambition, no creed, no class prejudice, no mere partisan purpose.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it advocates equal taxation and battles against the existing system, which favors the rich corporation at the expense of the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer and the wage-earner.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it stands for Republican principles, and makes war upon all who, under the stolen name of Republicanism, are disloyal to those principles.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it believes manhood and not money should rule. Therefore it upholds the rights of all, as against the aggressive power of the privileged few.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because no boss, no corporation, can control one line of its space.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it is non-sectarian and broad; every party, every faith, every class, and the workingman equally with the millionaire, gets a fair hearing in its columns.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it upholds faith in humanity, and the progress of mankind toward higher ideals, larger hopes and better living.

AMERICAN GRAIN TRADE

How It Has Developed Since Colonial Times.

FLOURING INDUSTRY'S GROWTH.

Exportation In This Branch Growing Despite Adverse Foreign Legislation—United States the World's Chief Wheat Producing Country. Effect of Railways on the Grain Carrying Business.

"The Grain Trade of the United States" is the title of a monograph just published by the treasury bureau of statistics at Washington as the first of a series of studies upon the production and transportation of the great staples and upon the internal commerce of the country. The development of the grain production and trade is traced from colonial times to the opening up of the Mississippi route by the purchase of Louisiana, when the shallow barges and later the steamboats descended the Mississippi and New Orleans shipped grain to New York and Boston.

After the completion of the Erie canal in 1825 and the settling of the Lake Michigan territory the great bulk of the western grain traffic moved eastward over the lakes and the canal, and New York became the great grain shipping port of the country. The discussion shows how from Chicago a network of railways radiated to all points and acted as tributaries to the lake and later how the unified and amalgamated railways competed with the lakes for the east bound traffic.

The traffic in corn and flour was diverted from the lakes to the railroads, and while the lakes regained part of this lost traffic later the Erie canal was unable to compete with the railroads from Buffalo, and grain which formerly reached tidewater at New York is now largely diverted to Philadelphia, Baltimore and more southerly ports. The struggles of the railroads and of the ports among themselves are described, and the history of the existing differentials is given.

The monograph also represents what appear as the two most recent developments of the grain trade of the United States. Firstly, the partial diversion of the wheat and flour trade from Lake Michigan to Lake Superior ports and the rise of a great milling industry at Minneapolis and Duluth-Superior; secondly, the increased movement of grain, and notably of corn, to the gulf ports, partly by river, to a greater extent by rail from St. Louis and nearby points and to an ever growing extent by direct rail routes from cities in the southwestern corn belt.

The report, which is quite comprehensive, contains a series of tables dealing with the rise and development of the grain trade at various collecting and distributing points, the efforts of the several railroads to control and effect the ever increasing transportation of grain and the distribution of the traffic among the various routes. A great amount of information is furnished about rail, canal and ocean freight rates, about the production, distribution and consumption of cereals, and a special paragraph is devoted to the subject of the foreign market for American grain. The monograph includes a number of tables regarding acreage, production, imports, exports, consumption, prices and rates of duty for wheat in all the principal countries of the earth, as well as a map showing in general outline the present wheat area of the world.

The statistics contained in this report throw light upon the present grain, and more especially wheat, situation of the United States. They show that the exportation of grain is increasing with great rapidity, that both the production and exportation of corn are assuming a greater volume and that a constantly growing portion of our wheat is exported in the form of flour. During the last 32 years the amount of corn produced has increased from 868,000,000 to 1,924,000,000 bushels, an increase of 122 per cent, while the exports of this cereal increased from 16,000,000 to 177,000,000 bushels, or over 1,000 per cent. During the same period our production of wheat increased from 152,000,000 to 675,000,000 bushels, a gain of 344 per cent, while our exports increased from 12,600,000 to 222,600,000 bushels, or almost eighteenfold, and our net exports of this grain increased at a still more rapid rate.

From this report it also appears that since 1875, and notably since 1880, an ever increasing proportion of our wheat exports has been in the form of flour and that in this important branch of manufacture Americans have been able to compete with European millers even in the face of adverse legislation abroad. In 1880 only 15.03 per cent of our wheat was exported in the form of the manufactured product, flour, while in 1889 the proportion was 37.39 per cent and in 1896 52.03 per cent. In 1876 less than 4,000,000 barrels of flour and in 1899 over 18,000,000 barrels were exported from this country.

The year 1898 shows the United States to be easily the first wheat producing country of the world, our production amounting to 675,000,000 bushels, or nearly one-fourth (23.4 per cent) of that of the whole world. Russia (both European and Asiatic) is second with 17.3 per cent, then France with 12.9 per cent, British India with 8.4 per cent and Austria-Hungary with 5.9 per cent. Our precedence in wheat production is largely due to our immense tracts of available fertile land, our admirable transportation facilities, the remarkable system of handling the grain, both physically and commercially, and the exceedingly low freight rates which obtain on our railroads and lakes.

STRETCHING THE TRUTH

is very poor business. We always tell the exact truth about our goods and our prices, and as we charge everyone the same price for the same service we are not afraid to advertise them.

We cannot make a poor man rich on a single order, but if you buy from us once you will continue to buy as you will find the profit in buying thoroughly cleaned grain at its actual value.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Quickness of thought saved a Plainfield young man his watch the other evening. He was walking alone through a side street uptown in New York. At a particularly dark spot of the street, he met a rough-looking customer.

"What time is it?" asked the stranger.

The appearance of the latter and the loneliness of the place had its suggestion to the Plainfielder. He thought of his gold watch, a gift from his parent at his last birthday.

"Haven't any watch," he promptly responded. The other man slouched away muttering something about a "cheap sport."

There is a decidedly bright outlook for the spring bicycle trade. The chainless wheel has come to stay, but it will by no means take the place of the chain wheel. The latter has its devotees and will continue to be far more numerous than the other style, particularly on account of the lower price. The day has now come when everybody can afford to own a wheel. The high grade wheels of the standard makes still hold their price, $75 for the chainless models, and $50 for the chain models, but substantial wheels that will run well and last as long as the rider cares to use them can be obtained now at prices within the reach of all. There need be no fear that the bicycle will go out of style. It has proved itself invaluable in many lands and is a utility as well as a mode of securing pleasure.

Among Plainfield's oldest and most respected citizens is Stephen R. Hope, the present janitor of the Bryant Public School. "Steve," as he is popularly called by those intimate with him, came to this city thirty-three years ago, and went to work for W. S. Cook & Sons, lumber dealers. He engaged for two weeks, but continued there for nearly seven years. He then went to work for T. W. Young & Co., where D. C. Ivins & Co., is now doing business. He remained there six years, after that firm sold out he engaged in the lumber and lime business for himself for one year. After that he was employed at Potter's Press Works and worked there seven years. At the end of that time he was engaged as janitor of the Bryant School, which position he has held ever since. He has served in his present position fourteen years and during that time there has never been one word of complaint about him. For six consecutive years Mr. Hope has been inspector of elections and for eleven years he was an active member of Zephyr Hook and Ladder Company. For thirty years Mr. Hope has served the city as a special policeman. He has always held the respect of everyone who knows him and he looks good for many years of active service. He is a favorite with the children at the Bryant School, as well as the teachers, who know well of his kindly services and obliging manner.

to the taking of the school census and the distribution of State school moneys. Owing to the number of the amendments made by the committee they were ordered to be printed before being considered by the Senate.

Senator Reed advocated at some length the bill increasing the salary of the State road commissioner from $1,500 to $2 500 a year and allowing him an assistant at $1,000 a year, whose duty it shall be to go over the State supervising the work of the county supervisors. He said that the movement for good roads had grown into an expensive business and the additional outlay was justifiable. The bill passed—11 to 6, (Braun, Cornish, Cross, Foster, Martin and VanCleef).

Mr. Reed also introduced a bill which provides that the board of managers of the village for epileptics of New Jersey shall hereafter comprise eight instead of six members. The two additional trustees shall be of different political parties. All appointments to this board shall hereafter be for four years. (Appropriations.)

The Senate yesterday passed Plainfield's City Hall bill.

Euchre Club Entertained.

The members of the Thursday Evening Euchre Club were entertained by the Misses Freeman and Raynolds last evening at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Smith, of Madison avenue. Despite the storm there were only two members missing. The prizes were won by Mrs. Frank H. Smith and Frank D. Randolph.

Hermit Out on Bail.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 16.—Nelson Davidson, the Cranford hermit, known as "Old Nelse," and who was a prisoner in the county jail here, charged with shooting at engineers and brakemen on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was released from prison yesterday morning on his own recognizance, he furnished the $200 bail under which he was placed by Justice Mendel, of Cranford.

Establishing Link Belt.

L. E. Edgar, an engineer of the Link Belt Engineering Company, of Philadelphia, has been at the coal "pockets" of the Lehigh Valley at South Plainfield superintending the putting in some new machinery there. He came to Plainfield, where he was the guest of Arthur O. Knight, West Sixth street. They were classmates at Lehigh University in the class of '98.

Took Paris Green.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Miss Ruth Berkley, who will appear with William J. Romain in the pantomime "Put to the Test," which is to be played as a curtain raiser to the farce-comedy, "Our Regiment," at Music Hall tomorrow evening, will be pleasantly remembered by those who had the pleasure of seeing her as the "lisping girl" in Charles Frohman's production of "The White Horse Tavern" at Wallack's Theatre, New York, in which part she made one of the biggest New York hits of the season. The pantomime, as performed at the Empire Theatre, New York, is from the pen of the well-known pantomimist, Edward Star Belknap, with music by the famous composer, Harvey Worthington Loomis, and is said to be one of the best productions of the joint authors. It tells a pretty little love story to the rhythm of entrancing music without a word being spoken, the performers relying entirely on their acting to unfold the plot. It is a novelty in the way of stagecraft which is rarely presented to the public in these days and many of the present generation of theatregoers have never had the opportunity of witnessing this charming branch of the dramatic art. Beside Mr. Romain and Miss Berkley in the cast, Miss Lucy Harris, late of Charles and Daniel Frohman's Empire and Lyceum Theatre Companies, will have the roll of the maid, while Mr. Loomis, the composer, has agreed to be present and personally conduct the music for this occasion.

High class minstrelsy, vaudeville and extravaganza are the ingredients which make up the whole of the Al Reeves Co., which begins an engagement at Music Hall next Monday night. At the head of this big organization is Inez Mecusker, the famous American prima donna, Welch Bros., funny Irish comedians; Richmond and Clements, producing a bright society travesty; Fannie Fern Thatcher, a most magnetic singer; Celeste and Bayles, two comedians and marvelous acrobatic dancers. Then there is everybody's favorite, Al Reeves, with a whole lot of new parodies, sayings, etc. In the new double first part will be found the Griffin Sisters; The Espanola Male Quartette; Geo. Titchner and Larry Cheatham, comedians, who have been successful both in Europe and America. The minstrel and vaudevile portion of the show is followed by an elaborately produced extravaganza called "Admiral Dewey Dandy" a Philippine-American absurdity in two scenes.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL.

DECIDED PLAYING SEASON WILL BEGIN APRIL 11TH.

Series of Games Arranged With Other School Teams in This Vicinity.

For the baseball nine of the Plainfield High School the playing season will begin April 11. The schedule has not been completed but it will probably include ten or more games. Manager Townsend Mason has been in communication with a number of teams from schools of this section. His aim has been, however, to keep the expenses of the team as low as possible, and with that object in view it was found necessary to leave out some of the teams that want heavy guarantees.

A series of two games has been arranged with Leal's School, of this city, and another two-game series with the team from the North Plainfield High School. The Rutgers Preparatory School will send its team over from New Brunswick and the High School boys are likely to play a return game there. One of the most important games will be with the Hasbrouck Institute, of Jersey City, on which Claude Edwards, formerly of the Plainfield High School nine, is now pitching. The Plainfield team also has a game with the Newark High School on the latter's grounds. A number of teams are still to be heard from.

Walter Squires will captain the team and he will go behind the bat unless he should meet with some injury. Herman is also a candidate for catcher. Davis and Schomp are the principal candidates for pitcher, although Denton and VanAuken are both in line for the place.

The candidates for the infield positions are Schomp, Wright, Hazeltine, Mason, Fountain, Cubberley, VanAuken, M. and H. Moynihan, Bridgman, Conant and Doane. For the outfield places the candidates are Tweedy, Thompson, Fred Mason, Pond, Ughetta, Titus, Suhr, Mills and Brakeley.

A meeting of the board of directors was held yesterday afternoon to consider the best method of raising the necessary funds for the support of the baseball team. Friday, March 23d, was set as the day for a special meeting of the association when subscriptions for the support of the team will be received. Under the new constitution money can only be raised by voluntary subscription and by entertainment. A committee, composed of Lawrence Tweedy, Townsend Mason and Fred Mason, was appointed to consider the advisibility of securing the Rutgers College Glee Club for an entertainment for the benefit of the association.

HANDICAP PLACED ON THE NEW GAS COMPANY.

Restrictions in Franchise Might Establish a Dangerous Precedent—Plain Talk From a Well-Known Citizen and Taxpayer.

The gentlemen interested in the People's Gas Company which has offered to supply the citizens with gas at a cost not to exceed one dollar per thousand feet, do not take kindly to the position assumed by the Common Council toward the new company.

The restrictions the Council has thrown about the People's Gas Company appear to the members of the new company rather arbitrary.

One of the provisions is that the work of tearing up the streets, laying of mains, etc., shall be done under the direction of the street committee. This is claimed by the representatives of the People's Company to be manifestly unjust. They think that such a clause in the franchise might be used in an unfair way and advantage taken to cause an enormous expense in the way of street excavation to an extent as to greatly embarrass the new company.

It is argued that no contractor would wish to assume the liability of having his work interfered with by outsiders such as the street committee of the Council would prove to be. If this committee saw fit it could place restrictions on the work and retard the laying of gas mains thereby causing great hardship and expense to the new company. Such a stipulation as the franchise offered by the Council would also establish a dangerous precedent.

Another equally strange restriction sought to be placed on the new company is that in regard to furnishing a security in the sum of $10,000 for the faithful performance of the work and the clause which obligates the People's Gas Company to surrender to the city, besides the $10,000 security, its entire plant in the event of its neglect to comply with all the provisions of the franchise, viz: to have the work of completing the laying of mains and the supplying of gas to the citizens within one year from the date of granting the franchise.

The latter stipulation, it is claimed, is entirely arbitrary and unnecessary, to say nothing of placing a hardship upon the stockholders, who would be the sufferers in the event of possible financial embarrassment of the new company. The People's Gas Company is perfectly willing to furnish the $10,000 security for the faithful performance of its part of the franchise. It does not, however, believe it should be so handicapped in its efforts to supply the citizens cheaper gas than is now sold, by placing about it restrictions that may seriously cripple if not altogether hinder the consummation of the end in view.

A well-known citizen, a heavy taxpayer and a man who is noted for his public enterprise, said to a Daily Press reporter:

"It appears to me that the Common Council, by its recent action toward the new gas company, stands in the light of the citizens. Here is a company offering to supply us with dollar gas and the members of the Council say halt. For years we paid $1.80 per thousand and the old company, which practically has a monopoly of the city streets, never thought of reducing the price to $1.50 until the People's Gas Company was organized. Another thing, the old company has suddenly grown generous toward the city by offering to supply free gas to the fire department houses."

Continuing he said: "The Common Council is supposed to represent the people. It does not appear to me, from the recent position taken by the Council, that they are doing so. They do not appear to have the interests of the people at heart as much as they do the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company. Certainly the people have some rights in this matter. I believe if the matter of giving the new company the franchise it asks for, without any narrow-minded restrictions, were put to a vote of the people it would be overwhelmingly in favor of the new gas company. The citizens now have an opportunity of procuring cheap gas. The People's Gas Company should be given the franchise they ask and thereby be the means of assisting in benefitting the property holders and taxpayers. I believe it to be the duty of the Council to grant the People's Gas Company a liberal franchise."

YOUNG VETERAN AT REST

OBSEQUIES OF LATE WILLIAM STEWART HELD YESTERDAY.

Services Held in Hope Chapel—Large Attendance of Friends at Last Tribute of Respect.

The funeral services of the late William Stewart were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Hope chapel, and was very largely attended by relatives and friends, including a delegation from Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., by invitation.

Rev. Howard Stewart, of Allegheny City, Pa., a cousin of the deceased, opened the service with Scripture reading and prayer. Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor of Hope chapel, then made a few remarks about the life of the departed. He referred to his excellent qualities, of his devotion to the chapel and its services, to his Sunday-school class and the Christian Endeavor Society, of which he was elected secretary only two weeks ago. He also referred to his devotion to his country in enlisting in the late war.

Mr. Stewart then followed with a few remarks during which he spoke in a personal way about the departed. He told of his many good traits and of his life in general.

The departed and Frank Marsh, of this city, both enlisted in the 6th U. S. Cavalry, joining the Cavalry at Trenton. They spent six months in Cuba and were honorably discharged in October 1898 at Huntsville, Ala., when they returned home.

There was a very handsome display of flowers at the service. There were set pieces from the Christian Endeavor Society and the Sunday-school class, of which Mr. Stewart was a member. There was a number of smaller pieces from friends. The casket was draped with an American flag.

After all had viewed the remains interment took place in Evergreen cemetery. At the grave the taps were sounded on the bugle. Those who acted as bearers were Alex. Muir, George Firstbrook, Fred Firstbrook, John Evans, James Brown and George Cose.

During the service "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Meet Me There" were rendered impressively by a vocal quintette, composed of Judge Wm. N. Runyon, Mrs. William Westphal, Mrs. George Firstbrook, Elmer D. Cutting and Mrs. Donald McGinnis.

FELL ASLEEP WHILE SMOKING.

Williams' Body Found Yesterday in the Ruins of the Barns.

The barns attached to the Hotel Brunswick, at Metuchen, were burned in the height of the storm Thursday night. At one time the entire business section of the town was in danger. The firemen suffered greatly from the cold and several were frostbitten.

The body of Martin Williams, a track-walker on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was found yesterday in the ruins. Williams was paid off Thursday, and it is supposed went into the barn to rest, fell asleep while smoking and set the place afire.

Waiting for Funds to be Subscribed.

P. M. French, of Somerset street, who has charge of the sprinkling of streets, has signified his willingness to commence the work as soon as the subscribers notify him of their willingness to pay the customary fee. The strong petition presented to the Common Council last Monday had much influence and the Council ordered the city sprinkler out until the other arrangements are perfected, which will not be long. Just at present a sprinkler is not a necessity and by the time it is needed no doubt Mr. French will be ready to start the good work.

Stricken With Paralysis.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 17—John Ringleman, an old and respected citizen of this place, was stricken with paralysis while sitting in his home on High street yesterday. Mr. Ringleman represented Somerset county in the Legislature in 1878-'80. His colleague at that time, J. Newton Voorhees, was stricken with paralysis about two weeks ago at Middlebush. Mr. Ringleman conducts a tailoring establishment here. His son is ticket agent at the Somerville station.

Small Sized Flood.

There was a small sized flood on West Front street opposite Washington avenue yesterday afternoon and a gang of men were kept busy most of the afternoon clearing away the snow and making a gutter for the water to run off into the basins provided between the street railway tracks.

Returned from Philippines.

Captain John Baxter, of the quartermaster's department of the United States Army, has returned from service in the Philippines and is spending a few days with his brother, Chas. J. Baxter, of Putnam avenue.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS.

Impressive Service Held This Morning Over the Remains of the Late Eugene A. Gross.

The funeral services of the late Eugene A. Gross were held this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's R. C. church, when Father Wilson, of Cranford, conducted solemn high mass for the repose of the soul. The service was very impressive. The large edifice was filled with relatives and friends of Mr. Gross. During the service a quartette rendered "Praise Ye," from Athalia, with much effect.

The remains rested in a very handsome hand carved San Domingo solid mahogany casket, with extension silver handles, and was carried in and out of the church on the shoulders of porters. The honorary pallbearers were Otto Arens, Gen. Long, Gen. Negley, John I. Holly, F. C. Kirchoff, Townsend Hunn, of this city; Mr. Muirhead and Mr. Bowman, of Jersey City. The latter were life-long friends of Mr. Gross. Interment took place in Hillside cemetery. There was an elegant and costly display of floral tributes received from the many friends of the deceased.

SHADOW PICTURES SEEN.

THE VARIOUS CHARACTERS FROM "MOTHER GOOSE MELODIES."

The Entertainment Was Novel and Pleasing—Names of Those Taking Part.

The Women's Association and the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church united their efforts and held a joint sociable in the church parlors last evening. The programme was under the direction of the social committee, of which Miss Katheryn Dwight was chairman, and the flower committee, with Miss Alice Miller as chairman, both of the Endeavor Society. It consisted mainly of a series of shadow pictures principally representing various characters from "Mother Goose Melodies."

The doleful ballad of "The Peach of Emerald Hue," relating the sad experience of "Johnny Jones and his sister Sue," was first shown. Miss Freeman impersonated "Sue," with Philip Suffren for "Johnny Jones." Miss M. G. Morse sang the ballad, Walter Raynolds acting as accompanist.

Wm. Millar was "Simple Simon" in his fishing experiences. Miss Carrie Fuller represented "Little Miss Muffett" and was properly frightened away by a huge spider. Miss Katheryn Dwight and Charles LaRue did the see-saw act for "See-saw, Marjory Daw" Miss Alice Morgan was "Mistress Mary," and busied herself in a shadow garden.

The romance of the milkmaid and her highborn suitor was presented by Miss Katheryn Dwight and Philip Suffren. The song was sung by the Misses LaBoyteaux. "Simple Simon," still impersonated by Wm. Millar, went through his adventure with the "pieman," Frank O. Bristol.

After playing games the young women of the church served refreshments. Miss J. Louise Jenkins was chairman of the committee from the Women's Association in charge of that part of the social.

Birthday Anniversarty.

Mrs. Augustus Windham, of Fairview avenue, gave a party Thursday evening in honor of her son, Augustin Windham, who celebrated the anniversary of his birthday. Games and singing helped to pass an evening of real enjoyment. The celebrant received a number of very handsome presents. Among those present were: Mrs. Philpitt, Mrs Dentz, Oscar Philpitt, Franklin Dentz, Mr. Werner, Miss Carry Dentz, Misses Bertha and Mamie Philpitt, Miss Wilsey, Eric Moraller and Jessie Perrine.

Assignee's Sale.

The assignee sale of the goods in the grocery formerly owned by W. H. Van Winkle and W. Van Winkle was started yesterday afternoon by W. R. Codington, the assignee. The goods are being sold to the highest bidder, and the sale yesterday brought fairly good prices. The sale is being continued today and it is believed that most of the goods will be disposed of.

Feature Was Dancing.

Miss Della Voehl, of Somerset street, entertained a number of friends at her home last evening. The feature of the affair was dancing. About midnight refreshments were served.

Getting Ready.

Herzwig, Kipp & Co., manufacturers of silk skirts, have taken charge of the Crescent Rink building, and they will commence operations soon.

Important Meeting for Hospital.

A week from Monday an important meeting of the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital will be held.

INSANE WOMAN WAS WANDERING IN SNOW.

Lightly Clad, She Was Found Near the Mountain by Chief Campbell.

TAKEN TO ASYLUM TODAY.

SHE WAS FORMERLY AN INMATE AT SNAKE HILL

Examined by Drs. Long and Carman Last Night—Taken to Morris Plains Today by Chief of Police Grant.

Marshal Campbell, of the borough, found a woman wandering about the fields near the mountain yesterday afternoon. She was nearly frozen. Investigation proved her to be Mrs. Anna Kehl, of East Front street. Drs. Long and Carman examined her last night regarding her sanity and decided that she should be committed to the Morris Plains State Hospital.

For some time the police have been watching Mrs. Kehl. She was at one time an inmate of the Snake Hill Asylum, but was released supposed to be cured. Of late her mind has wandered and she had done many strange things. One day she tried to burn all her clothing and partially succeeded.

An attempt was made to have her returned to Snake Hill on the old commitment so that the cost would fall on Jersey City rather than Plainfield where she had lived for only a short time. Yesterday afternoon she started out wearing only a light house dress, a shawl over her head and slippers on her feet. She wandered through the deep snow over at the base of the mountain until she was nearly overcome by the cold.

It was reported to Marshal Campbell that a woman, acting in a strange manner, had been seen walking toward the mountain. He went to investigate and found Mrs. Kehl. He turned her over to the custody of Chief Grant and she was locked up in the Olympia, the first prisoner to occupy a cell in the new jail.

She was brought before the physicians last evening and they declared that there was no doubt as to her insanity. This morning Mrs. Kehl was transferred to Morris Plains under the charge of Chief Grant.

AN EVENING IN CHINA.

Clever Programme Carried Out at the Entertainment Given in the Vincent Chapel.

The literary department of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church furnished entertainment for the members and friends last evening in the chapel by spending "An Evening in China." There was a large attendance and a number of new faces were seen among those present. The chapel was decorated in green and yellow. The programme was a unique affair, representing various kinds of China ware.

The entertainment opened with a selection by an orchestra, composed of Robert Davis and John Lewis, cornets; Albert Davis, flute; Messrs. Derby, mandolins. This orchestra also rendered several selections during the evening and while refreshments were served. A feature of the affair was the description given of various kinds of ware made in China. Those who took these parts were Dr. Snodgrass, Miss Horton, Miss Cory, Miss Stafford and Mr. Edgar. The balance of the programme consisted of a tenor solo by Elmer D. Cutting, accompanied by Miss Edith Hulbert; mandolin duets, Messrs. Derby; piano solo, Miss Strong. Each number was well received. After the entertainment refreshments were served and a social time spent.

Remains Interred Here.

The remains of the late Theodore Hill, who was an old resident of Plainfield, were brought to this city yesterday and interred in the North Plainfield cemetery. Mr. Hill was a brother-in-law of the late John Harris, who lived on West Second street. He had been living in Newark, where he died.

Enjoyed a Straw Ride.

A number of young people living in the vicinity of Manning, Jackson and Watchung avenues, went out last evening for a straw ride. A large box sleigh was used and the merry crowd enjoyed a trip to Westfield and back, after which refreshments were served.

LAWYERS BANQUETTED.

Somerset County Bar Association Enjoyed a Dinner at Finderne Last Night.

(Special to The Daily Press).

Somerville, March 17—The Somerset County Bar Association gave its annual banquet at the clubhouse of the Somerset County Club at Finderne last evening. There were twenty present, including several guests of prominence from other parts of the State. It was expected that Gov. Voorhees would attend, but he found out at the last moment that he would be unable to be present.

The tables were arranged in the shape of a T and were elaborately decorated. Senator Charles A. Reed, president of the bar association, presided and acted as toastmaster during the speaking that followed the repast.

After Senator Reed's introductory speech Chief Justice Magie, of Elizabeth, spoke on "Professional Ethics." The other speakers and their subjects were John R. Hardin, of Newark, president of the Essex County Lawyers' Club, "Bar Associations"; Senator Robert H. McCarter, of Newark, "Independent Courts"; S. St. John McCutchen, of Plainfield, "Education."

NO MORE INSANE CASES.

RADICAL CHANGE TO BE MADE AT BROOKSIDE RETREAT.

Dr. Cooley Will Abandon the Treatment of Patients Mentally Affected.

Dr. J. H. Cooley, proprietor of the Brookside Retreat, is about to make a decided change in his business. The sanitarium on Westervelt avenue that has been conducted by Dr. Cooley for twenty-one years is not large enough to meet the increasing demands for rooms, and he has decided to discontinue taking insane cases at the sanitarium on Somerset street and convert it into a place for the care and treatment of chronic and nervous cases, the same as on Westervelt avenue.

With this end in view extensive alterations and additions are being made to the Somerset street building, among which is a complete Turkish, Russian and Roman baths for the use of the patients. This will also be open to the citizens of Plainfield. Another decided improvement will be a sun parlor on the second floor.

During the many years that the sanitarium on Somerset street has been used for the treatment of insane people, there have been a large number of notable people confined at that place. They have come from most of the important cities in this country, and Dr. Cooley and his assistants have been very successful in treating them. In the future Dr. Cooley will make special efforts in the care of nervous and chronic cases and already he has applications from a large number of patients, who will be received as soon as the additions are completed.

Dripping Water.

Despite the fact that most of the prominent buildings on Front street and Park avenue have been connected with the sewer, with every heavy snow storm or rain pedestrians are obliged to be subjected to a drenching as they walk along the street. The water drips at such an angle that it is always sure to drop just inside of the collar and give one a delightful sensation. The owners of the buildings should turn the water sheds toward the rear and thus the trouble will be overcome.

Display of Flags a Feature.

A musicale and tea, together with a cake and candy sale, is being held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lapsley, First place, under the auspices of one of the numerous Circles of King's Daughters. A feature of the decorations is the display of choice silk American and Irish flags, loaned to the King's Daughters by the Catholic Benevolent Legion. The proceeds will go toward the support of the city nurse.

King's Daughters' Tea.

The Golden Rule Circle, King's Daughters, will give a musicale and tea Friday, April 6th, from 3 to 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. John Valiant, 38 Myrtle avenue, for the benefit of the city nurse. There will also be a sale of cake and candy.

Church Bell Will Not Ring.

Owing to the very serious illness of Herbert Crowe, of Park avenue, the bell in the Park Avenue Baptist church will not be sounded for the present. This is in accordance with a request made by the physician attending Mr. Crowe.

Heavy Rail Fell on His Foot.

William Hand, of Park avenue, who sustained a severe injury to his foot a week ago by a heavy rail falling on it, is very much improved and is able to go out again.

AID FOR A PARIS HOME.

PLAINFIELDERS TO HELP FREE IT OF DEBT.

Meeting Held in Grace Church Yesterday Afternoon—Dr. Rodman Honorary President.

The interest taken by some of the benevolent women of Plainfield in the homes for American women at Paris was displayed yesterday afternoon when a large number were present at the Guild House of Grace Episcopal church to meet the Archbishop and Mrs. Ada Leigh Lewis, of Toronto.

Mrs. Lewis, before she became the wife of the archbishop was the founder of these homes and is still actively interested. Two weeks ago yesterday Archbishop Lewis made an address at Grace Episcopal church in which he briefly told of the good work that had been done in Paris for unfortunate English speaking American and British young women. At that time Archbishop Lewis referred particularly to the Washington Home for American girls that has been established through the benevolence of a noble American woman. The purpose of the meeting yesterday was to interest the benevolent women of Plainfield in an effort to assist in liquidating a mortgage of $37,000 which has been placed upon the Washington Home for its construction. The Home is now self supporting.

Rev. Dr. Rodman, rector of Grace church, presided at the meeting. Mr. Lewis briefly outlined the object of the work proposed and told of the urgent need of funds to raise the mortgage. Remarks were also made by the Archbishop and Dr. Rodman, Mrs. W. L. Patton, of this city, who has been a life long friend of Mr. Lewis and who has been interested in the Paris Homes for several years, introduced a resolution in behalf of an organization which shall be known as the "Plainfield Association in Connection with British and American Homes in Paris."

The purpose of this association is to secure membership at $1 a head and to discourage young women from visiting Paris, and also to give advice to those who are compelled to take up their homes in the Parisian capital for the purpose of studying the arts.

While a permanent organization was not effected Dr. Rodman was chosen honorary president and Mrs. W. L. Patton, secretary pro tem. When a permanent organization is made possible Mrs. Patton will probably be the first vice-president and acting head of the society. One of the features of the organization will be a lookout committee, composed of young women who will use their efforts to secure subscriptions and offer such advice to women contemplating going to Paris.

At yesterday's meeting about $40 was raised from those who desired to become members, some persons donating a much larger sum than one dollar.

It was decided not to perfect an organization until certain young women, who it is expected to interest in the project, are consulted. The mortgage against the Washington Home must be cleared before August, in order to obviate a renewal of the obligation.

Sunday-School Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Sunday-school of the First Presbyterian church was held last evening in the chapel of the church, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, E. M. Cave; assistant, L. H. Gates; second assistant, Miss Helen Boice; secretary, E. D. George; assistant, Frank R. Hazletine; treasurer, Freeman Shotwell; librarian, Warren Townley; assistant, Frank C. Knight.

Dr. Richards to Lecture.

The Primary Union will hold an evening session in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Richards will give an address on "Palestine," following the general outline of the Sunday-school lessons for 1900. All interested are cordially invited. The meeting of the union will be held as usual Monday afternoon.

Looks Like a Sure Thing.

As soon as there are assurances that spring has arrived no doubt the work of opening up Duer street into this city will be started. The ones in charge of receiving subscriptions toward the necessary $500 are much encouraged and the project is almost a sure thing. However, this should not deter others from subscribing toward the fund.

Dr. Carroll Spoke.

The Methodist Church conference is now being held at Millville. Last evening Dr. H. K. Carroll, whom President McKinley appointed to look into Porto Rican affairs, spoke on "Porto Rico and Porto Ricans; the Duty of Methodism to Our New Possessions."

FOOTE'S BILL STRIKES AT HANGMAN'S NOOSE.

Assembly Passes Plainfielder's Bill Intending to Do Away With Death Punishment.

BENNY QUOTES SCRIPTURE.

HE DECLARES BIBLE IS AUTHORITY AGAINST CAPITAL VERDICTS.

The Principal Objection Against Foote's Measure was That It Does Not Go Far Enough—Only One Dissenting Vote.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 17—The bill introduced in the Lower House by Assemblyman Foote, which will in the future, if it becomes a law, give juries the right to say whether a man guilty of murder shall be hanged or imprisoned for life, cause a very animated discussion yesterday afternoon.

Assemblyman Benny, of Hudson county, has in the last three sessions tried to persuade the Legislature to abolish capital punishment. He has already urged several bills this session in the hope of saving the life of Clifford, the murderer, who is now in the Hudson County Jail. When the Foote bill was on second reading yesterday afternoon Mr. Benny tried to have it amended so that it would give the jury no discretionary powers, but would be a straight bill abolishing capital punishment.

He quoted very generously from the Scriptures in support of his contention that capital punishment should be abolished in New Jersey, and declared that he had the highest authority for urging his claim. "There is no member on the floor of this House," he said, "who will not agree with me that suicide is wicked, and is a sin against the law of God and of man. If it be a sin for a man to take his own life, how much worse must it be for a man, or two women, or a dozen men, to put their heads together and say, 'We will kill this man and put him to death if he commit a certain crime.'"

He expressed in forcible language his belief that the fear of death did not result in a diminution of crime, and quoted statistics to prove his assertion. He said the average man was not afraid of death. This was proven by the number of men who had volunteered to go to war when needed by the country, and by their disappointment when they did not get where the bullets were flying. Mr. Benny then showed that half the States in the Union had already abolished capital punishment and that five had left the decision to the jury considering the case.

Assemblyman Foote took exception to Mr. Benny's amendment because it put the bill in the same shape as his own measure, which had been adversely reported by the committee. "It is known," said Mr. Foote, "that juries have acquitted men on trial for murder because there was no middle course and they did not wish to condemn the man to death. If there had been a law such as is now pending, the man would have been sent to State prison for life."

Assemblyman Murphy denied that the House had gone on record in reference to capital punishment. The adverse report had been adopted because the members of the majority had agreed to stand by the reports of its committees. He characterized the Foote bill as "a middle of the road proposition, and the plan of a man who is afraid to face the direct issue." He thought the legislators should decide the question and not shove it off on the jurors.

Assemblyman Wright, of Burlington, who is a member of the Society of Friends, and opposed to capital punishment, said that he would accept the Foote bill as meeting the proposition half way. It was not exactly what he wanted, however. The bill was then passed by a vote of 40 to 1. The negative vote came from Assemblyman Abbott, of Atlantic county.

Assemblyman Meeker, of Union, who is chairman of the house committee on the Boys' Reform School, urged the passage of the bill which gives the name of the "State Home for Boys" to the institution, and also establishes a new form of government. He urged the change of name because the boys were not felons, and a new reformatory would soon be opened at Rahway. He said all the trustees of the school, many of whom were judges, were in favor of the change.

Assemblyman Mungle, who is chairman of the house committee on the Girls' Industrial School, stated that there was a similar bill under consid-

FOR PRETORIA NEXT.

Lord Roberts Preparing For an Early Advance.

COMMUNICATION OPEN TO CAPE TOWN

Cecil Rhodes Criticises Buller and Says the Size of the Boer Army Has Been Overestimated to Account For British Defeats.

LONDON, March 17.—With the railway communication to the Cape intact, Lord Roberts will in a very few days be in a position to begin the advance on Pretoria. His deep political intuition, combined with his bold strategy, is having the result desired in the southern sections of the Orange Free State, which are rapidly calming down.

Mafeking is now the only point for anxiety, and as it is known that a force has left Kimberley its relief may be announced before many days pass. The efficiency of the relieving column is heightened by the fact that it is partly composed of regulars.

The latest advices respecting the surrender of Bloemfontein show that the approach of the British caused a stampede. Thirteen trains, each composed of 40 cars, and all crammed with Boers, hurried northward just before the line was cut. Mr. Steyn would have been compelled to surrender, but he pretended that he was going to visit one of the outposts, and at midnight took a carriage which was waiting for him outside the town and thus escaped. The Boers got the bulk of their wagons and military stores away.

Lord Roberts has sent the following dispatch to the war office:

"Bloemfontein, Friday, March 16.—General Clements crossed the Orange river yesterday.

"Repairs to the railway bridge at Norval's Pont have commenced, and it will shortly be ready for traffic.

"General Pole-Carew telegraphs his arrival at Springfontein, so that Bloemfontein now is practically in railroad communication with Cape Town.

"My proclamation is already having an excellent effect. Several hundred burghers have expressed their intention to surrender their arms and return to their occupations.

"The resident commissioner of Basutoland reports that 800 Boers lately arrived from Bloemfontein and that a further contingent from Aliwal North was only waiting to know the terms of my proclamation to surrender. They had refused to attend a council at Kroonstadt to which President Steyn had summoned them."

The Daily Mail publishes an interview this morning with Mr. Cecil Rhodes, secured by Mr. Julian Ralph, in the course of which, complaining of the "bungling of the home authorities," he said:

"General Buller's extraordinary orders to Lord Methuen were to relieve Kimberley, to take all the people away and to fall back to Orange River. You people in England have such wonderful ideas about Buller's generalship, but such a retreat would have been monstrous."

Mr. Rhodes declared that there had only been 30,000 Boers in the field altogether and that the foreign mercenaries were only about 15,000. The numbers of the Boers, he said, had been exaggerated in order to explain the British reverses.

The Daily Mail has the following dispatch from Lourenco Marques, dated March 16:

"Intrenching is proceeding on the Vaal river at Vereeynig.

"Late arrivals from Pretoria say that the Boers themselves now admit that their cause is hopeless. General Lucas Meyer refuses to fight again and has returned to his farm. General Schalkburger has also returned, and the burghers are going home by hundreds."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says:

"The Boer prisoners, I learn, will be detained indefinitely on board the transports, and the Free Staters will perhaps be spared the trip to St. Helena."

The Outlook, commenting on Lord Salisbury's reply to the United States' offer of mediation, says:

"Like M. Delcasse, President McKinley must himself see that this puts an end to all talk of 'friendly good offices' on the part of any outside power. But President McKinley, unlike the French premier, is face to face with that most awkward factor, his November presidential election, and we know what even the best of presidents can be led to do at such times.

"Let us be thankful we have a Pauncefote, not a Sackville-West, at Washington, for we shall need all our tact and firmness there these next few months."

Kruger Annexed Orange Free State.

BETHULIE, Orange Free State, March 17.—General Gatacre on arriving here found that all the Boers had fled. The town was nearly deserted, the Dutch having trekked on hearing of the occupation of Bloemfontein. It is believed that the Boers retired in the direction of Dewets dorp. The telegraph is open to Springfontein. It is understood here that President Kruger two days ago annexed the Orange Free State to the South African Republic.

Rhodes Opposes Independence.

CAPE TOWN, March 17.—In an interview published in the Cape Argus, Mr Cecil Rhodes is quoted as saying:

"I feel strongly that we cannot have peace in South Africa so long as we have in the republics a rallying ground for disloyalty and disaffection. To go further I do not think we can safely federate till we have had some years of crown colony government. Personally, I have done with the bund."

British Cross Orange River.

VANZYL, March 17.—The bridge over the Orange river has been completed. The British forces have crossed and bivouacked on Free State soil.

Musher Was Arrested.

QUEENSTOWN, March 17.—Nathan Musher, a passenger from New York by the Cunard line steamship Lucania, was arrested here on board the tender as the result of information from the United States that a warrant for his arrest had been issued in New York city upon a charge of forgery. Musher traveled under the alias "Goldberg." He will be arraigned here and will then be transferred to London for extradition.

The Anaconda Dividend.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The directors of the Anaconda Copper Mining company have declared its regular quarterly dividend of $1.25 per share and an extra dividend of 75 cents per share payable April 30.

TOURISTS LEAVING CUBA.

More Winter Visitors Than Ever. American Bayonets Not Needed.

HAVANA, March 17.—Every steamer leaving Havana nowadays takes a full complement of passengers, and passages are booked ahead until the end of the month by people desiring to evade the quarantine. The steamship line managers say that the traffic from the United States during the last few months has been greater than ever before. The hotels are still full, but the number of patrons begins to diminish. Both the local press and the merchants complain of the enforcement of the quarantine at so early a date. This time of the year is invariably the most healthful. There is no yellow fever, and the climate is perfection.

As yet it is impossible to say what will be the effect upon Cuba of the unusual travel this way during the winter season now closing. Many large capitalists have been looking over the grounds. Representatives from the boards of trade in several large cities, as well as representatives of some of the largest business houses, have visited the island with a view to future possibilities. In a few instances there have been large purchases of land, notably the purchase at Nipe Bay by an important fruit company.

General Maximo Gomez publishes a letter he has recently written to his son in Santo Domingo. In the course of it he says:

"Cuba fought to shake off a power that oppressed her. She is now endeavoring to shake off an intervening power, although not in an ungrateful way. There is no breach of public order, although people are passing through trying times. The only thing that could be spared is the American bayonets. General Wood and Mrs. Wood would be just as safe absolutely alone here as if they had 1,000,000 soldiers around them. The police and the rural guard are idle. I could go from one end of the island to the other loaded with gold without fear of any harm."

BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

The Cases of Powers and Davis to Be Thoroughly Investigated.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 17.—The cases of Secretary of State Powers and Captain Davis were again called yesterday before Police Judge Riley. Judge George Denny, Jr., for the defense, asked for a rule against Chief of Police John McD. Ross to show cause why the prisoners were not in court to answer. Judge Riley held that as he issued neither warrant nor mittimus in the case and as the prisoners had been in charge of the sheriff and not of the police, neither was the chief responsible nor did his court have jurisdiction. He therefore ordered all records before him taken before the grand jury for investigation.

Before the grand jury Thomas B. Cromwell, who swore to the affidavits against Powers and Davis; Police Chief and Captain John McD. Ross and Jerry Reagan, Detective Jenkins of the local force and two soldiers who were on the train when the arrests were made were examined. Numerous other witnesses were sent for. The grand jury determined to thoroughly investigate and may issue summonses for the prisoners themselves.

Finley's Absence Explained.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., March 17.—Ex-Congressman Finley, father of former Secretary of State Charles Finley, who is charged with being accessory to the murder of Goebel, says that his son is not absenting himself from the state to avoid arrest, but is on a mission for Governor Taylor. He says Charles has visited Republicans at Indianapolis, Lansing and Washington to secure funds for Governor Taylor to carry on the fight and to enlist the aid of congressmen.

Bad Fire at Mohawk, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y., March 17.—The Mohawk Valley hotel block at Mohawk has been burned. It was erected in 1876 at a cost of $80,000 and contained besides the hotel five stores, the postoffice, the offices of the town clerk, justice of the peace, insurance office, Masonic hall and opera house. The fire departments of Herkimer and Ilion were called to assist the Mohawk firemen, and by their efforts the fire was confined to the one block, and comparatively nothing except the mail was saved from the building. All the town records were burned, as were also the records and charter of the Masonic lodge. There were 40 boarders at the hotel, all of whom escaped without injury.

Did Not Take It With Her.

BOSTON, March 17.—Yesterday Lucinda Huckins, an aged woman who had made a living as a fortune teller, was found dead in her bed in her room. She had been ill recently, but claimed that she was too poor to pay the hospital charges. After her death the police found four bank books, representing nearly $4,500, hidden under clothing in a dressing case. In a pocketbook in the same place was found about $34.

BRIDGE WORK

in Dentistry is the best substitute for nature's work that can be done. Sound roots may be built up and crowned and thus fill up an unsightly space. It has to be made of a material that has strength and durability and one that will not discolor. Gold is the one that stands the test That is the secret of the expense. WANTS TO BE GOVERNOR.

Richard Yates Is Anxious to Fill the Position Held by His Father During War Time.

Richard Yates is 39 years old. He is the son of the war governor of Illinois, "Dick" Yates, and was born in Jacksonville, Morgan county, Ill. He is accounted an orator of more than ordinary ability, and as a college youth was a winner in many oratorical contests. He entered Whipple academy at Jacksonville in 1873, and finished there in 1876. Then he went to the University of Illinois, from which he was graduated in the classical course in 1880, being his class orator.

RICHARD YATES.

(Young Illinois Politician Who Wants to Be Governor.)

After leaving college Mr. Yates went into newspaper work, and was city editor of the Jacksonville Daily Journal at a salary of $40 a month. The emoluments did not chain him to the business, and he went to the University of Michigan to study law. For lack of means he was compelled to leave Ann Arbor, and returned to his newspaper work in Jacksonville. In two years he saved enough money to enable him to return to college and finish his law studies, and he was graduated in 1884.

In 1885 he was elected city attorney of Jacksonville, and held that office until 1891. Since 1881 Mr. Yates has been called upon to make speeches on many important occasions. He is interested in the Sunday school work of the Methodist church, of which he is an active member.

He announced his candidacy for congressman at large in 1892, but after a strong campaign he was defeated. He is a declared candidate for governor, and since making the announcement of his intention to run he has made a number of speeches throughout the state. Mr. Yates is married and has a family. His home is in his native town of Jacksonville, and at present he holds an appointment under President McKinley as internal revenue collector for the Springfield district.

BUTTER BY THE YARD.

A Curious Old Custom That Prevails in Cambridge, England, Unto This Day.

Probably Cambridge, England, is the only place in the world where one would be likely to find butter sold by lineal measure; but here, in accordance with the old custom, it is literally sold by the yard. For generations it has been the practice of Cambridgeshire folk to roll their butter into lengths, each length measuring a yard and weighing a pound. Deftly wrapped in strips of clean white cloth, the cylindrical rolls are packed into long and narrow baskets made for the purpose and thus conveyed to market.

The butter women who, in white linen aprons and sleeves, preside over the stalls in the mart, have no need of weights or scales for dispensing their wares, constant practice and an experienced eye enabling them with a stroke of the knife to divide a yard of butter into halves or quarters with almost mathematical exactness.

BUTTER BY THE YARD.

(A Queer Custom Obtaining Only at Cambridge, England.)

The university people are the chief buyers of this curiously shaped article. In addition to being famed for its purity and sweetness, Cambridge "yard butter" is eminently adapted for serving out to the university students in the daily commons. Cut into conveniently sized pieces, and accompanied by a loaf of the best wheaten bread, a stated portion is sent round every morning to the rooms of the undergraduates for use at the daily breakfast and tea.

Produce Short-Sightedness.

It is the opinion of a German oculist that the use of the ordinary slates by school children tends to produce short-sightedness. As a substitute he recommends pen and ink or an artificial white slate with black pencil. The latter have been introduced in some of the German schools.

BACK FROM MANILA.

General Wheeler Once More In Washington.

HE SAYS THAT THE WAR IS OVER.

Nothing Remains but to Run Down a Few Guerrillas—Praise For American Troops—They Are Sound and Healthy.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—General Joe Wheeler has arrived in this city from Atlanta. He is stopping at the Arlington. General Wheeler, in the absence of Secretary Root, reported formally to Adjutant General Corbin, thus complying with the order from the department which brought him from Manila to Washington. The general was in the uniform of a brigadier general of the volunteer army. He looked the picture of health, better than when he left Washington for Manila. He gave General Corbin a brief description of the conditions in Luzon when he left. He insisted that the war was over and that nothing more was to be done except to run down a few guerrillas and irregulars. There was difficulty in this work, he said, and danger, too, but its prosecution was not "war." Ambuscades were frequent and annoying, and it was not easy to tell whether the hidden force was strong or weak. Three men had been mistaken for a company in some cases.

The general said that the American troops are doing splendid work there. They are sound and healthy and in quite as good shape as they would be at home engaged in similar service. This was owing in a measure to the excellent care for their men exhibited by the officers and to the watchful precautions of the staff of the army.

General Wheeler said that as soon as his resignation had been accepted by the president he intended to make the issue as to his right to a seat in the house of representatives as a representative from Alabama. He says the issue will not be one for the decision of Speaker Henderson. He will present himself at the bar of the house and ask to be sworn in. As he understood the rules, the speaker will have no option, but must submit the matter to the house. General Wheeler was confident that the decision would be in his favor, though he realized that there might be some delay owing to a reference of his case to the committee on elections.

At the conclusion of his interview with General Corbin General Wheeler went over to the White House, his purpose being to secure speedy action upon his resignation.

It is learned that such action has been withheld by the president only to legalize General Wheeler's traveling expenses and per diem up to the moment of his arrival in Washington.

General Wheeler was with the president some time.

A Place For "Bill" Anthony's Widow

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Senator Depew is not entirely without influence in federal patronage matters. It was he who secured the appointment of the widow of "Bill" Anthony to a clerkship in the pension bureau. Mr. Depew has received the following letter from Census Director Merriam: "You will recall that we have had some correspondence concerning the application of Mrs. Adelia M. Anthony for a clerical position in the census office. Mrs. Anthony was examined today and passed most creditably. Inasmuch as you have shown special interest in this application, I take pleasure in informing you that I have ordered her appointment today at a salary of $50 per month. She will be assigned to duty immediately."

Cremated by Molten Iron.

PITTSBURG, March 17.—By the fall of a "hang" at the Monongahela furnace at McKeesport yesterday one man named Martin was cremated, two were fatally burned and two others badly injured. Three hundred tons of molten ore, coke and minerals used in the production of pig iron became fast in the furnace, and Martin and Curvan, as top fillers, tried to dislodge it. Suddenly the entire mass fell, compressing the gas below and causing a terrific explosion. Not a trace of Martin's body can be found.

A Warship to China.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Secretary Long has cabled instructions to Admiral Watson at Cavite to send a warship to Taku, China, at the mouth of the Pie Ho river, to look after American missionary interests that are threatened. He has left the selection of the ship to Admiral Watson.

The Rumor Repeated.

BERLIN, March 17.—It is again reported here—this time from Budapest—that Germany will soon acquire a coaling station at El Kneit, on the Persian gulf, and also additional territory in China. This, however, is discredited in colonial circles here.

Fatal Gasoline Explosion.

COLUMBUS, O., March 17.—A gasoline explosion at the residence of James Weaver resulted in the death of one of Mr. Weaver's sons and in fatal injuries to five other persons. The explosion came through the use of gasoline to start a fire.

More Pay For Miners.

GREENSBURG, Pa., March 17.—The miners employed at the various works of Coulter & Huff in this locality will be given an advance of 10 per cent on April 1. There will be about 5,000 men affected. The advance comes unsolicited.

RELIEF BILL AT LAST.

The Appropriation For Porto Rico Passed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—After a debate, at times spirited, extending over parts of two days, the senate yesterday passed the Porto Rican relief appropriation bill. As passed the measure carries $2,095,000, the president being authorized to use that sum "for public education, public works and other governmental and public purposes" in Porto Rico. Mr. Allen of Nebraska offered an amendment to the bill, declaring that the constitution extends over Porto Rico by its own force, but it was lost by the decisive vote of 36 to 17. Mr. Jones of Arkansas withdrew a free trade amendment offered by him, and that proposition, therefore, did not reach a vote. Other efforts to amend the bill were fruitless.

An order was made by the senate as to consideration of the case of former Senator Quay, it being unanimously agreed that it should be taken up two weeks from next Tuesday and discussed until disposed of, the discussion not to interfere with the unfinished business, the Spooner bill, authorizing the president to govern the Philippines until otherwise directed, the appropriation bills or conference reports.

The text of the Porto Rican bill passed by the senate is as follows:

"Be it enacted that the sum of $2,095,455, being the amount of customs revenue received on importations by the United States from Porto Rico since the evacuation of Porto Rico by the Spanish forces on the 18th of October, 1898, to the 1st of January, 1900, shall be placed at the disposal of the president, to be used for the government now existing and which may hereafter be established in Porto Rico and for public education, public works and other governmental and public purposes therein, and the said sum or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for the purposes herein specified out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated."

Yesterday was the private bill day in the house under the new rule. About two hours were spent in the discussion of a bill to pay Representative Swanson $1,769 for extra expenses incurred by him in his contest in the last congress, but the bill was ultimately abandoned. Six bills of minor importance were passed.

The bill for establishing a civil government in Porto Rico has been practically completed by the subcommittee of the house committee on insular affairs.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The senate agreed to take up the Quay case April 3.

The British expenses in the Venezuela arbitration were stated to be £65,625.

Mrs. Thomas Arnold, widow of the famous head master of Rugby, died in London.

The snow and cold wave did much damage to fruit and early vegetables in the southern states.

The four men held as alleged accessories in the assassination of Goebel were taken to Frankfort from Louisville.

The steamer City of Louisville, with 20 passengers aboard, was fast in the ice-fields five miles from St. Joseph, Mich.

The southern Kansas Methodist conference expelled Rev. S. D. Osborne, pastor of the First Methodist church at Pearyville, Kan., for practicing faith healing.

Three Sisters Bear Twins.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., March 17.—Six children, all cousins, were born to three mothers within four hours in the little village of Mendham, near this city, Thursday night. Two boys were born in the home of J. W. Garrabrandt at 8 o'clock. Before the doctor had left the house and while he was congratulating Mr. Garrabrandt a messenger arrived to summon him to the home of Charles Freeman. Within an hour after the birth of the first pair of twins the doctor was congratulating Mr. Freeman upon having become the father of two boys. The doctor had scarcely reached his home when he was called to the house of Frederick Guerin. Before midnight two little girls were brought into the world to bear the name of Guerin. Mrs. Guerin, Mrs. Garrabrandt and Mrs. Freeman are sisters.

San Juan In Hard Straits.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 17.—A municipal deficit of $80,000 in the fiscal year has been caused by an unexpected slump in the city revenues from liquors and cigarettes. The budget compiled in 1899 estimated that $96,000 would be collected, but the amount to date is only $26,009, though probably $13,000 more will be received by July. The city owes the United States treasury $30,000, and the city hall is mortgaged to the Spanish bank for $20,000.

The Union Wants Everything.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Unless a body goes to its last resting place in a union made coffin it will be refused burial in the cemeteries of Chicago and vicinity if the plans of the labor unions to organize a gravediggers' union are carried out. Already they have compelled the placing of the union label on every cradle manufactured, and it is the avowed object of the unions to unionize everything from the cradle to the grave inclusive.

A Shortage of $30,000.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 17.—Frank E. Bundy, who for the past six years has occupied the office of chamberlain of this city and for three years previously was clerk in the chamberlain's office, has voluntarily confessed a shortage of over $30,000 in his accounts. Mr. Bundy was the Democratic candidate for mayor and was defeated at the charter election on March 6.

Minister Merry In Nicaragua.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, March 17.—United States Minister Merry has arrived here. He was accompanied from Colon by Mr. Rudolph Wiesser, official agent of the Maritime Canal company, and is now being entertained by the United States consul, Mr. Chester Donaldson. Mr. Merry has been pleasantly received by the Nicaragua government.

Heavy Snow In Texas.

DALLAS, March 17.—The heaviest snowstorm in many years set in yesterday and is now falling over northern Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory. Many places report six inches of snow, and much suffering to live stock is expected owing to the lateness of the season.

Sound at 101.

SYRACUSE, March 17.—John Tubbert of this city has celebrated his one hundred and first birthday. He is in good mental and physical condition. He was born in Ireland.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

New Monetary Law Has Little Effect. Large Foreign Commerce.

NEW YORK, March 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The new monetary act which was signed and took effect on Wednesday has not affected business perceptibly as yet. Designed as a barrier against future harm, it was by some expected to have immediate influence through provisions regarding bank circulation. While $2,100,000 will be added to New York circulation, the increase thus far indicated will be mainly in the interior, affecting the chief monetary centers only by lessening reliance upon them when more currency is wanted. The speculative activity which some anticipated does not yet appear.

The report of foreign commerce in February was surprisingly satisfactory. Though the month was short, they have been exceeded in only six months in the history of the country and in daily average, $4,277,349, never surpassed except in December, 1898, with $4,446,793 and November, 1898, with $4,326,599 daily.

The grain movement is fading in importance. Corn exports have been in two weeks only 5,497,102 bushels, against 7,126,553 last year, though prior to March 132,982,623 bushels were exported, against 99,854,984 last year. The wheat movement is falling behind rather less than it has been in recent weeks, owing partly to large Pacific shipments.

Zealous efforts to excite new confidence in higher prices for iron have not had the desired effect. While various markets are called stronger, not a quotation has advanced, but tank plates at Pittsburg are a shade lower at 2 cents.

Failures for the week have been 198 in the United States against 189 last year and 23 in Canada against 30 last year.

THAT BIG DIVIDEND.

A Movement on Foot to Investigate Standard Oil Affairs.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Representative Fitzgerald of Massachusetts has introduced the following resolution in the house:

"Whereas, It appears as a matter of public record that the Standard Oil company paid in the city of New York on March 15, 1900, the sum of $17,000,000, this amount being an extra dividend in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of $3,000,000; and,

"Whereas, It is a matter of public record that this last dividend is $5,000,000 in excess of the last quarterly dividend paid by this corporation; and,

"Whereas, It is also a matter of public record that the price of kerosene oil, the sole means of lighting used by the middle and poorer classes of people, during the period of time between the declaration of these dividends was increased 3 cents per gallon, constituting a tax on every home in the land; therefore be it

"Resolved, That in the opinion of congress this action of the Standard Oil company is in direct violation of the provisions of the Sherman antitrust law and therefore punishable by fine and imprisonment, and the attorney general is hereby directed, in accordance with the provisions of that act, to direct the several district attorneys of the United States in their respective districts to institute proper proceedings to bring the above named violators of law to justice."

Money by Mail.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Senator McMillan in the senate and Representative Lentz in the house have introduced bills designed to afford an easy and inexpensive means of transmitting money by mail. They provide that all United States and national bank notes, silver certificates and treasury notes of $1, $2 and $5 denomination shall be replaced by new notes to be known as "United States post check notes." Fifty million of United States notes of denominations above $10 shall be replaced with a like amount of fractional post check notes from 5 to 50 cents. The face and back of the notes are to make them "payable to payee named hereon" in place of the present inscription "payable to bearer on demand," and the face of the notes shall have a blank space to insert the name of a payee, with space for receipt and stamp. The holder of any such post check, by inserting the name of a payee and fixing a postage stamp, may forward the same by mail to the designated payee, and it is redeemable at the postoffice named. The checks are then to be canceled and new checks issued.

Plans For a Large Cotton Mill.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., March 17.—The Pacolet Manufacturing company of Pacolet, S. C., has bought 350 acres of land two miles from this city, on which will be erected a $1,000,000 cotton mill. The mill will operate 50,000 spindles and make standard sheeting for export only. Thirty thousand bales of cotton a year will be consumed, and 1,400 hands will be employed. Boston architects will prepare plans next week, and the construction will be begun at once. The mill is to be in full operation inside of a year.

Germany Admits Our Right.

BERLIN, March 17.—Referring to the attacks on American missionaries in China and to the orders issued by the United States government to Admiral Watson to send a warship to Taku to look after the interest of the missionaries, a high official of the German foreign office says: "Germany does not claim authority over the entire Shantung peninsula, and the United States government has a perfect right to send a ship there for the protection of American citizens."

Treasury Department Busy.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The officials of the treasury are overrun with work as a result of the passage of the new financial bill, which involves the funding of the old long term bonds into new gold bonds bearing 2 per cent interest. The applications for the exchange of old bonds for the new up to the time of closing the department yesterday amounted to about $27,000,000, all but about $3,000,000 coming from national banks.

A Freeze In Georgia.

AMERICUS, March 17.—Much apprehension is felt here for the safety of the fruit crop and truck. Orchards are in full bloom, and yesterday morning the temperature fell to the freezing point, and thin ice formed in exposed localities.

Dry Goods Store Burned.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., March 17.—Fire last night completely ruined the stock of M. F. Morrissey's dry goods store, causing a loss of $30,000. Elias Bittner, owner of the building, loses $5,000, which is covered by insurance.

Weather Probabilities.

Fresh westerly winds; fair and warmer.

SENATORS RUN AWAY

New York Lawmakers Locked In Senate Chamber.

THE PURE BEER BILL HELD UP.

Republican Leader Ellsworth and Others Flee to Parts Unknown to Break a Quorum—Adjournment Several Times Defeated.

ALBANY, March 17.—For the first time in 12 years the senate chamber was yesterday cleared of newspaper reporters and all others and the senators present locked in the chamber under a close call of the house. Not since the passage of the Raines law four years ago has a close call of the senate been ordered and the business of the session been delayed pending the return of absent senators. Never before have such extraordinary precautions been taken to exclude all persons from any proximity to the senate chamber. After the doors of the chamber had been locked the crowds began to collect about the doors, until finally the corridors were ordered cleared, and no one was permitted to appear near the doors.

Within a short time after the call was ordered, at 11:30 o'clock, it became apparent that senators had left the city and it would be many hours before they could return, and the imprisoned senators settled down to enjoy themselves as best they could. Several had hurried to the early session without their breakfast, and at 12 o'clock lunch was ordered in the Hotel Ten Eyck and served to the senators in their seats. Again at 7 o'clock dinner was ordered and served in the chamber.

The 23 senators present when the call was ordered were Grady, Donnelly, Ford, Coggeshall, Norton, Brown, Brackett, Elsberg, McCarren, Munsinger, Malby, Ambler, Marshall, Martin, Graney, Sullivan, Boyce, Feeter, Wilcox, Krum, Higgins, Willis and Johnson. Later Senator Douglas was captured by the sergeant-at-arms and has since been among the prisoners.

Those senators who were present at the opening of the senate and left before the call was ordered were Ellsworth, Stranahan, Armstrong, Thornton, Mackey, Raines and Goodsell.

Thirteen were absent under excuse. They were D. F. Davis, George A. Davis, Humphrey, Ahern, Featherson, Foley, Havens, Mitchell, Plunkitt, Ramsperger, Sherwood, Wagner and White.

Those absent without cause were Chahoon, Coffey, Cullen, Laroche, Parsons and Rice.

No partisan debate has ever developed the acrimony among members of the same party manifested over this incident. It was evident to all that the dispute was not so much over the reference of the pure beer bill as the resentment felt toward Republican Leader Ellsworth by his assistants, who had been compelled to remain here while he had run away. The point of no quorum being raised would prevent the reception of all bills from committee, and three such reports were then upon the desks of senators. Thus no progress in legislation could be made during the day without a quorum, and two votes were lacking.

Senator Thornton was apprehended last evening and returned to the city at 9:25 o'clock. He joined his fellow senators in the chamber, but there was still one short of a quorum.

The Longfellow Memorial.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Longfellow National Memorial association, which is raising funds to erect a statue to the poet in Washington, gave a complimentary entertainment at the Lafayette Square Opera House yesterday afternoon, which was attended by a number of public men, including President McKinley, Secretary Long, Secretary Wilson, Senator Depew, General Greely and ex-Senator Henderson. Rev. Mackay-Smith presided over the gathering, and music was furnished by a band of Indian youths from the Carlisle school. Miss Zit Kala Sa, a Dakota Indian girl recited "The Famine" from "Hiawatha." Addresses were made by Senator Depew, Rear Admiral Stewart and Secretary Long.

Dublin Prepares For the Queen.

DUBLIN, March 17.—At a meeting in the Mansion House, the lord mayor presiding, a committee was appointed to fittingly receive the queen, and £1,400 was subscribed for decorations. A mass meeting was summoned last evening to denounce the act of the corporation in voting an address to the queen, but it was almost a fiasco. Only a few hundred were present at the stipulated time, and the gathering never amounted to more than 3,000. The majority were attracted out of sheer curiosity rather than out of sympathy.

French Rioters Sentenced.

BORDEAUX, March 17.—As an outcome of the recent riotous demonstration against the British consulate here, when the windows of the consulate and of the consul's residence were shattered by stones, the three ringleaders of the mob, two students and a clerk, were sentenced to short terms of imprisonment and fines and to pay the costs of the prosecution.

Sudden Deaths In One Family.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 17.—A remarkable fatality has occurred in the family of John Swarts near Deckertown during the past week. Swarts died suddenly, followed by the deaths of his daughters Mary and Huldah, of pneumonia, while another daughter and son are seriously ill.

Hard to Understand.

The announcement made this week by Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, that he proposes to become a candidate for the Republican nomination of Representative in the Eighth Congressional district, in opposition to the re-nomination of Congressman Fowler for a fourth term, has set the politicians guessing. Such a development as this in Republican circles will stir up and set askew all the well-laid plans of the party leaders in Union county.

Up till the time Mr. Bergen announced his candidacy it was generally understood that Congressman Fowler would secure a re-nomination without opposition. But now that the Elizabeth lawyer has made bold to oppose such a move, and step in and capture the honor for himself, the why and wherefore of such a proceeding is puzzling.

For several years Mr. Bergen has been closely identified with the interests of Senator John Kean, and it is suspected that the Sage of Ursino knows more about this political plot than he will be willing to admit for sometime yet. To all appearances, however, Congressman Fowler is on friendly and intimate terms with the Senator, as well as with nearly all the other party leaders in this section. It is perplexing, then, in view of this fact and the additional one that Mr. Fowler is anxious to continue to serve in the House of Representatives, that he is to be antagonized by a man who will undoubtedly disturb the tranquility of his political mind and threaten his ambitions in a way that Mr. Bergen can and will do.

The Elizabeth Journal avers that Mr. Bergen's candidacy is that "of a friendly rival rather than a political antagonist." That sounds pretty and pacifying on paper, but when the matter is sifted to the bottom we imagine that a different state of affairs will be found.

Future developments in this curious political situation will be awaited with more than passing interest.

Ponder Over This.

Thomas P. Fowler, a railroad man who was being examined by the New York State Railroad Commission to determine whether or not there was an unfair effort being made to restrain competition in the carrying of coal from the Pennsylvania mines to the seaboard cities, offered this remarkable piece of evidence:

The new road would, of course, reduce the price of coal, just as if you dumped potatoes on the market without a demand. Without some restriction there would be coal on the market not needed, and stove coal would be a drug at $2 a ton. I suppose that would satisfy the individual operators.

Think of it! Coal a drug on the market at $2 per ton! And the gentleman supposes that it "would satisfy the individual operators." The complacent manner of the coal baron is interesting, instructive and amusing all at once. Whatever this man Fowler may think of the disposition of the "individual operators" we know several million consumers, more or less, who would be highly and perfectly satisfied with coal a drug on the market at $2 per ton.

This is St. Patrick's Day, when every descendant of the Emerald Isle considers it an honor to do reverance to the Patron Saint. To the music of the "Wearing of the Green" many an Irish heart will today throb in sympathetic unison. The 17th of March is never forgotten. It is as religiously observed by sons of "Ould Ireland" as is the Nation's birthday by all Americans. Throughout the British Empire, as well as in this country, St. Patrick's memory will be honored this year as never before. All Irishmen proudly wear sprigs of shamrocks in commemoration of two events—that of the birth of St. Patrick and the gallantry of the Irish Fusiliers in the British-Boer war. The wearing by Irish soldiers in the English Army of the shamrock has always been prohibited. Recently, however, Queen Victoria issued an order giving permission to display the shamrock on St. Patrick's Day in consideration of the bravery of the Celtic sons in recent battles against the Boer forces. This will be an honor highly appreciated by those warm hearted loyal people.

The disbursement of $20,000,000 by the Standard Oil Company in the form of a regular 3 per cent. quarterly dividend and an extra cash dividend of 17 per cent., suggests the Philadelphia Record to say that this fact will serve to direct public attention anew to the enormous profits of this arch monopoly, built upon the ruins of thousands of individual enterprises and private fortunes. The earnings of Mr. Carnegie's steel works, vast though they be, shrink into comparative insignificance when measured with the Pactolean stream that flows regularly into the coffers of a few petroleum princes in this country, says the Record. Certificates of stock in this tremendous combination were quoted recently at 538—showing an actual capital stock value of over $500,000,000. The history of productive industry records no parallel to this creation, within the memory of men still young, of a corporative power of such portentous magnitude and potential energy.

If the Legislature in any State should pass through a whole session without the introduction of some measure aimed at the restriction or the total abolition of the seductive little cigarette, it would be an unusual condition of affairs. Up till Thursday it began to look as though New Jersey was to be treated to such an experience, but on that day all such chances were dashed to atoms by the introduction of a measure by Assemblyman Steelman. Mr Steelman's bill authorizes the governing boards of the different cities and municipalities to provide by ordinance for licensing persons, firms or corporations to sell cigarettes. Before the license can be granted it must be shown by affidavit that the cigarettes to be sold do not contain any injurious drug, narcotic or other deleterious matter, and that the dispenser will not knowingly sell any cigarettes containing such injurious matter.

If Assemblyman Foote's bill, leaving it to the discretion of a jury to decide whether a convicted murderer shall expiate his crime by the hangman's noose or be sentenced to life imprisonment, passes, it will mean the practical end of capital punishment in New Jersey. Under such conditions it will be an extraordinary jury that will mete out the severer penalty. The law should pass.

A Mercer county judge has sentenced six well-known young men to jail for twenty-four hours on conviction of having conducted gambling places in Trenton. The Mercer county judiciary is bound to keep temptation out of the way of our innocent and august Senators and Assemblymen—even if it is for but a day.

Let alone fathering it, no member of the Legislature seems willing even to become a second or third cousin to the anti-spring election bill.

Preparing for Millinery Opening.

Miss Kate Daly, who has charge of Crosby & Hill's millinery department, is very busy at present preparing for their spring opening which takes place Wednesday, March 21st. She is ably assisted by Miss Decker, of New London, Conn. The display this year will be much more comprehensive than anything heretofore attempted by this firm. Great care has been taken with the selection of materials; every thing that is new and stylish is on hand, and combined with Miss Daly's well-known skill and taste as a millinery artist, assures to the patrons of this firm the correct ideas in millinery. All are cordially invited to view the exhibit next week.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

We try to get as near as possible to the man who drinks the Coffee.

To find the best coffee in this country a woman needs only two qualties. She can use a dozen, but she can do it on only two. They are Intelligence and Courage.

Ten women have intelligence and no courage where one has courage and no intelligence. Courage is really what the average woman needs if she wants coffee way up in G.

Now it doesn't require much courage to buy a pound of Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Coffee if you set about it right. The grocer will give it to you in a parchment-lined bag with our seal and signature attesting its high quality. You have really only to drink it.

Even here you run no risk. The man who ate the first oyster took terrible chances. But the only chance you will take is the probability that never again will you be willing to drink any other kind of coffee.

Even then, you will thank us. Ask your grocer for a pound of this coffee to-day.

ROYAL

The absolutely pure

BAKING POWDER

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it assures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Frank Hand, of Park avenue, is out again after a short illness.

Clarence L. Murphy, of Madison avenue, has been ill for several days.

Mrs. F. O. Herring, of Park avenue, is greatly improved from a recent illness.

Mrs. Robinson, of Watchung avenue, is much improved from a recent illness.

Mrs. James Huntington, of the borough, has about recovered from a recent illness.

Hazel Reynolds, of the borough, is greatly improved from a severe attack of facial neuralgia.

Former Councilman Frost has returned to New York after a short visit with Plainfield friends.

Mrs. Ramsom has returned to her home on West Fifth street, after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. O. T. Waring, of Park avenue, has recovered from her recent illness that detained her at home.

Miss Rachel Hall, of North Adams, Mass., is the guest of Miss Adelaide Baxter, of Putnam avenue.

Mrs. Haffy and her daughter, Miss Haffy, of Chicago, are visiting relatives on Westervelt avenue.

Rev. E. E. Jackson, of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, has returned from a visit with out-of-town friends.

Mrs. W. H. McGee, of Westervelt avenue, who is in the south for her health, is reported to be much improved.

A bright baby daughter has arrived to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus J. Searing, of Westervelt avenue.

Carroll L. Runyon, of East Ninth street, returned yesterday to his studies at Yale University after a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenthal have moved from East Front street to the McIntyre building opposite the North Avenue station.

Miss Ella Knebler, of Mauch Chunk, Pa., has joined the force of pleasant saleswomen employed in Lederer's dry goods store.

Mrs. Driggs, of Asbury Park, has returned after spending a number of days with her sister, Miss Henrietta Bonnell, of Manning avenue.

Andrew Huff, of Park avenue, has entirely recovered from the effects of a sprained ankle, caused by falling from a building sometime ago.

Miss May Coleman, daughter of Major and Mrs. F. W. Coleman, sailed today for Cuba with a party of friends. She will be absent several weeks.

August Kleinecke will move the first of next month from his present residence on East Ninth street to the corner of Franklin place and Putnam avenue.

Grace McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McVey, of North avenue, who has been very ill, seems to be steadily improving under the treatment of Dr. Endicott.

Miss Alice Higgins and Miss Edith Hurlbut, of West Front street, will be members of a small party that will witness the performance of "Ben Hur" this evening in New York.

Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, of West Seventh street, who has been at Lakewood for her health and recent illness, is greatly improved, much to the gratification of her many friends.

T. B. Green, of East Front street, and Francis M. Whiteley, of Steiner place, who are in the south for Mr. Green's health, are thoroughly enjoying the pleasant and balmy air to be found in that section of the country.

Mr. Toman, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has been put in charge of the office at the North Avenue station nights. Several operators have been tried for the position, but Mr. Toman seems to fill the bill better than any of the candidates.

Newness

and freshness is in evidence everywhere throughout the store, and especially among the Wash Fabrics and the Spring Dress Goods. Both stocks are now fairly complete, of course there will come a few belated novelties as the designers bring them forth, but that of course is expected. In either of these departments, as elsewhere in the store, you may buy with perfect confidence, we tell you the absolute truth about the materials and stand back of every word we utter. Some hints of advantageous price making are shown today, particularly among the Wash Fabrics. Today's advertising talk is only of two departments but there is much of attractive newness not mentioned here that is well worth coming to see, new neckwear, new hosiery and a lot more charming things fresh from the makers.

Wash Fabrics.

"EVERETT CLASSIC" Dress Ginghams. Can't say how long we will sell them at this price, so better buy now, 5c the yard.

NEW DIMITIES. A very good quality and numerous pretty patterns to select from at an especially attractive price, 8c the yard.

SCOTCH DIMITIES. Better than ever this season, better weave and prettier patterns, 15c the yard.

SWISS MULLS. Made in this country, but exactly like the imported, if they were imported you'd pay a half more and then couldn't tell the difference, 13c the yard.

NEW FOULARDINES. Mercerized cotton, printed in exact imitation of the expensive Foulard Silks. A popular waist fabric, 15c the yard.

CRINKLED GINGHAMS. Delicate shades in a rich and dainty effect, 25c the yard.

Dress Goods.

NEW VERONA PLAIDS. Four combinations in grey, 38 inches wide at 25c the yd.

NEW PLAIDS. Bright colors, 38 inches wide, cotton and wool, suitable for Ladies' Waists and children's dresses, worth 50c, for 39c the yard.

BLUE PEBBLE CLOTH. 46 inches wide, 39c the yd.

ALL WOOL STORM SERGE in both navy blue and black, a fine firm quality that positively will not turn rusty. It's 45 inches wide and 50c the yard.

NEW FRENCH FLANNELS. Plain colors, fancy stripes and figures, light, medium and dark shades, 59c the yard.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 17th—Ground was broken yesterday east of the Dealaman store for a new building to be constructed by Postmaster Dealaman for the use of Henry Wiedenhaupf, the butcher, who will vacate the building now occupied by him. The latter building will be occupied by Garretson & Gray. The new building is to be constructed by H. C. Gaskill.

The smart Alecks were out in full force at Tuesday's election. Some of that ilk displayed their ignorance and boorish proclivities by mutilating certain tickets with a knife and cutting out the names of several candidates. One individual cut out Geo. W. Day's name for Collector and then inscribed beneath "you don't own the town." The name of Isaac H. Stevens, a colored man, was substituted for that of Henry C. Gaskill on fifteen tickets. It is unnecessary to state that Henry Stevens is more respected in the community than the idiot who defaced the ballots.

The Brunswick Traction Company's road was completely tied up yesterday by the heavy storm. The first car came through yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a large drift in the vicinity of Conover's Corners that at first completely baffled all efforts to push a car through.

James Teauzeau, an engineer on drill engine 29, accidentally injured one of his knuckles of his left hand yesterday while working about his engine. Dr. Brakeley dressed the wound. William McMahon is taking Teauzeau's place for a few days.

The Junior Christian Endeavorers of the Presbyterian church are arranging to give a public entertainment soon under the direction of A. A. Lake, the superintendent, and his assistant, Mrs. A. I. Martine.

The topic for the Epworth League meeting at the M. E. church tomorrow evening will be "The New Birth." Mrs. George Schenck will lead.

Mrs. Joseph DeGraw has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Crowell, of 10 Craig place, Plainfield.

The Sunday-school of the Methodist church will rehearse Easter music tomorrow afternoon.

George Kuldoshe has opened a plumbing shop in the borough.

J. H. Fleming has moved from Plainfield to Dunellen.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 17.—Rev. G. M. Shott will take for his subject for Sunday morning's sermon "The Language of Blood." In the evening his pulpit will be occupied by Rev. W. E. Needham, the artist preacher, Mr. Shott occupying Mr. Needham's pulpit in the Calvary Baptist church of Brooklyn. Mr. Needham, who is known as the "artist preacher," will begin at this service a series of revival meetings for two weeks or longer. The public is invited to attend the unique service tomorrow evening. Mr. Needham's recommendation as a preacher, together with his unique way of illustrating his sermons with lightning, drawn charcoal sketches to bring his hearers nearer his subject, will no doubt prove interesting.

The Jolly Six of Plainfield held their annual ball in the Fanwood Hall last evening. Quite a large number of the club's friends were in attendance and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all tripping the light fantistic until the early morning hours.

The newly-elected Township Committee met to organize last evening in the town rooms. After organizing routine business was transacted and the newly-elected officers of the township were sworn in.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., met in their rooms last evening. During the good of the order the council was entertained by a number of selections on the phonograph.

Mrs. John R. Haskard's home on Grand street is being improved by a coat of paint. Henry Kruhn has the contract.

Charles H. French, of Westfield, was the guest of friends in town last evening.

Horace Hand, of Netherwood, was the guest of friends in town last evening.

Miss Lizzie Nichol visited friends in Plainfield yesterday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 17—Quite a number of men were laid off at the coal storage Thursday.

This snow came too late to make much extra work at the storage. It will not be moved, but will be allowed to melt off.

Mrs. Mary McDonough is thinking of building a brick house on her lot on the corner of Church street and Lehigh avenue.

P. J. McDonough will soon commence the erection of two or three new houses on Third street.

eration changing the name of the girls' school to the State Home for Girls, but some of the trustees and lady managers were opposed to the change as the institution was a reformatory and should be known as such. Assemblyman Dexheimer spoke very much in the same strain, but Mr. Meeker said this particular bill did not apply to the girls' school and it would be time enough to consider the wishes of the trustees and lady managers when the bill for changing the name of the girls' school came before the House.

The bill was finally passed with only five votes recorded against it. Another measure was also passed making it a misdemeanor for any person to entice or assist any boy or girl to escape from any reform or industrial school

The House also passed a bill which increases the salary of Adjutant-General Stryker and Quartermaster-General Donnelly from $1,200 to $2 500 a year. At the present time these officials receive the smallest salaries of any of the State officials. The stipend was fixed many years ago when the duties were nominal and did not consume much time, but the National Guard has now grown to more than four thousand officers and men. During the Spanish American War the two officers in question were constantly required in camp preparing troops for the service and received no extra compensation. As it is now the clerks in both departments receive more pay than their superiors. There was little or no opposition to the bill.

Proceedings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, N. J., held on Thursday, March 1st, 1900, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present—18

The minutes of the previous meeting, reading of bills being omitted, were on motion approved as read.

PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

From Wm. J. Carlton, Esq., as follows, viz:

March 1, 1900.

J. Frank Hubbard, Esq.,
Director Board of Chosen Freeholders, Union Co.

Dear Sir: The last grand jury referred to a committee of its number a petition as to the disposition of incorrigible offenders, and to confer with your body on the subject. It is requested that you appoint a similar committee to consider the subject matter. Yours respectfully,
Wm. J. Carlton, Chm.

Freeholder Farrell moved that the communication be received, placed on file, and that the director appoint a committee as requested, to consist of three (3) members of this board. The motion was adopted without dissent, and the director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Farrell, Roll and Brucklacher.

From Cigarmakers' Union, No. 427, of Rahway, N. J., as follows:

To the honorable the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union and State of New Jersey:

Gentlemen — We understand that there is a petition before your honorable body from the Printers' Union requesting you to have your printing done by union printers. We heartily endorse their action, and hope that you will kindly grant them their request.

We remain respectfully,
Cigarmakers' Union, No. 427, of Rahway, N. J.
Jacob Kraus, Pres.
Chas. Mintel, Cor. Sec.

On motion of Freeholder Miller received and placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Freeholder Hulskamper:

Resolved, That in the future all printing done for the county of Union of the State of New Jersey, of whatever kind or nature, shall bear the imprint of the Typographical Union label. Freeholder Burnett moved the adoption of the resolution, and after some discussion as to how the publication of the minutes of the board might be affected in certain newspapers if the resolution were adopted, the said resolution was adopted without dissent.

By Freeholder Wahl:

Resolved, That this Board appoint an engineer to make the necessary surveys and prepare the necessary specifications for the building of road in New Providence township, as applied for by virtue of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this State," approved March 22d, 1895, and the amendments thereto.

On motion of Freeholder King the resolution was adopted without dissent.

Freeholder Farrell moved that F. J. Hubbard be appointed engineer as provided in the resolution just adopted, and Mr. Hubbard was so appointed, receiving 17 affirmative votes on roll call. Director Hubbard not voting.

By Freeholder Robison:

Resolved, That this board appoint an engineer to make the necessary surveys and prepare the necessary specifications for the building of the road in Fanwood township as applied for under and by virtue of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the permanent improvement of public roads in this state," approved March 22d, 1899, and the amendments thereto.

On motion of Freeholder Brucklacher the resolution was adopted without dissent.

Freeholder Farrell moved that J. L. Bauer be appointed engineer as provided in the resolution just adopted, and Mr. Bauer was so appointed, receiving 18 affirmative votes on roll call.

The following bills, properly audited and approved, were read, and on roll call unanimously ordered paid, viz:

A FAITHFUL DOG.

How He Saved the Lives of a Party of Prospectors in the Alaskan Mountains.

Last winter a party of prospectors were camped on the Valdes, one of Alaska's great glaciers. Day after day they had worked their way forward, death disputing every foot with them, until it was decided that the main party should remain in camp, and two of their number, accompanied only by a dog, should endeavor to find a trail which would lead away from the glacier.

For days the two men wandered, until nature succumbed and they lay down, weary and exhausted. Their faithful companion clung to them, and the warmth of his body was grateful, as they crouched low with the bitter ice-laden wind howling about them.

Their scanty stock of provisions was well-nigh exhausted, when one of them suggested sending the dog back to camp. This was a forlorn hope, but their only one. Quickly writing a few words on a leaf torn from a book, they made it fast around the dog's neck and encouraged him to start back on the trail.

The sagacious animal did not appear to understand, but after repeated efforts they persuaded him to start, and he was soon swallowed up in the snow, the mist and the storm.

Two days and nights passed, during which the men suffered untold agonies. On the evening of the third day, when all hope had gone and they were becoming resigned to their fate, out of the blinding and drifting snow bounded the faithful dog, and close behind him came ready hands to minister to their wants.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Figures Didn't Tell Truth.

One night a young man in Divinity hall at Yale undertook, with a toy rifle, to hit a lamp, but his aim was poor, and the ball passed through the window of an eminent professor of science, and hit the wall. This was an opportunity for science, and the professor set to work and computed the curve, and traced the ball right back to the room of an innocent student who didn't even know that the rifle had been fired. In vain the student protested his innocence. There were the infallible figures to prove his guilt, and it might have resulted in his suspension, when the real culprit came forward and confessed. He convinced the professor that he had made a mistake of 300 feet in his figures, and the man of science was only too glad to drop the matter right there.

ACCESSORIES.

Pretty Additions to the Costume of the Moment.

The fashion of wearing ornaments in the hair in the evening is establishing itself firmly. These ornaments are not merely combs or fancy pins, but aigrets of tulle, flowers and feathers, bows of ribbon, big butterflies and Mercury wings of lace and spangles.

The little headdresses intended for theater wear are too small to be called bonnets and are, in fact, scarcely more than hair ornaments. One, for example, is a twist of pink velvet forming a little circle, with three pink marabous in front, the rib being defined by a line of crystals. Another consists of three mauve marabous rising from a chou of tulle of the same shade.

CLOTH BODICE.

The newest veils have chenille dots of unequal size and are very odd in appearance.

Bows formed of many ruffles of black or white mousseline de soie are much worn with theater and visiting costumes, but not for walking in the street.

Today's illustration shows a bodice of satin cloth. It is tight and has short coattails at the back, while in front it opens over a vest of plaited silk. The fronts are trimmed with diagonal bands of black velvet, terminating in a loop, with a crystal button, and the close sleeves are also encircled by velvet bands. The wide pelerine collar and the high, flaring collar are of guipure, the latter being trimmed with velvet bands.

FUTURE FASHIONS.

Hints of Styles For the Approaching Season.

Fur, being very fashionable, is to be worn as late into the spring as possible, so the question of packing it away for the summer will be long deferred. Indeed fur capes and boas will be used at the seaside and mountain resorts for chilly days and evenings. During the spring they are to be worn with street costumes without other wraps.

The first spring gowns are those for walking. The new models are chiefly of cloth or woolen fabrics and are much adorned with incrustations and embroidery. For more delicate costumes ruches and puffings of mousseline de soie continue to be in great favor as a decoration.

The princess style of dress, much employed this winter, is increasingly employed and promises to figure largely among summer fashions when the material chosen is heavy enough to sanction it.

A picture is given of a spring street costume. The skirt of black satin is laid in deep plaits, except in front, the plaits being stitched as far down as the knee. Below that they are free, forming a flounce. The bodice, which is of bright plaid silk, is fitted at the back and stretched in front and has a wide collar and revers bordered with narrow mixed silk fringe. The revers terminate in coquilles. The very narrow belt is covered with jet nail heads, and a white tulle cravat is worn. The toque of cherry panne is decorated with a gold and jeweled horseshoe and two brown and white quills.

MR. SHELDON'S PAPER.

View of Its First Appearance Under His Management.

POLICY OF THE CHRISTIAN DAILY.

Well Known Minister Outlines His Ideas of How He Believes One Should Be Edited—Instructions to His Reporters—Paper to Be Non-partisan In Politics.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon, in assuming control the other day of the Topeka Capital, made known his policy in a leading editorial under the caption "The Topeka Capital This Week." He says:

"Last December the owners of the Topeka Daily Capital asked me to assume entire charge of the paper for one week and edit it as a distinctively Christian daily. I accepted the invitation on condition that I receive no financial compensation and that a share of the profits be used for some benevolent work and named the week beginning Tuesday, March 13, 1900, as the week for the experiment.

"With the hearty co-operation of every person connected with the paper and with the help of the wisdom that I have prayed might be given me from him who is wiser than any of us, I shall do the best I can. If a thousand different Christian men who wished to edit Christian dailies should make an honest attempt to do so, the result might be a thousand different papers in very many places.

"It is, of course, furthest from my purpose to attempt to show in a dogmatic way what is the one thing that Jesus would do in every case. The only thing I or any other Christian man can do in the interpretation of what is Christian in the conduct of this paper is to define the term 'Christian' as the best that can be done after asking for divine wisdom. With this understanding, I will state in part its general purpose and politics.

"It will be a newspaper. The word 'news' will be defined as anything in the way of daily events that the public ought to know for its development and power in a life of righteousness. Of necessity the editor of this paper or every other paper with this definition of news will determine not only the kind, but the quantity, of any particular event which ought to be printed.

"The importance of one kind of news compared with another kind will also determine the place in the paper in which matter will be printed. If it seems to the editor that it contain subjects representing great causes that belong to the profoundest principle of human life and are the most important, they will be given the first part of the paper.

"It might easily become the settled policy of a prominent paper similar to this one to consider the detailed account of an unusual battle of less importance to the reader than an account of the usual daily destruction being caused by liquor. The first page of The Capital this week will contain what seems to the editor to be the most essential issues that affect humanity as a whole. The paper will be nonpartisan not only in state politics, but also in national politics."

Commands to His Reporters.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon's idea of the class of news that should be printed in a daily Christian newspaper, the manner in which it should be obtained and handled, is embodied in the eight instructions given to the reporters of the Topeka Capital when they reported for duty the other day. Here they are:

1. Avoid the use of slang in writing reports—both words and phrases.
2. Submit all interviews to the persons interviewed.
3. If a reporter is assigned to interview a person and the person does not wish to talk, do not insist upon it. Do not quote a man unwillingly.
4. No theatrical news of any kind is wanted.
5. Sporting news—only clean sports are wanted. Athletic sports and clean sporting events will be covered.
6. In reporting crime go into the causes, but avoid the horrible details. Find out if liquor or something else caused the criminal act.
7. Political stories must be nonpartisan. Don't use "Pop" to designate the Populist party.
8. Scandals—Avoid them; waste no time on them; they will not be printed.

The following is a representation of some of the heads and articles on the first page of Mr. Sheldon's paper:

MORNING PRAYER AND RESOLVE.

By Bishop Vincent.

I will try this day to live a simple, sincere, serene life, repelling every thought of discontent, self seeking and anxiety, cultivating magnanimity, self control and the habit of silence, practicing economy, cheerfulness and helpfulness.

And, as I cannot in my own strength do this or even with a hope of success attempt it, I look to thee, O Lord, my Father, in Jesus Christ, my Saviour, and ask for the gift of the Holy Spirit.

STARVING INDIA.

FIFTY MILLION PEOPLE AFFLICTED BY THE FAMINE.

Conditions Growing Worse Instead of Better—The Urgent Need of Aid From America.

The Capital knows of no more important matter of news the world over this morning than the pitiable condition of famine stricken India. We give the latest and fullest available information of the progress of the scourge in the following articles. If every reader of this paper will give 10 cents to the relief fund for this terrible Indian famine, we may be able to save thousands of lives. Will you do it? Let us all have a share in helping our brother man. For these 50,000,000 starving creatures are a part of that human family which Jesus taught us to love when he taught us to say Our Father. CHARLES M. SHELDON.

HER BITTER CRY.

India Hardly Recovered Yet from the Famine of 1897.

By the Rev. J. E. Abbott, of the Bombay Mission.

Among the sad nations India today stands first. Hardly recovered from the great famine of 1897, another has now commenced, and 1900 will perhaps tell as terrible a tale of woe as any past year of this century can do. The cry for help is weekly growing louder, as destitution grows deeper and starvation comes nearer. The benevolent heart of this country has not yet responded to the cry from that faroff land.

The newspapers of this country have as yet given but little information on the progress of the famine. In the din of war the moaning of the hungry has not been heard, but week by week the fearful specter of famine draws nearer and nearer, and India's cry will not long be unheard or unresponded to.

Relief Measures of the Government.

The government has a printed "famine code" which has been drawn up from past experience of famines, and as soon as a famine is threatening its suggestions and rules go into force. After every famine this code is revised so as to have incorporated in it every practice that has been found efficient.

The chief measures are: 1. Relief works, such as making common railroad embankments and improving the irrigation of the country. 2. Kitchens for the children and for those too weak to work.

Methods of Missionary Relief.

The principle generally followed is to help without pauperizing practical applications, one of which is the following: Opening of depots where grain is sold at cost price.

This not only benefits the poorest, but helps greatly to keep down the price of grain in the market, which at such times the avaricious and heartless grain dealers run up to exorbitant rates.

Another helpful form of relief is to keep men at their occupations by buying their products at a rate sufficient to support them. Thousands of hand looms are thus kept active.

For those too weak to work and with no means of buying grain, there is its free distribution and the temporary or permanent care of children left orphans or abandoned by their parents.

Will not the sympathetic feelings of America's manhood and womanhood respond to India's cry? It's a cry now. It will be a terrible wail of woe before long. The time to help is now.

WHAT LORD CURZON SAYS.

The British Viceroy's Impressive Statement of the Crisis.

Lord Curzon, the viceroy of India, has lately issued an official statement regarding the extent of the famine in that country. The area affected is about 350,000 square miles, having a population of 30,000,000 people.

It includes nearly all the central provinces—the Berars, North Deccan and Guzarat in the Bombay presidency, besides the southeast and central Punjab.

It also includes the native states in central and western India, the large group of native states north of Bombay, Baroda, Indore and virtually the whole of Rajputana.

The number of people affected in the famine of 1896-7 was 52,000,000. The present famine oppresses a somewhat smaller population, but in Rajputana and north Bombay the distress promises to be greater than in the previous famine, just as the present drought has exceeded the memorable one of 1868.

The relief offered by the government of India and by the provinces affected consists in the giving of work to the ablebodied and in the establishment of kitchens for the children and for the too weak to work.

Large quantities of hay are being sent into the famine area to save the cattle on which the agriculturists are dependent.

The government of India may be depended on for an earnest and sympathetic effort to save life, but the problem is a terrible one and needs the supplementary help of the generous of all lands, for the situation is rapidly growing worse.

The latest report is that the number of men and women applying for "relief work" had increased about 100,000 over the previous week.

In north Guzarat cases of starvation to death are occurring; parents are abandoning their children because unable to support them and unable to see them die before their eyes; emaciated men, women and children are met on the roads trying to reach places where food can be found; children are born by the roadside, and their mothers die because they have no food; children reduced to skeletons are found deserted and dying.

That such cases should be found so early in the famine makes the prospect very alarming, for matters must grow worse every week until the rains of next July. It is not too soon for us in this country to remember the Indian famine in our benefactions.

The best help is that which comes at the beginning of a famine, for many can be kept on their feet at a minimum of cost who would otherwise fall into hopeless destitution, and the best avenue for our aid is through the missionaries representing the various American mission boards.

HEART-RENDING SCENES.

People Abandon Their Children or Bury Them Alive.

By Rev. H. J. Bruce.

One reason why this famine is expected to be worse than the last one is that the water supply seems to be giving out in many parts of the country.

A mission school in Berar is so hard pressed that the children have to walk six miles to find water enough to wash their clothes. Many others have to buy water as they buy bread.

I have passed through two dreadful famines in India in 1877 and 1897 and have witnessed some fearful scenes. I have seen children so reduced by starvation that when food was offered to them they could not eat it, and the only way to nourish them was to rub cod liver oil over their shrunken bodies.

One little fellow in our own orphanage at Satara was so far gone that our best efforts could not save him. He lingered along between life and death for several months and then passed away.

It seems strange to us in America that parents in India who are reduced to such extremeties should be willing and even eager to dispose of their little children, and especially their little girls, in any way possible. In this country mothers would give their own lives to save the lives of their children, but in India we find parents selling their little girls for a rupee or even less.

Sometimes they desert their children in the streets or in the jungle, and occasionally they try to kill them outright.

The last mail brought us letters from missionaries in Ahmednagar, in which the following cases are mentioned: A little girl was left by her parents behind a prickly pear hedge. They pinged some of the fruit of the prickly pear—eaten only in case of desperate want—by her side and promised to return soon and bring some more. But they never came.

Another little girl, according to her own story, was taken by her mother to the edge of a pool of water. The mother was about to push her into the water when the child begged her not to do it, but to let her go and she would beg for bread and not trouble mother any more. Both of these little girls were brought to a missionary lady in Ahmednagar and were tenderly cared for.

The government is making gigantic efforts to meet these famine conditions, but with a large portion of western, central and northern India involved the government cannot reach the entire need.

Thirty millions of people are without proper food.

THE WAR SPIRIT.

A PHYSICIAN DIAGNOSES IT AS MILITARY FEVER.

A Disease Epidemic in All Latitudes. The Causes, Dangers and Cure.

("Extracts from 'Militarism,' by Richard M. Thomas, M. D., of Baltimore.")

Militarism or military fever is a condition which profoundly affects both individuals and nations, and its allied states were for centuries held to be evidences of sound health, but long since certain careful observers showed that so far from this being the case they are diseased conditions, malnutrition and want of development of the higher power of man.

The disease in one or other of its many forms is endemic in all latitudes and is liable at any time to become locally epidemic, excitement, with great unrest and often with violence of thought and language, in which symptoms of pride and arrogance are generally, though not invariably, mingled.

Nearly always there is a distortion of vision, with an utter inability to see any side of a question but one, and only this in the light of heat.

England's Favored Hero.

Little Bugler Dunn of the Dublin fusileers, who is at present the most favored hero of England, is not Irish, as his name would seem to indicate, at least not by birth, says the New York Commercial Advertiser. He was born and raised on the Isle of Man, where his mother's family have lived for generations. He will not go back to South Africa in spite of his wish to do so.

The Annual Fever.

We're hunting a house. Do you know of one
With bath and a furnace and closets and gas,
Well, cistern and faucets and plenty of sun
And a plat in front having lots of grass,
A garret where traps can be stored away
And a nice back yard for Bobbie and Sue,
And a barn for the horse and eats and hay
And a summer kitchen and woodshed too?

We're hunting a house, and it must be where
The children can easily walk to school,
Not too far out from the courthouse square,
But still the location must be cool.
The paper and paint must be fresh and clean,
The place in the best condition be.
Perchance you've a house that should be seen;
Please tell us where we can get the key.

We're hunting a house, as the one we're in
For fully a year has sheltered us;
Hence now it is time that we begin
To have our annual "moving" fuss.
The season is here, and a vague unrest
Has driven the people by hundreds mad,
So we will change to a neighbor's nest,
And others will enter the one we've had.

IT'S DIFFERENT

THE NORTH AMERICAN (PHILADELPHIA)

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it prints all the news, and all the news it prints is true.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it's bright and brisk, up-to-date and vigorous, but not yellow.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because its only policy is to tell the truth. It has no covert or personal interests to promote. It serves no political ambition, no creed, no class prejudice, no mere partisan purpose.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it advocates equal taxation and battles against the existing system, which favors the rich corporation at the expense of the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer and the wage-earner.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it stands for Republican principles, and makes war upon all who, under the stolen name of Republicanism, are disloyal to those principles.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it believes manhood and not money should rule. Therefore it upholds the rights of all, as against the aggressive power of the privileged few.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because no boss, no corporation, can control one line of its space.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it is nonsectarian and broad; every party, every faith, every class, and the workingman equally with the millionaire, gets a fair hearing in its columns.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it upholds faith in humanity, and the progress of mankind toward higher ideals, larger hopes and better living.

ONE CENT Everywhere

IT'S DIFFERENT. It will continue to be different. Watch The North American and see it grow.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The city jail hasn't a warden any more and so Warden Tommy Martin is out of a job. When he went out of the city's employ, he was presented with $25 from Mayor Rockfellow and Councilman Buckle. Tommy wishes The Press to express his thanks to these gentlemen, and say that he is willing at any time to serve the city in the old capacity should it be desired.

Elston M. French, of Somerset street, has just returned after a visit to the ranch of his brother, Richard French, in Texas, where he had some very pleasant experiences. The ranch is seventeen miles from the town of Graham and the nearest neighbor was two and a half miles away. While Mr. French was there they had a wolf hunt but the wolf managed to get away after a long run. The weather was delightful until a "norther" set in. The "norther" resembles the blizzard except that the snow is lacking. The wind blows a gale and the cold is intense.

The Passaic News has a gossipy department, which it designates "Not Exactly News." Something published therein did not meet the approval of a physician of the town, who expressed his opinion of the department succinctly as follows:

"Editor Daily News:
"Your 'Not Exactly News'
"Is Just Precisely Rot.
"Very truly yours,
"W. H. Stemmerman."

The News published the note and added: "Dr. Stemmerman will contribute regularly to this department hereafter." The opinion in Passaic is that the editor is about one lap ahead.

It is safe betting that the editor of the Bound Brook Chronicle is these days confining his rambles closely to the north shore of the Raritan. In his last issue he perpetrated the following libel on the feminine population of South Bound Brook: "For a few nights this week the streets of South Bound Brook are said to have been lined with the gentler sex, some even coming from the borough. At first considerable surprise was manifested at such an unusual occurrence, but when it was noised about that the New York papers of Monday morning had contained stories of the presence of a 'Jack the kisser and hugger' on the South Side, all wonder ceased. The space writers had portrayed most vividly how Jack had stepped from behind a tree or dropped from one of the limbs and stolen kisses from several, generally with his face veiled. How aggravating that a man should wear a veil, and several threats were made that the mask would be torn from his face so that Jack's whiskers might be felt where whiskers had never been encountered before. But even though the earth has been well trodden by the vigilance of our gentler sex around all the trees in the darkest spots of town, not a single kisser has appeared as yet. Many are living in hope, however."

Good Time of Junior League.

At the meeting of the Junior League of the Monroe Avenue church yesterday afternon, the following programme was presented: Piano solo, Miss Aldrich; vocal solo, Mrs. O'Donnell; recitation, Jno. Rittenhouse; recitation, Sidney Gilbert; recitation, Jennie Thompson; recitation, May Gilbert; recitation, Flossie Gilbert; reading, Alice Ludie; song, Minnie Ludie; song, May Gesell; reports of secretary and treasurer; address by Mrs. Wheaton Lowry. William Fielding, the president of the league, announced the numbers and refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Aldrich.

Grand Master Paid a Visit.

Grand Master Workman Lambert, of Newark, paid an official visit to Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., last evening. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the members, many of whom were in attendance. One candidate was installed and speeches were made by the grand master and by V. W. Nash, supervising deputy and grand overseer of the order. After the speeches a smoker was enjoyed, and some of the members enjoyed themselves pitching quoits.

SUPPOSE!

SUPPOSE ! your house is on fire, what is the easiest way to summon the Fire Department?

SUPPOSE ! a member of your household is suddenly and dangerously ill, immediate attendance of a physician means LIFE or DEATH, how most quickly obtain that attendance?

SUPPOSE ! any one of the many emergencies when Police aid is desirable or vitally necessary, how may these guardians of life and property be instantly notified?

SUPPOSE ! unexpected guests arrive, the larder is low and the dinner hour near, how connect with the butcher, the baker and the confectioner and hurriedly gather the supplies that shall make the dinner a credit to the housekeeper?

SUPPOSE ! you wish to gather a group of guests for an evening to do honor to an occasion or a friend—how most conveniently communicate with their acceptance or regrets?

SUPPOSE ! you are interested in the Stock Market, or commercial matters of any sort, but desire to stop at your country house for a few days—how keep in constant touch with Wall Street and the market centres?

SUPPOSE ! you want seats for the Play, a box for the Opera, a carriage for a drive to engage places at a restaurant—how in incredibly short time arrange it all?

SUPPOSE ! you are obliged to travel, leaving a member of your family ill at home—how can you receive news at any station from Boston to Omaha—from Montreal to Key West?

SUPPOSE ! you are worried and flurried and bored by the petty details of living—the marketing, the shopping and the annoyance of the hustling streets—how sit in your office or library and press a button which shall do it all for you?

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

One of the cleverest farce-comedies that has been produced here for several years is to be given at Music Hall this evening. "Our Regiment," from the pen of a well-known German playwright, has been put into English and has proved as great a success in this language as in that of the Germans. The Romain comedy players, which includes only the best professional talent, are not new in the play and have given it before with much success. It will be preceded by the curtain-raiser, "Put to the Test," a pantomime of much cleverness, in which Mr. Romain and Miss Ruth Berkley will appear. A word should be said of Mr. Romain, who is at the head of the company and who has a number of personal acquaintances in this city, having spent the summer here. The Providence News commented on his work in this same play when he appeared in it there last season and said: "William J. Romain appeared in the leading part of Lieut. Guy Warrener, Eighth Irish Lanciers, and kept the audience in continual merriment whenever he was on the stage by his droll comedy and perfect rendition of the foppish, far-sighted and good-natured young officer."

* * * * * *

There are probably more novelties with Al Reeves' famous big company, which will be seen at Music Hall Monday night, than has ever been offered the theatre-going public in a like organization. Of all the double companies of white and Creole artists, the Al Reeves Company stands distinctly alone as the acme of perfection in all that is claimed for it. To begin with, the Creole contingent are not dragged in simply because of their color or acknowledged vocal ability, but they appear through a reasonable reason. In the customary first part they are presented in a unique minstrel entertainment, embellished with magnificent scenic and electrical surroundings. This minstrel display is followed by what is termed a "White House" reception, which employs the entire strength of the company, and wherein some of the most beautiful modern costumes are worn. Indeed, the Al Reeves show may without braggadocia be called the best dressed organization of its kind in America. Reeves is nothing if not prompt, and always keeps faith with the public. You can attend an Al Reeves show with an assurance that you will get the best performance of the season.

BERGEN'S BOOM.

Politicians Believe that Senator Kean is Back of It—Bergen Being Congratulated.

The candidacy of Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, for Congress, has aroused the liveliest kind of an agitation in political circles throughout Union county. Mr. Bergen says he has received dozens of letters from all parts of the Eighth Congressional District commending his step and pledging assurances of support.

It is strongly suspected among the politicians that Senator Kean is back of the Bergen boom. He is a close personal friend of Mr. Bergen.

To Wear Chinese Costume.

Rev. E E. Aiken, a missionary of the American Board in China, will give an address at a special Christain Endeavor meeting at the Congregational church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. He will appear in Chinese costume and will exhibit some curios brought from the Celestial Empire. He will tell something of the life and work in China. Rev. Mr. Aiken was a classmate of Rev. Mr. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, while at the Yale Theological Seminary.

Poor Sale for Dr. Sheldon's Paper.

Newsdealers of Plainfield do not find a great demand for the Topeka Daily Capital, the paper being edited by Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon, the author of "In His Steps." One dealer has sold fifteen copies and another less than half a dozen.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

A handicap pool tournament was started in Krewson's pool room the first of the year with twenty entries, and has since attracted considerable attention among the local pool players. There have been many exciting games. One of the provisions of the contest was that when any player should be defeated seven times, he should withdraw. Out of the twenty players, nine have now withdrawn. In handicapping the scratch men have to score a hundred points in each game, while the handicap men make only 75 or 60 points. The standing of the contestants is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.
Sutter'ine, 75	14	1

T. E. Morgans, of Liberty, N. Y., is lying seriously ill at that place of nervous prostration.

Miss Eva Estelle Wilkins, of East Fifth street, is spending a few days with friends in New York and Orange.

Mrs. L. M. Cramer, of Changewater, Warren county, is stopping at the home of John S. Hope, East Third street.

Archbishop and Mrs. Lewis, of Toronto, who have been the guests of Mrs. W. L. Patton, West Fifth street, left this morning for Philadelphia.

James McCann, of South Second street, is critically ill with pneumonia. He was taken last Sunday and since then has steadily been growing worse.

DR. WESTCOTT'S REASON.

Facts Concerning Unjust Criticism of the County Physician.

The article that appeared in yesterday's News criticizing the action of County Physician Westcott in the case of Conductor Brady, who was killed on the Jersey Central Railroad near Cranford, did Dr. Westcott a great injustice.

The accident occurred at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the Courier declared that the body had to lie where the accident occurred until the next morning on account of the failure of the County Physician to arrive.

The fact of the case is that the County Physician long ago instructed the railway people to move a body to the nearest undertaker's establishment in case of accident without waiting for the County Physician. Tuesday Dr. Westcott was in attendance on Mrs. McGowan in Scotch Plains. She was in a very critical condition.

Dr. Westcott made arrangements by telephone with Undertaker Gray, of Cranford, to take charge of the remains which was done. The undertaker from Staten Island where Brady had lived, was anxious to take the body away at once but Dr. Westcott decided that he would have to wait until the next morning.

Reception to Miss Curry

A reception will be tendered Miss Sarah Curry this evening at the Eleventh Street M. E. church, New York, on the occasion of her fifth anniversary in the local missionary field. Miss Curry is the matron of the West field Fresh Air Camp and is well known to many citizens of Plainfield. It is expected that a number from this city will attend the reception.

POLITICAL SITUATION AMONG THE CHINESE.

A Mission Worker Explains the Causes of Trouble in Native Ranks.

DR. AIKEN THE SPEAKER.

DELIVERED AN ADDRESS IN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Declares That the Ill Feeling of Natives Against Certain Missionaries Was Brought About by the Missionaries Themselves.

Some interesting statements concerning the political situation in China at the present day were made by Rev. E. E. Aiken in the course of a missionary address at the Congregational church last evening. Rev. Mr. Aiken has been serving at the missions of the American board in northern China and came to this country on account of the death of his wife which necessitated placing his two children in school in America. He graduated from the Yale Divinity School the same year with Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church. Yesterday he spoke at the morning service at Rev. Mr. Goodrich's church and addressed the Christian Endeavor Society in the evening.

During the course of the latter speech, he sketched the present political situation in China. He told of the revolution there a short time ago when the Dowager Empress secured possession of the reins of government, and, how, since that time, the anti-foreign faction of China had been steadily gaining in power. He referred to the troubles in the province of Shan-tung, where a secret society, known as the "Boxers," had demolished the property of foreigners and driven the Christian natives from their homes. These riots had resulted in a demand on the imperial government by the foreign powers that the Governor be removed. He was removed, but Mr. Aiken said, a recent despatch tells that it was only to be given another important office.

While these troubles in Shan-tung were primarily the result of the hatred of the foreigners, Mr. Aiken pointed out another cause that had its influence in arousing the "Boxers" to active demonstration against the foreigners. It was greatly to be regretted, but it was nevertheless a fact that some of the mission workers used their political influence in behalf of native Christians, when the latter became involved in lawsuits and other legal troubles. The mission workers did possess a certain amount of influence and it was a great temptation, he said, to bring it to the aid of the converts. In many cases these legal troubles were brought without reason and simply to persecute the followers of the Christian faith. This interference, however righteous, had its effect in stirring up the populace and increasing the hatred of the foreigners.

Mr. Aiken told of the sending of an American man-of-war to China last week at the request of the American Association of Shanghai on account of these same troubles. He seemed convinced that internal strife in China was imminent, but made no attempt to foretell the result to the Nation or to the mission work.

Mr. Aiken was attired in a complete Chinese costume and showed a number of interesting curios from the Celestial Kingdom. During his address he sketched briefly the work of the missions and their growth. The meeting was largely attended and at its conclusion many lingered to converse with the missionary.

Cosgrove is Now Home.

Word was received Saturday from Walter Long telling of the safe arrival of himself and William Cosgrove, the young man whom he took to his home in Oakland, Cal. The two arrived a week ago last evening and Cosgrove did not seem to be any the worse for the long trip. His folks were delighted to have him home once more and the young man had nothing but praise to speak of the kind treatment he had received.

DEATH OF A JUNIOR.

Harry C. Ackerman Succumbed Yesterday to Ravages of Consumption.

Harry C. Ackerman, aged about 30 years, of 75 Summit avenue, died yesterday morning about 7 o'clock at the home of his father, Cornelius Ackerman, of Clinton avenue. He had been confined to the house for a month and death was due to consumption. Mr. Ackerman was born in this city and has lived here all his life. He was a member of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the Independent Fife and Drum Corps. He had a host of friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. He was a machinist by trade and worked until a month ago. He leaves a wife, who was formerly Miss Lottie Mills, of the borough, and a young child. He also leaves several sisters, a brother and a father. The funeral services will be held from the Monroe Avenue church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The members of the two organizations of which he was a member will turn out in a body.

PLAYED TO HIBERNIANS.

"OUR REGIMENT" FAVORABLY RECEIVED AT MUSIC HALL.

William J. Romain and Others of Cast Gave Pleasing Rendition of Comedy.

"Our Regiment" appeared at Music Hall Saturday evening under the auspices of Division No. 4, A. O. H. Its appearance was a decided success. There was a large audience to witness the performance, which proved to be all that was claimed for it, a jolly farce comedy well acted. The play itself was good and the Romain comedy players handled it with spirit.

The pantomime, "Put to the Test," that preceded the play, was something new to Plainfield theatre-goers, but it found immediate favor. It was a clever artistic sketch, in which the participants accomplished the really difficult feat of holding the attention of the audience without saying a word. William J. Romain and Miss Ruth Berkeley portrayed an artist and his sweetheart, the latter masquerading as her lover's maid and trying to test his love. The part of the maid was taken by Miss Lucy Harris. The musical accompaniment was by the author, Harvey Worthington Loomis.

"Our Regiment" was based on the visit of the Eighth Irish Lancers to "Mudborough-on-Slush." Three separate veins of romance became delightfully confused during the progress of the play and a host of funny things happened. It was good, clean humor, while the action was continuous and without a dull moment to retard it.

Mr. Romain was excellent as the young lieutenant. His mannerisms were clever. While rather a shallow sort of a man, this lieutenant adapted himself to circumstances in a way that was truly wonderful. His love-making was delightful.

Malcoln Arthur, as "Samuel Dobbinson," was a great success. His dramatic collapse from the indignant parent and guardian to the humble and obedient husband was one of the cleverest parts. "Mrs. Dobbinson," impersonated by Mrs. Emma Brennan-Ince, carried the day and the audience as well on the occasion of these domestic encounters. Frank N. Drew, as "Mr. Ellaby," also contributed largely to the success of the performance. His comedy was on a high-class.

Miss Audrey Kent and Miss Jeanette Connor played the parts of the daughter and niece of old "Dobbinson" with much life and spirit. Miss Lucy Harris was a charming niece for the enthusiastic "Ellaby" and played her part cleverly. Frederick Lewis, as the "Curate," was particularly strong in his attempted parochial discourses. Stanley Jessup looked and acted the "Lancer Captain" very satisfactorily. H. W. Tomlinton made a good butler.

Railroad Sued for $50,000
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Jersey City, March 19.—Papers in a suit for $50,000 have been filed against the Central Railroad Company by Lawyer Jarvis Atkinson on behalf of Miss Hannah Collins, who was struck by a train at the Communipaw Avenue station October 1st last and seriously injured. Miss Collins was struck by a wildcat engine on the Newark and New York line and thrown seventy-five feet. Her leg was broken in two places, spine injured and head cut. Doctors say she will be an invalid for life. Mr. Atkinson says that the company has offered $7,000 to settle the case.

FIRST TRIAL HELD IN NEW POLICE STATION

A Gay and Hilarious Party Rounded Up By Police Early Yesterday Morning.

$5 OR TEN DAYS IN JAIL.

HUGHIE O'DONNELL'S JOKE COST HIM THREE DOLLARS.

Uncle Opened a Bottle of Home-Made Wine With the Result of Nephew Trying to Throw the Host Out of a Window.

The first trial held in the new police station in the Olympia building took place yesterday morning. As if by some peculiar fate it was recognized that the official debut of the cadi should be of more than ordinary interest on that occasion, there were six prisoners arraigned before the rail. The party had been having a gay and hilarious time in the home of Mrs. Carrie Reuter, on East Fourth street.

The prisoners were, besides Mrs. Reuter, Mary Nelson, Mabel Wilson, Wm. Drake, Wm. Creiger and Michael Muldowney. According to the stories told and admitted by all hands, the boys had accepted an invitation to make what they politely termed to be "a social call," even though the time of calling was beyond the midnight hour.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Patrolman Vanderweg heard a series of unearthly cries coming from a house on East Fourth street. He investigated and found the disturbance in the rooms occupied by Mrs. Reuter. Securing the aid of Patrolman McCarthy, Vanderweg went to Mrs. Reuter's domicile and quietly stole up the back stairs. The officers listened for an hour at the back door and then made a demand to be let in.

The request was complied with and as a result they rounded up the party and took them to the police station. When arraigned before Judge Runyon the boys all pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. The women told conflicting stories, and after questioning the whole party for an hour the Judge decided to impose a fine of $5 or ten days in the county jail on all

The fines of the boys were immediately paid. The girls were detained until this morning and finally succeeded in raising the money to pay their fines.

Hughie O'Donnell likes to joke occasionally. It was all a joke, he explained to City Judge Runyon this morning, when he said to Patrolman Saffron, "You're to —— fresh." There were othere remarks of a similar nature. After due deliberation, the Judge thought it ought to be worth $3 to Hughie. Mrs. O'Donnell paid the fine.

Hughie O'Donnell lives on South Second street. His prominence in illegal liquor selling cases has given him considerable acquaintance with the police. At 1 o'clock this morning Patrolman Saffron heard a steady stream of profanity flowing from the direction of O'Donnell's house. He investigated and found Hughie. The latter said that some strange woman had gone into his cellar and he was afraid that she would set the house on fire. O'Donnell had been drinking. When the officer asked for further particulars O'Donnell swore at him.

When John Fenclein went to call on his uncle, John Wolff, of George street, yesterday afternoon, the occasion was celebrated by the opening of a bottle of homemade grape wine. Fenclein drank too much and insisted on throwing his uncle out of the house. Patrolman Saunders was called to the place by the indignant uncle. Fenclein agreed to depart. Once in the yard the homemade brew took temporary possession and Fenclein was willing to fight anybody, his uncle preferred. Saunders then locked him up.

Fenclein was arranged before City Judge Runyon this morning. He pleaded guilty to the charge of drunk and disorderly. The Judge gave him his choice between a fine of $3 or eight days in jail. The cash was immediately forthcoming.

Back From England.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Binning, formerly of this city, but late of New York, returned Saturday on one of the Cunard Line steamers from a sojourn of fifteen months in England and Scotland, where Mr. Binning was superintending the construction of a street railway. They were accompanied by Clement Grindrod, of Bury, Lancaster, Eng., a nephew of Mr. Binning. They are stopping at present with Mrs. Binning's mother's Mrs. Elijah Stites, of 26 Chatham street.

SCHOOL ELECTION NOW

BOROUGH VOTERS CALLED TOGETHER TOMORROW NIGHT.

Present Trustees Candidates for Re-election, But They Will Probably Have Opposition.

The annual borough school meeting will be held in the school on Somerset street tomorrow evening, when a lively time is expected. The chief feature will be the election of three members of the School Board to take the places of George D. Hallock, Henry A. McGee and Paul Loizeaux, whose terms expire at this time. It is reported that all are candidates for re election, but that they will have opposition there is no doubt. One person mentioned as a candidate is John H. VanWinkle. Last year he was nominated for School Trustee, but was beaten by only a few votes. Mr. VanWinkle is a man of wide experience in school matters, having served on the Board before. His friends are very anxious that he should be returned. A number of others are named as possibilities, but no definite action has as yet been taken regarding those who will be nominated.

Among the important matters to be considered will be that of making the necessary repairs to the schools and especially to the High School, which is sadly in need of a suitable heating apparatus. No doubt the citizens will vote the necessary money for these repairs and improvements. The appropriation this year will have to be a little larger than previous ones on account of the two schools instead of one as heretofore. There is promise of a fight, however, and as usual this meeting will be one of the events in borough life.

MAYOR TO ACT AS RECORDER

Mr. Smalley Decides to Save Borough the Salary Now Paid for Police Court Work.

Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council will meet this evening for the purpose of organizing for the coming year, making the annual appointments and listening to the Mayor's annual message. Some changes are looked for. Recorder Long has notified the Mayor that he will be away a great deal next year, and that he declines a re-appointment. In view of this His Honor will act in that capacity, unless the business becomes so great. He will then appoint someone for the place. By this arrangement the salary paid to the Borough Recorder will be saved to the borough.

Some other minor changes are looked for, but nothing of any great importance. Prior to the meeting tonight the members will hold a conference for an hour to consider such business as may come up.

Sold Sweet Things.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church held a very successful cake and candy sale Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the primary department room of the church. Mrs. Cornelius Schenck and Miss Mary Brokaw were in charge and a goodly number of Juniors were present to look after the cakes. Everything was disposed of and the proceeds will be devoted to increasing the fund for missionary purposes. The Juniors contribute so much to the missionary work carried on by the church, and this is one way they have of securing the money.

Talk on the Birds of Plainfield.

The third meeting of the Alliance of Unitarian and other Liberal Christian Women will take place at All Souls' church tomorrow Tuesday afternoon, March 20th at 3:30 o'clock, when Miss Carrie Haviland will give an interesting talk on the birds of this neighborhood, illustrated by stuffed specimens. Miss Haviland has made a special study of this subject, as she is an earnest member of the Audubon Society. A business meeting at 3 o'clock will precede the public meeting. Tea will be served at 4:30 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to be present.

Big Fireproof Building for Elizabeth.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 19.—An important transfer of real estate was recorded here Thursday in the County Clerk's office. It is a tract of land 43x100 feet on First street, adjoining the Elizabethport Bank, and which has been sold by Edward and Rosa Bach, of Newark, to Edward F. Burke, a wholesale liquor dealer of this city. The price paid for the property is $10,300. The purchaser will tear down the small one-story frame structure which now stands on the land and erect a big modern fireproof building in its place.

Attended Divine Service in Westfield.

Last evening the members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and Woman's Relief Corps, went to Westfield and attended divine services at the M. E. church, when the pastor preached a patriotic sermon.

DIED FROTHING AND BARKING LIKE A DOG.

Terrible End of Italian Patient in Muhlenberg Hospital Last Night.

THOUGHT TO BE RABIES.

PHYSICIANS UNABLE TO TELL EXACTLY WHAT THE MALADY WAS.

Had Been Ill for Four Days, but After Being Admitted to the Hospital He Became Violent—His End was Agonizing.

Lorenzo Cohlie, an Italian, aged 34 years, who resided at 54 Watchung avenue, died last evening at 9 o'clock at Muhlenberg Hospital from a disease very much like hydrophobia. There is a difference of opinion among the physicians regarding the case, some believing it to be acute uremia, while others believe it was genuine rabies.

The man was taken ill four days ago and Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan was called to attend the case. He finally determined that the man should go to the hospital and he was sent there yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock. His symptoms were identical with those in cases of rabies, barking and frothing at the mouth and acted like one suffering from that disease. A policeman and attendant was kept on duty to guard the man. His suffering was intense.

The mysterious part of the case is that no one has been able to ascertain just what produced the disease. It could not be learned that the man had been bitten by a dog, and as he spoke very poor English he could give no accurate account of his illness or what brought it on. There were no other Italians with whom he lived that were able to explain the case, and there were no marks on the body to indicate that a dog had bitten him. The physicians delare that it is the strangest case that has come under their observation. A consultation was held at the hospital yesterday, but it revealed nothing new. There was a division of opinion concerning the disease, but no one ascertained what brought it on.

A large number of Italians have been calling at the hospital and no less than three undertakers were sent for the body. The Italians are in a state of excitement over the case. It was claimed that the dead man had a brother, but he has not yet put in an appearance. If no relative comes to claim the remains they will be interred by the city.

In Dr. Schenck's Pulpit.

Rev. W. T. Griffin, of LaGrande avenue, who holds the honorable position of U. S. Consul at Limoges, France, delivered two grand sermons in Trinity Reformed church yesterday, one in the morning and the other in the evening, in the absence of Dr. Schenck, who was ill with an attack of grip. Mr. Griffin's thoroughly earnest preaching was greatly enjoyed by all and the reverend gentleman received many hearty congratulations for his very able efforts.

A Big Cockfight.

Some forty sports from New Brunswick, Metuchen and Plainfield gathered near Oak Tree Saturday evening for a cocking main. The birds were from New Brunswick and Metuchen. Twelve battles were arranged, but when they were over, each side had won six. An extra battle was arranged and the New Brunswick bird was victorious. The main was for $200.

Y. M. C. A. Athletic Contest.

The second and last section of the novice athletic contest at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium was held Saturday night. Three events were contested. They were the running broad jump, hop, step and jump and the potato race. According to the points scored in all the events, Hegeman won first place with 332 points, Cahoone was second with 300, and Thompson third with 299.

Dr. Richards' Lecture.

The Daily Press has been requested to state that the lecture this evening by Dr. Richards before the Primary Teachers' Union does not conflict in any way with the one he is to give a week from tonight at the Crescent Avenue church. The one next week is illustrated and is a paid lecture. The one this evening is free and will be different.

To Aid Duer Street Opening.

Wm. M. Stillman, who has purchased the Dyer house on Craig place, in order that Duer street may be opened into this city, will remove the house to Grove street, corner of Craig place, adjoining the residence of Dr. Adams.

GRANTED AT LAST.

James Sisser Gets a License for a Place Just Over the City Limits.

A great deal of surprise has been manifested in this city and in North Plainfield over the announcement that Judge John D. Bartine, of the Somerset County Court, has granted a license for a retail liquor store to James D. Sisser, to be located in the building owned by Charles Bock, on Somerset street, just over the city and county line in North Plainfield. Applications for the licensing of this place have been refused a number of times, and less than a year ago Judge Bartine himself declined to grant a similar application.

Owing to the previous attitude of Judge Bartine in respect to the licensing of this place, the property owners did not think that it was necessary to make a vigorous protest against it, as they thought it would be refused without a doubt. The fact that Judge Bartine retires from office April 1st is offered as a reason of his taking the action in defiance of public sentiment in respect to the place.

FAVOR THE REED IDEA.

PROTECTION OF FISHING WANTED AT LAKE HOPATCONG.

Somerset Senator Receives Many Letters from Sportsmen Endorsing His Anti-Ice Fishing Act.

Senator Reed has received a bushel or so of letters in regard to his amendment to a game bill making it unlawful to catch pickerel through the ice in winter. All but one are in favor of the proposition. Edwin L. Decker, of Carlstadt, says he has fished in Lake Hopatcong for fifteen years, and every year the fishing gets poorer, and this he lays to fishing through the ice with set lines. One man will have from 50 to 100 such lines, and the catch, he says, is enormous.

James C. Griggs, of Somerville, writes that pickerel are caught in innumerable numbers in this way, and then peddled around the country for sale. They slaughter the fish when they are filled with spawn. J. L. Robertson, of No. 204 Fulton street, New York, says he owns a cottage, which he occupies in the summer, a few miles from Lake Hopatcong, and that his experience is that the pickerel are growing poorer every year. He runs up there every winter a few times, and he always finds a dozen or so of men fishing in this way through hundreds of holes in the ice.

James V. Smith, of Somerville, says the winter catching of pickerel and perch is depleting the waters of these fish. James U. Case writes that on one Sunday recently fifteen hundred fish were taken out through the ice, and that the supply is being rapidly exhausted. The one voice in opposition to the bill is that of W. P. Frothingham, the president of the Board of Fish and Game Commissioners. He says many poor people in some sections of the State are dependent during the winter time upon the food they catch through the ice. He suggests, however, that it might be well to limit the number of fish a person may lawfully catch in this winter fishing. It ought to be prohibited altogether. The Senate has refused to recede from Mr. Reed's amendment, and the bill will now go through in that shape, if at all.

Piano Took a Fall.

William Emmons, expressman, was removing a piano from Basking Ridge to Watchung last Saturday afternoon for Fred Nelson, who recently assumed control of Finger's Hotel. Instead of taking the instrument through the broad halls to the second floor, he thought he would put it in the room from the outside. He was assisted by Alex. Fillmore. When the piano reached the window through which it was to go, the heavy ropes broke and down came the heavy instrument with a crash. It was greatly damaged and it will require considerable work to put it in good order again. The piano laid out doors all day yesteoday, and this morning it was put inside by employes of the U. S. Express Company.

Heavy Suit Against Officials.

The suit to recover $10,000 damages each from Recorder Cook and Police Officer Burnet, of Madison, by the grocery firm of Stiner Brothers, of Morristown, will be heard in the Morris County Court tomorrow. Judge Cutler will look after the interests of the plaintiffs, and the Madison officials will be represented by Charles A. Rathbun, counsel to the Morris County Board of Freeholders.

Bank at High Bridge.

High Bridge is to have a national bank with a capital stock of $25,000, which has already been subscribed. A meeting of the stockholders will be held Wednesday, when a site for a new building will probably be selected.

CENTRAL MEN ARE READY TO STRIKE.

Action Will Depend Upon Result of Meeting Tomorrow With President Maxwell.

HOPE FOR ADJUSTMENT.

COMMITTEE OF EMPLOYES WILL MAKE CERTAIN DEMANDS.

Will Attempt to Compel the Company to Recognize the Rules of the Brotherhoods—Present State of Affairs is Critical.

The employes of the Central Railroad of New Jersey are in a nervous and unsettled state of mind today in anticipation of the result of the interview which a committee of the railway employes, representing the labor unions, will seek tomorrow with President Maxwell. At that conference, if it is held, it is expected that a thorough discussion of the grievances of the men and the attitude of the company towards them will be held.

It is reported that in the event of President Maxwell declining to treat with the committee the road will be immediately tied up, the order for such a result to be sent out almost immediately. The employes claim to be well prepared for serious results, and believe that in case of a strike they will eventually win, though it will be a costly piece of work for them.

A dispatch from Phillipsburg, where the employes held their secret sessions to discuss the situation last week, says that information comes direct from persons high in Brotherhood circles that a general tie-up of both the Jersey Central and the Lackawanna roads is highly probable, unless concessions are made to the men. Two members of the general grievance committee, who were there yesterday, stated that it was decided, at the recent meeting at Mauch Chunk, that, should President Maxwell refuse the request for a hearing, a joint meeting of the general grievance committees of the Central and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Brotherhood men would be called for Phillipsburg, and that steps would be taken to compel the railrod companies to recognize their organization.

These men also stated that both roads had discharged men because of the latter's activity in Brotherhood grievance circles, and that officials appear to be working to lessen the influence of the Brotherhoods. The present state of affairs on both roads is now regarded as critical by the Brotherhoods, and they propose making a stand for their rights, as they claim.

President Maxwell Will Confer.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, March 19.—President Maxwell, of the New Jersey Central Railroad, has agreed to confer with a grievance committee of the road's employes in New York. President Maxwell says that the company is well disposed toward its employes and is willing to compromise with them.

TEA FOR MISS RICHARDS.

Delightful Social Affair Given by Mrs. David P. Hall, Saturday Afternoon.

A very delightful tea was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. David Prescott Hall, of Madison avenue, in honor of her niece, Miss Alice Richards, of Maine. Miss Richards is a daughter of the well-known authoress, Mrs. Laura E. Richards, a sister of Mrs. Hall. Saint Patrick's green was the prevailing color in the dining-room. The tint of green ribbons and candle shades combined with the green dresses of the young girls in attendance produced a very pleasing effect. Mrs. Hall and Miss Richards received in the parlor, while in the dining-room Miss Thompson, of Sing Sing, and Miss Edith Naglie, of this city, presided at the table, assisted by Miss Hall, Miss Conklin, and Miss Shepard of "The Gables," Fanwood.

Thrown Out Of Sleigh and Hurt.

Mrs. Michael Quinn, of Park avennue, was thrown out of a sleigh at the corner of Park avenue and Fourth street, Friday noon, and was badly bruised and cut. She tried to avoid a trolley car and turned the horse into Park avenue. The runner to the sleigh caught, upsetting it and throwing Mrs. Quinn out on the crust. The horse ran away and was caught at Ninth street.

Rev. Dr. Stryker Seriously Ill.

Rev. Dr. Stryker, of Asbury Park, has many friends in Plainfield who will be pained to learn that he is seriously ill, and fears are entertained that he will not be able to again preach should he recover from his present illness.

SOME SIGNS OF PEACE

General Roberts' Proclamation Has Desired Effect.

MANY BURGHERS SURRENDERING.

The Mafeking Garrison Holding Its Own on Quarter Rations at Last Reports—The Relief Force Is Gaining Ground.

LONDON, March 19.—The news from South Africa today is entirely satisfactory to the British public. The relief of Mafeking is not yet announced, but it is extremely probable that this is already accomplished by Colonel Plumer's advance. Lady Charles Bentinck, at Cape Town, has received a telegram from her husband in Mafeking, dated March 12, saying that he expected to join her shortly.

The actual relief movements have not been publicly developed in detail, but it seems that Lord Methuen only started very recently and is rather engaged in dispersing the Boers of the district than aiming at actual relief.

Colonel Peakman has dispersed 500 Boers at Fourteen Streams.

The war office has received the following dispatch from Field Marshal Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, March 18:

"The guards brigade returned yesterday from Norval's pont. Several burghers have laid down their arms to General Pole-Carew at Edenberg and elsewhere.

"The officer commanding at Belmont reports that some deserters have come in with a Maxim, a nine pounder and another gun. Another nine pounder has been brought into Colesberg.

"The cavalry brigade has gone to Thaba Nchu in order to reassure the inhabitants of the district and to distribute copies of the proclamation to the people of the Free State. These proclamations are being eagerly sought after.

"Lord Methuen reached Warrenton on March 16. He was in time to prevent the deviation bridge from being completely destroyed and to secure the pont on the Vaal.

"The English mail was dispatched from here by rail yesterday, and tomorrow the regular railway service with Cape Town will be reopened.

"Mafeking reports that all was well on March 6."

Lord Roberts probably ascertained from Mr. Fraser, the new mayor of Bloemfontein, before dispatching General Pole-Carew southward that in all likelihood the railway was clear. The next move will be to collect at Bloemfontein by railway sufficient stores for the immense army Lord Roberts will have when the Orange river forces have joined him.

This will probably occupy from two to three weeks. Therefore the next important operations may be expected in Natal.

Thaba Nchu, 35 miles east of Bloemfontein, is destined to cut off some 2,000 Boers who are escaping from the southward. The Boers are reported to have destroyed the railway in the neighborhood of Kroonstad.

A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Bloemfontein, dated Friday, March 16, says:

"We are getting rifles surrendered faster than a factory could turn them out. It is quite certain that if a British official can reach the northern laagers with Lord Roberts' proclamation the whole Boer population will declare for peace."

The Naples correspondent of The Daily Mail telegraphs an interview he has had with Mr. Webster Davis, United States assistant secretary of the interior. According to this Mr. Davis said:

"When I left Pretoria the Boers were becoming desirous of peace. President Kruger and General Joubert were the strongest opponents of the peace party, but they were becoming exceedingly unpopular. I do not believe the Boers will resist much longer."

The correspondent says Mr. Davis declined to speak regarding his mission, but that the general belief in Naples is that he is bearing peace terms and a request for American mediation.

Lord Kitchener is still quietly organizing in the northeast of Cape Colony. Predictions and betting are beginning here that the war will be ended by the middle of May.

Dispatches from Durban, Pietermaritzburg and other South African towns describe most enthusiastic celebrations on St. Patrick's day.

A London newspaper credits to Lord Roberts the suggestion to the queen that the wearing of shamrocks be permitted. Whether this be correct or not it has been a most advantageous political move.

A dispatch to The Daily News from Bloemfontein, dated March 16, says:

"Events have occurred which induce to predict that the war will only last so long as it takes to march to Pretoria. The educated Boers, even the Transvaalers, are ready to accept the inevitable.

"I am told that a corps of 2,000 women has been formed at Pretoria. It is called the Amazon corps. All the members are uniformed in kilts and are armed."

The correspondent of The Times at Lourenco Marques, telegraphing under date of March 16, says:

"State Secretary Reitz of the Transvaal, in the course of an interview, has said that the Transvaal government considers the American reply highly satisfactory and that he believes the United States will bring such pressure to bear as will result in a settlement agreeable to the people of the two republics.

"While admitting the seriousness of the situation, Mr. Reitz says he is convinced that the burghers of both republics will enthusiastically defend the independence of the Transvaal to the last."

A dispatch to The Times from Ladysmith, dated March 18, says:

"Our advanced camp is on Sunday river, two miles north of Elandslaagte. The Boers hold two positions on the Biggarsberg range about ten miles north. The strongest is on the Newcastle road, where several guns have already been mounted and where they are digging extensive trenches. The second position, which is on the Dundee road, is not so strong."

WORD FROM MAFEKING.

Garrison Holding Its Own on Quarter Rations.

LOURENCO MARQUES, March 19.—A dispatch from Mafeking, dated March 10, says:

"The garrison is holding its own. We have heard numerous rumors that the siege will be raised, but so far that is not the case. We are pegging along patiently on quarter rations, supplemented by the occasional capture of cattle.

"Our homemade gun erratically bombards the Boer trenches. Horrible stories are current that the Boers are inflicting nameless tortures upon captured native runners. These may not be true, but they are tending to inflame native passions to such an extent that it may soon be impossible to hold the natives in check.

"Owing to the Boers having deliberately bombarded the native stadt, which is full of women and children, Colonel Baden-Powell has armed the natives, but he has only allowed them to act on the defensive, although they have clamored to be allowed to go out and attack at the point of the assegai. They will be prevented as long as possible from inflicting reprisals on the Boers."

Relief Nearing Mafeking.

CAPE TOWN, March 19.—The mounted force from Kimberley proceeding to the relief of Mafeking has arrived at Warrenton. As the force neared Windsorton the Boers evacuated the town, blowing up the bridge. It is reported that the rebels who refused to accompany the Transvaalers when the latter vacated Taungs and Vryburg are preparing to trek into Damaraland on the approach of the British, but that the Hottentot chiefs are getting ready to bar their escape.

The Mafeking relief column, Colonels Drummond and Peakman commanding, had a sharp engagement at Fourteen Streams. The British succeeded in driving the Boers off. They had only a few casualties.

Pole-Carew Returns to Bloemfontein

BLOEMFONTEIN, March 19.—General Pole-Carew's force has returned from Springfontein, where a junction was effected with General Gatacre. General Pole-Carew also proceeded to Norval's pont, from which point he heliographed to General Clements that 800 Free Staters had submitted at Edenburg.

The Boer Losses.

PRETORIA, March 19.—The chief of the intelligence department, Molengraaf, announces that the federal losses prior to the relief of Kimberley and Ladysmith were: Killed, 677; wounded, 2,129. Accidents, sickness and other disabling causes, he asserts, bring the total to 4,351.

EDITOR SHELDON RETIRES.

His Week's Work on the Topeka Capital Finished.

TOPEKA, March 19.—The Rev. C. M. Sheldon has retired as editor of the Christian Daily Capital. His last or Sunday edition was sent to press at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and dated on Saturday evening, March 17. There is not a line of local, state or telegraphic news in the paper. Mr. Sheldon's farewell expresses the hope that the desecration of Sunday by the publication of newspapers will soon cease. The usual advertisements appear. There is not a line in the paper except selections from the Bible or discussions of Bible questions.

When Mr. Sheldon had finished the week's work, he gave directions that all work of printing or mailing the paper should cease at midnight and be finished on Monday.

A big row is brewing among the stockholders of the paper because of the Sheldon edition. Some of the stockholders want The Capital continued permanently as a Christian daily. Other stockholders oppose the idea and insist that the paper shall resume its former methods. Several conferences between the directors were held, but no agreement was reached. Each conference increased the bitter feeling. Both sides are standing firm, and several damage and injunction suits are threatened. Indications are that litigation will ensue.

A Chicago Bunko Game.

CHICAGO, March 19.—The assay of six supposed bars of gold that had been placed in a trust company's vault pending the completion of the sale of a mine from which the gold was supposed to come was completed yesterday and showed that the bars were composed of copper, zinc and other metals without a trace of gold. The bars were left with the trust company by two men giving their names as R. G. Miller and William Schroder, who published an advertisement in a London paper offering to sell a gold mine for $50,000 and induced Sir Frederick Vigor and T. D. G. Drayton of England to come to the United States to close the deal. The Englishmen say they had borings taken from the bars, and an analysis showed the borings contained 76 per cent gold. One of the Englishmen went with one of the alleged gold mine owners to California to see the mine, but says the alleged owner disappeared suddenly one day, the other supposed owner also disappearing from Chicago. This turn in affairs was precipitated by the demand of the Englishmen that their traveling expenses be paid. The Englishmen had a trust company appointed receiver for the six bars of supposed gold, and the analysis which they ordered made will be sent to them in England. They sailed from New York Saturday.

A New Garden of Eden.

STAMFORD, Conn., March 19.—Evans Weed is expending a large amount of money on his farm at Newfield and is arranging it so far as possible after the Biblical description of the garden of Eden. He has made application to the legislature that his name be changed to Adam. He is a bachelor and has advertised in local papers for a wife, the only condition named being that applicants must be named Eve or Eva. Farmer Weed intends to sell the produce of his garden of Eden.

Negro Shot In Jail.

ATLANTA, March 19.—A special to The Constitution from Marietta, Ga., says that a mob of 125 men battered down the doors of the jail at that place at 1 o'clock Sunday morning and went to the cell where John Bailey, a negro accused of assault, was confined and fired about 500 shots at him. Bailey dropped to the floor at the first fire, and only three or four balls struck him. He will die.

A Gift to Middlebury College.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Mrs. Sarah A. Warner of Chicago has presented $50,000 to the Middlebury college of Middlebury, Vt. A building to be known as the Warner Science hall, to be dedicated to the donor's father, Joseph Warner, who was a former trustee of the college, will be erected with the money. On three floors laboratories for physical, biological and chemical work will be maintained.

Woman Burned to Death.

CINCINNATI, March 19.—A paralytic named Lizzie Moore, aged 72, was burned to death in a midnight fire which destroyed the shanty on Sixth street, east of Broadway, which she and her sister occupied alone.

BRIDGE WORK
In Dentistry is the best substitute for nature's work that can be done. Sound roots may be built up and crowned and thus fill up an unsightly space. It has to be made of a material that has strength and durability and one that will not discolor. Gold is the one that stands the test That is the secret of the expense. OH, MAMMA DEAR!
did you hear that Woolston & Buckle has the finest wall paper in town. With Kaleidoscopic change on lovely backgrounds?
Daisies blossom on paper of azure blue,
Roses bud and bloom on an ashen hue,
Lillies of the valley are scattered on green
And flowers of all tints are everywhere seen
On colors exquisately blended with care
To reproduce fruits, and flowers as fair
As if aid on by Nature s own hand,
Unique designs both opaque and round,
And Japanese figures on gilded ground
And fantistic Beardsley lines are found
In a bewildering array.
Transform your bare and hideous walls
Into dreams of beauty as profuse
As covered Granada s famous halls,
From any design your fancy may choose,
The walls of the cottage are covered with ease,
It's not our custom, but the wealthy to please
We have beautiful papers at a low price.
Although not so gorgeous, are artistic and nice.

THE "Know How" IN PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. GEN. LUKE E. WRIGHT.

The South's Representative on the Philippine Commission, Headed by Judge Taft.

Gen. Luke E. Wright, who has been selected by President McKinley as the southern representative on the new Philippine commission, has for many years occupied a preeminent position with the bar of Tennessee, and while he has resisted all the allurements of personal preferment, he has wielded a great influence in the politics of his state.

He comes of a family which has produced many conspicuously able lawyers. His father was Judge Archibald Wright, who was a leader of men and affairs in this part of the country; and his mother was a member of the Eldridge family of Mississippi, which has produced many illustrious lawyers, statesmen and soldiers.

GEN. LUKE E. WRIGHT.
(Southern Member of the New Philippine Commission.)

When the civil war began, Luke Wright was yet too young to have assumed a vocation in life, but he was not too young to carry a gun for the confederacy, and on January 4, 1861, he enlisted in company G, One Hundred and Fourth Tennessee senior regiment. He became a second lieutenant of artillery, attached to the division commanded by Gens. Bate and Breckinridge, in which capacity he served in the principal engagements of the west under Bragg, Johnston and Hood. He was wounded at the battle of Jonesboro, Ga.

After the war, Lieut. Wright was admitted to the bar in Memphis, and married a daughter of Raphael Semmes, the naval hero of the confederacy. He was elected attorney general of the criminal court of Shelby county, and in that office displayed such distinguished capacity and talent that when, after representing the state for ten years, he resumed the practice of his profession in a private way, he took rank at once with the leading lawyers of the state.

Until a few weeks ago Gen. Wright practiced law in partnership with Hon. Thomas B. Turley, United States senator, of which firm also the late United States Senator Isham G. Harris was a nominal member up to the time of his death. Gen. Wright was twice chosen by the democracy of his state as their representative in national conventions of the party. His income from his law practice has been large, and his acceptance of the appointment just conferred upon him by President McKinley may by no means be ascribed to the pecuniary considerations attaching. He has been a lifelong democrat of the most conservative order.

HANDSOME OFFERING.

Gold Casket Presented to the Wife of Capt. Dreyfus by the Readers of a London Paper.

The illustration shows the very handsome gold casket presented to Mme. Alfred Dreyfus, by the subscribers and readers of the London Morning Herald.

The design is "renaissance" and the central panel contains three medallions

MEMORIAL TO MME. DREYFUS.
(Presented to Her by the Readers of a London Newspaper.)

in enamel; that on the right being Maitre Labori, on the left M. Zola, whilst the center figure is that of Capt. Dreyfus.

The corresponding panel on the reverse of the casket bears the following inscription in English:

"Presented to Mme. Dreyfus by the readers of the Morning Herald, London, as an earnest of their faith in the unblemished honor of her husband, Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, and as a token of their admiration of her brave and dutiful devotion to him in his unmerited suffering."

The cover of this casket is molded and domed, richly decorated throughout, and is again surmounted by an exquisitely-modeled figure of "Blind Justice" holding the scales and naked sword.

TROUBLE IN MANILA.

Filipino Junta Growing Active and Menacing.

MURDER AND PILLAGE INCREASING.

General Kobbe Opens Twenty Ports In Southern Luson—City Officials In General MacArthur's District Resort to Treason and Perfidy.

MANILA, March 19.—General Otis considers Manila the most troublesome center in the situation today. The insurgent junta here, in conjunction with that in Hongkong, is growing active. The military authorities have been forced to put a stop to Mabini's intercourse with the public. The local and foreign press considers his recent utterances calculated to incite the Filipinos to a continued revolt and prejudical to American control.

Flores, who has just arrived here, says he comes trusting to American leniency and that he would not have dared come to Manila if Spain were yet in control. He cherishes the hopes and aspirations which actuated him when in the field and desires to watch congressional action upon the question of the Philippines. The insurgents, he says, do not expect to vanquish the Americans, but are maintaining a resistance with the idea of forcing congress to accord to them the best possible terms.

A number of representative insurgent leaders from different parts of Luzon have recently been in conference in Manila. Some have been placed under arrest, but the others thus far have not been interfered with.

Louis Spitzel, head of the firm of Louis Spitzel & Co., contractors to the Chinese government and himself a suspected filibuster, came from Hongkong to Manila last week and was temporarily detained in custody on suspicion. It is asserted upon good authority that three loads of arms and ammunition have recently been landed on the east coast of Luzon. Captain Taylor of the Thirty-ninth regiment recently captured 12 new Mausers near Calamba.

Reports are current here of active rebel reorganization in the province of Morong, where the insurgent leaders are said to be assisted by prominent Spanish residents. Inhabitants of this province who are now in Manila have been advised not to return to their homes, but to remain under the protection of the Americans.

It is also reported that the rebels are reorganizing in the province of Zambales under Mascardo. Brigands are committing atrocities in the province of Nueva Ecija, where they have murdered 20 natives and Chinamen. Eight other murders have been committed near Tarlac. The Nueva Ecija insurgents are heavily taxing local traders and farmers, with the results that business is paralyzed and there is a general scarcity of food.

The funds for maintaining this guerrilla warfare are collected from the various towns of the island, whether occupied by the Americans or not, even including Manila.

In the province of Albay the insurgents have ceased harassing the Americans owing, it is reported, to a lack of ammunition, but they continue ravaging the countryside, burning and looting. The natives are tiring of this sort of thing and threaten to turn against the marauders. Already the townspeople of Legaspi, Albay and Ponzol are slowly returning to their homes.

Major Allen of the Forty-third regiment has been appointed military governor of the island of Samar, where Lukban, the former leader of the rebels in that locality, is still in the mountains.

General Kobbe has opened 20 ports in the southern part of Luzon and in the islands of Samar and Leyte, the result of which is to stimulate trade there, although only temporarily, as the country opened is nonproductive and apparently nonconsuming. Owing to the political conditions of the last 12 months products accumulated during the blockade. These will be shipped to Manila, and then the ports will be empty.

Evidence accumulates of the treason and perfidy of the municipal presidents in the provinces of General MacArthur's district. The presidents of several towns in Lepanto and Union provinces have declined to continue their positions, saying that they do not desire any further identification with the Americans. Travel between the towns garrisoned by the Americans is becoming more dangerous. All wagon trains must be escorted by heavy guards in order to insure their safety.

Two ambushes were narrowly averted recently. Small parties are attacked. Single travelers frequently disappear or are found dead.

Spaniards and Filipinos who are conversant with the Tagalog character unite in asserting that Aguinaldo's capture would terminate the revolution. Three months have passed since he was actively pursued.

A military commission at Bayambang has sentenced to be hanged on March 30 two natives who have been found guilty of murdering their countrymen.

The expedition to garrison the ports of northern Mindanao sailed today. It was accompanied by the gunboats Manila and Yorktown. The expedition took the Fortieth volunteer regiment from the Camarines. If more troops are needed, the Thirty-first regiment, now in southern Mindanao, and the Twenty-third regiment, now in Jolo, are available.

Machinists' Strike Certain.

CHICAGO, March 19.—President J. O'Connell of the International Machinists' union declares that 100,000 machinists in all parts of the United States and Canada will be ordered on strike within the coming month as the result of a disagreement between the manufacturers and machinists, who closed a joint conference in Chicago at 1:30 Sunday morning. All the members of the National Machinists' committee and manufacturers from all parts of the United States were present.

Billow Found Guilty.

FREMONT, O., March 19.—Louis Billow was found guilty of murder in the first degree, the jury having been out 18 hours. Billow several years ago shot and killed Jacob Hess, the father of his sweetheart. He was arrested in the state of Washington last fall. The defense was insanity, and Billow's attorneys have asked for a jury to determine his mental condition.

NO CRISIS IN CHINA.

Wild, Warlike Rumors Without Any Foundation.

OUR INTERESTS NOT THREATENED.

The Fake Story Grew Out of the Ordering of a Warship to the Port of Taku Because of Recent Attack on Our Missionaries.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—In official circles here a denial is authorized of published reports that there have been conferences with a view to the dispatch of additional warships and United States soldiers to China and that news of the gravest character had been received from the United States minister to China. There is said to be no fear entertained that any serious danger to American interests is impending.

It is suggested that the published reports have as their basis the recent action of the navy department, made public at the time, in directing Admiral Watson, who is in command of the naval forces in the Philippines, to send a warship to the port of Taku, at the mouth of the Pieho river. This was done as a result of the representations made to the state department by Minister Conger, who reported that serious attacks had been made upon the American missions in Shangtung by the "Boxers," a powerful and numerous antiforeign league of Chinese. Secretary Long said last night that this was all that had been done by the navy department, and he was not yet aware which of his vessels the admiral had decided to send to the Chinese port. The secretary further denied emphatically and in toto the correctness of the publication so far as the navy department was concerned and added that there had been no conferences such as were reported as having taken place on the subject.

Acting Secretary Meiklejohn of the war department was as emphatic in denying the accuracy of the publications as affecting his department as Secretary Long regarding the navy. Mr. Meiklejohn specifically stated that there had been no conference with Assistant Secretary Hill as to the number of troops that could be spared from the Philippines for service in China.

Ambassador von Holleben of Germany, whose name is also identified with the publication, was about to go out to keep an engagement as a reporter met him at the door of the embassy. He acknowledged that he had seen the secretary of state recently, but said that Chinese affairs were not the subject of their conversation.

The Schley Home Fund.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—At a meeting of the national executive committee engaged in raising funds for a home for Rear Admiral Schley Secretary Evans reported many favorable responses to the circulars soliciting contributions. He also reported that absolute refusals to contribute to the fund had been received from the naval contingent on duty in Washington with one single exception, that of Rear Admiral Hichborn, and in some instances the refusals were accompanied by adverse comments on the committee's project. A letter from Miss Edna McClellan of the New York executive committee for the fund reported that thousands of dollars were being subscribed. Admiral Schley is a Knight Templar, and circular letters will be sent to each commandery suggesting the idea of making contributions.

The Gospel For the Philippines.

MILLVILLE, N. J., March 19.—Yesterday was a great day at the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference, and fully 500 visitors attended the services. Bishop Hurst delivered the sermon, taking for his subject "The Unknown God." In his sermon he spoke on the expansion question, upholding the policy of the government in its efforts to bring the Philippine Islands from their stupor of three and a half centuries. The war will spread the word of God throughout these unenlightened islands. He said there were now 15 churches in the islands and more being erected. He said statesmen talk of tariff, but ministers should talk of the gospel to these countries.

Germany's Chinese Encroachment.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 19.—According to advices by the Adzu Maru, the report that Germany is to essay what is everywhere recognised as a practical occupation of the province of Shantung is generally credited as being in line with the now accepted plan of foreign encroachment in China. The steps of the process are outlined as follows: First, a railway concession; troops to protect the works; military occupation and finally complete alienation of the territory. This has been Russia's course in Manchuria, and it is pointed out that Germany will follow it. In the meantime, it is said, the signs are rife that the great empire will soon be torn by civil strife.

Noted Entomologist Dead.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Andrew Bolter, one of the most noted entomologists in America and for 45 years a resident of Chicago, died yesterday. From boyhood until a few years before his death, at 80 years of age, Mr. Bolter's chief pursuit outside of business hours was the collection of insects. His collection of beetles, butterflies and other insects of innumerable kinds, said to be the finest on the continent and one of the most complete private collections in the world, will probably go to the University of Illinois.

Two Children Cremated.

ALFRED, N. Y., March 19.—Two sons of Eugene Ferrin, aged respectively 9 and 3 years, were burned to death in the Ferrin farmhouse in McHenry valley, near this village, which was consumed in a quick, wind fanned blaze yesterday morning. Mr. Ferrin rescued his wife and two children, but was driven back by the flames and badly burned in a vain effort to save the two that perished.

General Miles In the South.

CHARLESTON, March 19.—Major General Nelson A. Miles and staff arrived in Charleston from Washington on the private car Oceanic last night. The party will spend today in Charleston, tomorrow at Port Royal and go to Savannah Wednesday to be present at the Dewey reception.

The Sixth Victim Dead.

COLUMBUS, O., March 19.—Alice Weaver, whose four children were burned to death as the result of a gasoline explosion, died of her injuries, making in all six victims of the accident. She was 35 years of age. Her husband is recovering.

GUMPTION.

"ONE does not have gumption till one has been properly cheated." Persons of gumption are using Ivory Soap, women who have trusted themselves too near the precipice of false economy and who can now appreciate the true economy in a soap made of pure vegetable oils and other high-class ingredients, but made in such quantity as to bring the price within the reach of the very poorest family. Indeed it is the very poor who most need it, for they can least afford the extravagance of common soap.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

The Outlook Does Not Favor Early Adjournment.

ALBANY, March 19.—Although March 31 is the date decided upon for the final adjournment of the legislature, it is very probable that the session will be prolonged until the first week in April, if not later. The assembly, which adopted a resolution fixing the date of final adjournment for the 31st inst., has been rushing legislation through with a view of carrying out its resolution, and although the daily calendars have been large they have been taken up day by day and gone over. The senate, however, has not evidenced a similar determination, although that body during the past week has held long sessions in an effort to get as many bills as possible off the calendar. The assembly resolution fixing the date of adjournment still rests with the finance committee, and although they have held several meetings during the last week they have taken no action upon it.

The senate on Friday attempted to teach Senator Ellsworth, the Republican leader of the upper house, a lesson by moving a close call of the senate after he as well as a number of other members of that body had left the senate chamber.

The mortgage tax bill, which seeks to impose a tax of one-half of 1 per cent on all real estate mortgages and which is one of the most important measures now before the legislature, promises to precipitate a lively debate when called up in the senate this week. If the brief discussion on Wednesday is any indication of that to come, amendments to the bill may be expected from several sources. Senator Mitchell at that time moved to amend the bill so as to exempt mortgages bearing interest at the rate of 3 per cent instead of 4, as is provided in the bill. This amendment was adopted by a close vote and stands in the committee of the whole, but is subject to a later action of the senate when the bill is again taken up in general orders. The amendment as offered includes in the list of taxable mortgages those of the New York Central and other corporations bearing interest at a rate between 3 and 4 per cent.

Senator Coggeshall will also offer an amendment to exempt real estate mortgages bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent or less, excepting those of trust companies or corporations.

Mr. Allds, the leader of the majority, says that the assembly will be in shape to adjourn on the 31st inst. Important measures affecting New York city which called for protracted debate have been disposed of during the past week, and the calendars have been cleared up daily, which will give the house a fairly good field in which to pass local bills during the present week.

A Chicago Tragedy.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Murder and suicide were committed yesterday in the Vendome hotel, 175 South Halstead street. The bodies of a man and a young woman were found by the hotel employees at night, that of the woman having three bullet wounds, and the man had shot himself in the mouth with the revolver he used in ending the life of his companion. The victims at a late hour were identified as M. Goldfias, proprietor of a cigar and confectionery store on West Fourteenth street, and Jennie Liss, 14 years old, an employee of a cigar factory. Although of tender age, she had been keeping company with Goldfias for some time. It is asserted that the man was infatuated with her and that he probably killed her in a fit of jealousy. Goldfias was 30 years of age and married.

Admiral Dewey Goes South.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Admiral and Mrs. Dewey left here last night for a trip south. They expect to visit Savannah, Macon, St. Augustine, Jacksonville and Palm Beach. The admiral and Mrs. Dewey probably will not return to the city until the latter part of next month, at which time, it is said, they will sail for Europe, visiting the Paris exposition some time during the summer. Mrs. Dewey has been made chairman of the battleship committee in aid of the children's Easter festival for the Cuban Orphan asylum. A meeting of this society was held during Admiral and Mrs. Dewey's stay at Lakewood, at which time the latter consented to become the chairman.

Hon. Neal Dow's Birthday.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The sixty-eighth annual meeting of the Congressional Temperance society, held also as a memorial in honor of the ninety-sixth birthday anniversary of Hon. Neal Dow, took place in the Memorial Lutheran church last night. Representative Grout of Vermont presided, and addresses were made by Representatives Littlefield of Maine, Lloyd of Missouri, Talbert of South Carolina, Greene of Massachusetts and Dahle of Wisconsin. The secretary, Rev. Fred D. Powers, made his report, which was mainly a tribute to Neal Dow and a review of the results of his work in Maine.

Russia's Eastern Policy.

BERLIN, March 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Neueste Nachrichten says: "Russia, although tacitly encouraging the champions of Bulgarian independence, does not consider the time propitious for any action. She hopes to bring pressure to bear upon Turkey in the railway question, but should she fail to secure the required concessions important events may be expected in the Balkans. The repatriation of the Armenian refugees still furnishes Russia with a good diplomatic weapon wherewith to obtain her demands."

Noted Prison Warden Dead.

DETROIT, March 19.—Captain Joseph Nicholson, for 21 years warden of the Detroit house of correction, is dead. The captain was widely distinguished as an organizer and manager of prison industries. Under his superintendence the big prison with its 600 inmates, including many federal prisoners, paid $60,000 annually to the city. Deceased was 74 years of age. His early life was spent as a sailor on the lakes.

Congregationalist Minister Dead.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 19.—Rev. J. E. Twitchell, D. D., a well known retired clergyman of the Congregational church, is dead. He was born in Sherburn, Mass., and was a graduate of Amherst college. He had served successfully as pastor of churches in Dayton and East Liverpool, O.; in East Boston and in New Haven.

Insurrection Day Celebrated.

BERLIN, March 19.—Yesterday being the anniversary of the Berlin insurrection of 1848, the event was celebrated in the usual manner by the Socialists and Radicals. The weather was very unfavorable.

GAY IN HAVANA.

The Carnival Causes an Unusually Lively Season.

HAVANA, March 19.—Sunday was the last day of the carnival so far as wearing masks and throwing flowers and confetti are concerned, but social diversions will continue in full force until the eve of Good Friday. Havana society leaders say they do not recall a season so lively as this. There have been balls, picnics, reviews, dinners, teas, receptions and the like every day and night since Lent began. Many people who have desired to give entertainments have had to postpone them because so many other similar affairs had been fixed for the dates they selected.

Some of the American ladies say they are completely worn out with the continuous round of gayety. Even Sundays, instead of bringing rest, usually mean larger entertainments than those of any other day.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated by a great variety of entertainments and particularly by a dinner given to 54 persons by General O'Brien, the guests being the principal members of American and Cuban society.

Senor Varona, secretary of finance, has presented to General Wood the report of the finance commission with reference to the system of municipal taxation. The commission considers that, owing to the condition of the island, the existing taxes cannot be raised.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

A block of stores was burned in Chicago at a loss of $158,000.

Two thousand bales of cotton were burned in a warehouse at Port Gibson, Miss.

Fannie White, aged 118, died in a negro home for the friendless at Knoxville, Tenn.

Twelve persons were hurt in a smash up on the Ninth avenue elevated road in New York city.

Job Costlett of Edwardsville, Pa., holds five offices, and the citizens are trying to oust him.

The Office Holders.

Those who follow State and local political affairs appreciate the fact that Union county Republicans are well-provided with offices in the State government, but just to what extent these perquisites of politics prevail very few are aware. The Newark Sunday Call yesterday published an instructive and interesting review from Trenton in which it is shown how many offices each county controls.

Union county produces many of the big office holders. The Governor and United States Senator John Kean hails from this county; so does the Chief Justice. Charles N. Codding, the Deputy Supreme Court Clerk, gets $3,000 a year for seeing that everything is proper in the office. He is chairman of the Republican county committee. Frederick Adams, one of the Judges of the Court of Errors and Appeals, gets about $1,000 a year for his work of hearing heavy legal arguments and deciding on their merits. James T. Morgan, secretary to the State Bureau of Statistics, $1,500, is a new man from Union.

Charles J. Baxter, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, lives in Plainfield, and gets $3,000 a year. Samuel S Moore, the keeper of the State Prison, gets $3,500 for looking after a big brown institution on the banks of the Delaware and Raritan canal. This was always considered a very choice plum by the Democratic leaders. Robert Stockton Green, son of the late Governor Green, also hails from this county. He holds down a $2,500 seat. He is a Democrat. Noah F. Morrison, of this county, is the Assistant Journal Clerk of the House. William B. Tucker, Deputy Factory Inspector, is accredited to this county.

Somerset county has been regarded as particularly backward in asking for public offices, either appointive or elective, but this little bailiwick makes a poor showing beside the aggregation from Union.

Somerset has the Clerk of Court of Chancery, Lewis A. Thompson, $6,000; E. J. Anderson, Supervisor of State Prison, $3,000; J. B. Betts, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, Democrat, $2,500.

Rev. Dr. Sheldon having finished his career in the sanctum editing a paper as he thinks a Christian should, he will now have an opportunity to serve as a peacemaker on the spot where he wielded the pen and shears with such dulling effect last week. The owners and the editors of the Topeka Daily Capital are in a muss over the determination of one of the principal stockholders of the concern to continue the paper along the lines laid out by the reverend gentleman. The editor-in-chief is violently opposed to this idea and has uttered an edict that no such state of affairs shall be permitted to exist. The result is that the contention will probably be taken into the courts for settlement. Now let Rev. Dr. Sheldon step to the front and convince, by his religious reasoning, one or the other of the disputants that they are on the wrong side.

Street Commissioner Nagle, of New York, is having it easy. The last lot of snow that he cleaned from the streets of the metropolis was during a holiday and a Sunday—two days when his work was uninterrupted by business traffic in the thoroughfares—and as a result he made a record that made it impossible for the New York papers to hurl their editorial criticism and wrath at him. Now, when a storm comes at a less inopportune time, and there is a chance for the unfriendly newspapers to wallop the steeet commissioner for slow work, we find the journals so deeply engaged in the work of purging the city of dirty morals that they have no time or inclination to look at the dirty streets. Mr. Nagle can afford to shake hands with himself.

Just as we expected—Editor Runyon having suffered a "turn down" at the hands of Congressman Fowler in his aspirations to be appointed postmaster in Plainfield, the newspaperman is doing his utmost to aid Frank Bergen in knocking the political spots off from the Hon. Mr. Fowler. What a different tune our esteemed editorial friend would have been singing in relation to Mr. Bergen's candidacy had he received the office which Mr. Bird now has.

The Orange Journal, one of the most stalwart and influential Republican newspapers in the Eighth Congressional district, says nay to the proposition of Frank Bergen that he be chosen to succeed Mr. Fowler as the Republican candidate for Representative. The Journal says it is against any move which has for its purpose the retirement of Fowler.

The Republican National convention will meet in Philadelphia June 19th; the Populists in Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9th; the Middle of the Road Populists in Cincinnati on the same day; the Prohibitionists in Chicago June 27th, and the Democrats in Kansas City July 4th.

There are already nearly 50,000 miles of new railroad mileage projected in the United States for this year. Of this great mileage 21,207 miles will be in the Southwestern States.

It is not an untruth to say that the New York State Legislature is bi-bossed, and that Governor Roosevelt does not have much to say about it.

The farmers of South Jersey are organizing a milk trust. To water the stock and chalk up the price will be the result.

Mrs. Eyler is having her turn before the Legislative investigators today. It is expected that she will be done up brown.

There is nothing hollow about the Reed legislation at Trenton.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Senator Kean has been awarded additional honors, He is on the committee with Hale, Foraker and others, on Puerto Rican legislation. This is in reality one of the most important committees of the present day, since the Puerto Rican question is one of the most complicated of any under National consideration. The committee of which Mr. Kean is a member will have to study this question in all its bearings and ramifications, and its conclusions will undoubtedly be the foundation upon which Puerto Rican legislation will be based. It is certainly a high honor to be named upon a committee of such extraordinary influence and importance.—Elizabeth Journal.

The report that James E. Martine is a candidate for, or will accept an election as a delegate-at-large to the next Democratic National convention ought to awaken a hearty response from the Democrats of the entire State, as well as of this district. Mr. Martine has for thirty-five years been one of the most devoted and unselfish laborers in the Democratic cause. In political prosperity as well as in political adversity, his voice has ever been heard and his influence has ever been exerted in behalf of the principles of his party. An opportunity of rewarding Mr. Martine for his fidelity to Democratic doctrines has never presented itself, but if his party can confer on him the honor of selecting him as one of the delegates-at-large to the next convention, we are confident that it will embrace that opportunity with the eagerness that Mr. Martine's past services deserve.—Summit Record.

David Bodine and family, of the borough, will go to Pennsylvania this week, where they will remain for a time.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 19—The school meeting tomorrow evening will be called to order at 8 o'clock at Lincoln Hall. Three members of the Board of Education are to be elected in place of W. S. Frederick, J. N. Apgar and Fowler Vail, whose terms expire. A full attendance is desired, as the appropriations necessary to carry on the schools for the ensuing year will be voted upon.

The Choral Union, composed of musicians of Dunellen and New Market, will give a concert under the direction of William Holmes, at the Methodist church Thursday evening.

The Fisher house on Prospect street is to be occupied by Mrs. L. B. Nelson this summer. She will move in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smutt, of New Market, are the happy parents of a daughter born to them a few days ago.

Mrs. L. B. Nelson, who has been quite ill at South Orange, has recovered sufficiently to return home.

A pet dog known as "Little Twinke," the property of Abram Nelson, was poisoned a few days ago.

The annual school meeting will be held at New Market tomorrow afternoon at the schoolhouse.

Mrs. E. A. Calhoun, of New Market, has been entertaining Miss Mamie E. Warren, of Brooklyn.

Miss Virgie Tunison had a visit from her mother, who lives at Glen Gardner, a few days ago.

Mrs. O. A. Douglass has been visiting at her old home in West New Brighton, S. I.

G. R. Crandall has secured a situation with the Cash Register Co., of Bound Brook.

The building and loan association will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening.

The new house on Main street being built by George Hummer is being plastered.

Mrs. E. P. Ruckles, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be a little better.

Electric lights are being placed in the office of Stanley Day at New Market.

Garretson & Gray have started their stone crusher for the season.

The waterproof factory at Lincoln is now running on full time.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 19.—Rev. Wm. E. Needham, of the Calvary Baptist church, of Brooklyn, began a series of evangelistic meetings in the Baptist church last evening. Mr. Needham proved to be an earnest and interesting preacher and will no doubt reach the masses with his earnest appeals and unique way of preaching to the ear and eye at the same time. The Methodist church united with their Baptist brethren at last night's service. Mr. Needham's meetings will be run for two weeks or more, if the encouragement asked for materializes. Preaching will begin each evening at 8 o'clock.

The annual school meeting will be held in the assembly room of the school building tomorrow. Three members of the Board of Education are to be elected to succeed Dr. F. W. Westcott, T. J. Nichol and Ira G. Walker, whose terms expire. There will probably be no opposition and the retiring members will no doubt succeed themselves.

The Saturday Night Club, the leading social organization of the borough, gave one of their pleasant social gatherings in the Fanwood Fire Hall Saturday evening. Progressive euchre and dancing were the leading features of the evening. Several from the village enjoyed the pleasant affair.

Efforts were made by the Township Committee Saturday to break some of the side streets through the village with the horse and snow plow. The crust was so thick that the weight of the horse failed to break it and the work was abandoned.

Sleighs were in great demand in town yesterday. Nearly everyone who could secure one, whether of modern or ancient design, were out enjoying the last remnant of winter.

R. S. Fisher, formerly station agent at Fanwood, but now agent at Dunellen, was the guest of friends in town yesterday.

Miss Vosseller, of Raritan, has been the guest of Miss Maud Honeyman, of Grove street, for over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Pool, of Somerville, who formerly attended school here and has many friends in this city, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Former Sheriff William T. Kirk, of West Seventh street, and a party of friends were among the visitors at the Sportsmen's Show Saturday afternoon.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The catalogue of Rutgers College, just issued, shows a gratifying growth in the number of students. The enrollment this year is 184, against 169 last year and 152 the year before. A new regulation of importance is the requirement of theses from the classical seniors in their principal elective graduation year. This places the classicals under the same conditions as scientific students and promises to produce excellent results.

After the service at the First Baptist church yesterday morning Dr. Yerkes took occasion to thank the members of the church for their expressions of appreciation of both his wife and himself in connection with the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. He said that during his pastorate of thirty-seven years he had never heard a person make an unkind remark concerning himself or Mrs. Yerkes, and this he considered a remarkable fact. He felt as though they both held the confidence and esteem of their people and he expressed the opinion that he and Mrs. Yerkes had the highest esteem and love for everyone in the church.

A few days ago a strange animal of ferocious disposition was treed in the big swamp on the Coursen farm near Springdale, Sussex county. It was finally brought to the ground, but before it had been disposed of a half dozen dogs had been cured of all desire to engage in future hunts. The animal weighed sixty-seven pounds, and half of Sussex county engaged in a guessing match as to its species. The Newton newspapers declare it was a beaver; the Deckertown Independent is just as certain that it was an otter, and Bije Everlocker, the noted trapper of Coleville, says he'll "be gol-darned" if he knows what it is. The question seems to be still undecided.

LITERARY.

Both the January and February St. Nicholas are out of print, the large sale of the two numbers being attributed to the popularity of the two new departments, "Nature and Science" and "The St. Nicholas League." Outdoor study and scientific investigation are aided and encouraged in both of these departments, and the youthful readers of the magazine have shown a prompt and hearty appreciation of the opportunities thus thrown open to them. Various prizes are offered to stimulate their interest in the tasks assigned them.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! simply add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors:—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocers today. 10 cts.

NEWNESS

and freshness is in evidence everywhere throughout the store, and especially among the Wash Fabrics and the Spring Dress Goods. Both stocks are now fairly complete, of course there will come a few belated novelties as the designers bring them forth, but that of course is expected. In either of these departments, as elsewhere in the store, you may buy with perfect confidence, we tell you the absolute truth about the materials and stand back of every word we utter. Some hints of advantageous price making are shown today, particularly among the Wash Fabrics. Today's advertising talk is only of two departments but there is much of attractive newness not mentioned here that is well worth coming to see, new neckwear, new hosiery and a lot more charming things fresh from the makers.

Wash Fabrics.

"EVERETT CLASSIC" Dress Ginghams. Can't say how long we will sell them at this price, so better buy now, 5c the yard.

NEW DIMITIES. A very good quality and numerous pretty patterns to select from at an especially attractive price, 8c the yard.

SCOTCH DIMITIES. Better than ever this season, better weave and prettier patterns, 15c the yard.

SWISS MULLS. Made in this country, but exactly like the imported, if they were imported you'd pay a half more and then couldn't tell the difference. 13c the yard.

NEW FOULARDINES. Mercerized cotton, printed in exact imitation of the expensive Foulard Silks. A popular waist fabric, 15c the yard.

CRINKLED GINGHAMS. Delicate shades in a rich and dainty effect, 25c the yard.

Dress Goods.

NEW VERONA PLAIDS. Four combinations in grey, 38 inches wide at 25c the yd.

NEW PLAIDS. Bright colors, 38 inches wide, cotton and wool, suitable for Ladies' Waists and children's dresses, worth 50c, for 39c the yard.

BLUE PEBBLE CLOTH. 46 inches wide, 39c the yd.

ALL WOOL STORM SERGE in both navy blue and black, a fine firm quality that positively will not turn rusty. It's 45 inches wide and 50c the yard.

NEW FRENCH FLANNELS. Plain colors, fancy stripes and figures, light, medium and dark shades, 59c the yard.

Commencing Monday evening, March 19, the store will be open every evening until 8 o'clock, and Saturday evenings until 10:30 o'clock.

Schweiz.

Bern. Die Liebesgabensammlung des Schweizer Rothen Kreuzes ergab bisher 38,000 Francs. Es wird bereits die Absendung einer zweiten Ambulanz nach Transvaal erwogen, nachdem ein Bericht eingegangen ist, daß ärztliche Hilfe und Medikamente sehr erwünscht seien. Die erste Ambulanz ist kürzlich abgereist.—In Burgdorf kamen bei einem Jaß zwei Spieler in Streit, wobei einer der Raufenden ein Bein brach.

Zürich. Der Hauptkassirer Küng, Prokurist der bekannten Baumwoll- und Kolonialwaarenfirma Theodor Fierz in Zürich, wurde wegen großer Unterschlagungen verhaftet und hat bereits gestanden, 200,000 Francs unterschlagen zu haben. Küng hatte in Kaffee und Pfeffer auf eigene Rechnung spekulirt und dabei sein eigenes Vermögen in der Höhe von 50,000 Francs und das veruntreute Geld verloren.

Luzern. Die Guttemplerloge in Luzern hat um 160,000 Francs ein Gebäude im Hirschmattquartier angekauft und wird es als Hotel „Helvetia," alkoholfreies Volkshaus, eröffnen.

St. Gallen. Die eidgenössische Brieftaubenstation Bodan-Rorschach hat beschlossen, im Mai einen eidgenössischen Brieftaubenwettflug zu veranstalten, an welchem nicht nur die eidgenössischen Brieftaubenstationen, sondern auch Brieftaubenbesitzer mit ihren Tauben sich betheiligen können. An Stelle der bisherigen Auszeichnungen für gute Leistungen (Geld, Medaillen und Diplome) sollen silberne Uhren treten.

Graubünden. Das Hotel „Engadiner Kulm" in St. Moritz kündigte in der „Alpine Post" an, daß es in den Monaten Juni und Juli für englische Offiziere, welche den Krieg mit Transvaal mitgemacht haben und hier Erholung suchen, die Pensionspreise um 50 Prozent ermäßige.

Neuenburg. Der gegen Ende 1899 in Neuenburg verstorbene Frederic de Pury hat testamentarisch den Ferienkolonien 50,000 Francs, mehreren Spitälern und Unterstützungsvereinen insgesammt 67,000 Francs und dem Museum 26 Gemälde vermacht.

Genf. Das Genfer Polizeidepartement hat alle illustrirten Zeitungen mit Karikaturen, welche beleidigend für das englische Volk sind, konfiszirt. Zugleich hat das Polizeidepartement scharfe Befehle gegen Wiederholung solcher Vorgänge ertheilt.

Rheinprovinz.

Ameln. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte den 70jährigen Gemeindeempfänger Cremer, der nach Kairo geflüchtet war, sich dann aber selbst gestellt hatte, wegen Unterschlagung von 46,000 Mark zu dreijährigem Gefängniß und fünfjährigem Ehrverlust.

Düren. Die Stadtverordneten beschlossen die Annahme einer Anleihe von 1,200,000 Mark für die sofortige Errichtung eines Elektrizitätswerkes und den späteren Bau einer elektrischen Bahn durch die Stadt und bis zum Bahnhofe Lendersdorf.

Düsseldorf. Hier starb der Direktor der Benzenberg'schen Sternwarte, Geheimer Regierungsrath Dr. Robert Luther, bekannt als der Entdecker der 24 Düsseldorfer Planeten.

M.-Gladbach. Die Gladbacher Aktiengesellschaft hat jüngst für den Bau von 100 Arbeiterwohnhäusern ein größeres Gelände erworben; 36 von diesen Häusern sollen sofort errichtet werden. Seit ihrem Bestehen erbaute die Gesellschaft bis jetzt hier 534 Häuser, von denen 507 verkauft beziehungsweise mit Kaufanwartschaft vermiethet sind.

Provinz Sachsen.

Nordhausen. Der Landmesser a. D. Büchner, der als Versicherungskommissär für unsere Stadt in Diensten der Provinzial-Städtefeuersozietät der Provinz Sachsen hier thätig war, wurde dieser Tage wegen Brandstiftung in Haft genommen. Das Feuer brach in seinem Wohnhause aus, wurde aber schnell entdeckt und gelöscht. Dabei fand man im ganzen Gebäude die raffinirtesten Branddorrichtungen. Am anderen Tage erhängte sich Büchner im Untersuchungsgefängnisse.

Worbis. Dem „Verein für wirthschaftliche Frauenschulen auf dem Lande" ist durch das Entgegenkommen des Landwirthschaftsministeriums auf eine lange Reihe von Jahren ein Flügel der Domäne Reifenstein miethweise überlassen worden, um die seit April 1897 bestehende erste Frauenschule von Nieder-Ofleiden in Hessen auf das Eichsfeld zu verlegen. Die Frauenschule hat den Zweck, Mädchen gebildeter Stände vom 18. Lebensjahr an praktisch und theoretisch auf den Beruf der Hausfrau oder deren Stellvertreterin, der Betriebsleiterin in Anstalten für Wohlfahrtspflege oder der Lehrerin an Haushaltungsschulen vorzubereiten.

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Den bekannten Naturapostel Johannes Guitzeit aus Loschwitz bei Dresden verurtheilte die hiesige Strafkammer wegen Beschimpfung der jüdischen Religion zu drei Monaten Gefängniß.

Görlitz. Kommerzienrath Müller, ein eifriger Förderer der hiesigen Kleinkinderschule, hat diesem Werke zum Neubau eines Hauses eine weitere Gabe von 10.000 Mark zugewendet.

Romance and Fashions on the American Rivera

The South Eastern States Are Profiting from the Reign of Patriotism Among the Fashionables

QUEEN FASHION reigns supreme in this historic old town of St. Augustine, where are gathered together those of the fashionable set from many cities who wished to escape the rigors of the Lenten season at home, and who did not wish for a season abroad.

And, indeed, why should any American woman wish for a season abroad if it is climatic conditions she is looking for. Along the Florida coast the summer breezes are blowing, and along the beach and in the spacious hotels the finest creations of the summer novelties are displayed. That is to say, the novelties that are being displayed at the fashionable wintering places of the south to-day will prove but the forerunners of the brilliant novelties of an unusually brilliant season at the northern resorts when their day comes.

All the way from Charleston south to Havana one finds these summer breezes, these fashionable folks and fashionable attire, but their sweet simplicity and charming southern manners, so different from anything we see in the northern cities, I realized as I never did before the charm of our own south and the attractions it offers for the American people as a winter resort.

At Jacksonville, at St. Augustine, at the smaller cities and towns further south, one finds the same conditions, the same charm, and the growing popularity of the American Rivera is richly deserved.

This growth of patriotism on the part of American women, which has given to the south that which it rightly deserves, is destined to prove a blessing to Porto Rico and probably Cuba. I overheard a conversation between two charmingly gowned young women in Jacksonville the other day which goes to prove the truth of this statement.

"We would have gone to Ponce this winter," said one, "but papa had been there and said that he could not find suitable accommodations for us. We were so terribly disappointed that he has promised to build a house in Porto Rico for a winter home for mamma and myself."

"That would be simply delightful," said the other. "I was in Ponce last fall, and it is the most charming place I was ever in. So unique, and so romantic, you know. If only a number of nice people would go there for the winter it would be simply delightful, and I have heard of any number of people who intend going there in future."

That was all, but it was enough. These same charming daughters of wealthy papas can make or unmake any place which their fancy dictates, and so it is that Porto Rico will come in for a share of the benefits of the prevalent American patriotism.

CHARMING EVENING GOWNS SEEN AT ST. AUGUSTINE.

But I have not written a word of fashions in all this rambling letter, and the south this winter presents so much of fashions to write about. One sees so many beautiful things that are a help in the full understanding of what is to come when the March winds and the April showers of the north have given place to the sunshine of May and June.

One of the things that my visit here has taught me is to watch for a great display of tucks, plaits and ruffles in the summer gowns of silks, grenadines, mousselines, crepe de chine, gauzes, cambrics, linen, organdies and lace.

In skirts one will see garments that are much fuller than for several seasons, but costumes will not depart far from the clinging tendencies, and the ideal lines of nature are not to be absolutely hidden, but the gown sufficiently tight to give a graceful movement, the extra fullness being at the knees and below.

There are some new ideas illustrated here in the false box plaits in which the plait is laid on. There is also a great tendency noticed towards drapery, and will be seen in softer material, as skirts are nearly all gathered up slightly at a point back of the hips, this giving way to the bustle, as women of to-day insist upon free, graceful and easy movements.

At some of the society functions, all of them of an informal nature, that I have witnessed during the few days that I have been here, I have seen some of the most beautiful of gowns for all sorts of occasions. Space will not permit of a description of them, but I send along three sketches of charming examples of the dressmaker's art which will illustrate the tendency of the styles as illustrated at these southern resorts.

these summer gowns. That territory represents to the Americans what the Rivera of France represents to Europe; it is the American Rivera. Each winter season sees a larger gathering of the fashionables in these parts, each season sees additions from new parts of the union. The really swell set have almost discarded the annual pilgrimage to Europe for the winter season; patriotism is becoming a hobby with them and the people of the south are profiting by this hobby. Long live the hobby.

Aside from St. Augustine, Jacksonville and Savannah are favorite stopping places, and at both the hotels are crowded to the limit. And who could ask for a more beautiful place in which to spend the winter season than the beautiful city of Savannah. People have told me that they went to Nice for the romance connected with that historic French town, but why the necessity? As I wandered through the beautiful streets of Savannah a few days ago and viewed the old southern homes with their vine-covered verandas, their tree-bordered walks, the ample proportions of the old mansions themselves, and met and talked with the kindly southern women whose chief attraction lies not in their fash-

INTO ARCTIC REGIONS.

Lieutenant Peary's Plans to Reach the Pole.

GREAT PREPARATIONS MADE.

Intrepid Arctic Explorer Has Stored Supplies For His Final Dash to the North—Has Cleared a Road to Fort Conger—Will Reduce His Party.

During this month Lieutenant Peary, if all has gone well with him since he severed his connection with civilization last August by sending his depot ship Windward home, will be organizing his little band of whites and Eskimos for what his friends believe will be his last daring attempt to reach the north pole.

The sun refrains to gladden the eye of the Greenland wayfarer on Feb. 21, and it is followed by a week or two of violent storms, usually succeeded by a period of fine weather. Peary's intention is to utilize this period for a land march to Fort Conger, and thence, after a rest and organization of his expedition, to push on to Cape Joseph Henry and from that over the unbroken ice floe of the polar basin to the pole itself, if he can reach there, and, if not, to as high a latitude as he can make his way, says the St. John's (N. F.) correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald.

From Cape Sabine, which is 23 miles across Smith sound from Etah, Peary has cleared a post road by means of crowbars, dynamite and hard work right to Fort Conger, following the coast line. Peary might have remained at Conger all this winter and thus have escaped all the hardships incident to a winter march over such a stretch, but by falling back to Etah he was able to assume the personal direction of the preliminary work among the natives. He had several tons of supplies landed from the Windward and Diana last season, and they killed 119 walruses.

All these stores Peary intends to carry across the sound this month on the ice and then convey them to Conger stage by stage. As a provision against possible disaster and to be a last resort in case of extremity he has provided caches of stores already at Capes Sabine, Durville, Napoleon, Fraser, Shaw and Lawrence, the most prominent headlands along the route. At Fort Conger, too, he has three tons of stores, besides the remainder of the Greely outfit, and he has also a boat there and one at Durville.

LIEUTENANT PEARY.

These caches will not be disturbed by Peary if he can avoid doing so. He will depend for the sustenance of himself and party as well as of the Eskimo colony which accompanies him upon the stores they bring and upon the musk ox they can secure along the route. That these are fairly plentiful is instanced by the fact that last winter Peary and those with him secured 28. If the weather favors him, Peary should have all his supplies stored at Conger by the end of March and be able to advance in April.

From among the several families he will select 10 or 12 whose heads are strong, sturdy workmen, dog drivers and traveling experts, and with these and all the available dogs he will push on to Cape Joseph Henry, at the northern extremity of land, so far as is known, in that section of the polar circle, where he will establish an advance basis, set up camps for the women and children and store up supplies for their use and that of the selected party of the pole attacking expedition.

These will consist of Peary and his two assistants, Dederick and Henson, and ten picked natives, each man driving a team of 8 to 12 dogs, the sledges being laden with stores for 40 to 50 days. The trip will be something like that of Nansen and Johannsen, the principle underlying it—that of reaching the pole by sledge travel—being the same, though the Norwegians' experience has enabled Peary to improve upon their plans.

On leaving the camp at Cape Joseph Henry all in the party will begin to eat off one sledge, the contents of the others being kept untouched. When that is exhausted, all the best dogs in the team will be taken from it and distributed among the other relays, and the Eskimo will be started homeward with enough stores to carry him there and a couple of the poorest dogs to haul his empty sledge, and so on until three sledges, with the very best dogs in the whole pack, remain, any of the animals which weaken being killed and their comrades fed with the flesh.

Having advanced, as he hopes, some hundreds of miles by this time and sent home his last Eskimo, Peary will divide all the remaining stores among the three sledges, and the three Americans will then grapple with the final stage of the journey, that of making a record for the "farthest north" even if unfortunate enough to be unable to reach the pole. From Cape Joseph Henry to the pole is about 500 miles.

Following Collection of Jokes Furnishes Some Idea of the Minister-Author's Views on Humor Fit For a Christian Paper—A Sample Poem. Cause of Divorce.

The Rev. Charles M. Sheldon's idea of humor and Christian poetry is shown by the following collection of jokes and a poem by Miss Susan Coolidge:

A FEW LAUGHS.

Friend: "You've done very well, haven't you, doctor?" Doctor: "Very well. I can almost afford to tell some of my fashionable patients that there is nothing the matter with them."—Tit-Bits.

Genealogist: "Have you any preference, madame?" Parvenue: "Only this. It will be necessary for us to come of a long-lived ancestry, our portrait gallery is so dreadfully small!"—Detroit Journal.

Ties of Brotherhood—Jones: "How do you feel about this phonetic spelling reform?" Brown: "Well, I think it will be valuable in wiping out party bitterness between the educated and uneducated."—Indianapolis News.

Askit: "Dauber is painting a picture to keep the wolf from the door. I wonder where he can place it with the best results." Tellit: "On the door."—Baltimore American.

"Don't hide your light under a bushel," said Uncle Eben, "an' at de same time, don't go roun' s'posin' that you is de whole electric power-house an' dat de town ud be dark if you wus ter quit."—Washington Star.

Delusion: "A man sometimes thinks he's having his own way when he is really doing what his wife planned for him." "Yes," answered the mild-eyed philosopher; "many a one thinks he's an autocrat when he is merely an automaton."—Washington Star.

Close at Hand.

(By Susan Coolidge.)

The day is long, and the day is hard,
We are tired of the march and of keeping guard;
Tired of the sense of a fight to be won,
Of the days to live through and of work to be done;
Tired of ourselves and of being alone.

And all the while, did we only see,
We walk in the Lord's own company;
We fight, but 'tis He who nerves our arm;
He turns the arrows which else might harm,
And out of the storm he brings a calm.

The work which we count so hard to do,
He makes it easy, for He works too;
The days that are long to live are His,
A bit of His bright eternities,
And close to our need His helping is.

O eyes that were holden and blinded quite,
And caught no glimpse of the dying light!
O deaf, deaf ears, which did not hear
The heavenly garment trailing near!
O faithless heart, which dared to fear!

Froebel Started It in 1837—Aim and Scope of the Child-Garden Idea.

[By Mrs. E. Davidson Worden.]

In the year 1837—in the land of Germany, Friedrich Froebel thought out and worked out a theory. He studied child-nature and gave to the world his great discovery—the discovery of the child. Diestergeg said of him: "The man is actually a seer. He looks into the innermost nature of the child as no one else has done."

THE CAUSE OF DIVORCES.

Judge Hazen Speaks of Cases in His Court.

One hundred and ninety-nine divorce cases were filed in the Shawnee county district court in the year preceding January 1, 1900, according to statistics compiled by A. M. Callahan.

Judge Hazen granted seven divorce decrees yesterday. When asked what in his opinion was the cause of so many suits for divorce, Judge Hazen said:

"I think the principal cause is that young men and women do not consider the serious responsibility that marriage involves. In most of the cases in the district court there is no contest. The parties agree to separate, desertion is charged and a divorce secured. About one case in fifteen is contested. Most of the people asking for divorces have little or no property. We live in a western country where people are coming and going all the time. Among these are young men and young women. They meet some one of the opposite sex who for one reason or another is attractive. They decide to marry. In a few years they want to move on again. The sentiment that caused them to marry is not as strong as the desire to go to some other state or country. Being poor they find that fulfilling the marriage covenant is a restraint. They agree to separate. In the time prescribed by law a petition for divorce is filed and there is nothing to do but enter a decree."

[The cause for most of the above divorces would probably be found in an absence of Christian definition of marriage. C. M. S.]

San Salvador and the Nicaragua Canal.

Senor Rafael Zaldivar, minister of San Salvador to the courts of Europe, said at the Fifth Avenue hotel the other evening to a reporter of the New York Tribune that the people of San Salvador were deeply interested in the Nicaragua canal question. "We believe," he said, "that San Salvador, being a producing country, will profit more by the canal than Nicaragua will, and we earnestly hope that the canal will be completed. Of course we hope to have the canal open to all nations at all times, but if the approaches are to be fortified we would prefer to have the United States build and control the fortifications. We look upon the United States as a little sister might regard a big brother, and there is no reason to suppose that the friendly relations of the two countries will ever be broken."

Miss Erla Hittle, Ph. D., Heidelberg.

Miss Erla Hittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omar L. Hittle of Richmond, Ind., recently graduated in Germany at the Heidelberg university, a cablegram being received to that effect the other day. She was also given an enviable distinction, the doctor's degree being conferred upon her, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. She is the first American woman to be thus honored at Heidelberg or at any other university in Germany.

"MEDIAN" IN THE CENSUS.

New Word Coined to Supplant Average and Center.

A new word seems destined to come into use with the census of 1900 and the discussions that will follow the interpretation of its results, says a Washington correspondent of the Boston Transcript. The word is "median." It ought to displace average and center for the greater number of ordinary census uses, since the notion of "average" which most people have is really expressed by "median," while "average" means quite another thing. There is room in our terminology for both terms, just as we distinguish between plurality and majority to good advantage in discussing election returns. The average age of the population of the United States, for example, is 25 years; the median age is 21 years. The latter means the point at which there are as many people above as below. An 80-year-old man would then have no more influence in pulling up the median age of his community than a 40-year-old man so long as both were above the average. The octogenarian would, however, have a great influence on the average age of a community, as will appear from the formula by which that result is obtained. If there are 157 persons 1 year old, 113 persons 2 years old, 95 3 years old and so on, the 157 would be multiplied by 1, the 113 by 2, the 95 by 3, as far as ages go, and then the grand total would be divided by the whole number of persons. The quotient would be the number of years of life which had been enjoyed by the average person, or the "average" age. For statistical purposes "median" age is just as valuable, and the establishment of the distinction is important, as numberless errors arise from the confusion of the two.

What will probably surprise more people, however, is that the "center of population" of the United States is not the point of which just as many people are south as north, as many east as west. That would be the median point of population. By the census of 1890 the center of population was 20 miles east of Columbus, Ind., while the median point was about 70 miles northeast of it, in Darke county, O., near the western boundary of the state. The reason the "center" gravitates west of the median is that the Pacific coast population is on the long arm of the lever, and influences result much as the octogenarian does the average age. Just think where our center of population would be, according to theory, with the Philippine Islands regarded as a part of the United States! The eastern seaboard might well say, "We have no influence here."

A SHELDON EDITORIAL.

Minister Author's Views on How to Make a City Better.

Mr. Sheldon's leading editorial in the Topeka Capital of March 14 is under the caption "What Can We Do to Make a Better City?"

First.—We can all be better men and women ourselves. It does not make any great difference so far as the character of the city is concerned whether we personally belong to one political party or another; whether we are artistic or musical or college educated or wealthy or poor will not make any great difference necessarily with the moral condition of the city. But it will make the great and vital difference if we are better men and women every day. It is far more important to this city that we tell the truth and keep pure and act unselfishly and love one another than that we build factories and encourage commercial industry and put up fine residences and improve our property. It is as true now as it was when these words were first spoken, that "righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

"Seek ye for the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you."

If Topeka is, first of all, a city full of men and women who want to do God's work instead of their own, who are seeking the kingdom of God before they seek their own wealth or political honor or social place, the city will be worth while in everything else that makes a city what it ought to be.

What we need more than anything else in this city (and the same is true of every other city in the world) is better people, more personal righteousness of the kind that stands the wear and tear of the business life and the social and political life of the municipality.

New Hotel For Cape Nome.

Among the first boats to go to Cape Nome, the new El Dorado, will be one which carries a five story wooden hotel all ready to put up. The ground space of the building, according to a San Francisco dispatch to the Chicago Tribune, is 60 by 100 feet, and it will have 102 bedrooms. On the second floor will be a large room for banquets or parties, and on the ground floor will be the office, grillroom and saloon, with a bar 34 feet long. Each of the bedrooms is provided with outside light and double frostproof sash, clothes closet, electric light and call bell service. All the walls, floors and ceilings will be deadened, and the walls will be covered with canvas duck painted to represent rough tinted plastering.

An Electrical Shoe.

Engelbert Heheuberger, a Bohemian shoemaker residing at Bodenbach, a little town about 18 miles from Dresden, has invented a walking shoe which is heated by means of an electrical apparatus in the heel, with tubes conveying heat under the surface of the sole, says the Chicago News. Unherveer, the inventor of the ordinary winter shoe, says that it has been conclusively proved that the new electrical invention gives absolute protection from snow and rain at a cost of 25 florins ($11).

THE NORTH AMERICAN (PHILADELPHIA)

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it prints all the news, and all the news it prints is true.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it's bright and brisk, up-to-date and vigorous, but not yellow.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because its only policy is to tell the truth. It has no covert or personal interests to promote. It serves no political ambition, no creed, no class prejudice, no mere partisan purpose.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it advocates equal taxation and battles against the existing system, which favors the rich corporation at the expense of the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer and the wage-earner.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it stands for Republican principles, and makes war upon all who, under the stolen name of Republicanism, are disloyal to those principles.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it believes manhood and not money should rule. Therefore it upholds the rights of all, as against the aggressive power of the privileged few.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because no boss, no corporation, can control one line of its space.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it is non-sectarian and broad; every party, every faith, every class, and the workingman equally with the millionaire, gets a fair hearing in its columns.

IT'S DIFFERENT, because it upholds faith in humanity, and the progress of mankind toward higher ideals, larger hopes and better living.

The Life of St. Patrick

It Has Given Rise to Many Pretty Legends

[Special Dublin (Ireland) Letter.]

TIME was when "they hung men, and women, too, for wearing of the green." They don't hang them any more nowadays, but the average citizen of modern John Bulldom has just as much love for the adorers of the heavenly emerald as had his ancestors of a century ago. True, her imperial and royal majesty, Victoria, "by the grace of God, queen of Ireland," has just issued an edict permitting the Irish soldiers now fighting England's battles in South Africa to wear shamrocks on their hats on St. Patrick's day, "as evidence of her appreciation of the loyalty of the Irish, and especially of the good fighting done by the Irish troops at the front."

No doubt the queen means well, but she evidently forgets that the true Irishman observes St. Patrick's day and wears the shamrock in a purely religious spirit. The shamrock was not used by the saint as an emblem of warfare, but to teach rough King Tara and his court the truths of holy religion. The king, so goes the story, which every true son of Ireland believes, was incapable of understanding the mystery of the Trinity, and good St. Patrick himself, knowing this doctrine to be incomprehensible to the untutored mind, sought to symbolize it in some way so that the king might understand. Hitting upon the shamrock, he called the monarch's attention to the unity of the flower and the trinity of its leaves. The symbol satisfied the royal mind, and St. Patrick had the satisfaction of seeing the Celts adopt the Christian religion.

"St. Patrick was a gentleman," goes an old song, which is truer than most songs. He was born about the year 387 of noble parents, in a castle near the French city of Boulogne. When 16 years of age he was carried captive into Ireland by one of the marauding Irish kings, who were in the habit of invading the domains of their neighbors across the sea. He was taken to County Antrim and became the slave of a chief named Milcho. After being in captivity six years, young Patrick had a dream in which he was told to make his escape. He reached his home about the year 407, after undergoing many hardships, and after a four years' course of study prepared to go back to Ireland, in response to a vision, and the cry of many voices, saying: "We entreat thee, holy boy, come and walk in the midst of us." He landed in Wicklow in 432, as representative of Pope Celestine. There he was repulsed and proceeded to Lecale. After trying in vain to see and convert Milcho, his former master, he went further into the country, and celebrated Easter, in the year 433, near the castle of Tara, where the princes and nobles of the whole kingdom were assembled. It was there that he plucked a shamrock and exhibited it as a symbol of the Triune God.

A PORTRAIT OF ST. PATRICK.

He performed many miracles in the vicinity of Tara. On one occasion he engaged in a contest with the wise men of the assemblage. One of them, called Lochel, in order to show the power of his own religion, rose in the air as though ascending to the skies, when St. Patrick prayed, and angel hands flung a snowball out of Heaven, which knocked Lochel down head foremost and killed him. At another place two fair maidens, daughters of one of the kings, were at a fountain, when they saw men clothed in white garments, and holding books in their hands, advancing chanting. The princesses, full of wonder, asked them who they were, when St. Patrick, seizing the opportunity, announced to them the true God.

St. Patrick lived to a good old age—some placing it at 134 years. His funeral was celebrated with great pomp. Great processions of believers bearing lights were the main feature of it, and during the whole 12 days of these obsequies darkness was said to have been completely dispelled. This gave rise to the legend that the sun went not down on this occasion, but real daylight lasted all the time.

Such is a faint outline of the life of the great Frenchman who converted Ireland and whose greatness has just been indirectly acknowledged by an English queen.

Saved Salisbury's Cabinet

Mr. Wyndham Made Famous by One Speech

[Special London Letter.]

THAT great events bring out great men is an axiom whose truth has been established again in the case of George Wyndham, under secretary of state for war in the British government. Although but 37 years of age, his name is in every Englishman's mouth.

Just before Gen. Roberts' advance, when the fumes of defeat had filled the London air with dissatisfaction and despair, and when the fall of the Salisbury ministry was expected momentarily, young Wyndham rose in his seat in the house of commons and by the magic touch of simple eloquence plucked a partisan victory out of almost certain rout. His speech was not masterful, but it was based on truth. He did not endeavor to excuse the blunders of the generals at the front nor the inefficiency of the war office. Quite the contrary. He admitted that the government had doubtless made some serious mistakes at the beginning of the South African war, but was now profiting by them and was doing certain things to retrieve the reverses and was preparing to do more to prove to the world that England was still a power of the first rank.

These simple facts, simply stated, saved the ministry which had been brought to the verge of collapse by Lord Salisbury's brusque replies to parliamentary inquiries and by Secretary of War Lansdowne's unfortunate and ill-timed braggadocio. Mr. Wyndham's modesty and honesty were applauded by the opposition and a new lease of life given to the cabinet—one more chance to redeem itself in the eyes of a suspecting nation.

Should the ministry be reorganized to-morrow, the people would insist upon Wyndham's elevation to the war office. To such distinction he would be entitled not only by his ability, but also by birth, social position and education. He was born in London, August 29, 1863, the eldest son of Percy Wyndham and grandson of the first Lord Leonfield. After attending the military school at Sandhurst he joined the Coldstream guards and participated in the Suakim and Cypress campaigns, earning the khedive's star of valor for distinguished bravery.

In 1877 he accepted the appointment as private secretary for Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, who was then chief secretary for Ireland; and served in that capacity until 1892. In 1889 he was elected to parliament for Dover. In 1892 the tories lost control of the government, and the three years of political inactivity which followed this change Wyndham devoted to travel and study in South Africa, where he became intimately acquainted with Cecil Rhodes.

RT. HON. GEORGE WYNDHAM.

In 1899 Mr. Wyndham married Countess Grosvenor, widow of the duke of Westminster's oldest son; and thereby became the stepfather of the then Viscount Belgrave, who recently became, by the death of his grandfather, duke of Westminster and the richest young man in Great Britain, if not the world.

AMONG THE STEPPERS.

When the season has fairly opened and the weather has become settled so that work may begin in earnest one of the liveliest places in the State will be the new track which R. A. Fairbairn has constructed near Cranford. This track lies in a neighorhood containing many speedy horses, and being on the line of the railroad, will vie with Plainfield as a trotting centre. Fanwood, Elizabeth, Westfield and Roselle are within short distances, and there are some speeders in each town. What the intention of Mr. Fairbairn is with regard to the use of the track we have not heard. It is likely, however, that he will receive horses in addition to his own. His first idea was, we know, to keep the track exclusively for his own stock, but his own ideas have broadened since interest in the course has become so general. There will be enough applications to fill all the stables and enough horses to fill the classes in a series of matinees. Mr. Fairbairn is not one of the straight-laced kind, and although he is active in church relations and stands high in his denomination, he is fond of a good horse, and like all gook Christians, believes in enjoying the good things which Providence has placed within his reach. His Sunday-school class recently presented him with a handsome cut-class souvenir, handsomely inscribed.

WHIST

The New Jersey Whist Club successfully defended the American Whist League challenge trophy in a long drawn out contest in the Roseville Athletic Club. The contestants were members of the Knickerbocker Whist Club. The contest began at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and was continued until nearly 1 o'clock yesterday morning, with the New Jersey members victors by a score of 23 tricks to 18. The victorious players were T. B. Otis, captain; H. F. Aylnar, C. E. Cameron and F. F. Eagles. The Knickerbocker's players were Messrs. R. M. Cramer, captain; G. Adams, E. Elliot and W. E Watkins.

VARICUS SPORTS.

One of the most exciting matches in the handicap pool tournament at Krewson's pool rooms will be played this evening. It will be between Sutterline, 75, who is now in the lead, and Maltby, 100, who is a formidable rival for honors. Friday evening Walsh defeated Kinston, 60 to 47.

Baseball and only baseball will occupy the attention of the boys of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association this spring. The matter was brought before a recent meeting of the board of directors of the association as to whether or not it would be advisable to hold an athletic meet this spring. Much interest has been shown in the baseball team and the general opinion seemed to be that it would be better, owing to the small number of the older boys in the High School, to devote all the energies to baseball and leave track and field athletics until fall.

GOLF

The recent good weather has started the golfers going once more. Events on the Lakewood links have been frequent., Saturday afternoon, March 10th, two members of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club participated in one of the handicap tournaments there. S. L. Schoonmaker finished fourth with a gross score of 100 and a handicap of 10. C. W. Fisk, of the same club, was eighth with a gross score of 115 and a handicap of 115.

To Start Building Fund.

A special collection was taken in the Congregational church yesterday morning to start a fund for a new building. It was not expected to raise anywhere near the amount necessary but only to make a start. The returns were surprisingly large. The money will be placed at interest and additions will be made to it from time to time until the necessary amount can be raised.

Sermon on Starving in India.

The annual collection for foreign missions was taken at the First Baptist church yesterday morning, and the pastor, Dr. Yerkes, preached a missionary sermon, referring especially to the starving people of India.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Tonight that ever popular and welcome visitor, Al. Reeves, will bring his big double famous company of singers, comedians and dancers to Music Hall. This season Mr. Reeves is surpassing all former efforts of his managerial career and offers his friends and patrons the strongest, most refined, best costumed and heartiest laughing show ever under his management. Inez Mecusker, a prima donna of national fame, whose previous engagements have been with such attractions as Sousa's Band, etc., is engaged especially for Mr. Reeves' company, and without a doubt at the highest salary ever paid a singer for a vaudeville engagement of the nature of the Al. Reeves company. But Miss Mecusker is not the only high-class feature. Each and every artist has been engaged for their individual fitness for certain lines of work completing an all around high-class vaudeville and extravaganza entertainment. Then there is Fannie Fern Thatcher, May Belle, and Celeste and Bayles, forming in all six of the smartest soubrettes embodied in any one company. Al. Reeves, himself, will appear at every performance with something new always in his catalogues of parodies, storyettes and everydayism. One of the bright particular comedians of the Reeves show is Robert Van-Osten, whose quaint character is decidedly original.

Home From California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward White have returned from their trip to California. Mr. White was absent 16 weeks. He expressed the opinion that the prospects for business in the land of sunshine and flowers is not as flattering as he anticipated. He said he would not advise a young man to go to California with the expectation of finding employment. There was little to be had and the wages were very small. Mr. White said he saw a number of New Jersey people in California, some being old Plainfielders, who expressed a desire to return to the east. California is a delightful country to visit, particularly the southern section, but as a place of residence Mr. White thinks it does not campare favorably with Plainfield.

Assemblyman Foote's Mother-in-Law Dead

The death of Mrs. Martha Wentworth, widow of the late J. Langdon Wentworth, of Strafford, Pa., occurred yesterday suddenly at Roanoke, Va., where she went a few weeks ago to visit her son, Charles C. Wentworth. Up to that time she resided with her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Foote, 1211 Putnam avenue, and she expected to return here soon. Mrs. Wentworth was a native of Philadelphia. The interment will take place at Portsmouth, N. H., in the family plot.

Runaway Horse Demolished Sleigh.

A horse belonging to Horace J. Martin, of Jackson avenue, ran away yesterday afternoon and succeeded in demolishing the sleigh that was attached. The horse started on East Fourth street, near Park avenue. Mr. Martin left him standing a moment. The horse turned into Watchung avenue and set a lively pace along the sidewalk, wrecking the sleigh against trees and fences. At Fifth street the runaway returned to the road and continued nearly to Netherwood.

Death of a Famous Inventor.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Basking Ridge, March 19—F. Nishwitz, aged 70 years, died Saturday of pneumonia. He was the owner of large agricultural works at Millington. Twenty-five years ago he sold to Walter A. Wood for $100,000 a patent on a mowing machine. Mr. Nishwitz was formerly chairman of the Morris County Republican committee and a director of the Morristown National Iron Bank. He leaves a wife and three daughters.

Springfield School Election.

The Springfield school meeting will be held in the Town Hall tomorrow night. Members of the Board of Education to fill the places of President Hagel, District Clerk Sickley and Trustee Stiles will be chosen. The two former members will stand for reelection, but Mr. Stiles will not be a candidate. The question of voting $2,000 for school maintenance will be considered.

Want Pardon for Murderer.

The aged mother and wife of James Titus, formerly of Hackettstown, are circulating a petition for his pardon from State Prison, where he is serving a live sentence for the murder of Miss Tillie Smith, at Hackettstown, a number of years ago. The petition is receiving numerous signatures.

Succesful Cake Sale.

The Benevolent Circle of King's Daughters gave a cake sale at the home of Mrs. Lapsley, of 816 First place, Saturday afternoon to raise funds for the support of the city nurse. The net proceeds amounted to $25.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Town Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—A series of entertainments will be held in Calvary Baptist church this week. This evening Dr. Richardson, of New York, will deliver a lecture.

—The annual meeting of the local union, Y. P. S. C. E., will be held in Trinity Reformed church Tuesday evening, April 3d. There will be an address by a prominent speaker, and a programme pleasing to the Endeavorers is being arranged.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Annie Dorvis, of Asbury Park, is visiting at the home of Chief Engineer T. O. Doane, of West Fifth street.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. McGee, of Westervelt avenue, will be delighted to learn that her health is improving during her stay at Atlanta, Ga.

Lost Her Voice Teaching School.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, March 19—Owing to the loss of her voice for the second time, Miss Ada Nice, a teacher in the Milford public school, has been compelled to resign. She first lost her voice some weeks ago, but it returned to her suddenly one day later on and she resumed her duties.

Mr. Martine as a Guest.

James E. Martine was a guest of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick at their annual banquet in Quien's Hall, Elizabeth, Saturday. Mr. Martine responded to the toast, "The Sons of Ireland," in a characteristic manner. Among the other speakers were Congressman Sulzer and Wm. Gourley.

Rev. Mr. Gardner Still Ill.

Although Rev. G. W. Gardner, of Grace M. E. church, is very much improved from an attack of the grip, he was unable to occupy his pulpit yesterday. In the morning Rev. Dr. Whitney preached, and Rev. G. W. Smith occupied the pulpit in the evening.

MEXICO'S RICHES.

Minerals and Oil Found In Abundance—A New American Cemetery.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 19.—Returning mining experts say that the profusion of prospects of every sort of material in the state of Cuerrero warrants naming that state the treasure house of the republic.

It is no longer a question as to whether oil in quantities can be had in Mexico, for this has been demonstrated satisfactorily in three different states of the republic. Transportation is now the vital question in this connection. The company now engaged in exploiting Vera Cruz fields have got about 500 tons of machinery on the ground and are pushing matters as quickly as possible, but while they have developed the property quite sufficiently to be sure of deposits there it is in the first place some 40 miles freighting to the coast and then water transportation before encountering the long journey to the City of Mexico, which is, of course, the principal market point to depend upon.

The new American cemetery is now ready for interments. It will take the place of the old United States government cemetery here which was originally established for the burial of American soldiers killed or having died of disease during the invasion and has been the favorite cemetery of the American residents, so that it is now comparatively filled, and there is no room for new interments except by placing one coffin on top of another, which the government will no longer permit. The new cemetery is spacious and will be made the most beautiful burial place in the valley of Mexico.

Medals For Spanish War Veterans.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The National Society Sons of the American Revolution on Wednesday evening next will present medals to such members of the District of Columbia society as served in the war with Spain. Senator Lodge will deliver the address. This action is taken in accordance with a resolution adopted at the last congress of the National society at Detroit authorizing a committee to procure from the government an old Spanish gun or plate from one of the captured ships to strike medals from the same and distribute them to members of the society who served in the last war.

Granite Workers Refuse an Offer.

CONCORD, N. H., March 19.—The following terms of settlement of the granite cutters' strike were offered the cutters in this city by the manufacturers and refused: Eight hours for a working day and 35 cents per hour as a minimum rate of wages, the cutters to resume at once and continue at work pending an adjustment of the piece scale of prices; that all building work done in this city by day work or piece work be agreed upon at the same terms and conditions as may be finally agreed upon at Hallowell, Me., or Milford, Mass.

Russia Demands Exclusive Rights.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 19.—After prolonged deliberation upon the Russian demands for exclusive railway rights in Asia Minor the sublime porte has proposed a compromise whereby the railways would be constructed by Turkey and Russia in partnership. The Russian embassy insists upon the original demands, which the Turkish military commission strenuously opposes.

The Improvements on Egmont Key.

TAMPA, Fla., March 19.—The war department is preparing advertisements for bids for five additional buildings to be at once erected on Egmont key. There will be an administration building, a baker's shop, an oilhouse and a stable and large wagon shed. The work on the fortifications is still in progress and is very extensive.

—Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will hold a communication Tuesday evening next.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1900. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

BOROUGH COUNCIL ORGANIZED FOR YEAR

Appointment of Subordinate Officers Made by Mayor Smalley.

WM. DEBELE FOR FIRE CHIEF

MAYOR DOES NOT THINK IT BEST TO NAME JULIUS STAHL.

Make-up of Committees the Same as Last Year Except That Councilman Lee is Placed Where Mr. Burtis Served.

The annual meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council was held last evening and all the members were present except Mr. Swackhamer. Chas. A. Lee, the new member, was present, and took the place vacated by Mr. Burtis, whose term has expired. Previous to the regular meeting there was a conference of the members to consider certain matters which were brought up at the meeting which followed.

It was nerly 8:30 o'clock when the meeting was called to order, and by that time the lobby was filled with citizens, principally firemen, who were interested in the appointment of a Chief of the Fire Department. The first event on the programme was the reading of Mayor Smalley's message. This will be found in another column. After the reading of the message the Mayor made the appointments for the coming year. The appointments and salaries are as follows:

Borough Clerk and Auditor, Frank Rowley, $500; Borough Counsel, Chas. A. Reed, $350; Marshals, W. T. Campbell, F. E. Winn, J. J. Kilner, Fred Emmons, $600 each; Overseer of the Poor, J. J. Stahl, $150; Superintendent of Highways, Thomas Doud, $50 or $2 a day when employed; Borough Physician, J. Hervey Buchanan, $125; Chief of Fire Department, William Debele, $100; Engineer Fire Department, Alonzo Brokaw, $50; First Assistant Chief of Fire Department, William Demarest; Electrician, Joseph Newman, $125; Janitor Warren Engine House, George B. Stewart, $70; Janitor West End House, Frank Perry, $25; Borough Engineers and Surveyors, Frank J. Hubbard, west side; H. C. VanEmburgh, east side; Special Marshals, Patrick J. Reagan, Alex Maier, Wm. Kiernan, Emil Coley, L. W. Pope, Francis Whiteley, James Bagley, Israel Jones, Louis Wyckoff, J. Block, Richard McDonald and George Gunther, 25 cents an hour for special duty, or $2 a day when doing regular duty; Poundkeeper, John Stine.

The salaries stated above are per year. The Borough Engineers and Surveyors are paid when employed. Last year their services cost the borough $108, and the sum of $392 was saved to the borough. The sum of $500 was allowed for this work. Otherwise the salaries are just the same for this year as last. No Borough Recorder was appointed, the Mayor deciding to fill that position, and thus that salary will be saved to the borough. A letter was received from Recorder Long declining the office for another year.

Regarding the appointment of William Debele, as Chief of the Fire Department, Mayor Smalley made a word of explanation. He said that he felt slightly embarrassed, as the members had given expression as to who they wanted for Chief. The man they had selected, J. J. Stahl, is first class and he was sorry that at this time he could not appoint him. He thought that if he was continued in office he might do so later. Regarding Mr. Fairchild, he said that so far as he knew he had done his duty and had worked in harmony with the members of the department. He regretted that the conditions were such that he was obliged to make a change, but he felt it was his duty.

Mr. Rogers, on behalf of Mr. Fairchild, paid that officer a high compliment regarding his excellent services and willing co-operation with the members of the fire, water and lamp committee. He regretted that Mr. Fairchild could not be reappointed, and he offered a resolution that the thanks of the Mayor and Council be extended to him. The vote was unanimous for the resolution.

Various resolutions were offered by the Councilmen confirming the appointments by the Mayor and they were all unanimously adopted.

Mr. Valiant offered a resolution nominating Mr. Clark as President of the Council for 1900. As he did so he said it afforded him great pleasure to nominate this member. His association with him in the Council during the past twelve months had greatly

GOVERNOR SIGNS CITY HALL BILL

Common Council May Now Bond City for $100,000 to Accomplish Idea.

LOBBYING FOR THE FIREMEN

PLAINFIELDERS URGING PASSAGE OF THE CROSS BILL.

It Will Allow an Increase of Salary for Department Drivers—Franchise Tax Bill Passed by the Assembly.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 20.—Plainfielders may now go ahead and build a City Hall just as quick as the Common Council can conform with the legal stipulations required of it in that connection. Yesterday Governor Voorhees attached his signature to the bill empowering the city to issue bonds to the extent of $100,000 for such a purpose and to arrange all other details in the erection of a City Hall.

Among those seen hovering around the halls of the State House this morning were Chief T. O. Doane, City Judge Runyon, Andrew MacAardell and W. T. Townley, of Plainfield. They are here lobbying for the passing of the bill authorizing second-class cities to increase the salaries of fire department drivers to a maximum of $900 per year after five year's service.

Assurances have been received that all the Democratic side of the House is in favor of the bill, and it is thought that the measure will be passed. Although at first in favor of the bill, Assemblyman Foote is now working to defeat it.

The bill drawn at the suggestion of Governor Voorhees, imposing a franchise tax upon persons, companies and corporations enjoying municipal franchises, came up in the House and was put on final passage under a suspension of the rule. After a lively discussion, that lasted nearly an hour, the bill was passed without a dissenting vote.

WAS TAYNOR ELECTED?

It is Claimed That Legal Requirements Were Not Complied With by Republicans.

There seems to be some doubt as to whether the election of Charles Taynor, as Justice of the Peace, which occurred last week in the borough, is legal. The law is quoted as saying that when a person contests for the unexpired time of another person the person whose term expires should be printed on the ballot. This was not done at the election last week, and many contend that Mr. Taynor is not legally elected to the position. There is little likelihood of anyone contesting the point, however, and Mr. Taynor is quite likely to keep his office.

"Nellie" is no More.

"Nellie" the bull-dog owned be John Powers, the Somerset street druggist, died very suddenly last Sunday and there is much mourning in consequence. Mr. Powers sent the dog to the kennels owned by Mr. Finch, on Park avenue, and the animal was tied with a rope temporarily. He attempted to jump over a board partition and succeeded. This resulted in the dog hanging himself. When one of the men went into the place he found the canine dead. "Nellie" was a remarkable dog in many ways and she was well liked by every one who knew her. Her family is now scattered about the city, but each one is old enough to take care of himself.

Dead Dog in a Cellar.

There is a case in the borough for Health Inspector Pangborn to look after. Several days ago a large dog died at a certain home and his remains have laid in the cellar ever since. It is said that there is illness in the house among the inmates, and this may have something to do with it.

Pythians to Dance.

A dance will be given in the Camera Club rooms, Babcock building, tomorrow evening, under the auspices of Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias. The committee in charge consists of I. N. Wycoff, Frank Putnam, J. Van Winkle, Jr., Frank Humpston and E. P. T. Smith.

A Picnic in March.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a picnic Thursday evening in the Sunday-school room. Each lady attending will bring a box or basket of lunch and share it with whoever she happens to select for a partner.

Sickness of Teachers Closes School.

The Washingtonville Public School is closed this week on account of the illness of both the teachers, Mrs. S. S. Higgins and Ada Higgins.

STILL WANT LOWER FARES.

Board of Trade to Hold a Special Meeting To Discuss the Subject.

President Woolston, Eugene Laing, James C. Pope and Charles W. Runyon were the only members of the Board of Trade present at the rooms in the Babcock building last night. The number was not sufficient for a quorum and therefore no meeting was held. The quartette sat about the rooms until 9:30 o'clock enjoying each other's society. No other members putting in an appearance, not even Secretary Harry C. Runyon, it was decided to abandon any attempt to secure other members at that late hour. It is presumed that the disagreeable weather had much to do with the lack of a quorum.

At the suggestion of President Woolston it was decided to hold a special meeting next Monday night. It is urgently requested that all members attend this meeting, as special business is to come before the Board with relation to the matter of securing a reduction of fares on the Central Railroad. Committees from other Boards of Trades are waiting to hear a report from the Plainfield Board, when it is possible that a committee of the whole will be appointed to meet with the Central Railroad officials with a view of bringing about the much-discussed reduction.

TO EMULATE PARKHURST.

Rev. Arthur Crane to Tell From His Pulpit What he Sees in Vile Places.

A dispatch from Charleston, S. C., to the New York Sun says that Rev. Arthur Crane, formerly of Plainfield, but now pastor of the First Baptist church of Charleston, announced Sunday that he will begin this week to visit the "blind tigers" and questionable resorts of Charleston to gather material by personal observation for an address which he will deliver to men only at his church next Sunday. The announcement has made a sensation here. Mr. Crane says he will visit these places with prominent members of his church. It is not a Parkhurst movement, he says, but his congregation and the public regard it as exactly that.

Mr. Crane went to Charleston from Plainfield a few weeks ago. While trying a similiar movement in Boston several years ago he was threatened by a mob, but he did not falter. He says he will not be sidetracked by Charleston mobs.

GRIEF MAKES HER SONG-MAD.

Sits in the New Brunswick Jail and Sings all the Time.

Sheriff Barclay, of Middlesex county, has a prisoner who sings night and day. Her name is Annie Fazekas. She is song-crazy and cannot stop singing. Several days ago she received word of the sudden death of her mother.

The shock unnerved the girl, and the family by whom she was employed at New Market became alarmed over her queer actions. She burst out in song, and has since done little else. Dr. Wild said she was insane, and she was taken to the county jail in New Brunswick.

The girl sits constantly with her hat and coat on, as if in church, and holds a prayer-book in her hand, which she reads at intervals. Her voice is rather sweet, and inmates of the jail sit by the hour and listen to her.

Miss Lyon's Second Lenten Lecture.

The second lecture of the course by Miss Dorothy Wilberforce Lyon, Ph.D., on "Europe in Africa in the Nineteenth Century," was given at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Isaac L. Miller, 744 Watchung avenue. This lecture was of especial value to those interested in the present war, as it was an account of England's native wars and the establishment of her power in South Africa. The facts were set forth cleanly and in an entertaining way. The lecture next week will deal with the great African explorers.

Played Euchre in Elizabeth.

The members of the Montauk Euchre Club journeyed to Elizabeth last evening where they were entertained by one of their number, Miss Nellie Breen. Everyone had a good time and it was early this morning when the Plainfielders arrived home. Mrs. J. M. Smalley and Mrs. Robert M. Clark won first and second honors for the women, while Frank Blatz and Arthur A. Cannon were successful in securing the first and second for the men. The booby prizes were won by Miss Clara Williams and Horace Huff. The club will be entertained Monday evening, April 2d, by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Cannon, of Somerset street.

TEACHERS BLAMED BY MATRON EYLER.

Principal of the Girls' Industrial School Presents a Carefully Prepared Defence.

TALKS ABOUT CONSPIRACY.

TURMOIL WAS RAISED AND SHE COULDN'T STOP IT.

Mrs. Eyler's Testimony Was a Contradiction of the Mass of Testimony Presented by Many of the Witnesses.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 20.—Mrs. Myrtle B. Eyler, the principal of the State Industrial School, was witness in her own behalf yesterday before the special committee of the Legislature that is investigating the management of the school. Mrs Eyler was on the stand the entire day, and even then the taking of her testimony was not finished. She had the advantage of having gone over thoroughly with her counsel the testimony of the other witnesses she wished to refute, and each member of the committee was furnished by her counsel with a nine page synopsis of the matters upon which Mrs. Eyler wished to testify. The principal herself had another copy, and in addition she had a lot of answers already written, which she read in response to questions asked of her. By reason of this method, Mrs. Eyler's examination was equivalent to a direct examination by her own counsel, an advantage which none of the others who testified had.

Mrs. Eyler's testimony was in the main a contradiction of that part of the testimony given by others which made her out to be cruel in the punishment of girls. She had the books of the school and the reports of the different teachers with her for reference, and from these she contradicted many things testified against her. She only admitted to slapping one girl. There were, she said, about ten girls in all that had been put in the dungeon, and she showed by Miss Frances Day's handwriting in Matron McFadden's books that Miss Day was wrong when she testified that Sadie Wiseman was never placed in a dungeon during Mrs. McFadden's regime. This caused Committeeman Herman Meeker to demand that Miss Day be recalled to explain this discrepancy. Mrs. Eyler explained her abolition of the evening play hour by stating that the girls had acted in a disorderly manner.

The main portion of Mrs. Eyler's testimony was given to an explanation of the differences between her and a number af the other teachers. She charged the latter with disloyalty and encouraging the girls in disobedience. She said she was not at the school two days before there was an organized undercurrent against her.

LOAN ASSOCIATION OFFICERS.

Annual Election of Home Building and Loan Association.

At the annual meeting of the Home Building and Loan Association, held last evening at the rooms of the Republican headquarters, the old officers were re-elected. They are:

President, I. W. Rushmore; vice-president, G. H. Batchelor; secretary, S. R. Struthers; treasurer, W. F. Arnold; attorney, W. M. Stillman; directors, W. T. Kirk, H. C. Nomer, Alex. Vars, Thomas Hanna; auditor, W. A. Freeman.

The annual reports will be submitted at the next monthly meeting on April 16.

NONAGENARIAN'S FATAL FALL.

Henry Hetfield Dies at Rahway After Tumbling Downstairs.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, March 20—Henry Hetfield, 92 years of age, died yesterday at the residence of his niece, Mrs. Abbott, of West Grand street. His death was the result of a fall downstairs in the house Friday night last.

Mr. Hetfield arose in the middle of the night and evidently mistook his way in the dark. He was found lying at the foot of the stairs in an unconscious condition.

G. A. R. Cannon Have Arrived.

The two cannon presented to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., by the Government, arrived in Plainfield yesterday, and William Hand of the post will at once attend to having them removed to Hillside cemetery, where they will be placed in the soldiers' plot. The post hopes to be able to secure two more so that they can place one at each end of the plot.

—The new roster of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., has been issued and is very complete.

LECTURE ON DON QUIXOTE.

Delivered by Prof. FitzGerald Before Members of Monday Afternoon Club.

An interesting lecture on Cervantes' Don Quixote was given yesterday afternoon in All Souls church by John D. FitzGerald, a professor at Columbia University, under the auspices of the Monday Afternoon Club. The lecturer combated the idea that the story of Don Quixote was a satire on the church, or sacerdotalism, or chivalry, because the writer, Cervantes, was devoted to the church, and in the seventeenth century, when the inquisition punished offenders against the church, such a satire would not have been tolerated, and Cervantes was too chivalrous a knight himself to satirize the institution of chivalry. Mr. FitzGerald considered the book a satire on human enthusiasm. It was written at a time when chivalry was about ending and romance was developing into the modern novel. The book gives a perfect idea of Spanish customs and manners and delineates the Spanish character as full of paradoxes. In closing and picturing Don Quixote as a true knight, full of devotion, chastity and chivalry, the lecturer described a counterpart of his character he had met in Spain, a violinist, self-denying, faithful, loyal, filial and bounden to the right by a sense of duty.

ALMOST A WATERY GRAVE.

Narrow Escape of a Little Fellow—Rescued by Charles Ellis in Thrilling Manner.

Chas. Ellis, a driver employed by Powlison & Jones, made a thrilling rescue a few days ago of a small boy who had a narrow escape from a watery grave. Ellis was driving over the Elm place bridge when he heard the shrill voice of a child crying "Mamma! Mamma! Oh, Mamma!" Investigation by Ellis revealed a diminutive specimen of the small boy sitting beneath the bridge on one of the iron girders, while the swollen waters were running swiftly and threateningly below. About the time Ellis discovered the boy he noticed a small boat shoot beneath the bridge and float down stream. Ellis took in the situation at once and set about to rescue the lad. From his wagon he got a long rope and throwing one end of it into the water above the bridge told the imprisoned boy to grasp it as it floated by and then to tie it to his body. The little chap did as directed. He then dropped into the water and was drawn by Ellis from beneath the bridge to a place of safety. When taken from the water the boy's teeth were chattering and he was trembling with the cold and the fear of a whipping. The young hopeful said he got in the boat for a ride. The current being swift he became frightened and when the skiff glided beneath the bridge he grasped the girders and swung himself up.

ONE OF THE BEST.

Last of the Series of Star Course of Entertainments Given.

One of the best and the last of the Star course of entertainments under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was that given last night in Association Hall. There was a good attendance despite the weather. Those who had the pleasure of listening to the clever recitations and impersonations of Edwin Vance Cook, of Cleveland, Ohio, were well repaid. Mr. Cook is certainly an artist in his particular line. He read selections from his own productions, that were highly entertaining. His humorous recitations were charmingly told and served to convulse the audience. The frequent and well merited applause was the best evidence of his appreciation. Miss Elizabeth McKinstry, of Brooklyn, also delighted the audience with violin solos that gave evidence of her skill as a musician. She was well received.

A Heroic Capture.

A. A. Stryker, the contractor, is building a house on Watchung avenue, opposite Webster place, and yesterday afternoon he left his horse and wagon in front of the place while he went inside. In the meantime the horse became frightened at something and started down the street at a breakneck speed. Stryker Hoagland, one of the bright and active carriers for The Daily Press, happened to be about and made a heroic capture of the runaway horse at Carlton avenue. The valorous deed on the part of the young man was highly complimented by Mr. Stryker, who came along soon afterwards and took charge of his rig.

CENTRAL TROUBLE HAS BEEN ADJUSTED

Conference Between Officials and Employes Occurs in New York.

MAY NOT BE PERMANENT.

SOME STATE THAT OTHER DIFFICULTIES MAY SOON OCCUR.

Railroad Officials Anxious to Avoid Trouble, and All Present Differences Are Said to Have Been Satisfactorily Settled.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, March 20—Officials of the Central Railroad of New Jersey held conferences yesterday with representatives of the employes of the road who have threatened to go on strike. The officials exhibited some anxiety to avoid trouble and all present differences, it was announced after the conference, were adjusted.

Some of the more dissatisfied among the men said, however, the matter could not be patched up for long and that more trouble is certain to come pretty soon. The troubles grew out of the dissatisfaction of the men because of the discharge of some of the employes without cause or notice. Another grievance was that objection was found to men for no other reason than that they were members of the Brotherhood.

A grievance committee was appointed by the discontented workmen some time ago, and it has conferred with the road officials several times. But up to yesterday, it was said, no agreement had been possible. The road would not admit the fact that it had either discharged men without due cause or that it had any antagonism toward the Brotherhood.

The differences grew more and more acute until it was reported yesterday in Jersey City that a strike would be inaugurated in the yard of the Central road in the afternoon.

THIRTEEN HEARD HIM.

Rev. Dr. Richards Told a Small Audience About Palestine and Hi, Trip Abroad.

Just thirteen people turned out last evening to hear Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards' address on "Palestine" in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, given under the auspices of the Primary Teachers' Union. Dr. Richards spoke, however, and the thirteen people heard a very interesting address.

Dr. Richards told of the interesting things he saw while in Palestine, particularly those that referred to the present International Sunday-school lessons. He pictured very graphically what he saw and told of his trips to Bethlehem, Nazareth and Jerico Some of the personal reminiscences were very funny. A large map of the Holy Land was a valuable adjunct in explaining the situation of various places of interest.

Need of Trolley Waiting Stations.

A prominent Plainfielder, who with many others, was obliged to stand in the cold the other night at North and Watchung avenues and wait for a trolley car, remarked that he believed the Board of Health had the power to compel the trolley to erect a waiting station. He cited other places where Boards of Health had compelled trolley companies to do this very thing. If Plainfield's Health Board has this power it should by all means assert it.

City Hall Committee to Report.

The committee from the Common Council having in charge the City Hall matter will meet this week and draft a report to be presented at the next meeting of the Council. It is then expected that the work will start in earnest, provided the Council acts favorably on the report. They will authorize the committee to purchase a site and go ahead with the work of securing the public building.

Dr. Lewis Will Lead.

The regular meeting of the Plainfield University Centre, will be held at the Plainfield High School this evening. Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis has been chosen regular instructor of the centre and will be in charge of the meetings hereafter.

To Be Baptized as Baptists.

Several persons will present themselves for membership at the regular prayer meeting service at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening. They will be baptized next Sunday.

College President to be Heard.

The meeting at the Crescent Avenue church tomorrow evening will be of special interest. James T. Cooter, president of Washington College, Tennessee, will speak.

BOROUGH IS PRAISED BY MAYOR SMALLEY

Annual Message Ends in Glowing Account of Advantages of Local Canada.

A REVIEW OF YEAR'S WORK.

URGES EXTENSION OF DUER STREET AND WIDENING OF SOMERSET.

Says That if the Municipality Progresses as it Should These Improvements Must be Made—Police and Firemen Praised.

Below will be found the annual message presented by Mayor Smalley at the annual meeting of the Borough Council last night:

Gentlemen:—Entering now upon the second and last year of my term as Mayor, I wish to congratulate the Council upon the record of the last twelve months. While candor compels me to admit that there are exceptions to every rule, yet, speaking of the majority, there has been displayed a most commendable spirit of fidelity to the trust reposed in you by our citizens.

The transaction of all public business in open session, and the absence of all star chamber proceedings, has afforded the public opportunity to fully understand the reasons for all our actions, and has met with general approval. I believe that a continuance of such policy will be wise.

During the past year the appropriation for street purposes was devoted almost entirely to repairing streets already macadamized, which, in view of the fact that little attention had been heretofore given in that direction, was necessary, and, in my judgment, most proper. The proposed increase of one thousand dollars in the street appropriation for the coming year is intended to enable us to complete the work of repairs, and also extend the macadam system to some hitherto neglected streets where it is much needed. The macadamizing of Watchung avenue, from Grandview to Coddington avenues, is most important because of the new schoolhouse and development of our borough in that direction. The upper end of Duer street and a number of short streets to form connecting links of the macadam system, deserve particular attention. Our most efficient chairman of the street committee will doubtless call the attention of the Council to these matters in detail.

In regard to the published offer to open Duer street from the borough to the city, it is incumbent upon those who will be most largely benefitted thereby to take immediate action. The contribution asked of property owners is so trifling in comparison to the benefit they will receive by way of increased convenience and enhancement in value of their property, that any hesitation on their part in raising the required sum is surprising. If they do not feel the matter to be of sufficient importance to lead them to contribute so moderate an amount for the purpose, certainly this Council can hardly be expected to take any action.

Some lack of enterprise and business sagacity has been recently manifested by certain property owners on Somerset street, in regard to the proposed widening. Business on that thoroughfare is decreasing yearly, and unless something is done in the immediate future to remedy the conditions now existing, it will be a source of regret to all interested.

In speaking of street matters, it is proper to say that the plan of dividing the engineering work between two surveyors has proven satisfactory, and I recommend its continuance.

The excellent condition of our Fire Department, and the enterprise of its members was displayed to marked advantage by the fireman's parade conducted under its charge. The borough may well be proud of its volunteers who have always shown a commendable public spirit. Some expenditures will be soon required to preserve the borough property devoted to this department. The West End Hose house needs painting, and other repairs are required with which the committee in charge are familiar.

The police force of the borough deserves credit for its effective work done during the year. While small in number, its members are active and efficient, and the administration this department has reduced the number of violations of ordinances, and prove that our citizens are, as a rule, orderly, and justified my promise of a year ago, that the peace and good order of the borough should be maintained.

SENATORS IN CUBA.

Sent by Congress to Find Out Island's Needs.

LA GLORIA TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Secretary Root's Visit and Utterances Left Good Impression—Cubans Lack Confidence Because Nothing Definite Is Done.

HAVANA, March 20.—The arrival of the senatorial commission who will inquire into the needs of Cuba has caused but little local comment, the afternoon papers yesterday barely alluding to their presence. Senators Platt, Aldrich and Teller landed in the morning from the United States dispatch boat Dolphin and had a long interview with Governor General Wood. Subsequently they met the members of the cabinet. After lunching with General Wood they drove around the city, and they dined on board the Dolphin. Today they will visit the province of Pinar del Rio to view the tobacco region. As yet they have formed no other definite plans. They have declined numerous invitations of a social character on the ground that their journey is not one for pleasure.

General Wood has ordered the officer commanding at Puerto Principe to have a full investigation made into the management of the La Gloria colony, regarding which for many months complaints have been made. Even before General Brooke left Cuba criticism of the methods of the managers was rife, and he was on the point of instituting an investigation. The matter, however, went over.

Colonel Rathbone, director of posts, has been conducting a postal investigation, the result of which will be laid before General Wood. The inspector who has had the work in hand advises the abolition of the La Gloria postoffice.

Senor Collazo says that Secretary Root's visit and utterances will undoubtedly create a good impression throughout the country. "Although Mr. Root said nothing new," Senor Collazo remarked, "this is almost certain to be the case. The change of policy from General Brooke's regime, which was obviously annexationist, to General Wood's, which is more frank and, on the whole, favorable to independence, is due to political reasons affecting the Republican party in the United States. On this account Cubans do not place any special confidence in the actual administration, although they have all along trusted to the American people.

"There always will be a lack of confidence on the part of the Cubans, despite anything that may be said, until something definite is being done to encourage the agricultural resources of the country."

Antiforeign Party Ahead In China.

PEKING, March 20.—The ascendency of the antiforeign party is becoming more pronounced daily. The dowager empress appears unable to sufficiently reward the officials who exhibit marked hostility to everything not Chinese. Hen-Tung, probably the most bitterly antiforeign official of the empire, has been decorated with the three eyed peacock feather, which has not been conferred for 80 years; the notorious Li-Peng-Hing, who was dismissed from the governorship of Shangtung on German demand, has been advanced to the first rank, and the former governor of Shangtung, Yuh Sien, has been appointed governor of the Shansi district, a snub to the powers interested and likely to prejudice British interests in the province, as the powers believe his maladministration is the cause of the present state of affairs in Shangtung.

Chance For a Yankee.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Advices from the Caracas (Venezuela) correspondent of the bureau of the American republics state that the council of that city desires to arrange for the paving of the streets and for a modern system of sewerage. The estimated cost of the work is about $1,800,000. Ample security in the way of municipal taxes is promised. The correspondent says: "This contract cannot be secured by means of correspondence nor can any important details be furnished in that way. The way to secure work of this sort is to send intelligent agents and engineers here to study the situation, armed with power to make businesslike propositions to the authorities."

Valley Where Mountain Stood.

SAN JACINTO, Cal., March 20.—Excitement prevails here over the discovery that part of San Jacinto mountain has slipped into a subterranean cavern. Territory covering 600 acres at an elevation of 6,000 feet was dislodged by the Christmas earthquake and settled 150 feet lower than it had previously stood for centuries. The face of the new valley is traversed by fissures and cracks varying in width from an inch to six feet across and it is not possible to see bottom or to sound depths by throwing stones into them.

Consul Monaghan Coming Home.

BERLIN, March 20.—Mr. J. C. Monaghan, United States consul at Chemnitz, who has just arrived there by way of Genoa, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on March 31. Mr. Monaghan has accepted the editorship of a leading industrial publication in the United States having specially in view the promotion of industrial education. He will sail for New York about the end of next month. Secretary Hay's letter accepting his resignation was of a very cordial character.

Epringham to Join the Methodists.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 20.—Rev. Mr. Epringham of Bullville, formerly an Episcopal clergyman, has announced his intention of joining the New York conference of the Methodist church at its session in New York next month.

Alabama Town Scorched.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 20.—Fire destroyed the business portion of Prattville, Ala. All the buildings on Main street, with the exception of two, were burned. The loss will amount to over $60,000, with $10,000 insurance.

The Rank of Lieutenant General.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts has introduced a joint resolution providing that the senior major general of the army shall have the rank of lieutenant general.

Weather Probabilities.

Colder; fair; brisk to high southerly winds, shifting to northwesterly.

NOMINATIONS FAVORED.

The Fish, Forest and Game Commissioners Sure of Confirmation.

ALBANY, March 20.—The names of Governor Roosevelt's new fish, forest and game commission were acted upon favorably by the senate fish and game committee last night and reported. The new commission will be confirmed at today's session without any show of opposition. The commissioners to be confirmed are Percy Lansdowne of Buffalo, W. A. Wadsworth of Livingston, Delos Mackey of Delaware, Frank Wood of Queens and W. M. C. Middleton of Jefferson.

The commissioners removed are Barnet Davis of Palmyra, William R. Weed of Potsdam, Charles H. Babcock of Rochester, Edward Thompson of Northport and Hendricks S. Holden of Syracuse.

It is understood that the retiring president of the commission, Barnet H. Davis, is to be made deputy state treasurer to succeed Andrew Davidson, appointed commandant of the Bath Soldiers' home.

The senate passed promptly the bills of Assemblyman Fallows, one known as the anti-Ramapo bill and the other the bill forbidding the corporation counsel of New York city to confess judgment in claims without the consent of other officials.

A Decrease In State Expenses.

ALBANY, March 20.—The total amount of the supply bill as reported to the two branches of the legislature is $1,680,253.21, a decrease from last year's bill of $660,000. Of the amount appropriated $290,000 is for items for the support of state government to the close of the present fiscal year and which will not hereafter appear in the supply bill, being made for objects which have heretofore annually appeared in the supply bill, but which, being fixed charges for the support of the government, have this year and will at times hereafter be included in the general appropriation. The total footings of those items which will appear in the tax rate will therefore be $1,400,000 as against $2,350,000 for the year 1899.

ANNUAL SEED AWARDS.

Secretary Wilson Buys Flower and Garden Supplies.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Secretary Wilson has awarded the contract for supplying the United States department of agriculture with garden, field and flower seed for the year 1901 to the New York Market Garden association at their bid of $68,874.

The total number of packets of seed required is 15,986,968. Of this number 13,936,000 are vegetable seeds, 150,400 field and lawn grass seeds and 1,000,568 flower seeds. The vegetable seeds comprise beet, cucumber, lettuce, melon, onion, radish, bean, pea and sweet corn, and the field and lawn grass seeds include cotton and tobacco.

The amount appropriated for seed was $130,000, but $20,000 of the appropriation is for purchasing, testing, propagating and distributing rare and valuable seeds, trees, plants, etc., from foreign countries.

Decision Against the Erie.

MILFORD, Pa., March 20.—At the March term of the Pike county court Judge Purdy handed down an opinion making permanent the preliminary injunction restraining the Erie Railroad company from interfering in any way with the abandoned Delaware and Hudson canal, and the Erie company is directed to remove all obstructions and pay all costs. The opinion covers 55 typewritten pages. It further directs that the injunction is not to be construed to prohibit the Erie from taking legal steps to acquire lands or to construct railroads. Neither is it to operate against the plaintiff, the Erie and Wyoming Valley company, in collecting damages at common law.

Higher Tax on Chinese.

OTTAWA, March 20.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, told a delegation from the Dominion trades and labor congress yesterday that he intended introducing a bill this session increasing the poll tax on Chinese. In respect to their complaint that the Canadian alien labor law was not put in operation, although the United States act was, the premier said that he did not think that Canadians had much to complain of in the way of annoyance caused by the United States law. In the mines they might have had reason to complain of the work of overzealous officials on the American side.

To Rebuild Theatre Francais.

PARIS, March 20.—The chamber of deputies has adopted a credit of 2,400,000 francs for the construction of the Theatre Francais, recently destroyed by fire, and for the provision of a temporary home for the Comedie Francaise at the Odeon. The finance bill was then voted in its entirety, after the Rights had declared that they would not participate in the vote.

American Locomotives Ahead.

BERLIN, March 20.—The verdict of the Prussian minister of railways upon the American locomotives that were tried in Bavaria is that, "notwithstanding their faultless construction, they cost considerably less than locomotives of similar style of Prussian make."

REV. C. P. ANDERSON.

Elected Coadjutor to Bishop MacLaren, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Chicago.

Charles Palmerston Anderson was born on September 8, 1863, at Kemptville, a suburb of Ottawa, Canada. His parents encouraged the ambition of their son to become a priest of the Episcopal church. He attended Trinity college school at Port Hope, Canada, and then entered the University of Trinity at Toronto, and in 1883 finished the divinity course. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop John Travers Lewis in 1887 at Christ church cathedral at Ottawa.

In 1888 he was ordered into the priesthood by Bishop Lewis and was given charge of the parish at Beechwood, Ont. After several years of hard work the parish had grown beyond the care of one priest and Mr. Anderson was given the aid of three clergymen. He was in this parish when the call was issued to him to take the Grace church parish at Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, in the early part of May, 1891. At the end of the month the new priest was established in his parish.

REV. CHARLES P. ANDERSON.
(Recently Elected Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago.)

The little brick church at Ontario street and Forest avenue was soon outgrown and Mr. Anderson set about to erect a modern building, more suitable to his parish and surroundings. In June, 1898, the first stone was laid for the foundation of the new building in Lake street, between Kenilworth and Forest avenues.

The parish at the time had not much of a building fund, but had the spirit of willingness to wait and build only as the money accumulated. The foundation was completed and it was then decided to defer the building of the remainder of the church until the funds were available. The foundation was roofed over and since November, 1898, the parishioners have attended service in the basement of their new building.

The vestry now has $25,000 on hand and will finish the building in the spring at a cost of $60,000. Under the careful business management of Rector Anderson the church has cleared off all indebtedness on the old church property and owns a lot free from incumbrance at Euclid avenue and Ontario street. There are 600 members of Grace church parish and 450 communicants.

On September 4, 1899, Mr. Anderson was married to Miss Janet Glass in Belleville, Canada.

THE TUA-TUA PLANT.

Venezuelan Shrub Which Is Said to Be a Sovereign Remedy and Cure for Leprosy.

Two dozen specimens of the Venezuelan plant, known as the tua-tua, have been sent from Washington to Hawaii for the purpose of making a test of its alleged wonderful power as a cure for leprosy. The plant will be tested at the leprosy hospitals there,

A TUA-TUA PLANT.
(Said to Have Wonderful Power as a Cure for Leprosy.)

where the 1,073 lepers will afford every facility for a thorough trial. Surgeon D. A. Carmichael, of the Marine hospital, has also sent half a dozen bottles of the liquid preparation to Molokai, and this will be used for immediate tests, while the plants will be set out and cultivated, with the purpose of providing unlimited fresh material for further use, says an exchange.

Wonderful stories are current in Venezuela about the marvelous curative properties of tua-tua when applied to leprosy, and the government physicians attach considerable importance to the evidence given them. It is proposed also to test it in the Island of Guam, that tiny speck of Pacific land that came to us with our other Spanish war acquisitions.

Shoesoles Eight Inches Thick.

We wear away two inches of shoe leather in a year. A pair of shoes that would "last a lifetime" would, consequently, have to be provided with soles from eight to nine feet thick.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

Senate Passes Two Important Measures.

BEVERIDGE ANNOUNCES A SUBSTITUTE

The Indiana Senator Favors Free Trade With Porto Rico, but Not Constitutional Rights—House Rejects Senate Amendments.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Two measures of national importance and many of slightly lesser interest were passed by the senate yesterday. The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, carrying more than $25,000,000, was passed without debate. The measure providing for the appointment of a commission to adjudicate and settle claims of citizens of the United States growing out of the war with Spain was also passed without opposition.

For a brief time the Porto Rican government and tariff measure was under consideration. Mr. Foraker, in charge of the bill, submitted some committee amendments. A few of them were agreed to, but the important ones are still pending.

Mr. Beveridge of Indiana gave notice at the opening of the session of the senate in connection with an amendment to the Porto Rico bill which he offered that he would address the senate next Thursday on the amendment and pending measure.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE.

The following is Mr. Beveridge's substitute for the tariff section of the Porto Rico bill:

"All articles coming into the United States from Porto Rico or going into Porto Rico from the United States shall be admitted free of duty. But this act shall not be construed as extending the constitution of the United States or any part thereof over Porto Rico, and it is hereby declared that the constitution of the United States is not extended over Porto Rico."

The house refused to concur in the senate amendments to the Porto Rican relief bill. The Democrats supported a motion to concur on the ground that it would avoid further delay in extending relief to the inhabitants of the island, but the Republicans stood firmly behind Chairman Cannon in his demand that the house should insist upon its original provision to appropriate not only the money collected on Porto Rican goods up to Jan. 1, but all subsequent moneys collected or to be collected. The remainder of the day was devoted to District of Columbia business.

Salvation Army Report.

ALBANY, March 20.—The annual report of the Salvation Army has been filed with the secretary of state. It covers the six months succeeding the incorporation of the Army last spring. It shows that the value of the real property of the Army in the United States is $622,335 and that of the personal property $195,500. During the period which the report covers $67,738.14 was received for "shelters" of the Army and $67,636.40 expended and $12,349.54 received and $12,429.12 expended for children's homes. The Army earned through its publications $161,407.88, of which $23,451.77 was used in charitable work.

Trolley Car Collision.

NEWARK, N. J., March 20.—Over a score of people were severely injured last night in a rear end trolley car collision, but at a late hour no fatalities had resulted. The accident happened on Belleville avenue at a point where there is a slight down grade. Car No. 708, in charge of Motorman William McLane, crashed into car No. 278, in charge of Motorman Bernard McDermott. Car 278 had stopped to take on passengers, and McLane could not stop his car in time to prevent the collision. He shut off the power, applied the brakes and jumped, saving himself.

American Composer Honored.

NEW HAVEN, March 20.—Professor Horatio Parker of Yale university has been commissioned to compose a work for the coming festival of the three choirs at Hereford, England. The work is to be an extended one for chorus and orchestra, and the composer has been asked to personally direct the preparatory rehearsals and the first performance in September. This is the first time an American musician has been honored by such an invitation.

Cuba Will Exhibit.

BUFFALO, March 20.—William I Buchanan, director general of the Pan-American exposition, has received a letter from Adjutant General W. V. Richards, headquarters division of Cuba, saying: "The military governor of Cuba, after a consultation with the honorable secretary of war, directs me to inform you that it is decided to have Cuba represented at the Pan-American exposition in 1901."

Schoolteacher Missing.

ALBANY, March 20.—The police of this city have been notified of the disappearance of Miss Augusta Van Keuren of Rhinebeck, N. Y., who has been missing since Jan. 10. She was assistant principal of school No. 3 in Rondout and attended school until the night of her disappearance. She was 22 years old and a daughter of Augustus Van Keuren.

A Tie on License Question.

SHIRLEY, Mass., March 20.—The town election developed a curious state of affairs. On counting the ballots it was found that there was a tie vote on the license question, there being 113 votes for and against.

ANOTHER FAKE EXPLODED.

Platt Denies Any Attempt to Injure Roosevelt or Boom Odell.

ALBANY, March 20.—The Albany Evening Journal prints in a special from Washington a denial of the story that B. B. Odell is the organization candidate for governor. It says:

"The story published in the New York Journal today to the effect that President McKinley and Senator Hanna had joined hands with Senator Platt to force Governor Roosevelt out of politics and to make Secretary Platt secretary of the treasury and State Chairman B. B. Odell governor of New York has not the slightest foundation.

"It was denounced vigorously by the gentlemen mentioned as being in the scheme.

"Senator Platt, when his attention was called to the story, said: 'It is a lie made out of whole cloth and has not the slightest foundation. My relations with Governor Roosevelt were never more friendly and cordial than they are at present. I have not read the story carefully, but have no hesitation in denying the allegations. I cannot imagine why such a story was started.'

"'Is State Chairman Odell a candidate for governor this year?'

"'He is not. At least he has never intimated to me that he intends to be a candidate, and I think he would have done so if he had any such intention.'"

M'GIFFERT WITHDRAWS.

His Enemies Saved the Trouble of a Heresy Trial.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Professor Arthur C. McGiffert of Union Theological seminary, long under charges of heresy, has withdrawn from the Presbyterian church. He mailed a letter yesterday to Moderator Duffield of the New York presbytery asking that his name be stricken from the rolls. It was impossible to obtain a copy of the letter, but it is known that it contained nothing beyond the simple request. It is said, however, that Professor McGiffert at some future time will give his reasons at length.

It was said last night that Dr. McGiffert's reasons for sending the withdrawal three weeks before the next meeting of the presbytery was to notify his friends and his enemies as well of his decision and thus save the annoyance in the selection of commissioners to the general assembly. With him out of Presbyterianism, as he now is, the choice of commissioners by the various presbyteries will not be affected by his case.

It is the intention of Dr. McGiffert to enter the Congregational church. It may be a year or more, however, before he applies for admission to any religious body. His position at Union seminary will not be affected.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Maud S was buried at Tarrytown in the Bonner cemetery for famous horses.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck a Lake Shore train at Olmsted Falls, O.

The United States supreme court sustained the constitutionality of the Texas antitrust law.

The British steamer Verona was sunk at sea March 6 in collision with the British bark Dunstaffnago.

President Hadley of Yale, addressing the students, said the smallpox scare was not warranted by the facts.

The trials of the men accused of being accessories to the murder of William Goebel were set for Friday at Frankfort.

The Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railroad was sold at Joplin, Mo., for $12,500,000 to the representative of the Philadelphia reorganization committee.

Plenty of Reading Matter For Guam.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Some time ago the navy department laid before the country the appeal of Captain Leary, naval governor of the island of Guam for some light reading for the garrison there and also for the inhabitants. Since that time large numbers of books have been pouring into the department, and yesterday the climax was reached when a big dray dumped 7,000 pounds of magazines down on the sidewalk. This was the gift of the International Christian association of Jersey City. The department is now satisfied that it has all the material on hand necessary to meet the needs of the population of Guam for some time to come, and as funds are not available for the expressage of large lots of literature across the continent there must be some sorting of that already here.

Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Rear Admiral Farquhar's flagship, the New York, and the battleship Texas have arrived at Galveston. The Newark, now in northern Luzon, has been ordered to Hongkong to convoy the monitor Monadnock to Manila. The Essex arrived at Havana Saturday and the Eagle at Key West the same day. The Marblehead has arrived at the Mare Island navy yard. The Hartford sailed Saturday from Valparaiso for Montevideo.

The Battleship Kearsarge.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The navy department has been notified that the battleship Kearsarge will be ready for her official sea trial on April 3. The trial board has been ordered to be at Fort Monroe in season for the trial, which will keep the ship at sea two full days and is intended to demonstrate the soundness of her machinery and hull.

Changing Old Bonds For New.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The total amount of old bonds turned into the treasury yesterday in exchange for the new 2 per cents was $27,000,000, making the total to date $77,000,000. Of the entire amount all but $2,863,800 was on behalf of national banks which already have the bonds on deposit to secure circulation or public deposits or both.

Strange Fatality Among Conductors.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 20.—There has been a strange fatality among the conductors on the Crawford branch of the Erie railroad. Jesse Smith, who died at Pine Bush yesterday, was the fifth regular conductor of the same train to die within a few years. Three extra conductors died within a short time of each other.

Good Showing For the Reichsbank.

BERLIN, March 20.—The Reichsbank report for 1899 shows a turnover of 179,000,000,000 marks, which is an increase of 16,000,000,000 marks upon the turnover in 1898. The gross earnings of the institution were 48,000,000 marks, and the net earnings 32,000,000 marks. The dividend declared was 10 per cent.

MAFEKING'S RELIEF.

Gatacre Resting at Springfontein. Buller Will Fight Botha.

LONDON, March 20.—The war office has had no news up to this hour confirming the report of the relief of Mafeking but Mr. George Wyndham, parliamentary undersecretary for war, replying to a private inquiry in the lobby of the house of commons about midnight, smilingly said, "I think it is all right."

The Free Staters seemingly have not quite collapsed. They are in considerable force around Smithfield, although much dispirited.

A British spy from Rouxville reports that Commandant Olivier and a commando are going to Kroonstad. The agents he left behind are using desperate means to raise recruits, commandeering British Boers under penalty of death.

Kroonstad, where the Boers are concentrating, is 137 miles from Bloemfontein. It is surrounded by a country of hills and jungles.

General Gatacre is now resting at Springfontein preliminary to joining Lord Roberts. General Buller's hill work before Ladysmith has given him an experience which is about to be used in forcing the Biggarsberg range. It is believed that 25,000 of his 40,000 men are about to engage General Botha's force, and the next news of fighting will probably come from Natal.

Thirty-two thousand additional troops for South Africa are now at sea.

The leaders of the Afrikander bund are circulating a petition in Cape Colony asking the imperial government not to take away the independence of the Boers.

A dispatch to The Daily Telegraph from Bloemfontein says:

"In a speech which he made here a few days before the British entered the town President Kruger admitted that his men would be unable to keep in the field for another month."

The Lourenco Marques correspondent of The Times, telegraphing Monday March 19, says:

"Last night the Portuguese authorities hurriedly dispatched by special train a force of infantry to re-enforce the garrison on the Transvaal border."

General White Ill.

CAPE TOWN, March 20.—General Sir George Stewart White, the defender of Ladysmith, has arrived here, but is too ill to permit a public reception being given in his honor.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

Final Adjournment to Take Place This Week.

TRENTON, March 20.—This will be the last week of the legislative session unless all signs fail. Final adjournment has been fixed for next Friday afternoon. The house of assembly has already passed a resolution to that effect, and the senate is expected to concur today. There are only a few important matters left unsettled.

The franchise tax bill drafted by Governor Voorhees and introduced by Speaker Jones promises to pass. It is already on third reading in the house. While some of its provisions will materially increase the tax of certain corporations, especially electric light and gas companies, it makes a uniform rate. The measure is less severe than the New York law, although modeled along the same lines.

Killed by a Bull.

HAZLETON, Pa., March 20.—Alfred Stout, a farmer living near Nescopeck Junction, and his wife Sarah were killed several days ago by a bull. That they were dead was discovered only yesterday when a woodchopper found their bodies. The farm is in a somewhat isolated spot. After the bodies were found an investigation was made, and it was seen that the bull must have attacked Stout just before supper time and that his cries for help must have brought his wife to his side, as the table was spread and food was on the stove. All the stock on the farm was found roaming around the place, and the horses in their stalls had almost perished. It is surmised that the couple were killed during the snowstorm on Thursday.

"Old Bullion" on the Bonds.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The head of Thomas H. Benton of Missouri will decorate the new 2 per cent bonds for $1,000. Benton by his persistent opposition to paper and silver and demand for gold currency was given the sobriquet of "Old Bullion." The new registered bonds will all bear draped figures on each side, one representing the law and the other the genius of war. The first will hold a tablet bearing the word "Lex." The other figure will hold a firebrand aloft and will have a battle scene for a background. Different portraits will decorate bonds of different denominations.

Many Messages by Single Wire.

PARIS, March 20.—M. Mercadier, a French inventor, claims to have solved the problem of sending a number of dispatches simultaneously on a single wire. His system, which was explained before the Academy of Sciences, was recently tried successfully between Paris and Pau. Twelve independent currents were sent on the circuit at once, and in each direction, making a total of 24 telegrams.

Floods In Hornellsville, N. Y.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 20.—At Hornellsville at 11:35 last night the ice in Canacadea creek jammed above the First ward and turned the rapidly rising water into the streets and adjoining lots. Cellars were flooded in many houses, and after midnight the water had reached as high as the first floors, and the fire department was called out to aid the people in escaping.

Great Distress In India.

BOMBAY, March 20.—The distress caused by the famine is increasing in extent and severity. Prices here have risen to the level of those in 1897, the great famine year, and are still rising. There are now employed on the relief works in the famine stricken districts 4,810,000 persons.

To Purchase the Big Tree Groves.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—In compliance with a joint resolution of congress the secretary of the interior has entered into negotiations for the purchase by the government of lands occupied by the Mammoth Tree grove and South park grove of big trees in California.

Australia's Wheat Crop Light.

MELBOURNE, March 20.—The official statistics of the wheat crop in Victoria show only 15,000,000 bushels instead of 21,000,000 bushels, which was the estimate before the harvest. The exportable surplus will be 6,250,000 bushels instead of 12,000,000.

WANT HELP AT ONCE.

Porto Ricans Present Their Urgent Needs.

MASS MEETING HELD IN SAN JUAN.

Negative Attitude of the United States Senate Produces Consternation, and Business In the Island Is Paralyzed.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 20.—A gathering of 10,000 people, headed by the San Juan Chamber of Commerce, assembled at the palace of the governor general yesterday to submit a petition with reference to the needs of the island. The deputation selected to present it was received in the absence of General Davis, who was indisposed, by Lieutenant Colonel Hall, adjutant general. On behalf of General Davis Lieutenant Colonel Hall expressed pleasure at seeing so many people who were interested in a question of such importance and assured them that Porto Rico would receive justice.

An account of the proceedings will be transmitted to Washington. The crowd was orderly and dispersed without confusion amid "vivas" for the United States and the governor general.

The following is the text of the petition:

"The people of Porto Rico of all classes, represented by the mayor of this city and by the Chamber of Commerce, in peaceful assembly convened, call upon Governor General Davis respectfully to direct his attention and through him the attention of Washington to the following most salient points of the present critical condition of the island:

"First.—The consternation into which the business community in general has been thrown on account of recent cabled news from the United States setting forth the negative attitude of the senate as regards the tariff question.

"Second.—The utter inability of the island to hold out much longer under existing conditions, as the senate's delay in coming to a decision on the tariff simply aggravates the almost absolute state of penury throughout the island.

"Third.—The urgent necessity of a final settlement of the question as a means of saving to their owners, mostly men of small means, the sugar and tobacco crops, which would pass under the control of speculators if no conclusion should soon be reached, this being the time for planting new crops, and a failure to act promptly being also calculated to have most prejudicial results.

"Fourth.—The distress and alarm that are daily becoming more harassing in all branches of trade owing to the virtual lack of a fixed and definite standard for transactions and the grave apprehensions as to the future now so generally entertained by all merchants.

"Fifth.—The absence of buyers for products, which, with the loss of their former markets as a consequence of the new regime, are now at a practical standstill.

"Sixth.—The enormous depreciation of property, more especially on the plantations, and the ruin staring a majority of planters in the face as the result of the natural uneasiness which has made itself felt among capitalists and loan institutions, leading them to curtail or to shut off entirely the credit necessary in moving crops.

"Seventh.—The lack of power, as well as the absence of credit, to contract a loan for the relief of most of the present necessities and the development of resources.

"Eighth.—The need of undertakings of a public nature instead of relief supplies, which, although necessary, tend to make paupers of the working classes.

"These statements, respectfully made, your petitioners respectfully request the governor general to bring to the knowledge of the government at Washington, trusting that a favorable solution may be speedily found."

Goebel's Assassin Known.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—Mr. T. C. Campbell, who has been employed by the brothers of the late William Goebel to assist in the prosecution of the assassin of Mr. Goebel, is here fresh from a conference with his associates held at Lexington. In conversation Mr. Campbell was unwilling to disclose the state of their case, but he said that so far as now known the assassin was not yet under arrest. He added that the assassin would be arrested whenever a force of 3,000 armed men could be had to go to a certain county in eastern Kentucky. He said further that the attorneys for the commonwealth claim to have proof to establish a conspiracy.

Editor Driscoll's Task.

ST. PAUL, March 20.—Frederick Driscoll of this city, for 38 years manager of The Pioneer Press, one of the most generally and most favorably known newspaper managers in the United States, has been secured by the American Newspaper Publishers' association as a general commissioner to look after the interests of that organization in its dealings with the various typographical unions and in other matters of importance to the newspapers of the country. Mr. Driscoll leaves immediately for Chicago to open headquarters and to organize the work.

Populist Leader Dead.

SEATTLE, March 20.—Herman E. Taubeneck, well known as the former chairman of the national committee of the People's party, is dead in this city. He came here from the east about two months ago in delicate health and has since been resting quietly at the home of his brother, ignoring all publicity. The body will be shipped to his old home in Illinois.

Destruction of Gold Mines Right.

BERLIN, March 20.—The National Zeitung, referring to the rumored intention of the Boers to destroy the Transvaal gold mines, says: "Such an act would be justifiable, since it would prevent the authors of the war, which the whole world has declared criminal, from securing the rewards of victory."

Hotel Burned.

FRANKFORT, Mich., March 20.—The Forest Avenue hotel was burned early yesterday. The guests all escaped, but lost most of their clothing. The loss on building and furniture is $17,000; insurance, $5,000.

The Bubonic Plague In Australia.

ADELAIDE, South Australia, March 20.—Five deaths have recently occurred here from what is suspected to be the bubonic plague.

The Franchise Tax.

The most important measure of general interest brought before the Legislature at the present session is the proposition to impose a tax on franchises owned and operated by the great corporations who have never paid their just share of public burdens. The passage of this measure by the Assembly last night will be recognized as a creditable act. The bill was drawn by Governor Voorhees and he has been much interested in it, and if it meets with success in the Senate the measure will undoubtedly be promptly signed by him.

Under the bill, should it become a law, the State will lose the money heretefore paid into the State Treasury as the tax on miscellaneous corporations. Last year this amounted to $119,003. Under the proposed new law some of these corporations will pay an increased tax. The amount paid to the State last year by some classes of corporations and the amount to be paid under the new franchise tax bill, if enacted, is compared below:

	Paid State.	Proposed Tax.
Trolley roads	$89,026	$130,486
Telephone and Telegraph companies	16,552	16,552
Gas and Electric companies	39,812	104,435
Pipe line companies	10,755	26,895
Total	$106,145	$278,368
Total paid State	$119,003

This money will be collected by the State and paid over to the municipalities in proportion to the amount of property located in each. It is not known just how much the tax will yield, but it will exceed $325,000. The increase falls mainly on the trolley roads and the gas and electric light companies.

Those who have watched the progress of Senator Cross' bill providing for the increase of salary paid to drivers in the fire departments of second-class cities, in case the people vote for such an increase, say that there is an excellent chance of the measure being passed by the Assembly. It has already been passed by the Senate, and the Governor is understood to be favorable towards the bill. The act provides that after five years' service fire department drivers shall receive a salary of $900 per year. It was drawn and introduced through the work of the members of the local department. It is now being advocated by the Legislative committee of the Officers' Association, of which Chief T. O. Doane, of Plainfield, is chairman. It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Common Council a resolution was passed advocating the defeat of the bill.

The New York Chamber of Commerce has unanimously adopted a resolution declaring its emphatic opinion "that every consideration of honor, justice and humanity demands that trade between the United States and the Island of Puerto Rico shall be unrestricted by any customs duties whatever." The Philadelphia Record adds that there is hardly a commercial organization in the land which does not approve this position, and that, moreover, it has been shown that the enforcement of Dingley tariff rates on Puerto Rican imports from other countries would provide all necessary revenue for ordinary expenditure. The repulsive proposition for a special tariff is, therefore, without excuse, except that the trusts demand that in their interest the pledged faith of the Nation shall be broken.

There is not today a prominent mercantile enterprise which has not been built up and maintained by judicious advertising, says the Philadelphia Record. This aid to commercial activity will increase business as surely as the loaded gun will "go off" if the trigger be pulled. What one man can do by means of effective advertising another man can repeat.

Take away all manner of advertising and the great store or the successful business would disappear, says the Philadelphia Record. Moreover, much of the trade between nations would become a thing of the past. Advertising promotes commerce and is indispensable alike to the merchant prince and to the humble beginner in business.

Among the bills passed by the Assembly is one increasing the annual appropriation for stone roads from $150,000, the amount voted last year, to $200,000. This appropriation, if it becomes a law, will insure the expenditure of at least $600,000 for new roads in the State during 1900.

The Newark Advertiser thinks that Somerset county would have been void of enterprise indeed if it had not seized the present opportunity to declare the Jersey peach crop a failure.

And now the women are said to be fighting in the ranks of the Boers. If the British are wise they will import a few thousand mice and rats into the Transvaal.

It is the evident desire of a number of Newark Democrats that Mayor Seymour shall retire. The Mayor probably intends to Seymour about this.

The precocious pupil who said that the capital of the United States was in the trusts spoke the truth.

Col. Bryan was forty years old yesterday. He is now qualified to trot in the two-twenty class.

The Legislature is on the home stretch. It will probably adjourn sine die this week.

Foreign nobility come to this country with a lot of airs and go back with one heir.

of importance, and I trust that the reduction in the item of taxes collected for borough purposes has been noted by our citizens. We are fortunate in possessing a Collector unusually well qualified for the position. His faithful and persistent attention to the duties of his office, has tended greatly to the benefit of our financial condition, and he is entitled to the commendation of our people regardless of party.

In closing, I desire to call attention to some of the very exceptional advantages of our borough. There seems to be a tendency among some of our citizens to belittle the importance and attractions we possess. North Plainfield is today the largest municipality in Somerset co unty, and it is confidently asserted that the census of 1900 will show our population to have nearly doubled in the last ten years. Our sidewalks and street pavements are unsurpassed by any town of similar size in this State. Our public schools are second to none. No better or cheaper water supply is known in the State, and the only possible improvement in that direction would be that which might result if the water plant was owned by the borough. The public and private lighting is of a high order. Our churches, our residences, our railroad facilities, our shade trees, our drives and our natural surroundings are so far above the average as to compel the admiration of every visitor, and should develop the pride of our citizens and inspire a spirit of public enterprise in their representatives.

Signed,

N. B. Smalley, Mayor.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 20.—The Crokinole Club met with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bogardus last Thursday evening. The severity of the storm would have caused an adjournment but for the thoughtfulness of Mr. Bodine, one of the members, who placed his horse and sleigh at their disposal to convey them to and from the meeting. The usual time was devoted to the game. After serving refreshments the scores were announced, indicating marked progress, especially by the lady members. Then the club was entertained by an original disquisition prepared for the occasion, and also the reading of several humorous sketches relating to incidents which had previously occurred to certain members. Before adjournment a package of "shredded wheat" leaflets was distributed on which the members were requested to express their views in writing and submit them at the next session, to be held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson.

The school meeting tomorrow night, which will be held at the Lincoln School building, promises to be quite exciting. There are four candidates for members of the Board of Education, viz: W. S. Fredericks, F. T. Dickerson, L. T. Titsworth and Adam Herlick. Mr. Fredericks is at present a member of the Board. He is considered an efficient member. Mr. Titsworth was a candidate for the office last year, but was defeated by Isaac Stites, the well-known blacksmith. The taxpayers are also asked to vote on an appropriation of $1,000 for the purpose of improving the heating arrangements of the Whittier School. That building is now heated by stoves.

The family of Abner Coriell yesterday moved into the house recently occupied by Smith Watson, on Fifth avenue. Mr. Watson has moved into the Eugene Runyon house on Front street.

John Fallon, who has been making his home at the Park Hotel, has moved to Elizabeth in order to be nearer his work, that of a signalman on the Central Railroad.

John Logan, of Lincoln avenue, an engineer on the Central Railroad, has been compelled to suspend work for a few days owing to an attack of the grip.

Charley Vail has secured a position with the Central Railroad in their park department, which is under the supervision of Fowler Vail.

The Central Railroad is getting ready to put their parks in condition for the summer by trimming the shrubbery.

The pay car put in an appearance yesterday morning, much to the gratification of the Central's employes at this place.

Thomas Thomas, who spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Nancy Thomas, returned to Princeton yesterday.

The family of Harry L. Terry are now occupying their new house on Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hock, of Somerville, were guests at the Park Hotel over Sunday.

William Zielenbach, of Elizabeth, was a guest at the Park Hotel over Sunday.

John Tingley is learning telegraphy at Flagtown, and commutes from this place.

Lewis Snyder, the well-known carpenter, is confined to his home by illness.

William McMahon, a fireman on the Central Railroad, is laid up with the grip.

Mrs. Daniel Gulick is visiting friends in Trenton for a few days.

Sheriff Barcley, of New Brunswick, had business in town Saturday.

Daniel Gulick left yesterday for Philadelphia on business.

An infant child of Mrs. Alice Benward is seriously ill.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 20.—Mrs. Runyon, who resides with her daughther, Mrs. Samuel L. Allen, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday Monday by taking several of her friends out for a sleighride. Mrs. Runyon, notwithstanding her advanced age, is hale and hearty and enjoyed the ride as well as any one and insisted upon holding the reins herself, claiming that the sleighride carried her back to her younger days before steam and electricity had taken the place of the horse. Mrs. Runyon is proud of the fact that among her descendants she can count eleven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

The annual school meeting in the assembly room of the school building tonight. Four trustees are to be elected and the school appropriation, which has been set at $3,525 by the Board of Education, will be voted upon. There will hardly be any opposition to the amount asked as every one in town is proud of the school's showing, which is second to none in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Jimerson and family, of Westfield, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Jimerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frentz.

John R. Haskard and family, of Grant avenue, Plainfield, have been visiting at the home of Mr. Haskard's mother, Mrs. John Haskard.

No meeting of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company was held last evening, no quorum being present on account of the storm.

Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Shott have been entertaining friends from New York city and Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mrs. Nellie Crane led an interesting young peoples' meeting in the Baptist church last night.

Rev. G. M. Shott attended the ministers' conference in New York city Monday.

Miss Sadie Reger has returned from a visit with her sister in Westfield.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 20.—The schoolhouse question has been causing quite a stir in town for a few days. A petition has been circulated and secured about seventy signers protesting against any expenditure of money on the old house. The people want a new house.

B. F. Harris and Samuel Johnston have been unloading an engine from off the cars and delivering it to parties on the Denton property in Plainfield.

The school election is being held in New Market this afternoon. A trustee is to be elected from this district.

A shooting match at live birds was held at Campbell's Hotel yesterday.

Alfred Brundage has been complaining for a week with the grip.

The coal storage is again running on full time.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The Heywood Musical Comedy Company and "A Night in Chinatown," two good attractions booked by Manager Maze Edwards for Music Hall, this and next week, have very abruptly cancelled their dates because of ability to play "week stands" in New York and Philadelphia, and so many companies having closed for the Lenten season, a suitable substitute could not be secured on short notice, so there will be no performances at Music Hall until next week, of which due notice will be given.

* * * * * * *

At Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre this week Cissie Loftus will head the features. Sager Midgley and Gertie Carlisle; Dorothy Neville, in her original monologue, "As it Happens"; Fields and Ward, bright talking comedians; Max Unger, wonderful strong man; Morrell and Evans, operatic comedy; kalatechnoscope, showing new moving pictures of the Transvaal, Philippines, etc. At Proctor's Palace besides Miss Loftus there are Cora Stuart and Company in "The Fair Equestrienne"; Lew Hawkins, black face monologist; Cardownie Troupe, Scottish dancers; Three Weetons, musical act; Maxwell and Dudley, singing sketch; kalatechnoscope, and many more. Mr. Proctor will open the Fifth Avenue Theatre Monday, May 7th next, as Broadway's first home of continuous performance of high-class vaudeville. The prices will be the same as prevail at the other Proctor theatres in New York: Entire orchestra, 50 cents; balconies, 25 cents.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Want Scotch Plains to Wake up.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Will you kindly allow space in the columns of your valuable paper for the discussion of a borough government of Scotch Plains. Last Tuesday's election has demonstrated very clearly in the minds of many of the taxpayers that the village should cut loose from the tail end of the township. The questions that arise—should we form a borough government? or should we become incorporated as a part of the borough of Fanwood? It is claimed that this would be the most economical, requiring but one Council and Executive, and that the borough and village interests are about one and the same in churches and school. The financial report of the township reveals the plain fact that township officials receive in fees for service over $1,200. Under a consolidated borough government $1,000 would be saved. This $1,000 saved in official fees honestly expended on road improvement would enchance the value of property by bringing people to our beautiful village to locate. The borough of Fanwood has the reputation throughout the State for its good roads and excellent sidewalks. And why should not old Scotch Plains fare likewise? Let the people wake up and speak. Progress

First Display of SPRING MILLINERY AND SUITS

Wednesday, March 21st,
Thursday, March 22d,
Friday, March 23d,
Saturday, March 24th.

Arrayed in its best, bedecked with flowers, our Millinery Department opens like a gorgeous butterfly its wings, to display for your admiration the store of beautiful hats the skillful fingers of our milliners have created. We are two weeks behind the big cities, but there you benefit, for most carefully have we selected only that which was best from among them all. Paris, New York, Soudon, each has sent us hints of rare beauty. The new Tuscan straw wonderfully worked into hats of most becoming beauty. The new pastel hats, charming combinations of the popular pastel shades and a hundred and one ideas that are new and novel. Best of all these hats are exclusive; Miss Kittie Daly, the head of this department, has taken only the hints from the best and on them she has built charming creations that can well be called exclusive.

We invite everybody interested in things exquisitely beautiful to visit us on the opening days. There are hats to suit all faces and prices to suit all purses, yet each design represents a full rich money's worth of dependable material and most skillfull labor.

THE OPENING DISPLAY OF TAILOR-MADE SUITS, SKIRTS and SHIRT WAISTS

is ready and almost rivals the Millinery display. It excels all our previous efforts and we take pride in asserting that you will see more correct shapes, superior workmanship and unsurpassed style and fit than even we have ever been able to offer before. We make special suits to order and guarantee their fit. All alterations are made here by competent fitters so that you may be sure of satisfaction on that score.

Commencing Monday evening, March 19, the store will be open every evening until 8 o'clock, and Saturday evenings until 10:30 o'clock.

One Way to Save Money

is to put it away and not use it, but you don't enjoy the benefits it can give you when you save it that way. We can help you save a lot of money if you buy clothing from our store because we make all our clothing and save you all the extra profit. We are showing a beautiful line of Spring Overcoats in the fashionable Coverts. Oxfords and Herring Bones. The prices run from $3.75 to $13.50.

Dresden. Wegen Kohlenmangels den Betrieb eingestellt haben jüngst die Königin-Marienhütte in Zwickau, das größte Eisenhüttenwerk Sachsens, ferner die Harlan'sche Papierfabrik in Heidenau und die Dießler'sche Holzstofffabrik in Pirna. In einer Reihe von Orten wurde wegen Kohlenmangels der Schulunterricht beschränkt oder gänzlich eingestellt. Im Erzgebirge verbrannten die Leute, um nicht bitterer Kälte ausgesetzt zu sein, Haushaltungsgegenstände. — Der hierorts veranstaltete Wohlthätigkeitsbazar zum Besten der Pflegeanstalten für die leidende Kinderwelt hat einen Reingewinn von 140,000 Mark ergeben.

Falkenstein. Die sozialdemokratische Partei von hier und Umgegend hat ein Areal von 2000 Quadratmetern gekauft, auf dem ein großes Vereinshaus mit Saal und Gesellschaftszimmern, sowie anschließendem Garten gebaut werden soll. Veranlaßt zu diesem Kaufe wurde die Partei durch die schon Jahre lang andauernde Weigerung der hiesigen Saalbesitzer, ihre Säle zu öffentlichen Volksversammlungen überlassen zu wollen.

Leipzig. Im Jahre 1899 sind beim hiesigen Polizeiamte 118 neue Vereine, darunter 45, die sich mit öffentlichen Angelegenheiten beschäftigten, zur Anmeldung gekommen. Versammlungen wurden 851 polizeilich überwacht und zwar 776 öffentliche und 75 Vereinsversammlungen. Verboten wurden 6, der polizeilichen Auflösung verfielen 4 Versammlungen.

Voigtsberg. Auf der Flucht aus der Voigtsberger Bezirksarmen-Anstalt versuchte in der Nacht die Korrektionärin Stengel bei Unterhermsgrün den mit einer dünnen Eisdecke überzogenen Elsterfluß zu überschreiten. Die Stengel brach indessen ein und ertrank. Sie war 37 Jahre alt und hinterläßt zwei Kinder.

Sells 20 Times More Than Last Year

"I have been in the wholesale drug business twenty-five years, and in all my experience I have noticed nothing more remarkable than the growth in popular favor of Ripans Tabules." This statement was made by the buyer for Smith, Kline & French Co., wholesale druggists, of Philadelphia. Continuing in response to queries, he said: "If I remember rightly, it was five years ago when the article was first placed on sale with us. For some time the sales practically amounted to nothing, but suddenly about a year ago there came a wonderful change. Orders came to us from every direction. The sales have since grown to be at least 20 times as large as they were last year, and the top-notch is not yet in sight. There is a perceptible increase right straight along. It is no exaggeration to say that we are selling more of Ripans Tabules than of any other proprietary article in our line. It is an absolute fact."

A Paper by Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst, of New York, on the Man-Woman of the Day.

There is quite a respectable minority of women (respectable from a numerical standpoint at any rate) who seem to regard it as a mistake on the Lord's part that they have been limited to such narrow vocations as taking care of the home, raising children and initiating those children in the first principles of life, learning and conduct. It is one of the features of the day—the number of women who are in revolt against the destiny to which they are morally, mentally and physiologically ordained. They are trying to do two things from which they are by the very constitution of nature prohibited. First, they are trying to cease to be women, and second, they are attempting to be men.

The consequence is what might have been anticipated. They fail of being exactly anything—are just enough of both to miss being very much of either. I do not believe that, relatively speaking, the number of these hermaphroditic experimenters is large, but the minority does not need to be numerous in order to be much in evidence.

It is good Scripture and good civilization that a woman is intended to be man's helpmeet. It is an old-fashioned idea, but it worked well so long as it obtained, and we shall not be willing to have it replaced by the "new woman" fad until there is evidence that the innovation issues in a better type of womanhood.

The hope of the world is the family, and the hope of the family is first of all in the distinct and exclusive womanliness of the mother. If women want to continue to retain the natural admiration of the other sex they will have to do it by taking care to be women and nothing but women. Also, if they wish to preserve the distinctive quality and inexpressible delicacy of their sex, they will have to do it by broadening, not by contracting, the distance that divides their sex from the other.

REV. CHARLES H. PARKHURST.

I venture to say that, thanks to the noisy demonstrativeness of the minority above mentioned, woman has during the past 30 years become a cheaper thing in man's esteem; and it is as much due to that fact as to any increasing baseness in masculine character that among people in higher as well as in lower social conditions the relations between the sexes are acquiring so much of indelicacy, vulgarity and even of turpitude. —Chicago Democrat.

DAINTY LUNCHEON DISH.

Stuffed Eggs with Chicken Is Considered Quite a Delicacy by Woman Epicures.

Have ready some hard-boiled eggs. Reserve two for garnishing and cut the remainder through the center, saw-tooth fashion. This gives a prettily pointed edge to the cups thus formed. Cut a thin slice from the bottom of the cups to make them stand firm. Rub the yolks through a colander, mix with an equal quantity of finely minced chicken and season to taste with salt and pepper, and reduce them to a paste with melted butter. Mold into the shape of the original yolks and replace into the cups. Prepare some cold chicken by cutting into dice and heat it in the chicken gravy, to which add some milk. The gravy should be as thick as ordinary cream sauce.

Arrange some squares of fresh toast on a hot platter, cover with the heated mince, on each square place one of the prepared eggs and set them in the oven about two minutes to heat the eggs. In the meantime have the two eggs reserved ready for garnishing by rubbing the whites and yolks separately through a fine strainer. Sprinkle the yolks over the center and the whites around the edge, taking care not to cover the white cups and their contents.—Butterick's Delineator.

Women Who Seek Office.

Seeking preferment in the club will stultify a woman's heart and brain surely, but not more surely than the pathetic scramble for social position outside the clubs we so constantly see. The matter is apparent to every onlooker in either case. The woman who spends her thoughts and aspirations in effort to pull herself into the "upper set" may gain her world, but she has lost her soul in doing it, and the woman who wastes her club privileges in effort for office will have lost the good her club might have given her and gained little else than criticism and contempt.—The Club Woman.

How to Grow Younger.

"To grow younger you have only to sleep upon your back and avoid pillows," says a physical culturist. Her theory is that since during the day the muscles of the face are inclined to drop, we should counteract the drooping with the head on a level with the body. This practice is warranted to do away with that arch enemy of woman, the wrinkle.

VIVID PICTURE OF BOERS

Interesting Information From an Officer Within Their Lines.

WONDERFUL REPAIRING OF GUNS.

Colonel de Villebois-Mareuil Describes the Stern Boer Soldier Fighting Hard For His Duty, His Country and His Religion Without Punishment or Recompense or Altercation.

Of the foreigners within the Boer ranks the most picturesque and one of the ablest is Count de Villebois-Mareuil, who won fame in the foreign legion, French army, and who, it is said, threw up his commission and joined the Boers because he was not given the rank of brigadier general, which he felt he deserved. But it appears that it was not personal ambition, but genuine sympathy for the Boer cause, that influenced him. Not only is Colonel Villebois-Mareuil a brilliant soldier, but a distinguished writer as well, and herewith are presented extracts from a letter contributed by him to La Liberte of Paris. It gives much that is new concerning the Boers, from whose side little has been published. Many references have been made in the dispatches about the Creusot guns, which take their name from the town in France where they were manufactured. Colonel Villebois-Mareuil writes:

"The Creusot firm has two representatives in the Transvaal, MM. Grunberg and Leon, who are acting as directors of artillery and engineers. They constructed the largest and most modern of the four forts of Pretoria. The other three were built by Germans, but the fourth was secured in competition with them by the French firm.

"The Creusot company next took on hand the armament of the republic, but unfortunately a large part of the work contracted for had to be kept back in France on the declaration of war. The material delivered, including four guns of the well known Canet type, has been found so useful as to increase the regret felt on account of the nondelivery of the remainder.

"The range and wonderful accuracy of these guns, coupled with the extraordinary aptitude of the Boer gunners for estimating distances, have already thrown a mysterious halo of legend around them. This is the first time one of these guns has been in use, and its journey over the steepest mountains from Laingsnek to Ladysmith looks so improbable that I shall try to tell the tale later on with the help of photographs.

"It is M. Leon who, with an indomitable energy, with 20 pairs of oxen or even the arms of the Boers alone, has spent many a night in hoisting 'Long Tom' up the most precipitous heights. It was Leon again who superintended the provisioning of the camps, who chose and laid out the sites for the batteries around Ladysmith. In the laagers, where everybody knew him, he was credited with almost supernatural powers. In everything that concerned artillery he was given supreme authority, and the force of circumstances turned this engineer into a first rate artilleryman as well as a brilliant sapper. He has earned the confidence of General Joubert and the gratitude of the Transvaal."

M. Leon, by the way, was killed before Kimberley. This is the first direct exposition explaining the remarkable effectiveness of the Boer artillery which the British have attributed vaguely to German artillerists, it being generally accepted that the Boers themselves have had little knowledge of heavy ordnance. It will be noticed, however, that Colonel Villebois-Mareuil gives the Boers the credit for judging the ranges, and, after all, that is the most important thing, says the New York World. He continues:

"M. Grunberg's work was at Pretoria and Johannesburg. To him the wounded ordnance was sent, and he made some wonderful cures, among them that of poor 'Long Tom,' who was surprised by the English and blown up with dynamite in three places. I see he has just come back a little shortened, but as doughty as ever, eager to try conclusions once more with his destroyers and to hurl his shrapnel with his full charge of powder. The two Creusot representatives have been helped in their task of repairing damages by the plant zealously placed at their disposal by the Netherlands Railway company. There is likewise at Johannesburg a projectile factory which has solved one of the most troublesome problems of the war by keeping up the supply of ammunition with unlooked for steadiness.

"If you consider both men and things, here is a curious mixture of very ancient and modern methods. The concentration of troops was carried out by railway with the greatest ease and without a hitch, as with trained troops. Land transport is assured by those massive, canvas covered wagons drawn by 16 pairs of oxen. Filled with blankets and provisions for the longest journey, they formed the only vehicle before the railway was constructed. Today they are on all the Natal routes and on the banks of the swollen rivers when it is impossible to discover a ford.

"In camp is a commissariat officer who serves out provisions with a liberality to which our commissariat officers have not accustomed me. The meat is admirable. Bread for the army is baked in Glencoe by a Frenchman named St. Croix, some of it in the ovens left there by the British. If bread should run out, there is Boer biscuit, which is softer, more palatable and far better than ours.

"The government still keeps the men supplied with tea, coffee, rice, potatoes and condiments. It is your universal provider, this government—your tailor, outfitter, saddler, shoemaker, and all without the slightest fuss, without the bother of filling up forms. All you want is a voucher from the field cornet, who is responsible to his own conscience for the reasonableness of the orders he signs. With its marabout tents, its kitchen in the open air, its Irish stews, the Boer laager would give the illusion of an Algerian camp but for the enormous wagons drawn up in line or in square, the multiplicity of animals and the silence and calm of the men.

"Guard duty is taken in turns by successive groups all night long. The tent of the general, the major or the field cornet serves as a club for any one who likes. The life of the chiefs is for me a mystery of physical and intellectual endurance in the midst of this continuous invasion. There are no punishments, no recompenses, no altercations or coercive measures, everything being done freely at stated hours as a duty. Though there is no restraint, there is never a reprehensible act. The laagers have a telegraphic and postal service like that of modern European armies, electric searchlights, perfectly equipped ambulances and a commissariat department that works with admirable regularity in spite of the extreme strain that is put upon it.

"But, after all, the laagers are chiefly interesting for the spirit that animates them. An atmosphere of deep religious feeling pervades the camp, which commits everything to God—the fate of the Transvaal, the defense of its liberties and the rights of its people against the aggressor. If you compliment a general, he replies, 'God has permitted it.' The Boer, whose secret aspirations are thus encouraged, lifts eyes of faith to heaven. The pastors are among the men, living their life, present at their death, simple, like the others, although treated with special respect."

Colonel Villebois-Mareuil shows how the deep, earnest piety of the Boers has affected him. He writes:

"When I came here, I thought I was marching to the sacrifice, and I expected that General Buller's operations would be crowned with success about the end of January. When I landed at Delagoa Bay, I was not quite so sure of Sir Redvers Buller. After the battle of Colenso, as soon as I saw how a general like Botha could be improvised, I began to wonder whether Lord Roberts himself would be able to cross the Tugela, even with his last reserves and all old England at his back. There is something on our side that is invincible. God is fighting for us. Any man who has seen the Boers, night after night, gathered in groups, some on horseback, others on foot, punctual in all weathers, taking up their nightly stations, is constrained to bow before the superior power which can transform lives so free as theirs and mold them to the needs of warlike discipline.

"The rain is often heavy at nightfall, but they press stoically forward without noticing it, and until the hour of dawn, crouching among the rocks along a slope, bogged in the mire or drenched in the flooded fields, they will keep vigil or sleep under the southern sky, offering their lives in continual sacrifice to their country.

"No man who has seen them in battle, their eyes ever on the alert, their deadly magazine rifles in their hands, quick to change their position or to strengthen a weak point, inflexible and yet at the same time generous, stopping their fire as soon as it has produced its effect, refusing to pursue after the enemy has been put to flight—no man who sees them such perfect masters of their strength can fail to understand that they are a people apart, these extraordinary Boers, sure of their eye as of their nerve, of their resolution as of their endurance."

A Mausoleum at Kimberley.

A Cape Town dispatch to the New York Sun states that Mr. Cecil Rhodes intends to send Mr. Baker, a noted architect, to Egypt, Rome and Athens to study the mausoleums there. On Mr. Baker's return he will erect a mausoleum at Kimberley in memory of those who were killed during the siege.

NEXT CUP CHALLENGE.

Sir Thomas Lipton Bent on Capturing the Coveted Trophy.

TWO YACHTS FOR TRIAL RACE.

Permission to Be Asked to Alter the Shamrock—Watson to Design a New Yacht to Be Called the Erin—Best Boat to Be Recognized as the Challenger.

The Boston Herald prints the following from its Glasgow correspondent:

You can state it on the official authority of Sir Thomas Lipton, who has just returned from France and the Mediterranean, that he will challenge for the America's cup in 1901, and there can be no doubt of it. He favored me with an exclusive interview the other day, and we went all over the situation.

Sir Thomas has given attention to the suggestion that if the sail plan and forebody of the Shamrock were changed she would be a better boat. At first Mr. Fife strongly opposed any change in the Shamrock. For two months past, however, he has worked on the Shamrock's body and sail plans and has come to the conclusion that the attempt is worth making and has so informed Sir Thomas. Two years will have elapsed before the coming match, and now Sir Thomas, since he has met Fife, has made up his mind to alter the Shamrock. Fife has asked him to get absolute liberty from the New York Yacht club to reconstruct and alter her in such manner as seems to him best.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON.

Designer Watson has been given the order to get out the lines of the new challenger, which, by the way, will be called the Erin. Mr. Watson is now working up the preliminaries and thinking matters out, and he will be prepared to give out the contract as soon as the terms for the next match are arranged between the Royal Ulster and the New York Yacht clubs.

Charles Russell, who is Sir Thomas Lipton's legal adviser, has looked into all the terms of former matches and has found out that the New York Yacht club in the Valkyrie III match is on record—viz, "In case Valkyrie III is not the fastest British yacht after trial then you (Dunraven) will be allowed to substitute such yacht for the challenger."

These terms will be asked by Sir Thomas because he will send both the Shamrock and the Erin over to your side in the late spring of 1901 and thus give them a chance of at least two months of trial practice before the grand event comes off. Should the improved Shamrock be faster than the Erin then, as in the case of the Valkyrie III, Sir Thomas will ask that the faster of the two yachts be named, and what the members of the New York Yacht club offered Lord Dunraven they will surely grant to Sir Thomas Lipton. Both yachts, in accordance with the terms of the mutual agreement clause previously agreed on, will be towed over under the same conditions as the Shamrock, and they should make the passage in 13 days. The practice sails will take place off Sandy Hook, and every day outside of Sunday will be given to racing over the regular America's cup course distance.

Sir Thomas is undecided whether he will be in America in July or August, but that he will be over during one of these months is a certainty. He will have the members of the Royal Ulster Yacht club with him, and, as before, the match will be speedily closed. The chances are that the matches will be sailed during August or early September, and it may be earlier, for Sir Thomas intends if possible to have both of his boats on this side in late April or early May and have them ready for a match not more than 60 days after arrival.

On an early day Sir Thomas will informally send a letter to the New York Yacht club informing the members of his intention to challenge, so as to have a holding above others who may contemplate challenging. As he has stepped aside for a year, he feels before the match takes on that his future attempts to lift the cup should not be uncertain so far as the lodgment of the challenge for 1901 is concerned. The alterations in the Shamrock will be made by Thorneycroft, and in that event she will be towed to the yard in the south.

Mr. William Gibson, a very wealthy Irishman, from County Antrim, is a very close friend of Sir Thomas. He has suggested that he would like to be a party in building the Erin. Sir Thomas likes the fun so much that he will go it alone. When Sir Thomas will have completed the 1901 match, the outlay will be close to three-quarters of a million dollars.

Statistical and Historical Data Bearing on the News of the Day from Foreign Lands

Railroad Construction in Asia Minor.

European newspapers report that the controversy in regard to railroad construction in Asia Minor has been settled for the present by a concession granted to the Anatolia Railway company. This German company, it is understood, will extend its present line, which terminates at Konieh, via Marash and Bagdad to Bassorah. The opposition of the French company owning the Smyrna-Kassaba road, which extends east as far as Afion Karahissar, was removed by granting this company 40 per cent. of the shares in the extension, and the local objection was obviated by a provision in the concession giving the Turkish government the right to purchase the line at any time.

Few railroad lines can be of greater prospective importance than this 2,000 miles of railroad uniting the Persian gulf with Europe, forming a rapid transit to and from the east, opening up large tracts of agricultural country and paving the way for German commercial supremacy in Asia Minor and Mesopotamia.

It is not difficult to see how Germany, with preferential rates for goods on German lines, will be able to control the chief markets of Asia Minor and invade the east. A reference to the accompanying map will show how Germany is acquiring commercial supremacy in Asia Minor. Germans purchased the Constantinople-Ismid railroad from an English company and extended it to Angora. They also checkmated the French and English by extending their line from Eski-Sher to Konieh, thus preventing extension of both the Smyrna-Afion Karahissar and the Smyrna-Aidin-Dinair roads.

The two great distributing points—Constantinople and Smyrna—are thus controlled by Germans, and German goods may enter the interior of Asia Minor and the great valley of the Tigris and Euphrates on German-controlled roads at a decided advantage. Germans have obtained the right to build docks and warehouses at Haida Pasha, the terminus of the Anatolian railroads; and with through rates for German goods on German lines, German freight cars may be sent across the Bosphorus and travel to Mesopotamia and the confines of India and Persia without change. Goods from other countries will have to be transshipped at Constantinople or Smyrna, and will be consequently at a disadvantage.

But water transport is always, mile for mile, cheaper than rail transport, and one scheme of competition remains for other countries in Mesopotamia and southern Anatolia. Let the proposed line from Samsoun (or Sinope) to Sivas, Diarbekir and Bagdad be built and a country vastly superior in agricultural products will be opened up, giving more local traffic than the German line from Konieh to Bagdad, which must traverse a barren and sparsely inhabited land.

Navigation Progress in Paris.

One of the most important conventions that will meet in Paris during the coming summer will be the eighth international congress of navigation, to be held at Paris from July 25 to August 3, 1900. Members will consist of delegates of the French government and of foreign governments; delegates accredited by chambers of commerce, cities, navigation and towing societies, railroad and transportation companies; technical, scientific and industrial societies and syndicates; and individuals who have signified to the organizing committee, before the opening of the session, their intention of becoming members. The programme comprises the following:

FIRST SECTION.—INLAND NAVIGATION, WORKS.

First Question.—Effect of regulating works upon the regimen of rivers. (To show especially the effect of these works upon inundations.)

Second Question.—Progress made in mechanical applications to the feeding of canals.

SECOND SECTION.—INLAND NAVIGATION, OPERATION.

Third Question.—Utilization of natural navigable waterways of restricted depth above their maritime section. (Methods of operation and kinds of boats of light draft of water, such as are specially susceptible of application to the colonies).

Fourth Question.—Progress made in mechanical applications in the operation of navigable waterways. Privileged traction companies.

Fifth Question.—Institutions to pension and instruct the personnel of the boat crews.

THIRD SECTION.—MARITIME NAVIGATION, WORKS.

Sixth Question.—The latest improvements in lighting and buoying coasts and harbor entrances.

Seventh Question.—The most recently constructed works in the principal coastwise or maritime ports.

FOURTH SECTION.—MARITIME NAVIGATION, OPERATION.

Eighth Question.—Facilities to be given to ports to meet the demands of oceangoing ships. (Dimensions to be given to the principal works and the general navigable conditions required.)

Ninth Question.—Progress in mechanical applications to the plants and other facilities of the ports.

Women Doctors Have Invaded Russia.

Russian conservatism is breaking down in many places. The following translated extract from an article written by Dr. Kallmeyer, of St. Petersburg, and published in the German Medical Weekly, will be of interest in this country:

Women physicians have established themselves all over Russia, and even their opponents must admit that they have achieved a respected position. Part of them are employed by the government, and since last year are entitled to a pension. They occupy positions as county physicians, school physicians, physicians for the poor and the municipal ambulance system, etc. A Mrs. Dr. N. Schulz, in the St. Petersburg institute for experimental medicine, is one of the foremost experts in bacteriology, and her lectures are well attended by physicians of both sexes. Miss Dr. Lavroskaja, of the city hospital, Obuchow, and a few other female physicians were last year with the expedition which went to Turkestan under the personal guidance of the prince of Oldenburg to combat the pest. They all returned in good health, but their conduct shows a spirit of heroism worthy to be remembered. Dr. Pavloskaya has immortalized herself in another direction. At the right time and in the right manner she succeeded in interesting St. Petersburg society in the establishment of a sanitarium for consumptives, and through donations from private sources and the imperial treasury the establishment in Taitzi, near St. Petersburg, is in operation.

Dr. Schabanova has gained distinction for the erection of a sanitarium for children on the Baltic sea coast.

strengthened his esteem and there was no one in the Council he would rather have the position than Mr. Clark. Mr. Clark at first declined the position, but was finally induced to take it.

Mr. Coddington offered a resolution making the first Friday evening in each month the time for the regular meeting of the Council. Mr. Clark offered a resolution making the by-laws of the Council for last year the same for 1900.

Mayor Smalley then appointed the committees for the present year as follows:

Streets and public health—Robert Clark, Jr., chairman, 59 Jackson avenue; Harrison Coddington, John Valiant.

Fire, water and lamps—Geo. T. Rogers, chairman, 44 Myrtle avenue; Robert Clark, Jr., Harrison Coddington.

Audit and finance—John Valiant, chairman, 42 Myrtle avenue; Geo. T. Rogers, Charles A. Lee.

License and marshals—Charles A. Lee, chairman, Grove street; Robert Clark, Jr., Harrison Coddington.

Stationery and supplies—Harrison Coddington, chairman, 12 Mountain avenue; Charles A. Lee, Samuel S. Swackhamer.

Laws, ordinances and taxation—Samuel S. Swackhamer, chairman, 109 Summit avenue; John Valiant, Geo. T. Rogers.

The Mayor said that during the coming year the services of the borough engineers would cost more for the reason that it is intended to push the matter of laying sidewalks and crosswalks. He also instructed Mr. Lee to give the police a shaking up, something they need.

Mr. Lee offered a resolution which provides that each regular marshal furnish a bond for $500 for the faithful performance of his duty. A similar resolution was offered by Mr. Coddington concerning the borough clerk and accountant. The amount of the bond in this case was made $1,000.

Mr. Valiant brought up the subject of the borough sprinkling the streets during the coming summer. He thought it would be a good idea to experiment in this direction and charge the expense to the taxpayers

Mr. Clark said that he had conferred with Superintendent of Highways Doud about the sprinkling of the streets and that they had decided that no data could be secured until the experiment is tried. He favored the experiment under the most economic plan, and believed that it would save the borough money by preserving the macadam.

Mayor Smalley favored the plan also. He suggested that two or three sprinklers be secured, and that teams be hired. Thus the streets could be sprinkled at least once a day. The probabilities are the scheme will be tried.

The Mayor took occasion to again speak of the Duer street opening scheme, and stated that $300 had been subscribed, and he thought the balance, $200, should be contributed quickly. He urged this and said that he hoped the amount would be subscribed very soon.

In conclusion Mr. Clark stated that the street committee intend to divide the borough off into four sections, and on this basis take up the work of laying sidewalks and crosswalks. He hoped that if there is anyone who desire either the sidewalks or crosswalks before this work is taken up they would petition the Council for the same, and thus facilitate matters. The Council then adjourned to the next regular meeting in April.

Acts in Queer Manner.

A young man, who appears to be slightly deranged, has been wandering about the city this morning. He finally went to the rooms of the Relief Association. When Chief Grant went there after him, the stranger bolted through the door and fled down the street. He shows no disposition to do anything wrong but behaves in a peculiar manner. He is well dressed.

Lived to Ripe Old Age.

Mrs. Catherine Purcell, aged ninety years, died at Raritan last Saturday. The funeral services were held at that place this morning and interment took place in St. Mary's cemetery today.

Bernard M. Shanley Dead.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, March 20.—Bernard M. Shanley, Newark's wealthiest capitalist, died Monday night from paralysis. Mr. Shanley was president of the Essex and Hudson Gas Company, which is controlled by the United Gas Improvement Co., and was well-known in Philadelphia, where he had an office, and transacted a large amount of his business. No man in New Jersey was so well known as a promoter of traction deals. Mr. Shanley was a heavy stockholder in the Pennsylvania Railroad and numerous other big corporations.

Must Have More Room.

Inspector M. B. Snow, of the Postoffice Department, has had charge of the arrangements for establishing the free delivery system in Summit, and after a careful examination decided that with the introduction of that system May 1st, considerable more room in the postoffice would be required. After a conference with the owner of the building, Dr. J. Boyd Risk, it was decided to enlarge the office by combining with it a store in the rear. The additional room thus acquired will almost double the facilities of the office for handling mail.

Elbow Crashed Through Window.

A young man was arrested at Music Hall last evening on complaint of Manager Maze Edwards for breaking a window. He was locked up by Patrolman Fraleigh. This morning, he appeared before Mayor Rockfellow who released him. The young man was trying to persuade his younger brother to come home and put his hand on the boy's arm. The latter jumped back and the young man's elbow crashed throught the window.

Death of Mrs. Tierney.

Mrs. Catherine Tierney, aged 41 years, died Saturday last at the home of her brother, Mr. Fennesey, West Fourth street, after a short illness with pneumonia. The funeral services were held yesterday morning at St. Mary's church, Rev. Father Westman officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. Those who served as bearers were Peter Flynn, P. Muldoon, J. Muldowney, Thomas Muldowney, B. Brady and M. Nugent

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The next contest at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium will be a novice gymnastic contest, which is scheduled for Saturday evening. Those contestants who took part in the novice athletic contest will probably take part in this one and a lively competition is expected. Most of the men are comparatively new to that kind of work so nothing remarkable need be expected.

A large crowd assembled in Krewson's pool rooms last evening to see one of the most important games of the handicap tournament in progress there. The game was between Augustus Sutterlein, who has been in the lead in the tournament, and Charles Maltby, one of the scratch men. Maltby was to play a 100-point game and Sutterlein a 75-point game. In the first frame Maltby came out ahead, 14 to 1. In the second Maltby won, 13 to 2. After obtaining such a lead, Maltby played a good steady game while his opponent lost his nerve and went to pieces. The result was a victory for Maltby, 100 to 51. Sutterlein still leads, but there are several of the other contestants close behind.

T. H. Kellar, better known in sporting circles as Tom Kellar, and his son, T. H. Kellar, Jr., have been in regular attendance at the Sportsmen's Show that ended at Madison Square Garden, New York, Saturday night. They were in charge of the booth of the Peters Cartridge Co. Many of their Plainfield friends visited them there. Both father and son took part in the various shotgun, rifle and revolver competitions that were held on the roof. In the contest for the best bull's eyes with a rifle, Hazelwood Kellar, as the son is usally called, finished third and also won a trophy for rifle shooting. T. H. Kellar qualified for the final round at trap shooting but did not get a place. He also won a trophy in a revolver contest.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

A commuter has made the excellent suggestion that it would be a good thing for both the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the city as well if an electric light was placed on the south side of the track opposite the North avenue station. Now that the freight house and other buildings have been cleared away and there is an opening for foot passengers in that direction, many commuters and other passengers leave the train on the south side and go to their homes that way. At present it is very dark and the passengers go stumbling along over the rough ground scarcely knowing where they are going. A light on that side of the track would certainly be appreciated.

* * * * *

Any bicyclist who wants an entire new sensation is respectfully recommended to ride out Grant avenue on the sidewalk from Front street over to the borough. There are two bridges on Grant avenue, one over the old mill race and the other over Green brook. The stone sidewalk runs up to the edge of the bank at the latter and then turns at right angles to connect with the bridge. There is no light anywhere in the neighborhood while no rail guards the end of the walk. A wheelman on the sidewalk would dive headlong in the brook as there is nothing to prevent him or warn him. One citizen of the borough was hurrying home a stormy night, and, in the darkness, failed to see when he had reached the bridge, and walked directly off the end of the sidewalk into the brook. Luckily he escaped injury. Many wheelmen have had narrow escapes at that point, for the road is generally unfit for wheeling and the bicyclists are accustomed to take the sidewalk.

Died at the Age of Seventy.

Mrs. Margaret Jordon, aged 70 years, of Norwood avenue, died this morning after a long illness. She is survived by a husband. Notice of funeral will be given later.

Lee Hammond, of Duer street, who has been seriously ill, is now improving.

Mrs. Charles Stephens, of the West End, is able to be out again after a severe illness.

Miss Bessie Hall, of South Branch, has returned home after a visit with Plainfield friends.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CHOSEN IN BOROUGH

George D. Hallock, Henry A. McGee and John H. VanWinkle Elected to the Board.

THERE WAS LITTLE CONTEST.

PRESIDENT M'CUTCHEN'S REPORT REVIEWED WORK FOR PAST YEAR.

Recommended Appropriations Approved of by the Voters—Suggestions for Improvement Made by the President.

The annual borough school meeting was held last evening in the High School building on Somerset street. The attendance of citizens was, as usual, very large. Contrary to expectation there was little or no excitement and everything passed off harmoniously. S St. John McCutchen, president of the Board of Education, call the meeting to order, and Dr. H. K Carroll was made chairman. Borough Clerk Frank Rowley was chosen secretary. George F. Brown and D. M. VanVliet were made inspectors.

The time having arrived to nominate School Commissioners, B. A. Hegeman, Jr., made an enthusiastic speech in which he nominated George D Hallock to succeed himself in the Board. He referred to Mr. Hallock's ability, integrity and devotion to duty. He said that he knew the nominee to be a person singularly fitted for the position. He dwelt upon the fact that there was too much criticism of borough officials, and unless it was stopped it would drive good people out of the borough. He did not consider it was any special privilege to fill an office and then be abused for trying to do what was right.

Dr. Cooley then nominated Henry A. McGee to succeed himself, and David Kenney nominated Andrew E. Kenney. Rev. J. O. McKelvey was nominated, but he declined. John Goodwin nominated Paul Loizeaux to succeed himself, and P. A. Emmons placed in nomination the name of John H. VanWinkle.

The total vote was 366 as follows: George D. Hallock, 93; H. A. McGee, 119; John H. VanWinkle, 86; Andrew E Kenney and Paul Loizeaux 34 each. The first three were declared elected. The appropriation was carried by a vote of 84. This includes for teachers' salaries and current expenses, $12,400; for text books and supplies, $1,700.

District Clerk R M. Fountain presented his annual report as to the financial standing of the various departments. The general school account shows that the receipts were $32,709 50 and the disbursements, $25,167 07, leaving a balance in the hands of the Collector of $7,541 71, and a balance of 72 cents in the hands of the Clerk. The library fund shows that the receipts were $179 08 and the disbursements $176 12, leaving a balance of $2 96. The recepts for the building fund were $9 594 26 and the disbursements $9,214 86, laving a balance of $379 40.

The report of President S. St. John McCutchen was read by himself as follows:

To the Legal Voters of North Plainfield:

The record of the schools of the borough for the past year is one of quiet progress. The Watchung School has furnished the relief from overcrowding under which we suffered so long, and except in some minor points of construction, is satisfactorily filling the needs it was built to meet.

An earnest spirit shown by teachers and scholars seems to prevail in the schools, and serious, intelligent and systematic work is being done. The work of education is undergoing constant development.

Methods of teaching, text books and appliances become antiquated and are superseded by those that are more progressive and effective. To those of us who knew the public schools of many years ago, the change to the enlightened, advanced and scientific methods of this day is most surprising. This development is shown in many ways.

Our supervising principal has reported to us an interesting experiment in our school attending the use of a modern text book and method in teaching arithmetic in the third and fourth year classes. These classes of very young children, with these modern aids to the study of that difficult subject, arithmetic, passed a better examination on ten thought problems selected at random, than did the eighth year pupils on the same examples.

This experiment shows the value of adopting the latest and best helps to learning, and the necessity of keeping

HIS ACTIONS ARE QUEER

STRANGE CONDUCT OF A FIFTEENTH SON OF A MILLIONAIRE.

Taken in Custody by the Police, But Released When Doctor Said He Was Sane.

After a wild and thrilling chase through the city streets late yesterday afternoon Constable John Gjettiesen captured a young man. The only trouble with the young man was that the police questioned his sanity. John started his victim on North avenue and captured him on Front street. Some fifty men and boys joined in the pursuit.

The young man gave his name as Charles Price. He claimed to hail from Philadelphia and to be the fifteenth son of a millionaire. He afterwards decided that his home was in Hartford and that he was really a count by inheritance. He seemed well-educated and rational in his conversation.

Price has been in Plainfield several weeks. He obtained a job at the Scott Press Works as machinist but showed a complete ignorance of the use of tools. He has since paid frequent visits to the rooms of the Relief Association and so annoyed Miss VanBoskerck, the superintendent, by his obtrusive attentions that the police were notified. He wrote her several letters. It is also alleged that he stopped several young women on West Second street and tried to get into conversation with them.

The police report that he hung about the Crescent Avenue church, opening the door for young women and talking to them To the police he claimed that he was out of work, hadn't a cent and was starving. Last night he showed a large roll of bills to a Plainfielder.

After Gjettlesen's chase, Price was detained at the jail for several hours. Mayor Rockfellow and Chief Grant examined him, as did also Dr. Carman. The latter declared that he was not insane. He was released during the evening promising to leave this morning to accept a position in Garwood. If he does not go his peculiar actions are likely to land him in jail shortly as the police are inclined to be suspicious of him.

A HOSPITAL SITE.

Board of Governors to Consider New Location—Between $3,000 and $4,000 Subscribed.

The board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital wi l meet in regular session next Monday evening. At that time one of the most important matters to be considered will be the report of the committee having in charge the selection of the land as the site for the new hospital building, which is now almost an assured thing. Just what action will be taken on the report cannot be stated now, but it is likely to be favorable.

Regarding the new hospital and purchase of land it can be stated that in the board of governors and medical staff there has been subscribed between $3,000 and $4,000. This is highly commendable when it is considered that these members have always been liberal contributors to the hospital and have freely given their services. This should prove an impetus to many to come forward and contribute toward the project, which is well worth the attention and interest of everyone in the city.

Missionary League Convention.

The eighth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Missionary League of the Reformed (Dutch) church will be held in New Brunswick May 2d and 3d. Rev. A. De W. Mason, president of the league, promises the attendance of a number of prominent missionaries of the church. A partial list of the other speakers includes Rev. Dr. D. Sage Mackey, of New York; Rev. Dr. James M. Faner, of Brooklyn, and Rev. W. W. Clark and Rev. Dr. Charles H. Pool, of the Board of Domestic Missions.

Summit Prohibitionists Nominate.

The Summit Prohibitionists are the first to enter the field with candidates for the municipal offices to be filled at the election on April 10. The Commissioners of Appeals nominated were: Charles L C. Reeve, Marcellus C. Halsey and William R. Cain; for member of Council from the Second ward, Charles B. Grant was nominated, and in the First ward, Frank Wright.

Steer Went Mad.

A large steer, belonging to Mahlon Hulszer, near Clinton, went mad a day or two ago. The animal was bitten by a rabid dog that passed through Clinton recently. The Common Council has offered a reward of a dollar a head for all dogs killed and buried that are found running the streets without being muzzled.

RIGHTS OF CATHOLICS

BISHOP M'FAUL SAYS THEY SHOULD BE BETTER RECOGNIZED.

Declare That They Should Have Representation in New Jersey According to Their Numbers.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 21.—In the course of a brief sermon at the Cathedral Right Rev. Bishop McFaul has called attention to the fact that the Catholics, considering their numbers, were receiving very little recognition in the affairs of State. The bishop explained that he did not advocate increased representation on mere religious grounds, because nothing would be more adverse to his ideas than a Catholic party, or an Irish party, or a German party.

In referring to the remarkable increase in numbers and prosperity of the Catholic church in the State of New Jersey, Bishop McFaul said that the Catholic population was rapidly approaching half a million, or about one-third of the population of the State. He asked his hearers to consider whether such a large body was accorded that representation on the public boards of the State, which was proportionate to their numbers.

The bishop said that some of the other religious denominations had been vigilant of their rights. It was only of late years that the Catholics had made any progress whatsoever in this direction, and, the bishop said, they were still far from the enjoyment of their full rights, and that representation to which their numbers entitled them.

This he attributed to the apathy of the Catholic laity, and he expressed the desire that there should be more activity manifested by Catholics in the advocating and maintaining of their rights under the Constitution of the State. He said that he did not desire to be understood as advocating anything like a Catholic party, but that he wished his people to act as American citizens entitled to certain rights under the Constitution, and fearless in using legitimate means to attain their exercise.

MISSION SOCIETY OFFICERS.

Annual Elections Held by Crescent Avenue Presbyterian and First Baptist Societies.

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church was held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Wellington Smith, a missionary from China, made an interesting address telling something of the work among the women in the Celestial Empire.

The election of officers followed and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Samuel Milliken; first vice-president, Mrs. Wilson W. Smith; second vice-president, Mrs. Stuart Patterson; third vice-president, Mrs. W. R. Richards; treasurer, Miss Margaret Tracy; secretary, Miss Scribner; secretary for literature, Mrs. I. N. Field.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church, at which time the election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. D. J. Yerkes; first vice-president, Mrs. John D. Runyon; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Biglow; third vice-president, Mrs. Reuben Knox; secretary, Mrs. Isabel Milne; treasurer, Mrs. George H Batchelor; work committee, Mrs. Dewitt C. Brokaw and Mrs. Harold Serrell; secretary and treasurer incidental committee, Mrs. Frank Biglow.

The annual report of the treasurer showed that about $500 had been collected during the year to be sent to the headquarters of the Woman's Home Missionary Society to be used for home missions. It was also reported that during the year two barrels of clothing and useful articles were sent to missionaries in the west, and one box of useful articles was sent to a missionary in the south.

Shop Employes to be Given Good Time.

The Y. M. C. A. has arranged a pleasant affair for Saturday night, when the employes of the large machine shops nave been invited to enjoy an evening of musical specialties in the large hall. Some excellent singing and other musical effects will be provided.

Fruit Crop Hurt.

Many nurserymen of New Jersey fear that the sleet storm of Thursday has ruined the fruit crop. The trees were covered with a coating of ice from Thursday to Monday.

TRIED TO PICK LOCK ON CELL AND GET OUT

But His Scheme Resulted in Making the Lock All the More Secure.

GABE BROWN THE PRISONER

POLICE HAD HARD WORK TO OPEN CELL THIS MORNING.

Broken Piece of Handle from a Pail Was the Device He Used—Participated in "Rough House" and Was Fined $5 by the Judge.

Gabriel Brown did not believe that Patrolman Vanderweg was justified in locking him up last evening. So he felt it his duty to release himself as speedily as possible. He was working away at the lock with a broken piece from the iron handle to his pail when Sergeant Kiely interfered. It was the first attempt made to "break jail" for many years, but City Judge Runyon did not think it serious enough to impose any heavy punishment.

The trouble began in a saloon on West Third street, where some white friends of Brown's favored a little "rough house." Brown, who is a Negro, departed suddenly by the door and drew a match-box with which he threatened to shoot his pursuers. Brown's language, according to the story of Patrolman Vanderweg, who arrived on the scene at that time, was strong and uncomplimentary. The policeman says Brown had a knife.

For his abusive language the officer locked Brown up after sundry struggles on the part of Brown who objected to going to jail. He was landed in the cell, however. When Sergeant Kiely examined the jail later in the evening, Brown was industriously trying to pick the lock. He had broken the iron handle of his pail into four pieces.

Although he didn't unlock the door, he succeeded in disturbing the mechanism of the lock and it was only after much trouble that the police were able to release him this morning. Brown admitted, when arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning, that he broke the handle to the pail, but couldn't remember why he did it or what happened after that.

After hearing the testimony, City Judge Runyon set the fine at $5.

Howard Doty, arrested last evening by Patrolman Watson for loitering in a hallway on East Front street and refusing to move on when ordered to, was also fined $5. Complaint was made to the police that a gang of young men were making themselves objectionable in the hallway where they congregate nightly. Doty claimed that he had not been there regularly and had moved as soon as the officer spoke.

YOUNG MAN SUICIDES.

Nicholas Williams Swallows Carbolic Acid in Presence of Several Companions.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 21. — Nicholas Williams, a well-known young man of this place, committed suicide in the office of Taylor's livery stable, in Railroad avenue, last night.

Williams was playing with snowballs with the liveryman's children early in the evening, but at 7:30 o'clock he entered the office of the stable and, displaying a two ounce vial of carbolic acid to several young men, announced his intention of taking it. It was believed he was joking, but before he could be prevented he swallowed the acid and then walked across the street. When he felt the effect of the poison he turned quickly and walked back to the stable, where he fell in front of the door and died in a few minutes. His wife knows no reason why he should have committed suicide.

Three Acres Farm Land for $5,500

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Philipsburg, March 21.—The Edison Portland Cement Company, which has begun building a $1 000,000 plant at Stewartsville, paid $5,500 for a strip of about three acres. The owner, John W. Cline, had caused the abandonment of the preliminary work on the plant two weeks ago by refusing all offers for that part of his farm. The company had to have the land for a railway to its quarries.

Need of Better Sid walks.

THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE OF RAILWAY MEN DELAYS.

Troubles on the Jersey Central to be Discussed Tomorrow With President Maxwell.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Mauch Chunk, Pa., March 21.—The difficulties between the Central Railroad and its members will be brought to the attention of President Maxwell tomorrow at the office of the company in New York.

A representative from each of the five Brotherhoods, from every lodge between Jersey City and Scranton, will attend the conference with the general grievance committee. The original date set for the conference was today, but this was changed at Maxwell's request.

Jersey City, March 21—It is stated here that it is almost certain that President Maxwell will refuse to consider the grievances of the men when presented to him by the grievance committee representing the Brotherhoods. Individually he is said to be ready to meet the men, but it is rumored that he will not take up the grievances in the form and manner it is proposed to present them.

The men say there will be no immediate strike even if Mr. Maxwell refuses to treat Even if the general grievance committee should fail to bring about a settlement, the chief officers of the Brotherhoods will have to be called in to try and bring about a peaceful settlement. This would be a work of weeks at most.

PORTO RICO SCHOOLS.

Dr. Carroll Made a Few Extemporaneous Remarks About Them at Borough Meeting.

While the annual school meeting was being held last evening in the borough and the citizens were waiting for the time to arrive to close the polls, President McCutchen, of the Board of Education, requested Dr. Carroll, the chairman of the meeting, to give a brief talk concerning the schools of Porto Rico and education in the islands. The Commissioner responded and gave a very interesting talk. He said that the schools of Porto Rico under the Spanish rule were free only in name. There are no school houses, or even one well-appointed building for holding school. It will be one of the first duties of this Government to inaugurate a school system and provide necessary buildings.

He said that the boys and girls are taught in separate places, the former by men teachers and the latter by women teachers. Dr. Carroll said that he questioned the scholars concerning other countries, and they answered readily. When he asked them about their own place of habitation they could tell him nothing.

Dr. Carroll stated that there is about 25 per cent of the inhabitants of the island that can read or write, and it was in 1887 that the first school for girls was organized. In conclusion the speaker related the incident in connection with the presentation of flags by the scholars of the Franklin and Bryant Schools, this city, to the American school at Ponce.

ITALIAN FUNERAL.

Band and Mourners Escorted Remains of Lorenzo Ciechillo to Cemetery This Morning.

A brass band and fifty mourners marched before the hearse that bore the remains of Lorenzo Ciechillo to their final resting place at St. Mary's cemetery this morning. The funeral service was held at St. Joseph's church. Ciechillo was the Italian who died at the Muhlenberg Hospital Sunday night from hydrophobia. He was a member of an Italian society in New York, which took charge of the funeral services.

Rev. Father Miller conducted the services at the church. A delegation from the Italian society, accompanied by an Italian band, came out from New York and marched to the church.

They turned about and went to the cemetery, the band playing the dead march. A short service was held at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery.

Sprained His Ankle.

When alighting from one of the Jersey Central trains at the North Avenue station Monday evening, Charles W. McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, tripped and fell, spraining his ankle. The injury was not a serious one, however, and will only confine him to the house for a few days.

Thumb Crushed.

Lawrence Garvey, of West Third street, caught his hand in the cog wheel attached to the electric crane at the Pond Machine Tool Works yesterday afternoon. The thumb was badly crushed. It was dressed at the hospital.

ELECTIONS CONTESTED

ONE MAY TURN CRANFORD OVER TO REPUBLICANS.

Another Recount at Westfield, Where One Man Received Only One Majority.

Application by petition has been made before Supreme Court Judge Van Syckle at Trenton, for an order for a recount of the votes cast at the annual township election in Cranford, Tuesday, March 13. Judge Van Syckle granted an order on the ground that thirty marked ballots were used by the Citizens' or Fusion party, as stated in the petition.

The recount will be made by the Union County Board of Election at the Court House in Elizabeth, Monday, March 26th, at 10 a. m. The County Board of Election is composed of P. J. Ryan, of Elizabeth; John L. Crowell, of Rahway; William C Burr and John W. Murray, Jr. The returns of the Cranford election showed that 537 votes were cast, of which the Citizens' ticket received 271 and the Republican ticket 253.

When the recount is made, should the thirty ballots in question be thrown out, it will place the Township Committee in the hands of the Republicans, who on election day elected only one of three Township Committeemen.

The order for the recount has created consternation in the camp of the Citizens' party who fear that arrests may follow.

Judge VanSyckle has also granted an order in the matter of the application of Henry C. Sergeant, of Westfield, for a recount of the votes cast at that place on election day. Henry Sergeant was the Democratic candidate for member of the Township Committee for two years, and was declared defeated, Martin Welles, the Republican candidate, having received one more vote than Sergeant. In two districts Sergeant received 396, Welles 397.

BIRDS OF PLAINFIELD.

Interesting and Instructive Lecture Given by Miss Haviland Yesterday Afternoon.

Miss Caroline Haviland, a member of the Audubon Society, read a paper yesterday afternoon at All Souls' church before the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women. Miss Haviland had a number of specimens of birds to illustrate her talk. In her paper she told most entertainingly of the characteristics, habits, colors, marking and migrations of the birds. Her paper also treated of the various kinds of sparrows, blue birds, robins, finches, thrushes, etc. The migrations of the birds, she said, were made generally at night and the flight of the bird was from one to three miles from the surface of the earth. The sparrows, blue birds and robin were the first to make their appearance in this section in the spring, followed later by the finches, thrushes and the song birds.

Miss Haviland read her subject in a clear distinct voice, and to students of the birds and members of the Audubon Society it proved both entertaining and instructive.

THACKERY EVENING.

Second of the Series Held in All Souls' Church Last Night.

All Souls' church was comfortably filled last evening by those of a literary taste who were interested in the works of Thackery. This was the second of the five evenings devoted to the study of this celebrated author's works. Last evening Edgar Burr Smith read for the edification of the audience a review of one of Thackery's best productions—"Pendennis." It was a description of his fortunes, misfortunes, friends and greatest enemies. Mr. Smith read the synopsis of the story in good voice and he was well received. After the reading the paper was discussed.

Uniform Rules for Grain Dealings.

A special committee has been appointed by President Barrows of the Produce Exchange to consult with the grain committee of the Exchage with a view to formulating a uniform rule for grain transactions. It is understood that the committee will favor the establishment of a special rate for trade between exchanges. A meeting of the grain trade of the Exchange will soon be held to act upon the committee's report.

HARD AT WORK FOR WIND-UP AT TRENTON

Many Measures Were Rushed Through the Legislative Mill Yesterday.

THE SCHOOL BILL PASSES.

SENATOR CARTER SUCCEEDS IN HAVING IMPORTANT AMENDMENT MADE.

Cities May Have Appointive Boards if They So Elect—Cash for a New Chamber for the Senate.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 21—Both branches of the Legislature pegged away at business yesterday and disposed of a large batch of bills of more or less importance. With only three days more of the session in sight there is need for hustle and the statesmen are doing it. The Senate had another long discussion on the bill to codify the school laws. Mr. Carter wanted it amended so that it would provide for the appointment of school boards, except in those cities where a board is selected by popular vote. Such an amendment was finally passed and the bill now goes over to the House.

The joint committee on appropriations has decided to recommend an appropriation of $285,000 for a new Senate Chamber and an addition to the State House, and an appropriation of $50,000 for a new addition to the State Normal School at Trenton.

The Senate passed the following Senate bills: Providing for a deputy chief of the labor bureau and the abolition of the office of secretary; requiring the bodies of persons who died of contagious disease to be hermetically sealed before removal from the State; permitting municipalities to fix a discount rate for prompt payment of taxes. Also the following House bills: Providing for a public library commission and making an appropriation of $100 toward such municipality that may appropriate a similar amount; extending the soldiers' tenure of office act to county positions.

The House passed the following: Senate bill providing for a State Sewerage Commission with power to divide the State into sewerage districts and to make plans for the disposal of sewage from the municipalities within those districts; House bill permitting cumulative voting for directors of corporations; permitting Sheriffs in counties under 125,000 population to have the custody of and provide the food for prisoners; giving local Boards of Health the power to provide for the licensing of plumbers; prohibiting the killing of birds and animals while snow is on the ground; providing for a fine of $500 for the adulteration of coffee and other foods; permitting cities to establish a fund for the pensioning of firemen; Senate bill authorizing the creation by Boards of Freeholders of County Boards of equalization; providing for a Commission to investigate and report to the Supreme Court the best method of examining law students; authorizing Cape May to spend $5,000 a year for music.

TURNED STATE'S EVIDENCE.

Young Sisser Tells all He Knows About Robbery of Farmer Lane's Smokehouse.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 21.—Young Sisser, who was implicated in the robbery of Abram Lane's smokehouse, at North Branch Station, has turned State's evidence. Sisser is a son of the landlord of the Raritan Hotel, and the stolen goods were found secreted under the hay in Sisser's barn. Gat Wyman and John Tury, who are in jail for being implicated in the robbery, are furious at Sisser and say they will turn State's evidence and implicate him in other crimes. The public are anxiously awaiting the arraignment of Wyman and Tury, as they expect some startling revelations to be made, and some mysterious crimes may be cleared up.

Recount of Cranford Votes.

(Special to The Daily Press).

Cranford, March 21.—Justice VanSyckle of the Supreme Court recently granted an order requiring a recount of the ballots cast at the recent town election here. It was asked for by the Republicans, who alleged that about thirty marked ballots which should have been thrown out were counted for the Citizens' ticket.

A LULL IN THE FIGHT

But Progress Is Being Made to Peace.

GENERAL KITCHENER TAKES PRIESKA

Boers Surrendering In Basutoland. President Steyn Trying to Rally Transvaal Troops—Reported Flooding of Mines Untrue.

LONDON, March 21.—While there is a lull in the military operations, the political surroundings of the war show interesting developments

It is becoming regarded as quite a settled matter that should the war be ended, as is now hoped, before June the government will dissolve parliament and appeal to the country on the basis of a successful South African policy. Should the war drag on dissolution will be postponed until next spring. In any event one of the foremost planks of the government platform will be army reorganization.

The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, March 20:

"Kitchener occupied Prieska unopposed. The rebels surrendered their arms. The Transvaalers escaped across the river.

"Mr. Steyn is circulating a notice by means of dispatch riders in reply to my proclamation to the effect that any burgher who signs a declaration that he will not fight against us again will be treated as a traitor and shot.

"The Bloemfontein people are affording us every assistance in the matter of hospital accommodations. We have consequently been able to arrange for 500 beds.

"Thirty-three prisoners were taken at Prieska, 200 stands of arms and some supplies and explosives.

"The Boers have begun to surrender on the Basutoland border."

A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Donkerspoort, dated March 19, says:

"A reconnoissance toward Philippolis, 25 miles west of Springfontein, found the farms all flying white flags. The British troops were cordially received.

"It is reported that Mr. Steyn is trying to rally the Boers, but the latter say they have had enough."

A correspondent of The Daily News at Bloemfontein, telegraphing Monday, March 19, says:

"I learn from Johannesburg that it is not true that the mines have been flooded or otherwise damaged beyond the fact that the machinery is suffering from disuse. My informant declares that the whole story was fabricated to court sympathy."

Mr. Winston Churchill, in a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, warmly resists the contention that the relief of Ladysmith rose out of Lord Roberts' operations.

"On the contrary," he says, "the operations of Lord Roberts were assisted by the fact that General Buller kept 10,000 Boers occupied. It would be a cruel and unworthy thing to deprive the Natal army of their hard won laurels, and none would more vigorously repudiate such a suggestion than Lord Roberts himself."

Admiral Dewey Ill.

SAVANNAH, March 21.—The programme for the entertainment of Admiral and Mrs. Dewey was broken last evening by the illness of the admiral. A public reception had been arranged for the hours between 9 and 11, and 5,000 persons gathered at the De Soto hotel to greet the distinguished visitors. But the admiral was too ill to appear, and the function was abandoned. The admiral suffered an attack of indigestion on board the revenue cutter Hamilton while the party was on a trip down the river and harbor. Surgeon General Wyman of the marine hospital service and Dr. St. J. B. Graham, who were aboard the cutter, attended the admiral, but his indisposition was so severe that it was deemed best to bring him back to this city on the steam yacht Baracouta, belonging to Mr. Edward Kelly of New York, which was accompanying the revenue cutter.

A Greek Invasion.

BALTIMORE, March 21.—The first Greek warship to visit an American port will be seen here shortly, when the Piraeus, a second class cruiser of that classic little nation, with a number of Grecian naval officials aboard, steams into port on a friendly visit. The object of the visit is to afford the officials a chance to visit the shipyards at Sparrows point and the Columbian Iron works. They will also visit the New York, Newport News and Philadelphia shipyards, where American warships are built. A number of Greeks reside in this city and will tender a reception to the ship.

Dogs Probably Poisoned.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The report that two valuable dogs entered at the bulldog show at Madison Square Garden had been poisoned aroused considerable indignation among the members of the Bulldog Club of America. The two dogs found dead were Delaware and Highland Mary, the property of E. K. Austin. Both dogs were discovered when the attendants opened the show yesterday morning.

Bank Clerk Absconds.

EASTON, Pa., March 21.—Thomas J. Stewart, aged 18 years, employed as clerk and messenger at the First National bank in this city, has disappeared with $1,700 of the bank's money. Arthur Clemens, another boy, 16 years old, accompanied Stewart.

Arrested For Old Theft.

SUFFERN, N. Y., March 21.—A stranger who was canvassing this place was recognized by Frank Becker as the man who stole his pocketbook two years ago. He was arrested and then admitted his act. He refused to give his name and was taken to New City.

Sultan Yields to Russia.

LONDON, March 21.—The Constantinople correspondent of The Times announces that the sultan has yielded "in all essential particulars" to the Russian demands respecting railway concessions in Asia Minor.

Two Boys Drowned.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 21.—Arthur Lloyd and George Bertrand, each aged about 10, were drowned in the mill pond at East Hampton yesterday. The boys had been playing on the ice.

Admiral Fairfax Dead.

NAPLES, March 21.—Admiral Sir Henry Fairfax, British commander in chief at Plymouth, died here yesterday.

LEWIS BILL IN DANGER.

The Measure to Repeal the Horton Boxing Law a Party Measure.

ALBANY, March 21.—It looks as though the Lewis bill repealing the Horton act allowing boxing and sparring was defeated. A caucus of Republican senators in session just after the close of the day's business by a vote of 25 decided to make a party measure of the bill, but a least one more vote is needed to pass it.

Senator Coggeshall bolted the caucus and will not abide by its decision, although he is said to have voted on the first proposition to make it a party measure. Senator Willis did not vote and it is alleged is against the repeal unless there is an amendment.

This leaves but 25 Republicans for the bill. It is possible they may get one or two Democratic votes, but this feature is jeopardized by the fact that the making of a party measure of the bill drives the Democrats away from it.

On a preliminary vote to make the bill a party measure five Republicans voted against such a course. They were Senators Marshall and Davis of Kings, Coggeshall of Oneida, Wilcox of Cayuga and White of Onondaga.

Senator Coggeshall moved to amend the bill to postpone its operation from September of this year to January of next year on the ground that by the latter time the valuable leases of the buildings used for sparring and boxing would have expired and there would not be an injustice done.

Senator Coggeshall then left the caucus, saying that he would not abide by its decision unless they intended to be fair to the lessees of the clubhouses.

There were now only 25 people in the caucus, Senator Willis being absent. He was sent for, however, and then the final vote was taken. Senator Willis did not vote no and did not leave the caucus, so the bill was declared a party measure by a vote of 25.

Senator Willis last year on another matter staid in a caucus, did not vote and then refused to abide by the decision, and it is said he will do so again.

Governor Roosevelt and Mr. Lewis both profess to believe that the bill will go through and that if necessary some Democratic votes can be obtained.

A POLITICAL ROW.

Investigation of Alleged Fraudulent Registration Causes Trouble.

KANSAS CITY, March 21.—A dozen shots were exchanged and a lively sprinting match was indulged in in the North End yesterday afternoon when three Republican canvassers attempted to investigate alleged fraudulent registration from the rooming house above Election Judge John Pryor's saloon at 558 Walnut street.

In the primaries last week Pryor acted as one of the judges in the Second ward in the Tenderloin district. Claims of fraudulent registration had been made, and for two days canvassers have been investigating the charges. Yesterday Joe Morris, Edwin A. Scroggins and W. W. Noland, Republican canvassers, with two newspaper reporters, entered Pryor's place to verify the registration of 22 men designated as living in the rooming house kept by Pryor.

Pryor refused to aid the canvassers and instead drew a revolver and started for Scroggins, who had taken the judge to task at the primaries because of alleged irregularities. Scroggins, followed by Noland, dashed into the street, while Canvasser Norris covered Phil McCrory, Pryor's partner, who had grabbed a gun and started to mix in.

While Morris kept McCrory quiet inside the saloon, behind the bar of which a dozen loungers sought cover, Pryor, Scroggins and Noland emptied their revolvers without effect at each other in the street. Their ammunition spent, Scroggins and Noland started for the police station, and Pryor returned to the saloon, pushing the reporters into the street and threatening to shoot.

Two Kentuckians Killed.

PINEVILLE, Ky., March 21.—On Marrowbone creek, 20 miles from here, John Langley and Moses Sopher had an altercation, in which Langley and Sopher were both killed and a man named Johnson was seriously wounded. The altercation was over Langley arresting Sopher about two years ago, while constable, on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. Sopher was acquitted and claimed Langley had no authority to arrest him. Johnson claimed he was trying to separate Sopher and Langley when he was shot.

A Speedy Settlement Demanded.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 21.—Governor General Davis is in constant receipt of telegrams from the various towns of the island begging him to use his influence with the United States congress for a speedy settlement of the questions now in controversy. Demonstrations occurred at many points on Monday similar to the large gathering headed by the San Juan Chamber of Commerce, which presented the petition to the governor general for a redress of grievances.

Called on the President.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Messrs. Barnett and Sapp, federal officials at Louisville, and K. J. Hampton of Kentucky were among the president's callers yesterday. They told the chief executive that their visit was entirely a social one and that they were not the bearers of any appeal from Governor Taylor for aid in the gubernatorial contest. They remained but a few minutes.

Get Rich Quick Man Confesses.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Richard Oliver, a broker, pleaded guilty in the United States district court to the charge of having used the mails to defraud country people by means of a so called "get rich quick" scheme. Judge Kohlsaat imposed a fine of $1,000 and ordered the defendant to refund money amounting to nearly $5,000 which he had received from his victims.

Employment For Porto Ricans.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Root has authorized General Davis, at San Juan, to give employment upon public works to surplus labor in Porto Rico. The war department had prepared an order to carry out this plan, but it was learned that Secretary Root had telegraphed the instruction to General Davis from Havana.

Serious Fire In Red Lodge, Mon.

RED LODGE, Mon., March 21.—Fire yesterday destroyed two large blocks in the center of the town, entailing a loss of $150,000. John Davis, a farmer from Roberts, was caught by a falling stair and burned to death.

BRIDGE WORK

In Dentistry is the best substitute for nature's work that can be done. Sound roots may be built up and crowned and thus fill up an unsightly space. It has to be made of a material that has strength and durability and one that will not discolor. Gold is the one that stands the test That is the secret of the expense. But the advantages of a bridge over a plate are many times more than the cost of one compared to that of the other.

OH, MAMMA DEAR!

did you hear that Woolston & Buckle has the finest wall paper in town. With Kaleidoscopic change on lovely backgrounds?
Daisies blossom on paper of azure blue,
Roses bud and bloom on an ashen hue,
Lillies of the valley are scattered on green
And flowers of all tints are everywhere seen
On colors exquisitely blended with care
To reproduce fruits, and flowers as fair
As if laid on by Natures own hand,
Unique designs both opaque and round,
And Japanese figures on gilded ground
And fantistic Beardsley lines are found
In a bewildering array.
Transform your bare and hideous walls
Into dreams of beauty as profuse
As covered Granada's famous halls,
From any design your fancy may choose,
The walls of the cottage are covered with ease,
It's not our custom, but the wealthy to please.
We have beautiful papers at a low price.
Although not so gorgeous, are artistic and nice.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

ACTIVITY OF LAWMAKERS.

Some Curious Statutes Have Been Passed by the Legislatures of Various States.

A Georgia statute makes it unlawful for anyone to fire a gun or a pistol on Sunday in the Cracker state. A statute of Colorado makes it unlawful to dock a horse's tail. A Florida statute makes the manufacture and sale of cigarettes a misdemeanor unless they are filled with Cuban or Florida tobacco. A Massachusetts law makes it a misdemeanor for the period of three years following the adoption of the statute to shoot an eagle in that state and Michigan has adopted a system for the state regulation of barber shops by creating a board of barbers and making obligatory an official certificate for barbers. The state of Pennsylvania has a statute regulating the use of secondhand bottles, Missouri has a statute for the inspection of malt liquors, Oregon has a law as to the composition of and the ingredients that may be used in candy and Illinois has a law as to gold and silver plating, prescribing what may be done and what is prohibited in respect to the sale and display of plated ware in that state.

These are but a few of the statutes adopted by state legislatures within the period of a year and are a fair sample of the solicitude which is at times shown by legislators in various states in their effort to protect public health, morals and good order, provide against the guile of unrighteous persons and secure to the people of their respective states the full enjoyment of their "life, liberty and pursuit of happiness." The last Winsconsin legislature adopted a statute regulating lobbying. A public register is to be kept containing the names of all lobbyists, the various bills to oppose or promote which they are employed and the names of the individuals or corporations by whom they are employed. Within 30 days after the adjournment of the legislature persons or corporations employing lobbyists must make a detailed statement of expenditures to the secretary of state at Madison.

North Carolina has a law relating to the lease of turpentine orchards which provides that leases shall expire in January instead of April, as was formerly the case. California has a statute regulating the sale of what is called officially renovated butter and the state of Washington has a law which requires the capacity of milk cans to be stamped upon the outside of each by the town auditor. Missouri, now the great poultry state, has a state poultry association, and Indiana has a statute making it larceny to steal a dog listed for taxes. Vermont has a new bounty law providing for the payment of five dollars for each lynx, one dollar for each rattlesnake and 60 cents for each fox killed in the state. Missouri has adopted a law requiring miners to have certificates of competence, Washington has provided for the establishment of boards of examiners of horseshoers in cities of more than 20,000 inhabitants and Delaware has adopted a statute of somewhat prosaic character which requires gypsies to pay a license fee in that state.

Indiana has adopted a law to prevent lynching. The penalty for actively aiding or abetting is fixed at life imprisonment or death. If any person is taken from the custody of an officer and lynched the fact is made prima facie evidence of a failure on the part of the officer to perform his duty and it thereupon becomes the duty of the prosecuting attorney and the attorney general to institute impeachment proceedings against him. Minnesota has a law which makes the building of a fence more than six feet high a nuisance if objected to and the same state has adopted statutes exempting watches and bicycles from execution. Tennessee has adopted a statute which makes it a felony "to keep a place for playing craps" and Wyoming a statute prescribing a fine for wearing a hat at a theater or other indoor amusement. Wyoming is the pioneer state in the adoption of woman suffrage.—N. Y. Sun.

PORTO RICO TARIFF BILL IN SENATE.

Morgan of Alabama Says Islanders Are United States Citizens—Conferees on Appropriation Bill Reach an Agreement.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house yesterday entered upon the consideration of the Loud bill to restrict the character of publications entitled to a cent per pound rates as second class mail matter. The bill has been before congress for several years. Mr. Loud defended the bill in a lengthy speech.

Before the bill was taken up Mr. Sulzer of New York delivered a denunciation of the administration in connection with his resolution of inquiry calling upon the war department for information as as to what fortifications Great Britain was erecting on the Canadian border. The committee on military affairs submitted a reply by Adjutant General Corbin saying such information was secret, but that Great Britain was erecting no works which threatened our rights. The committee recommended that the resolution lie upon the table. The house sustained the committee's recommendation by a vote of 110 to 97.

Discussion of the Porto Rico government and tariff bill was resumed in the senate, Mr. Morgan of Alabama presenting a speech dealing with some of the constitutional phases of the measure. He maintained that as the treaty of Paris was the supreme law of the land it was impossible for the United States to abandon either Porto Rico or the Philippines. He held also that the constitution extended to a certain extent at least over the acquired territory and that the inhabitants of Porto Rico were citizens of the United States.

The conferees on the Porto Rican appropriation bill have agreed upon a compromise measure. The senate conferees receded from the senate amendment limiting the appropriation to the revenues collected on Porto Rican importations until the 1st of last January and restored the clause in the house bill applying to future revenues reading as follows:

"Together with any further customs revenues collected on importations from Porto Rico since Jan. 1, 1900, or that shall hereafter be collected under existing law."

The provision in the senate amendment specifying the purpose for which the money shall be used is retained, but an addition is made declaring specifically that it shall be for the "aid and relief" of the Porto Ricans.

The bill as agreed upon reads as follows:

"That the sum of $2,095,455, being the amount of customs revenue received on importations by the United States from Porto Rico since the evacuation of Porto Rico by the Spanish forces on the 18th day of October, 1898, to the 1st of January, 1900, together with any further customs revenue collected on importations from Porto Rico since the 1st of January, 1900, or that shall hereafter be collected under existing law, shall be placed at the disposal of the president to be used for the government now existing and which may hereafter be established in Porto Rico and for the aid and relief of the people thereof and for public education, public works and other governmental and public purposes therein until otherwise provided by law, and the revenues herein referred to already collected and to be collected under existing law are hereby appropriated for the purposes herein specified out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated."

Champions Off For the South.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The players of the Brooklyn baseball team started for Augusta, Ga., yesterday. Those who have been wintering hereabouts left Jersey City in the afternoon, and they will be joined by the other players en route. The teams will remain south until the second week in April, when the players will come home, and with pleasant weather from April 14 to 19 several exhibition games will be played at Washington park prior to the regular opening of the championship season.

Osman Pasha Reported Dead.

MOSCOW, March 21.—A dispatch from Constantinople says that Ghazi Osman Pasha is dead. When the sultan learned of the death of the famous general, he exclaimed: "Allah is unmerciful! He has deprived me of my honest, true friend and most valiant supporter!" All the members of the diplomatic corps handed in their cards at the residence of the late general.

Railroad Sold.

MOBILE, March 21.—President Russell announces that the Mobile and Ohio Railroad company has purchased the controlling stock of the St. Louis and Cairo road, thus giving the former company ownership of a line from St. Louis to the gulf. The purchase has been made necessary by the rapid increase of trade via this port with Cuba and Central America.

Chief Joseph Starts For Washington

SPOKANE, Wash., March 21.—Chief Joseph, head of the Nez Perces, and staff passed through here from Lapwai, Ida., for Washington, to have a personal interview with President McKinley. Joseph wants the tribesmen to hold land in severalty and also wants the tribe removed to the old stamping ground at the foot of the Blue mountains, near Umatilla, Or.

IMPRESSIONS OF CUBA

Secretary Root Feels Repaid For His Visit.

ISLAND CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE.

Not Prepared to State Just When Complete Independence Will Be Granted—A Settled Policy Will Bring Prosperity.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Root has given to President McKinley the results of his observations of affairs in Cuba during his recent trip to the island. Subsequently the secretary consented to talk for publication as to existing conditions in the island and the possibilities of the people in the direction of self government.

During Mr. Root's trip he visited the provinces of Havana, Matanzas and Pinar del Rio and made it a point to note carefully the condition of the people and their industries and to discuss with individuals as well as officials in all the places at which he stopped questions affecting their interests. His inquiries and observations covered a large branch of subjects and gave him a fund of information which will be of value to the president and to the war department in its future dealings with the Cubans. On the whole the secretary feels that he is well repaid for the time required to make the trip, for he now has a personal knowledge of many things which heretofore he had heard of only through the channel of reports of the military authorities stationed in the island. On the whole, the secretary expresses himself as satisfied with what he saw. The people appear to be getting along very well, and peace prevails throughout the country.

Naturally the question of the ultimate independence of the island came up for discussion during the secretary's visit to Cuba, but he was not prepared to say just when the United States government would be willing that this should be a reality. Incidentally to this matter, which is uppermost in the Cuban mind, are the formative steps that will bring it about. The first of these—viz, the holding of the municipal elections at an early date—was a subject that Secretary Root discussed freely, particularly with the United States officials on the island, and the arrangements for carrying into effect this first step toward independent government were matters into which Mr. Root looked very carefully. "These elections," said the secretary, "will be the Cubans' first effort toward popular government. Unaccustomed as they are to these things, they are as the babe unborn and have everything to learn. The whole plan for making effective the scheme of municipal suffrage has to be very carefully worked out and the people instructed in all the details. This involves a vast amount of labor and takes considerable time, but ultimately it will be worked out and the elections take place. I hardly believe, however, that the authorities will be quite ready for holding the elections by the 1st of May."

Mr. Root during his visit often talked with the leaders of what has been known as the revolutionary element of the population and those who are opposed to annexation to the United States, and he says they are not impatient over what are regarded as necessary and reasonable delays in the formation of a well established government, realizing that these are a necessity. When a stable and settled policy of rule has been established, the secretary believes the island will have a season of prosperity and that outside capital as well as much now there remaining uninvested because of the uncertainty that exists will find its way into the channels of trade.

Palisades Bill Passed.

TRENTON, March 21.—The bill for the preservation of the Palisades on the Hudson passed the assembly yesterday without debate after a brief explanation of the provisions by Mr. Wakelee. The bill has been much amended since its introduction several weeks ago. As it reads, the commissioners to be appointed will have power to condemn the face of the Palisades and also a strip 150 feet wide at their base parallel with the river line. For park purposes they are authorized to purchase, but not to condemn, sites on top of the Palisades. It is doubtful if the appropriations committee will allow them an appropriation for that purpose this year.

Damages In a Slander Case.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Mrs. Clara I. Merrill of Roanoke, Va., has been awarded a verdict of $4,500 damages against C. H. Marshall, former president of the Travelers' Preferred Accident association, for alleged slander. Mrs. Merrill is the wife of G. W. Merrill, at one time a prominent railway official of Chicago. She held a policy in the accident association and sought to recover for an injury she claimed to have sustained. Marshall is alleged to have charged her with conspiring with her husband to defraud the association.

Rear Admiral Remey Relieved.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 21.—Rear Admiral George R. Remey was relieved of the command of the Portsmouth navy yard yesterday, and he proceeded to Washington to receive instructions in regard to taking command of the American fleet in the Philippines. The yard was turned over to the command of Rear Admiral Bartlett J. Cromwell, formerly president of the retiring board at Washington.

Noted Surgeon Paralyzed.

RICHMOND, March 21.—Dr. Hunter McGuire, the noted surgeon, who was paralyzed, is in an extremely critical condition. He is conscious, but cannot speak. His whole right side is affected. The paralysis was the result of an embolism of the brain. Dr. McGuire has been in ill health for two years.

Rockefeller's Offer to Wellesley.

WELLESLEY, Mass., March 21.—John D. Rockefeller has made a provisional gift of $100,000 to Wellesley college as a permanent endowment fund. Mr. Rockefeller has promised the money upon condition that the alumnæ of the college raise $96,000, the amount of the institution's indebtedness.

Bubonic Plague In India.

CALCUTTA, March 21.—The bubonic plague is fast increasing. In Bengal 4,725 deaths occurred last week. These included 744 in Calcutta and 2,044 in Patna. The viceroy, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, visited the Medical college, which is in one of the infected districts of Calcutta.

THE BEST THEY KNOW.

YOU remember the old lady who rode for the first time on a railway train. There was a frightful collision, but when the rescuers reached her she was quite calm. She said she supposed they always stopped that way. The story well illustrates why so many women are satisfied to live without Ivory Soap. They have never tried it! Naturally enough, they think that annoying odors, sharp chemicals, and wasteful greasiness are common to all soaps.

THE KENTUCKY SENSATION.

Sergeant Golden Said to Have Named Goebel's Slayer.

LOUISVILLE, March 21.—The stories growing out of the conference between Sergeant F. Wharton Golden of the Barboursville company of state militia and the attorneys who are managing the investigation of the assassination of Governor Goebel have caused a sensation throughout the state. Golden will be placed on the stand by the prosecution in the trial of persons already arrested for alleged complicity in the assassination, but information as to the exact nature of the testimony he is expected to give is lacking. Attorneys Campbell and Polsgrove naturally decline to discuss the matter, and Golden himself will say nothing.

Specials from Winchester say Golden is still at that place in company with his attorney. The two spend most of the time about the hotel. They see all callers, however, and talk freely on all subjects except that of Golden's reported confession.

"I will do all I can for my friends all the time," Golden is reported as saying, "but I must first be true to myself. When the time comes, I will tell all I know. Whatever else may be said about me, I do not think I can be accused of being a liar, a coward or a Democrat, and I want it distinctly understood that I am not here under guard."

The story is published that Golden divulged to the attorneys the name of the man who fired the shots that killed Goebel. The person mentioned is a mulatto who formerly lived at Winchester, was prominent in the French-Eversole feud and is known as a dead shot. This man is now supposed to be in the wilds of one of the mountain counties. Evidence that he was in Frankfort at the time of the assassination was found among papers taken from W. H. Golden, a clerk in the auditor's office, when the latter was arrested a week or so ago on a warrant charging him with being an accessory to the murder. Among these papers were receipts for board bills amounting to about $300 incurred by 18 men who were in Frankfort for some time before and at the time Governor Goebel was shot. In one of these receipts the name of the mulatto mentioned is given. The receipt in this case is for money received from John Perkins by Bettina Pittman for the board of three men. Perkins is a porter about the statehouse.

THE INDIA BUDGET.

Financial Statement Shows Heavy Famine Expenditures.

LONDON, March 21.—The India office has issued its annual financial statement. This shows a surplus for 1899-1900 of £2,553,000 and an estimated surplus for 1900-1 of £160,000.

The famine expenditure for 1899-1900 worked out at £2,055,000. It is estimated that the famine expenditure for 1900-1 will be £3,335,000.

Except for the famine expenditure the budget is regarded as healthy. The gold standard has been successfully introduced, and all demands have been met without borrowing. The surplus of £160,000 is, however, only a paper surplus, for a temporary loan of £500,000 is to be incurred in England, and it is estimated that a temporary loan of three crores of rupees will be necessary for ways an means.

Christians In Danger In China.

LONDON, March 21.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Times says: "The North China Daily Times publishes a dispatch from a correspondent in the province of Shantung, who says that while the Chinese government has not taken active measures to suppress the antiforeign movement Governor Yuan has warned the missionaries that the local authorities cannot be held responsible for the safety of those traveling unescorted into the interior. The position of the native Christians is deplorable, and if the antiforeign movement continues ignored and unchecked serious consequences are inevitable."

May Not Adjourn March 31.

ALBANY, March 21.—The refusal of the senate Republican caucus to adopt the resolution of the assembly calling for adjournment on the 31st of March is looked upon as conclusive evidence that the legislature will not adjourn before April 6 and possibly not before April 12. If the resolution had been adopted, the committee on rules of the house would have taken charge of business. Yesterday was the last day for committees of the assembly to meet unless extra time is given them by the assembly.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

British Ship Wrecked.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—Word has been received in this city that the British ship City of Florence, bound from Iquique for San Francisco with a cargo of nitre, is ashore at Half Moon bay within 200 yards of the scene of the wreck of the ship New York, which went ashore near Half Moon bay two years ago. The vessel is a total wreck and is breaking up fast. The Alert picked up the entire crew about 30 miles from the scene of the wreck and brought them to this city.

No Word From the Sealing Fleet.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 21.—The sealing fleet has not reported since it sailed ten days ago. The ice floes have been driven hundreds of miles seaward by offshore winds, and it is feared that this will increase the difficulty of securing large catches. Yesterday the governor, Lieutenant Colonel Henry Edward McCallum, laid the cornerstone of the new Reid Railway hotel in this city. The hotel is designed especially to meet the needs of tourist traffic.

Kite Experiments.

STAMFORD, Conn., March 21.—William C. Hoyt has begun for the United States weather bureau a series of experiments with kites, which will be continued throughout New England during the summer. The object of the experiments is to obtain temperatures at different altitudes in various parts of the country. Mr. Hoyt sent up several kites yesterday with thermometers attached. From here he will go to Mount Vernon and New Rochelle.

A Chance For Essayists.

ST. PAUL, March 21.—The National Educational association, through the national council of education, has offered $1,200 in prizes for the best essays on seating, lighting, heating and ventilating public school buildings—$200 as a first prize and $100 as a second prize are for essays on each of the four subjects named. Competition is open to the world.

The proposition of establishing a State Normal School in Newark, which has taken form in a measure introduced in the Legislature providing for an appropriation of $300,000 for the purpose, is a popular one in the upper part of the State. Assemblyman Benny, who introduced the bill, argues that Newark is the most desirable location for such an institution. It would be better, he says, for the State to build a new school at Newark, the centre of population, than to expend $50,000, as is proposed, for a new wing to the institution in Trenton. Normal schools are attended almost exclusively by students whose financial means are moderate and limited, and under the present condition of affairs, with the only institution of that kind located at Trenton, there are undoubtedly many worthy young people in the northern section of the State barred from attending the Trenton school on account of the expense attached to being located during the school periods so far from their homes. There is a population of 1,000,000 people that would be better served by having a Normal School in Newark than in the central or lower part of the State.

The position of Senator Sewell towards Porto Rico and the imposition of a tariff on the products of that island received in this country, was explained yesterday by Senator Sewell as follows: "I favor a small tariff on Porto Rican products. I would prefer 25 per cent. to 15. In any event, there should be a duty for the interests and welfare of our own industrial class are as important for us to consider, if not even more important, than those of the inhabitants of Porto Rico. We must legislate so as to protect the labor engaged in tobacco, sugar and other industries among our own citizens." Whatever reasons Senator Sewell may draw upon to justify his attitude in respect to Porto Rico, we believe that there is but a very small portion of the people of this State who share his views. The general sentiment of New Jersey is unquestionably opposed to the present policy of the administration in dealing with the unfortunate and helpless Porto Ricans.

New Jersey political and official circles are showing indications of great religious ferver. Just before the spring election the Republicans of Piscataway opened their primary with prayer, and now we read that at Bradley Beach when the new Borough Council was organized one of the members asked that the meeting be commenced with prayer. According to a veracious chronicler who attended the meeting "Mayor Rogers admitted that this was somewhat unusual, but said he would do the best he could under the circumstances. He arose from his chair, and while all heads were reverently bowed he invoked divine blessing upon the Council and the people of Bradley Beach, praying especially for harmony, financial and spiritual prosperity. Then the business started." If the appeals for divine guidance are continued, it may yet be possible to accomplish great reforms in New Jersey.

President McKinley, addressing 20,000 Methodists at Ocean Grove at an early stage of his imperial policy, August, 1893, held forth to the brethern as follows: "Our flag does not mean one thing here and another think in Cuba and Puerto Rico." The Pittsburg Despatch remarks that "unfortunately this is precisely what it does mean. In the United States it means no taxation without representation, but all things free and equal under the Constitution. In Puerto Rico it means taxation without representation and the Constitution in patches at the discretion of Congress or some Brigadier-General under McKinley's orders. To the Puerto Ricans the flag is only a bit of muslin, very much soiled by pledges made in its name."

The Trenton correspondent of the Elizabeth Journal says that Assemblyman Foote is greatly pleased with the success of his bill giving juries the right to say whether those they convict of murder shall be hanged or imprisoned for life. And so are thousands of other Jerseymen who are rightly opposed to capital punishment.

Governor Voorhees has given notice that he proposes to carry out his last year's rule that he will sign no bill that is not in his hands before the adjournment of the Legislature. Ordinarily, this rule is an excellent one and tends to stem mischievious legislation in the last days of the session.

A Kansas man recently went stark mad because his wife bleached her hair, and the newspapers devoted big stories to the item. And yet we know a lot of fellows who have gone crazy over blondes heretofore and their names didn't get in the papers.

Now that the Governor has signed the bill authorizing Plainfield to establish a City Hall, there should be no unnecessary delay about consummating the idea which prompted the introduction of the measure.

The first Congressional convention to be called in New Jersey is that of the Republicans in the First district, and the date is April 18th. Congressman Loudenslager will be renominated for a third term.

If it is a disgrace to die wealthy we know of a number of persons who will be perfectly willing to try and clear themselves of the charge.

The familiar cry of "What's the score" will soon be heard in the land.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest to Plainfield.

Four of the available Republican candidates for Governor live in North Jersey, viz.: Murphy, Pitney, Johnson and Reed, the chances being in the order given.—New York Press.

* * * * * * *

Mr. Foote, member of the Assembly from Plainfield, Union county, had the honor of having introduced the bill, recently passed by the House, which gives juries the right to either hang the criminals they convict of murder, or send them to prison for life. Whether this bill will pass the Senate or not remains to be seen. It is already urged that it is a bill abolishing capital punishment, but it is not. At the present time the law insists that a man found guilty of murder shall be hanged. This bill permits jurors to take cognizance of all the conditions and to decide whether the criminal deserves hanging or not. Surely a jury competent to conscientiously find whether a man is guilty or not guilty is competent to say whether he should be strangled to death or imprisoned for life. As far as it goes it is a good bill. It is in operation in other States and works well.—Elizabeth Journal.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 21.—The juniors of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church are soon to give an entertainment under the direction of A. A. Lake and Mrs. A. I. Martine.

The annual school meeting held last night at the Lincoln building resulted in the election of the following members of the Board of Education to serve three years: Wilson S. Fredericks, Frederick T. Dickerson and Lewis T. Titsworth, the latter being pitted against Adam Herlick. Mr. Fredericks was re elected The others succeed J. N Apgar and Fowler Vail, whose terms expire. The appropriation of $1 000 for improving the heating apparatus of the Whittier School and the usual appropriation for current expenses of the schools were carried.

David Cavalier has left the employ of the Pond Tool Works and has secured a job in Elizabeth.

John P. Crosier, night telegraph operater at the depot, was stricken with the grip yesterday.

The frame work for the new building east of Postmaster Dealaman's store has been erected.

Edson Warner, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, is not expected to live.

The Methodists are trying to devise means to raise funds to paint the church building.

There are letters advertised at the postoffice for Mrs. Julia Dolan and T. S. Temflaman.

Miss Loretta Clawson has returned from a visit with relatives in Plainfield.

The Choral Union will give a concert at Apgar Hall tomorrow evening.

The Common Council met for organization Monday night.

Robert Craig is laid up with the grip.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 21—The Borough Council, of Fanwood, met and organized Monday evening in their rooms. The organization was rather spicy, the Council refusing to confirm one of the appointments sent in by Mayor Kyte Wm. E. Collins has been Borough Clerk for several years and has been satisfactory to all until about two weeks ago when he clashed with some of the members of the Council over the issuing of the annual borough report. The report was signed by "August Scheelen, Collector," whereas, Charles Scheelen is the Collector. Those opposed to the adopting of the report for this reason claimed also that the report was not an itemized one as required by law. Mr Collins, the Clerk, made a vigorous fight against adopting the report as rendered. This is supposed to be the reason why some of the members refused to second the motion to confirm the Mayor's re-appointment. Councilman Ellis gave as his reasons that Mr. Collin's had refused the Council's instructions in the past. This left the matter a deadlock, with Mr. Collins having the best side of the argument, as the law says that the Borough Clerk is to hold over until his successor is elected. All other appointments sent in by Mayor Kyte were confirmed.

The annual school meeting was held in the assembly room of the school building last evening. George H. Nichol was made chrirman of the meeting and T. J. Nichol, District Clerk, filled the position of secretary. The Board's report showed the total enrollment of scholars to be 2,264. Number of books in the library 689. The Board earnestly requested the parents to have their children attend school more regularly as the absent ones not only injured their own chances of advancement by their absence, but interfered with the standing of the whole class. The members whose terms expired and who were re-elected were F. W. Westcott, T. J. Nichol, D. L. Darby, all for three years, and I G. Walker to fill an unexpired term of one year.

Ernest Marsh, who has been seriously ill at his home for several weeks suffering from pneumonia, was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday afternoon to undergo an operation for the removal of foreign growth upon his lungs.

Miss Sadie Reger, entertained the Tuesday Evening Euchre Club at her home last evening. Cards and social chat followed by refreshments passed away a very pleasant evening to all.

The revival meetings being held in the Baptist church each evening this week, under the direction of Rev. W. E. Needham and Rev. Mr. Shott, the pastor, are being well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frentz, of New York, have been visiting at the homes of relatives and friends in town.

The Pedagogical Club of the public school held an interesting reading in the church parlors yesterday afternoon.

Rev. H. W. McKane will deliver his lecture entitled "The Three Wars," in Excelsior Hall this evening.

Arthur Chapin, of Pompton, has been spending a few days in town as the guest of Roy Day.

WATCHUNG AVENUE.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Amos Moffett, the well-known constable, wears upon his left breast a silver shield that he has owned 34 years. The shield is of German silver and was made by Asa Collier, the Park avenue jeweler. It is the first shield or badge of authority ever worn by any constable in this city. "Uncle Amos," as he is familiarly called, is particularly proud of his shield. His many friends trust that he may live to wear the shield for half a century.

Among the guests at Plainfield homes Sunday was Henry Mullen, of Bernardsville, who came to visit his daughter at her home on Watchung avenue. Mr. Mullen has a wonderful reputation in the vicinity of Bernardsville as a strawberry grower. He has a large tract of land devoted to the cultivation of those berries and he raises a particular kind of berry that is to be found in no other part of the State. He has for the past ten years had a contract to supply Samuel S. Childs, the great New York restaurant man, with his entire crop. Other dealers have offered large prices but Mr. Childs still continues to use all the berries that Mullen can raise.

Plainfielders are so well acquainted with the general principles on which the elevated railroads of New York are run that it seems strange to them that any one should get mistaken ideas about them. The other day a Plainfielder was passing into an L road station. A well-dressed woman preceded him to the ticket seller's window. Laying a bill down on the counter, she remarked, "I want two tickets to Grant street." There was a little delay before the ticket seller could explain that the L road was run on the same plan as the surface roads and not like an ordinary railroad. These ticket sellers have some very queer experiences sometimes and are often asked many needless and foolish questions. One of these officials pointed out the other day how many people come to his window, lay down a nickel and delay a crowd by carefully telling him that it is only one ticket that they wish to purchase.

The current number of Collier's Weekly contains a short story by the well-known writer and illustrator, George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, this city, who is now the art director of the paper. The title of the story is "Tjaik Number Twenty-Seven." It is an odd, weird tale, which holds the reader's attention from the first line to the last. The atmosphere of Holland, which pervades so much of Mr. Edwards' work, is felt here, also, both in the experiences through which "my strange friend Stebbins," the supposed narrator of the story, passes, and in the illustration which Mr. Edwards has made for his tale. This shows a bright-eyed young Dutch girl, in the quaint costume of her country, sitting at a window in the cabin of a boat. Through the window one looks out upon the water. The picture is exquisitely drawn, and the solitary figure it contains is instinct with life. The same thorough knowledge of his subject, and carefulness of finish, show in both lines of Mr. Edwards' work.

One of the most remarkable men in Piscataway township is Abner S. Coriell, who is not only known in the township, but throughout this section of the State. Mr. Coriell was postmaster at New Market for twenty-one years and he has always held the highest respect of all who knew him. He is a man of integrity and is considered to be one of the reliable citizens. Mr. Coriell was born November 11th, 1820, and has always lived in Piscataway township. He has also enjoyed the best of health that has permitted him to vote at every election since his majority in 1842, when he voted at a spring election. He has voted at fifty-nine spring elections and at two elections to amend the Constitution. He voted at one election when a tie resulted and four times has he voted for raising bounty for soldiers. Fifty eight times he has voted at State elections, and fourteen Presidential elections, making in all 124 times that Mr. Coriell has gone to the polls to cast a ballot. He is today well preserved and is likely to live to vote at several more elections.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

On the Bridge.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The Somerset Court has granted Sisser a license for a saloon on the Somerset street bridge. They say he persisted in spite of many failures, and that our officials and property owners became tired and relaxed in vigilance, so much so, that the Court felt justified in granting it at last.

Oh! had we spent some of the efforts to widen Somerset street and used our united efforts against this unnecessary evil it might have been different. Our city saloons are compelled to pay a license of $700 and close at 11 p. m., while Somerset courts have the power to grant a saloon license in our beautiful borough, less than 100 feet away from our city saloons, for $200, and the only restrictions are reasonable hours and "Watch the Bridge at Midnight!" We are to be congratulated that at least one day it will be closed, Sunday, thanks to the courts.

Would it not be wise for the Borough Council to increase the police protection, or better still, why should not Somerset county be compelled to place at her expense police protection on the bridge at midnight?

You say it is not her place but that it is the borough's. Inasmuch as the county receives the amount of the license it seems but just that she should be responsible, for certainly should a citizen accidentally fall upon the bridge at midnight, due to what is commonly called a jag, and he could prove to the courts that it was the fault of the bridge, the county would be responsible for his injury. Will our citizens awaken? Let our Council began a movement to pass such laws in our Legislature granting boroughs the right to control the granting of license. Let our representative, the tall sycamore, Senator Reed, be requested to carry out the resolution while not opposed to license. I do not believe it right that one person should be compelled to pay three times the price of another for the same business. If we must have them, let them all pay alike. If such a resolution cannot be carried out giving our Borough Council control of granting license, then lets consolidate before we have any more on the bridges.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—President James T. Cooter, of Washington College, Tennessee, will speak this evening at the prayer meeting service at the Crescent avenue church. The Bible study class will follow.

—The owner of the all-night lunch wagon had a picnic recently, when the members of a well-known card club entered his car early in the morning and bought him out. They told the proprietor that they wanted to run the wagon for awhile and secured his permission to fasten the door. In the short time that the club remained inside they managed to get away with the proprietor's stock, much to his pleasure financially.

Arrested on Suspicion.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 22—A negro tramp applied to the Somerville jail the other night for lodging, and Deputy Anderson was ordered by Constable Totton to hold him, thinking that he might be the negro who threw Tommy Donahue from the train at Bound Brook last week, causing him to lose his leg. He will be taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, in order that Donahue may identify him.

First Display of SPRING MILLINERY AND SUITS

Wednesday, March 21st,
Thursday, March 22d,
Friday, March 23d,
Saturday, March 24th.

Arrayed in its best, bedecked with flowers, our Millinery Department opens like a gorgeous butterfly its wings, to display for your admiration the store of beautiful hats the skillful fingers of our milliners have created. We are two weeks behind the big cities, but there you benefit, for most carefully have we selected only that which was best from among them all. Paris, New York, London, each has sent us hints of rare beauty. The new Tuscan straw wonderfully worked into hats of most becoming beauty. The new pastel hats, charming combinations of the popular pastel shades and a hundred and one ideas that are new and novel. Best of all these hats are exclusive; Miss Kittie Daly, the head of this department, has taken only the hints from the best and on them she has built charming creations that can well be called exclusive.

We invite everybody interested in things exquisitely beautiful to visit us on the opening days. There are hats to suit all faces and prices to suit all purses, yet each design represents a full rich money's worth of dependable material and most skillfull labor.

THE OPENING DISPLAY OF
TAILOR-MADE SUITS, SKIRTS and SHIRT WAISTS

is ready and almost rivals the Millinery display. It excels all our previous efforts and we take pride in asserting that you will see more correct shapes, superior workmanship and unsurpassed style and fit than even we have ever been able to offer before. We make special suits to order and guarantee their fit. All alterations are made here by competent fitters so that you may be sure of satisfaction on that, score.

Commencing Monday evening, March 19, the store will be open every evening until 8 o'clock, and Saturday evenings until 10:30 o'clock.

Brake. Das Braker Schiff „Auguste," 1300 Registertonnen groß, von Freemantle, Australien, nach London unterwegs, ist bei der Insel Wight gestrandet und verloren gegangen. Das Schiff lief bei dem fürchterlichen Unwetter in kurzer Zeit voll Wasser; die aus 20 Mann bestehende Besatzung konnte glücklicher Weise gerettet werden.

Mecklenburg.

Hagenow. Hagenow gewährt jetzt seinen Lehrern ein Ruhegehalt. Anstoß zu dieser „Reform" gab das mit dem 1. Januar d. J. in Kraft getretene abgeänderte Invaliditäts- und Altersversicherungsgesetz, wonach alle Lehrer und Lehrerinnen, die nicht pensionsberechtigt sind, „kleben" müssen. Die Stadt bewilligte deshalb seinen bisher nicht pensionsberechtigten Lehrkräften schnell eine Pension von jährlich—116 Mark.

Braunschweig. Anhalt.

Braunschweig. Schneestürme verursachten große Verkehrsstörungen. Der Eisenbahnverkehr nach dem Harze mußte eingestellt werden, mehrere Züge blieben im Schnee stecken, darunter der Schnellzug von Magdeburg. In unserer Stadt war der elektrische Straßenbahnbetrieb theilweise eingestellt.

Dessau. Prinzessin Luise von Anhalt ist an Lungenentzündung gestorben. Die Entschlafene war 1873 zu Altenburg als Tochter des Prinzen Moritz von Sachsen-Altenburg geboren und vermählte sich 1895 mit dem Prinzen Eduard von Anhalt.

Roßlau. An Stelle unseres bisherigen Bürgermeisters Dr. Zimmer-Wallis, der einem Rufe der Stadt Oeynhausen gefolgt ist, ward der Regierungsassessor Dr. Hossenroth aus Halle zum Bürgermeister gewählt.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Die jüdischen Einwohner des Großherzogthums haben an die hessische zweite Kammer eine Petition gerichtet, welche Protest erhebt gegen die zur „Verwirrung sittlicher Begriffe" führende Praxis der hessischen Regierung, daß jüdische Bewerber, die sich zur Bekleidung der Stellung eines Richters oder Staatsanwalts melden, auch, wenn sie nach jeder Richtung hin einwandsfrei, stets unberücksichtigt bleiben, dagegen angestellt werden, sobald sie die Religion gewechselt.

Alzey. Ein alter Achtundvierziger, Peter Heimerle, ist hier gestorben. Heimerle trat im Jahre der Volkserhebung als 24jähriger junger Mann mit dem rheinischen Hauptkorps der Freischaaren nach Baden über und machte von Waghäusel an unter Willich den ganzen Feldzug mit.

Bretzenheim. Der Fuhrunternehmer Becker wurde wegen fahrlässiger Tödtung seines Knechtes verhaftet. Becker hatte im Streit dem Knecht einen Tritt gegen den Unterleib versetzt, in Folge dessen der Mißhandelte starb.

Mainz. Der städtische Finanzausschuß hat zu den Kosten für die Errichtung eines Gutenbergsmuseums 25,000 Mark bewilligt.

Worms. Aus Port Huron (Michigan) ist ein Erkundigungsbrief beim städtischen Archiv eingelaufen, der wegen „gewisser Vermögensverhältnisse" nach den Hinterbliebenen zweier Brüder, Adam und Ph. Fch. Steiner, forscht, die vor mehr als 100 Jahren nach Amerika auswanderten.

Bayern.

München. Die Abgeordnetenkammer nahm bei der Berathung der Berggesetznovelle einen Antrag an, der bestimmt: die Arbeitszeit unter Tage darf acht Stunden für den Tag in der Regel nicht übersteigen.—Der genehmigte Haushaltungsplan der öffentlichen Armenpflege der Stadt München für das Jahr 1900 schließt ab mit 1,473,860 Mark Ausgaben und 218,860 Mark Einnahmen. Das sich ergebende Defizit von 1,255,000 Mark ist durch Zuschuß der Gemeinde zu decken. — Der 33jährige Kaufmann Johann Beyer ist nach betrügerischem Bankerott in der Höhe von 60,000 Mark flüchtig geworden.

Augsburg. Der Magistrat hat einstimmig beschlossen, ein städtisches Arbeitsamt einzurichten.

Bayreuth. Der geheime Hofrath Bürgermeister Theodor Ritter v. Muncker ist gestorben. Muncker war 1829 geboren und seit 1851 im Gemeindedienst der Stadt Bayreuth als ganz hervorragender Verwaltungsbeamter thätig. Weiteren Kreisen des In- und Auslandes war Muncker als intimer Freund der Familie Richard Wagner bekannt.

Deggendorf. Zu Grabe getragen wurde jüngsthin der 77 Jahre alte langjährige städtische Waagmeister Sebastian Moosfer. Er war in unserer Stadt der letzte Veteran aus dem dänischen Feldzug von 1849. Als Artillerie-Trompeter machte er am 13. April 1849 die Erstürmung der Düppler Schanzen mit.

Kissingen. Der Lederhändler D. Kissinger hat mit Hinterlassung von 100,000 Mark Schulden das Weite gesucht. Ueber sein Vermögen wurde der Konkurs verhängt.

An American gentleman who spent the summer in Europe recently, asserted that Ripans Tabules must have an enormous sale. "Why," he said, "I ran across them everywhere over there." "But," said his interlocutor, "they are not advertised there at all now. I doubt if they are on sale. You must be talking through your hat when you say that you find them all over Europe." Thus warned, his companion became more circumspect, and this is what he said: "Well, in Vienna I met a gentleman who, speaking of the ills of traveling, especially of hasty eating and sometimes bad cooking, said: 'but I have a cure for that,' and he produced a vial of Ripans Tabules from his vest pocket, 'just like that,' said the man, helping one himself out of his own pocket. Then in Constantinople I met another American and had with him a somewhat similar experience. He had a vial of the Tabules in his pocket too. And there was a third case at some point, I don't remember just where now, but somewhere in northern Europe." "These men must have carried them over with them," said his friend, "for I am certain the goods are not on sale over there." "Well, I don't know how they got them," said the first speaker, "but they had them, and so did I, for that matter, and as I carried mine over with me, very likely they did theirs too."

WANTED:—A case of bad health that RIPANS will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word RIPANS on the package and accept no substitute. RIPANS, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Five grains have a cash value of one thousand testimonials. A vial will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

SUITS FOR SPRING.

The Nobbiest and Newest Have Jaunty Little Eton Jackets.

This week has been prolific in very novel waists, and she would be a difficult woman to please who could not find something to her taste.

The prettiest of these waists are made entirely of ribbon and lace. This combination gives opportunity for many beautiful effects. One design has the sleeves made of alternate rows of old rose pink ribbon with white valenciennes insertion. The rows go around the arm. A full frill of edging of the same width finishes the wrists. The waist has horizontal lines of the ribbon and insertion, with a crush belt of wide ribbon in the same shade and a handsome bow at the left side.

The collar is of white mull, with a narrow ruffle of lace to match. Down the center in front are two ruffles of lace, with one band of ribbon between them, and on this are four bows of the ribbon, with fishtail ends. This idea is carried out in several colors, the most striking of all being black velvet ribbon over white lace.

Another one of these ribbon waists had narrower ribbon and cluny lace. The sleeves were so arranged that the ribbon and lace took a spiral form. Any kind of ribbon is pretty, and especially so is the pompadour printed or woven designs. Light ribbon united with black lace is also very handsome. There is a satin faced ribbon with a strong linen back that is quite as pretty for these waists as the more expensive all silk ones. "Waists" of all kinds will have a vogue this season quite equal to last, only that they will, generally speaking, be more ornate than they were.

The new silk squares for waists have caught popular favor. They are like big handkerchiefs, four in a set, two for the front and back and two for the sleeves. Some have white centers with clan borderings; others look like a pack of cards spread out. Roman stripes form the design on others. Taken altogether, they resemble the old bandannas worn by the mammies down south. But they are certainly stylish when made up.

Odd and striking effects are obtained by the different manipulation and matching of the stripes or checks.

A PRETTY SPRING SUIT.

Some of these squares have a soft and narrow fringe all around, carrying the colors of the silk. Where the body of the square is in solid color and the border is in graduated stripes it is often made up so as to have a bolero effect.

There are some close all over patterns in a sort of Persian design and coloring, the borderings being satin stripes of one or more of the predominating colors. The dainty pastel shades are mingled with rose, dark red, porcelain blues and greens in the rather metallic shades called serpent.

The new tailor suits are now out in force in all the stores, and there is a surprising similarity of design, especially as regards the jacket. The skirts are made wide at the bottom, not so long, and all are fuller at the top. The double box plait divides popularity with the "bonne femme" skirts. These are plaited part of the way down, and the fullness is allowed to form a sort of flounce at the bottom. A very little cloth shows up well in this kind of skirt.

There are very many ways of making a skirt look rich and handsome with little labor. One of the new suits is of very wide wale cheviot in a rich dark blue. The front breadth is rounded up over an inset of white cloth, with many rows of black braid. Three rows of the braid extend around the whole skirt and up the slashed front, curled over at intervals.

The Eton jacket waist, which is the novelty of the season, is also slashed over the white and trimmed with the braid up the fronts to the shoulders. This special jacket is double breasted, but fastens invisibly.

The Eton jacket is the most stylish of the many fancies evolved in a long time. There is scarcely a limit to the variety of them, and yet they are always Etons. Some are straight across the lower part in the back, some are rounded, and others have the little point setting exactly like those worn by the boys in Eton college.

They are intended to be worn with a fancy underwaist and as outdoor jackets, to be supplemented by a fur victorine or other small neckwear when spring days are chilly or maybe with a small cape.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

WOMAN WITH A LONG PAST.

She Tells In Trance of Previous Existence in Mars and India.

The greatest interest is manifested at Paris in a book by M. Flournoy, professor in the faculty of sciences in Geneva university, giving the history of some remarkable observations. The case is the apparent reincarnation of a woman, aged 30, of irreproachable character, who is engaged in a commercial house, says the New York Sun. She is subject to fits of somnambulism in which she refers to three previous existences—on the planet Mars, in India and in France in the time of Marie Antoinette.

Flournoy, who at first suspected trickery, either spontaneous or instigated, abandoned the hypothesis when the woman, telling of her life on Mars, spoke in a presumably Martian language, using clearly articulated sounds and forming words corresponding with definite ideas. The same words always correspond to the same ideas. She also writes peculiar characters which do not vary.

As regards India, she speaks and writes Sanskrit and Arabic, showing a thorough knowledge of both. Flournoy verified by means of old historical manuscripts only accessible to students of history the truth of the principal episodes to which she referred. No stress is laid on the Marie Antoinette period, as the opportunities for trickery are too great. As regards the other two, Flournoy vouches for their accuracy.

The woman remembers nothing when she awakes. She never had an opportunity in this life at least of learning Arabic and Sanskrit. Flournoy offers no conclusion. He simply narrates the occurrences, but does not disguise his perplexity. Several savants are investigating.

WILL TAKE WAGNER TO SEA.

California Capitalist Has Engaged Special Orchestra For a Voyage.

Robert Elliott of San Francisco, capitalist and clubman, feels the need of a sea voyage. The noise of the marine engine is disquieting to his nerves, so he prefers to go in a sailing vessel. He has engaged quarters on the Shenandoah, one of the speediest clipper ships afloat, which is to sail for Australia in a few days.

Mr. Elliott is a devotee of Wagner. The cabin doors were too small to admit a piano, so it was lowered through the skylight. Four wind instrument musicians, who could also double on strings, were engaged and set to practicing Wagner's music. By the time the Shenandoah is ready to sail the orchestra will have a large repertory.

"My physician advised a long sea voyage," said Mr. Elliott the other day to a New York World reporter, "and I feel just sick enough to obey him. My wife will accompany me, and as we are both fond of music the idea of taking an orchestra with us suggested itself. Our voyage is expected to occupy five months, including our stay in Sydney. It is possible that we will never go ashore during the entire trip."

NEW GUNS FOR THE NAVY.

Six Pounders That Can Fire Seventy-five Shots a Minute.

The navy department at Washington has ordered fifty 6 pound guns for use on the new vessels of the navy. These guns are automatic and can fire 75 shells per minute, as demonstrated by tests made this week at Indian Head.

The highest record heretofore made with 6 pounder automatic guns is 42 to the minute. The tests of the new gun were regarded as so satisfactory that the secretary of the navy ordered the 50 guns, and it is the understanding that a larger supply will be on hand when the new batteries of the projected ships demand it.

Heretofore in the firing of shells from guns of this caliber it was necessary to pull the trigger every time a shell was ejected. According to the description of the new gun, as soon as a shell is put in the gun closes, fires, recoils and returns to battery, the breech opens, ejects the empty shell and leaves the gun ready for the next shell.

This process can be repeated so fast that a record of 75 to the minute was made. Navy officials look upon the new gun as a fine addition to the equipment of the minor batteries of warships and congratulate themselves on the fact that it is an American invention.

A Home For Old Horses.

Articles of incorporation of the Equine Provident society were filed in the county clerk's office in Brooklyn recently, says the New York Sun. The object of the society is "to provide a shelter and ranch where horses which have served their masters faithfully can be taken care of in their declining years." The directors are Henry C. Karpenstein of 155 Vernon avenue, Joseph O. Karpenstein of 93 Vernon avenue and Frederick J. Maynard of Tenth avenue and Seventy-second street.

Still He May Get a Pass.

General Roberts will find he'll have to pay full fare before he reaches Pretoria by rail, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The Boers hold all the passes

NEW BOER PRISON CAMP

Captured British Soldiers Well Treated at Waterval.

HOSPITAL ARRANGEMENTS FINE.

Exception Made In Cases of Natal and Cape Colony Troops, Against Whom the Boers Are Very Bitter. Refusal of Transvaal Authorities to Communicate With Chamberlain.

The calm of the Boer capital and the seeming indifference of the people to the war and all connected with it are something incomprehensible to an American observer. I doubt if London itself is more lacking in all outward signs of the war in which Great Britain is engaged than is this city within 200 or 300 miles of the nearest firing lines, says the New York Sun's correspondent at Pretoria, writing under date of Jan. 24. This indifference, although of course apparent rather than real, is not confined to outward appearances and manner of life. It extends even to the everyday intercourse.

I returned a few days ago from a brief tour of Cronje's and Joubert's headquarters. Several Boer acquaintances asked me on my arrival if I had seen the last fight at Platberg, when the Boers were repulsed with a loss of 53 killed and 172 wounded. I replied in each case "Yes," but no single inquirer asked for particulars, and I gave none. This same lack of curiosity, though not of interest, impressed me more than aught else at a semipublic dinner which I attended here the other day. There were about 125 persons present, and toward the end of the meal I remarked to my neighbor that I had not heard the war discussed by any one within earshot since I sat down. He smiled somewhat sadly, I thought, and replied:

"No, and if you should walk about the room and listen to the conversation among those 125 people I'll guarantee that you would not hear a word about the war."

I marveled at this until he explained that the time had gone by for talk, the country had committed itself to a life and death struggle, it had confidence in its leaders and the subject was too painful for unnecessary discussion while the crisis was pending.

There has been considerable change in Boer sentiment, both official and popular, toward the foreign volunteers who come in very small numbers to enlist on the side of the republics. Except the Irishmen, they are proving of very doubtful advantage to the Boers. Their lack of training and skill is such a handicap that I have frequently heard Boer leaders speak of them as nuisances, and the authorities openly express a hope that no more will come. There are less than 3,000, according to the best information, with the Boer forces at the front. In one case at least their lack of discipline almost brought disaster upon the Boers. It was at Magersfontein, where the Scandinavian contingent, with undoubted courage, but without orders and contrary to all discipline, dashed forward at the outset of the action and seized a kopje in front of the British advance. They paid a terrible price for their foolhardiness, and they also upset General Cronje's plans by bringing on the action at a point some distance from that where he desired that it should begin. As the result of this experience the Boer leaders have made a regulation that foreign volunteers, except the Irish, shall not be formed into separate commandos and that not more than six shall be included in any one company.

The Boers are a good deal exercised over the question of the natives, both Basutos and Kaffirs. A few days ago President Steyn put three of the head chiefs of the Basutos with their retinues into a saloon carriage at Bloemfontein and sent them direct to Waterval, where the 2,600 British prisoners are confined. Head men of other tribes have been brought to Pretoria since and conducted among the British prisoners. I talked with one of these chiefs, whose principal impression seemed to be amazement at the good treatment accorded the captives.

"Why do the Boers give them good food?" he asked. "Why do they not send them to the low country where they would soon die off of fever?"

The Boers are intensely angry at the attack made by the Kaffirs at Derdepoort on Dec. 24. This is the first time the Kaffirs have fired a shot in this war. The natives themselves protest (but this is far from adequate proof) that they were driven into action by Rhodesian troops, who, when they found that the Kaffirs had murdered women, hastily retreated, leaving the black men to bear the odium and the retribution which the Boers will exact.

The Boer authorities are striving to maintain what they consider a strictly correct attitude in their occasional communications with the British government and its representatives. The first thing done whenever British prisoners have arrived at Pretoria has been to make careful lists of names, ranks and condition and to telegraph the same to Sir Alfred Milner at Cape Town. The high commissioner has scrupulously reciprocated this service. In recent telegraphic correspondence with the government at London, however, an interesting complication arose. The Transvaal authorities cabled to Lord Salisbury protesting against the embargo laid by the British government upon foodstuffs destined to the South African Republic through a neutral port. State Secretary Reitz informs me that he recently received a reply stating the embargo no longer existed. But the dispatch was signed "Chamberlain." Mr. Reitz thereupon cabled to Lord Salisbury that the Transvaal could hold no communication with the colonial secretary of a government with which it was at war and inquired if he, as the head of the British government, confirmed the previous message. Mr. Reitz states that an affirmative reply was received. It is said that difficulties are still made by British naval vessels with regard to the landing of food at Delagoa Bay for the Transvaal, and it is said to be the intention of the Boer authorities, in case of a shortage of supplies, to expel all foreigners from the country and to put the British prisoners upon a diet of mealies.

It should be explained, by the way, that the Boers make a sharp division of their prisoners of war into two classes. They have no animosity against British regulars or against home volunteers and Australian and Canadian troops. They have been doing merely their duty, and the Boers treat them with kindness and consideration. Against the Natal and Cape colonists, however, they are very bitter, and they do not hesitate to show their feelings. Prisoners of this class, whenever identified, are separated from the others and sent to the ordinary jail, where they are treated like common criminals.

I have just come back from a visit to the Waterval, the new military prison camp some miles outside Pretoria on the Petersburg railway. The camp was occupied by about 2,600 soldiers. It is a beautiful spot. The country round about is as green and beautiful as a Kentish valley. The men's quarters consist of a series of long galvanized iron sheds. In them the soldiers have made themselves perfectly comfortable and seem to have settled down to a regular garrison existence. The large inclosure is surrounded by a barbed wire entanglement. Each corner is protected by stockades, on which marine guns are mounted. Each stockade is in electric communication with the others, and the whole camp seems to form an absolutely secure detention ground for the prisoners.

I found the camp in a perfect sanitary condition. The men, generally speaking, had their clothing clean and carefully kept, but here and there one saw an example of the untidy man who is to be found in every army. Games of all sorts were going on, and a perfectly good understanding seemed to exist between the guards and the men. The prisoners were being fed upon the English army rations captured at Dundee. But they were allowed to purchase any amount of vegetables and fruit, which are just now most plentiful. A number of men had been supplied by the Transvaal government with boots and clothing, although the Boers are running very short of these.

I spoke to a number of men who were walking about with the guards and asked them if they were being treated all right. They all answered in the affirmative. One man said: "Why, they treat us here like gentlemen. There has not been a hard word spoken to us since we were taken prisoners."

The hospital arrangements were excellent, but complaints had been made that the water supplied to the camp was unsuitable. The government therefore is now sending a daily supply of fountain water in tanks from Pretoria. The officers' quarters in Pretoria require no further comment. The State Model school, in which they are confined, is a modern and well constructed building, having many large and lofty rooms, and surrounded by a broad, cool veranda. The officers have their own cooks and servants. The bathrooms are commodious, and abundant literature can be procured from the state library.

The rations supplied to the prisoners are of much the same quantity and quality as those issued to the wives and families of burghers throughout the state. In Johannesburg the government issues daily rations to 13,000 persons. Pretoria streets are now full of people who have arrived from Europe with the Red Cross ambulances. The German and Belgian ambulance corps are here, both men and women being in serviceable campaign dress. The Belgian women affect much the same kind of outfit as was so popular with women who made the hard journey to the Klondike. These ambulances are badly wanted at the front, as there is sure to be some very heavy work in the immediate future.

FASTING ON ORANGES.

Heavyweight Doctor Proposes to Lose Sixty-five Pounds.

Dr. Charles K. Barlow, a dentist of Poughkeepsie, is undergoing a long fast, subsisting without food, except two oranges a day, one of which he eats in the morning and the other at night.

It is not for any scientific purpose or to gain any notoriety that the doctor is doing this, but simply to reduce his weight, says the New York Press. Neither is it an experiment, for he did the same thing eight years ago, when he was too fleshy for comfort. At that time his only nourishment for 47 days was a glass of milk a day. The milk, however, did not agree with him, and he is now shunning it. He finds the oranges a much more agreeable substitute.

Dr. Barlow started on his present fast on Thursday, March 1. When seen the other day, he said he was in the best of health and was not a bit hungry. In the first six days of his fast the doctor lost 18 pounds. He weighed when he started 265 pounds, and he expects to continue fasting until he has reduced his weight to 200.

Their Limitations.

The Paris caricaturists find it easy to disfigure the countenance of Queen Victoria to suit their vindictive purposes, says the Washington Star. But no amount of prejudiced imagination will enable them to defy truth to the extent of making Oom Paul handsome.

The Stage Gossip from Both the East and West

Chicago is Revelling in a Feast of Good Things and New York is in the Mire

"ALL good things come to him who waits" may or may not be true. Some one has changed the old proverb to read "him who hustles while he waits."

Chicago waited patiently for the good things of the stage in which New York was reveling during the early part of the season, and her waiting was not in vain. To-day Chicago and other western cities are enjoying the luxuries of the stage, while Gotham must put up with the lesser lights of the theatrical world.

It may be that this playing second place to Gotham by the western cities is not an unmitigated evil. "Experience makes perfect" on the stage as in anything else, and several of the leading plays of the winter have come west after long runs in New York in much improved forms and with well-strengthened casts.

Chicago, for instance, did not have to humor Mrs. Langtry's social aspirations. They had been so well squelched by the social lights of New York and Philadelphia that by the time "The Degenerates" and Mrs. Langtry reached Chicago the lady was quite willing to devote all of her attention to her art, and under those conditions the play was certainly improved. No one who has ever seen "The Degenerates" could possibly imagine that such a play and society would mix well. It matters not whether the play is a truthful portrayal of society or not, the fact remains that society does not like to be presented to the public in that form. But Chicago saw the strongest possible production of a very questionable play, and if it is acting rather than morals that attract audiences, Mrs. Langtry is certainly entitled to the success she is achieving.

To say that either Irving or Miss Terry presented the theater-going people of Chicago with a better production than they gave their New York audiences would be untrue, but I do not consider it untrue to say that their company improved with the additional practice. Young Lawrence Irving, for one, needed the training that he secured during the first part of the American engagements of the comapny to enable him to produce the faultless presentation of the characters which he portrayed. He is a strong actor, but still a young one, and every night of experience under his father's tutelage added to his strength.

Irving's Chicago engagement was a wonderful financial success. Seventy-five thousand dollars was piled into the money tills of the box office during his short stay in the Lake city, and he could well afford to promise Chicago another opportunity of seeing him and his company before his return to England. The return visit is promised for a week in April.

But with all these bright and shining lights of the eastern and European stage playing on the boards of Chicago, the people of that city never turn from the old loves. While they accorded the "great guns" of the stage an almost unequaled reception, yet it was not at the expense of the players who favor the city with their presence each season. Of this class none stands higher than does Alice Neilson and the superb company with which she is presenting "The Singing Girl." The brilliant success that Miss Neilson and her company have achieved this season is due entirely to their efforts; they have been hampered by a play that has nothing to attract; that but for the efforts of a brilliant company would fall flat, but even with this to handicap their efforts they have won a brilliant success.

A local critic in Chicago says of this company:

"Manager Perley has been applying to this company some of the principles that made the Bostonians famous. He seems to be creating a set of younger Bostonians. Just now Chicagoans are unable to judge of the performance of the tenor of the company as he, Richie Ling, is in hospital back somewhere on the road, and an understudy fills his place. The temporary player is manly and effective in appearance and in song and lacks only little of dramatic fire. Eugene Cowles' dominant basso is heard again in this opera, and although Mr. Cowles has but two numbers and they give him little enough opportunity, he gets several encores nightly.

"The comedians are three bright fellows. John Slavin, who, as the brother of the fiction, has to wear girl's clothes and be courted by a repulsive old prince, is as active as a rubber ball and as brotherlike as he ought to be. Joseph Herbert makes a gay old bird of the prince and he puts in a handy oar in the topical song of the three comedians in the last act. Joseph Cawthorn pretends to be a chief of police, but everyone recognizes him as Cawthorn of the scattering speech and everyone applauds.

"Manager Perley has capped his climax of good things with a magnificent chorus. Such a fine appearing lot as the men have not been seen here in ages, and every one can all act and sing besides. The women are equally attractive and successful, and since the finales of two of the acts were written for concerted singing the abilities of the choristers are proved nightly."

New York is seeing all manner of minor attractions these days of Lent. Some are new, some are old, some have never before been presented in New York but have had long runs on the road of the one-night stand character, and some have been seen season after season in Gotham. Among the new ones to Gotham may be mentioned "The Pride of Jennico," "The Carpetbagger," "Madame Butterfly," and "Mrs. B. O'Shaughnessey, Wash Lady."

The first of these is a stirring love tale with the usual tragic features and happy ending. It is one of the class of plays that never appear long at any one place and the world is none the worse when they disappear.

"The Carpetbagger" is one of Opie Read's southern stories dramatized. It had quite a run on the road before reaching New York, and may be said to be the best of the four, unless an exception be made in favor of "Madame Butterfly."

This piece has a pretty Japanese setting, in which an officer of the United States navy figures prominently, though not very gracefully. It is a piece that calls for considerable talent to make it presentable, and it is only justice to say that Blanch Bates is giving it careful handling.

Of the last one nothing need be said. Its name portrays it as an Irish farce of the broadest kind.

SPORTING.

ON THE DIAMOND.

Cranford has organized a baseball association and expects to take a place in the amateur league to be formed in Central New Jersey.

Among the candidates for places on the Williams College nine is Fred Squires, of this city. He has been selected as one of the most eligible men for pitcher. Last year Squires won the pole vault championship at that college.

As soon as the snow goes and the ground will permit the Plainfield High School baseball team will resume its outdoor practice. It is expected that the candidates will be assembled in the school yard Saturday morning for preliminary practice and coaching under the charge of A. B. Meredith.

WHIST

One of the hardest fought contests for the state challenge whist trophy is scheduled to take place in this city this evening. The Park Club holds the trophy and the next in the list of challengers is the Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club. As the Elizabeth team has scored the next largest number of wins for the trophy, the Elizabeth players are particularly anxious to win tonight. If the Parks can win that game, they have an excellent show of getting the trophy in the near future. The result of the match will be watched with interest by whist enthusiasts all over the state.

ROD AND GUN.

There will be a live bird shoot Friday, March 30th, at Campbell's Clubhouse, between John Harsburger, of Pennington, and "Kid" Calloway, of this city. It will be for fifty birds and $50 a side.

Nominated Instead of Elected.

The Home Building and Loan Association at its meeting Monday evening did not elect officers, as erroneously stated in yesterday's Press. The names of the officers published were simply placed in nomination. The election will be held on Monday evening, April 16.

To Celebrate Pastor's Birthday.

The King's Daughters of the Mt. Olive Baptist church will give an entertainment in the church tomorrow evening for the benefit of the church. Dr. Richardson, a world-renowned entertainer, will also appear. Next week Thursday evening the members of the church will join in celebrating the pastor's birthday anniversary. At that time Madam Huestis, the "Black Hattie," will appear and render selections. There will also be addresses and a reception in the vestry. A special offering will be made to the pastor. "Black Hattie" will sing on Easter Sunday evening.

Hit by a Trolley Car.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, March 21.—Last night one of the large trolley cars of the Brunswick Traction Company ran into the wagon of an Italian baker, who lives at Raritan, smashing it into kindling wood. By a miracle the horse escaped with slight bruises and the man with a badly cut head. The accident occurred just east of the subway between Somerville and Raritan. The man was thrown fifty feet west of the subway. The car was running at the rate of twenty miles an hour.

Death of Miss Wilson.

Miss Maggie Wilson, aged 24 years, died yesterday at her home on West Front street, after an illness of a year with consumption. The funeral services will be held at the residence of Andrew Saffron, 614 Division street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The deceased was a member of Mizpah Lodge, No 1, U. O of I. O. L, and that organization will attend in a body. Interment will be at Hillside cemetery.

Surprise to Miss Conkey.

A surprise party was tendered to Miss Ethel Conkey, of Fairview avenue, last evening by some twenty-five of her friends. Herbert Martin engineered the affair which was a decided success. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and playing games.

Creditors Meet.

A meeting of the creditors of Adrian C. Pickhardt, of North Plainfield, was held yesterday at Somerville before William V. Steele, referee in bankruptcy. The appointment of a trustee was deferred for one week. William Sweeney appeared for a number of the creditors of this city.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CHOSEN IN BOROUGH

pace with the progress of education, which is always advancing.

Although during the past year there have been many cases of illness among the pupils, yet the attendance has been good. We have had in attendance at one time 971 pupils, this is, of course, not the average attendance, but the best, but it indicates the number for whom school provision must be made, for them there must be provided desks, books and all the needed school appliances.

The school census taken last May showed that there were in the borough 1,105 children of school age all told, whether attending public schools, private schools or no schools, and when of this number we get into our schools 971, we have a large proportion, almost 90 per cent. of all the children of the borough. There is a gain this year over the attendance reported a year ago of seventy.

We are asking you to appropriate by special school tax $14,100, as against $12 000, voted last year, an increase of $2,100. This increase is made necessary in part, at least, 1st—By the increased membership; 2d—By the seriously increased cost of almost every item of support needed by the school; 3d—By the selection and purchase of advanced and more efficient books; 4th—A limited necessary increase in salaries.

The increased attendance will go far to justify our increased demands.

Estimating approximately, it is costing about $25 or $26 a year to educate each child in the schools; at the smaller of these figures the cost of 70 additional pupils would reach $1,750.

At the district meeting a year ago, after the reading from the superintendent's report of the condition of the school library, and the interest in good books shown by the pupils and by their home circles, generous citizens made contribution to the amount of $70 for the enlargement of the library. I wish to report that the money so donated and received has been expended in adding to the library and making it more efficient.

In my report a year ago I spoke at length of the rear part of this building, including those rooms which constituted the school building erected in 1882 I then called your attention to the fact that the old steam heating plant was nearly worn out and would soon need replacing; that there was no method of ventilating the rooms except by the inadequate and dangerous method of raising windows. All authorities join in condemning any such conditions and it is my judgment that a school building with only such means of ventilation would not today be permitted to be built. It is a constant endangering of the health of the children and should be changed. That something shall be done with the heating plant is now imperative. It has barely lasted this winter and has very insufficiently heated the rooms, We do not dare to continue the use of it for another year, and while a change in this respect is being made, we shall ask you to authorize the installing of a proper system of ventilation.

The Board of Education will shortly call a special school meeting and will then submit estimates for both of these improvements, and will ask you to authorize them and to vote appropriations to pay for them.

Have You Ever Used It?

S. and B. Chocolate Jelly for cake filling and icing, it is always ready. No sugar; no boiling. Ladies who have used this jelly will have no other chocolate, or try to prepare a cake filling themselves, as in almost every case they find it very unsatisfactory, usually rough and gritty, and while the cake is still soft and nice, the filling will be hard. Cakes made with this jelly are decidedly to the contrary. When the cake is dry and hard (if kept long) you will find the jelly still smooth and soft. You will like the flavor. It is made from the finest chocolate of special blending. It makes delicious hot chocolate at a cost of about one cent a cup. A teaspoonful is the ordinary quantity used, but people's tastes differ—some may want a little more and some less. All that is necessary is hot water and cream or milk (whipped cream is best). Nothing so convenient for afternoon teas. Everybody is invited to visit our store and try a cup of this chocolate served with whipped cream. Free to all. To be had only at S. Scheuer & Co's.

THE HAWAIIAN CABLE.

Senator Hale's Bill Favored by Naval Affairs Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The senate committee on naval affairs has agreed to report the bill for a Pacific cable which Senator Hale was authorized to draft at the last session of the committee and the report was later presented to the senate. The bill provides for a present cable only to Honolulu, but declares a purpose to extend it in the future, the first section reading as follows. "That to the end of establishing hereafter telegraph communication between the United States and the Philippine Islands and Japan under the waters of the Pacific ocean there shall be constructed under the supervision of the secretary of the navy a submarine telegraphic cable or cables and connecting land lines from the city of San Francisco to the city of Honolulu, H. I., over such route as may be deemed by the secretary of the navy to be the most practicable."

Senator Hale presented a written report to accompany the bill, in which he said:

"The increasing business of the United States upon the Pacific sea has for years drawn men's attention to the advisability of an ocean cable between our western coast and some point on the Asiatic shores. The annexation of the Hawaiian Islands has added to this feeling, and the committee has felt itself justified in reporting a bill which provides for a cable which, if built, will be the beginning of a transpacific submarine cable. It is believed by the committee that the provisions are ample to insure the work by private enterprise while leaving the general charge with the government and the ownership there when completed. At any rate the experiment will be tried in the building of the short end of the line from San Francisco to Honolulu, and our future course can be governed by our experience in this work. It is believed that the cost of the line between the two places named will be not far from $3,000,000, and should the bill become a law at the present session of congress it is hoped that the work will be under way within a year.

Governor Candler on Trusts.

ATLANTA, March 21.—Governor Candler appeared before the subcommittee of the industrial commission which is taking testimony here. The governor was called to testify in the investigation of trusts. Governor Candler said that trusts raised prices and made millionaires and paupers. "They build up the two extremes of society at the expense of the great middle classes, so necessary to the prosperity of the nation."

Veiled Woman Shoots Girl Cashier.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Miss Annie Strother, cashier in a restaurant on Twenty-second street, was shot and instantly killed last night by a well dressed, heavily veiled woman. The stranger woman came in the front door and, walking to the cashier's desk, fired four shots point blank at Miss Strother and escaped. No other person except the cashier was in the front part of the restaurant at the time.

WHAT COUNCIL WILL DO ABOUT A CITY HALL

First Question That Will Be Decided Will Be the Site for the Building.

NOT ALL AGREED ON THIS.

MAJORITY AND MINORITY REPORTS WILL BE MADE.

Two Favorite Sites Are Gardner Property and Lot at the Corner of Park Avenue and East Fifth Street.

The New Jersey Legislature has made a City Hall for Plainfield possible and the future of the municipal building depends on the Common Council. The special committee appointed by the Council to look into the question of a City Hall has delayed action until the Legislature could pass a bill enabling the necessary funds to be raised through the issuance of bonds. Next week that committee will meet and formulate the report that will be presented to the Council on the Monday evening following.

The bill was successively passed by both Houses and taken to Governor Voorhees to sign. He attached his signature to it Monday evening. Since then there has been considerable discussion of the probabilities of a City Hall this year. A very large majority of the Council is known to favor a City Hall. In fact, there is only one Councilman who has actively opposed the idea. Those who do favor a City Hall, however, are not agreed as to the best site. On that question there is likely to be a lively debate.

There is no doubt, however, but that the present Council will take the necessary action that will ensure a municipal building for this city. Most of the Councilmen have announced their intended course, so there seems no doubt about the matter.

The Councilmen who are most actively supporting the City Hall scheme are anxious for immediate action. The bill was hurried through the Legislature, and now the Council is to act as soon as possible. A meeting of the committee was to be called for this week, but the Councilmen found difficulty in finding a night when the members of the committee could get together, so it was decided to hold the meeting next week instead. That will be the week before the April meeting of the Council and will make it possible to have the report of the committee ready to be presented to the Council at the meeting Monday evening, April 2d.

The most important duty of the committee is to select the most desirable site for the proposed City Hall. On this question the committee is divided and there is no prospect of any agreement. That will mean a majority and a minority report. The two sites that seem to find the most favor are the Gardner property on the north side of East Front street, next to the residence of Dr. J. B. Probasco, and the property at the corner of East Fifth street and Park avenue. It is understood that seven of the Councilmen favor the Gardner property and four the other. The committee is probably proportionally divided.

As neither side seems able to convince the other, it will probably result in the two reports. If the Council continues to take the same view regarding the desirability of the sites, the majority report will be accepted and the City Hall will be erected on the Gardner property. A "dark horse" is always possible, however, and if some new proposition regarding a site should be advanced that should offer great advantages, the two sides might settle on it as a compromise measure.

Must Organize Within Ten Days.

The new Board of Education of the borough are obliged to meet within ten days to organize. The special meeting to consider the question of installing a new heating apparatus in the Somerset Street School will probably be held inside of a month. If the voters grant the request this will give ample time to install the apparatus before next fall.

To Join Death Benefit Association.

At the meeting of the Sons of Veterans last Tuesday evening it was decided to join the State Death Benefit Association, and increase the dues to fifty cents a month. This will give each member $5 a week when sick and his relatives $250 when he dies.

Bids for Furnishing Crushed Stone.

Bids for the city's supply of crushed stone, and flagstone for sidewalks and curbing, will be received at a meeting of the street committee of the Council this evening. The bids will be opened and the contract probably awarded.

FUNERAL OF A JUNIOR

AMERICAN MECHANICS AT THE BIER OF LATE H. C. ACKERMAN.

Services Held in Monroe Avenue Church Yesterday and Largely Attended by Friends.

The funeral services of the late Harry C. Ackerman, who died a few days ago at the home of his father, Cornelius Ackerman, Clinton avenue, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell.

There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends, including about fifty members of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the Independent Fife and Drum Corps. The latter organization appeared in full uniform with instruments, and they played a funeral march from the church to the burial place in the Methodist cemetery While the remains were being carried into the church "Nearer My God to Thee" was played by the Corps.

Rev. Mr. O'Donnell read appropriate Scripture selections and made a few remarks concerning the upright and manly life which the departed lived, and of his devotion to his home and family. He also pointed all to Christ as the salvation of the world. He also drew many helpful lessons and spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved ones.

After Mr. O'Donnell's remarks George Bolsterli, councilor of Franklin Council, conducted the service of the order, which was ritualistic. There was a handsome display of floral tributes, including five large pillows. One of these was from the Juniors, another from the Fife and Drum Corps and the others were from friends and the family.

Those who served as pall-bearers were from Franklin Council as follows: Ephraim Compton, Harvey R. Thorn, F. A. Long, J. J. Stahl, Theodore Martin and Henry Seader. Chas. C. Davis and G. S. Martin served as marshals.

PYTHIANS DANCED.

Unity Lodge Members and Friends Tripped Light Fantastic Toe in Camera Club Rooms.

A pleasing social dance was given last evening in the rooms of the Plainfield Camera Club, Babcock building, under the auspices of Unity Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias. There were about two hundred members and friends present, and from 9 o'clock in the evening until early this morning the light fantastic was tripped to the excellent music furnished by Rogers. At midnight a bountiful collation was served, after which the dancing was continued. The members of Unity showed themselves to be a genuine host and the committee in charge, consisting of I. N. Wyckoff, Frank Putnam, J Van-Winkle, Jr., Frank Humpston and E. P. T. Smith, did all in their power to give everyone a good time.

A Dangerous Place.

A dangerous place is to be found in the roadway on Duer street just above Park place. The road was opened a few days ago to make connection with the city water, and soon afterward it began to rain. The work was stopped and the opening was left with a few boards about it to warn travelers.

Want $10,000 Damages.

Summons were served yesterday in the Supreme Court damage suits brought by Percy Phillips for his son, Roy T. Phillips, against Maze Edwards and Frank Hand for $5,000 each. The declaration of the plaintiff has not yet been filed. The cases will not come to trial until the October term of court.

Martin Act Sale Postponed.

The funeral services of Mrs. Alexander Gilbert having been announced for tomorrow, the Corporation Counsel says that there will be no sale by this city of lands under the Martin Act proceedings on that day. It is understood that the sale will be adjourned for one week.

Fixing the Bridge.

Employes of the Jersey Central Railroad are engaged in placing heavy timber under the Park avenue railroad bridge where it crosses the sidewalks to permit the placing of new plate under the bridge to take the position of that which is defective.

New Cauren Organist.

Ward Stevens, of Paterson, a person of much musical talent, has been engaged by the Crescent Avenue church as organist to take the place occupied by Frank Smith, who has resigned.

Shops Are Busy.

All of the local machine shops and press works are very busy and working over time. There are plenty of orders on hand to keep the works going for a long time.

BANKS GAIN BY NEW LAW.

Their Privileges Broadened and Circulation Made Much More Profitable—Summary of Provisions.

In a pamphlet issued by Harvey Fisk & Sons it is explained that the new financial law has very much broadened the privileges of National banks in the way of circulation, and the interest and attention of their officers is undoubtedly directed at this time toward a close scrutiny of its provisions. The pamphlet says:

"Circulation has been made much more profitable and the banks will hereafter unquestionably consider it one of the most valuable provisions of their charter." In order that the terms of the new law may be readily understood a summary of its banking provisions is contained in the publication. It is as follows:

"Section 10 provides for the organization of National banks of $25,000 capital in places with a population not exceeding 3,000 inhabitants. It also limits new banks to a minimum capitalization of $50,000 in places of from 3,000 to 6,000 inhabitants, and to a minimum capitalization of $100,000 in places of over 6,000 inhabitants, except in cities of over 50,000 inhabitants where the minimum limit of capitalization for new banks is fixed at $200,000."

WHIST TROPHY DEPARTS

ELIZABETH CHESS AND WHIST CLUB DEFEATS THE PARKS.

Score Was 23 to 16—The Park Team Will Have Another Chance at it Next Week.

The Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club triumphed over the whist four of the Park Club last evening. It was only after the most hotly contested match played by any of the clubs of the New Jersey Whist Association that the Elizabeth players succeeded in gaining possession of the trophy. For several weeks the Park Club has been successful in holding the trophy against the challengers.

The Park Club had its regular four, Peter B. Matthews, Arthur A. Freeman, Albert O. Woltmann and Ralph Willis. The Elizabeth team was composed of Messrs. Martinson, Laing Edson and Roberts, one of the regular team being absent.

The first round showed the honors divided. Both teams scored four points each. Elizabeth took the lead in the second, seven to three. The Parks made a great brace in the third and succeeded in tieing their opponents by scoring five points to Elizabeth's one. The total score for the three rounds stood 12 to 12, and another round was necessary. The Elizabeth players showed up strongly in the extra round and came out victorious 11 to 4, winning the match by a score of 23 to 16.

The Parks have the consolation of getting another chance next week, however. The annual congress of the New Jersey Whist Association will be held at Jersey City Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The trophy will be contested for at the congress, all the clubs pardicipating, and success there counts as two regular victories for the cup. The Parks still stand in the lead for the cup with eleven wins, with Elizabeth second with ten wins.

LEASE SOLD FOR $300.

Right to Conduct Plainfield Poultry Farm Put Up at Auction.

The remainder of the property of the Plainfield Poultry Farm Company was disposed of yesterday afternoon at the continuation of the receiver's sale, held at the farm in Washington Valley. W. N. Pangborn was the auctioneer. Over fifty people were in attendance at the sale but the bidding was not very high. The most important thing to be disposed of was the lease, for a term of seventeen years. It was sold to Craig A. Marsh for $300.

All the poultry except one set was disposed of at fair prices. There was a valuable collection of chickens and ducks.

Fourteen for Membership.

At the First Baptist church prayer meeting last evening fourteen persons came before the church for membership. They were received and next Sunday evening they will be baptized. At the same meeting Dr. J. B. Probasco was re-elected deacon for a term of five years, his term having expired.

Delivery Horse Ran Away

A horse attached to a delivery wagon, the establishment belonging to L. A. Hummer, the Somerset street butcher, ran down Park avenue this morning about 8 o'clock. The run away was caught near Arlington place before any serious damage resulted.

CALM TALK FROM RAILROAD OFFICIAL

Attributes Much of the Agitation About a Strike to Newspaper Correspondents.

CORDIAL RELATIONS EXIST

BETWEEN EMPLOYES AND OFFICERS OF THE ROAD.

This Man Says That He Does Not Think That President Maxwell Will Hold Any Conference With the Men.

The officials of the Central Railroad of New Jersey are not greatly concerned over the probabilities of a strike among their employes. They attribute much of the talk on the subject to the newspaper correspondents in Mauch Chunk and Easton who have accepted wild rumors and irresponsible stories as facts and have given them general circulation.

"The most cordial relations exisits today," said an official of the Jersey Central Railroad yesterday afternoon while in conversation with a Press reporter, "between the officials and the employes of the company. We are like a big family. There are occasional troubles and misunderstandings among us but we get together and settle them satisfatorily to all.

"In such a large system as the Central there are members of many different labor organizations employed. The company has its agreements with these Brotherhoods. Both sides live up to the agreements. There may, perhaps, be an occasional difference of opinion regarding the meaning of some of the terms of these agreements, but the matter is always satisfactorily adjusted by a conference."

When questioned regarding the various reports that have been current, the official explained that it was always customary to bring a grievance to the attention of the superintendent of the division first, then to the general superintendent, the first vice-president and finally as a last resort to the president. He did not believe that President Maxwell would hold any conference with the men at present, as the matter had yet to be brought to the attention of Superintendent Wentz.

The fact of the case was, he explained, that the men and the officials knew little more of the strike than they saw in the newspapers. The correspondents in Mauch Chunk, Easton and other Pennsylvania cities were, he said, largely responsible for all the excitement. They had heard some wild, unreliable rumors which they had given general circulation.

A. J. MOORE IS DEACON.

Vacancy Caused by Removal of F. C. Adams Filled by Trinity Reformed Church Members.

Last evening after the prayer meeting in Trinity Reformed church a congregational meeting was held for the purpose of electing a deacon to fill the unexpired term of F. C. Adams, who has removed from the city. Robert Clark was elected chairman of the meeting, and F. E. Smith, clerk of the consistory, acted as secretary. There were four names placed in nomination, Messrs. A. J. Moore, A. K. Willett, H. W. Marshall and F. S. Cutter. The two last-named gentlemen declined the nomination, and a ballot was taken for a choice of the two first-mentioned names, which resulted in the election of Mr. Moore. Before adjournment was made a rising vote of the congregation signified the unanimous approval of the adoption of Marconnier chapel as a branch of Trinity church, and the action of the consistory in making the legal transfer of the property to the church tomorrow evening was heartily approved of.

Mr. Murray Will Explain.

A general conference is to be held in New York from April 21st to May 1st, and it will probably be one of the largest and most interesting sessions ever held under religious auspices. There will be present Christian workers, ministers and teachers from all parts of the world. W. D. Murray, of this city, has been chosen financial secretary for the conference, and tomorrow evening at Warren chapel he will give in detail all the particulars concerning this conference. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Fire Alarm Whistle Silent Today.

The fire alarm whistle is off duty today and will not be ready for work until tonight or tomorrow morning. It has been detached from the old boilers at the electric light works to be attached to the new boilers. Alarms sent in today will consequently not sound on the whistle.

TURKEYS ARRIVED TOO LATE

Drake & Mundy Brought Suit Against the Central Railroad—Got a Verdict of $99.13.

The action of Drake & Mundy against the Central Railroad of New Jersey to recover $161 claimed for loss on poultry, was tried before Justice Moffett yesterday. The poultry in question, a quantity of turkeys, had been shipped Dec. 18th from Bath, N. Y., over the Delaware Lackawanna & Western Railroad. The poultry did not reach Plainfield until Dec. 22d, four days after being shipped, which the plaintiffs claimed was too late for their Christmas trade. On the trial it was shown that there was negligence on the part of the Central Railroad.

Joseph Haynes, the freight agent of the Central road, sold the poultry that had been refused by Drake & Mundy and the proceeds—$90—he offered to the above firm in settlement of the claim. This was refused, hence the suit. The court rendered a verdict in favor of the defendants for $99.13 with costs. S. S. Swackhamer appeared for the plaintiffs and a representative from the office of John L. Conover, of New York, the Central Railroad Company's attorney, appeared for the defendant.

DEATH OF MRS. GILBERT.

A BRIGHT WOMAN PASSED AWAY LAST EVENING.

Had Suffered A Lingering Illness—Active in Church and Club Affairs.

Mrs. Louise Fitz Randolph Gilbert, wife of Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, passed away at her home on West Eighth street last evening after a lingering illness. For several days her life was despaired of, but death did not come until yesterday. She had a very large circle of friends in this city who will greatly mourn her loss. She was of a singularly bright and cheerful disposition that made her greatly beloved by all who knew her.

Mrs. Gilbert was the daughter of the late Isaac F. and Isabelle F. Randolph, of Metuchen. She was born at that place May 26, 1842. June 2, 1865, she married Mr. Gilbert at her home. The next year they moved to Plainfield, where they have since resided.

She was a member of the First Baptist church and a regular attendant when in good health. She was also active in the Monday Afternoon Club, the Continental Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Plainfield Relief Association, the Mc-All Auxiliary and other charitable organizations.

Mrs. Gilbert was not in the best of health for some time before her death A trip to Bermuda was planned but was given up as her condition grew more serious. Cancer of the stomach was the cause of her death.

Her husband, a brother, Clinton F. Randolph, of this city, and a sister, Miss Alice F. Randolph, of this city, survive her.

MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY.

Beautiful Array of Spring and Summer Hats at Boehm's.

The magnificent display of millinery being made this week at Boehm's establishment is attracting the attention of the ladies. There is an array of the latest creations in the way of headgear that is particularly pleasing to the fair sex. Some of the handsome hats are perfect patterns of the Parisian styles and cannot fail to please the most fastidious tastes. There is a bewildering display of trimmed and untrimmed hats, and all the beautiful trimmings that are accessories thereto. There is no need of ladies going out of town to purchase their Easter hats. Boehm's styles are up-to-date and their prices are at least ten per cent. lower.

Endeavor Sociable.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Warren chapel held a very enjoyable social last evening in the chapel, which was well attended by the members and their friends. During the evening a programme of music and recitations was presented that won favor with all present. The affair was in charge of the social committee of the society, and after the entertainment refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hall to be Last Speaker.

The last meeting for the season under the auspices of the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and other Liberal Christian Women, will be held Tuesday, April 17th, when Mrs. Florence Howe Hall will read a paper entitled "Christian Courtesy the Corner Stone of Good Manners."

Miss Clara S. Hellwig will soon move to 724 Watchung avenue, two doors beyond the Crescent Avenue church, where she will continue her private lessons and classes.

GIRLS' SCHOOL CHANGES

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE INTRODUCES REORGANIZATION BILL.

The Investigators Have Secured Permission to Continue Work After Legislature Adjourns.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton March 22—The special Assembly committee to investigate the government of the State Industrial School for Girls submitted a preliminary report to the Legislature yesterday, and in connection with it introduced a bill reorganizing the management of the institution. The committee asked leave to sit after the sine die adjournment of the Legislature for the continuation of the investigation. The request was granted on the understanding that the findings shall be reported to Gov. Voorhees.

The bill introduced by the committee provides that the name of the institution shall be changed to the State Home for Girls, and that there shall be nine trustees, five men and four women, to be appointed by the Governor within thirty days after the passage of the act. All the present officers and employes are legislated out, their terms of office to cease thirty days after the appointment of the new trustees. Officers and employes are to be appointed by the new trustees, who may reappoint any of the present officers or employes. The superintendent is to be a man and the principal a woman. Girls under ten years old shall not be committed to the home. Heretofore girls seven years old could be received. In all other respects the bill is a re-enactment of the present law.

Miss Frances Day was recalled yesterday by the investigating committee because she had testified that no girls were ever put in cells during the administration of Mrs. McFadden as matron, while the records showed that such was not the fact. Miss Day testified yesterday that the confinements in cells shown by the records took place when Mrs McFadden was absent on account of illness and while Mrs. Miller was acting matron. Miss Day insisted that her previous testimony, that anklets had been used to subdue Sadie Wiesman, was correct in spite of the denial of Mrs. Eyler.

WELCOME TO MISSIONARY.

Miss Julia G. Shinn Tells of Her Reception at the Mission Post to Which She Was Sent.

Miss Julia G. Shinn, who sailed for Burma last October under the care of the Womans' Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, is so well-known in town that a letter from her printed in The Helping Hand at Boston will possess interest for many.

Miss Shinn writes from Kemendine School, Burma, Dec. 2, 1899:

"Burma reached at last, and the voyage was a delightful one. I was glad of the week in London, and the view from the Virgin's Cathedral was well worth the voyage across the Bay of Biscay. With a lift 1,300 feet high we could see all the city. To this cathedral the sailors send their offerings for especial care received from the Virgin, whose image in brass crowns the summit. The long stretch from Suez to Colombo, was chiefly through quiet waters, but we caught a day or two of monsoon weather just before reaching Colombo.

"The girls from Kemendine were among other friends on the wharf to meet the new workers.

"On Monday evening the missionaries had a reception tendered by Misses Ranney and Phinney, and there as elsewhere I heard the familiar strain, 'How like her sister.' One of the Shan natives has just called on Mrs. Mix, and when he saw me, he said, 'Very like Mama Henderson,' and laughed heartily.

"The Kemendine girls did their part to make my welcome warm. The house was decorated, and 'Welcome Mama Shinn' made of red flowers intertwined with green was very pretty and caused a thrill of pleasure in Mama Shinn's heart. I met them in the schoolroom and addressed them with Miss Craft's help."

Death of Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Ophelia Miller, aged 42 years, daughter of Mrs. Latourette, of the borough, died at her home, Whitehouse, Tuesday night. She is a sister of Charles Latourette, of this city. Five children survive her. The funeral services were held this morning at 9 o'clock from the late home, and interment took place at Gladstone.

Ephraim Coriell Married.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Ephraim Coriell, of Larchmont, N. Y., grandson of William McDowell Coriell, this city, to Miss Jennie V. Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boyce, also of Larchmont. The event took place Saturday, March 17th, and Rev. G. S. Pratt, of New York, officiated.

VICE-PRESIDENTIAL BOOM OF VOORHEES.

It Died a Painless Death in Elizabeth, Shortly After its Birth.

MEETING WAS PLANNED

AND A CALL PREPARED, WHEN "SOMETHING DROPPED."

Governor Had Not Been Consulted About It—Invitations Had Been Issued to Many Prominent Party Leaders.

Plans for the candidacy of a Vice-Presidential "boom" for Governor Foster M. Voorhees have been nipped in the bud. The movement had been taken in hand by several citizens of prominence in Republican circles in Union county who are warm friends of Governor Voorhees, and who believe they understand something of the political situation in New Jersey. A meeting was arranged to take place at Clark's Hotel, Elizabeth, next Saturday night. The call for the meeting and a list of those who were to be invited had been prepared when suddenly there came advices from some of the most influential Republicans in the State, including ex-Mayor John Rakin, of Elizabeth, who is a warm friend of the Governor, that the call must not be made. This occurred last Saturday and the arrangements were at once dropped.

Included in the list of signers was a delegation from Cranford, headed by James Rogers, and a large delegation of Elizabeth Republicans. The list of those to be invited to the meeting, including a number who had agreed to attend, contained the names of United States Attorney-General John W. Griggs. United States Senators Sewell and Kean, Congressmen Parker, Fowler and Stewart, Senator McCarter, ex-Senator George W. Ketcham, ex Assemblyman A. C. Studer, and Carl Lentz, of Essex; ex Senator James A. Bradley, of Asbury Park; Prosecutor Eugene Emley, ex-Judge Francis M. Scott, Judge William I. Lewis and Assemblyman Vivian M. Lewis, of Passaic county; ex Senator William H. Skirm, of Trenton; ex-Mayor John Rankin, ex-Senator Frank Bergen, ex-Sheriff Kyte, William H. Corbin, James Rogers, George W. Littell, County Clerk Howard, James W. Ferguson, Edmund B. Horton and William T. West, of Union; Senator William M. Johnson, of Hackensack, and representative Republicans from every county in the State, numbering nearly a hundred, and including many who were known to be very warm friends of Governor Voorhees.

Those who were interested in promoting the "boom" are now anxious to conceal their hands in the matter. They say they acted without consulting Governor Voorhees, and the only explanation they vouchsafe for their determination to abandon the plan is that "the friends of the Governor do not deem it expedient to launch the 'boom' at this time." All do not take to the situation kindly. They repel the statement that the order to drop the matter was due to the fact that the Governor had lost prestige because of his failure to make good the promise of extra pay to the New Jersey soldiers who were mustered into the United States service during the war with Spain, and by his attitude in the investigation of Mrs. Eyler's management of the Industrial Home for Girls. They say that the movement to suppress the "boom" was started in the Governor's own town of Elizabeth, and some profess to believe that a desire on the part of United States Senator John Kean to succeed to the shoes of the late Garret A. Hobart had to do with the matter.

AN ORIENTAL TEA.

Given in Honor of the Birthday of Little Girl.

Ruth Heaphy, of Chicago, who, with her mother, is spending sometime at the home of William H. McGee, of Westervelt avenue, gave an oriental tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in honor of the seventh anniversary of her birthday. She was assisted by her cousins, Mabel and Willie McGee, in entertaining twelve of her new friends that she has made since coming to Plainfield. In addition to the tea, games were played. The donkey game proved to be one of the most amusing for the young folks. The guests departed early for their homes leaving their best wishes with the young hostess for many happy returns of the day.

The police board will hold a meeting this evening at which there will be a discussion of various matters of interest to the department.

ROBERTS YET QUIET.

Gatacre and Brabant Clearing Up the Free State.

NOTHING HEARD FROM MAFEKING.

President Kruger Says the Fight In the Free State Will Be Desperate. Further Movements Said to Be Awaiting Negotiations.

LONDON, March 22.—Several telegrams have passed between President Kruger and the British government in addition to the Salisbury-Kruger correspondence already published. The foreign office received a dispatch from Pretoria yesterday. The contents of these communications cannot yet be obtained.

So far as the military situation is concerned, there is practically no change. Lord Roberts is quietly making preparations for the next move. As necessary to a beginning, Generals Gatacre and Brabant are swiftly moving from point to point in the southern districts of the Free State, dispersing or accepting the surrender of any remaining Boers, thus insuring the safety of Lord Roberts' communications before starting toward Pretoria.

A correspondent of The Daily News at Springfontein, describing these movements, says:

"General Gatacre is sweeping through the country like a cyclone, with flying columns in all directions. His swiftness and strategy have proved of inestimable value to Lord Roberts."

The rebuilding of the railway bridge at Norval's pont will occupy two months. The temporary bridge will be completed in about ten days. Meanwhile supplies are transported by an aerial tramway across the gap. These works necessarily delay the providing of supplies for the advance.

Lord Methuen's movements north of Kimberley are believed to be a prelude to the gathering of a column of 20,000 men, with Kimberley as a base, to strike eastward from Fourteen Streams into the Transvaal.

The long and anxiously awaited news of the relief of Mafeking has not yet been received.

A dispatch to The Standard from Bloemfontein, dated Tuesday, says:

"Four thousand Transvaalers from Colesberg trekked on Saturday and Sunday to the northeast, going by way of the Basutoland border. They will probably be caught at one of the passes.

"A striking feature of the advance on Bloemfontein was the abandonment of our communication with Poplar Grove. Lord Roberts, confident in the ability of his transport to meet all the immediate needs of the army, deliberately left the enemy at Abraham's kraal to do what they liked. The result fully justified him. The enemy to the south were paralyzed by the boldness and rapidity of the stroke, and Generals Clements and Gatacre were enabled to cross the Orange river almost without opposition."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing March 20, says:

"I have just arrived from Bloemfontein, where I learned that no further movement is probable for three weeks, as negotiations are proceeding. I failed to ascertain the nature of the negotiations or whether Sir Alfred Milner's departure from Cape Town is connected with them, but I should not be surprised if the war collapsed quickly."

A Daily Chronicle correspondent at Bloemfontein, telegraphing March 20, says:

"The civil government has been reorganized. Mr. J. A. Collins, undersecretary of the interior in Steyn's executive, has been appointed landdrost. Steyn is regarded as guilty of fatuity, but not influenced by nepotism. He was always Kruger's tool. It has been rumored that he has reaped financial benefit from this connection, but the report is not substantiated. Mr. Fisher played the part of Steyn's Mephistopheles."

Mr. Winston Churchill, in a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, says:

"I think it may be counted a certitude that the Transvaal would immediately comply if Great Britain were to demand equally fair treatment for all prisoners by a threat of reprisals on Transvaal prisoners."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Morning Post says:

"On the best authority I learn that the real objective of the Fischer-Wolmarans deputation is Russia.

"I also hear that they have taken away all the secret incriminating documents from Pretoria, thus making it difficult to implicate Steyn and the Bondites."

A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Pretoria, dated March 19, says:

"President Kruger returned from Kroonstadt yesterday. He says the fight in the Free State will be desperate. I am informed that the Transvaal government has taken no resolution to destroy mines or property as a last resort."

Lord Roberts, while inspecting the naval brigade on the plain outside the town, in the presence of many of the townspeople, addressed the men, thanking them for the excellent work they had done in the course of the campaign.

He wished good luck to those who were about to rejoin ship and expressed the hope that the others would be present at the entry into Pretoria.

A dispatch from Cape Town, dated March 21, says: "Mr. Cecil Rhodes sailed for England today."

KRUGER STILL FIRM.

Appeals to the Burghers to Continue the Struggle.

LOURENCO MARQUES, March 22.—A dispatch from Kroonstadt, the new capital of the Orange Free State, dated March 18, says:

"The Pretoria federal commandos are here. They are in grand spirits. They are ready for the enemy and are even defiantly awaiting the British advance.

"Presidents Kruger and Steyn addressed a vast camp meeting today. The Transvaal president made an impassioned appeal to the burghers to maintain their gallant fight for freedom. He told them that it was certain the ultimate result of the war would be that the Boer republics would retain their independence, despite the temporary British occupation of Bloemfontein.

"President Steyn followed President Kruger in a strong speech. He told the burghers that the Free State was far from conquered because its capital had been occupied by the British. He informed the burghers that England had definitely refused to allow the republics to remain independent states; therefore all the republics had to do now was to fight to the last.

"President Steyn said that in the six months the war had been going on the Boers had lost less than 1,000 men in killed and that the fighting was really commencing now. As president he warned the Free State burghers not to believe Lord Roberts' proclamation and accept his invitation to lay down their arms. He assured them that the British had failed on every occasion to keep the solemn treaties they had made. Sir Alfred Milner, the governor of Cape Colony, Mr. Steyn declared, had publicly proclaimed that the Afrikanders would be exterminated, knowing that the republics would fight to the end. He closed by urging the burghers to place their trust in God.

"President Steyn's appeal roused the burghers to a pitch of wild enthusiasm."

Soft Nosed Bullets Found.

LADYSMITH, March 22.—It has been ascertained that the accidental removal of stones covering some Boer graves after the fight at Pieter's Hill Feb. 28 revealed thousands of split and soft nosed bullets. Princess Christian's hospital train arrived yesterday morning. It was the first train over the new Colenso bridge. The railroad is now open to Elandslaagte, where a camp has been established. Drakensberg and Biggarsdorf are closely watched by the British cavalry.

Roberts' Proclamation Effective.

MASERU, Basutoland, March 22.—Everybody in Basutoland rejoices in the restoration of telegraphic communication with Aliwal North. The proclamation of Lord Roberts is apparently effective, as the Free Staters are surrendering to the Basutoland officials. The occupation of Thaba Nchu and Rouxville by the British has produced an excellent impression, convincing the Basutos that the authority of the queen is paramount.

DEWEY IN SAVANNAH.

Great Demonstration In His Honor. Presented With a Silver Vase.

SAVANNAH, March 22.—Fifty thousand persons on the streets here yesterday gave Admiral George Dewey an enthusiastic welcome. The admiral had recovered from his indisposition of Tuesday sufficiently to take part in the military parade and reveiw as he rode through the streets with Mrs. Dewey at his side. Ringing cheers rent the air, and waving colors made the scene one to be long remembered.

There were in all 17 out of town organizations. Adding the local militia, there were nearly 4,000 men in line.

The review took place in the park extension, where an admiral's salute was fired by the Chatham artillery from brass pieces presented to the organization by President George Washington. Business public and private was suspended from noon in honor of Admiral Dewey.

The climax of the occasion occurred at the banquet in the De Soto hotel last night, where the admiral was presented with a beautiful silver vase on behalf of the city of Savannah by Hon. F. G. Dubignon. The vase is elegantly engraved and stands nearly three feet high on a marble base.

At the banquet table General Nelson A. Miles, who arrived in the city too late for the military feature, sat next Admiral Dewey. While the main function was in progress a committee of 50 ladies entertained Mrs. Dewey at a banquet in an annex adjoining the banquet hall. Upon the conclusion of the dinner the ladies were accommodated with chairs in the main room that they might hear the speeches. Among the speakers were Judge Emory Speer of the United States court, Surgeon General Wyman, Congressman Brantley of Georgia, ex-Attorney General W. O. Smith of Hawaii and others.

Preparing For the London Council.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The programme committee of the United States and Canada comprising the western section of the Methodist church met here and practically completed a tentative programme of subjects and speakers for the ecumenical conference to be held in London beginning Sept. 4, 1901. This programme will be sent to the representatives of the eastern section in London and if approved will be the programme of the conference. One essay, two invited addresses and a discussion will be the order for each day's proceedings.

Frick-Carnegie Suit Settled.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Frick-Carnegie suit was declared off at Atlantic City, N. J., yesterday. A new company, with a capital of $200,000,000, is to be organized at once. H. C. Frick stays in the Carnegie firm. The new company will establish a number of subsidiary branches. All the coke manufacturing interests owned by Mr. Frick and others allied with the Carnegie interests will be included in the new $200,000,000 company, whose operations will be among the most extensive in the world.

Alabama Coal For Export.

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—An English syndicate of coal dealers is said to have closed a deal by which 2,000,000 tons of Alabama coal are to be delivered at the port of New Orleans for exportation within two years. The purchase price agreed upon in the contract is said to be 75 cents a ton at the mouth of the coal pits. Fifty cents a ton is to be allowed for transportation to New Orleans. The entire 2,000,000 tons are to be reloaded and shipped by steamer at this port.

Guns For Fort Totten.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Two more big guns have arrived at Fort Totten, Willets Point. They are 12 inch rifled cannon, and they are to be mounted on the most approved pattern of disappearing carriages. The guns weigh 60 tons each, fire a projectile weighing 1,200 pounds and have a maximum range of ten miles. The task of placing the new guns in position and mounting them will be begun at once. They complete one of the heavy batteries.

Kansas Corn For India.

CHICAGO, March 22.—F. O. Popenoe, proprietor and manager of the Topeka Daily Capital, said last night that his newspaper would endeavor to perpetuate the Sheldon idea of journalism by collecting 1,000,000 bushels of Kansas corn at once and shipping it to the starving inhabitants of India. Each Kansas farmer will be asked to contribute a load.

Fire In a Hospital.

BUFFALO, March 22.—Fire at midnight burned out the interior of consumptive ward of the Erie County hospital, which is connected with the county almshouse. There were 60 patients in the consumptive ward when the fire broke out. They were carried from the building by attendants, all escaping without injury.

A Common Error.

The Same Mistake Is Made By Many Plainfield People.

It's a common error
To plaster the aching back
To rub with liniment rheumatic joints
When the trouble comes from the kidneys
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
And are endorsed by Plainfield citizens.

Mr. C. E. Hepburn of 123 Duer street formerly of Canada where he first heard of Doan's Kidney Pills says:—"Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement for they cured me of a long standing case of backache which annoyed me very much, especially if I took cold for at such times I was in pretty bad shape. I heard different people speak very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, concluded to try them, got a box from my druggist, Mr. L. W. Randolph and used them according to directions with the above results. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement of a preparation like Doan's Kidney Pills."

THE BLACK WATCH.

Some Services of the Famous Regiment Now in South Africa.

In the battle at Modder river, one of the regiments which suffered severely was the famous "Black Watch." That is not its official name. It figures in the army list as the Royal Highlanders, and it has a record of a century and three-quarters of gallant service. The original Black Watch comprised six companies of picked Highlanders who were enlisted to check the depredations of disaffected Highland clans. They wore the clan tartan of their leaders, consisting mostly of blue and black and green, which gave them the somber aspect from which their popular name originated. Their dark dress was more striking by contrast with the red uniforms of the regular troops.

The regiment first saw foreign service in Flanders, much against its will, for its members had enlisted with the understanding that they would not be sent out of the country. This was in 1743. Thirteen years later it was sent to America, where it took part in the engagements with the French, joined the expedition against Louisburg and fought with great bravery in the battle of Ticonderoga. Later, when war was declared against Spain, a part of the regiment joined in the operations against Havana.

During the present century the regiment has played its part in most of the wars in which England has been engaged—against the French in 1815, in the Crimea, in the Indian mutiny and in Egypt. It carries on its standard such inscriptions as "Egypt," "Pyrenees," "Waterloo," "Alma," "Sevastopol," "Lucknow" and "Telel-Kebir," in commemoration of battles in which it has fought.

When the Black Watch became a regiment of the line, its uniform was a scarlet jacket and waistcoat, a tartan plaid of 12 yards plaited around the middle of the body, tartan hose and a blue bonnet; but in the African service it wears the khaki. It is still made up of men selected for physical strength and courage, who are as proud of the historic marches and battles of their regiment as if they had had a personal share in all its achievements.—Youth's Companion.

The Wonderful Clam.

The clam's body is completely shrouded in the mantle except for two openings, through one of which the foot can be pushed out, while the other is for the siphon—what is commonly known as the "neck" of the clam. In some respects the clam may be better off than other folks; for he has a little brain in his foot. He also has a gland which secretes strong fibers, from which he spins a "byssus," and by it can attach himself to any object he likes. He does not have to search for food, but waits for it to come to him, and it always does. He makes for himself a burrow in the mud or sand and attaches himself to the bottom by this byssus. Then he thrusts his siphon up through the mud and water, and thus maintains communication with his world. The siphon has two tubes, the water flowing through one and out through the other. The clam lives on the minute organisms, animal and vegetable, found in the water—and gets a living that is so satisfactory to him that he has come to be adopted as a type of contentment and happiness.—Rockland Opinion.

SENATORS IN A ROW

Heated Personalities Between Ford and Stranahan.

MUCH TALK OVER A SMALL MATTER

Chairman of the Cities Committee Charged With Favoring Tammany Hall—The Stevens Pure Beer Bill to Be Reported.

ALBANY, March 22.—The attempt of Senator Ford to pass an insignificant bill over the mayor of New York's veto yesterday led to a two hour row in the senate in which heated personalities were exchanged between Senators Ford and Stranahan.

Senator Ford charged that there was an alliance between Senator Stranahan, as chairman of the cities committee, some of his Republican colleagues and Senator Grady, the minority leader.

Governor Roosevelt has signed the bill of Assemblyman Fallows providing that where a corporation has certified that its capital stock has been paid in and that a deficit has been found, the corporation may assess the stockholders within six months of the passage of the act to make up such deficit.

He has also signed the bill of Assemblyman Griffith reappropriating $18,000 and making an additional appropriation of $10,000 for improvements to the state custodian asylum at Rome.

The Stevens pure beer bill, the reference of which caused the debate which resulted in the closed session of the senate on Friday night, will be reported favorably by the senate committee on public health. Four members of the committee, Senators Johnson, Boyce, Krum and Willis, voted to report the measure, Senator Rampsberger opposing it.

The bill provides that all beer containing any material other than pure barley malt, hops or extract of hops, yeast, water or cereal products made only of wheat or corn shall be branded as "inferior."

Adjournment April 6.

ALBANY, March 22.—The conference at Governor Roosevelt's home last night decided that the legislature's earliest adjournment day would be April 6, and an attempt will be made to fix that date as the one for final adjournment.

The Commission Receives.

HAVANA, March 22.—The members of the senate commission devoted all their time yesterday to receiving callers, the main reception room at the palace being placed at their disposal. Governor General Wood had arranged that all the editors who desired to do so should meet the commissioners at noon. Many of them appeared at that hour, and some appeared again separately during the afternoon. In the evening the senators were entertained at dinner by General Chaffee. Today also will be devoted to Havana, and on Friday a special train will take them to Matanzas. It is not probable that the commissioners will go into the eastern provinces.

Rear Admiral Remey Starts.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Rear Admiral George Remey, who will relieve Rear Admiral Watson in command of the naval forces on the Asiatic station, arrived in the city from Portsmouth, N. H., and had a conference with Secretary Long at the navy department. He left here today for San Francisco, where he will take steamer about the 1st prox. for Manila. Rear Admiral Kempff, who will have command of one of the divisions of the Asiatic squadron, composed of vessels assigned particularly to Chinese waters, will accompany the admiral.

A Cannon From Santiago.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—A brilliant spectacle took place in the new City Hall square on the occasion of the presentation to the municipality in trust for the Native Sons of the Golden West of an old Spanish cannon captured by our forces at the fall of Santiago. Major General William R. Shafter presented the gift on behalf of the army of the United States, and Mayor Phelan received it for the people of San Francisco.

A Tempest Tossed Steamer.

NORFOLK, March 22.—The Spanish steamship Minerva, which had been given up for lost after three separate attempts to search for her on the high seas and was finally picked up by a German tramp steamer and towed into Bermuda, has come into port with a hard story of two months of tempest, starvation and helpless drifting at sea. She showed plainly the battering she had received in a number of successive tempests.

Chinese Smugglers Captured.

BUFFALO, March 22.—Customs officials have captured four Chinamen who, it is believed, were smuggled over the Niagara river in a small boat. They were being driven inland from the Niagara frontier to the north of Buffalo in a covered delivery wagon, when the officers pounced on it, capturing the men, who gave the names of Un Quin Fan, Mun Bing, Yan Han Jung and Yan Pang. The driver of the wagon escaped.

Grover Gets Home.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 22.—Former President Grover Cleveland returned to Princeton yesterday afternoon from his two weeks' hunting and fishing excursion in Florida. Mr. Cleveland appeared to be in very good health. His step was elastic and he walked apparently with more ease than when he left Princeton. Mrs. Cleveland met him at the depot.

City of Florence a Total Loss.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Inspector Henry Payne, who visited the scene of the wreck of the British ship City of Florence, reported to Surveyor of Port Spear that the vessel and cargo are a total loss. Only a part of the hull is visible. There was no insurance on the City of Florence, but the cargo of nitrate was insured.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that for the month of February, 1900, the total receipts from all sources were $20,809,665, an increase as compared with the same month in 1899 of $1,160,659.

Dying In California.

BUFFALO, March 22.—A telegram received from Santa Barbara, Cal., states that Hon. Sherman S. Rogers of this city is seriously ill and not expected to recover.

POINTS FOR POTTER.

"Anti" Winslow Lectures the Bishop For His Change of Heart.

BOSTON, March 22.—The statement given out by Bishop Potter of New York recently as to the conditions in the Philippine Islands as he found them during a recent meeting having come to the attention of the officers of the New England Anti-Imperialist league, the following letter, dated Boston, March 21, has been addressed to the bishop by Secretary Winslow.

"It may be well for you to know, in consequence of your early connection with the Anti-Imperialistic league, that this body has strengthened and deepened its conviction that any attempt to conduct an imperial or military government in alien tropical colonies would be inevitably destructive of republican government at home as well as abroad. Exactly the same signs which preceded the downfall of ancient republics that deserted their high ideal for this kind of expansion have already unmistakably manifested themselves in the present government of the United States. The question of republic or empire is distinctly presented to us and will be decided at the next presidential election. No issue of this importance has ever been presented to the people of the United States. The Anti-Imperialistic league proposes to stand loyally by the republic. As for the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands, we have positive reasons for knowing that the elements that composed the admirable congress and administration with which we should have treated 14 months ago still exists and can easily be gathered together in such a manner as to promise a reasonably rapid evolution toward native self government, assisted by American alliance and established by the neutralization of the islands.

"Permit me to demur to the conclusion to which you seem to have arrived in a very short space of time (four days) and under circumstances not quite favorable to fair judgment—the environment of an enemy's camp. The majority of the civilized people of the Philippines, especially the middle class, are neither friendly to the American government nor ready to come under it. Notorious circumstances in the island of Luzon today contradict your inference. We have reason to believe that our opinions are those of the great mass of the common people of America, though the "better" or commercial class with us, as in the Philippines, may be satisfied with what is going on, ignorantly hoping it will bring them "increased prosperity." In short our cause is the cause of the plain people, white or brown, against avarice and ambition hiding under the cloak of pseudo philanthropy."

Our Irish Visitors Return Thanks.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The president has received a copy of a resolution recently adopted unanimously by the municipal council of the city of Dublin, as follows: "Resolved, That this council of the corporation of the city of Dublin place on record its high appreciation of the honor conferred on the lord mayor by the president of the United States on the occasion of his recent visit to Washington and the warm reception extended to him, and also to the governors of the states and mayors who granted him the freedom of the several cities, to the governor of the navy yard at Brooklyn and generally to the citizens of the United States for their generous hospitality."

A George Washington Letter.

PRINCETON, March 22.—The university library has recently come into possession of an autograph letter of General George Washington written from White Plains, N. Y., and dated Aug. 9, 1778. The letter is addressed to Colonel Shreve of the Second New Jersey regiment, which was stationed at Elizabethtown, N. J. It concerns the movement of the British troops in and near Philadelphia and is of special value since it belongs to a series, a part of which is already in possession of the library. Millard F. Cornwell of Red Bank, N. J., presented the letter to the university.

Seventy-four Deaths Per Month.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The war department officials deny recently published statements that General Otis' campaign is costing upward of 1,000 men every month. According to the official records since the American occupation of the Philippines, June 1, 1898, up to Feb. 17, 1900, the date of the last official compilation, the actual mortality in the army in the Philippines was 65 officers and 1,460 men, a total of 1,525, or at the rate of 74 deaths a month.

Pugilist Jackson Goes Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Peter Jackson, ex-champion heavyweight pugilist, has sailed for his old home in Australia on the steamer Mariposa. Jackson through ill health is but a shadow of his former self and goes back to Australia with the expectation that the change of climate will prolong his life and possibly restore him to robust health.

GOLDEN KEEPS SHADY.

He Denies Certain Alleged Statements—Combs Not Hiding.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 22.—F. W. Golden is the cynosure of all eyes in the Goebel murder investigation. He slipped into Lexington, kept himself hidden and was under surveillance of detectives all day yesterday, defeating the purpose of all except friends to see him. He left at evening by buggy, presumably for Winchester, accompanied only by a detective. He was absolutely inaccessible to outsiders and to friends even was silent as a sphinx.

According to Dr. A. C. Foster and H. M. Steele of London, Ky., who are here, Golden denies having told a portion of what is attributed to him. He explained that he probably was drinking and talked too much.

To Steele Golden said, "Rumors going over the country are all a lie."

Judge Robert Fields of Perry county came here from Beattyville. On the train he made a statement that he was in Beattysville, the home of "Tallow" Dick Combs. Yesterday he went to the barber shop where Combs works and heard Combs say that he was not hiding or in any way trying to avoid arrest, that he was at work every day and would make no attempt to escape if the officers wanted him. He said he could prove where he was every hour of the day on which Goebel was killed and that he was not afraid of the consequences.

To Save Kentucky's Honor.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 22.—A meeting was held here yesterday attended by leading citizens of this city and surrounding cities whose object was to put on foot a nonpartisan move to retrieve the lost reputation of Kentucky due to the present complicated state of affairs. A similar move is on foot in Louisville and Covington. So far the work is being done with more or less secrecy. It was decided to issue an address to all counties in the state calling conventions to select delegates April 20 to a state convention to be held in Louisville April 24. Beyond this nothing definite was done.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Valuable copper deposits have been found near Canton, Pa.

President Romano of Peru was reported about to free all political prisoners.

The Astoria (Or.) city council put a bounty on rats as a precaution against the plague.

Thirty employees of a printing company were injured by the falling of an elevator in Chicago.

Premier Laurier of Canada announced that the joint high commission would reassemble at a date to be announced shortly.

A bill was introduced in the state senate at Trenton repealing the law authorizing the merger of the Erie and Susquehanna railroads.

It was announced in Berlin that the American warship sent to Taku would join those of other powers in a naval demonstration in Chinese waters.

Exempt From Civil Service.

ALBANY, March 22.—The state civil service commission, at the request of the state board of tax commissioners, has placed in the class exempt from examination the positions of one confidential appraiser and six confidential special agents who are to be employed in ascertaining and appraising the value of special franchises. The salary of the appraiser is fixed at $3,600 per annum and that of each of the special agents at $1,800. The position of resident physician at the Elmira reformatory, at the request of the officials of that institution, has been placed in the exempt schedule.

Prairie Crew at the Play.

ROUEN, France, March 22.—The officers and crew of the United States auxiliary cruiser Prairie, which has been used to transport the United States exhibits for the Paris exposition, were present last evening at a performance of the opera "Siegfried" at the Theatre des Arts on the invitation of the municipality. The American national anthem, followed by the "Marseillaise," was played before the rise of the curtain, and the audience cheered the sailors, who were delighted with the experience.

Irish Commoners Independent.

LONDON, March 22.—At a meeting of Irish Nationalist members of the house of commons, Mr. John Redmond presiding, it was agreed that the Irish commoners should not be allowed hereafter to pair with either Liberals or Unionists. This action is a recurrence to the independent attitude of the Irish party under Mr. Parnell's leadership and is calculated greatly to increase the fighting influence of the organization in parliament.

More Time For Shipbuilders.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The secretary of the navy has granted shipbuilding concerns engaged in the construction of about 40 torpedo boat destroyers and torpedo boats an extension of one year's time for the completion of their contracts. This action was taken in consequence of the unforeseen difficulties of securing the necessary high grade structural steel for the vessels as promptly as was expected.

Louisiana Purchase Celebration.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Representative Lane of Iowa has introduced a bill providing for an exposition at St. Louis in 1903 to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the purchase of the Louisiana territory. The bill provides for a government building to cost $400,000 and also for the expenditure of $5,000,000 by the government when the exposition authorities have raised $10,000,000.

To Examine Foot Doctors.

ALBANY, March 22.—The committee on general laws of the assembly has reported Mr. Gardiner's bill, amended, which provides for the creation of a state board of examiners on chiropody and for the licensing of chiropodists. The amendment reduces the penalty to be imposed on conviction for fraudulent practice from $1,000 to $500.

Smallpox on the Pawnee.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The British steamer Pawnee, which arrived yesterday from Mediterranean ports via Bermuda with smallpox among her crew, is detained at quarantine for a thorough disinfection. The three smallpox patients were promptly removed to Reception hospital.

LOUD BILL AMENDED

Its Passage Seems Certain Without Further Change.

ALLEGED CONCESSIONS IN CAPE NOME

Friends of the Porto Rico Tariff Bill In the Senate Express Confidence. Attempts to Amend the Estates Treaty Fail.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—During the debate in the house yesterday on the Loud bill relating to second class mail matter there was a sharp exchange between Mr. McPherson (Rep.) of Iowa and Mr. Lentz (Dem.) of Ohio over a charge made by the former that the latter was the attorney of the lobby which is fighting the bill. Otherwise the debate was without incident. Both the friends and opponents of the measure express the belief that the vote today will be close. Mr. Loud has agreed to accept two amendments, one to increase the number of sample copies which newspapers can send out at second class rates from 500 to 2,000 and the other to limit the provision requiring newspapers to separate their mail to those having in excess of 5,000 circulation. These are all the concessions he will make. He says the debate has strengthened the bill, and he believes it will pass.

Upon the authority of the governor of Alaska Mr. Turner of Washington made the statement in the senate that concessions for gold mining in the bed of the sea near Cape Nome, Alaska, had been granted by the secretary of war, and upon that statement he based a resolution of inquiry. Senator Turner said if such a grant had been made it was "a shame, a reproach and a scandal." The resolution was agreed to.

In a few minutes and without discussion the additional urgent deficiency bill was passed with one or two other measures of importance.

Mr. Allison gave notice that he would call up today the conference report on the Porto Rico appropriation bill.

The friends of the Porto Rico tariff bill in the senate are more confident than ever that they will be able to pass the measure. It is claimed that the quiet work which the harmony committee has been doing is having effect and that the opponents of the tariff are not so determined as they were a short time ago. The argument is being made that this being a Republican measure it ought not to be defeated by Republican votes.

In the executive session of the senate two efforts to amend the treaty between the United States and Great Britain relative to the disposition of estates were defeated by very decisive votes. One of the amendments offered was to strike out section 5 of the agreement extending the same privilege to each of the two nations in the matter of acquiring or holding property that may be extended to any other nations. The motion to amend was lost—17 to 30. The other proposed amendment related to the striking out of the provision authorizing the queen of Great Britain or the president of the United States to extend the provisions of the treaty to the dependencies of the two countries. This also was lost on a vote of about the same proportions as the other.

Kruger, Not the Queen, Burned.

WINNIPEG, March 22.—The recent reports from Gretna and Altona, in Manitoba, stating that the Mennonites in that vicinity had attempted to burn the queen in effigy are denied by the citizens of those towns. Julius Siemens, a well known banker, says: "I am in a position to say positively that no such thought was ever entertained by any Mennonite in the Mennonite settlement. The only occurrence along this line was the burning of Oom Paul Kruger in effigy by half a dozen Englishmen, with no sign of any opposition from any source."

Bond Exchange Not Compulsory.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Yesterday's receipts of old government bonds for exchange for new 2 per cents amounted to $18,850,300, making a total to date of $105,860,300. The receipts from individuals to date aggregate $6,610,850. In answer to a large number of inquiries which are being received the department wishes it again stated that the exchange of old bonds for the new ones is in no sense compulsory. Persons holding the old bonds may keep them until maturity if they so desire.

Charges Against a Sheriff.

ALBANY, March 22.—Charges of malfeasance, misfeasance and nonfeasance in the discharge of the duties of his office have been brought against John M. Hulett, sheriff of Washington county. Governor Roosevelt has issued an order requiring Sheriff Hulett to make answer within 14 days why he should not be removed from office. The charges allege that Hulett presented padded bills of expenses to the board of supervisors in 1898 and 1899.

Settled Out of Court.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 22.—The Shelton Street Railway company has settled the last of the claims resulting from the disaster at Peck's mill pond last August. Heirs of Irving Dorus of this city received about $3,000, and Miss M. Farrell of Brooklyn, who lost a leg, received about $10,000. In all 40 claims have been settled without resort to the courts.

Fire In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The large five story building at the northwest corner of Third and Race streets, owned and occupied by Alfred F. Moore, manufacturer of insulated wire, was completely destroyed by fire last night. Moore's loss will aggregate $175,000; fully insured.

Olsen Too Much For Roeber.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Beck Olsen of Copenhagen won from Ernest Roeber in the heavyweight championship wrestling match last night. Each man got a fall, but Roeber was unable to come to time at the end of the second bout.

To Extend Carrier Registration.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Beginning next month 73 additional postoffices will inaugurate the system of registering letters by carriers. The new system then will be in operation in 307 cities.

Refuse It.

There is a well-defined report in circulation about the city that strong influences are working to secure favorable action by the Common Council upon the application of John Mortimer for a wholesale liquor license to be operated on Park avenue. Having already taken the position that no more such licenses are required for the best interests of the city, the Common Council will be placed in a highly inconsistent position should it go ahead at this time and grant this latest application—even though powerful political influnces are favorable to it.

Further than this point of view, it is intended to locate this new place next door to an old established licensed saloon, while directly opposite another established liquor business is carried on. Within a half block there are three other barrooms. The argument that there is necessity or demand for another licensed place at this proposed location is not justified by a knowledge of the present condition of affairs. The Council should refuse.

Mayor Smalley took occasion in his annual message, presented to the Borough Council Monday night, to indulge in a few felicitous observations about the municipality and its attractions for those who reside there, as well as tending to induce others to take up their residence in the place. It was all in good taste and opportune. North Plainfield has many features that need only to be exploited by her citizens to act as magnets for the coming of others. Of course, if this is done, then the material interests of the borough are greatly enhanced. The Mayor's admonition to his constituents to speak a good word for their home town among their out-of town friends was timely and practical advice.

August Belmont, at the head of the syndicate that will finance the construction of the New York Rapid Transit tunnel, has had the life of John B. McDonald insured for $2,000,000, the largest insurance ever placed on the life of one man. The premiums will amount to $90,000 a year for the five years that the policies—divided among several companies—are to run. The amount is regarded as a measure of the value placed on Mr. McDonald's services.

The curfew law bobs up persistently to worry and vex the City Fathers of Vineland. The anti-curfewites claim that in the election of Councilmen Bray and Winslow they now have a working majority in the Council, and Dr. J. S. Halsey, the leader of the anti's, says he will introduce a repealer for the curfew ordinance. He declares that the law, though not enforced, will continue a laughing stock and disgrace to the town until erased from the books.

The annual report of the condition and the needs of the public schools in North Plainfield, compiled and presented at the meeting of the voters by S. St. John McCutchen, president of the Board of Education, was interesting reading for the people of the borough. The report was written in excellent form, and contains information and argument that every taxpayer should acquaint himself with.

In the election of John H. VanWinkle as a member of the Borough Board of Education a thoroughly capable and efficient man has been chosen. The honors came unsolicited. Mr. VanWinkle has served one term in the Board and displayed unusual ability and judgment as a School Commissioner. He will no doubt be a valuable acquisition to the present Board.

The first step in carrying out the project of a big industrial exhibition in Newark, for 1902, has been taken by President Jenkinson, of the Newark Board of Trade, who has named a special committee to consider the practicability of the scheme and lay ways and means before the Board. The idea ought and probably will be carried out successfully.

Three young men in Trenton served ten hours in jail on conviction of having conducted gambling joints; two days later a New Brunswick man was sentenced to seventy-one minutes in the bastile for assault and battery. The old time view of Jersey justice will have to be fitted to new conditions.

The Elizabeth Journal speaks of Plainfield's proposed municipal building as "the town hall." Shades of all things that are proper, why this insult? Just contemplate the meanness of that sarcastic, sneering thrust!

Leaving out the question of a wide open door, it appears that the Porto Ricans are to be denied even a small peak hole for their products to slide through into the markets of the world.

Speaking of pocket boroughs, it looks as though the Rockfellows carried Tarrytown around in their vests.

The man with a light pocketbook trembles and wonders what his wife will say everytime he passes a millinery store these days.

A corner in the stock market is never "on the square."

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Jim Martine is to be a delegate-at-large to the Democratic convention in Kansas City. Jim may be an improvement on the McDermott stripe of delegates which have hitherto represented New Jersey Democrats, but he won't make the "shrouded rest" of Joel Parker and George B. McClellan any more comfortable.—New Brunswick Home News.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

All an Accident.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Allow me to inform the public through the columns of your paper that the statement in reference to the shooting of Lawrence Kitlyhs in the eyes with an ammonia pistol, which has appeared in the several newspapers, is decidedly wrong. On starting for Sunday-school I forgot to remove the pistol from my pocket. After the school was dismissed Lawrence wanted to see it, but I told him not to handle it for it was loaded. He then tried to force it from my hands and in doing so fired it off. I had no desire to do the boy harm, for we have always been friends. It is my desire that my friends and the public in general should understand the truth of this affair, and I wish all papers which have copied it would please correct the statement. Respectfully,
William Guest.

BOYS' MISSION BAND ELECT.

Quite a Sum of Money Raised During the Past Year.

The annual meeting of the Boys' Mission Band was held yesterday afternoon in the large parlor of the Crescent Avenue church. A report of the year's work was presented by the secretary, Richard Lovell, showing that the average attendance at the monthly meetings had been larger than that of the year before as well as the sum raised for foreign missons.

During the year $120 has been sent to the boys' schools at Peking, China; Lodiana, India, and Baraquilla, Colombia.

The following officers were elected: Ames Brooks, president; Brockholst Miller, vice-president; Richard Lovell, secretary, and Wickham Corwin, treasurer.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

THE CARPET STORE.

We refer to it THE Carpet store for we know of no other this side of N. Y. that compares favorably with it. At present a busy place. By comparing goods and prices with those of N. Y. houses people have discovered that reliable and desirable carpets can be bought cheaper here than in N. Y. Our purchases we made early, before the rise in prices, which enables us to hold the price down pretty well, but on all duplicate orders we are compelled to pay the advance and some grades must be sold at a higher figure. Our advice may be safely taken. It is—buy now—or pay higher prices later.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 22—The petition which was circulated here protesting against the repairing of the old schoolhouse, did good work at the meeting Tuesday in New Market. The idea was abandoned and the School Board was instructed to call a special meeting in the near future to vote for bonding the township to raise money to build a new building this season. The people of South Plainfield feel grateful to the New Market voters for coming to their aid in this time of need, and they trust they will stand by them in the coming election.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, March 22—The annual school meeting at Westfield Tuesday night was a tame affair in comparison to the meetings of other years. The appropriation asked for by the Board, amounting to $17,000, was adopted without dissent, and the retiring members of the Board, John Green, James O. Clark and John J. Coger, were re-elected without opposition.

At the Cranford school meeting the three members of the Board of Education, whose terms expire, were re-elected — James Ferguson, Robert C. Plum and Jasper C. Hunt. An appropriation of $1,700 was voted to erect a schoolhouse at New Orange.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

One of the results of the occupation of Cuba by the American soldiers has been to give the Cubans some rather new and startling ideas concerning entertainments. A letter recently received from Fred W. Bowden, formerly of this city, and now a member of the regimental band of the Second United States Cavalry, quartered at Santa Clara, Cuba, tells how Uncle Sam's boys at that point gave the natives a vaudeville entertainment and concert that has been the talk of the town ever since. The occasion of the affair was a grand testimonial to the bandmaster, John H. Scully. Bowden sent copies of the programme in both English and Spanish. The programme was a varied one and was decidedly American. There were the usual musical selections, Bowden taking part in several of the selections given by a quartette. There was a cakewalk and two glove contests to give the Cubans some idea what a real prize fight was like. Then a wrestling match was held and some of the soldier boys did various gymnastic stunts. The programme ended with a farce by five of the cavalrymen.

Governor Voorhees has all sorts of troubles that come to him as a result of his official position. One of them is the countless host of invitations from all over the State to all sorts and kinds of meetings. He cannot possibly attend even a small majority of them but it is necessary to reply to them all. Occasionally, the Governor learns from some of the newspapers that he was present at some of these functions when it happened that the Governor was many miles from the place at the hour mentioned. Such a thing occurred last Friday evening. The Governor was invited to attend the Somerset County Bar Association's banquet. He was unable to be present but next morning several of the New York newspapers came out with the announcement that Governor Voorhees was at Somerville the night before and spoke at the banquet. The Governor was probably interested to learn some facts about himself that he didn't know before. That happens to be one of the inevitable results of being Chief Executive of the State, and Foster M. Voorhees will have to put up with it as long as he fills the place.

Miss Sophia Wilson has returned to her home at Millington, after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Carman, of Elmwood place, is detained at home by illness. Dr. Jenkins is in attendance.

Patrolman Morris Higgins, of the city police force, is off duty for a few days on account of illness.

The resignation of Frank Smith, organist of the Crescent Avenue church, takes effect May 1st.

J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, is home from Lehigh University for a few days vacation.

Mrs. Zeisz, of Chatham street, underwent an operation at the hospital on Tuesday which was very successful.

Substitute Letter-carrier Thorn has been doing regular duty for several days while other carriers have been off.

Miss May MacLoughlin, of Somerset street, will entertain the whist club, of which she is a member, this evening.

Hiram Humes, of East Second street, is unable to attend to his duties at Laire's hardware store on account of illness.

Wm. Hepburn, of East Second street, who has been quite ill for two weeks, is steadily improving under the care of Dr. Jenkins.

Mrs. Robert Randolph, of Elmwood place, will take up her residence on West Fifth street next week Tuesday, having sold her place where she now resides.

Mrs. Wellington White, who spoke last Tuesday at the Crescent Avenue church on missions, will speak at the First Presbyterian church next Monday afternoon.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Three new scholars entered the Plainfield Business College this week.

—Twelve persons will be baptized at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening.

—The third rank is to be conferred at the meeting of Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, tomorrow night.

—Former Councilman A. C. Stebbins expects to move into his handsome new residence on West Eighth street next week.

—Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening. There will be initiatory work to be done.

—J. B. Mills has rented one of his houses, 77 Summit avenue, to Mrs. Margaret Campbell, of Somerville. She will take possession next week.

—The chairmen of the various committees of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will be announced at the meeting tomorrow evening.

—William Pangborn, the mason, will start the work in a few days of erecting the foundation for the new house which is to be erected by Otto Ahrens in Woodland Park.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a picnic this evening in the lecture room. Each lady attending will be expected to bring a box of lunch.

—The Endeavor sociable at Trinity Reformed church tonight promises to be a very enjoyable affair. There will be new and novel features introduced, and each lady will bring lunch for two persons.

—The Mozart Comedy Quartettee will be the attraction at the Y. M. C. A. next Thursday evening. This will be an extra affair. Besides the excellent musical selections provided the Edison projectoscope will be used to show a series of moving pictures. The Mozart Quartette will also introduce some clever songs of the day.

ıchrichten aus der en Heimath.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. In dem neuen Eisenbahngesetz werden 7,820,000 Mark für die Vermehrung des Fahrbetriebsmaterials der Staatsbahn gefordert.—Neckar, Kocher, Jagst, Sulm, Ohm und andere Flüsse und Bäche waren jüngst in Folge Hochwassers aus ihren Ufern getreten. In Cehringen standen die Altstadt und ein Theil der Neustadt unter Wasser, so daß Nothbrücken errichtet werden mußten. Auf dem Bodensee wurde die Schifffahrt ganz eingestellt. Beträchtlichen Schaden hat der Sturmwind in den Wäldern angerichtet.

Göppingen. Schullehrer K. Rüste feierte sein 50jähriges Amtsjubiläum.

Heidenheim. Die Ehefrau Katharina Hiller vergiftete ihre 2½jährigen Zwillingstöchter. Eheliche Auseinandersetzungen wegen dieser Kinder, die von der Frau bereits in die Ehe gebracht wurden, veranlaßten die That.

Heilbronn. Gemeinderath Auber, bekannt durch seine Kämpfe mit Hegelmaier, ist gestorben.

Wurmberg. Der frühere Schultheiß August Kuppinger wurde wegen der Unterschlagung von Mündelgeldern in Höhe von 70 Mark zu drei Wochen Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Die Budgetkommission der zweiten Kammer gewährte 50,000 Mark zwecks staatlicher Unterstützung der Gewerbetreibenden und Arbeiter zum Besuch der Pariser Weltausstellung.—Angehörige des Karlsruher Hoftheaters, darunter auch der Generalmusikdirektor Mottl, hatten seit längerer Zeit Briefe unfläthigsten Inhaltes erhalten. Als Verfasserin der Briefe wurde nun Frau Hagen, die 15 Jahre am Hoftheater als tüchtige Choristin thätig war, ermittelt. Sie erhielt einen Monat Gefängniß.

Durlach. Auf der Straßenbahnstrecke Karlsruhe-Durlach verkehren seit Kurzem die Kurzzüge alle 20 Minuten elektrisch; nur die großen Arbeiterzüge werden noch mit Lokomotiven befördert.

Heidelberg. An der hiesigen Universität hat eine Deutsch-Amerikanerin, Fräulein Erla Hittle, ihr Doktorexamen mit dem ungewöhnlichen Prädikat „summa cum laude“ gemacht. Diese Auszeichnung wird Examinanden nur selten zu Theil.

Mannheim. Der wegen Unterschlagung von 20,000 Mark verfolgte Angestellte der Engelhardt'schen Tapetenfabrik, Friedrich Sattler, ist in München verhaftet worden.

Säckingen. Hier wird noch im Monat Juni d. J. das Scheffeldenkmal eingeweiht werden. Es sind bis jetzt rund 17,000 Mark eingegangen, wozu die hiesige Stadtgemeinde noch 2000 bis 3000 Mark beisteuern wird.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Der alt-elsässische Dichter und Schriftsteller Johann Christian Hackenschmidt ist im Alter von 91 Jahren an Altersschwäche gestorben.

Kolmar. Wegen anarchistischer Umtriebe wurde der hier wohnhafte Schneider Rafaele Macaro aus den Reichslanden ausgewiesen.

Mülhausen. Der Spezereiwaarenhändler Müller-Gros hat seine Frau, die ein Liebesverhältniß mit dem ebenfalls verheiratheten Angestellten Mundwiller unterhielt, erschossen.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Für den Monat Januar d. J. ergab sich für die Monarchie bei einer Waareneinfuhr zum Werthe von 140,300,000 Kronen eine Ausfuhr von 131,200,000 Kronen, gegen 129,900,000 Kronen beziehungsweise 127,800,000 Kronen im gleichen Monat des Vorjahres.—Von Rudolph Ritter v. Gutmann ist dem Wiener Volksbildungsverein der ansehnliche Betrag von 20,000 Kronen als Spende zugewiesen worden.—Gestorben sind hierorts das Herrenhausmitglied Heinrich Graf Brandis, sowie der Prälat Dr. Leopold Stöger. Brandis stand im 79. Lebensjahre.

Greifenburg. Hier wurde der allgemein beliebte deutsche Wirth Alexander Pacher von einem Italiener Namens Leoni rücklings angefallen und erstochen. Leoni hatte geäußert, er müsse einige Deutsche umbringen. Der Mörder wurde verhaftet.

Lermoos. Die beiden Gemeinden Lermoos und Ehrwald haben gegen die Einführung eines regelmäßigen Automobilverkehrs zwischen Lermoos und Garmisch protestirt, weil sich zu beiden Seiten der Fahrstraße Viehweiden befinden.

Meran. Hierorts erfolgte die Verhaftung des aus Düsseldorf nach Veruntreuung von 100,000 Mark geflüchteten Karl Roßler; er hatte 11,500 Kronen, 5000 Francs und 600 Mark bei einem Innsbrucker Bankhause deponirt und nur 80 Pfennige bei sich.

Poisdorf. In unserem Orte hat sich zur Errichtung eines würdigen Denkmals für die 1866 gefallenen und hier beerdigten preußischen Soldaten ein Ausschuß gebildet. Der aus freiwilligen Beiträgen zu errichtende Obelisk soll zu Pfingsten des nächsten Jahres enthüllt werden.

THE WORK OF WOMEN.

Some of the Things They Are Doing and Saying.

The young girl who invented pepsin gum is now the bride of a Boston tailor. She has made the comfortable fortune of $300,000 from her discovery, and money is still flowing in as freely as ever.

A grandniece of Martha Washington lies ill and blind in a little mountain cabin in Lower California. Mrs. Minerva Abbot is the grandchild of Mary Dandridge, who was the sister of Martha Washington. She is now 80 years old and very feeble.

One of the most interesting Sunday school classes in St. Louis is composed of some 200 little children, none of whom is over 6 years of age. Mrs. J. H. King, a young matron, has worked wonders with them. She has introduced a new feature into this kindergarten work—namely, pretty little movement songs. Keeping the restless children in action has been the keynote of her success.

Since Mrs. Ferrough and her sister-in-law arrived in Washington they have not been able to leave the harem apartments without incurring unseemly publicity. The Turkish minister is seeking an out of town residence in the neighborhood of Chevy Chase that will afford the exclusive quarters necessary for his wife and sister. One of the joys among fashionable femininity this spring will be the "at homes" of Mrs. Ferrough at the country legation of the Turkish minister.

The new dean of the woman's hall of the Northwestern university, Mrs. Emily Huntington Miller, has been engaged in literary and educational work since 1872. She has also been prominent in woman's work at Chautauqua. Her verses for children have made her name a household word.

The grandniece of Macaulay, Mrs. Beatrice Potter Webb, is working with her husband in gathering statistics for a "History and Analysis of Local Government," which is to be published in 1904. The history will not be completed until 1912.

The Countess of Strafford, formerly Mrs. J. Colgate of New York, sailed from Liverpool for this country on the White Star liner Oceanic on March 7. She will be entertained by her relatives in New York city.

Mrs. Ormiston Chant, the champion of woman suffrage and the rights of women in general, recently opened a debate on the question, "Ought sex to be a legal disability?" She is recently quoted as saying, "Had I been colonial secretary I would have seen to it that women were sent out to Cape Town to look after the comfort of the women and children refugees whose treatment on their voyage to England was a scandal."

Among the few society women who are anxious to visit Cape Nome is Mrs. Monroe Salisbury of San Francisco. She will probably accompany her husband and son in May, when they leave for the mining city.

A woman constable is one of the progressive features associated with the majesty of the law in Detroit. Miss Fitzsimmons has been wonderfully successful in serving warrants where men constables have failed.

Queen Victoria is intensely indignant at the marriage of Mrs. Penn Symons, widow of the general who was killed at the battle of Glencoe under tragic circumstances. The queen had secured for Mrs. Symons by special royal warrant an extra pension and residence in the royal household.

With one who was graduated from the University of Michigan and was later honored with the Greek chair at Smith college and afterward a graduate from the American School of Archæology at Athens rests the distinction of being the only American woman that has ever ascended the Matterhorn in Switzerland. Miss Peck has also climbed the Presidential range in New Hampshire.

An athletic club for men and women of the smart set of New York is soon to be established. Mrs. Pauline H. Lyon of Chicago, who is at the head of the movement, hopes to make athletes of the Four Hundred.

The Crown Princess Stephanie of Belgium is to wed the Hungarian Count Elemer Lonyay at the Austria-Hungarian embassy in London on March 20. The marriage is strenuously opposed by King Leopold, and unless he relents the crown princess will be unable to retain her title of royal highness and upon her marriage will become a plain everyday countess.

Americans have already carried the club idea into Porto Rico. "The American club," though its members consist of both men and women, has chosen for its president a woman whose maiden home was in Philadelphia. The object of the club is "social culture and mutual improvement." The club has already erected an almshouse for street beggars.

BICYCLES and MOTORS

THE WOMAN'S VEHICLE.

Automobiles and Motor Carriages Give New Advantages in Every Walk of Life.

Women have taken possession of the automobile as something distinctively within their province. There are at present in the city of Chicago 12 ladies who are entitled to classification as full-fledged automobile operators, since they regularly make trips about the city in automobiles, unattended or accompanied only by lady friends. In New York city there are twice as many. The city of Philadelphia has two or three automobilists, and upward of a score of other ladies are found in the smaller communities throughout the country. Several women physicians in various sections of the country are already using automobiles regularly in making their professional calls, and the new mode of travel has so many advantages that it is certain of a very general adoption. Two classes of women to whom the automobile will mean much—strange though it may appear at first thought—are the professional nurses in the hospitals and kindergarten teachers in the large cities. The automobile ambulance, with its greater speed and reduced jarring and jolting of patients, will indirectly prove helpful in many ways to the white-aproned workers in wards of suffering. To the kindergarten instructors the horseless vehicles will prove a great convenience in returning the little pupils to their respective homes. One benefit it will confer, which will doubtless be appreciated to a greater or less extent by pretty nearly every woman in the land, is in the improvement of the postal service. Especially will this be true in the rural districts, where the automobile will do much to hasten the day of universal delivery, and will be best appreciated by farmers' wives and daughters who have experienced the disadvantages of life in isolated districts.—Walden Fawcett, in Woman's Home Companion.

NEW COASTER BRAKE.

Enables the Wheelman to Hold His Feet on Pedals While the Machine Spins Along.

At the big cycle and automobile show in Madison Square garden the most marked departure in wheel construction was the coaster brake, says the New York Herald. This device is shown by half a score of exhibitors, and is fitted to both chain and chainless bicycles. Its action is very simple, and excepting the brake spoon and its connecting rod, all the apparatus is contained in the rear hub.

The coaster brake enables the rider to cease pedaling on down grades or at any time when a sufficient degree of speed has been attained, the wheel continuing to coast along while the feet are held stationary on the pedals at any convenient position. A first slight backward pressure on the pedals throws them free and a second pressure draws the brake spoon against the tire with a force easily graduated and controlled, according to the needs of the situation.

The art of using the coaster brake is learned quickly, though the first tendency of the beginner is to put too strong a pressure on the pedals, thereby bringing the wheel to a sudden stop. In such cases the rider is apt to be thrown against the handle bars of his machine.

The device has been experimented with for several months, and it is claimed has stood the most exciting tests of hard usage on rough roads. It adds scarcely any weight to a wheel and is supplied when ordered at a small additional cost.

Many Uses for Old Cycles.

There are many uses to which an old cycle can be put. It is said that a theater manager has made a rather excellent chandelier out of his old wheel. He also uses an old tricycle for producing the effect of wind, hail and railway trains. A navvy is said to have made a clock almost all out of parts of an old machine. The bell strikes the hours and a length of solid rubber tire holds the pendulum, which is a bicycle fork. At one small place a man has turned a discarded wheel into a kind of pump and the tires do duty for the pump hose. Another has made a treadle sewing machine out of his wheel. A grocer has turned part of a cycle into a coffee grinding machine, and a bell-ringer, being rather feeble in the arm, has an old cycle which he has raised and fixed in one position, and so, by a pulley arrangement, he can, when gently pedaling, ring the bell vigorously. Many folks use their old wheels for flower stands and there is a man who is making quite a decent living by turning old bicycles into conveyances on which washerwomen can take home the weekly load.

RUSSIA AND PERSIA.

Muscovite Intriguers Are Planning a Momentous Coup.

How the Czar Proposes to Absorb the Shah's Dominions—The Russian Advance Toward the Borders of India.

[Special Correspondence.]

THE most important international topic of the day is the hold which Russia has within the last few months gained in ancient Persia. England is so occupied at present with the Boers that she is giving less than her usual attention to her eastern affairs and has left Herat, considered the key to the territory bordering on her East Indian possessions, exposed to danger from a Russian invasion. This city has figured prominently in the history of the world from the time of Alexander to the present, and has withstood many sieges. It is four-sided and surrounded by mud walls 30 feet high, each less than a mile in length. If held by trained soldiers any native attack could be repulsed, but it could offer very little resistance to the guns of a civilized foe. Its possession has caused two wars for England, one with Persia and one with Afghanistan. The territory surrounding it is the only region in Afghanistan in which the soil repays the labor of tilling, and from its earliest history Herat has been the point of supply for all the adjoining territories. Because of the physical features of the country, which is very mountainous, Herat is the natural center from which the roads of southern Asia radiate and its position is of the utmost importance from a strategic point of view. It is now principally interesting, however, because it is the only gateway through which India could be attacked by Russia. The only route by which a large army could be despatched is via Herat, Farah, Girishk and Kandahar. Forty years ago Russia's boundary was hundreds of miles away, and her pledges to keep her proper distance were readily accepted, as any hostile move could be easily repulsed.

Russian acquisitions since that time have given her a fort within 60 miles of Herat. Her troops are being massed on the Persian border, and while two marches would enable them to surround the city, it would take the British soldiers, 530 miles distant, a month to reach Herat, which is garrisoned by only four cavalry and five infantry regiments, with 35 old-fashioned cannon on the walls. The attention of the British government has been repeatedly called to the importance of securing this city against Russia. The ameers of Afghanistan have, again and again, received pledges from the GATE TO A PERSIAN CITY.

English that their country would be preserved independent of Russian encroachments. For this reason English counsels have been allowed to dominate Afghan affairs.

But if Russia should conclude to march against Herat how will it be possible to thwart her designs when a movement of British troops in that direction now would probably precipitate an attack? Plausible Russia is still talking pacifically, as usual, to hold the general attention as much as possible away from the moves she is making, for her conversation is seldom in accord with her deeds.

It is a well-known fact that for years Russia has coveted Persia, not only that it is valuable in itself, but because of the advantages which would accrue from possessing its frontier.

It is pretty generally believed that the recent loan of 11,000,000 rubles to Persia, secured by a mortgage on the customs and a concession to lay railways over the country, while seeming innocent enough, covers a scheme very different from what appears on the surface. The watchfulness of England has alone prevented Russia from absorbing Persia long ago, hence the Muscovite government has been compelled to satisfy itself by obtaining bits of the eastern and northern frontiers, more by intrigue than war.

Dazzling stories have always been told of the wealth of Persia. During the last reign there was such an accumulation as could not have been so soon dissipated. When Muzafar-ed-Deen, the present shah, was crown prince, his residence was near the Russian frontier. His older brother, Zelee Sultan, desired the throne, and it is thought the prince agreed to be a vassal to Russia if the czar would make his rule assured. The loan is probably intended to deceive the world to which the true condition of affairs will become gradually apparent. Russian officers have drilled the Persian army, and the troops are accustomed to act under their orders. Doubtless, if Persia passes, in time, entirely under Russian rule, both countries will be benefited. Persia by more rapid progress in civilization and improved facilities (for the Persian merchants are shrewd money makers and care little who governs them so long as their business prospers), and Russia by the acquisition of a half million square miles of desirable territory, 9,000,000 of new subjects, the advancement of her frontier and a coast with ports from which India is easily accessible.

Russia has always manipulated affairs so that other nations have never been able to obtain railway concessions in Persia. Now she will cover the country with a complete network of railroads. They will develop its resources, but the advantage will belong to Russia, although doubtless American engineers will construct them. The merchant fleets of Russia have sailed the Caspian sea for years, but since the treaty of Turkomantchai no Persian has been allowed to display the flag of his country there, nor have European goods for a long time been allowed transit to Persia. Traders have been compelled to go around through Turkish Armenia. Thus has a market for Russian manufactures been secured in Persia.

One great reason for the seizure of Africa by Great Britain is the necessity for depending on the Suez canal for the quick transport of goods to India. England must have independent ports south of Suez for means of easy communication. The safety of her merchant marine is also the reason for her anxiety to prevent Russian ships coming from the Black sea to threaten Suez. But all previous precautions for the protection of India will avail little if Russia obtains control of the Persian gulf and seaports, almost at the OLD PERSIAN PRAYING TOWER.

Indian border. Great Britain will be compelled to maintain vast fleets for the protection of her merchant ships. The fleets of Russia could attack the coast of India and cooperate with armies transported by means of Russian control of Herat to that portion of the border where the mountain passes are not severe. England could never feel secure, because while Russia is making the most pacific promises she is stealthily but firmly advancing most in her agressions.

Russian ships are being constructed in our yards which have no superiors either in size or equipment. The destinies of all nations are likely to be influenced by the events of the next four months. If England succeeds in the Transvaal, the Russian bear will probably keep his claws concealed for the present, and bide his time. If not, we shall see what we shall see.

As a nation, we are on very friendly terms with Russia, but we have a long coast line, unfortified, and should our interests clash with hers, we may wish that England had taken a little better care of Herat and that the civilized world had done something to prevent Russian encroachment on Persia, to which history, both sacred and profane, is so much indebted. This was the country of Cyrus and Darius, of Artaxerxes, Sapor and Chosroes, the country from whence, in all ages, have come most wonderful tales which can never be disproved. To Persia we are first indebted for Saracenic architecture. The northern part of the province along the Caspian sea is covered by dense ancient forests in which are ruins of cities famed in history, where hunters may now seek tigers and other large game. Near and plainly visible from Teheran, towers Demarend, a mountain peak 20,000 feet high. Mineral supplies are abundant. The province of Azerbaijan produces quantities of all kinds of grain and fruits. North of the Persian gulf vast table lands of sand and salt can, by irrigation, be made very productive. The country furnishes opium, tobacco, rice and excellent wines. Palms grow in the south.

The Persians are a laughter-loving people, intelligent and brilliant in conversation.

Under Russian rule their old religions would be allowed to stand or be only slightly modified. A large majority of the people are Mohammedans, while there are Jews, Armenians and still a few Parsees. The Babees are the only religious sect likely to cause trouble to new rulers.

ART IN ARCHITECTURE.

DESIGNED AND WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THIS PAPER.

THE design and plan here given are different from any heretofore shown. They represent a double house, which can be erected at a reasonable price.

If one wishes the advantages of a detached house at a low cost, this is an excellent plan to adopt.

The cost is $2,800, including plumbing and heating and post foundation.

There are seven rooms to each house. The size of the rooms is as follows: Parlors, 10x16 feet; sitting room, 11½x12 feet; dining-rooms, 10½ feet by 13 feet; kitchens, 10x10 feet. The chambers have large closets, and all rooms are well ventilated.

The halls are fitted up with mantels, beamed ceilings, and stairways which lead from the halls to the second floors. The parlors have one end of the

SPORTING.

POOL.

Two exciting matches in the handicap pool tournament were played at Krewson's pool rooms Tuesday evening. Chauncey Young appeared in both of them as the loser. They made seven defeats in all for him. According to the rules of the contest each contestant must withdraw after losing seven games. Young therefore dropped out, forfeiting games to Maltby, Scott and Sutterline. The first game was between DeNise and Young, playing 100 points each. DeNise won, 100 to 92. Scott defeated Young 100 to 89 in the second game. Both men played 100-point games.

The game scheduled for last night in the handicap pool tournament at Krewson's pool rooms was forfeited to Bushmore by Krewson. It was Krewsons's seventh defeat and he therefore withdrew from the tournament forfeiting games to Maltby, Scott and DeNise. As a result of the match Bushmore and Sutterline are now tied for first place with fifteen victories and two defeats. Rushmore has still to play Dowd and Maltby, while Sutterline's remaining matches are with DeNise and Dowd. Two games are scheduled for tonight, but neither of the leaders will play. Dowd has still only two defeats scored against him and he will play off two games tonight. Two victories will put him up with the leaders.

THREE YEARS FOR WIFE-BITTER.

Sentence Imposed on George Smolosky by Judge Vail.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 22.—George Smolosky, who nearly killed his wife by beating her over the head with a chair, pleaded guilty yesterday in the Union County Court, and Judge Vail sentenced him to three years in State Prison.

A young lad from Plainfield, John VanNess, pleaded guilty to stealing a bicycle and some other articles, but as they were all recovered, the Prosecutor decided to let the boy go free. His father, who was in the courtroom, took him away.

To Protect Fish and Game.

Articles of incorporation were filed in Elizabeth yesterday afternoon with the County Clerk by the Farmers' Fish and Game Protective Association of Fanwood and Clark townships. The location of the principal office of the association will be at 4 Madison Hill, Rahway. The trustees of the association for its first year are Albert Lambert, Edgar Smith, Douglass Darby, Edmund Mays, James E. Goodman, Charles H. Brewer, Henry McCrandler, W. Scott Terry and Isaac Terhune. The objects of the organization are the propagation and protection of game birds and food fishes and the strict enforcement of all laws against the killing or taking the same within the State of New Jersey.

Robbed Gypsy Queen.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 22.—Aged gypsy queen Mary Lovell has just made it known to her tribe that last Friday night she was robbed of $3,500. The queen, who is 71 years old, lived alone in apartments in Livingston street, Newark, and went out daily telling fortunes. Her treasure was stowed away in bank notes in a trunk in her room.

Miss Langworthy is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers, of East Seventh street.

FIREMEN'S BILL PASSES.

Assembly Acts Favorably on Referendum Measure Designed for Plainfield.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 22—Next to the law authorizing the city of Plainfield to bond itself for $100,000 to erect a City Hall, the most important measure to the "Eldorado of the East" is the bill permitting an increase in the salaries of the drivers of the fire department. This bills passed the Assembly yesterday by a vote which recorded only six noes.

The measure provides that the Common Council must first accede to the proposition of submitting it to a vote of the people, and then the people must approve of it before the law can be put into effect. It is known as a double referendum bill.

It provides that after five years' service drivers are to be paid a salary of $900 per year. This is $150 more than the sum now allowed for such service. Under the bill a graduated salary is provided. It begins at $40 per month and gradually increases each year until the maximum sum is reached.

The Senate has already passed the bill. It now goes to the Governor.

BURNED HIS FACE.

George Davis Used Carbolic Acid Thinking That It Was Bay Rum.

George Davis, a machinist, residing on Chatham street, made a serious mistake last Saturday after taking his customary shave. He generally applies bay rum to his face after shaving, and he took the bottle which he supposed to be the desired article. It happened to be a bottle that contained carbolic acid. His face was thoroughly covered with the poisonous liquid when he discovered his mistake. The skin was burned from his face and he suffered intense agony.

As quickly as possible a physician was summoned and a soothing lotion was applied to the face. This relieved in a great measure the excruciating pain. Davis was detained at home until this morning when he was able to resume work at the Pond Tool Works.

ART IN MILLINERY.

Stylish Creations in Feminine Headgear Made by Miss Daly.

The spring millinery opening at Crosby & Hill's big store began yesterday and proved a decided success. The millinery department has been established in new quarters on the second floor where a large crowd of visitors thronged all day. The rooms are light and prettily arranged. Under the direction of Miss Daly, who is in charge of the department, an up-to-date display of trimmed and untrimmed hats and a varied assortment of trimmings has been placed to advantage. The visitors were much pleased with the display and declared the prices considerably less than those of the big New York establishments while the hats were of equal excellence.

The opening will be continued until Saturday and the store will not close until 8 o'clock to accommodate those who wish to call in the early evening. The opening is one of the most successful held in the big store and Miss Daly's clever ideas have received general commendation.

Operated on at the Hospital.

Ernest Marsh, of Fanwood, who underwent an operation at the hospital a few days ago, is improving steadily. He is Dr. Westcott's patient, and the latter had him taken to the above place for the operation.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

To Reopen His Store.

The many friends of B. D. Newell will be pleased to learn that he has settled his difficulties and will reopen his store on East Front street next Saturday morning with all new goods.

HUMOROUS.

Young Mother—"Did you notice how quiet the baby is?" The Brute—"Yes. Is he dead?"—Harlem Life.

Somewhat Personal.—"Did you know that every lobster has his name on him when he's born? Queer, ain't it?" "Yes. How long ago did you discover yours?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Professor—"I believe, sir, that you have merely skimmed over this lesson?" Imp Udence '03—"Why, professor? Because I seem to have gotten the cream of it?"—Princeton Tiger.

Last week a policeman was severely blamed for arresting a deaf woman. "It's the best thing that ever happened to her," he answered, "for she will get her hearing at nine o'clock to-morrow morning."—Harvard Lampoon.

"I shall have to crown that tooth," said the dentist, indicating the particular molar. "Yes," assented the victim. "It's a-king rather more than any of the others." Whereupon the dentist mentally decided to make the bill about $2.50 higher.—Ohio State Journal.

"By the way, was that second cousin of yours cured of his fits?" "Pretty near, but he stopped doctoring for them." "Run out of money?" "Naw. A farce-comedy manager saw him when he was in one of them and engaged him on the spot at 300 per."—Indianapolis Press.

"Although you have refused me," sighed Clospenny, "I shall always cherish as most dear the moments I spent with you." "Really!" she asked, with visions of the ice cream and candy and such which she never got, "and since they were so dear will you never regret having spent them?"—Philadelphia Press.

Last week a delinquent subscriber said he would pay up if he lived. He died. Another said: "I will see you to-morrow." He's blind. Still another said: "I'll pay you this week or go to the devil." He's gone. There are hundreds who ought to take warning of these procrastinators and pay up now.—Finley (S. D.) Slope.

LITERARY.

"An Easter Offering," in colors, and "Christ is Risen," the cover of the April issue of The American Queen, are beautiful and appropriate as are the fashion illustrations, 40 in number, by Alice May Gillam. There are four completed stories, and all the usual departments, instructive and interesting. Also an article on the bicycle from a health point of view, by Mary Easton, M. D. The magazine is rather beyond its usual plane of excellence.

Have You Ever Used It?

S. and R. Chocolate Jelly for cake filling and icing, it is always ready. No sugar; no boiling. Ladies who have used this jelly will have no other chocolate, or try to prepare a cake filling themselves, as in almost every case they find it very unsatisfactory, usually rough and gritty, and while the cake is still soft and nice, the filling will be hard. Cakes made with this jelly are decidedly to the contrary. When the cake is dry and hard (if kept long) you will find the jelly still smooth and soft. You will like the flavor. It is made from the finest chocolate of special blending. It makes delicious hot chocolate at a cost of about one cent a cup. A teaspoonful is the ordinary quantity used, but people's tastes differ—some may want a little more and some less. All that is necessary is hot water and cream or milk (whipped cream is best). Nothing so convenient for afternoon teas. Everybody is invited to visit S. Scheuer & Co., West Front street grocers, and try a cup of this chocolate served with whipped cream. Free to all.

JERSEY CENTRAL TO BUILD NEW SHOPS.

They Will be Erected This Year Probably at Or Near Elizabethport.

ADDITIONS TO EQUIPMENT.

TWENTY-FIVE NEW LOCOMOTIVES TO ARRIVE NEXT MONTH.

Five New Passenger Engines Just Put Into Service—Are the Fastest in the World—Extra Coal Cars are Being Built.

Since the new management of the Jersey Central Railroad assumed control a year ago, there have been a number of changes in the railroad. One of the aims of the new management has been to improve the general equipment of the road and bring it up to a high standard. As a result new locomotives, passenger coaches, freight and coal cars have been put into use. This year one of the principal acts of the management will be to establish new shops for the company that will cost over half a million dollars and will give employment to 2,000 men.

The Jersey Central Railroad outgrew its shops years ago. The present ones at Jersey City are too small to meet the requirements of such a large railroad system. The past year has made this particularly evident. The new coal engines are too large to be admitted into the repair shop.

For years the railroad officials planned to establish shops at Elizabethport. The land was even staked out, but that was as far as the scheme ever went. The new management has found the great need of new shops and has decided to build them this year. They will undoubtedly be located at Elizabethport and will be constructed on the most modern ideas.

Another of the improvements of the management was the addition to the passenger locomotive service. Six engines were built at the Baldwin Locomotive Works and were put into service on the Central a month ago. They are the fastest locomotives in the world and are capable of running 90 miles an hour with a train weighing 500 tons, which is equal to ten heavy Pullman coaches. They are now running between Jersey City and Philadelphia, Jersey City and Atlantic City, and Jersey City and Lakewood. They are numbered from 582 to 587.

The middle of next month will see the arrival of a batch of twenty-five other locomotives from the Brooks Locomotive Works at Dunkirk, N. Y. Fifteen of them will be the heavy type for drawing coal trains. There are now twenty-five of these same locomotives in service and this addition will make forty in all. They are claimed to be the largest and most powerful engines built.

The other ten engines that will arrive next month will be of the fast freight type. There are a number of others of this same kind now running.

More freight cars have been ordered as well as 500 of the 80,000 pound capacity coal cars. There will then be 3,000 of the latter type in use. They have taken the place of the coal "jimmies" that were so extensively used on this road and which are now seldom seen. Many of them have been retired.

"RUM BILLS" IN JERSEY.

Heretofore the Courts Have Not Been Appealed to Collect Them.

An interesting complication of affairs has arisen over the arrest of A. D. Alfonso, a New Brunswick saloonkeeper. He was arrested on complaint of a wholesale liquor dealer, Captain Norton, of the same city, who charged him with larceny. Alfonso was arrested in Newark and taken back to the Middlesex county jail, where he was bailed.

Alfonso ordered some goods, and Morton charges him with selling them and not paying him. If the court establishes a rule that a liquor dealer, wholesale or retail, can invoke the aid of the law in collecting "rum bills" it is very probable that a score of cases against others will crop up and the court will be kept busy for somtime to come.

It is a generally accepted rule in New Jersey that a "rum bill" cannot be collected, and this case will give the chance, long looked for, to test it.

Letter of Dismission Given to Minister.

At the prayer meeting service at the First Baptist church last Wednesday evening letters of dismission were granted to Rev. Arthur Crane and wife, who have located at Charleston, S. C., and who will become members of the Baptist church there, where Mr. Crane is the pastor.

MACHINISTS MAY STRIKE

MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION TO FIGHT UNIONS.

Trouble is Feared and if It Comes New Jersey Shops Will be Affected.

A strike of 30,000 machinists in the New York district, which includes all the towns in that State up to Newburg and in New Jersey, may be precipitated in a few days by the organization of the New York and New Jersey Machinery Manufacturers' Association for the avowed purpose of fighting the unions. In a circular issued by the association Tuesday, asking manufacturers to join it, the unions were attacked and C. E. Vail, the acting secretary of the association, told a reporter at 95 Liberty street, New York, that the association proposed to meet any demand on any one of its members for higher wages or shorter hours by a general lockout of union men.

M. J. Ford, master machinist of the District Branch of the International Association of Machinists, declared that he expected a fight in a few days.

George H. Warner, walking delegate of the district branch, said:

"We had intended to notify the manufacturers in a month or two that after a certain date they had better figure new contracts on the nine-hour basis, but this will precipitate a fight. The nine hour demand will probably be made immediately.

IMPRESSIONS OF ENGLAND

Dr. Snodgrass Delivered a Lecture on the Trip He Made Abroad Last Summer.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First M. E. church, gave an interesting lecture on "My Impressions of England," at Vincent chapel last evening. Previous to the lecture and following it, Charles L. Lewis sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis.

Dr. Snodgrass told in an interesting way the things that most impressed him during his trip through England. The great crowds that were to be found in all parts of the city particularly impressed him. Then he noticed the remarkable absence of the suburban towns so common in this country.

The age of the country, as evidenced on every side by relics and ruins of centuries before, was one of the noticeable features of that land, particularly to a foreigner. He told of the extreme politeness of the English and some of his own laughable experiences that arose from it.

The people of England, he said, had their customs and it was almost impossible to persuade them to make the slightest change in them. There was, however, a great element of safety in their conservatism that prevented many of the excesses that often occur on this side of the Atlantic.

SALE OF "SAPHO" STOPPED.

News Company Orders Its Agents to Return Unsold Copies.

Orders have been sent out by the Union News Company to all its agents along all railroad and steamboat lines to stop selling the book "Sapho" and to return at once all unsold copies.

It is understood that the company has been informed by many of the municipalities and railroad and boat owners that the sale of the book was distasteful to them and the patrons of the boats and trains.

Sebring's Chances Best.

There will be a meeting of the North Plainfield Towship Committee tomorrow afternoon, when it is expected that the present difficulties of a tie vote between Charles P. Sebring and Goldson Smalley for Town Committee honors will be settled. There seems to be a feeling that Mr. Sebring will be selected.

Balance in the Treasury.

A most gratifying state of affairs now exist in North Plainfield township. The treasury has a balance of $1,200, something very unusual in that township. The affairs are in good shape and the township was never in a more healthy condition every way.

Hobart Memorial Fund Now $12,500.

The Hobart memorial committee yesterday gave out a statement at Paterson, showing that the fund that is being raised to build a monument to the late Vice-President now amounts to $12,500. President McKinley is among the contributors.

RAIDS ON TREASURY SUMMARILY HALTED

Appropriations Pared Down by Legislature Despite Brimful Coffers.

MANY SCHEMES NIPPED.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT WILL COME SOMETIME TODAY.

Republican Leaders Fear the Effects of Extravagance on the Coming Campaign—Track Elevation Killed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 23—The schemers who had laid awake nights laying plans for a raid on the brimful coffers of the State treasury have heard something drop. The legislative appropriation committee finished work on the appropriations at midnight and it had a large knife cut. The result is a cut of over $400,000 from last year's appropriations. This, too, in face of the past year's vast income from the trusts and other corporations. It is anything but cheering to the schemers and they are grumbling deeply.

There is a feeling among Republicans that the committee has been too parsimonious in its distribution of money this year, when the State treasury is fairly bulging with coin, but the party leaders say that the State has probably had the best money-making year that it will ever have, and it behooves them to carefully guard the funds against the day when they may be needed. More than this, there is to be an important election in New Jersey next fall and the Republicans are determined to give the enemy no opportunity to make a point against them on the score of extravagance.

The annual appropriation bill last year covering all the expense of running the State was $2,434,096.23; this year it is $2 232,050.32. This is a reduction of $202,045.91.

The supplemental bill, providing for extraordinary expenses, was introduced in the Senate. It provides a total appropriation of $338,059.55. Had the money-seekers had their way a million dollars would have been taken out of the State treasury and distributed among the various public institutions. The Morris Plains Insane Asylum asked for $196,000 for special purposes and was given $54,679. This is a fair sample of the close paring that the committee did all along the line.

A concurrent resolution was adopted last night fixing the date of final adjournment for today.

There was a lively fight in the House last night over the bill reorganizing the National Guard. Originally the bill provided that National guardsmen should receive but $1 a day while in camp. It was amended so as to give the soldiers $1.50 a day, and then passed by a single vote.

The Stokes bill revising the school laws passed the Senate last night. It probably was put through the House today without discussion.

The bill introduced in the House by the Industrial School investigation committee, and passed by that body, was passed by the Senate last night, and will undoubtedly be signed by the Governor. The bill provides for the appointment of a new board of trustees by the Governor and the election of a superintendent.

It is believed that the Governor will reappoint the present trustees, with the addition of four members of the board of lady managers. It is also thought that Mrs. Eyler will be elected superintendent of the school.

Senator McCarter made another strong attempt to get his track elevation bill through the Senate yesterday. He asked that the vote by which the bill was killed last week be reconsidered and his request was granted. He wanted to amend the bill so that it would provide for Newark paying one half the expense of track elevation, instead of one-quarter. When the bill came up for discussion in the afternoon Senator Johnson, of Camden, offered a set of amendments which, if they had been adopted, would have changed the bill from the first to the last provision. The amendments were lost, however, and the bill as amended by Mr. McCarter was put to a vote. The bill was defeated for the second time by a vote of 12 to 8.

Property to be Sold for Taxes.

At the April meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council a warrant will be issued on Collector Brown compelling him to sell property for 1898 taxes. The officials are determined to keep delinquents on the move and not give them a chance to get too far behind.

FINE MUSIC HEARD.

Successful Concert Arranged by William Holmes Given in Dunellen Last Night.

The first concert given by the Choral Union of Dunellen and New Market, in the M.E. church, Dunellen, last evening, under the direction of William Holmes, of this city, was a success in every particular. The soloists were Miss Luella C Harris, George H. Smith and Mr. Holmes of the First Baptist church choir. Mrs. F. M. Ward expected to sing, but owing to a sudden heavy cold she could not appear, and Mr. Holmes had to take the place on the programme which was rendered almost as published Tuesday.

Every selection was a gem and honors were divided between the chorus and soloists. The chorus showed a high degree of efficiency under the able training of Mr. Holmes, and the audience was liberal in its applause. Concerning the work of the soloists too much cannot be said in praise. Each one was in fine voice and the renditions were given with finish and style. Miss Harris and Mr. Holmes sang together, as did also Mr. Holmes and Mr. Smith. The work of the accompanists Miss Irene Day and Howard Case was perfect and assisted materially in making the concert a success. The church was crowded to the doors with an appreciative audience, among which was a number of music loving people from this city and other nearby places. During the evening the soloists and Miss Day, the accompanist, received handsome bouquets.

POLICE CHANGES MADE.

CHIEF GRANT'S OFFICE WILL BE LOCATED AT POLICE STATION.

It was Also Decided to Have an Officer Located at the Station All Night Hereafter.

At the meeting of the police board of this city last evening it was decided to remove the office of the Chief of Police from its old quarters in the Mayor's office in the Coward building, Park avenue, and establish it at police headquarters. When the old "rookery" was in use it was not to be expected that the Chief should stay there but the new quarters are warm and clean and the board decided that it would be to the interests of the force to unite the Chief's office and police headquarters.

Further, the board decided to keep one man on duty at the Olympia so that the police could be reached without delay. In the past there has sometimes been difficulty in finding any policeman when his presence was needed badly. One of the older patrolmen will do duty at headquarters at night. Should it be necessary to put one of the night men on duty there, there will be no great difficulty in covering two of the smaller beats with one officer mounted on a wheel.

BELL SCARED HORSE.

Thrilling Runaway of Dr. Adams' Horse by Which the Buggy Was Completely Wrecked.

Last evening about 7 o'clock while Dr. D. C. Adams was about to go to his carriage to make his evening calls, a hurried call came to his office. His servant thinking he had about started rang a large hand bell to attract his attention. The sound of the bell so frightened the horse that before the doctor could get near him it gave a sudden spring which broke the lead. Madly the horse went down the lane into Duer street crossing over the walks and lawns and around the cherry trees of John H. Carney. The rear wheels struck one of the large trees, upsetting the buggy. The frightened animal went on with overturned buggy, scattering blankets, etc. upon the street. When opposite the residence of the late Jacob Long the buggy top was left, while the horse and front wheels continued on their mad journey down Craig place. Again crossing side walks it entered the vacant lot on the corner of Grove street and Prospect place.

By the plucky efforts of Messrs. Phillips and Barkelew the horse was brought to a standstill. Fortunately the only damage done was the wrecking of the buggy.

Upset a Pot of Glue.

John Walsh, of Madison avenue, badly scalded his hand yesterday afternoon. He upset a pot of glue on the unfortunate member. Dr. Van Horn dressed the wound.

Hospital is Filled.

Once more the hospital is filled to its capacity and the nurses are kept very busy. Of late a number of operations have been very successful.

School Not Closed.

The report in another paper that the public school at Watchung had to be closed on account of the illness of the teacher is denied.

WANT LESS MONEY FOR STREET WORK.

Street Committee Decided to Reduce Appropriations This Year.

RECEIVED BIDS FOR STONE.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF STREET COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL.

A. I. & N. B. Smalley Lowest Bidders for City's Supply of Crushed Stone—George White Wants Giraud Avenue Widened—Flagging Notices.

Bids for the year's supplies of the city street department were received at the meeting of the street committee of the Common Council last evening. Then there were other matters of interest that were discussed and many of them acted upon. It was the most important street committee meeting of the season.

Bids for crushed stone, curbstone and flagstone were advertised for. They were received and opened and the results will be reported to the Council. There were two bids for crushed stone. J. H. Wilson & Co. offered to furnish it for $1.10 a ton, and A. I. & N. B. Smalley for $1.05 a ton. The price last year was $1 a ton.

W. E. Bartle and A. Kane were the bidders for the supply of curb and flag stone. Bartle offered to supply the culvert covers for 25 cents a square foot, Kane's price was 15½ cents. The 16-inch curbing Bartle offered for 30 cents a lineal foot. Kane's price was 28½ cents. For 50-inch curbing Bartle wanted 36 cents and Kane 34½.

In bidding for the crosswalks, Bartle offered the stone with rough edges for 32 cents a lineal foot, and with Belgin edges 37 cents a lineal foot. Kane's price for the former was 40 cents and for the latter 56 cents.

The committee will recommend the acceptance of Smalley's bid, but the others will be looked into further.

George White appeared before the committee and asked that the city widen Giraud avenue. The property owners would give the necessary land if the city would make the improvement. His reason was, he explained, that the Board of Freeholders refused to build a new bridge there while the street in the city remains as narrow as it is at present. Giraud avenue is 50 feet wide in the borough and 32½ feet wide in the city. The committee promised to consider the matter.

The appropriation for the street department was discussed. Last year the street department received $24 000. The appropriation asked for this year will be less than that but the committee has not yet decided just how much less.

The old question of flagging the sidewalks in certain streets came up and many of the notices that were not complied with last year were ordered re-issued. The committee decided to omit a few streets, but to see that the notices that were issued were obeyed. At the request of part of the interested property owners, notices were issued that sidewalks should be flagged on Elmwood place, New street and Berekman street, between Front and Second street.

The improvements in the neighborhood of Jackson and Netherwood avenues were discussed, and will be investigated.

Jersey Postal Changes.

The postal guide for March gives the following postoffice changes in New Jersey: New offices established at Watchung, Somerset county; two sub stations at Paterson, and offices discontinued at South Park and Stoneharbor. Money order changes noted are two sub stations at Camden, established at Elberon, two sub-stations at Jersey City, two sub-stations at Paterson, Maurice River and Muncy Hill, and the money order offices at Cramer Hill, North Cramer Hill and Glendola discontinued. It is also announced that the books of postage stamps will be issued about May 1.

Electricity and Massage Did It.

Mr. H. Coddington, of No. 12 Mountain avenue, writes as follows: For a long time I was troubled with rheumatism in the arms and shoulders, which became so severe that at times I was unable to do any work or even to dress myself without assistance. Having no faith in medicines, I applied to Mr. F. L. Bathmann, 608 East Sixth street, for massage and electric treatment, and am happy to say in five treatments was completely cured without any medicine whatever.

Basket Factory at Califon.

A party of local capitalists have started a large basket factory at Califon, Hunterdon county, and employment will be given to fifty hands.

RUSHED THE SEASON.

LAWN PARTY AND PICNIC HELD IN TRINITY CHURCH.

Young Men Bought Lunches at Auction and Ate With Girls Who Prepared Them.

Only a little imagination was needed to complete the illusion of the "lawn party" and picnic held in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church last evening by the Christian Endeavor Society of the church. A rustic summer house was surrounded by rustic chairs and tables while evergreen trees grew temporarily around the pillars. Many of the guests came in summer attire. A little imagination supplied the grass and the affair was complete.

It was something new in the line of a sociable and attracted many of the young people. An informal programme included a solo by Miss Charlotte Holmes, accompanied by Miss Achsah Holmes, and several well-rendered instrumental trios by W. C. Townsend, mandolin; Ernest Wilcox, flute, and Harry Stewart, piano.

Each young man was supplied with a handful of beans. These were utilized at the auction sale of lunch boxes that followed, E. E. Anthony acting as auctioneer. The boxes were put up without any clue as to their contents or owner. The purchaser who bid the most beans took the box and ate the contents in company with the young woman who prepared it. The auction and the subsequent picnic was found to be a delightful feature of the social.

For those who were not supplied with lunch boxes, cake and cocoa were served. The guests sat about on the rustic benches and in the summer house and enjoyed an hour of sociability.

The affair was in charge of the social committee of the Endeavor Society and consisted of Miss Edith DuBois, chairman; Mrs. E. E. Anthony, Mrs. Bertha Richards and Miss Nellie Fenner. The committee was greatly assisted by J. E. Townsend, who brought them the decorations, summer house and all. The summer house with the other rustic features were loaned by Charles Kiederling, of East Front street.

TICKET AGENTS WORK HARD.

They are Allowed no Sunday Rest—To Petition for One Sunday Off in Each Month.

Before the present management of the Jersey Central Railroad took charge of affairs it was the custom for the ticket agents to have one Sunday off every month. This worked satisfactorily and the men were willing to work the other three Sundays in the month.

Under the present regime the agents are compelled to work every Sunday. This they consider too much, especially so for the reason that they do not get paid for Sunday work. A petition has been drafted and is now being signed by all the ticket agents along the Jersey Central requesting the company to pay them for Sunday work.

Just what success the petition will have cannot be stated, but the men think they should either get one day off in four or else get paid for the Sunday work. The petition will be presented April 1st.

PRISONERS PAY A GRUDGE.

Charles Gardner Fiercely Attacked in Middlesex Jail.

While Jailer Messler, of the Middlesex county jail, in New Brunswick, was at dinner at noon yesterday the prisoners were left to exercise in the corridor. Charles E. Gardner, of Perth Amboy, a "trusty," was in the hall with the other men. Michael Pierson, Richard Reach and John Kenney, who had a grudge against Gardner because he would not let them smuggle whiskey into the jail, knocked him down and kicked him. Reach bit Gardner's head and wrists.

The other prisoners were afraid and made little effort to save Gardner. Jailer Messler and Constables Gilliland and Helman ran into the corridor, stopped the row and probably saved Gardner's life. His three assailants were pushed into cells.

Warrenville School Officers.

The annual school meeting at Warrenville was held Tuesday afternoon last when Howard Toms, Republican; John Flammer and Charles Bohlmy, Democrats, were elected trustees for three years. The citizens voted $500 for repairs and expenses for the coming year.

Killing Too Many Fish.

The Fish and Game Commission have stopped the pumping of water from the gas mains into the river at Cranford. It is claimed that the water from the pipes was killing the young fish.

TROUBLE ON CENTRAL HAS BEEN FIXED UP

Differences Between the Company and Its Men Adjusted at a Conference.

RULES FULLY EXPLAINED.

OFFICIALS AND DELEGATES COME TO MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING.

Superintendent Olhausen Says Trouble Arose Chiefly From a Misapprehension as to the Application of Certain Rules.

A committee of thirty employes of the New Jersey Central Railroad, representing all branches of the service, called on General Superintendent Olhausen yesterday by appointment at his office in Communipaw for the purpose of laying some grievances before him. They were cordially received by the superintendent, who had with him nine of his associates, including the division superintendents.

The conference lasted four hours and at its conclusion it was announced that the officials and the delegates were mutually satisfied. Each attendant at the conference was pledged to secrecy. The delegates refused to talk about it beyond saying that they were satisfied.

It is understood that the grievances complained of by the men referred to certain new rules which have been put in force. The rules were fully explained to the delegates and they withdrew their complaint. The strike which was talked of for several days is evidently off.

Superintendent Olhausen said: "Everything has been adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned. The trouble arose chiefly from a misapprehension on the part of the men as to the application of certain rules. This has been explained and fully settled."

NOT WHOLLY SATISFIED.

Borough Firemen Would Have Liked a More Experienced Man for Their Chief.

There is not a unanimous feeling of approval among the borough firemen over the appointment of Wm. Debele as fire chief by Mayor Smalley. Not that they have anything against Mr. Debele, for there is the best feeling for him, but they think the Mayor should have appointed a person who has served longer in the department. However, the firemen will accept the appointment with good grace and work in harmony. There is not a single firemen who would be willing to cause dissension over the appointment. Many think that the Mayor did the very best he could under the circumstances.

JERSEY FRUIT IN GOOD SHAPE.

Recent Sleet Storm More Beneficial Than Harmful.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Salem, March 23.—Many of the dailies during the past week have stated that South Jersey nurserymen fear that last Thursday's sleet storm has ruined the fruit crop. By those who are in a position to know it is said that it should bring about just the opposite condition and insure a good crop this season. All the weather conditions have been such as to prevent destruction of the buds by a late freeze. When this injury is suffered, it is usually brought about by warm weather in February and March, which starts the upward flow of sap, promotes an advanced growth, and then a freeze late in March is disastrous. But this year there has been nothing to stimulate premature growth, and last week's sleet should have still further checked such a condition, so that when the buds do put out this year they should be past all danger.

To Macadamize a Road.

As soon as the weather permits it is the intention of the Essex County Board of Freeholders to begin the work of macadamizing Parsonage avenue in Milburn, which was recently made a county road. This thoroughfare is three and one half miles in length and extends from the Old Short Hills road to the Chatham turnpike in White Oak Ridge. George W. Reeve, of White Oak Ridge, will be appointed by the Freeholders to supervise the work.

Elected School Trustees.

Goldson Smalley and John Doty, of Greenbrook, and Theodore Lueressen, of Watchung, were elected members of the North Plainfield Township School Board Tuesday evening.

TROOPS GUARD JAIL.

Governor Beckham's Forces Gather at Frankfort.

GOEBEL SUSPECTS ARE WATCHED.

Examination of Powers, Davis and Culton Opens Today—No Confirmation of the Rumored Coming of Armed Mountaineers.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 23.—State troops recognizing Democratic Governor Beckham are in possession of the county courthouse and jail and will do military duty here under orders from Governor Beckham during the examining trials of Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, Captain John W. Davis and W. H. Culton, which are set for hearing before Judge Moore. The military is also re-enforced by 75 special deputy sheriffs, who were sworn in by the civil authorities yesterday afternoon.

The Lexington company of 70 men under Captain Longmire arrived here at 6:15 o'clock. The men were drawn up in regular marching order at the station and marched to the courthouse. The sidewalks along the way were well filled with people, and the troops were cheered by Beckham adherents at various points. The line of march did not pass the statehouse square where Governor Taylor's soldiers are quartered, and the dual militia did not come face to face. Longmire marched at the head of his company, carrying a revolver, while each of the men carried two guns. It is understood practically the entire contents of the Lexington armory were brought here.

The indications are that the trial of some one of the defendants will be acted upon today. County Attorney Polsgrove said last night that all of the subpœnas for the commonwealth witnesses had been served, and unless some of the most important witnesses fail to come the trials will be commenced. The commonwealth will demand that the defendants be arraigned separately. County Judge Moore issued an order to Sheriff Suter directing him to exclude everybody from the courthouse except attorneys, witnesses and members of the press.

There has been no confirmation here that armed bodies of citizens from the mountain section are coming to Frankfort, and the rumor is not generally credited.

A Fiendish Crime.

RALEIGH, March 23.—Tom Jones, commonly known as "Preacher" Jones, yesterday murdered Ella Jones and her eldest daughter, Ida Jones, and then set fire to the beds in which were the bodies of the murdered victims and four others, all children, ranging in years from a baby a month old to the largest boy, who was not more than 5 years of age. The scene of the crime is Garners, five miles east of here. The weapon used was an ax, the murderer, according to the story of little 7-year-old Laura Jones, who escaped with her younger sister, striking the mother four times and then making two heavy strokes into the body of the oldest child. The house was completely destroyed by fire.

The Figgs In Feathers.

GRETNA, Neb., March 23.—Louis Figg and his wife, leaders of a peculiar sect, were pulled out of bed and tarred and feathered by a mob of masked citizens, who served notice upon them that if they did not leave town within six days there would be a repetition of the punishment. The crowd forced an entrance to the house against drawn revolvers in the hands of Figg's two sons. The free love doctrines taught by Figg were responsible for the assault. A number of homes have been broken up as a result of Figg's teaching. Their peculiar belief is that Mrs. Figg is the true Christ and Figg is St. John, his favorite disciple.

Northern Pacific's Acts Illegal.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania has introduced a bill reciting the history of the Northern Pacific railroad, especially with reference to its recent reorganization, and declaring that the sale of certain property was illegal and resolving "that all transfers of land to or by the said Northern Pacific Railway company shall be illegal and void and that the committee on Pacific railroads be hereby empowered to send for persons and papers and are requested to examine into these charges and report thereon at an early date."

Newfoundland's Ministry In Trouble.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 23.—The Bond-Morris ministry is finding considerable difficulty in placating the various factions to which it looks for support. Mr. Bond's immediate supporters had voted against the Reid railway contract, and they now want it canceled. On the other hand, the immediate followers of Mr. Morris voted for the contract, and they threaten to secede if any attempt is made to cancel it. Bitter feeling is growing up between the two sections, and the leaders are at their wits' end to devise some way of avoiding complications.

The Newark Exposition.

NEWARK, N. J., March 23.—Newark will have a great industrial exposition in 1902. The project, which was first suggested by the Newark Evening News, was last night formally taken up by a special committee of 50 members of the local board of trade, composing the foremost manufacturers, bankers and merchants of the city. The fair will be a state exposition first, but will be open to all of "the United States and their colonies," to use the language of the resolution indorsing the proposition adopted by the committee.

A Farm Labor Famine.

BERLIN, March 23.—The Agrarians are discussing ways and means of persuading the government to aid in relieving the farm labor famine. The Silesian agricultural chamber proposes that the government should appropriate a large sum for settling laborers in the country and asks 20,000,000 marks as a beginning for Silesia alone. The semiofficial Berliner Post says the plan is worthy of indorsement, even if it should cost 1,000,000,000 marks.

Granite Cutters' Strike Settled.

CONCORD, N. H., March 23.—A practical settlement of all the principal points at issue between the local manufacturers and cutters of granite has been arrived at, and the men will return to work the first of next week. The settlement is based on an eight hour day, a minimum wage of 35 cents an hour and an average increase of 13 per cent in the price list for piecework on monument work.

ALMOST REACHED A VOTE.

Unanimous Consent Nearly Gained For the Porto Rico Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Almost the entire session of the senate yesterday was spent in the discussion of the conference report upon the Porto Rican appropriation bill. The Democratic senators manifested a disposition to criticise the restoration of the house provision covering future collections of revenue, professing to find in this action a desire to continue the Dingley tariff. Speeches were made on these lines by Messrs. Bacon, Cockrell, Jones of Arkansas, Berry and Allen.

The Republicans met the taunt with a proposition to take a vote immediately upon the house Porto Rico tariff bill, and it looked at one time as if the unanimous consent would be secured for a vote on the tariff measure today. Senator Proctor objected, however, on behalf of the Republican free traders, and when he indicated a willingness to agree to a vote next week Senator Pettus put an end to the proceeding by calling for the regular order of business.

The Republican peace committee of the senate met after the adjournment of the senate yesterday and practically ratified the offer of Senator Foraker in the senate to separate the house Porto Rico tariff bill from the senate governmental bill and to take a vote on the house measure.

The peace committee is willing that a vote should be taken upon the house bill as it was passed by that body, provided it becomes apparent that it is impolitic to attempt to amend it, but an effort will be made to ascertain whether the house will consent to any modification. Some of the Republican senators think the bill should be so changed as to provide for the continued exemption from duty of the articles which were exempted by the president's order. They also find the house bill deficient in that it fails to provide any means of collecting the duty it imposes.

After a spirited discussion extending over three days the Loud bill relating to second class mail matter was recommitted by the house to the committee on postoffices. The majority in favor of the motion to recommit was so decisive that it is regarded as unlikely that the measure will appear again during the present congress. Mr. Loud, after the vote was announced, said that this was the third time and out so far as he was concerned. The vote on the motion was 148 to 96, with 16 present and not voting.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Nearly 200 Finns arrived in Philadelphia. They declared their people are fleeing from the cruelty of Russia's czar.

The Kansas City chief of police offered to pay $25 out of his salary for the body of each highwayman killed in that city.

The Chicago board of education dropped from the list of supplementary reading for the public schools histories of England.

Thirty-two students at Lawrenceville (N. J.) academy were sent to their homes to prevent the spread of diphtheria prevalent there.

A dispute has arisen between France and Morocco over certain African territory, and two French cruisers have been ordered to Tangier.

Colonel Bunker Was Murdered.

TOLEDO, March 23.—Important points have been brought out as to the death of Colonel Bunker which indicate that he was murdered and did not commit suicide. In fact, the former opinion was largely the hasty conclusion of the coroner and that has been flatly contradicted by medical experts. The most striking evidence is the fact that there are no powder marks about the wound, neither was the flesh or hair singed, as would have been the case had the weapon been used at the close range needed to commit suicide. Testimony has been turning up to show that Colonel Bunker owned no revolver and not a hardware store in town has recently sold one to him. He stopped at several places on the way to his office to attend to business of his household, ordering various articles and appearing in a contented frame of mind.

Woodruff's Flying Trip.

ALBANY, March 23.—Lieutenant Governor Woodruff left Albany at 8:45 o'clock last night on his flying trip to Lincoln, Neb., where he will deliver a speech before the Abraham Lincoln Republican club Saturday night. His subject is "From Lincoln to McKinley." Mr. Woodruff's trip to the west will be made in record time. He will have 12 hours in Lincoln, leaving there at 11:05 Saturday night and arriving in Albany at 3 p. m. Monday. The 3,000 miles will be covered in 90 hours unless something runs off the track.

Princess Stephanie Married.

VIENNA, March 23.—The marriage of the Princess Stephanie, widow of the Crown Prince Rudolph, and the Count Elmer Lonyai was solemnized at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in the chapel of the Chateau Miramar. Count Cholonieswski, chief marshal of the princess' household, and Count Lonyai, a brother of the groom, acted as witnesses. The wedding breakfast was served in the castle.

D. Appleton & Co. Fail.

NEW YORK, March 23.—D. Appleton & Co., publishers, for 65 years leaders in the book and publishing business in this city, went into the hands of a receiver yesterday on petition of Daniel Pritchard, a stockholder. The schedule of liabilities presented amounted to $1,100,000. The assets, consisting of stock and outstanding accounts, have not been computed.

Australia Supplanting America.

BERLIN, March 23.—German imports of canned beef from Australia are rapidly increasing, being now 30 per cent of such imports as against practically nothing in 1897. It is claimed here that the Australian output is better than the American and is supplanting the latter.

Bundy's Shortage Large.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 23.—The amount of shortage of Frank E. Bundy, the defaulting city chamberlain, is placed at between $55,000 and $60,000. It is now expected that he will be arrested as soon as he is able to leave his bed.

BRIDGE WORK
In Dentistry is the best substitute for nature's work that can be done. Sound roots may be built up and crowned and thus fill up an unsightly space. It has to be made of a material that has strength and durability and one that will not discolor. Gold is the one that stands the test. That is the secret of the expense. But the advantages of a bridge over a plate are many times more than the cost of one compared to that of the other.

HOW THE DOCTOR GOT THERE.

Not Always an Easy Trip for a Maine Physician to Reach His Patients.

The other day a country physician received a call to go from his place into a lumber camp in the far Brassua region, and it was such a call as a doctor cannot well refuse. So he went to West Cove on Moosehead with a big coat and wearing leggins and shoe packs, as the low moccasins are called.

A lumberman was there and this man had made arrangements to carry the doctor up as far as West Outlet on a handcar on the Canadian Pacific road. They had to stop once and unload the handcar on to their backs in a gully so that a freight train could go past.

Above West Outlet a certain portion of the lake surface was free of snow and the doctor and the woodsman guide strapped on their skates and started. There were numerous "wrinkles," huge bulging rifts in the ice where the moving of the mightly surface had met and made ruin. When they came to one of these wrinkles the woodsman went ahead and prodded and poked until he found a place where they could cross.

It is possible that more men have been drowned in the waters of Moosehead by carelessness in crossing wrinkles than by any other cause.

By the time they got to the mouth of Moose river the doctor was obliged to own to his sturdy companion that he was fair tuckered. The man had a moose sled there in the bushes. He had left it when he had come out after the doctor. He piled the medicine man on with his case, wrapped him in blankets and set away along the tote road. There was no team out, for there was much uncertainty as to when the doctor would be able to get along.

When he could he walked. The rest of the time he rode. The tough little man of the woods seemed in no wise wearied. He told the doctor that it was easy enough to make those kind of trips when one was toughened to it.

In the camp was one of the bosses who had been caught in a snub line and who had had most of the flesh on the calf of his leg rasped off by the cruel cable.

The doctor did what he could for the sufferer. Before he finished his labors there a messenger came from a camp ten miles above. They had learned that a physician was in the section and they wanted him. Ten men were down with grip and colds and two had pneumonia. So the doctor went up to that camp. There was nothing else to do. He says that if he had refused he guesses they would have loaded him on a sled willy-nilly and would have taken him along. He came out after six days in the woods.—Lewiston Journal.

VIADUCT TO BE TAKEN DOWN.

An Immense Work of Engineering in Pennsylvania Will Soon Be Destroyed.

It is authoritatively stated that the famous Kinzua viaduct, the gigantic iron girder and trestle bridge in McKean county, Pennsylvania, south of Bradford, is to be replaced at an early date by a new and wholly different structure. Two views of this famous bridge are given. Work on it was begun on May 5, 1882, and it was completed and opened for traffic less than four months later, on August 29, 1882. It is 301 feet high at the highest point, and until the completion of the Garabit viaduct was the highest bridge in the world. The Garabit spans the Truyere in the south of France, is 1,849 feet long and at the highest point the rail level is 401 feet above the river. It was designed by M. Eiffel, builder of the famous tower, and was completed in 1884.

The Kinzua bridge is 2,060 feet long. It was built by the Keystone Company of Phoenixville, Pa. Its completion gave to the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad direct communication with the coal fields of western Pennsylvania. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh has a traffic arrangement with the Erie for the use of the bridge. The valley of the Kinzua, which this great trestle spans, is 15 miles south of Bradford and one of the wildest regions yet left in western Pennsylvania. Until recently, perhaps even yet, bear were plentiful and deer occasionally found in this valley.

The Kinzua viaduct has been a point of excursion and an object of curiosity for sightseers ever since it was built. Gen. Grant was taken there on one occasion.—Chicago Chronicle.

The Middle Ear.

This story is told of Prof. Pritchard, who recently opened the sixth international otological congress. Reviewing the progress of the last 30 years, the professor referred to "chonic nonsuppurative disease of the middle ear" as being the supreme mystery at present to students of otology. "What is this middle ear?" a lady asked a sage physician. "Madam," he replied, "it is the ear with which we do not listen." In other words, the nose.—N. E. Home Magazine.

Curious Wanderings of Smoke.

During the volcanic eruption in the Hawaiian islands last summer the smoke rose to a height of between five and six miles and then drifted away to the northeast. At a distance of 600 miles from Hawaii it settled upon the surface of the sea, and was then carried back by the northeast wind to its place of origin, where it arrived a fortnight after its original departure, and covered the entire group of islands with its heavy pall.—Youth's Companion.

Carnegie and Frick Companies Come Together.

"IRONCLAD AGREEMENT" WIPED OUT

The New Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, to Be Organized With More Than $200,000,000 Capital—Schwab Is Peacemaker.

PITTSBURG, March 23.—The Carnegie Steel company, limited, becomes a stock company, with a capital variously estimated at from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000, the famous "ironclad agreement" is wiped out, all litigation between the partners in the Carnegie company is dropped, and H. C. Frick, the former president of the company, virtually secures all he has contended for. These facts are embodied in an authorized statement issued by the Carnegie Steel company. The Atlantic City conference resulted in an agreement signed by all the parties interested except Mr. Frick and John Walker, the latter the principal plaintiff in the suit against the H. C. Frick Coke company. The document reached Pittsburg yesterday and after a comparatively brief conference between the two gentlemen was signed by both of them.

HENRY C. FRICK.

To President C. M. Schwab is given the credit for effecting this amicable settlement. From the first he was opposed to allowing the contentions between the partners to reach the courts. Unable to prevent this, after the litigation was begun he bent his energies toward securing a settlement that would be satisfactory to all the parties.

On the basis of $250,000,000 capitalization of the new company Mr. Carnegie's holdings, 58½ per cent, will be worth $146,250,000; Henry Phipps, Jr.'s, interest, 11 per cent, $27,500,000, and H. C. Frick's, 6 per cent, will stand him $15,000,000. George Lander owns 4 per cent and President C. M. Schwab 3 per cent.

The Carnegie Steel company and the H. C. Frick Coke company authorize the following statement:

"The partners of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and the stockholders of the H. C. Frick Coke company have agreed upon a plan of reorganization, vesting the ownership and control of said companies in one company to be incorporated under the laws of New Jersey.

"The effect of the proposed reorganization will be to terminate the equity proceedings instituted against the Carnegie Steel company, limited, and the H. C. Frick Coke company.

"The articles of association of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, as a limited partnership organization expire by limitation April 1, 1901, but the change contemplated will be effected before that date, as the future form of the organization has been under consideration for some time, and the plan is now fully matured. The corporate form for the large and growing business has been determined upon in preference to the limited partnership organization for its obvious advantages.

"All the various interests, including the H. C. Frick Coke company, will remain as now under Pennsylvania charters, the Steel company taking a Pennsylvania corporate charter instead of renewing its articles of limited partnership. As no charter can be obtained under the laws of Pennsylvania under which all the various departments and interests of the Carnegie companies can be consolidated it will be necessary to obtain a charter under the laws of New Jersey which will enable the control of the interests concerned wherever situated in any state or territory of the Union.

"Mr. Carnegie has given President Charles M. Schwab as his proxy to act as required, and Mr. Schwab will continue as the executive head of the new company."

To Reduce Baltimore's Gas Rate.

ANNAPOLIS, March 23.—The house of delegates yesterday passed a bill to reduce the price of illuminating gas in the city of Baltimore from $1.25 to $1.10, after a stubborn fight which has lasted almost ever since the beginning of the present session in January. There is no doubt that the bill will pass the senate, as this action was the result of a compromise, to which, it is understood, the Consolidated Gas company of Baltimore is a party.

Killed by a Trolley Car.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., March 23.—Frank Tripp, 30 years old, while, it is claimed, in an intoxicated condition, attempted to board a trolley train of the Binghamton, Lestershire and Union railroad at Lestershire at 6 o'clock last evening. He fell between two of the "trailers," and the wheels passed over his neck, killing him instantly.

Olga Nethersole Indicted.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Olga Nethersole's expected indictment for violating public decency in producing "Sapho" was handed up to Recorder Goff yesterday afternoon. It was a "blanket" indictment, intended to cover all the voluptuous suggestiveness of the play with one single, somber garment of the law.

Five Thousand For Tuskegee.

STILL ONLY A RUMOR

Relief of Mafeking Reported, but Unconfirmed.

FREE STATE OPERATIONS SUCCEED.

Italian Government Declines to Intervene—Gatacre Punishes Looters—Kruger and Steyn Do Not Agree on Annexation.

LONDON, March 23.—Again there is a persistent rumor that Mafeking has been relieved. It is even asserted that the war office has received a dispatch positively announcing the relief, but that publication of it is withheld because the form of the message admits the possibility of mistake. The war office, however, declares that there is no confirmation of the rumor and that no further news on the subject is at hand.

No attention is paid in any quarter to the wild Boer rumors of Commandant Olivier's victory over General Gatacre, which are only designed to revive the drooping spirits of the burghers.

It seems certain that Mafeking's only chances lie in relief by the column supposed to be advancing from the south or in the possibility that Colonel Baden-Powell is still strong enough to attempt a sortie with a view of capturing the Boer guns at a time when Commandant Snyman has withdrawn his men to oppose Colonel Plumer's advance.

All the reports regarding the British operations in the Free State continue most satisfactory.

Nothing has developed regarding General Buller's intentions, but it seems hard to believe that he is again embarking General Warren's division.

It is reported from Lourenco Marques that Pretoria is prepared to stand a siege of two years and that the Boer women, frantic at the reverses to the Boer arms, are entreating to be allowed to shoot the British officers imprisoned at Pretoria.

It is also announced from the Transvaal capital that the Italian government has declined to intervene.

GENERAL GATACRE.

A dispatch to The Daily News from Springfontein, dated March 21, says:

"General Gatacre and his staff are still here. He is most strict regarding the private property of the Boers. Some Kaffirs who had looted Boer farms have been tried and severely punished, to the great astonishment and gratification of the Boer residents."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Chronicle, telegraphing Thursday, says that Sir Charles Warren's division is embarking at Durban for East London, Cape Colony.

A special correspondent of The Times at Bloemfontein, telegraphing Thursday, says:

"Yesterday Mr. Kruger issued a proclamation annexing the Free State to the Transvaal. Mr. Steyn immediately issued a counter proclamation declaring the Free State intact."

LIVELY ABOUT MAFEKING.

Colonel Plumer's Relief Force Hard Pressed by Boers.

CAPE TOWN, March 22.—A dispatch from Lobatsi dated March 16 says:

"The Boers under Commandant Snyman are advancing in force from Mafeking toward Lobatsi.

"Colonel Bodle made a reconnoissance on March 13 and found Pitsani and Pothlugo occupied by the Boers. He returned to Goode Siding and made a demonstration on March 14. He found the Boers in strength at a sharp curve on the railway. They had mounted a gun on the line and were lying in wait for the construction train.

"A brisk firing occurred a few miles south of Lobatsi on the morning of the 15th. The Boers' Maxim was freely used. Colonel Bodle came in touch with the Boers just in time to prevent the camp being surprised. The Boers attacked the advance party and captured a few boxes of ammunition and nearly secured a Maxim.

"Lieutenant Tyler was killed and Lieutenant Chapman captured. Colonel Bodle, coming up, put the Boers to flight with heavy loss.

"The Boers yesterday were within a few miles of Lobatsi.

"Yesterday afternoon the Boers pressed closely on Colonel Plumer's main camp and kept up a hot fire with a Maxim, killing one white man and one native. They placed the Maxim and a 12½ pounder on a hill on the east side of the line 4,000 yards from the camp.

"The British right is protected by Chief Bathoen, who has warned the Boers not to enter his territory.

"Colonel Plumer's present endeavor is to insure the safety of the railway north of Lobatsi and to watch well the left flank. It is probable that before the Boers retire toward Pretoria they will tackle the Rhodesians in force."

Boers Vacate Two Towns.

WARRENTON, March 23.—The Boers have vacated Klipdam and Windsorton, which are almost deserted. Their wives and families have fled with them. They sank the ponts, or ferryboats, at Riverton and Windsorton. The Vaal river can only be crossed by swimming. The country this side of the river is well patrolled by the British.

British Columbia Town Destroyed.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 23.—A special from Sirdar, B. C., states that the little town of Kuskand, on Kootenay lake, was entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday. Only two buildings were left standing, and the people of the place are now destitute. An appeal for assistance was sent to the mayor of Vancouver.

THROUGH A GLASS.

IVORY SOAP is a skin soap. On one square inch of your hand there are 2,800 pores. On the whole body you have 2,381,284 of these little cavities to look after. Every one of these openings must be kept clear, or the impurities of the body can not pass out. Now, to cleanse the pores, you need a fine, pure soap. Scientists who speak not from opinion, but from scientific analyses, urge the use of Ivory Soap. 99 44/100 per cent. pure.

SOME PHILIPPINE NEWS.

Improvement Everywhere, but the Natives Still Warlike.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The steamer Hongkong Maru brings from Hongkong news of a surprising state of affairs existing in the Philippines. The correspondent of a Hongkong paper sends the following uncensored letter, bearing date of Manila, Feb. 13, to his journal:

"It is a strange state of affairs that exists in the Philippines today. Improvement is visible in nearly every quarter. Civil governments are rapidly being established in every town of importance, and garrisons and patrols are in process of extension wherever Americans hold territory, and yet it is an undeniable fact that since Jan. 1 the insurgent forces have captured a number of rifles and quantities of ammunition from the Americans almost equaling the sum total of American captures from the insurgents. Besides this, the casualty rate for the last two weeks will come very close to being heavier than at any other period of the insurrection, with the exception of the time of the outbreak and the fortnight beginning with March 25, 1899.

"The threatened guerrilla warfare seems to be a reality, and parties of 50 or smaller numbers are ambushed and "jumped" day after day. Supply trains, small escorts and scouting parties are the special objects of attack, and the country is said to be full of small roving bands waiting at every convenient cover until the prey is caught.

"In one or two instances heavy patrols or strong scouting parties have quickly avenged these raids by setting out immediately and hunting down and killing as many of the marauders as possible.

"These lessons have not been forgotten, and in the immediate districts there have been no repetitions of the trouble. The authorities are giving the question considerable attention, and every effort will be made to insure the public safety, for on this depends the future of the country."

MACHINISTS ON A STRIKE.

A Nine Hour Day With Ten Hours' Pay Is Demanded.

CLEVELAND, March 23.—After voting for over four hours in secret session at Germania hall, at 2 a. m. 1,500 machinists of Cleveland, both union and nonunion men, unanimously declared a strike, to go into effect yesterday morning. As the men walked jubilantly out of the hall they declared that they would never give in until they had won the struggle.

In accordance with the decision reached at this meeting the machinists employed in more than 50 establishments laid down their tools at the time designated.

It is stated that about 1,500 men are out, including union and nonunion men. Should the strike continue for a few days several thousand additional men in other trades, dependent upon the machinists, will become idle. The strikers declare they will remain out until their demand for a nine hour day with ten hours' pay is granted by the employers.

At four establishments the machinists were notified early in the day that their demands had been granted. In these shops the men continued at work.

President O'Connell of the International Machinists' union has issued the following statement:

"If the nine hour day is not granted by the employers of machinists throughout the country by April 1, there will be a general strike involving 200,000 machinists, and not a wheel will be turned until that concession is made."

In Belfast After Thirty Years.

BELFAST, March 23.—For the first time in 30 years the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, commander of the forces in Ireland, visited Belfast yesterday on a tour of military inspection. He was enthusiastically received. The Earl of Dufferin and Ava proposed the health of his royal highness at luncheon. The duke in his response referred to the "wonderful development of Belfast." Alluding to the forthcoming visit of the queen, he said that all understood that it was entirely of the queen's own free will that she was planning to revisit the country, of which she had always cherished the warmest recollections. He paid a high tribute to the gallantry of the Irish regiments in South Africa.

Indian Pottery Collection.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 23.—Stanley McCormick, '95, has presented to the university a collection of Indian pottery, stone axes and other articles used in religious ceremonies of the Hopi Indians of Arizona. The collection consists largely of articles which represent the methods of modeling and decoration employed among this tribe of Indians. A small Indian torso is included in the collection.

Hispano-American Union Favored.

MADRID, March 23.—The officers of the Argentina schoolship Presidente Sarmiento, now visiting Spanish ports, are attending a series of festivities organized in their honor in Madrid. They have been banqueted by the queen regent, the premier, Senor Silvela and the Ibero-American society. The speeches delivered were strongly in favor of a Hispano-American union.

President Loubet Will Pardon.

PARIS, March 23.—President Loubet has decided to pardon Baron Christiani, who last June assaulted him on the presidential stand at the Auteuil races and who was sentenced to four years' imprisonment for the offense. This pardon M. Loubet will sign, with 50 others, next Tuesday, thus taking the first opportunity to show his desire for the pacification of the country.

To Pay the Funeral Expenses.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Representative Fitzgerald of Massachusetts has introduced a bill allowing $50 to the family or representatives of a soldier dying in the service and $100 to the family of an officer dying under similar circumstances to cover the funeral expenses of the deceased.

Kang Yu Wei In Singapore.

LONDON, March 23.—The Singapore correspondent of The Times says: "Kang Yu Wei, the Chinese reformer, who was reported a month ago to have sailed for London, returned here secretly in a pilot boat and has lived in Singapore ever since. The discovery has greatly excited the local Chinese."

Bonds For Exchange.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The amount of bonds so far presented at the treasury department for exchange for the new 2 per cents is $122,385,400, of which $10,520,450 has been received from individuals and institutions other than national banks.

Long at the Middlesex Club.

BOSTON, March 23.—Hon. John D. Long, secretary of the navy, was the guest of the Middlesex club at the American House last night, at which was observed "Veterans' night," and there were also present as guests Rear Admiral George E. Belknap (retired), Colonel Charles K. Darling, United States marshal; Peter D. Smith, department commander, Massachusetts G. A. R.; Silas A. Barton and General W. W. Blackmar, senior and junior vice commanders; Rev. Dr. Edward A. Norton, Hon. Samuel J. Elder and former Representative Henry Turner of Malden. There were nearly 200 members of the club present.

A Deadly Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—One person was killed, two seriously injured and about a dozen others were slightly hurt by a terrific explosion of collodion in the photographic supply establishment of Thomas H. McCollin & Co., at 123 South Eleventh street. The building was almost entirely wrecked, and the adjoining structure, 121, occupied by V. Clad & Sons, manufacturers of hotel ranges and kitchen supplies, was also badly damaged by the force of the explosion. There were many narrow escapes from death, as there were over 100 persons in the Clad building when the explosion occurred.

New German Cruiser Launched.

BERLIN, March 23.—The German cruiser launched at Kiel received the name Prinz Heinrich and was christened by Princess Henry of Prussia. She is belt armored, with plates 100 millimeters thick at the water line. She has an indicated horsepower of 15,000 and triple expansion engines and is capable of 20½ knots an hour. She carries two 24 centimeter guns in two revolving towers, six 15 centimeter guns in casemates, four 15 centimeter guns in revolving towers and numerous smaller guns, together with four torpedo tubes. Her displacement is 8,800 tons.

Secretary Porter Returns.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Mr. J. Addison Porter, secretary to the president, has returned to Washington from a trip through the south for the benefit of his health, which is greatly improved by the outing.

Tom Lane in Kentucky.

A dispatch from Frankport, Ky., says that "Thomas F. Lane, of Summit, N. J., has been appointed by J.S. Beckham, the Democratic claimant as Governor, as an aide on his official staff with the rank of Colonel. Colonel Lane is a son-in-law of Senator Blackburn. He is here as the guest of the Chief Executive.".

If this is the truth it means that Mr. Lane is going to shake the dust of New Jersey from his shoulders and hie himself to the blue grass region. Tom Lane has been one of the political figures of Union county for a decade past. He has been one of the most active and aggressive Democrats in the bailiwick, and the hotter the fight the better Thomas seemed to like it. With such characteristics he will undoubtedly be in his glory in Kentucky, where politicians on both sides of the fence are of the most irascible stripe. In the ring of circus politics, Kentucky is just now affording a show that eclipses anything of its kind on record. His debut at such a critical period as this will be a momentous occasion for Tom, but we have no doubt that he will prove equal to the emergencies.

We regret to hear that Mr. Lane is to depart from New Jersey, and especially from Union county, but as a real Kentucky colonel where military titles are as thick as distilleries we believe that the Honorable Thomas will cut a polite and impressive figure, and add lustre to the ranks of native Jerseymen. Our best wishes go with Mr. Lane.

Changing the Constitution.

The necessity of some important changes being made in the Constitution of the State of New Jersey, in order to adjust the primary points of government upon a basis more in sympathy with modernized things, has long been recognized by those who are in touch with the legal machinery of the Commonwealth. Tinkering with the fundamental law of the State, however, is a weighty job which should be carried out with greatest discretion and most sober judgment that it is possible to command. Anent this important subject, the Newark Call editorially remarks:

"Whether the time has come when amendments to the Constitution reforming the courts of New Jersey will be considered fairly and liberally by the public and the Legislature is by no means certain; but the time is here (and, indeed, is past) when some change should be made. The courts are doing their work with more delays, at higher expense and with less justice to public and private interests in every way than would be easily practicable under a better system. Of course, no system, however excellent, will make a good judge out of a bad man; but good judges may make a bad system reasonably thorough by hard work and high ideals. Generally speaking, this is what has been going on in New Jersey but it is hard and dangerous business, and a very slight falling off in the character of the judiciary might cause evils which a better and simpler system would prevent."

The recent report of the Bureau of Statistics affords some instructive and interesting figures relative to the prosperity and general welfare of union and non union workmen. On all the points set forth there seems to be a decided advantage on the side of unionism. For instance, it is shown that while union employes are employed 53 9 hours per week, non-union employes work 61.5 hours; days idle in the year, union 53.8 days and non-union 66 3 days. As to wages the average of the union employes in the trades enumerated is $3 per day, non union employes $2 19 per day, an increase in favor of union employes of 37.0 per cent. As to actual earnings for the entire year the increase in favor of union employes is 40.7 per cent. The advantages of unionism are shown to be so great as to furnish a perfectly reasonable explanation of why workingmen voluntarily place themselves under the discipline of a trades union. Comparatively steady employment and good wages, which apparently the trade unionist enjoys in a much higher degree than his non-union fellow-craftsman, not to speak of other benefits, would seem to much more than offset the slight sacrifice of personal liberty of action, which the rules of the union require him to submit to.

Whatever may be the general impression in reference to the enterprise of Rev. Mr. Sheldon in attempting to edit a paper as he thought Jesus would—and it certainly is far from favorable—there are those who think that the Kansas parson would be a drawing attraction as the editor of a religious column in a common, every-day newspaper. For instance, the stockholders of the Denver Post have offered $5,000 a year to Rev. Charles M. Sheldon if he will assume exclusive control of a religious page in the daily and Sunday Post. It is understood that Mr. Sheldon will decline the offer on the ground that it is a sin for a Christian to have any part or lot in the issue of a Sunday paper.

The official organ of the Commercial Travellers' and Hotel Men's Anti-Trust League, Talkative Facts, makes an appeal to the Southern Democrats to send delegates to the Kansas City convention who will support Augustus Van Wyck for the Presidential nomination. It announces positively that Judge Van Wyck's name will be presented to the convention. It is supposed that Joseph J. Willett, of Alabama, the pioneer Van Wyck boomer, who is chief counsel to the league, inspired the article. After the convention the judge will probably figure in the column described by the two words "and others."

Life offers a prize of $50 for the best written article on the subject "Which is the Meanest City in the United States." Now here is a chance for our carping critic and editorial friend, Mr. Bunion, of the News, to vent his spleen against Plainfield and at the same time gather in a half hundred shekels.

It is to be sincerely hoped that the Common Council will resist all efforts to induce the granting of applications for liquor licenses simply because political pulls figure in underhanded ways with certain cases.

The Philadelphia Times notes that it would seem as if England was going to put such a wreath of woven laurels and shamrocks on the Irish soldier's brow that he can't see through it.

It is dollars to doughnuts that when the "Sapho" case is called in court there won't be a dearth of men who will be willing to try and play the "good and true" part.

April Fool Day comes a week from Sunday.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

James E. Martine, of Plainfield, is being prominently mentioned as one of New Jersey's delegates-at large to the Democratic National convention. No better selection could be made. The "Farmer Orator's" services to the party entitle him to the honor of helping to name the next President of the United States. He is the right man in the right place.—Somerset Messenger.

THE CARPET STORE.

We refer to it THE Carpet store for we know of no other this side of N. Y. that compares favorably with it. At present a busy place. By comparing goods and prices with those of N. Y. houses people have discovered that reliable and desirable carpets can be bought cheaper here than in N. Y. Our purchases we made early, before the rise in prices, which enables us to hold the price down pretty well, but on all duplicate orders we are compelled to pay the advance and some grades must be sold at a higher figure. Our advice may be safely taken. It is—buy now—or pay higher prices later.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn, is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Dunellen, March 23. — Superintendent Cathers, of New Market, has recently adopted a plan to invite the parents to visit the public schools. Recently a number availed themselves of the opportunity to do so. It is suggested that the idea be introduced into the Dunellen schools. A visitation occasionally from parents, it is believed, would encourage the superintendent to renewed interest. It is certainly a duty that parents owe to their children.

It is possible that Rev. A. I Martine, pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, will sever his connection with that society this spring. There is a rumor that Mr. Martine has already tendered has resignation to take effect the first of May.

The Literary Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Nancy Thomas Saturday evening. Papers will be submitted on Longfellow, Will Carelton and on India.

Charles Carpenter is soon to move from Washington avenue to Grove street, in the house recently occupied by Thomas B. Titsworth.

Miss Pearl Dodwell, the interesting daughter of Conductor Charley Dodwell, will spend Sunday with relatives in Somerville.

P. V. D. VanDoren, of Millstone, has bought the house of Mary F. Coriell, of Washington and Dunellen avenues.

Theodore Hubbard and William Waldron have formed a partnership in the mason building business.

Mrs Martha Suydam is soon to move into one of William Craig's houses on Dunellen avenue.

The condition of Mrs. E. P. Ruckles, mother of Mrs. E. S. Jamison, is not much improved.

Auctioneer Day will sell next Friday the contents of the house and barn of Samuel Newell.

A party of colored folks gave a private dance in Apgar Hall Wednesday night.

The Watchung Water Co. has been connected with the stable of W. G. Runyon.

New furniture has been bought by Butcher Wiedenkaupt for his new shop.

Charles Wyhuskey will occupy the residence of Mrs. Hunt after April 1st.

Miss Estella M. Eick contemplates a trip to New York in a few days.

Edward Ayers is engaged in painting the house of C. Schepflin.

Miss Alice Apgar will visit relatives in Newark over Sunday.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Scotch Plains, March 23—The Epworth League Literary Society met and enjoyed an interesting reading in the classrooms of the Methodist church last evening.

Mr. Needham's revival meetings, being held for two weeks in the Baptist church, are proving very interesting and are encuraging to both Mr. Needham and Rev. Mr. Shott. Service begins each evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend all the meetings.

A sure sign of spring is the annual Gypsy encampment which arrived and pitched their tents on Mountain avenue yesterday.

Mrs. W. Stewart Hess, of New York city, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Marsh.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., held a large and interesting meeting in their rooms last evening.

Mrs. Agnes Monte, of Brooklyn, spent Thursday with friends in town.

John R. Haskard, of Plainfield, visited friends in town last evening.

Mrs. George Schick was the guest of Plainfield friends yesterday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, March 23d—The railroad company men are repairing the boilers at the water tanks. The company is using a small locomotive to furnish steam for the pump and also to heat the station. Last night the fireman could not keep the steam up, consequently the station was cold most of the night.

Some weeks ago the railroad company had a lawsuit in New Brunswick and several persons from here were subpœnaed as witnesses. Since that time two of those witnesses have lost their job with the company.

George Stingraffe has been attending the sale at the poultry farm at Washingtonville for several days.

Samuel Bigley and family, of Pennsylvania, are visiting Daniel Bigley.

Stillman Randolph has gone into the fish business. He will run a route.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Electric and massage treatment, F. L. Bathmann, 608 East Sixth street.

—Stone Square Lodge, No. 38, F. and A. M., will hold an important meeting next Monday evening.

—There will be a regular meeting of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, next Monday evening.

—J. M. Smalley sells only first-class meats and fish at Crescent Market, Watchung avenue, corner of Fourth street.

—There are several palefaces who will be adopted at the meeting of Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men this evening.

—The meeting of Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held this evening. The third rank will be conferred.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will meet this evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

—The Plainfield Medical Association will hold its quarterly meeting and dinner at the Hotel Kensington the first week in April.

—At the mid-week prayer meeting at the First Baptist church next week Wednesday evening the annual report of the deacons will be presented.

—N. K. Barnes, grocer, of 245 West Front street, has a choice stock of well selected goods. The prices are at the lowest cash. He gives trading stamps. Give him a call.

—Careful housewives will be pleased to call at Fred Endress' meat market and see the high grade of meats and poultry he sells; sweet and toothsome and prices very reasonable.

—The famous Mozart Quartette will appear at the Y. M. C. A., March 29th, in their original creation entitled "A Night at the Armory," introducing "The Blue and the Gray."

—Everything depends on health, and health depends on buying good groceries. Fred. H. Firstbrook, 312 Liberty street, sells only first-class groceries and his prices are very low for good goods.

—In the action of Drake & Mundy against the Central Railroad, tried before Justice Moffett, a verdict for the plaintiffs was given for $99.13 instead of the defendant, as erroneously stated in yesterday's Press.

—The two cannon presented to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and which have been received in this city, are still at William Hand's residence. They will not be taken to Hillside cemetery until the ground becomes settled.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Electric and massage treatment, F. L. Bathmann, 608 East Sixth street.

—Mizpah Lodge, No. 1, U. O. of I. O. L., will hold an entertainment in their rooms next Monday evening.

—All sizes and widths of shoes, sensible and strong, and giving good wear, are to be found at Flynn Bros., 222 West Front street, near Music Hall.

Ross H. Foster, of 11 Maple avenue, has returned from Washington, where he has been attending the funeral of his brother, who died there recently.

—Ida F. Rocap's private school on Central avenue is doing excellent work with the pupils enrolled there. Miss Rocap is a talented teacher and she is meeting with deserved success.

—Gulick & Co., the Park grocers, are selling a very fine table butter called the Rose Dairy. They are the only grocers in Plainfield who handle it and they say that if you try it you will always use it.

—A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the meeting to be held this evening at Warren chapel, when W. D. Murray will give a talk concerning the coming general conference to be held in New York from April 21st to May 1st.

Given a Long Furlough

B. Mortimer Chilton, of Putnam avenue, who is a member of the Seventh Regiment of the New York National Guard, has been given a furlough from duty until next fall. Last fall Chilton accidentally shot himself through the hand and the injury has been such that he has been unable to go through the manual of arms since that time. So the regimental authorities gave him the furlough.

A Plainfield Society.

It was not a New York society that was in charge of the funeral of Lorenzo Ciechillo, Tuesday morning, but a local organization, entitled the Principessa Elena Society, which directed the funeral arrangements.

Berlin. Die Allgemeine deutsche Pensionsanstalt für Lehrerinnen und Erzieherinnen unter dem Protektorat der Kaiserin Friedrich hat nach Ausweis des Jahresabschlusses für 1899 auch während des letzten Jahres sich in erwünschter Weise weiter entwickelt. Neu eingetreten sind 163 Mitglieder, so daß die Gesammtzahl auf 3462 sich beläuft, von denen 2376 in Preußen, 679 in den anderen deutschen Staaten und 207 im Auslande ihren zeitigen Aufenthalt haben. Pension beziehen 618 Mitglieder mit einer jährlichen Pensionssumme von 183,708 Mark. An außergewöhnlichen Unterstützungen wurden rund 8000 Mark bewilligt. Das Vermögen der Pensionsanstalt beträgt 6,823,650 Mark.—Zum Zwecke einer gemeinschaftlichen Studentenfahrt nach Paris hat sich in Berlin aus Dozenten und Akademikern ein Komite gebildet. Das Komite ließ Einladungen an alle Universitäten Deutschlands ergehen.—Gegen 2000 Tischlermeister erklärten in einer Versammlung, keinen Strikenden eher einzustellen, als bis der Ausstand auf der ganzen Linie beendet ist. Es striken beziehungsweise sind ausgesperrt 15,000 Gesellen.—Der bekannte Romanschriftsteller Reinhard Ortmann wurde wegen Körperverletzung und Beleidigung vom Schöffengericht zu 50 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt. Er hatte der Abgesandten eines Kleidergeschäfts, als diese ihm widersprach, ein paar Ohrfeigen heruntergehauen. Das Gericht nahm, da Ortmann zur Zeit der That an der Grippe litt, mildernde Umstände an.

Brandenburg. Der vorbestrafte Hutmacher Eduard Blasius wollte auf dem Militär-Schießplatz Geschosse stehlen. Er hatte den Anruf des dort stationirten Wachtpostens unbeachtet gelassen, worauf der Posten, seiner Instruktion gemäß, auf ihn schoß. Blasius blieb todt auf dem Platze.

Landsberg. Wegen Beleidigung der Landräthe der Neumark wurde der Redakteur Gerhard Badermann von hier zu 100 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt. Er hatte in einer Eingabe an die Handelskammer behauptet, daß die großen Viehhandelssperren dazu benutzt würden, den agrarischen Viehverwerthungsgenossenschaften die Wege zu ebnen.

Provinz Hannover.

Aurich. Auf der Insel Borkum ist eine Station für drahtlose Telegraphie errichtet worden.

Neuhaus. In dem Grund und Boden des Dorfes Heeßel befindet sich, wie vorgenommene Untersuchungen ergeben haben, ein mächtiges Thonlager. Eine Hamburger Gesellschaft hat kurzweg das ganze Dorf auf Abbruch gekauft, um das große Thonlager ungehindert ausbeuten zu können. Nach Planirung des jetzigen Ortschaftsgeländes wird sofort mit dem Bau einer großen Porzellanfabrik vorgegangen werden.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Biebrich. Neulich wurde hier das Königin Luise-Gedächtnißheim eröffnet. Es ist bestimmt zur Aufnahme in dürftigen Verhältnissen lebender Frauen und Töchter von Offizieren, die in dem Kriege gegen Frankreich 1870 auf 1871 gefallen oder in Folge desselben gestorben sind.

Frankfurt. Das hiesige städtische Krankenhaus war kürzlich so überfüllt, daß mehrere Kranke anderen hiesigen Krankenanstalten überwiesen werden mußten. Die Ortskrankenkasse zahlte in einer Woche an 19,000 Mark Krankengeld aus, die höchste bisher ausgezahlte Summe.

Hohenzollern.

Hechingen. Die in Hechingen und Sigmaringen von Volksversammlungen beschlossene Eingabe an das preußische Abgeordnetenhaus, in der neuen hohenzollerischen Gemeindeordnung das bisherige geheime direkte Wahlrecht mit Ausschluß der Dreiklassenwahl für sämmtliche Gemeinde- und Kommunalwahlen beizubehalten, erhielt im Lande Hohenzollern gegen 11,000 Unterschriften, das ist bei 66,000 Einwohnern ungefähr die Zahl sämmtlicher Stimmberechtigten.

Provinz Pommern.

Benz. Ein alter pommer'scher Veteran, der älteste Bewohner des Benzer Kirchspiels, Johann Müller in Stoben, ist gestorben. Müller trat am 12. August 1899 in sein 98. Lebensjahr und erfreute sich an diesem Tage noch großer Rüstigkeit. Er legte noch den Weg von Stoben nach Benz zu Fuß zurück, um seiner Wahlpflicht zu genügen. Müller diente von 1822 bis 1825 beim Leibregiment in Stettin.

Saßnitz. Bei Stubbenkammer auf Rügen strandete der der Stettiner Rhederei Griebel gehörige Dampfer „Christian." Ein Theil der Mannschaft suchte in einem Boote das Land zu erreichen. Das Boot kenterte jedoch und die Leute erreichten schwimmend das Land. Der Kapitän und die übrigen zehn Mann wurden durch den Raketenapparat der Saßnitzer Station gerettet.

A young medical student, living in West Hebron, N. Y., explains some severe difficulties he has encountered in spite of his professional training. "After eating a hearty meal," he says, "I would have an uncomfortable feeling of fullness and would raise gas. Of course if this had continued I would have been a good case for some doctor. In the morning I would have a feeling of nausea and sometimes would vomit. Seeing an advertisement of Ripans Tabules, I sent for two packages and took a Tabule after each meal. Before I had taken two boxes I was completely cured of the disagreeable feelings. I occasionally take a Tabule when I feel the need of it, and I now have as good a digestion as anybody would want. FEMININE FOIBLES.

A Sharp and Merited Criticism of High-Heeled Shoes and Tightly-Laced Corsets.

To describe the vagaries of fashion in women's dress from physiological point of view would be to pen a scathing satire on the foibles of the sex. From recent letters published in a public journal we learn that one of the chief causes why a woman cannot take the short, smart little steps that mark the progress of a tightly-shod and high-heeled boot is because she has not worn them from youth upward. Anyone who prefers cramped, artificial gait of that kind, to say nothing of the associated internal organic complaints, would probably defend the dyeing of hair, the rougeing of cheeks and all other methods of improving nature's work, and would defend their use in the nursery or at the boarding school. Heaven defend our schoolgirls from such a fate! So far, their most serious physical handicap consists in the corset that a distorted feminine judgment still generally insists upon their wearing. About that extraordinary implement of torture—for that is what it amounts to—the one thing that prevents its killing off a considerable proportion of the feminine population lies in the fact that during sleep the body is allowed to resume the shape and movements with which that most perfect product of nature has been endowed. It will come as a shock to most of the sterner sex that the practice of sleeping in stays is discussed in some quarters as an accepted fact. In the directions given by one foolish dame the lady is directed to stand upright and hold an old-fashioned backboard, bracing the shoulders, while being laced. This method is said to obviate entirely the necessity of sleeping in corsets. The picture thus raised reminds one forcibly of the medieval rack, with an innocent schoolgirl as the victim, instead of a Christian martyr or a criminal.—Woman's Life.

CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT.

Miss Anthony's Successor as President of the National Woman's Suffrage Association.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who succeeds Susan B. Anthony as president of the American Woman Suffrage association, is unquestionably the foremost active suffragist of this day. She took up the cause several years ago and has devoted to it all the time she could reasonably spare from her duties of the household. Mrs. Catt was born in Iowa and lived in that state until she became the wife of George A. Catt, the big dredging contractor. Since that time she has made her home in New

CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT.

York city and in Bensonhurst-by-the-Sea, where the Catts have one of the coziest summer residences in Long Island. The new head of the American suffragists has a personality altogether out of line with the traditional (and false) idea of the woman's rights woman. She is an ideal hostess, a housekeeper of enviable ability and resources and a cook whose dishes are famous. She is fond of horses, flowers and pretty bric-a-brac. She is a student, and one of the most eloquent speakers in the country. She is in the suffrage movement because she has convictions, and these convictions she is quite capable of conveying to others by the lucidity of her argument and the indisputability of her conclusions. She has never sought for an office in the association of which she is now the chairwoman.

Cure for Moth Patches.

Brown spots on the cheeks are called moth patches. They are usually caused by some internal disturbance. Frequently the liver is at fault. The following formula is given for external use, but as long as the internal cause remains, no outward application will effect a permanent cure: Kaolin, four grams; lanoline, ten grams; glycerine, four grams; carbonate of magnesia and oxide of zinc, two grams each. Apply to the spots at night before going to bed.

MISS ANTHONY HONORED.

Eightieth Birthday of the Suffrage Leader Celebrated with Great Eclat at Washington.

Woman suffragists gave Susan B. Anthony the birthday party of her life on February 15. They brought gifts, flowers and all sorts of pretty complimentary speeches, which they laid with reverence at her feet. Eighty little children passed before her, and each dropped a rose into her lap. Each rose was emblematic of a year in the life of the great leader of American women. Some one whispered in the audience: "She began her career among thorns and hardships; she is ending it under a shower of roses and listening to the applause of almost innumerable friends."

This, indeed, was the sole and ruling sentiment of the hour. Every woman in the Lafayette Square Opera house, Washington, D. C., where the ovation was tendered, had come there for the one specific purpose of paying homage at the Anthony shrine.

Their leader looked the queen, if she did not act it. She wore a marvelous black gown, and, on entering and departing and part of the time during the reception, a rich purple cloak, lined with ermine. Among a host of elegantly attired women, Miss Anthony was the best dressed and the most distinguished in general appearance.

All sorts of tributes in prose and poetry were sent to Miss Anthony. Most of these are too long to be printed, but a short poem by William Lloyd Garrison, one of Miss Anthony's strongest friends for many years, expressed the public sentiment sweetly and well. Here it is:

The gibe and ridicule and social frown,
That through long years her faithful life assailed,
Are dead and vanished; as a queen now hailed,
Upon her reverend brow rests honor's crown.
A faith that faced all adverse fortune down,
A courage that in trial never failed,
A scorn of self that grievous weight entailed,
Have blossomed into laurels of renown

As, after days of bitter storm and blast,
The chilling wind becomes a breeze of balm,
Billows subside, and sea-tossed vessels cast
Their anchors in the restful harbor calm—
So this brave life has gained its haven blest,
Bathed in the sunset glories of the west.

Miss Anthony all but wept once or twice during the reception, especially during the addresses, and then again when the children almost buried her in roses. Tears came to her eyes—tears of joy, of course—but she speedily put herself under control and few noticed the passing wave of sentiment.

She hardly attempted to say her thanks. A few words that reached every heart in the great silent hall. She would have been kept busy all day, indeed, if she had tried to make formal acknowledgment of all presents and well wishes.

Philadelphia Ice Cream.

Philadelphia ice cream is made from thick cream, half of which is scalded, the sugar added and the remaining half of the cream added cold. The vanilla bean, which is invariably used, is added to the hot cream. The bean is split into halves, the seeds scraped out and mixed with the sugar, the sugar mixed with the hot cream. This is allowed to cool; then the cold cream is added and the mixture frozen. One bean will be sufficient for two quarts of cream, and eight ounces of sugar are allowed to each quart. The best confectioners do not use machinery in making ice cream. The process of freezing should be slow, and the beating almost continuous. This is done by hand with a large wooden paddle. No other method would be truly Philadelphian.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Helps to Education.

A zoological garden, says Meehan's Monthly is a great ornament to a city, and a most desirable adjunct to school education. The child who can see and study a moose, an eagle, an alligator or any other strange beast of the field gets what no book can teach.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For Week Beginning March 25—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—The glory of obedience.—Math. xxi, 28-32.

The topic is illustrated by the parable of the two sons, in which Christ leads the fault finding Jews to condemn themselves and pay a tribute to the obedience of the gentiles.

THE PARABLE.

"A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' and he went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father?"

THE INTERPRETATION.

The father is God. The first son represents the gentiles, the second the Jews. The vineyard is the church. The gentiles represent the unregenerate sinner, who makes no pretension, at the first call, to serve God; but, then, after thought and consideration, he repents and does serve him. The Jews, on the other hand, pretended to serve God, but were hypocritical in their pretenses. They said, "I go, sir," but went not. Of the two classes, the former, of course, came nearer to doing the will of God.

THE APPLICATION.

Though Christ spoke this parable for the benefit of the chief priests and elders who were trying to entrap Him, yet it has a universal application. The representatives of these two types of people have been in the world in all ages and are here today. The first makes no pretension of serving God and often boasts of the fact that they are not hypocrities at least, but this does not relieve them of the sin of disobedience. The man who shamelessly and boastfully proclaims his disobedience does not thereby relieve himself of it. It is not the confession of the boaster, but the confession of the penitent, that brings forgiveness and pardon. It was only when this son repented and obeyed his father that he was worthy of praise, and, therefore, how much better it would have been had he willingly obeyed from the first call. And what a risk he ran in disobeying for a time! The opportunity to repent and to do his father's will might never have come to him again. It is only by comparison with the other class that glory is attached to his obedience. The noblest glory shines round out obedience when at the first command, "Go work," we answer, "I go, sir," and then go.

The second class represents those whose religion is only a hypocritical pretense. They profess to be doing God's will while they are not doing it. They say, "I go," and go not. They have the form of godliness, but not the power. They have a name to live, but are dead. Let us guard ourselves against the error of this class. If we have said, "I go," let us go; let us willingly obey, at any cost or sacrifice, for if we do not obey God we shall come short of the glory of God. "Obedience is better than sacrifice," for without obedience no sacrifice is acceptable unto God.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a Bible class meeting. Let the leader have a Bible in his hand as he opens the topic, passing it to another when he closes, as a signal for him to take part, and he to another, until all have taken part.

Bible Readings.—Ex. xix, 5, 6; xxiii, 20-22; Lev. xxvi, 1-7; Deut. xxviii, 1-11; I Sam. xv, 22; Isa. i, 18-20; Jer. vii, 23; xxvi, 12, 13; xxxviii, 17-20; Acts v, 29; Rom. v, 19; Phil. ii, 5-12; Heb. xi, 8-10; Rev. xxii, 14.

The Rush of Modern Times.

The dire effect of the present driving rate at which life is forced along is beginning to show itself in two important directions. First, while the average of life is longer because of the improved condition of child life, the life of men and women, but especially men, is growing shorter. The pressure to go fast is making men old before their time and is laying many of them in the grave. Good John Woolman, the American Quaker of last century, used to say that God never meant men to toil and moil as they generally do for a living, and, somehow, we shall have to be brought to the conclusion "that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." This rush all day long is lot life. Second, with this rapidity of pace we are told that originality is becoming rarer every year and "a casual type of mind" is being developed. The pleasures of the mind are being sacrificed notwithstanding the diffusion of a certain type of education. We are starving ourselves in order to live. The quieter and more meditative way suggested by Scripture profits both soul and body.—Christian.

To Those Who Hesitate.

In every man's life there come moments when he is called to decide whether to go forward or to stand still. Timidity says, "Hesitate." Prudence says: "Be not too hasty. Take aim." Self interest says: "You may hurt yourself. You may run risks. You may injure your prospects of worldly success." But conscience says: "The hour has come. Go and do your duty." And everything generous and noble in the heart responds and says, "Amen!"—Christian Uplook.

Protestantism In Austria.

From official reports of Protestant pastors in Austria for the period Jan. 1 to June 30, 1899, we learn that 1,876 men, 912 women and 536 children, or 3,275 in all, during that time left the Catholic church to become Protestants. In previous years the average accessions from all sources for the same period to Protestant churches were only 656. Among the converts is Alois Walch, formerly priest of the Servite order.—Exchange.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 25, "The Glory of Obedience"—Text, Math. xxi, 28-32.

"Son, go to work today in my vineyard."

The first son refused. Afterward, as he thought over the matter, he went. It was tardy obedience, but was much better than utter neglect or refusal. The other son said, "I go, sir," but got no farther. Perhaps he intended to go. Possibly he was one of those easy people who can never say "No," always wishing to please every one, profuse in professions of friendship and fidelity, but with no stamina. "I go," he said, but he never started. The purpose never took hold of him below his lips.

In this parable Jesus unmasks the insincerity of the religious men of His times and country. They were extremely rigid in all the forms of religion. They prayed long and often and publicly so that the common people would see them. They gave money to the poor openly, fasted often, were regular in attendance upon the temple and synagogue services. They loved to be called very religious. Titles of respect pleased them. Official position in the Jewish church was eagerly sought. All the outside of piety they cultivated with extremest care.

But they never regarded God with affection nor came to know themselves as lacking the first elements of genuine devotion. They blinded themselves. Deep, whole souled thirst for the right and search for the God of mercy and goodness never was known to them. They were actors, playing and imitating, with never a touch of the noble passions they sought to exhibit. They were called of God to special service in carrying divine truth and salvation to the world. Prophets had been sent them as never were sent any other people. They had a special mission to mankind. They professed great reverence for the God of their fathers and promised obedience continually and claimed peculiar sanctity as better than other men.

In reality they held the most vital characteristics of God in contempt, refused the call of Jehovah to be pure in heart and life and compassionate to men. Irreverence toward the truth and intolerance of opposition became marked features of their nature. They had a mission to the nations around them to bring them to God. They despised those not Jews and shut the doors of opportunity against them. Instead of being holy they became hateful and malignant. God said to them, "Go work in My vineyard." They said, "We go," but went not and hindered others going.

The important lesson for us in this parable lies in its application to present day affairs more than in a study of history of Jesus' times.

The call for work is as urgent now as ever. It comes to you. How do you answer? Weak compliance or promise of obedience under persuasion in revival meetings is not enough. Saying "I will be a Christian" because some one urges you to do so never will make you such. If you will go into God's vineyard, you need to carefully consider all it means. When you decide, you will need all the manliness and womanliness in you. This is earnest work and not playing a part on a stage before folks. God calls. Will you go or are you only talking?

A Leaguer In a High Place.

We have become accustomed to seeing the older Methodists, laymen and ministers in places of prominence and responsibility in commercial, social and political circles. We are now seeing the younger generation who have been trained in the Epworth League coming forward into the public arena and taking honorable share in the world's work. The lieutenant governor of Massachusetts is Hon. John L. Bates, a young Methodist lawyer of Boston and widely known throughout New England for his sterling qualities of head and heart as well as for his lineage. His father, Rev. L. B. Bates, D. D., is one of the most prominent ministers of the New England conference.

HON. J. L. BATES.

Fifty years of age, a graduate of Boston Latin school, Boston university and Law school, former member of the city council and three times speaker of the Massachusetts house of representatives, Mr. Bates as lieutenant governor is in the direct line of succession by all party precedents for the governorship of the old Bay State. He is to the Republican party what the late Governor Russell was to the Democratic party.

Best of all, he is a firm Christian, of unwavering temperance principles, an ardent Methodist and working Epworth Leaguer.

Wit and Wisdom.

To be able to make a witty after dinner speech or tell a funny story so that it sounds comical is not possible for the most of folks, and many wish to possess the rare ability. Far better is it to seek to know and tell useful truth rather than the merely humorous. Don't be deluded into the idea that the funny man is the one you should try to imitate. The best wit is wisdom, and the man who gets the ears of people worth having as listeners is not the one who has a reputation as a joker.

The Philippines already have a Methodist Episcopal church in Manila, and Bishop Thoburn expects soon to have a district in the islands and occupy strategic points as opportunity opens.

THE SUDANESE FEVER.

It Makes Those It Attacks "See Red" and Drives Them Into Violent Insanity.

Much attention has been called to the number of men in the army serving in the Philippines who have gone insane, says a New York paper. The government has sent a special commission out there to investigate the matter, and there has been talk of a mysterious disease called the "Sudanese fever."

It is believed by some that this disease is peculiar to East Indian and African tropics; that it was this which caused Dr. Peters to get into trouble for killing Africans, and made the

MALAY RUNNING AMUCK.
(Terrible Effects of the Disease Known as Sudanese Fever.)

French officers in the interior of Africa recently slay other officers sent to their relief, is one theory. Everybody has heard of the Malay who runs amuck and, frenzied, kills right and left until he himself is killed. The word "amuck" is a corruption of the Javanese word "amoak," to kill. There seems to be no doubt that the Malay occasionally goes crazy through an overindulgence in opium or hasheesh, and, springing from his "shack," runs naked through the streets of his village, killing all whom he may meet.

When in a Malay village the cry "amuck" is raised, it is like the cry of "mad dog!" in an American village, and the populace turn out with long bamboo spears to kill the man as soon as they can. But the "Sudanese fever," if it exists, is another thing apparently. It may be that the disease which has afflicted white men in the Philippines and in equatorial Africa is only a variation of apoplexy, brought on by indulgence in heating and stimulating foods.

The London Lancet recently had something about the alleged disease. People who had been afflicted with it and had recovered said that they had a sudden sensation of a desire to kill, and that they "saw red." A sudden afflux of blood to the head and the bursting of a blood vessel would produce insanity or coma. In northern climes it more usually results in coma; in the tropics it seems to result in insanity.

All the soldiers of our army in the Philippines who have been sent back as insane have been violent. As a matter of fact, only 37 men who served in the Philippines went crazy and were brought back to the United States. Of these 11 recovered and were discharged.

This "seeing red" seems to be a peculiarity of the Asiatic when he is excited violently. The Sikhs and the Gourkhas, the best fighters in the native Indian army, describe their feeling when in the charge in the frenzy of battle as "seeing red." It is probably due to an afflux of blood to the head, which congests the small veins of the eyeball.

TO SUCCEED WATSON.

Admiral George C. Remey Appointed Commander of the Asiatic Station of the Navy.

Admiral George C. Remey, who has been assigned to succeed Admiral Watson as commander of the Asiatic station, is an old sailor, who served in the union navy during the civil war and who was very useful to the department during the recent war with Spain. He is an Iowa man and was appointed from that state to the naval academy at Annapolis in 1855. When the civil war began he was commissioned a lieutenant of the gunboat Marblehead in the South Atlantic blockading squadron. He was present at the siege of Yorktown and on several occasions engaged the batteries at long range. His ship was disabled just before the battle at West Point, Va., and the lieutenant was forced to witness the action as a mere looker-on. He fought at Sullivan's Island, Battery Wagner, Fort Sumter and Fort Yregg. After the war the customary shifting life of the naval officer in times of peace fell to his lot. In 1885 he was made a captain and placed in charge of the Charleston squadron of evolution. The Spanish war and the many changes in the navy that followed it brought Remey up to the rank of Admiral.

ADMIRAL GEORGE C. REMEY.
(Just Assigned to the Command of the Asiatic Station.)

The Grand American Handicap

Crack Shots of the Country Will Compete in New York From April 2 to 6

APRIL 2, at Interstate park, Borough of Queens, New York, the preliminary gun will be fired in the grand American handicap. Every lover of shooting in the United States will "watch the smoke" that rises from the vicinity of the traps, although, physically speaking, this will be a chimerical task for most of the trap shooters will use smokeless powder. What the American derby and the suburban are to the followers of the turf, the national baseball season is to the "fan," or the Henley regatta is to the oarsmen, the "G. A. H." is to live bird shots. Last season the seventh annual "G. A. H." was shot, and it was the greatest event of its kind

HON. THOMAS A. MARSHALL.
Two-Time Winner Grand American Handicap.

ever held in the world. Two hundred and seventy-eight entries were received for the event. This year the entries close March 24, and there is not a shot of prominence in the country who is not confidently expecting that the list for the eighth annual event will show over 300 entries. Manager Elmer E. Shaner, of the Interstate association, which will handle the shooters who come to New York to participate, has sent out the programme for the tournament. It follows:

Monday, April 2—Interstates Park Introductory, eight birds, five dollars entrance, even distance, 30 yards' rise; Borough of Queens sweepstakes, 12 birds, seven dollars entrance, even distance, 30 yards' rise.

Tuesday, April 3—Nitro-Powder handicap, 16 birds, ten dollars entrance; handicaps from 25 to 33 yards, and miss out events if time permits.

Wednesday, April 4—Grand American handicap, 25 birds, $25 entrance, handicap from 25 to 33 yards, $1,500 guaranteed by the Interstate association and all surplus added, sterling silver trophy, $600 to first high gun, $500 to second high gun, and $400 to third high gun. All money in the purse in excess of the $1,500 will be divided in accordance with the number of entries received.

Thursday, April 5—Grand American handicap continued.

Friday, April 6—Grand American handicap conclusion. Consolation handicap, Auld Lang Syne sweepstakes, even distance, and miss and out sweepstakes.

Last season 266 shots faced the traps as actual contestants in the record breaking handicap. The accommodations for this year's event are being made for a larger number of starters. It is to be hoped that the arrangements will be needed. In 1893, when the big handicap was started, there were 21 entries. From the entries that have already been sent in, it is to be seen that the same widespread interest will be again manifested—in fact, it need surprise no follower of the traps if at least 40 states are represented in the list. Last year 28 states sent shooters to the handicap, and Canada and Mexico had nominations. New York and New Jersey naturally were most prominent among the states making large entries, but Illinois, with 34 entries—eight less than New York and seven less than New Jersey—was easily the banner western state. The grand total of 510 entries has been made in the handicap since its inception. Because the G. A. H. is fraught with so much importance to shooters, and is productive of much good to the high guns, it is not to be taken into the same category with the target shooting tournaments.

R. A. HEIKES.

"There must, of a necessity, come a time when we must cease to grow," said Mr. Shaner, recently, in a letter to a follower of shooting.

"I do not know that our maximum has been attained, but I do know that the handicap is now rated as high with the skilled shots as the Olympian games were held by the ancient Greeks. The Interstate association has reached an eminence where it can successfully view any strictures that carping critics can make. From a managerial standpoint, 278 entries are not unwieldly, and I believe it is possible to manage the G. A. H. successfully up to a point of 400 or more entries. But in the interest of contestants, to have a greater number of entries than last year, would, in my opinion, tend to cheapen our annual contest by reducing it to the level of a show. To continue to permit more and more entries would be retrogression, in my opinion. The handicap should be so arranged as to make conditions harder without departing from our system, and be so that it could be shot in one day. Without detracting from the interest in the least, conditions might be made so that the nominations would not exceed 100.

"I have held that should the entry list fall below 100, the G. A. H. would still be the finest of its kind in the world—it would still excel the Grand Prix at Monte Carlo and be in a class by itself. It would be unapproached and unapproachable. By limiting the number of entries we do away with possible unavoidable mishaps, such as change of weather, sudden illness of contestants, etc. It is evident that the big event has been a very severe strain on the contestants. The sportsmen would give their consent to the changing of conditions, not the system."

Mr. Shaner being a man who has to look after countless details, is not as enthusiastic about mere numbers as are the shooters. He means well and has the cooperation of the sportsmen, but it is safe to say that if the enthusiasm of the trap shots is any indication, the number of nominations will be as much larger this season as last year's list was greater than that of 1898.

To get a list of the most prominent shots who will sight guns at the birds, one needs but to look over a list of the skilled shots. Mayor Thomas A. Marshall, of Keithsburg, Ill., twice winner of the handicap, will surely be a starter. That he will be on the back mark with J. A. R. Elliott, Capt. Jack Brewer, Charles Grimm and Dr. Carver is not doubted by the critics. Then there will be Fred Gilbert, of Spirit Lake, Ia.; Rollo A. Heikes, of Ohio; E. S. Rice, Ed. Bingham, John Watson, H. B.

E. S. RICE.

Morgan, R. A. Welch, G. S. McAlpin, Walton Ferguson, Capt. Money, H. Y. Dolan, W. A. H. Stafford, J. P. Knapp, H. B. Gilbert, L. T. Duryea, G. B. Magoun, George Ward, V. L. Cunningham, W. P. Hicks and a host of others.

If present plans do not miscarry, two women will be competitors in the event. Mrs. Shattuck, a shot of great skill, and Mrs. M. Lindley, known as "Wanda," have announced their intention to compete.

One of the least of Mr. Shaner's many duties connected with the handicap is the receipt of entries and the turning over of the lists to the handicap committee to arrange the allowances, March 28. The manager must provide at least 20,000 pigeons for the shoot. Mr. Shaner has begun his hunt for strong flying birds, so that the shots may have the hardest kind of work in getting a big kill. Slower and heavier pigeons would be manifestly better marks for the guns of the experts. In many a contest a strong, muscular bird has flown over the boundary line so much dreaded by the shots, carrying a load of lead in his body. Of course the scorer says "lost bird" in such a case. "A sucker" with the same amount of shot in its body would fall within a few feet of the place where he fluttered when hit.

Among the western shots who have come up in the last few years is Richard Dwyer, the race-track starter. He would rather handle a shot gun at a shoot even on the coldest of days than go to a theater. He is now practicing daily for the G. A. H., and his friends say that he will give Elliott and Gilbert a hard run. "The born shots," men who are most prominent in the ranks of trap artists to-day, will not deny that practice is a great factor in their victories at the traps, whether shooting at targets or flying birds. A few days' trial to "get the eye in" is absolutely necessary. So it may be taken for granted that the experts who will shoot in the G. A. H. are even now burning powder in practice.

CARELESS DRIVING.

Member of the Salvation Army Knocked Off His Wheel on Front Street.

An exhibition of careless driving was seen about 10:30 o'clock this morning at the corner of Park avenue and Front street. A man driving a spirited horse, attached to a buckboard wagon, dashed out of Somerset street, going at a terrific rate of speed. At the corner of Park avenue and East Front street the rig collided with a young man riding a wheel. The bicyclist was run down and the handle bars of his wheel smashed. When the young man picked himself up one of his hands were bleeding from a severe wound. The driver of the vehicle did not stop to ascertain what damage had been done, but kept on up Park avenue.

The young man who was run down refused to give his name. He was dressed in the uniform of the Salvation Army. The name of the driver of the rig is said to be Blume and lives at Washingtonville.

MARRIED TEN YEARS.

Pleasant Surprise Tendered to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore.

A pleasant surprise was tendered last evening to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, of Westervelt avenue, in honor of the tenth anniversary of their marriage. The party met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Startup and from there proceeded to the home of the surprised couple, where a most enjoyable time was had by everyone. Sociability was the feature and Mr. and Mrs. Moore received the hearty congratulations of all, who wished them many happy returns of the day. During the evening a pleasant repast was served and at a reasonable hour the guests departed for their home.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. C. Frank French, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Startup, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs H. W. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. VanDyke, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. VanFleet, Mr. and Mrs. Bingaman, Miss Mary L. VanEps, Miss Evelyn Searing, Miss Horton, Miss Emma Hantsch and E. Burroughs.

Flag Half masted for Dead Horse.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, March 23.—Old Dan, the pet fire horse of the Elizabeth department, which figured prominently in every fire parade, died yesterday afternoon aged forty-eight. It is claimed he was the oldest fire horse in New Jersey, and was the first one to do any fire duty in Elizabeth. The animal was owned by Rolla Engine Company. The engine house flag is being displayed at half staff, and the faithful old horse will be given a burial befitting his long and valuable service. He had done fire duty since 1866.

GYPSY LEADER DEAD.

James Harrison Died at Frenchtown—One of Best Judges of Horseflesh in the Country.

James Harrison, the oldest member of the Harrison family of gypsies in America, died near Frenchtown, N. J., March 6th, last, after an illness with Bright's disease and heart trouble. Several of the best-known physicians in this State were summoned to treat him, but nothing could be done for him. The funeral was held near the place where he died and his remains were interred in a cemetery at Washington, where he owned considerable property. It is said that his remains were placed in one of the handsomest and most costly caskets that money could purchase.

Mr. Harrison was about 60 years of age and was considered one of the best judges of horseflesh in this country. He was born in England, and has lived in this country about forty years. Years ago he sold the celebrated horse "Gypsy Queen" to the late William Moore. He was very wealthy and during his life has owned some of the best bred trotting and pacing horses in the country.

He leaves several sons and a daughter, the latter now being Queen of the tribes of gypsies. This honor was bestowed on her last summer when the tribe was near Netherwood. At present the tribe is camping out on Mountain avenue, in the borough, where they will remain for several days.

GOLD WATCH FOR PASTOR.

Rev. E. E. Jackson Received a Gold Watch From His Parishioners Last Evening.

Dr. Richardson, a well-known entertainer, appeared at Mt. Olive Baptist church last evening before a large audience and gave one of his interesting entertainments. It was under the auspices of the King's Daughters and the members of the organization provided refreshments afterward. A handsome gold watch was presented to the pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson, as a reward for his successful work. The some of $48.92 was realized.

Next Thursday evening "Black Hattie" will appear at this church and give a number of vocal solos. This will be the occasion of the pastor's birthday anniversary. There will be excellent addresses by well-known clergymen from this and other places. Pastor Jackson urges all his people to attend the services next Sunday at the church when the remaining $64 will be raised to clear the church debt. The subject Sunday evening will be "The Bottle in the Smoke, and How to Get It."

ENDEAVOR WORKERS.

Committees Appointed in the First Baptist Church Society.

The executive committee of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church, comprising the officers and chairmen of the various committees, met last evening for the first at the home of the president, Geo. F. Brown, Grove street, when plans for the coming year's work were discussed. It was unanimously decided that if possible to promote more sociability among the members of the society and the church and thus secure the interest of persons who are not members and who do not attend the meetings. After a discussion of plans announcement was made of the following, who will compose the committees:

Lookout committee, Mrs. M. Pierce, chairman; Miss Carrie V. Drake, Miss Mary French, Miss Jessie Saxton, Charles Conover, Robert Barnes; prayer meeting committee, Miss H. O. Mattison, chairman; Mrs. H. Y. Flanders, Miss Nettie Haffner, Miss Velma Oakley, L. H. Biglow, Jr., J. Henry Crane; missionary committee, Miss Ida Yerkes, chairman; Mrs. H. Y. Flanders, Miss Alice Woodland, J. Herbert Case, Dr. W. K. Browning, D. R. Douglas: social committee, Dr. W. K. Browning, chairman; Miss Bertha Needham, Miss Susie Woodland, Miss Margaret Harold, Clifford Braider, John G. MacLaughlin; music committee, Clifford Braider, chairman; Mrs. Tennyson, Miss Florence Marsh, Miss Margaret Harold, L. H. Biglow, Jr., Harold Serrell; flower committee, Miss Susie Woodland, chairman; Miss Della Grant, Miss L. Gerhold, Miss Florence Carver, Miss Grace TenEyck, N. Douglass Drake; welcome and press committee, N. Douglass Drake, chairman; Miss May Serrell, Miss Alice Woodland, Miss Carrie V. Drake, J. Henry Crane, D. R. Douglas.

"Owl" Train Delayed at Cranford.

The westbound local train on the Jersey Central, leaving New York at 12:15 o'clock and reaching Plainfield at 1:17 o'clock, met with misfortune at Cranford last night. A breakdown to the train caused a delay of an hour and a-half in reaching Plainfield. There were a number from this city who had been to the theatre and were returning home.

OLD CONTRACTOR DEAD.

William Cortright Passed Away at His Home This Morning at the Age of Seventy-five Years.

William Cortright, aged seventy-five years, died this morning at his home corner of West Fifth and New streets, after an illness of some days. He was born in Sussex county, this State, and at an early age learned the trade of a carpenter. He went to Cairo, Ill., where he was employed along the Mississippi river. He then went to Rochester, Minn., and from there he went to Ripon, Wis., where he bought a farm. He was married there.

After spending a few years at that place he came back to New Jersey and bought a farm at Somerville, where he remained for sometime. He then took up his residence at Scotch Plains. In 1869 he came to Plainfield and here followed his profession up to a few years ago. His wife died two years ago. His illness resulting in death lasted about three weeks. He was a man of much wealth, and only yesterday he made his will.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' MUSICALE.

Given for Benefit of Nurse, and Was a Financial Success.

The Bright Side Circle, King's Daughters, gave a musicale last night at the home of Mrs. J. A. Powlison, 203 Somerset street, for the benefit of Miss Delaney, the city nurse. There were about forty-five persons present and the financial success was very gratifying to those who were in charge.

The programme was a select one and thoroughly enjoyed. It included piano duets by Dr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Buchanan; piano solos by Miss Cairns; recitations by Miss May Serrell; whistling solos by C. M. Evans; instrumental trios by the Misses LaBoyteaux and Martin. The musical selections were by well-known composers and the recitations were from standard works. Miss VanFleet was the accompanist for the evening. After the rendition of the programme a social time was spent and refreshments were served.

Won Prizes Playing Euchre.

The Thursday Evening Euchre Club was entertained pleasantly last evening by Miss May MacLoughlin, of Somerset street, when the members enjoyed the usual good time. There were five tables. Owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams could not attend, there places were taken by Mrs. Carrie Colfax, of Bloomfield, and John Steiner, of the borough. The contest for honors was close. Miss Lillian A. Force and Mrs. Herbert Taylor were awarded first and second for the ladies, while Theodore Mantz and H. C. VanEmburgh won the first and second honors for the men. After the games dancing was enjoyed and before the members departed for home supper was served. The next meeting of the club will be the last for the season.

James McFadden Dead.

James McFadden died at his home on West Fourth street yesterday afternoon after an illness lasting only a few days. He was seventy-seven years of age and had lived in Plainfield many years. He was born in Ireland. For several years he has been an employe of the street department, and was a familiar character about the city streets in the business section. He leaves several children. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Have You Ever Used It?

S. and R. Chocolate Jelly for cake filling and icing, it is always ready. No sugar; no boiling. Ladies who have used this jelly will have no other chocolate, or try to prepare a cake filling themselves, as in almost every case they find it very unsatisfactory, usually tough and gritty, and while the cake is still soft and nice, the filling will be hard. Cakes made with this jelly are decidedly to the contrary. When the cake is dry and hard (if kept long) you will find the jelly still smooth and soft. You will like the flavor. It is made from the finest chocolate of special blending. It makes delicious hot chocolate at a cost of about one cent a cup. A teaspoonful is the ordinary quantity used, but people's tastes differ—some may want a little more and some less. All that is necessary is hot water and cream or milk (whipped cream is best). Nothing so convenient for afternoon teas. Everybody is invited to visit S. Scheuer & Co., West Front street grocers, and try a cup of this chocolate served with whipped cream. Free to all. 3 22 3

BRIDGES ARE NEEDED; WHO'LL BUILD THEM?

Street Department and Freeholders Want Information on That Subject.

LAW IS NOT QUITE CLEAR.

COMPELLED TO FORD CEDAR BROOK AT JACKSON AND MIDWAY AVENUES.

Culvert at Netherwood Avenue is Too Small to Provide for Freshets—Residents Petitioned Street Department for Aid.

Bridges are needed at Jackson and Midway avenues over Cedar brook, while the present bridge at Netherwood avenue over the same stream needs a successor. Meanwhile the city street department and the Union County Board of Freeholders are trying to find out just which one must bear the expense of these bridges.

Cedar brook is a peculiar sort of a stream. During most of the summer there isn't any water in the brook at all, only a dry water course. In the winter, especially after a thaw, there is a fair-sized stream. When a heavy thaw sets in or a big storm comes along, the brook occasionally becomes so large that the banks are overflowed.

At Netherwood avenue there is a small culvert to allow the water to pass under the thoroughfare. It is amply sufficient on ordinary occasions but several times this winter the water has been blocked there and overflowed the roadway to the depth of nearly two feet. There are no bridges on Jackson and Midway avenues at all. It is a case of wade when there is any water in the brook. Now that that section of the city is building up, such a state of affairs is very unpleasant.

There isn't any doubt but that bridges are needed. The residents of that section brought the matter before the street department by petitioning that a twenty-four inch iron pipe be laid to carry the water under the roadway. Such a pipe would be very expensive and by no means adequate in case of a freshet. The street department saw the force of the request for some kind of a bridge, but thought that the Freeholders built the bridges.

The matter was called to the attention of the Board of Freeholders but, as the stream was not a live one all the year round, the Board argued that it was the duty of the city to build the bridges. Had it been a live stream or outside of the city, it was admitted as part of the duty of the Board.

Director Hubbard, of the Board of Freeholders, has promised to visit the place and look over the situation. If he reports favorably the Board will undoubtedly reconsider its action and build the bridges. The street department is willing to build the bridges if the law reads to that effect but not unless. If the Board refuses the matter will be brought to the attention of the Council and information asked from the Corporation Counsel.

BURIAL OF B. M. SHANLEY.

Thousands Go to the Funeral of the Newark Trolley Magnate.

The funeral of Bernard M. Shanley, the millionaire trolley king, took place Thursday morning from his late residence, 82 Washington street, Newark. Ten o'clock was the hour for the funeral, but long before that time the streets in the neighborhood were crowded. The house was crowded with people in all stations of life Among those from Philadelphia were Messrs. Widener and Elkins and Thos. Dolan.

Eight policemen carried the casket from the Shanley residence across the street to St. Patrick's Cathedral, where the services were held. The family and friends followed. Rev. J. J. O'Connor, vicar-general of the diocese of Newark, celebrated a high mass of requiem, and Mgr Doane spoke most feelingly of Mr Shanley, whom he had known almost from the cradle. The regular choir was augmented by Miss Hilke, soprano, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York; Miss Bloodgood, contralto; Mr. McKinley, tenor, and Carl Duff, basso.

At the cemetery of the Holy Sepulchre the remains were deposited in the Shanley mausoleum. Two cars and several wagons were laden with the flowers.

Bought Woodland.

Frank and Augustus Mobus, of Watchung, have purchased the wood in Somerset Park, formerly owned by the late Paul Roehricht, and they are cutting and moving it to their farm.

Building Boom in Netherwood.

There is much promise of a building boom in Netherwood this spring and the indications are that several fine dwelling houses will be erected.

TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES AT FUNERAL OF LATE MRS. GILBERT.

Large Attendance of Mourners—Life of the Deceased Eulogized by Rev. Dr. Yerkes.

The love and respect in which the late Mrs. Louise Fitz Randolph, wife of Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, was held by the entire community was evidenced yesterday afternoon when the Gilbert residence on West Eighth street was crowded with Plainfield's most prominent residents who came to do honor to the memory of their well beloved friend.

The casket was set in the library, elaborately banked in flowers, in mass and set pieces. White roses, carnations and lilies made a beautiful effect. Rev. Dr. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which Mrs. Gilbert was a member, conducted the solemn and impressive service.

He spoke feelingly of his long acquaintance with Mrs. Gilbert and his profound respect for her and her bright Christian character. She was a joy, he said, not only to her household but to the coterie of friends that always surrounded her. The happy greeting and genial smile would never be forgotten. The home, he declared, had been a veritable temple of domestic happiness. The evidences of her handiwork and the graces and tastes of her soul were visible in the various works of arts that decorated her home. However beautiful, this was really the least feature of that life. Her beautiful Christian character and many virtues were an adornment through which and by which the world was made better by her life now ended on earth.

A quartette, composed of Mrs. J. K. Myers, Mrs. Irving Brown, C. W. McCutchen and D. E. Titsworth, sang effectively.

Mayor George W. Rockfellow, several Councilmen and a number of others prominent in municipal affairs were in attendance, besides a number of other well-known Plainfielders. A delegation from the Fulton and Market National Bank, of New York, of which Mr. Gilbert is president, was present.

The interment at Hillside cemetery followed immediately after the service.

TO LORRAINE BY APRIL 1ST.

Trolley May Also Be Extended to Elizabeth City Line by End of the Month.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Roselle, March 24—The iron for the trolley crossing on First avenue at the Lehigh Valley spur arrived Wednesday morning and is now being placed in position.

It is expected the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company will have cars running through this place to Lorraine, and possibly the city line of Elizabeth, by April 1st.

At the last meeting of the Borough Council the street committee was empowered to grant the trolley company an extension of time for a few days in the event of the Lehigh Valley crossing not being completed by April 1st, and the cars running in accordance with the franchise granted the company.

Schools Closed in Metuchen.

At Metuchen the authorities have been compelled to close all the public schools on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever and measels. Nearly one hundred cases have been reported within the week, and, as a last resort, Dr. E. B. Dana was compelled to call the attention of the School Board to the existing condition of affairs. The schools were then closed and notices were sent to all parents asking their co-operation to prevent the spread of the disease.

Killed Running for a Train.

Wm. Pyscher, aged sixty-seven, ran across the Delaware river bridge from Easton, Pa., to catch a train at the Pennsylvania station in Phillipsburg yesterday, and fell dead of heart trouble on the platform as the train pulled in. He was a wealthy and retired farmer of Flicksville, Pa., and had been to Easton on business with two brothers and a sister.

Prominent Grange Dead.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 24.—Vincent R. Matthews, sixty eight years old, died Thursday at his home in Lambertville. Mr. Matthews was president of the Consolidated Viligant Societies of New Jersey and Pennsylvania and was one of the most prominent men in the promotion of the Grangers in this State.

HIS DEATH UNEXPECTED.

GEORGE W. F. RANDOLPH PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY THIS MORNING.

Had Been Ill for Sometime, But Was Thought to be Improving—Always Lived in Plainfield.

George W. F. Randolph, a well-known citizens of the West End, died suddenly this morning at his home, 909 West Front street, after an illness of about three weeks.

About the middle of last June Mr. Randolph sustained a paralytic stroke and at the time his life was considered to be in danger. Through the skill of Dr. Endicott, the family physician, Mr. Randolph partially recovered though he continued in a feeble condition. His illness compelled him to remain inactive since last July, when he temporarily resigned his position in the Quartermaster's office in New York.

Three weeks ago Mr. Randolph was afflicted with the grip and was for several days a very sick man. He revived somewhat, however, from this illness and his family believed him to be on the way to recovery. Last night Mr. Randolph's condition grew so bad as to greatly alarm his wife and daughter. Mrs. Randolph was so much concerned about her husband that she remained with him until late in the night. She had gone to take a short rest just before daylight leaving her daughter to keep watch of the sufferer.

It was about 5:20 o'clock when Mrs. Groendyke, Mr. Randolph's daughter, noticed a change in her father's condition. Mrs. Groendyke immediately summoned her mother and husband. The members were gathered about the bedside when Mr. Randolph breathed his last.

The death of George W. F. Randolph has removed a well-known citizen. He was born 72 years ago in a house opposite the home in which he died on West Front street. The deceased was a son of Ira F. and Sarah Pond Randolph. His father was a hatter by trade and for several years carried on the hat business in a shop on West Front street. George was the eldest son. His early life was passed in New York city where at the age of 16 he became identified with the late William B. Clarkson in the flour and feed business on Front street He was also at one time in the employ of Thomas A. Edison.

Mr. Randolph is best remembered, however, as a member of the Board of Freeholders of Union county, a position of trust to which he was elected for several successive terms. At one time he was identified with the street department, being street commissioner for a term or two under the administration of Mayor Stillman.

About this period in Mr. Randolph's business career he was also interested in contracts with the firm of Spottswood & Co., which did much of the early macadamizing of certain streets, principally Park avenue and Somerset street.

For the past fifteen years, however, Mr. Randolph has been a faithful employe in the Quartermaster's Department, located in the Armory building on Whitehall street, New York. His efficiency in the particular line of work to which he was assigned was recognized by his superiors, and he was held in respect by his colleagues for his untiring devotion and his painstaking efforts to satisfactorily perform cheerfully the arduous duties he was intrusted with. His last work was done in July when he was compelled to leave the office owing to his shattered health.

In early life Mr. Randolph married Mary C. Keilar, of Norwalk, Ohio, who with one daughter, Mrs. John Groendyke, their only child, survives. Mr. Randolph came of Quaker stock and his characteristics were those so proverbial in this class of people. Being of a mild disposition and a man of exemplary habit traits that endeared him to many friends, the death of Mr. Randolph will cause expressions of general sympathy to be extended by his many friends in this city and New York toward the afflicted wife and daughter. Although not a member of any church denomination, Mr. Randolph displayed a truly Christian spirit in dealing with his fellow man. His friends were legion and those who knew him best loved him for the many excellent characteristics of an exemplary life.

The funeral services will be held from the home of the late deceased at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The interment will be at the convenience of the family. It is probable that Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., pastor of Trinity Reformed church, will officiate.

—Union Bible class, taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns, will meet at Y. M. C. A. Hall Monday, at 7:45 p. m. All are invited.

MARCONNIER NOW AN ADJUNCT OF TRINITY

Oak Tree Chapel Passes Into the Hands of the Plainfield Church.

AGREEMENTS ARE SIGNED.

PROCEEDINGS GONE THROUGH WITH LAST EVENING.

Official Transfer Will Take Place Tomorrow Afternoon—Several Members of the Chapel Accepted by the Officials of Trinity.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., pastor of Trinity Reformed church, accompanied by the elders of the church and several members, went to Oak Tree last evening by stage and conducted a preparatory service in Marconnier chapel, which has recently become a branch of Trinity Reformed church. The pretty chapel was well filled with worshippers and the service was an impressive and helpful one.

Rev. Henry T. Jones, of Bayonne, who up to two years ago was the pastor of the chapel, was present and opened the service with prayer and Scripture reading, after which Rev. Mr. Schenck took charge and spoke for a few minutes from the text found in Matthew 26th chapter and 26th verse. His remarks were appropriate to the celebration of the Lord's Supper which will be observed tomorrow afternoon, and were especially helpful to the many present who had come to affiliate with Trinity Reformed church Mr. Schenck gave wise counsel and explained the meaning of observing the death of Christ. He said that although there were many families all were one in the family of Christ. In concluding his remarks he offered words of encouragement to all.

Following the first part of the service Pastor Schenck and the elders received those present, who so desired, into membership of Trinity church, after examination. There were six persons who joined by letter and eight on confession of their faith. In two instances two entire families joined and the experience of some of the members was very impressive. All satisfied the pastor and elders of their worthiness for membership and they were heartily received. At the service tomorrow there will be interesting exercises, including special music.

Last evening the formal turning over of the deed for the property and the signing of the agreements took place. Lawyer J. P. D. Kirch was present to see that everything was done legally. The official transfer of the property will take place tomorrow with other exercises.

Rev. George A. Cain, pastor of the New Dover M. E. church, assisted in the services last evening by presiding at the piano, and Mrs. Marconnier Schwenk assisted in arranging the services, especially the latter part. It was after this lady that the chapel was named, and both she and her husband are earnest workers there.

Red Men Had a Good Time.

After the regular meeting of Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men last evening, the good and welfare committee provided an entertainment and collation. The entertainment included phonograph selections under charge of Whitney Frazee; buck dancing and club swinging by brother Edward Galbraith; phonoharp, with harmonica accompaniment, by brother James Townsend; highland fling, Past Sachem Slorah; vocal duet by brothers Galbraith and Allen; talk by Great Sachem Newcorn and Past Sachems Holstein and Allen. Great Sachem Newcorn then delivered an address on the order into the phonograph and the address was immediately reproduced.

Colored Pythians to Attend Divine Service.

Goodwill Lodge, No. 8, K. of P, will attend divine services tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Filmore Baptist church, and hear a sermon appropriate to the occasion by Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor. L. L. Croom, district deputy grand chancellor, will be in charge and take part in the services.

Positions for Students.

Three more students of Plainfield Business College have just obtained positions, namely: Miss Kepler, with Judge Runyon, Plainfield; Miss Esander, with Chase Bicycle Tire Co., New York; and Wm. Buckley, in Master Mechanic's office, N. J. R. R., Elizabethport.

To Change Plan of Government.

A special meeting of John Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., will be held Monday evening next to consider amendments to the constitution and by-laws which will make the camp a beneficial organization. A full attendance of members is desired.

A JOB FOR DR. CARROLL.

PRESIDENT McKINLEY WILL PROBABLY OFFER HIM A PLACE.

But it is Not Expected That it Will be Governor-General of Porto Rico.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, President McKinley's special commission to Porto Rico, to examine into the affairs of the Island, returned last evening from Washington, where he was in attendance at the session of the executive committee of the ecumenical conference of Methodists that will be held in London in September, 1901. The sessions were held to further the interests of the coming convention and was attended by persons high in authority in Methodistism. While in Washington Dr. Carroll had the pleasure of presenting the various members of the executive committee to President McKinley, who received them most cordially.

In connection with Dr. Carroll's visit to Washington, it can be stated that there is little likelihood that he will be sent to Porto Rico as Governor of the island. He has not a very strong desire to take the position and unless it is forced upon him he will probably not accept it. However, the Porto Ricans would be glad to have him accept the position for they want a person in that place whom they can trust, knowing that they will be treated fairly. It is rumored that Dr. Carroll may be given a post somewhere else, one that will be of more importance than that in Porto Rico. President McKinley recognizes in Dr. Carroll a man of peculiar ability and worth and is desirous of placing him where he will be of the most value.

BAD BOYS THESE.

Seven West End Youngsters Lectured by City Judge Runyon.

Seven little woe-begone faces peered at City Judge Runyon this morning over the rail in the City Court. The charge was for stoning Kussel Sachar, a German Hebrew, March 5th. Two of the boys were also accused of killing his chickens.

The lads gave their names as John Gray, Russell Randolph, David Bowden, Willie Mattox, Walter Malley, James Perkins and Nathan Polland. The two last are colored. They told their stories, only Bowden and Mattox admitting that they had thrown any stones. They accused Sachar of beating Charles Waldron, an innocent lad, and cursing at them.

The Judge ordered the boys locked up until 4 o'clock, when they were brought before him again. He released them after a long lecture, the boys promising to go forth and sin no more.

WEEKLY REVIEW ON HAND.

North Plainfield's Journalistic Enterprise Makes Its Initial Appearance.

The initial issue of the North Plainfield Weekly Review made its appearance today. It is owned and edited by Harry H. Webb, who, besides being a practical printer, has had some rather thrilling experiences in editing newspapers in the wild and wooly west.

However, it is to be presumed that his career in the "local Canada" will be one grand sweet song, with eventually a big bank account to his credit. That is the wish of The Daily Press to the new editor anyway. The Review is neat and up-to-date in typographical appearance, and after Mr. Webb has had a little more experience in the local field he will undoubtedly make his paper much better.

Now Without a Hand.

John Cahill, an old-time musician and leader of an orchestra for picnics and balls in Elizabeth, lost his left hand a few years ago while working over a circular saw. As he could no longer play a violin he gave up music. Last evening Cahill's right hand was caught in the same saw and was cut off. Now he is a helpless cripple.

Special Fasting Week.

The Methodist churches at Ocean Grove, West Grove and Bradley Beach will unite in observing the week of prayer and fasting, March 25th to April 1st, as recommended at the late New Jersey conference by Bishop Hurst. Services will be held in these churches alternately every night during the week.

Died in the Philippines.

Mrs. Archibald McFee, of New Brunswick, has received word of the death of her grandson, Edward Beatty, in Luzon. Beatty enlisted from Philadelphia in one of the volunteer regiments. He was drowned in fording a stream. The body will be brought to this country for burial.

Sprinkling the Streets.

The streets are being sprinkled today and the residents are very thankful. Commencing with Monday next P. M. French will resume the work of keeping the dust down.

SCHEME OF THE CENTRAL

PROJECT TO EXTEND THE LINE TO ELLIS ISLAND.

In This Way Immigrants Could be Handled Direct—May Eventually Touch Staten Island.

A well-defined rumor is current that the Central Railroad will endeavor to increase its facilities in a remarkable manner. It is said that it has a plan which for largeness and utility outshines that of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company It is proposed, it is said, to extend its line out from the Communipaw shore to the immigrant station at Ellis Island.

The Central Railroad handles a large number of immigrants (it carried 400 west last night), and if this plan was carried out it could take them direct from the island and save extra transportation and the confusion which arises from many shiftings of the immigrants. This, however, would be but the first step in the great scheme contemplated, which is no less than to run the Central Railroad all the way across New York Bay to Staten Island.

There is a well defined ridge of rock known as Oyster Reef, from Bedlow's Island to Robbin's Reef light. This is part of the riparian land of the State. The Riparian Board in 1891 had a plan for utilizing this land, but the plan was vetoed by the United States Government at the time.

It is said that the plan will be revived and a strong effort made to get the sanction of the War Department to its adoption. If permission is given the State to utilize the reef and Jersey flats, the Central Railroad and its connections will, it is said, acquire the entire strip. This done the road will be extended from Jersey City to Ellis Island, to Bedlow's Island to two artificial islands contemplated, where immense wharves and storage warehouses will be built, to Robbin's Reef, and so on over by trestle and drawbridge to Staten Island. Between each of the islands there would be, under the plans proposed, a wide passage for navigation, which would be crossed by drawbridge.

FOR SELF PROTECTION.

Machinery Manufacturers Organized so as to be Ready for a Strike if it Comes.

C. E Vail, acting secretary of the New York and New Jersey Machinery Manufacturers' Association, says that there is no truth in the report that his organization would retaliate with a lockout should the Machinists' Union order a general strike. Notwithstanding such denials, it is well known that the threat of the western leaders of organized labor to tie up machine shops throughout the country unless the nine hour day is granted to all employes has carried such weight with local members of the National Metal Trade Association as to cause them to take immediate steps toward organizing for their own protection. The new organization is only partially formed, but when completed will include the machine manufacturers of New York and adjacent towns, including Plainfield.

A Timely Warning.

A prolific source of human ills is the habit many people have of of indulging in patent medicines whenever they feel out of sorts. Not knowing the cause of their ailments they throw away their good money for what too often proves to be pernicious results. Many of the causes of human suffering arises from the insidious effects of weakening sight, and before resorting to injurious nostrums, it would be wise to learn whenever or not this is the cause of your infirmity. All doubt on this point will be dispelled by a free examination at Collier's, 103 Park avenue.

Shot a Deer.

Kenneth Anderson, of this city, who has been at Lake Placid, in the Adirondacks, for the benefit of his health, had great luck a week ago in shooting a large deer. He sent the skin home to his sister and it will be made into a rug A letter accompanied the prize which tells of the capture. Mr. Anderson is greatly improved in health and is enjoying life immensely.

Died for Joy.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Montclair, March 24.—Mrs. Mary Ann Jordan, 56 years old, fell dead at a revival service in the Union Baptist Colored church Thursday night from heart disease, the attack being induced by her great delight over the conversion of her granddaughter. She jumped up, cried "Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!" and fell back dead.

Annual Meeting of Park Golf Club

The annual meeting of the Park Golf Club will be held at the Park Clubhouse, Tuesday evening, April 3d. At that time directors will be elected and some changes will be made to the constitution.

LEGISLATURE ENDED ITS WORK LAST NIGHT

The Wind-up Came Near Midnight and the Assemblymen Indulged in Wild Antics.

BRUSH ON A RAILROAD BILL.

MR. BENNY PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO THE "THIRD HOUSE."

Presentations Made to the Officers of Both Houses—But Little Important Legislation Has Been Enacted During the Session.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 24.—It was nearly midnight when the 124th session of the New Jersey Legislature came to an end and the wind-up was in the midst of singing, flying public documents and boisterous shouts. The horse play began in the House a little past 10 o'clock when the House calendars were cleared. Assemblyman Meeker was called to the chair and he had no sooner picked up the gavel than he was bombarded with books until he was obliged to retreat to the Speaker's room.

In the afternoon, Leader Benny, of the Democratic forces, presented, on behalf of the members of the House, a gold watch and chain to Speaker Jones. Bill Clerk Powell was given a diamond ring, and Sergeant-at-Arms Tantum a gold watch and chain, and charm studded with diamonds. Assemblyman Wright, of Burlington county, who stood with the Hudson County Democrats for the abolishment of capital punishment, was presented with a gold watch chain by Assemblyman Carroll, spokesman for the Hudson county delegation. Sergeant-at Arms of the Senate Garwood was presented with a gold-headed cane.

The session has lasted ten weeks and in that period the weary lawmakers have filled in about 80 total working hours, or ten 8 hour days. Their pay is $500 for the session so that they get about $6.25 per hour for their arduous duties.

There has been little really important legislation enacted at this session, but the work has been carefully done and it has been many years since the calendars were as clear on the closing day as the presiding officers of the Senate and House found them this morning.

Assemblyman Benny, of Hudson, and Bradley, of Camden, locked horns yesterday morning on House bill No. 7, which provides that no locomotive with Wootton or similar firebox shall be run without two firemen. It was the same bill that Benny undertook to get through the House last winter and failed. It was endorsed, he said, by 60,000 railroad employes and was in the interest of patrons of the railroad. The Pennsylvania Company had adopted the plan. Benny said that he was sure that this was his last year in the Legislature, and he warned the members that the State was on the brink of a precipice that would prove its ruin if it was not avoided. The lobbyists, he thought, were slowly but surely pushing the majority toward the edge of the chasm.

Assemblyman Bradley took exceptions to what he thought was an insinuation that he had been influenced by lobbyists. He said that he had never been guilty of a dishonest action since he became a member of the Legislature. The bill, he thought, was a bad one because it forced the railroads to employ extra and unnecessary help which would add an expense of upward of $90 000 a year to the running expenses of the Erie Railroad alone.

The bill was one on which a good many members of the House did not want to vote on and they quietly disappeared until after the vote had been announced. Not enough votes were cast to either pass or defeat the bill, and Benny changed from the affirmative to the negative so that he might later in the day move a reconsideration. It availed him nothing, however, for when he undertook to have the vote reconsidered he failed and the measure fell by the way, while the active members of the "third house" smiled broadly.

Senator McDermott, Democrat, introduced a resolution in the Senate asking that sympathy be expressed for the Boers in their struggle to maintain their independence. The resolution declared that, whatever the excuse for the war at the start, the Boers had sued for peace, which had been refused them, and Great Britain must now be considered in the light of an oppressor. The members of the Senate did not take kindly to the resolution, and, on motion, it was referred to the committee on federal relations.

A Job for Bunion.

What's this we see—George Squiers, the Union county politician, going to make a dive into the theatrical pond. According to the New York Journal the former Assemblyman is negotiating for the lease of a building on Fulton street in New York in which he proposes to open a theatre to be devoted to the "continuous." The Journal observes that Mr. Squires undoubtedly got considerable experience in the show business in the Assembly at Trenton, but it was scarcely of the legitimate kind. Mr. Squire's particular mission will be to amuse wealthy bankers, curbstone operators, doleful street fakirs, messenger boys, typewriters chewing tutti fruiti, et cetra, et cetra. He thinks he sees a mint of money in it—more, in fact, than there is in the political game.

We know that Mr. Squiers is just dying for suggestions in connection with his show enterprise, and we cannot resist the chance to offer him a little advice. One of the essential features of a successful theatrical venture is a press agent, and to our mind the man that he needs to fill that place will be found in the person of our esteemed editorial friend, Mr. Bunion. Mr. Bunion, if our memory do not deceive us, has heretofore devoted his talent to exploiting Mr. Squiers before the dear public, and as a pusher of publicity for the latter's theatre we imagine that he would just about fill the bill.

The opportunity for any New Jersey town to try the voting machine was killed in the Assembly Thursday, when the bill permitting such municipalities as desired to try the experiment to do so, was killed by a vote of fourteen for to twenty-nine against. The bill was not mandatory in any way, but notwithstanding it was defeated without much ado. It is to be regretted. If the bill had become a law some town would undoubtedly have made the experiment of using voting machines. Then it could be seen whether they worked good or bad. It is a fact, however, that they are used in a number of other States with the most satisfactory results. Despite the defeat of the scheme, the day is coming when some method will be devised to receive and compile the vote in New Jersey in a much more expeditious manner than the present cumbersome and slow system permits.

It scarcely seems possible, but it is given out as an actual fact that Ocean Grove—thatstraight-laced municipality down by the sea—is considering the possibility of securing the National Republican convention to meet there. Ocean Grove people have got the idea in their heads that in case Philadelphia fails to keep its financial promises with the Republican leaders it will be an easy thing to induce the G. O. P. organization, with Uncle Mark Hanna at the head, to move over to the seaside Jersey town and hold the great political assemblage there. Just imagine, if you can, several thousand excited politicians from all over the country trying to observe the strict rules laid down for the conduct of those within the precincts of Ocean Grove!

It is a matter for congratulation on the part of all people living along the line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey that the trouble between the employes of the company and its executive officials has been adjusted amicably without resorting to the extreme of a strike. It is very—very seldom that a strike avails good to anyone, be they directly or indirectly concerned, and it is therefore gratifying to know that there has been no serious clash between the two elements that go to make up a great railroad system such as the Central is.

The Trenton True American points out: "What a contemporaneous prosperity, when millions are at the disposal of stock jobbers and trust boomers, and a great publishing house like D. Appleton & Co., with assets of over a million dollars, unencumbered by any mortgage, should go the wall for lack of capital. When two great publishing houses, like Harper's and Appleton's, are starved in the midst of plenty, there must be something wrong in the balance of affairs."

The public never "discovers" a merchant in the manner in which an author or a musician or an actor is discovered, says the Philadelphia Record. No friendly hand can drag the merchant from obscurity and make him famous. He must push himself to the front. He must be the architect of his own fortune. With the aid of the wonderful lamp of publicity every shrewd business man can become an Aladdin.

Judging by appearances, it looks as though Tom Lane, late of Summit, but now a colonel on the staff of the Democratic Governor of Kentucky, might be called to the front in double quick time. Things begin to look war-like down in the blue-grass country over the question of who is governor—Beckham or Taylor. Never fear, however, but what Thomas will be on hand to do his duty.

It is believed in financial circles that the Third avenue wreckers will be allowed to escape, the new management preferring to devote its time to the rehabilitation of the property rather than to the prosecution of the guilty ones. To put the property on a firm business basis is a manifest duty; but the wreckers should be punished.

An Elizabeth woman is suing her husband for divorce and has named seven co-respondents in her bill of particulars, and in addition claims to have a total of thirty names which can be dragged into the scandal if necessary. It looks like a good year for the lawyers at the county seat.

If the Legislature had worked one-tenth as hard during its early days as it did during the four preceding adjournment sine die, the session would have been curtailed by several weeks.

The Philadelphia Times thinks that a new century may justify the other kind, but as a delightful form of the new woman a great deal can be said of a girl baby.

The Carnegie Frick monoply is to reorganize with $200,000,000 under the laws of New Jersey. What a handy set we are for the trusts.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

A gentleman with a good deal of courage is going to start a weekly paper in North Plainfield. We assume he is doing it to make money, therefore we remark about his courage. Plainfield, just across the brook, has two lively dailies, and what news escapes them is hardly worth printing. The Weekly Review will not be badly-named, however. — New Brunswick Home News.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Want a Central Location.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Why do our City Fathers hesitate to locate the City Hall on East Front street, the geographical center of Plainfield, North and South, as they soon must become one city, for stronger reasons than we have a Greater New York. Only a few days since there has been another strong reason why the Plainfields should be one. We refer to the license question difference of $700 and $300, and that within a few feet of the dividing line.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

THE CARPET STORE.

We refer to it THE Carpet store for we know of no other this side of N. Y. that compares favorably with it. At present a busy place. By comparing goods and prices with those of N. Y. houses people have discovered that reliable and desirable carpets can be bought cheaper here than in N. Y. Our purchases we made early, before the rise in prices, which enables us to hold the price down pretty well, but on all duplicate orders we are compelled to pay the advance and some grades must be sold at a higher figure. Our advice may be safely taken. It is—buy now—or pay higher prices later.

Our English Cousins

Are peculiar in many ways.

They like to drink water without ice.

They would rather walk upstairs than take an elevator.

They use ordinary portable bath tubs in place of stationary porcelain or metal ones such as we have.

What seems to us the funniest thing of all is that they absolutely prefer chicory in their coffee.

It is easy enough for any one to get adulterated coffee in this country. But the good housewife watches carefully that she is not thus imposed upon.

Those who have learned by experience and wish to be absolutely sure that they are getting pure coffee and the best coffee, without a grain of adulteration, ask for and insist upon having Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

There is none better on the market. Every bean has been carefully selected from plantations, famous for their coffee crops.

The fact that these coffees bear the seal of Chase & Sanborn is in itself a sufficient guarantee that they are full weight and in every way perfect.

Seal Brand Coffee comes in one and two-pound tin cans, and their other high grades in richly colored parchment-lined imported bags.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

No acid except that from the grape—pure, healthful cream of tartar—is used in Royal Baking Powder.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent.

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you want to know the effect of alum upon the tender linings of the stomach, touch a piece to your tongue. You can raise biscuit with alum baking powder, but at what a cost to health!

It is Something to have the name of always presenting good values in a store. You know some stores get to be called "high price" places, true they get trade, but only from the over cautious. Other stores win a reputation for always having something good to offer day in and day out throughout the year, that's the kind of a store this is, a comfortable, cheerful, homelike place that seems always to be giving what we should call "bargains," if the word wasn't so much abused, but instead we'll call it rich values. Remember this on shopping day when you come down town and wonder why they are always so busy at the Crosby & Hill store.
